Section 8 Other Events

Item 8.01 Other Events

During the third quarter of 2007, it came to our attention that there was a clerical communications error, which affects our efforts in 2003 to re-domicile our state of incorporation from Florida to Nevada.

On July 31, 2003, we filed Articles of Merger in both Florida and Nevada to effect our re-domicile. However, on August 12, 2003 the Florida Secretary of State rejected our Articles of Merger. The Florida Secretary of State wanted original documents, not copies, which would be acceptable for computer imaging. The Company re-filed the Articles of Merger with the Florida Secretary of State as requested. However, Florida filed our Articles of Merger as of August 29, 2003 instead of July 31, 2003; an event that escaped our attention for more than four years.

The merger we attempted was a short form merger for which shareholder approval was not needed, if done correctly. Pursuant to Florida Business Corporation Act Section 607.1103(7), no shareholder approval is necessary if the merger is between two entities with identical Articles of Incorporation. At the time of the July 31, 2003 state filings, the Articles of Merger of the Florida corporation and the Nevada corporation were identical. Because of the temporarily rejected Florida filing, at the time of August 29, the articles of merger of the Florida Corporation and the Nevada Corporation were not identical. Unless the filing of the Articles of Merger in Florida are related back to July 31, 2003, these Articles of Merger would be deficient since no shareholder approval was obtained.

In our recent inquiries to the Florida Secretary of State's office, we were told that in 2003 we did not request in writing to have the filing date for the Articles of Merger related back to the original filing date of July 31, 2003. Florida will not change the filing date unless ordered to do so by a Florida court of competent jurisdiction.

The Company has filed a civil action in Jacksonville, Florida against the Florida Department of State, Division of Corporations, seeking a court order to compel Florida to correct the date of filing of the Articles of Merger to July 31, 2003. If we are unsuccessful in obtaining a court order, our next best option for correcting this deficiency will be to call for a shareholder vote to ratify the domicile change and its associated Articles of Merger.
