August 1, 2005

DEAR FELLOW SHAREHOLDERS,

While the high yield bond market was rather volatile in the first half of 2005 compared with market conditions last year, the defensive high yield investing style of the Fund's portfolio managers has resulted in relative stability in the Fund's net asset value per share (the "NAV") and dividend. In the current high yield market environment, we believe that a defensive investment strategy is the best one for our shareholders, especially since the Fund's leverage magnifies the effect of market changes on the NAV. From its inception, the Fund's leverage has been at the upper end of the range permitted by law and by the credit ratings agencies for the Fund's Auction Term Preferred Stock (the "ATP"). The leverage is an important contributor to the Fund's dividend (but can magnify the effect of market downturns) and a reduction in the leverage would most likely cause a reduction in the dividend. As of June 30th, the Fund was approximately 39% leveraged.

- The monthly dividend was unchanged at $.0175 per share. There were no defaults in the portfolio during the period. It remains the Fund's policy to pay a dividend derived solely from the income earned by the portfolio during the year. Based upon current earnings, we continue to target a monthly dividend of $.0175 per share, but of course future portfolio results and market conditions will determine the actual dividend paid.
- The market price of the Fund's shares declined from $2.19 to $2.12 during the six month period. Annualizing the current monthly dividend of $.0175 at the NYSE closing market price of $2.12 on June 30th would produce a dividend yield of 9.91%. Based upon the Fund's market price and dividends earned for the six month period, the Fund's shares earned a total return of 0.79%. The CS First Boston High Yield Index had a total return of 0.77% for the six months ended June 30th.
- The Fund's NAV declined from $2.26 at the beginning of the year to $2.17 on June 30th. Annualizing the current monthly dividend of $.0175 at the closing NAV of $2.17 on June 30th would produce a dividend yield of 9.68%.
- The Fund's shares generally traded at a discount to their net asset value throughout the six month period. The discount widened from its beginning of the year level in March and April, when the high yield bond market was particularly unsettled. However by June 30th the market price discount to the net asset value per share was -2.3%, compared with a -3.1% discount at the beginning of the year.

On June 10th, 2005, a Schedule 13G was filed by First Trust Portfolios L.P. and related entities disclosing that as of December 31, 2004, had purchased 10.9% of the Fund's common stock on behalf of accounts it manages. In addition, it filed Schedule 13Gs on 23 other closed end funds including a number of funds that have similar investment objectives to our Fund.

Past performance is no guarantee of future results. Total return assumes the reinvestment of dividends.

* Because the Fund's shares may trade at either a discount or premium to the Fund's net asset value per share, returns based upon the share price and dividends will tend to differ from those derived from the underlying change in net asset value and dividends.

HIGH YIELD MARKET UPDATE

Following two-and-a-half years of good conditions for high yield investors - an environment characterized by extremely low volatility and steady income - volatility crept into the asset class over the past six months. The high yield market was off sharply in March, April and early May then rallied strongly over the last six weeks, recovering enough to provide a slight positive return for the first half of the year, as measured by the CS First Boston High Yield Index. The Fund's performance generally tracked the market's month-to-month vacillations. Several factors contributed to the see-saw performance witnessed during the first half of 2005:

- The impending downgrades of GM and Ford debt stoked fears of a potential oversupply in the high-yield market. Investors were surprised by the speed and magnitude of the ratings downgrades and worried about the ramifications for the rest of the junk bond universe.
- Hedge funds' growing participation within the asset class sparked significant volatility. As financial markets began to experience some losses, investors worried these funds might be forced to unwind aggressive positions, potentially introducing forced selling and unforeseen shocks to the market.
- Longer-term interest rates, as measured by the 10-Year Treasury, a key benchmark for valuing high yield debt, zigged and zagged dramatically in the period, even as the Fed repeatedly raised short-term rates. Movements in the 10-Year Treasury bond directly impact relative valuations in the high yield market, and investors' appetite for risk and yield. Although high-yield bonds were only marginally affected by the Fed's short-term rate hikes, the prospect of an economic slowdown precipitated a flight to quality as we approached the end of the reporting period.
- Technical factors also added some volatility. Some investors, sensing the market as overvalued, reduced high-yield holdings or rotated out of the asset class, introducing some pressure on the price of high-yield bonds.

In our last report we noted that the strong performance for high-yield bonds in 2003 and 2004 left the asset class with historically low absolute yields and limited potential for additional capital appreciation in 2005. As value conscious investors, our jobs are much tougher when the market is richly valued and offering low yields, and we have a difficult time finding attractively priced securities offering the potential for higher income. While a weaker market can be unsettling, it does at least offer the prospect that new issues will be attractively priced, allowing us the opportunity to build a more robust income stream for the fund. As the market rallied in the final six weeks of the first half, many higher quality companies issued bonds in the 6% to 6.5% range. We generally continue to regard ten year junk bonds with 6.5% coupons as unappealing for the long term. While credit trends remain positive for the vast majority of companies in the portfolio, as the last six months reminded us, volatility can surge quickly. We are paying particular attention to the potential risks brought by some high yield investors' expanded use of exotic instruments in the derivatives markets.

STRATEGY UPDATE

Our focus during the first half of 2005 revolved around purchasing fallen angels, which are bonds that were issued with high quality credit ratings, but which have been downgraded to below investment grade quality. We added to the Fund's holdings in General Motors and also initiated a meaningful position in Ford. In both cases we bought bonds issued by the companies' finance subsidiaries, General Motors Acceptance Corporation and Ford Motor Credit. We think these credits are less risky than securities issued by their respective parent companies, as they have less direct exposure to legacy liabilities including health care and pension expense. Both companies' securities traded up sharply in the final weeks of the second quarter, and it now appears that both Ford and GM's transitions from the high quality to the high yield market are proceeding smoothly, despite the sheer magnitude of debt each has outstanding.

Away from autos, our analysts researched and recommended three additional fallen angels which we purchased in the portfolio. The first company was Maytag, a well known appliance manufacturer that has suffered from high manufacturing costs versus foreign competition. Our research concluded there was ample ability for the company to refinance short term debt that had recently suffered a ratings downgrade to junk territory. The Fund also bought Bombardier, a Canadian aerospace company involved in a turnaround story with fundamental trends moving in the right direction. Finally, at quarter end we purchased a new issue from RJ Reynolds Tobacco after an extensive review of current issues related to cigarette litigation. Historically, fallen angels have often been a source of profits for high yield investors and we are constructive on the new names we have identified in the first six months of 2005.

Finally, our analysts uncovered interesting opportunities in two convertible bonds which are now in the portfolio. We bought positions in Echostar and Amazon in June, after the convertible market endured some of the same hedge fund related turbulence witnessed in the high yield market. While convertibles are not normally a priority for us, these bonds' yields compared favorably to more traditional high yield securities and were a natural extension of our research efforts in a year when new issue volume for high yield is down substantially compared with new issue volume in recent years.

OUTLOOK

Given the choppy market conditions, we were pleased the Fund has earned a positive return for the first half of 2005, albeit small in absolute terms. After enduring three months of turmoil the high yield market ended the second quarter in relative calm. We believe conditions may remain reasonably benign, at least through the historically slower summer months, with things picking up in the later part of the year. While the price adjustment that took place in the spring was necessary and beneficial in the longer term, interest rates and spreads for high yield bonds still remain low by historical standards, providing little margin for error in terms of credit selection or with respect to larger macro trends. The Fund's posture continues to favor bonds with less interest rate sensitivity and more conservative credit profiles, even if this sacrifices some performance in the short-term. We believe that in this stage of the cycle, the risks to a more aggressive stance may have begun to outweigh the rewards, and a more defensive position may help protect the gains shareholders have enjoyed while seeking to maintain the income stream.

Thank you for your continued interest in the Fund.

Sincerely,

(b) The Fund issued Series C ATP on October 17, 2003. The per share data and ratios for the year ended December 31, 2003 reflect this transaction.

(c) As required, effective January 1, 2001, the Fund has adopted the provisions of the AICPA Audit and Accounting Guide for Investment Companies and began amortizing discount and premium on debt securities. This had no effect on net investment income per share and a $.01 increase to net realized and unrealized loss per share for the year ended December 31, 2001. The effect of this change increased the ratio of net investment income to average net assets from 16.29% to 16.70%. Per share, ratios and supplemental data for periods prior to January 1, 2001 have not been restated to reflect this change in presentation.

* Ratios calculated on the basis of expenses and net investment income applicable to the common shares relative to the average net assets of the common stockholders only.

 Annualized

Calculation is based on average shares outstanding during the indicated period due to the per share effect of the Fund's August, 2003 rights offering.

- + Total investment return is calculated assuming a purchase of common stock at the current market value on the first day and a sale at the current market value on the last day of each year reported. Dividends and distributions are assumed for purposes of this calculation to be reinvested at prices obtained under the dividend reinvestment plan. This calculation does not reflect brokerage commissions.

The New America High Income Fund, Inc.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS JUNE 30, 2005 (UNAUDITED)

(1) SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING AND OTHER POLICIES

The New America High Income Fund, Inc. (the Fund) was organized as a corporation in the state of Maryland on November 19, 1987 and is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission as a diversified, closed-end investment company under the Investment Company Act of 1940. The Fund commenced operations on February 26, 1988. The investment objective of the Fund is to provide high current income while seeking to preserve stockholders' capital through investment in a professionally managed, diversified portfolio of "high yield" fixed-income securities.

The Fund invests primarily in fixed maturity corporate debt securities that are rated less than investment grade. Risk of loss upon default by the issuer is significantly greater with respect to such securities compared to investment grade securities because these securities are generally unsecured and are often subordinated to other creditors of the issuer and because these issuers usually have high levels of indebtedness and are more sensitive to adverse economic conditions, such as a recession, than are investment grade issuers. In some cases, the collection of principal and timely receipt of interest is dependent upon the issuer attaining improved operating results, selling assets or obtaining additional financing.

The Fund may focus its investments in certain industries, subjecting it to greater risk than a Fund that is more diversified. See the schedule of investments for information on individual securities as well as industry diversification and credit quality ratings.

The Fund's financial statements have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States for investment companies that require the management of the Fund to, among other things, make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting periods. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

The following is a summary of significant accounting policies consistently followed by the Fund, which are in conformity with those generally accepted in the investment company industry.

(a) VALUATION OF INVESTMENTS--Investments for which market quotations are readily available are stated at market value, which is determined by using the most recently quoted bid price provided by an independent pricing service or principal market maker. Independent pricing services provide market quotations based primarily on quotations from dealers and brokers, market transactions, accessing data from quotations services, offering sheets obtained from dealers and various relationships between securities. Short-term investments with original maturities of 60 days or less are stated at amortized cost, which approximates market value. Following procedures approved by the Board of Directors, investments for which market quotations are not readily available (primarily fixed-income corporate bonds and notes) are stated at fair value on the basis of subjective valuations furnished by securities dealers and brokers. Other investments, for which market quotations are not readily available with a cost of approximately $7,594,000 and a value of $0, are valued in good faith at fair market value using methods determined by the Board of Directors.

(b) SECURITIES TRANSACTIONS AND NET INVESTMENT INCOME--Securities transactions are recorded on trade date. Realized gains or losses on sales of securities are calculated on the identified cost basis. Interest income is accrued on a daily basis. Discount on short-term investments is amortized to investment income. Premiums or discounts on corporate debt securities are amortized based on the interest method for financial reporting purposes. All income on original issue discount and step interest bonds is accrued based on the effective interest method. The Fund does not amortize market premiums or discounts for tax purposes. Dividend payments received in the form of additional securities are recorded on the ex-dividend date in an amount equal to the value of the security on such date.

Edgar Filing: NEW AMERICA HIGH INCOME FUND INC - Form N-CSRS

(c) FEDERAL INCOME TAXES--It is the Fund's policy to comply with the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, applicable to regulated investment companies and to distribute substantially all of its taxable income to its shareholders each year. Accordingly, no federal income tax provision is required.

(2) TAX MATTERS AND DISTRIBUTIONS

At June 30, 2005, the total cost of securities (including temporary cash investments) for federal income tax purposes was approximately $328,358,000. Aggregate gross unrealized gain on securities in which there was an excess of value over tax cost was approximately $7,150,000. Aggregate unrealized loss on securities in which there was an excess of tax cost over value was approximately $12,925,000. Net unrealized loss on investments for tax purposes at June 30, 2005 was approximately $5,775,000

At December 31, 2004, the Fund had approximate capital loss carryovers available to offset future capital gains, if any, to the extent provided by regulations:

CARRYOVER AVAILABLE	EXPIRATION DATE
$ 35,581,000	December 31, 2007
21,821,000	December 31, 2008
67,043,000	December 31, 2009
45,239,000	December 31, 2010
7,387,000	December 31, 2011
125,000	December 31, 2012
$ 177,196,000

It is the policy of the Fund to reduce future distributions of realized gains to shareholders to the extent of the unexpired capital loss carry forward.

The tax character of distributions paid to common and preferred shareholders of approximately $23,725,000 in 2004 was from ordinary income.

As of December 31, 2004, the components of distributable earnings on a tax basis were approximately:

Undistributed Net Investment Income	$ 443,000
Undistributed Long-Term Gain	--
Unrealized Gain	$ 8,001,000
Capital Losses Carry Forward and Post October Losses Deferred	$ 179,118,000

The difference between components of distributable earnings on a tax basis and the amounts reflected in the Statement of Assets and Liabilities are primarily due to market discount adjustments.

Distributions on common stock are declared based upon annual projections of the Fund's investment company taxable income. The Fund records all dividends and distributions payable to shareholders on the ex-dividend date and declares and distributes income dividends monthly.

The Fund was required to amortize market discounts and premiums for financial reporting purposes beginning January 1, 2001. This new accounting policy results in additional interest income in some years and decreased interest income in others for financial reporting purposes only. The Fund does not amortize market discounts or premiums for tax purposes. Therefore, the additional or decreased interest income for financial reporting purposes does not result in additional or decreased common stock dividend income.

(3) INVESTMENT ADVISORY AGREEMENT

T. Rowe Price Associates, Inc. (T. Rowe Price), the Fund's Investment Advisor, earned approximately $576,000 in management fees during the six months ended June 30, 2005. Management fees paid by the Fund to T. Rowe Price were calculated at 0.50% on the first $50,000,000 of the Fund's average weekly net assets, 0.40% on the next $50 million and 0.30% on average weekly net assets in excess of $100 million. T. Rowe Price's fee is calculated based on assets attributable to the Fund's common and auction term preferred stock. At June 30, 2005, the fee payable to T. Rowe Price was approximately $94,000, which was included in accrued expenses on the accompanying statement of assets and liabilities.

(4) AUCTION TERM PREFERRED STOCK (ATP)

On October 17, 2003, the Fund issued 1,200 shares of Series C ATP. The underwriting discount of $300,000 and offering expenses of $358,000 were recorded as a reduction of the capital in excess of par value on common stock.

The Fund had 5,200 shares of ATP issued and outstanding at June 30, 2005. The ATP's dividends are cumulative at a rate determined at an auction, and dividend periods will typically be 28 days unless notice is given for periods to be longer or shorter than 28 days. Dividend rates ranged from 2.38% - 3.37% for the six months ended June 30, 2005. The average dividend rate as of June 30, 2005 was 3.26%.

The ATP is redeemable, at the option of the Fund, or subject to mandatory redemption (if the Fund is in default of certain coverage requirements) at a redemption price equal to $25,000 per share plus accumulated and unpaid dividends. The ATP has a liquidation preference of $25,000 per share plus accumulated and unpaid dividends. The Fund is required to maintain certain asset coverages with respect to the ATP under the Fund's Charter and the 1940 Act in order to maintain the Fund's Aaa/AAA ratings by Moody's Investors Service, Inc. and Fitch, Inc., respectively.

(5) ATP AUCTION-RELATED MATTERS

Bankers Trust Company (BTC) serves as the ATP's auction agent pursuant to an agreement entered into on January 4, 1994. The term of the agreement is unlimited and may be terminated by either party. BTC may resign upon notice to the Fund, such resignation to be effective on the earlier of the 90th day after the delivery of such notice and the date on which a successor auction agent is appointed by the Fund. The Fund may also replace BTC as auction agent at any time.

After each auction, BTC as auction agent will pay to each broker-dealer, from funds provided by the Fund, a maximum service charge at the annual rate of 0.25 of 1% or such other percentage subsequently agreed to by the Fund and the broker-dealers, of the purchase price of shares placed by such broker-dealers at such auction. In the event an auction scheduled to occur on an auction date fails to occur for any reason, the broker-dealers will be entitled to service charges as if the auction had occurred and all holders of shares placed by them had submitted valid hold orders. The Fund incurred approximately $165,000 for service charges for the six months ended June 30, 2005. This amount is included under the caption preferred and auction fees in the accompanying statement of operations.

(6) INTEREST RATE SWAPS

The Fund entered into an interest payment swap arrangement with Fleet National Bank (Fleet) for the purpose of partially hedging its dividend payment obligations with respect to the ATP. Pursuant to the Swap Arrangement the Fund makes payments to Fleet on a monthly basis at a fixed annual rate. In exchange for such payment Fleet makes payments to the Fund on a monthly basis at a variable rate determined with reference to one month LIBOR. The variable rates ranged from 2.33% to 3.15% for the six months ended

24

June 30, 2005. The effective date, notional amount, maturity and fixed rate of the swap is as follows:

EFFECTIVE DATE	NOTIONAL CONTRACT AMOUNT	MATURITY	FIXED ANNUAL RATE
11/5/04	$130 million	11/5/09	3.775%

Swap transactions, which involve future settlement, give rise to credit risk. Credit risk is the amount of loss the Fund would incur in the event counterparties failed to perform according to the terms of the contractual commitments. In the event of nonperformance by the counterparty, the Fund's dividend payment obligation with respect to the ATP would no longer be partially hedged. Therefore, the ATP dividend would no longer be partially fixed. In an unfavorable interest rate environment, the Fund would be subject to higher net ATP dividend payments, resulting in less income available for the common share dividend. The Fund does not anticipate nonperformance by any counterparty. While notional contract amounts are used to express the volume of interest rate swap agreements, the amounts potentially subject to credit risk, in the event of nonperformance by counterparties, are substantially smaller.

The Fund recognizes all freestanding derivative instruments in the balance sheet as either assets or liabilities and measures them at fair value. Any change in the unrealized gain or loss is recorded in current earnings. For the six months ended June 30, 2005, the Fund's obligations under the swap agreements were more than the amount received from Fleet by approximately $646,000 and such amount is included in the accompanying statement of operations.

The estimated fair value of the interest rate swap agreement at June 30, 2005 amounted to approximately $1,286,000 of unrealized gain and is presented in the accompanying balance sheet.

(7) PURCHASES AND SALES OF SECURITIES

Purchases and proceeds of sales or maturities of long-term securities during the six months ended June 30, 2005 were approximately:

Edgar Filing: NEW AMERICA HIGH INCOME FUND INC - Form N-CSRS

Cost of purchases	103,440,000
Proceeds of sales or maturities	102,633,000

(8) RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

A partner of Goodwin Procter LLP, counsel to the Fund, serves as a Director of the Fund. Fees earned by Goodwin Procter LLP amounted to approximately $60,000 for the six months ended June 30, 2005.

The Fund paid approximately $142,000 during the six months ended June 30, 2005 to two officers of the Fund for the provision of certain administrative services.

(9) RIGHTS OFFERING

The Fund issued to stockholders of record as of the close of business on July 21, 2003, rights to subscribe for an aggregate of 23,397,095 shares of common stock, $.01 par value per share, of the Fund. One right was issued for each three full shares of common stock beneficially held on the record date. The rights entitled a stockholder to acquire at the subscription price of $1.81 per share one share for each right held. The subscription price was 94% of the average of the last reported sales price of the Fund's Common Stock on the New York Stock Exchange on August 18, 2003, the expiration date and the nine preceding business days. On August 22, 2003 the Fund completed its rights offering. Proceeds of approximately $42,349,000 and shares of 23,397,095 were recorded. In addition, offering expense of approximately $817,000 was netted against the rights offering proceeds in 2003 and $84,000 in 2004.

SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION

AVAILABILITY OF PORTFOLIO HOLDINGS

The Fund provides a complete schedule of its portfolio holdings quarterly. The lists of holdings as of the end of the second and fourth quarters appear in the Fund's semi-annual and annual reports to shareholders, respectively. The schedules of portfolio holdings as of the end of the first and third quarters are filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") on Form N-Q (the "Forms") within 60 days of the end of the first and third quarters. Shareholders can look up the Forms on the SEC's web site at www.sec.gov. The Forms may also be reviewed and copied at the SEC's public reference room in Washington, D.C. You may call the SEC at 1-800-SEC-0330 for information about the SEC's web site and their public reference room. In addition, the Forms may be reviewed on the Fund's web site at www.newamerica-hyb.com

COMPLIANCE CERTIFICATIONS

(Unaudited)

On May 18, 2005, your Fund submitted a CEO annual certification to the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) on which the Fund's principal executive officer certified that he was not aware, as of that date, of any violation by the Fund of the NYSE's Corporate Governance listing standards. In addition, as required by Section 302 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and related SEC rules, the Fund's principal executive and principal financial officers have made quarterly certifications, included in filings with the SEC on Forms N-CSR and N-Q, relating to, among other things, the Fund's disclosure controls and procedures and internal control over financial reporting.

COMMON AND AUCTION TERM PREFERRED STOCK TRANSACTIONS

From time to time in the future, the Fund may effect redemptions and/or repurchases of its ATP as provided in the applicable constituent instruments or as agreed upon by the Fund and sellers. The Fund intends to effect such redemptions and/or repurchases to the extent necessary to maintain applicable asset coverage requirements.

The Fund may purchase shares of its Common Stock in the open market when the Common Stock trades at a discount to net asset value or at other times if the Fund determines such purchases are in the best interest of its stockholders. There can be no assurance that the Fund will take such action in the event of a market discount to net asset value or that Fund purchases will reduce a discount.
