PROSPECTUS SUPPLEMENT SUMMARY

This summary does not contain all the information that may be important to you. You should read the entire prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus and the documents incorporated and deemed to be incorporated by reference herein and therein, including the financial statements and related notes, and, if applicable, any free writing prospectus we may provide you in connection with this offering before making an investment decision. Unless this prospectus supplement otherwise indicates or the context otherwise requires, the terms "Realty Income," "our," "us" and "we" as used in this prospectus supplement refer to Realty Income Corporation and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis. Unless otherwise expressly stated or the context otherwise requires, all information in this prospectus supplement relating to our properties excludes properties owned by our wholly-owned subsidiary Crest Net Lease, Inc., which we refer to as Crest.

In this prospectus supplement, we sometimes refer to the 6.625% Monthly Income Class F Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Stock we are offering and our outstanding shares of 6.625% Monthly Income Class F Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Stock as, collectively, the Class F preferred stock, and we sometimes refer to our 7.375% Monthly Income Class D Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Stock, which was redeemed by us on March 1, 2012, and our outstanding 6.75% Monthly Income Class E Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Stock as the Class D preferred stock and the Class E preferred stock, respectively.

Realty Income

We are The Monthly Dividend Company®. We are organized to operate as an equity real estate investment trust, commonly referred to as a REIT. Our primary business objective is to generate dependable monthly cash distributions from a consistent and predictable level of funds from operations, or FFO, per share. Additionally, we seek to increase distributions to common stockholders and FFO per share through both active portfolio management and the acquisition of additional properties.

We are a fully integrated, self-administered real estate company with in-house acquisition, leasing, legal, credit research, real estate research, portfolio management and capital markets expertise. As of December 31, 2011, we owned a diversified portfolio of 2,634 properties located in 49 states, with over 27.3 million square feet of leasable space leased to 136 different retail and other commercial enterprises doing business in 38 separate industries. Of the 2,634 properties in the portfolio at that date, 2,619, or 99.4%, were single-tenant properties, and the remaining 15 were multi-tenant properties. At December 31, 2011, of the 2,619 single-tenant properties, 2,533 were leased with a weighted average remaining lease term (excluding rights to extend a lease at the option of the tenant) of approximately 11.3 years.

Our principal executive offices are located at 600 La Terraza Boulevard, Escondido, California 92025-3873 and our telephone number is (760) 741-2111.

Recent Acquisition Activity

We have acquired or entered into agreements to acquire properties with an aggregate value of approximately $514 million during the second quarter of 2012. These acquisitions consist of approximately 250 properties leased to four different tenants, and all are in industries that we already have in our portfolio. The acquisitions that have not closed yet are subject to various customary conditions to closing, the failure of which could delay the closing of one or more of these proposed acquisitions or result in one or more of these proposed transactions not closing or closing on terms that are different from those we currently contemplate. We expect to fund any of these acquisitions that close in the future with borrowings under our acquisition credit facility or possible issuances of additional securities.

Dividends on the Class F preferred stock offered hereby will be payable monthly in arrears on the 15th day of each month (or, if the 15th day of the month is not a business day, on the next business day), commencing May 15, 2012. Dividends on the Class F preferred stock offered hereby will accrue and be cumulative from April 15, 2012. The first dividend payment date for the Class F preferred stock offered hereby is May 15, 2012, and that dividend, which will be equal to a regular monthly dividend on the Class F preferred stock, will be paid to the persons who are the holders of record of the Class F preferred stock offered hereby at the close of business on the corresponding record date, which will be May 1, 2012.
Maturity	The Class F preferred stock does not have any stated maturity date nor are we required to redeem or otherwise repurchase the Class F preferred stock. In addition, we are not required to set aside funds to redeem the Class F preferred stock.
Optional Redemption	The Class F preferred stock is not redeemable by us prior to February 15, 2017, except under circumstances intended to preserve our status as a real estate investment trust for federal and/or state income tax purposes and except as described below under " Special Optional Redemption." On and after February 15, 2017, we may, at our option, redeem the Class F preferred stock, in whole or from time to time in part, for cash at a redemption price equal to $25.00 per share, plus, subject to exceptions, any accrued and unpaid dividends to the date fixed for redemption. See "Description of Class F Preferred Stock Redemption Optional Redemption."

Special Optional Redemption

Upon the occurrence of a Change of Control (as defined), we may, at our option, redeem the Class F preferred stock, in whole or in part, within 120 days after the first date on which such Change of Control occurred, for cash at a redemption price of $25.00 per share, plus, subject to exceptions, any accrued and unpaid dividends to the date fixed for redemption. If, prior to the Change of Control Conversion Date (as defined), we have provided or provide notice of our election to redeem some or all of the shares of Class F preferred stock (whether pursuant to our optional redemption right described above or this special optional redemption right), the holders of Class F preferred stock will not have the conversion right described below under " Conversion Rights" with respect to the shares of Class F preferred stock called for redemption. See "Description of Preferred Stock Redemption Special Optional Redemption."

Conversion Rights

Upon the occurrence of a Change of Control, each holder of Class F preferred stock will have the right (unless, prior to the Change of Control Conversion Date, we have provided or provide notice of our election to redeem some or all of the shares of Class F preferred stock held by such holder as described above under " Optional Redemption" or " Special Optional Redemption," in which case such holder will have the right only with respect to shares of Class F preferred stock that are not called for redemption) to convert some or all of the Class F preferred stock held by such holder on the Change of Control Conversion Date into a number of shares of our common stock per share of Class F preferred stock equal to the lesser of:

the quotient obtained by dividing (i) the sum of the $25.00 liquidation preference per share of Class F preferred stock plus the amount of any accrued and unpaid dividends thereon to the Change of Control Conversion Date (unless the Change of Control Conversion Date is after a record date for a Class F preferred stock dividend payment and prior to the corresponding dividend payment date for the Class F preferred stock, in which case no additional amount for such accrued and unpaid dividends will be included in this sum) by (ii) the Common Stock Price (as defined); and

1.3759 (the "Share Cap"), subject to adjustments to the Share Cap for any splits, subdivisions or combinations of our common stock; subject, in each case, to provisions for the receipt of alternative consideration under specified circumstances as described in this prospectus supplement.

Table of Contents

As a result of the Share Cap, subject to the immediately succeeding sentence, the aggregate number of shares of our common stock (or corresponding alternative consideration, as applicable) issuable or deliverable, as applicable, upon conversion of Class F preferred stock in connection with a Change of Control will not exceed 22,495,965 shares of common stock (or corresponding alternative consideration, as applicable) (the "Exchange Cap") in total for the 16,350,000 shares of Class F preferred stock that will be outstanding upon completion of this offering. The Exchange Cap is subject to pro rata adjustments for any splits, subdivisions or combinations of our common stock on the same basis as the corresponding adjustment to the Share Cap, and shall be increased on a pro rata basis with respect to any additional shares of Class F Preferred Stock designated and authorized for issuance pursuant to any subsequent articles supplementary.

If, prior to the Change of Control Conversion Date, we have provided or provide notice of our election to redeem some or all of the shares of Class F preferred stock, whether pursuant to our special optional redemption right or our optional redemption right described above, holders of Class F preferred stock will not have the right to convert the shares of Class F preferred stock called for redemption and any shares of Class F preferred stock called for redemption that have been tendered for conversion will be redeemed on the applicable redemption date instead of converted on the Change of Control Conversion Date.

For definitions of "Change of Control," "Change of Control Conversion Date" and "Common Stock Price", for a description of certain adjustments and provisions for the receipt of alternative consideration that may be applicable to the conversion of Class F preferred stock in the event of a Change of Control, and for other important information, see "Risk Factors The Change of Control conversion feature may not adequately compensate you and may make it more difficult for a party to take over our company or discourage a party from taking over our company" and "Description of Class F Preferred Stock Conversion Rights."

Except as provided above in connection with a Change of Control, the Class F preferred stock is not convertible into or exchangeable for any other securities or property.

Liquidation Preference

If we liquidate, dissolve or wind up, holders of the Class F preferred stock will have the right to receive $25.00 per share, plus any accrued and unpaid dividends to the date of payment, before any payment is made to the holders of our common stock. See "Description of Class F Preferred Stock Liquidation Preference."

Rank

The Class F preferred stock ranks senior to our common stock and on a parity with our outstanding Class E preferred stock with respect to the payment of dividends and the distribution of assets in the event of our liquidation, dissolution or winding up. See "Description of Class F Preferred Stock Rank."

Voting Rights

Holders of Class F preferred stock generally have no voting rights. However, if we do not pay dividends on the Class F preferred stock for 18 or more monthly dividend periods (whether or not consecutive), the holders of the Class F preferred stock (voting separately as a class with the holders of all other classes or series of our preferred stock, which may include the Class E preferred stock, upon which like voting rights have been conferred and are exercisable and which are entitled to vote as a class with the Class F preferred stock in the election referred to below) will be entitled to vote for the election of two additional directors to serve on our board of directors until we pay, or declare and set aside funds for the payment of, all dividends which we owe on the Class F preferred stock. In addition, the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Class F preferred stock is required for us to authorize or issue any class or series of stock ranking prior to the Class F preferred stock with respect to the payment of dividends or the distribution of assets on liquidation, dissolution or winding up, to amend any provision of our charter so as to materially and adversely affect any rights of the Class F preferred stock or to take certain other actions. See "Description of Class F Preferred Stock Voting Rights."

Listing

The outstanding Class F preferred stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange, or NYSE, under the symbol "OprF." We plan to apply to list the shares of Class F preferred stock offered hereby on the NYSE.

Restrictions on Ownership and Transfer

The Class F preferred stock is subject to certain restrictions on ownership and transfer intended to assist us in maintaining our status as a REIT for United States federal income tax purposes. For example, the terms of the Class F preferred stock restrict any person from acquiring actual or constructive ownership of more than 9.8% (by number of shares or value, whichever is more restrictive) of the outstanding Class F preferred stock. See "Description of Class F Preferred Stock Restrictions on Ownership and Transfer."

Use of proceeds

We intend to use the net proceeds of this offering to repay a portion of the borrowings outstanding under our $425 million acquisition credit facility. On April 11, 2012, we had approximately $39.8 million of outstanding borrowings under our acquisition credit facility, which were generally used to acquire properties. To the extent not used for the foregoing purpose, any remaining net proceeds will be used for general corporate purposes and working capital, which may include acquisitions.

Table of Contents

Risk Factors

An investment in the Class F preferred stock involves various risks and prospective investors should carefully consider the matters discussed under "Risk Factors" in this prospectus supplement, as well as the other risks described in this prospectus supplement, the accompanying prospectus and the documents incorporated and deemed to be incorporated by reference herein and therein, before making a decision to invest in the Class F preferred stock.

RISK FACTORS

In evaluating an investment in our Class F preferred stock, you should carefully consider the following risk factors and the risk factors described under the caption "Risk Factors" in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2011, which is incorporated by reference in the accompanying prospectus, in addition to the other risks and uncertainties described in this prospectus supplement, the accompanying prospectus, the documents incorporated by reference therein and, if applicable, any free writing prospectus we may provide you in connection with this offering. As used under the captions "Risk Factors" in this prospectus supplement and in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2011, references to our capital stock include both our common stock and any class or series of our preferred stock, including the Class F preferred stock, and references to our stockholders include holders of our common stock and any class or series of our preferred stock, including the Class F preferred stock, in each case unless otherwise expressly stated or the context otherwise requires.

Increases in market interest rates may adversely affect the market price of our Class F preferred stock.

One of the factors that will influence the market price of our Class F preferred stock in public trading markets is the annual yield from distributions on our Class F preferred stock as compared to yields on other financial instruments. An increase in market interest rates generally will result in higher yields on other financial instruments, which could adversely affect the market price of our Class F preferred stock. Likewise, since listing our common stock on the NYSE in 1994, we have established a history of periodically increasing distributions per share on our common stock. The market price of the Class F preferred stock may also be adversely affected to the extent that the distributions per share on our common stock increase.

Our business operations may not generate the cash needed to make distributions on our capital stock or to service our indebtedness.

Our ability to make distributions on our common stock and preferred stock, including the Class F preferred stock, and payments on our indebtedness and to fund planned acquisitions and capital expenditures will depend on our ability to generate cash in the future. We cannot assure you that our business will generate sufficient cash flow from operations or that future borrowings will be available to us in an amount sufficient to enable us to make distributions on our common stock and preferred stock, including the Class F preferred stock, to pay our indebtedness, or to fund our other liquidity needs.

The Change of Control conversion feature may not adequately compensate you and may make it more difficult for a party to take over our company or discourage a party from taking over our company.

Upon the occurrence of a Change of Control, each holder of the Class F preferred stock will have the right (unless, prior to the Change of Control Conversion Date, we have provided or provide notice of our election to redeem some or all of the shares of Class F preferred stock held by such holder as described under "Description of Class F Preferred Stock Redemption Optional Redemption" or "Description of Class F Preferred Stock Redemption Special Optional Redemption," in which case such holder will have the right only with respect to shares of Class F preferred stock that are not called for redemption) to convert some or all of their Class F preferred stock into shares of our common stock (or under specified circumstances certain alternative consideration). See "Description of Class F Preferred Stock Conversion Rights." Upon such a conversion, the holders will be limited to a maximum number of shares of our common stock (or, if applicable, specified alternative consideration) equal to the Share Cap (as defined) multiplied by the number of shares of Class F preferred stock converted. If the Common Stock Price (as defined) is less than $18.17 (which is approximately 48% of the per share closing sale price of our common stock reported on the NYSE on April 11, 2012), subject to possible adjustment, the holders will receive a maximum of 1.3759 shares of our common stock per share of Class F preferred stock, which may result in a holder receiving shares of common stock (or alternative consideration, as applicable) with a value that is less than the liquidation preference of the Class F preferred stock plus any accrued and unpaid dividends. In addition, the Change of Control conversion feature of the Class F preferred stock may have the effect of discouraging a third party from making an acquisition proposal for our company or of delaying, deferring or preventing certain Change of Control transactions of our company under circumstances that otherwise could provide the holders of our common stock and Class F preferred stock with the opportunity to realize a premium over the then-current market price or that stockholders may otherwise believe is in their best interests.

We are subject to risks associated with debt and capital stock financing.

We intend to incur additional indebtedness in the future, including borrowings under our $425 million acquisition credit facility. At April 11, 2012, we had approximately $39.8 million of outstanding borrowings under our acquisition credit facility, a total of $1.75 billion of outstanding unsecured senior debt securities and $56.8 million of outstanding mortgage debt. To the extent that new indebtedness is added to our current debt levels, the related risks that we now face would increase. As a result, we are and will be subject to risks associated with debt financing, including the risk that our cash flow could be insufficient to meet required payments on our debt. We also face variable interest rate risk as the interest rate on our acquisition credit facility is variable and could therefore increase over time. We also face the risk that we may be unable to refinance or repay our debt as it comes due. Given past disruptions in the financial markets and the ongoing financial crisis in Europe (which relates primarily to concerns that certain European countries may be unable to repay their national debt), we also face the risk that one or more of the participants in our credit facility may not be able to lend us money.

In addition, our acquisition credit facility contains provisions that could limit or, in certain cases, prohibit the payment of distributions on our common stock and preferred stock, including the Class F preferred stock or the conversion of Class F preferred stock into common stock (or alternative consideration, as applicable) upon the occurrence of a Change of Control as described under "Description of Class F Preferred Stock Conversion Rights." In particular, our acquisition credit facility provides that, if an event of default (as defined in the credit facility) exists, neither we nor any of our subsidiaries may make any distributions on (except distributions payable in shares of a given class of our stock to the shareholders of that class), or repurchase, redeem or convert, among other things, any shares of our common stock or preferred stock, including the Class F preferred stock, during any period of four consecutive fiscal quarters in an aggregate amount in excess of the greater of:

the sum of (a) 95% of our adjusted funds from operations (as defined in the credit facility) for that period plus (b) the aggregate amount of cash distributions on our preferred stock for that period, and the minimum amount of cash distributions required to be made to our shareholders in order to maintain our status as a REIT for federal income tax purposes, except that we may repurchase or redeem our preferred stock, including the Class F preferred stock, with the net proceeds from the issuance of our common stock or preferred stock. The acquisition credit facility further provides that, in the event of a failure to pay principal, interest or any other amounts payable thereunder when due or upon the occurrence of certain events of bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization with respect to us or with respect to any of our subsidiaries that has guaranteed amounts payable under the credit facility or that meets a significance test set forth in the credit facility, we and our subsidiaries may not pay any distributions on (except distributions payable in shares of a given class of our stock to the shareholders of that class), or repurchase, redeem or convert, among other things, any shares of our common stock or preferred stock, including the Class F preferred stock. If any event of default under our acquisition credit facility were to occur, it would likely have a material adverse effect on the market price of our outstanding common and preferred stock, including the Class F preferred stock, and on the market value of our debt securities, could limit the amount of distributions payable on our common stock and preferred stock, including the Class F preferred stock, or prevent us from paying those distributions altogether, could limit or prohibit us from delivering common stock (or alternative consideration, as applicable) upon conversion of Class F preferred stock following a Change of Control as described below under "Description of Class F Preferred Stock Conversion Rights," and may adversely affect our ability to qualify, or prevent us from qualifying, as a REIT.

Our indebtedness could also have other important consequences to holders of our Class F preferred stock, including:

Increasing our vulnerability to general adverse economic and industry conditions;

Limiting our ability to obtain additional financing to fund future working capital, capital expenditures and other general corporate requirements;

Requiring the use of a substantial portion of our cash flow from operations for the payment of principal and interest on our indebtedness, thereby reducing our ability to use our cash flow to fund working capital, acquisitions, capital expenditures and general corporate requirements;

Limiting our flexibility in planning for, or reacting to, changes in our business and our industry; and Putting us at a disadvantage compared to our competitors with less indebtedness.

In addition, immediately after the closing of this offering, we will have 8,800,000 shares of Class E preferred stock and 16,350,000 shares of Class F preferred stock outstanding, the holders of which will be entitled to receive monthly dividends, when, as and if authorized by our board of directors, at the rates of $1.6875 per annum per share and $1.65625 per annum per share, respectively. As a result, we are subject to risks associated with preferred stock financing, including the risk that our cash flow will be insufficient to pay dividends on our preferred stock, including the Class F preferred stock.

The market price of our Class F preferred stock could be substantially affected by various factors.

The market price of our Class F preferred stock depends on many factors, which may change from time to time, including:

Prevailing interest rates, increases in which may have an adverse effect on the market price of our Class F preferred stock;

The market for similar securities issued by other REITs;

General economic and financial market conditions;

The financial condition, performance and prospects of us, our tenants and our competitors;

Edgar Filing: REALTY INCOME CORP - Form 424B5

Actual or anticipated variations in quarterly operating results of us and our competitors.

In addition, over the last several years, prices of equity securities in the U.S. trading markets have been experiencing extreme price fluctuations, and the market prices of our common stock and Class E preferred stock have also fluctuated significantly during this period. As a result of these and other factors, investors who purchase our Class F preferred stock in this offering may experience a decrease, which could be substantial and rapid, in the market price of our Class F preferred stock, including decreases unrelated to our operating performance or prospects.

Negative market conditions or adverse events affecting our existing or potential tenants, or the industries in which they operate, could have an adverse impact on our ability to attract new tenants, re-lease space, collect rent or renew leases, which could adversely affect our cash flow from operations and inhibit growth.

Cash flow from operations depends in part on the ability to lease space to tenants on economically favorable terms. We could be adversely affected by various facts and events over which we have limited or no control, such as:

Lack of demand in areas where our properties are located;

Inability to retain existing tenants and attract new tenants;

Oversupply of space and changes in market rental rates;

Declines in our tenants' creditworthiness and ability to pay rent, which may be affected by their operations, the current economic situation and competition within their industries from other operators;

Defaults by and bankruptcies of tenants, failure of tenants to pay rent on a timely basis, or failure of tenants to comply with their contractual obligations;

Economic or physical decline of the areas where the properties are located; and Deterioration of physical condition of our properties.

At any time, any tenant may experience a downturn in its business that may weaken its operating results or overall financial condition. As a result, a tenant may delay lease commencement, fail to make rental payments when due, decline to extend a lease upon its expiration, become insolvent or declare bankruptcy. Any tenant bankruptcy or insolvency, leasing delay or failure to make rental payments when due could result in the termination of the tenant's lease and material losses to us.

If tenants do not renew their leases as they expire, we may not be able to rent or sell the properties. Furthermore, leases that are renewed, and some new leases for properties that are re-leased, may have terms that are less economically favorable than expiring lease terms, or may require us to incur significant costs, such as renovations, tenant improvements or lease transaction costs. Negative market conditions may cause us to sell vacant properties for less than their carrying value, which could result in impairments. Any of these events could adversely affect cash flow from operations and our ability to make distributions to shareholders and service indebtedness. A significant portion of the costs of owning property, such as real estate taxes, insurance and maintenance, is not necessarily reduced when circumstances cause a decrease in rental revenue from the properties. In a weakened financial condition, tenants may not be able to pay these costs of ownership and we may be unable to recover these operating expenses from them.

Further, the occurrence of a tenant bankruptcy or insolvency could diminish the income we receive from the tenant's lease or leases. In addition, a bankruptcy court might authorize the tenant to terminate its leases with us. If that happens, our claim against the bankrupt tenant for unpaid future rent would be subject to statutory limitations that most likely would result in rent payments that would be substantially less than the remaining rent we are owed under the leases or we may elect not to pursue claims against the tenant for terminated leases. In addition, any claim we have for unpaid past rent, if any, may not be paid in full, or at all. Moreover, in the case of a tenant's leases that are not terminated as the result of its bankruptcy, we may be required or elect to reduce the rent payable under those leases or provide other concessions, reducing amounts we receive under those leases. As a result, tenant bankruptcies, including those described in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2011 under the caption "Item 1: Business Recent Developments Portfolio Discussion Matters Pertaining to Certain Tenants," may have a material adverse effect on our results of operations. Any of these events could adversely affect cash flow from operations and our ability to make distributions to stockholders, including holders of our Class F preferred stock, and service indebtedness.

Eighty-seven of our properties were available for lease or sale at December 31, 2011, all but one of which were single-tenant properties. At December 31, 2011, 33 of our properties under lease were unoccupied and available for sublease by the tenants, all of which were current with their rent and other obligations. During 2011, each of our tenants accounted for less than 10% of our rental revenue.

For the fourth quarter of 2011, our tenants in the "convenience stores" industry accounted for approximately 17.2% of our rental revenue. A downturn in this industry, whether nationwide or limited to specific sectors of the United States, could adversely affect tenants in this industry, which in turn could have a material adverse effect on our financial position, results of operations and our ability to pay the principal of and interest on our debt securities and other indebtedness and to make distributions on our common stock and preferred stock, including the Class F preferred stock. In addition, we believe that the ongoing economic recession has had an adverse effect on many casual dining restaurants, such as our tenants Friendly Ice Cream Corporation and Buffets Holdings, Inc., both of which filed for reorganization under Chapter 11 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code as described in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2011 under the caption "Item 1: Business Recent Developments Portfolio Discussion Matters Pertaining to Certain Tenants." In addition, we have identified other tenants that we believe might file for bankruptcy protection during 2012 as described in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2011 under the caption "Item 1: Business Recent Developments Portfolio Discussion Matters Pertaining to Certain Tenants," and the impact of bankruptcy filings by Friendly Ice Cream Corporation, Buffets Holdings, Inc. or any other tenants, whether in the casual dining or other industries, could materially adversely affect us. With the exception of "convenience stores", each of the industries in our property portfolio individually accounted for less than 10% of our rental revenue for the fourth quarter of 2011. Nevertheless, downturns in these other industries could also adversely affect our tenants, which in turn could also have a material adverse effect on our financial position, results of operations and our ability to pay the principal of and interest on our debt securities and other indebtedness and to make distributions on our common and preferred stock, including the Class F preferred stock. In addition, we may in the future make additional investments in the "convenience stores" industry, which would increase this industry's percentage of our rental revenues, thereby increasing the effect that such a downturn in this industry would have on us.

In addition, a substantial number of our properties are leased to middle-market retail and other commercial enterprises that generally have more limited financial and other resources than certain upper-market retail and other commercial enterprises, and, therefore, they are more likely to be adversely affected by a downturn in their respective businesses or in the regional, national or international economy.

Furthermore, we have made and may continue to make selected acquisitions of properties that fall outside our historical focus on freestanding, single-tenant, net-lease retail locations in the United States. We may be exposed to a variety of new risks by expanding into new property types and/or new jurisdictions outside the United States and properties leased to tenants engaged in non-retail businesses. For example, our acquisitions in 2011 included distribution properties, office properties, and manufacturing properties leased to tenants in a range of non-retail businesses. These risks may include a limited knowledge and understanding of the industry in which the tenant operates, limited experience in managing certain types of new properties, new types of real estate locations and lease structures, and the laws and culture of any non-U.S. jurisdiction.

The Articles Supplementary establishing the terms of our Class F Preferred Stock contain restrictions upon ownership and transfer of our Class F Preferred Stock.

The Articles Supplementary establishing the terms of our Class F preferred stock contain restrictions on ownership and transfer of our Class F preferred stock intended to assist us in maintaining our status as a REIT for United States federal and/or state income tax purposes. For example, the terms of the Class F preferred stock restrict any person from acquiring actual or constructive ownership of more than 9.8% (in value or number of shares, whichever is more restrictive) of our outstanding Class F preferred stock. See "Description of Class F Preferred Stock Restrictions on Ownership and Transfers of Stock" in this prospectus supplement. These restrictions could have anti-takeover effects and could reduce the possibility that a third party will attempt to acquire control of Realty Income, which could adversely affect the market price of our Class F preferred stock.

Disruptions in the financial markets could affect our ability to obtain financing on reasonable terms and have other adverse effects on us and the market price of our Class F preferred stock.

Over the last several years, the United States stock and credit markets have experienced significant price volatility, dislocations and liquidity disruptions, which have caused market prices of many stocks and debt securities to fluctuate substantially and the spreads on prospective debt financings to widen considerably. More recently, the financial crisis in Europe (which relates primarily to concerns that certain European countries may be unable to pay their national debt) has had a similar, although less pronounced, effect. These circumstances have materially impacted liquidity in the financial markets, making terms for certain financings less attractive, and in certain cases have resulted in the unavailability of certain types of financing. Unrest in certain Middle Eastern countries and the resultant increase in petroleum prices have added to the uncertainty in the capital markets. Continued uncertainty in the stock and credit markets may negatively impact our ability to access additional financing at reasonable terms, which may negatively affect our ability to make acquisitions. A prolonged downturn in the stock or credit markets may cause us to seek alternative sources of potentially less attractive financing, and may require us to adjust our business plan accordingly. In addition, these factors may make it more difficult for us to sell properties or may adversely affect the price we receive for properties that we do sell, as prospective buyers may experience increased costs of financing or difficulties in obtaining financing. These events in the stock and credit markets may make it more difficult or costly for us to raise capital through the issuance of our common stock or preferred stock or debt securities. These disruptions in the financial markets may have a material adverse effect on the market value of our common stock, preferred stock, including the Class F preferred stock offered hereby, and debt securities, the income we receive from our properties and the lease rates we charge for our properties, as well as other unknown adverse effects on us or the economy in general.

Because until recently there has never been a market for our Class F preferred stock, your ability to resell your shares may be limited.

Until recently, there has been no public market for our Class F preferred stock. Although the outstanding Class F preferred stock is listed on the NYSE, an active and liquid trading market for our Class F preferred stock may not exist or be sustained or provide you with adequate liquidity. Moreover, the price at which our Class F preferred stock trades depends on many factors, including prevailing interest rates, our financial condition and the market for similar securities. You may not be able to resell your shares of our Class F preferred stock at or above the initial price to the public, if at all.

If our common stock is delisted, your ability to transfer or sell your shares of the Class F preferred stock may be limited and the market value of the Class F preferred stock will likely be materially adversely affected.

Other than in connection with a Change of Control, the Class F preferred stock does not contain provisions that are intended to protect you if our common stock is delisted from the NYSE. Since the Class F preferred stock has no stated maturity date, you may be forced to hold your shares of the Class F preferred stock and receive stated dividends on the stock when, as and if authorized by our board of directors and paid by us with no assurance as to ever receiving the liquidation value. In addition, if our common stock is delisted, it is likely that the Class F preferred stock will be delisted as well. Accordingly, if our common stock is delisted, your ability to transfer or sell your shares of the Class F preferred stock may be limited and the market value of the Class F preferred stock will likely be materially adversely affected.

Table of ContentsRATIOS OF EARNINGS FROM CONTINUING OPERATIONS TO FIXED CHARGES AND COMBINED FIXED CHARGES AND PREFERRED STOCK DIVIDENDS

The following table sets forth the ratios of earnings from continuing operations to fixed charges and the ratios of earnings from continuing operations to combined fixed charges and preferred stock dividends for the periods shown. The ratios of earnings from continuing operations to fixed charges were computed by dividing our earnings from continuing operations by our fixed charges. For this purpose, earnings from continuing operations consist of income from continuing operations before interest expense. Fixed charges consist of interest costs (including capitalized interest) and the amortization of debt issuance costs. In computing the ratios of earnings from continuing operations to combined fixed charges and preferred stock dividends, preferred stock dividends consist of dividends on our Class D preferred stock (all of which was redeemed on March 1, 2012) and Class E preferred stock, as applicable. On May 27, 2004 and October 19, 2004, we issued 4,000,000 shares and 1,100,000 shares, respectively, of our Class D preferred stock. On December 7, 2006, we issued 8,800,000 shares of our Class E preferred stock. The ratios set forth below do not reflect the issuance of 14,950,000 shares of our Class F preferred stock on February 7, 2012.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We estimate the net proceeds from the sale of Class F preferred stock offered by this prospectus supplement will be approximately $34.4 million after deducting the underwriting discount and estimated expenses payable by us, plus accrued dividends of $25,760 for the period from and including April 15, 2012 to but excluding April 19, 2012.

We intend to use the net proceeds of this offering to repay a portion of the borrowings outstanding under our $425 million acquisition credit facility. At April 11, 2012, we had approximately $39.8 million of outstanding borrowings under our acquisition credit facility, which were generally used to acquire properties. To the extent not used for the foregoing purpose, any remaining net proceeds will be used for general corporate purposes and working capital, which may include acquisitions.

Pending application of the net proceeds for the purposes described above, we intend to temporarily invest the net proceeds in short-term government securities, short-term money market funds or bank certificates of deposit.

DESCRIPTION OF CLASS F PREFERRED STOCK

This description of the particular terms of the Class F preferred stock supplements, and to the extent inconsistent therewith replaces, the description of the general terms and provisions of our preferred stock set forth in the accompanying prospectus, to which description reference is hereby made. As used under this caption "Description of Class F Preferred Stock," references to "Realty Income," "us," "our" and "we" mean Realty Income Corporation excluding its subsidiaries, unless otherwise expressly stated or the context otherwise requires; and the term "Articles Supplementary" means, collectively, the articles supplementary, creating and establishing the terms of the Class F preferred stock that we have filed and will file with the State Department of Assessments and Taxation of Maryland.

General

Pursuant to our charter, we are currently authorized to issue up to 34,950,000 shares of preferred stock, $0.01 par value per share, in one or more classes or series, with such designations, preferences, conversion or agreement and the merger need not be approved by the stockholders of California Amplifier. However, due to the number of shares of California Amplifier common stock to be issued pursuant to the merger, the rules of The Nasdaq National Market require that the issuance of shares of common stock by California Amplifier in connection with the merger be approved by the stockholders of California Amplifier holding a majority of the shares of California Amplifier common stock voted at the California Amplifier special meeting.

Share Ownership of California Amplifier Directors and Officers

As of the close of business on the record date for the special meeting of California Amplifier stockholders, directors and officers of California Amplifier (and their respective affiliates) collectively owned approximately 7.8% of the outstanding shares of California Amplifier entitled to vote at the California Amplifier special meeting.

Recommendation to California Amplifier Stockholders (page 30)

The board of directors of California Amplifier believes that the terms of the merger and the merger agreement are advisable and fair to, and in the best interests of, California Amplifier and its stockholders and unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the issuance of shares of California Amplifier common stock to the stockholders of Vytek and the holders of all outstanding Vytek options and warrants, which will be assumed by California Amplifier in accordance with the merger agreement.

Vytek Merger Vote Required (page 33)

The approval of the merger proposal requires the affirmative vote of:

the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Vytek common stock and Vytek preferred stock, voting together as a single class on an as-converted to common stock basis; and the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Series A Preferred and Series B Preferred, voting together as a single class.

Vytek Certificate Amendment (pages 33 and 72)

As a closing condition to the merger, Vytek must approve an amendment to its Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation in order to exempt the merger and related transactions from triggering the liquidation preferences in the Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation and to clarify that the terms of the merger agreement will govern the distribution of consideration to Vytek stockholders in connection with the merger.

Approval of the merger proposal is contingent upon stockholder approval of the certificate amendment. The approval of the certificate amendment requires the affirmative vote of:

the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Vytek common stock and Vytek preferred stock, voting together as a single class on an as-converted to common stock basis;

the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Series A Preferred voting separately as a single class;

the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Series B Preferred voting separately as a single class;

the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Series Junior Preferred voting separately as a single class; and the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Vytek common stock voting separately as a single class.

Voting Agreements (page 69)

As of the close of business on the record date for the special meeting of Vytek stockholders, the directors and executive officers of Vytek, and certain stockholders affiliated with them, collectively owned approximately 70% of the outstanding shares of Vytek entitled to vote at the special meeting, including 70% of the outstanding shares of Vytex common stock and preferred stock calculated on an as-if-converted to common stock basis, 91% of the outstanding shares of Series A Preferred and Series B Preferred taken together, 28% of the outstanding shares of Vytex common stock, 91% of the outstanding shares of Series A Preferred, 89% of the outstanding shares of the Series B Preferred, and none of the outstanding shares of Series Junior Preferred.

These directors and officers, along with certain stockholders affiliated with them, have entered into voting agreements with California Amplifier in which they agreed to vote a portion of their shares for the approval of the merger proposal and the approval of the certificate amendment and against any proposals adverse to the merger. As of the record date, approximately 32.6% of the outstanding shares of Vytex common stock and preferred stock, calculated on an as-if-converted to common stock basis, 42.1% of the outstanding shares of Series A Preferred and Series B Preferred taken together, 42.2% of the outstanding shares of Series A Preferred, 41.8% of the outstanding shares of Series B Preferred, 13.7% of the outstanding shares of Vytex common stock and none of the outstanding shares of Series Junior Preferred were subject to such voting agreements.

Recommendation to the Vytex Stockholders (page 32)

The Vytex board of directors believes that the terms of the merger and the merger agreement are advisable and fair to, and in the best interests of, Vytex and its stockholders and unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the approval of the merger proposal and the approval of the Vytex certificate amendment.

Assumption of Options and Warrants (pages 56 and 57)

Immediately prior to the merger, each option to purchase shares of Vytex common stock will vest in full. Under the terms of the merger agreement, Vytex has agreed to use its commercially reasonable efforts to facilitate the exercise of all in-the-money options prior to the effective time of the merger. In connection with the merger, California Amplifier will assume all options to purchase shares of Vytex common stock, including the existing Vytex option plan, and all warrants to purchase shares of Vytex capital stock that are outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger.

Each option and warrant that is not exercised and is still outstanding at the effective time, regardless of whether such option or warrant is in-the-money or out-of-the-money, will be converted into the right to receive shares of California Amplifier common stock at the same exchange ratio applicable to the type of Vytex capital stock for which the option or warrant was exercisable prior to the merger. As of February 2, 2004, 1,623,698 options to purchase shares of Vytex common stock remained available for grant under Vytex's existing option plan. As a result of assuming the existing Vytex option plan, California Amplifier will be able to grant options exercisable for up to 135,012 shares of California Amplifier common stock to current Vytex employees.

Risks Related to the Merger (page 18)

The merger of California Amplifier and Vytex involves a variety of significant risks. These risks include, among others, the risk that the revenues of the combined company may be adversely affected should any decline in the demand for its satellite products occur, as currently, the revenues of California Amplifier are heavily derived from sales of outdoor reception equipment used in the U.S. DBS industry, which is dominated by two service providers that control the equipment procurement process. Other risks include:

California Amplifier and Vytex may be unable to successfully integrate their respective existing business operations;

the merger could be perceived negatively by key customers;

the issuance of additional shares of California Amplifier common stock pursuant to the merger may adversely affect California Amplifier's stock price; and the combined company may be unable to compete successfully against current and potential competitors.

Please see the section entitled "Risk Factors" beginning on page 18 for a more complete discussion of the risks related to the merger.

Management and Directors of the Combined Company after the Merger (page 123)

Following the merger, the management team for the combined company will not be significantly different from the current management team of California Amplifier. Tracy Trent, Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of VyteK, will become President of the VyteK Solutions Division of California Amplifier following the merger. Additionally, James E. Ousley, President and Chief Executive Officer of VyteK, will be nominated as a director of California Amplifier in connection with the merger, subject to the corporate governance board nominating procedures of California Amplifier. If none of the current members of California Amplifier's board of directors is removed or resigns, Mr. Ousley's nomination would require California Amplifier to increase the size of its board.

As a condition to the completion of the merger, all of the current directors of VyteK and any executive officers designated by California Amplifier must tender their resignation from VyteK.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger (page 65)

The completion of the merger depends upon a number of conditions being met, including:

the approval of the merger proposal and approval of the certificate amendment by the requisite vote of VyteK's stockholders;

the approval of the share issuance by the requisite vote of California Amplifier's stockholders;

the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended; the entry into lock-up agreements by certain stockholders of VyteK, including certain officers and directors of VyteK; and other customary contractual conditions specified in the merger agreement.

No Solicitation of Third Party Acquisitions by VyteK (page 62)

With certain exceptions, VyteK has agreed that neither it nor its representatives will (i) directly or indirectly encourage, solicit, participate in or initiate discussions or negotiations with any person or group (other than California Amplifier or Acquisition Sub) concerning any third party acquisition, (ii) provide any non-public information to any person or group related to a third party acquisition or (iii) agree to recommend a third party acquisition to VyteK's stockholders.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (page 66)

California Amplifier and VyteK can mutually agree to terminate the merger agreement without completing the merger. In addition, either California Amplifier or VyteK may terminate the merger agreement upon the occurrence of a number of events, including if:

the other party fails to comply in any material respect with any of its covenants or agreements contained in the merger agreement and fails to cure such noncompliance within 15 business days of receiving notice of the failure to comply;

the other party breaches any representation or warranty that results in such party's failure to fulfill a condition to the other party's obligation to effect the merger and fails to cure such breach within 15 business days of receiving notice of the breach;

the merger is not completed by June 30, 2004; or either party's stockholders fail to approve the matters to be voted on in connection with the merger.

California Amplifier may unilaterally terminate the merger agreement upon the occurrence of a number of events, including if:

Vytek's board of directors withdraws or modifies its approval or recommendation of the merger agreement or the merger in a manner adverse to California Amplifier;

Vytek's board of directors submits or recommends a superior proposal to the Vytek stockholders; or Vytek willfully and deliberately breaches its obligations to California Amplifier with respect to a third party acquisition.

Vytek may unilaterally terminate the merger agreement upon the occurrence of a number of events, including if:

Vytek receives a superior proposal, resolves to accept such proposal, and pays any applicable termination fee; or California Amplifier's board of directors withdraws or modifies its approval or recommendation of the share issuance in a manner adverse to Vytek.

Termination Liquidated Damages and Expenses (page 67)

If the merger agreement is terminated, under certain circumstances either Vytek or California Amplifier may be required to pay the other party a termination fee. Vytek must pay California Amplifier a termination fee of $2,000,000 if:

Vytek terminates the merger agreement as a result of its receipt and resolution to accept a superior proposal;

California Amplifier terminates the merger agreement because Vytek's board of directors withdraws or modifies its approval or recommendation of the merger agreement or the merger in a manner adverse to California Amplifier;

California Amplifier terminates the merger agreement as a result of Vytek's willful and deliberate breach of its obligations with respect to a third party acquisition;

Either California Amplifier or Vytek terminates the merger agreement because Vytek's stockholders fail to approve the merger proposal and at the time of the Vytek stockholder vote a third party acquisition proposal was publicly disclosed and not withdrawn; or California Amplifier terminates the merger agreement because Vytek's board of directors submits or recommends a superior proposal to the Vytek stockholders.

Vytek must pay California Amplifier an additional termination fee of $1,000,000 if:

The merger agreement is terminated in one of the ways described above and, within 15 months thereafter, Vytek consummates a third party acquisition.

Vytek must pay California Amplifier a termination fee of $3,000,000 if:

California Amplifier terminates the merger agreement because of Vytek's willful and deliberate breach of its obligations to California Amplifier with respect to a third party acquisition, and (i) California Amplifier is not in material breach of its obligations, (ii) Vytek has received a third party acquisition proposal, and (iii) within 15 months thereafter, Vytek has consummated a third party acquisition.

Vytek must pay California Amplifier a termination fee of $1,500,000 if:

Either California Amplifier or Vytek terminates the merger agreement because Vytek's stockholders failed to approve the merger proposal other than in the circumstances when a third party acquisition proposal was publicly announced and not withdrawn at the time of the Vytek stockholder meeting.

California Amplifier must pay Vytek a termination fee of $1,500,000 if:

Either California Amplifier or Vytek terminates the merger agreement because California Amplifier's stockholders failed to approve the issuance of California Amplifier shares pursuant to the merger; or Vytek terminates the merger agreement because California Amplifier's board of directors withdraws or modifies its approval or recommendation of the share issuance in a manner adverse to Vytek.

Under certain of the circumstances described above, the terminating party must reimburse the non-terminating party for up to $400,000 of costs, fees and expenses reasonably incurred by the non-terminating party in connection with the merger agreement, the merger and the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Each of Vytek and California Amplifier will otherwise pay its own legal, accounting and investment banking fees and other expenses related to the merger.

For a more complete discussion of each circumstance in which a termination fee must be paid, see the section entitled "The Merger Agreement - Termination Liquidated Damages and Expenses" on page 67.

Interests of Executive Officers and Directors of California Amplifier and Vytek in the Merger (page 45)

When considering the recommendation of the Vytek board of directors, you should be aware that some directors and officers of Vytek have interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, other Vytek stockholders. These include, among other interests:

certain Vytek directors and officers are affiliates of entities that beneficially own approximately 61% of Vytek's common stock and preferred stock calculated on an as-if-converted to common stock basis, as of February 2, 2004;

Vytek officers and directors have rights to indemnification against specified liabilities;

James E. Ousley, the current President and Chief Executive Officer of Vytek, (i) will be nominated as a director of California Amplifier in connection with the merger, subject to California Amplifier's corporate governance board nominating procedures and (ii) will be entitled to receive severance of $350,000 upon termination of his employment with Vytek, not including any position on the California Amplifier board of directors, if such termination occurs within one year of the effective time of the merger;

Leonard Fassler, Chairman of the Board of Vytek, will receive a severance payment of $100,000 and an incentive bonus of $200,000 upon completion of the merger;

Tracy Trent, Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of Vytek, has entered into an employment agreement with California Amplifier to become President, Vytek Solutions Division, of California Amplifier, which is contingent on consummation of the merger;

Walter Cook, Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Vytek will (i) receive an incentive bonus of $100,000 upon completion of the merger and (ii) will be entitled to receive severance of $180,000 upon termination of his employment with Vytek if such termination occurs within one year of the effective time of the merger; and Alexia Brown, Chief Legal Officer of Vytek, will receive an incentive bonus of $50,000 upon completion of the merger.

The board of directors of Vytek was aware of these interests and took them into consideration when they recommended that Vytek stockholders approve the merger proposal and the certificate amendment.

No directors or officers of California Amplifier have any interests in Vytek different from, or in addition to, other California Amplifier stockholders.

Opinion of California Amplifier's Financial Advisor (page 41)

In deciding to approve the merger and the actions related to the merger, California Amplifier's board of directors considered an opinion from its financial advisor, Ferris, Baker Watts, Incorporated, that, from a financial point of view, the consideration offered pursuant to the merger agreement is fair to the holders of California Amplifier common stock. The full text of this opinion is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex B and should be read carefully. Ferris, Baker Watts' opinion is directed to California Amplifier's board of directors and does not constitute a recommendation as to how any holder of California Amplifier common stock should vote on any matter relating to the merger, including the issuance of California Amplifier common stock pursuant to the merger agreement.

Interests of California Amplifier's Financial Advisor (page 44)

Pursuant to the terms of Ferris, Baker Watts' engagement letter with California Amplifier, California Amplifier has paid Ferris, Baker Watts $200,000 for services rendered and $15,000 for expenses incurred in connection with the delivery of its fairness opinion and has agreed to pay Ferris, Baker Watts an additional fee of approximately $1,260,000, payable in cash upon the closing of the merger, for its financial advisory services in connection with the merger.

Lock-Up Agreements (page 70)

Certain directors, officers and stockholders of Vytek are expected to enter into lock-up agreements with California Amplifier in connection with the merger. The lock-up agreements provide that each person entering into the lock-up agreement will not sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of any of the shares of California Amplifier common stock issued to that person at the closing of the merger for 180 days after the closing of the merger. Under the terms of the lock-up agreements, each stockholder entering into a lock-up agreement may transfer or sell (a) up to 50% of the shares of California Amplifier issued to that stockholder pursuant to the merger during the period beginning 180 days after the closing of the merger, and ending on the date that is 270 days after the closing of the merger and (b) up to an additional 25% of the shares issued to such person at the closing of the merger during the period beginning 270 days after the closing of the merger and ending on the one-year anniversary of the closing of the merger. All restrictions on the sale or transfer of California Amplifier common stock under the terms of the lock-up agreements expire on the one-year anniversary of the closing of the merger. It is within the sole discretion of California Amplifier to release any of the parties to the lock-up agreements from those agreements prior to the expiration of the restrictive periods; provided, however, that in the event California Amplifier sells shares in connection with an underwritten offering registered under the Securities Act, each of the stockholders who has entered into a lock-up agreement will be permitted to participate in that offering pursuant to the terms of a registration rights agreement.

Restrictions on the Ability of Vytek Affiliates to Sell California Amplifier Stock (page 53)

Subject to the provisions of the lock-up agreements, all shares of California Amplifier common stock that Vytek stockholders receive in connection with the merger will be freely transferable unless the holder is considered an affiliate of Vytek prior to the merger or of California Amplifier following the merger for purposes of the federal securities laws. Shares of California Amplifier common stock held by these affiliates may be sold only pursuant to a registration statement or an exemption under the Securities Act. The registration statement, of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus forms a part, is a registration statement for the resale of the California Amplifier common stock that will be owned after the merger by individuals and entities that are affiliates of Vytek and will not be affiliates of California Amplifier. Those former Vytek affiliates will therefore be able to freely sell the shares they receive pursuant to the merger, subject to the lock-up agreement restrictions and existence of an effective registration statement for the shares. California Amplifier will make copies of this joint proxy statement/prospectus available to the affiliates who intend to resell the shares of California Amplifier common stock received by them pursuant to the merger and has informed the selling stockholders of the need for delivery of a copy of this joint proxy statement/prospectus to each purchaser of the resale shares prior to or at the time of any sale of the resale shares offered hereby. After the merger (if required by applicable law, rules or regulations), California Amplifier has agreed with Vytek to file a post-effective amendment on Form S-3 to the registration statement of which this joint proxy statement/ prospectus is a part, which post-effective amendment will include a resale prospectus for the benefit of the selling stockholders of the number of shares of California Amplifier common stock received by those selling stockholders pursuant to the merger, and to keep this amendment effective until the earliest of (i) two years after the effective time of the merger, (ii) the date of final sale by the selling stockholders of all shares of California Amplifier common stock registered on the amendment and (iii) the date all shares of California Amplifier registered on the amendment become saleable pursuant to Rule 144 of the Securities Act without registration or limitation.

Escrow Agreement (page 70)

Upon the closing of the merger, California Amplifier will enter into an escrow agreement with James E. Ousley, as the designated representative of the Vytek stockholders, and a commercial bank, or its designee, as escrow agent. Under the terms of the merger agreement and the escrow agreement, 854,700, or approximately 10.4%, of the shares of California Amplifier common stock otherwise issuable to the Vytek stockholders at the closing of the merger will be placed in escrow as security for potential indemnity claims by California Amplifier under the merger agreement and for the payment, if necessary, of any obligation arising out of the working capital adjustment as defined in the merger agreement. The number of escrow shares will be deducted, on a pro rata basis, from the shares of California Amplifier common stock to be received by the Vytek stockholders at the closing of the merger.

The stockholder representative may direct the sale of some or all of the escrow shares, for a price of at least $11.00 per share, and deposit the proceeds received from such sale of the escrow shares into the escrow fund. Subject to any claims by California Amplifier for indemnification or the working capital adjustment, except for an amount equal in value to $2,000,000, all shares of California Amplifier common stock and any cash in the escrow fund will be released to the Vytek stockholders, in accordance with their pro rata portion, 15 months after the closing. All remaining shares of California Amplifier common stock and any remaining cash in the escrow fund will be released to the Vytek stockholders, in accordance with their pro rata portion, two years after the closing, subject to any then pending and unresolved claims for indemnification or the working capital adjustment.

If the merger agreement is approved and the merger occurs, all holders of Vytek capital stock who have not perfected appraisal rights under Delaware law will be deemed to have agreed to indemnify California Amplifier in certain specified circumstances. Under the merger agreement, after the merger is completed, California Amplifier, Acquisition Sub, Vytek and their respective affiliates, officers, directors, employees, stockholders, representatives and agents, collectively, the purchaser indemnitees, will be indemnified against losses or damages arising out of, or in connection with, any inaccuracy in or breach of any of Vytek's representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in the merger agreement. If California Amplifier or any other purchaser indemnitee suffers any losses which are subject to the indemnity, it can recover these losses solely by taking back shares of California Amplifier common stock deposited with the escrow agent or cash in the escrow fund equal in value to the damages suffered by California Amplifier or such other purchaser indemnitee, as applicable.

California Amplifier will not be entitled to indemnification with respect to any matters until the total of all losses to California Amplifier exceeds $100,000. If the total amount of losses exceeds $100,000, then California Amplifier will only be indemnified for those losses in excess of $100,000. Any indemnification claims will be paid from the escrow fund on a pro rata basis with respect to each Vytek stockholder. The maximum amount of losses recoverable by California Amplifier and the other indemnitees is $8,000,000.

California Amplifier will not have any indemnification rights against the stockholders of Vytek beyond the escrow fund, and the escrow fund will be the sole and exclusive remedy of California Amplifier for any breach by Vytek of the merger agreement.

Vytek stockholders and their respective affiliates, officers, directors, stockholders, representatives and agents, collectively, the stockholder indemnitees, are entitled to indemnification in certain specified circumstances. Under the merger agreement, after the merger is completed, Vytek stockholders and the other stockholder indemnitees will be indemnified against losses or damages arising out of, or in connection with, any inaccuracy in or breach of any of California Amplifier's representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in the merger agreement.

Vytek stockholders and the other stockholder indemnitees will not be entitled to indemnification with respect to any matters until the total of all losses to such stockholder indemnitees exceeds $100,000. If the total amount of losses exceeds $100,000, then the stockholder indemnitees will only be indemnified for those losses in excess of $100,000. The maximum amount of losses recoverable by Vytek stockholders and the other stockholder indemnitees is $8,000,000.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Considerations (page 48)

The merger is expected to qualify as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, also referred to as the Code. Assuming that the merger so qualifies, the stockholders of Vytek will not recognize any gain or loss on the receipt of California Amplifier common stock in exchange for their shares of Vytek capital stock. The stockholders, however, will recognize any gain or loss attributable to the receipt of cash in lieu of a fractional share of California Amplifier common stock.

The parties have obtained opinions of their respective tax counsel, dated as of February 13, 2004, to the effect that the merger will constitute a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. These opinions have been based on certain assumptions and representations that are forward looking in nature. Any inaccuracy or change in such assumptions or representations could adversely affect the conclusions reached in such opinions. Vytek stockholders should be aware that opinions of counsel as to the status of the merger as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code is not a condition to the closing of the merger and that the parties intend to consummate the merger even if, as of the closing date, such representations and assumptions are not in fact true and accurate, and as a result, the merger does not qualify as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code. In the event that the merger does not so qualify, the merger would be a taxable transaction to Vytek stockholders.

Tax consequences of the merger are complicated and the tax consequences of the merger to you will depend on your particular facts and circumstances. We urge you to consult with your own tax advisor regarding the tax consequences of the merger in light of your particular facts and circumstances.

UNAUDITED COMPARATIVE HISTORICAL AND PRO FORMA PER SHARE INFORMATION

The following table presents certain unaudited historical per share and combined pro forma per share information of California Amplifier, Vytek and Stellcom, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Vytek acquired April 3, 2003, or Stellcom, after giving effect to the merger using the purchase method of accounting. Because of Stellcom's materiality in relation to Vytek, the pro forma condensed combined statements of operations included elsewhere in this joint proxy statement/prospectus include Stellcom for the period prior to its acquisition by Vytek. Accordingly, the amounts shown below for Unaudited Pro Forma Combined Per Common Share Information: Net income (loss) basic and Net income (loss) diluted include Stellcom's results of operations.

The pro forma information does not purport to be indicative of the results of future operations or the results that would have occurred had the merger of California Amplifier and Vytek been consummated at the beginning of the periods presented. The information set forth below should be read in conjunction with the historical consolidated financial statements and notes thereto of California Amplifier incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, the respective financial statements and notes thereto of Vytek and Stellcom included in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, and the unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial information included elsewhere in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. The unaudited pro forma combined and unaudited pro forma equivalent per share information: (i) combine the results of operations of California Amplifier for the year ended February 28, 2003 with the respective results of operations of Vytek and Stellcom for the year ended December 31, 2002; (ii) combine the results of operations of California Amplifier for the nine months ended November 30, 2003, Vytek for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 and Stellcom (which is included in Vytek's results beginning April 3, 2003) for the period from January 1, 2003 to April 2, 2003; and (iii) combine California Amplifier's financial position at November 30, 2003 with Vytek's financial position at September 30, 2003. No cash dividends have ever been declared or paid on the common stock of California Amplifier, Vytek or Stellcom.

The following calculations were used in deriving the per share information:

Book value per share is computed by dividing total stockholders' equity by the equivalent number of common shares outstanding as of November 30, 2003 for California Amplifier and as of September 30, 2003 for Vytek.

California Amplifier's unaudited pro forma combined book value per share is computed by dividing pro forma stockholders' equity by the pro forma number of shares of common stock that would have been outstanding had the merger been consummated as of November 30, 2003.

Vytek's equivalent unaudited pro forma combined amounts are calculated by multiplying the California Amplifier pro forma combined per share income (loss) amounts and book value by the estimated exchange ratio of approximately 0.083151.

Vytek Capital Stock

There is no established public trading market for Vytek capital stock. In the opinion of Vytek management, due to a lack of an established public trading market for shares of Vytek capital stock, transactions in Vytek capital stock of which Vytek is aware have not occurred frequently enough to provide representative prices.

Vytek has never declared or paid any cash dividends on its capital stock. Vytek currently intends to retain any future earnings to finance the growth and development of its business and therefore does not anticipate paying any cash dividends in the foreseeable future. Any future determination to pay cash dividends will be at the discretion of the board of directors and will be dependent upon Vytek's financial condition, results of operations, capital requirements, general business conditions and other factors that the board of directors may deem relevant.

For restrictions that currently and materially limit Vytek's ability to pay dividends or that are reasonably likely to materially limit future dividends, other than the sufficiency of current or future earnings, see "Comparison of Rights of Holders of California Amplifier Capital Stock and Holders of Vytek Capital Stock - Dividends and Stock Repurchases" on page 146.

These statements are subject to risks and uncertainties and are based on the beliefs and assumptions of the management of California Amplifier and VyteK, based on information currently available to each company's management. The use of words such as believes, expects, anticipates, intends, plans, estimates, should, likely or similar expressions indicates that a forward-looking statement is being made. Forward-looking statements include, among other things, the information concerning possible or assumed future results of operations of California Amplifier or the combined company set forth under:

Summary ;

Risk Factors ;

Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Information.

Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of performance. They involve risks, uncertainties and assumptions. The future results and stockholder values of California Amplifier, VyteK or the combined company may differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements. Many of the factors that will determine these results and values are beyond California Amplifier's or VyteK's ability to control or predict. Stockholders are cautioned not to put undue reliance on any forward-looking statements. Those statements are made in reliance on the protection of the safe harbor for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. For a discussion of some of the factors that may cause actual results to differ materially from those suggested by the forward-looking statements, please read carefully the information under Risk Factors on page 18 and note also the following items:

the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions to closing of the merger, including receipt of stockholder approvals;

the ability of the combined company to raise sufficient capital to fund its programs following the merger;

the expected closing date of the merger;

the risk that the merger will not close;

the risk that the merger will not qualify as a reorganization under the provisions of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code for United States federal income tax purposes;

the risk that California Amplifier will not integrate the acquired business efficiently or successfully; the risk that California Amplifier will incur unanticipated costs to integrate and restructure the acquired business; fluctuations in the trading price and volume of California Amplifier common stock; competitive factors, such as price competition from other products and competition from other companies; and the cost of complying with current and future governmental regulations.

This list of factors that may affect future performance and the accuracy of forward-looking statements is illustrative, but by no means exhaustive. Accordingly, all forward-looking statements should be evaluated with the understanding of their inherent uncertainty. California Amplifier and VyteK expressly disclaim any obligation to update or alter forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

RISK FACTORS

You should carefully consider the following risk factors related to the merger and the combined company before you decide whether to vote to approve the merger proposal and the certificate amendment, or to approve the proposed issuance of shares of California Amplifier common stock in connection with the merger. You should also consider the other information incorporated by reference, information included in this joint proxy statement/ prospectus and the additional information in California Amplifier's other reports on file with the SEC. See "Where You Can Find More California Amplifier Information" on page 158 for where you can find the additional risk factors incorporated by reference.

Risk Factors Relating to the Merger

California Amplifier may not successfully implement its plan for Vytek's business operations after the merger.

The integration of Vytek's operations into California Amplifier's business after the merger may be difficult, time consuming and costly. After completion of the merger, the combined company must successfully, among other things, integrate Vytek's sourcing capabilities into California Amplifier's sourcing and manufacturing capabilities. In addition, the combined company will need to retain Vytek's operating management, key employees, customers, distributors, vendors and other business partners. It is possible that these integration efforts will not be completed as planned, or will be more costly than anticipated, either of which could have an adverse impact on the operations of the combined company.

California Amplifier expects to incur potentially significant merger-related costs in connection with the transaction and the integration of Vytek's operations.

California Amplifier expects to incur charges of approximately $2.4 million in outside costs, including legal, accounting and financial advisory fees, which are expected to be accounted for as purchase related adjustments when the merger is completed. The actual transaction costs may be higher than this estimate. In addition, the combined company expects to incur integration costs associated with the merger. These integration costs could be charged to operations in the fiscal quarter in which they are incurred, which could adversely affect the combined company's financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

California Amplifier will issue a fixed number of shares pursuant to the merger. The value of the shares of California Amplifier common stock at the time you receive them could be less than at the time you vote in favor of the merger.

In connection with the merger, California Amplifier will issue, or reserve for issuance, up to an aggregate of 8,318,122 shares of common stock, consisting of (i) 8,200,000 shares to be issued at the effective time of the merger and issuable upon the exercise of in-the-money options and in-the-money warrants to purchase Vytek common stock and preferred stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and (ii) up to an additional 118,122 shares issuable upon the exercise of out-of-the-money options and out-of-the-money warrants to purchase Vytek common stock and preferred stock that are outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger. The number of shares of California Amplifier common stock to be issued pursuant to the merger will not be adjusted as a result of any change in the market price of California Amplifier common stock between the date of this joint proxy statement/ prospectus and the date you receive California Amplifier common stock. The market price of the California Amplifier common stock will likely be different on the date you receive such shares than it is today, because of changes in the business, financial condition, results of operations or prospects of California Amplifier, market reactions to our merger, general market and economic conditions and other factors. You are urged to obtain a current market quotation for California Amplifier common stock. See "Market Price and Dividend Information" on page 15.

Vytek stockholders may receive a lower return on their investment after the merger.

Although California Amplifier and Vytek believe that the merger will create financial, operational and strategic benefits for the combined company and its stockholders, these benefits may not be achieved. The combination of California Amplifier's and Vytek's businesses, even if conducted in an efficient, effective and timely manner, may not result in combined operating efficiencies and financial performance that are better than what each company would have achieved independently if the merger had not occurred. In addition, the issuance of California Amplifier common stock pursuant to the merger may result in a decrease in the market price of California Amplifier common stock.

Vytek's directors and officers may have interests in the merger that differ from, or are in addition to, their interests as Vytek stockholders in recommending the merger to Vytek stockholders.

In considering the recommendation of the Vytek board of directors that Vytek stockholders vote in favor of the merger proposal and the certificate amendment, Vytek stockholders should recognize that some of Vytek's directors and officers have interests in the merger that may differ from, or are in addition to, their interests as Vytek stockholders. These interests include:

current and future employment arrangements;

severance benefits;

conversion and acceleration of stock options; and indemnification of directors and officers of Vytek against certain liabilities.

These and additional interests are described under the heading "Interests of Executive Officers and Directors of California Amplifier and Vytek in the Merger" on page 45.

Vytek stockholders will have a reduced ownership and voting interest after the merger.

After completion of the merger, Vytek stockholders will own a smaller percentage of the combined company and its voting stock than they currently own of Vytek. Consequently, Vytek stockholders will be able to exercise a lesser influence over the management and policies of the combined company.

California Amplifier could lose key Vytek personnel necessary to achieve the benefits California Amplifier and Vytek expect as a result of the merger.

Vytek's contribution to the combined company's success will depend in part on the continued service of key Vytek personnel. If a substantial portion of Vytek's operating management or other key employees leave after California Amplifier and Vytek complete the merger, the combined company's business could be adversely affected.

If California Amplifier is required to replace its current credit facility, it could require substantial amounts of cash, which could materially reduce the liquidity and financing available to California Amplifier.

As a condition to closing the merger, California Amplifier has agreed to replace or pay off its current credit facility in the event that it is unable to obtain any necessary consent to the transaction from its commercial bank lenders. If California Amplifier is unable to obtain the necessary consent from its commercial bank lenders and is unable to replace its current credit facility, it could require substantial amounts of cash to pay off its current credit facility that could materially reduce the liquidity and financing available to California Amplifier and could adversely affect its business and financial condition.

There can be no assurance that the merger will qualify as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

California Amplifier and Vytek do not plan to obtain a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service with regard to the qualification of the merger as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. Nor is the issuance of an opinion of counsel in that regard a condition to the closing of the merger. Although the parties have obtained opinions of their respective tax counsel, dated as of February 13, 2004, as to the status of the merger as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code, these opinions of counsel were given in reliance on customary representations of the parties and are subject to customary assumptions. Certain of those representations and assumptions are forward-looking in nature and there is no way of determining with any level of certainty that such representations and assumptions will be true and accurate as of the closing date of the merger. For example, although the opinions are based on certain assumptions relating to the number of dissenting shares, there is no way of determining whether or not such assumptions will be accurate. Any inaccuracy or change in the assumptions or representations could adversely affect the conclusions reached in the opinions. Vytek stockholders should be aware that the parties intend to consummate the merger even if, as of the closing date, such representations and assumptions are not in fact true and accurate, and as a result, the merger does not qualify as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code. In the event that the merger does not so qualify, the merger would be a taxable transaction to Vytek stockholders.

Risk Factors and Trends Relating to the Combined Company

The combined company's business will be subject to many factors that could cause its quarterly or annual operating results to fluctuate and its stock price to be volatile.

Each of California Amplifier's and Vytek's quarterly and annual operating results have fluctuated in the past and may fluctuate significantly in the future due to a variety of factors, many of which are outside of their control. If the combined company's quarterly or annual operating results do not meet the expectations of securities analysts and investors, the trading price of its common stock could significantly decline. Some of the factors that could affect the combined company's quarterly or annual operating results include:

the timing and amount of, or cancellation or rescheduling of, orders for the combined company's products; the combined company's ability to develop, introduce, ship and support new products and product enhancements and manage product transitions;

announcements, new product introductions and reductions in price of products offered by our competitors;

the combined company's ability to achieve cost reductions;

the combined company's ability to obtain sufficient supplies of sole or limited source components for its products;

the combined company's ability to achieve and maintain production volumes and quality levels for its products;

the combined company's ability to maintain the volume of products sold and the mix of distribution channels through which they are sold;

the loss of any one of the combined company's major customers or a significant reduction in orders from those customers; increased competition, particularly from larger, better capitalized competitors;

fluctuations in demand for its products and services; and telecommunications and wireless market conditions specifically and economic conditions generally.

Due in part to factors such as the timing of product release dates, purchase orders and product availability, significant volume shipments of products could occur at the end of a fiscal quarter. Failure to ship products by the end of a quarter may adversely affect operating results. In the future, the combined company's customers may delay delivery schedules or cancel their orders without notice. Due to these and other factors, the combined company's quarterly revenue, expenses and results of operations could vary significantly in the future, and period-to-period comparisons should not be relied upon as indications of future performance.

Because some of the combined company's key components are from sole source suppliers or require long lead times, the business of the combined company is subject to unexpected interruptions, which could cause its operating results to suffer.

Some of the combined company's key components are complex to manufacture and have long lead times. Also, some of the combined company's components will be purchased from sole source vendors for which alternative sources are not readily available. In the event of a reduction or interruption of supply, or a degradation in quality, as many as six months could be required before the combined company would begin receiving adequate supplies from alternative suppliers, if any. As a result, product shipments could be delayed and revenues and results of operations would suffer. If the combined company receives a smaller allocation of component parts than is necessary to manufacture products in quantities sufficient to meet customer demand, customers could choose to purchase competing products and the combined company could lose market share.

The combined company's lack of product diversification means that any decline in price or demand for the combined company's products would adversely affect its business.

The combined company's satellite and wireless access products will account for a substantial portion of the combined company's revenue and are expected to do so for the foreseeable future. Consequently, a decline in the price of, or demand for, the combined company's satellite or wireless access products, or their failure to achieve or maintain broad market acceptance, could adversely affect the combined company's business.

If the combined company does not meet product introduction deadlines, its business could be adversely affected.

The combined company's inability to develop new products or product features on a timely basis, or the failure of new products or product features to achieve market acceptance, could adversely affect its business. In the past, both California Amplifier and Vytek have experienced design and manufacturing difficulties that have delayed the development, introduction or marketing of new products and enhancements, which caused them to incur unexpected expenses. In addition, some of California Amplifier's existing customers have conditioned their future purchases of the combined company's products on the addition of product features. In the past California Amplifier has experienced delays in introducing new features. Furthermore, in order to compete in some markets, the combined company will have to develop different versions of California Amplifier's and Vytek's existing products that operate at different frequencies and comply with diverse, new or varying governmental regulations in each market.

If demand for the combined company's products fluctuates rapidly and unpredictably, it may be difficult to manage the business efficiently, which may result in reduced gross margins and profitability.

The combined company's cost structure will be based in part on its expectations for future demand. Many costs, particularly those relating to capital equipment and manufacturing overhead, are relatively fixed. Rapid and unpredictable shifts in demand for the combined company's products may make it difficult to plan production capacity and business operations efficiently. If demand is significantly below expectations, the combined company may be unable to rapidly reduce these fixed costs, which can diminish gross margins and cause losses. A sudden downturn may also leave the combined company with excess inventory, which may be rendered obsolete as products evolve during the downturn and demand shifts to newer products. The combined company's ability to reduce costs and expenses may be further constrained because it must continue to invest in research and development to maintain its competitive position and to maintain service and support for its existing global customer base. Conversely, in the event of a sudden upturn, the combined company may incur significant costs to rapidly expedite delivery of components, procure scarce components and outsource additional manufacturing processes. These costs could reduce the combined company's gross margins and overall profitability. Any of these results could adversely affect the combined company's business.

Because the combined company intends to sell some of its products in countries other than the United States, subjecting it to different regulatory schemes, and the combined company will have a significant foreign supply base, the combined company may not be able to develop products that work with the different standards resulting in its inability to sell its products, and, further, it may be subject to political, economic, and other conditions affecting such countries that could result in reduced sales of the combined company's products, which could adversely affect its business.

If the combined company's sales are to grow in the longer term, it must continue to sell its products in many different countries. Many countries require communications equipment used in their country to comply with unique regulations, including safety regulations, radio frequency allocation schemes and standards. If the combined company cannot develop products that work with different standards, it will be unable to sell its products. If compliance proves to be more expensive or time consuming than the combined company anticipates, its business would be adversely affected. Some countries have not completed their radio frequency allocation process and therefore the combined company does not know the standards with which it would be forced to comply. Furthermore, standards and regulatory requirements are subject to change. If the combined company fails to anticipate or comply with these new standards, its business and results of operations will be adversely affected.

Sales to customers outside the U.S. accounted for 9.5%, 17.6% and 24.6% of California Amplifier's total sales for the fiscal years ended February 28, 2003, 2002 and 2001, respectively. Assuming that the combined company continues to sell its products to such customers, it will be subject to the political, economic and other conditions affecting countries or jurisdictions other than the U.S., including Africa, the Middle East, Europe and Asia. Any interruption or curtailment of trade between the countries in which the combined company operates and their present trading partners, change in exchange rates, significant shift in U.S. trade policy toward these countries, or significant downturn in the political, economic or financial condition of these countries, could cause demand for and sales of the combined company's products to decrease, or subject the combined company to increased regulation including future import and export restrictions, any of which could adversely affect its business.

Additionally, a substantial portion of California Amplifier's components and subassemblies are currently procured from foreign suppliers located primarily in Hong Kong, mainland China, Taiwan, and other Pacific Rim countries. Any significant shift in U.S. trade policy toward these countries or a significant downturn in the political, economic or financial condition of these countries could cause disruption of the combined company's supply chain or otherwise disrupt operations, which could adversely affect the business of the combined company.

Because California Amplifier relies on a relatively limited number of customers for a large portion of sales and business, the loss of a major customer could significantly harm the revenue of the combined company.

California Amplifier currently generates a significant portion of sales from a relatively small number of customers. Sales to California Amplifier's four largest customers accounted for approximately 71%, 82% and 65% of total sales in the fiscal years ended February 28, 2003, 2002 and 2001, respectively. The loss of, or a decrease in orders by, one or more of California Amplifier's major customers could adversely affect the combined company's sales, business and reputation.

California Amplifier does not currently have long-term contracts with customers and its customers may cease purchasing products at any time, which could significantly harm the revenues of the combined company.

California Amplifier generally does not have long-term contracts with its customers. As a result, California Amplifier's agreements with its customers do not currently provide the combined company with any assurance of future sales. These customers can cease purchasing products from the combined company at any time without penalty, they are free to purchase products from the combined company's competitors, they may expose the combined company to competitive price pressure on each order and they are not required to make minimum purchases.

Economic conditions could adversely affect the business of the combined company and its ability to raise capital.

The United States was recently in the midst of a general economic downturn, which had a severe negative impact on the worldwide telecommunications, consumer electronics and wireless industries. The rate at which the economy, in general and these industries in particular, recover from the downturn are crucial to the combined company's ability to improve its overall financial performance. If the recovery falters, or the economy slides back into a downturn, the business of the combined company could suffer and the combined company could experience reductions in sales, as well as financial losses, as customers of the combined company attempt to limit their spending. In addition, the adverse impact of any downturn on the capital markets could impair the ability of the combined company to raise capital as needed and impede the ability of the combined company to expand its business.

The combined company's wireless access business is subject to rapid technology changes, evolving standards and government regulation.

The market for broadband wireless Internet access that will be served by the combined company's wireless access business is subject to rapid technological change, frequent new service introductions and evolving industry standards. The future success of the combined company in this market will depend largely on its ability to anticipate or adapt to technological changes and to offer, on a timely basis, products that meet evolving standards. Neither California Amplifier nor Vytex can predict the extent to which competitors using existing or future methods of delivery of Internet access services will compete with the combined company's services. Neither California Amplifier nor Vytex can assure you that:

existing, proposed or undeveloped technologies will not render the combined company's broadband wireless systems less profitable or less viable;

the combined company will have the resources to acquire new technologies or to introduce new services that could compete with future technologies; or the combined company will be successful in responding to technological changes in a timely and cost effective manner.

Additionally, regulatory changes by the U.S. Federal Communications Commission or by regulatory agencies outside the United States, including changes in the allocation of available frequency spectrum, could significantly affect the combined company's operations by restricting its development efforts, rendering current products obsolete, or increasing the opportunity for additional competition. There can be no assurance that new regulations will not be promulgated that could materially and adversely affect its business and operating results.

Because the markets in which the combined company will compete are highly competitive and many of its competitors will have greater resources than the combined company will have, the combined company cannot be certain that its products will continue to be accepted in the marketplace or capture increased market share.

The market for integrated microwave fixed point reception and transmission products is intensely competitive and characterized by rapid technological change, evolving standards, short product life cycles, and price erosion. The combined company expects competition to intensify as its competitors expand their product offerings and new competitors enter the market. Given the highly competitive environment in which the combined company will operate, it cannot be sure that any competitive advantages currently enjoyed by California Amplifier's or Vytex's products will be sufficient to establish and sustain its products in the market. Any increase in price or other competition could result in erosion of the combined company's market share, to the extent it has obtained market share, and would have a negative impact on its financial condition and results of operations. The combined company cannot provide assurance that it will have the financial resources, technical expertise or marketing and support capabilities to compete successfully.

The combined company faces competition from a variety of companies, which generally vary in size and in the scope and breadth of products and services offered. The combined company also faces competition from customers' or prospective customers' own internal development efforts. Many of the companies that currently compete with California Amplifier, or may compete in the future with the combined company, have longer operating histories, greater name recognition, larger installed customer bases and significantly greater financial, technical and marketing resources. These competitors may also have pre-existing relationships with the combined company's customers or potential customers. As a result, they may be able to introduce new technologies, respond more quickly to changing customer requirements or devote greater resources to the development, promotion and sale of their products than the combined company can. The combined company's competitors may successfully integrate the functionality of California Amplifier's current reception and transmission products into their products and thereby render the combined company's products obsolete. Further, in the event of a manufacturing capacity shortage, these competitors may be able to manufacture products when the combined company is unable to do so.

The combined company believes that California Amplifier's existing principal competitors for its satellite products business include, and the principal competitors for the combined company's satellite products business will include, Sharp, Wistron NeWeb Corporation, Alps, Winegard and MTI, and that the principal competitors for its wireless access business will include IP Wireless, Motorola, WaveCom Electronics Inc., NextNet and Proxim Corporation. In addition, there have been a number of announcements by other companies, including smaller emerging companies, that they intend to enter market segments adjacent to or addressed by the combined company's products. For information regarding competition in Vytex's business, see "Information Concerning Vytex Competition" on page 80.

The combined company may not be able to adequately protect its intellectual property, and its competitors may be able to offer similar products and services that would harm its competitive position.

The combined company's ability to succeed in the wireless access business may depend, in large part, upon its intellectual property. California Amplifier and Vytex currently rely primarily on patents, trademark and trade secret laws, confidentiality procedures and contractual provisions to establish and protect their intellectual property. These mechanisms provide California Amplifier with only limited protection. California Amplifier currently holds 20 patents and has 11 patent applications pending, and Vytex currently holds one patent. Both California Amplifier and Vytex, as part of their confidentiality procedures, enter into non-disclosure agreements with all of their executive officers, managers and supervisory employees. Despite these precautions, third parties could copy or otherwise obtain and use the combined company's technology without authorization, or develop similar technology independently. Furthermore, effective protection of intellectual property rights is unavailable or limited in some foreign countries. The combined company's protection of its intellectual property rights may not provide the combined company with any legal remedy should its competitors independently develop similar technology, duplicate its products and services, or design around any intellectual property rights the combined company holds.

The combined company may be subject to infringement claims, which may disrupt the conduct of its business or affect its profitability.

The combined company may be subject to legal proceedings and claims from time to time relating to the intellectual property of others, even though it takes steps to assure that neither its employees nor its contractors knowingly incorporate unlicensed copyrights or trade secrets into its products. It is possible that third parties may claim that the combined company's products and services may infringe upon their trademark, patent, copyright, or trade secret rights. Any such claims, regardless of their merit, could be time consuming, expensive, cause delays in introducing new or improved products or services, require the combined company to enter into royalty or licensing agreements or require the combined company to stop using the challenged intellectual property. Successful infringement claims against the combined company may materially disrupt the conduct of its business or affect profitability. There are currently no legal proceedings or claims for infringement of intellectual property rights pending against California Amplifier or Vytex.

If the combined company's satellite dish manufacturing subcontractor encounters financial or operating difficulties, it could disrupt the supply of dishes and adversely disrupt the combined company's business.

The combined entity expects to follow through with California Amplifier's plan to close its satellite antenna dish manufacturing operations in Wisconsin effective February 28, 2004 and outsource the dish manufacturing to a steel fabrication subcontractor. If this subcontractor encounters financial or operating difficulties, it could disrupt the combined company's supply of dishes and adversely affect its business.

The combined company may engage in future acquisitions that have adverse consequences for its business.

In April 2002, California Amplifier completed the acquisition of the assets and business of Kaul-Tronics, Inc., and in April 2003, Vytex completed the acquisition of Stellcom, Inc. As part of the combined company's business strategy, from time to time, it expects to review opportunities to acquire and may acquire other businesses or products that will complement its existing product offerings, augment its market coverage or enhance its technological capabilities. Although neither California Amplifier nor Vytex has any current agreements or negotiations underway with respect to any material acquisitions other than the merger agreement with Vytex, the combined company may make acquisitions of businesses, products or technologies in the future. However, the combined company cannot be sure that it will be able to locate suitable acquisition opportunities. The acquisitions that California Amplifier or Vytex have completed and that the combined company may complete in the future could result in the following, any of which could seriously harm the combined company's results of operations or the price of its stock: (i) issuances of equity securities of California Amplifier that would dilute the percentage ownership of the current stockholders; (ii) large one-time write-offs; (iii) the incurrence of debt and contingent liabilities; (iv) difficulties in the assimilation and integration of the acquired companies; (v) diversion of management's attention from other business concerns; (vi) contractual disputes; (vii) risks of entering geographic and business markets in which the combined company has no or only limited prior experience; and (viii) potential loss of key employees or customers of acquired organizations.

The combined company's primary operations will be located near known earthquake faults.

The occurrence of an earthquake or other natural disaster in the vicinity of the combined company's primary operations located in Oxnard, California could cause significant damage to its facility that may require the combined company to cease or suspend operations. Although the combined company will continue to carry insurance for earthquake risks, it can provide no assurance that such insurance coverage will be adequate in the event of a catastrophic loss, that earthquake insurance will continue to be available, or that, if available, earthquake coverage will continue to be carried by the combined company in the future.

The combined company depends on senior management and other key personnel. If the combined company lost any of members of its senior management team, its ability to carry out its long-term business strategy could be adversely affected.

The combined company believes its future success largely depends on the expertise of its senior management team. The loss of one or more members of senior management could disrupt the combined company's operations or the execution of its business strategy.

The combined company faces risks associated with a pending SEC investigation.

In May 2001, the SEC opened an investigation into the circumstances surrounding the misstatements in California Amplifier's consolidated financial statements for its 2000 and 2001 fiscal years caused by its former controller, as discussed in Note 12 to California Amplifier's consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended February 28, 2003, incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. California

Amplifier has been, and expects the combined company to continue, cooperating with the SEC in connection with its investigation. As of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, California Amplifier expects that the investigation will be resolved by its entering into a cease and desist order with the SEC with respect to future violations of various provisions of federal securities laws. California Amplifier and the staff of the SEC have exchanged drafts of such an order but no formal approval of this resolution to the investigation has been given by the SEC. The combined company can provide no assurance that the SEC will approve the cease and desist order or that it will be able to avoid the imposition of penalties or other sanctions by the SEC as a result of its investigation. Regardless of the ultimate outcome of the investigation, California Amplifier's business and reputation could be adversely affected.

Cost of licenses to use radio frequencies may restrict the growth of the wireless communications industry and demand for the combined company's products.

Radio frequencies are required to provide wireless services. The allocation of frequencies is regulated in the United States and other countries throughout the world and limited spectrum space is allocated to wireless services. The growth of the wireless communications industry may be affected if adequate frequencies are not allocated or, alternatively, if new technologies are not developed to better utilize the frequencies currently allocated for such use.

Industry growth has been and may continue to be affected by the cost of new licenses required to use frequencies and the related frequency relocation costs. Typically, governments sell these licenses at auctions. Over the last several years, the costs of these licenses and the related frequency relocation costs have increased significantly. The significant cost for licenses and related frequency relocation costs have slowed and may continue to slow the growth of the industry. Growth is slowed because some operators have funding constraints limiting their ability to purchase new licenses, pay the relocation costs or technology to upgrade systems and the financial results for a number of businesses have been affected by the industry's rate of growth. Slowed growth among operators may restrict the demand for the combined company's products.

A failure to rapidly transition or to transition at all to newer digital technologies could adversely affect the combined company's business.

The combined company's success, in part, will be affected by the ability of the combined company's wireless business to continue its transition to newer digital technologies, and successfully compete in that business and gain market share. The combined company faces intense competition in these markets from both established companies and new entrants. Product life cycles can be short and new products are expensive to develop and bring to market.

The combined company will depend upon wireless networks owned and controlled by others, unproven business models and emerging wireless carrier models to deliver existing services and to grow.

If the combined company does not have continued access to sufficient capacity on reliable networks, the combined company may be unable to deliver services and the combined company's sales could decrease. The combined company's ability to grow and achieve profitability partly depends on the ability to buy sufficient capacity on the networks of wireless carriers and on the reliability and security of their systems. All of the combined company's services will be delivered using airtime purchased from third parties. The combined company will depend on these companies to provide uninterrupted service free from errors or defects and would not be able to satisfy the combined company's customers' needs if they failed to provide the required capacity or needed level of service. In addition, the combined company's expenses would increase and profitability could be materially adversely affected if wireless carriers were to increase the prices of their services. California Amplifier's and Vytex's existing agreements with the wireless carriers generally have one-year terms. Some of these wireless carriers are, or could become, the combined company's competitors, and if they compete with the combined company, they may refuse to provide the combined company with their services.

The combined company's software may contain defects or errors, and its sales could decrease if this injures its reputation or delays shipments of its software.

Vytek's and California Amplifier's current software products and platforms are complex and must meet the stringent technical requirements of customers. Therefore, the combined company must develop services quickly to keep pace with the rapidly changing software and telecommunications markets. Software as complex as that which will be offered by the combined company is likely to contain undetected errors or defects, especially when first introduced or when new versions are released. Some existing contracts related to software contain provisions that require Vytek or California Amplifier to repair or replace products that fail to work. To the extent that such products are repaired or replaced in the future, the combined company's expenses may increase, resulting in a decline in its gross margins. In addition, the combined company's software may not be free from errors or defects after delivery to customers has begun, which could result in the rejection of its software or services, damage to its reputation, lost revenue, diverted development resources and increased service and warranty costs.

New laws and regulations that impact the industry could increase costs or reduce opportunities for the combined company to earn revenue.

Neither California Amplifier nor Vytek is currently subject to direct regulation by the Federal Communications Commission, or FCC, or any other governmental agency, other than regulations applicable to Delaware corporations of similar size that are headquartered in California. However, in the future, the combined company may become subject to regulation by the FCC or another regulatory agency. In addition, the wireless carriers that supply airtime and certain hardware suppliers are subject to regulation by the FCC and regulations that affect them could increase the combined company's costs or reduce its ability to continue selling and supporting its services.

An increase in regulation of the Internet may have an adverse effect on the business of the combined company.

There are currently few laws or regulations that apply directly to access to, or commerce on, the Internet. The combined company could be adversely affected by any such regulation in any country where the combined company operates. The adoption of such measures could decrease demand for the combined company's products and at the same time increase the cost of selling such products.

Acts of war or terrorism may have an adverse effect on the combined company's business.

Acts of war or terrorism may have an adverse effect on the economy generally, and more specifically, on the combined company's business. Among various other risks, such occurrences have the potential to significantly decrease consumer spending on leisure products and activities, adversely impact the combined company's ability to consummate future debt or equity financings and negatively affect the combined company's ability to manufacture, source and deliver low-cost goods in a timely manner.

Anti-takeover defenses in the combined company's charter and under Delaware law could prevent an acquisition of the combined company or limit the price that investors might be willing to pay for common stock of the combined company.

Section 203 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, or DGCL, prohibits a Delaware corporation from engaging in any business combination with any interested stockholder for a period of three years from the time the person became an interested stockholder, unless specific conditions are met. In addition, the combined company will have in place various protections which would make it difficult for a company or investor to buy the combined company without the approval of the combined company's board of directors, including a stockholder rights plan, a classified board of directors, provisions requiring advance notice of board nominations and other actions to be taken at stockholder meetings and super-majority voting requirements with respect to extraordinary actions. See Comparison of Rights of Holders of California Amplifier Capital Stock and Holders of Vytek Capital Stock on page 146. All of the foregoing could hinder, delay or prevent a change in control of the combined company and could limit the price that investors might be willing to pay in the future for shares of common stock of the combined company.

Risks Related to the Securities Market

The trading price of shares of California Amplifier common stock may be affected by factors in addition to those factors affecting the price of Vyteck common stock. The price of shares of California Amplifier common stock could decline.

As a publicly traded company, the trading price of California Amplifier common stock has fluctuated significantly in the past. The future trading price of California Amplifier common stock is likely to be volatile and could be subject to wide price fluctuations in response to such factors, including:

- actual or anticipated fluctuations in revenues or operating results;
- failure to meet securities analysts' or investors' expectations of performance;
- changes in key management personnel;
- announcements of technological innovations or new products by California Amplifier or its competitors;
- developments in or disputes regarding patents and proprietary rights;
- proposed and completed acquisitions by California Amplifier or its competitors;
- the mix of products and services sold;
- the timing, placement and fulfillment of significant orders;
- product and service pricing and discounts;
- acts of war or terrorism; and
- general economic conditions.

California Amplifier's stock price is highly volatile and it expects the stock price of the combined company to remain highly volatile.

The market price of California Amplifier stock has been highly volatile and it expects the stock price of the combined company to remain highly volatile due to the risks and uncertainties described in this section of the joint proxy statement/prospectus, as well as other factors, including:

- substantial volatility in quarterly revenues and earnings due to California Amplifier's current dependence on a small number of major customers; and
- comments by securities analysts, or the combined company's failure to meet market expectations.

Over the two-year period ended February 10, 2004, the price of California Amplifier common stock as reported on The Nasdaq National Market ranged from a high of $16.87 to a low of $3.07. The stock market has from time to time experienced extreme price and volume fluctuations that are unrelated to the operating performance of particular companies. In the past, companies that have experienced volatility have sometimes been the subject of securities class action litigation. If litigation were instituted on this basis, it could result in substantial costs and a diversion of management's attention and resources.

Multiple factors beyond the combined company's control may cause fluctuations in its operating results and may cause its business to suffer.

The revenues and results of operations of the combined company may fluctuate significantly, depending on a variety of factors, including the following:

California Amplifier's dependence on a few major customers in its satellite products business that currently account for a substantial majority of its overall sales;

the introduction of new products and services by competitors; and seasonality in the equipment market for the U.S. DBS subscription television industry.

The combined company will not be able to control many of these factors. In addition, if the revenues of the combined company in a particular period do not meet expectations, it may not be able to adjust its expenditures in that period, which could cause its business to suffer. Period-to-period comparisons of the financial results of the combined company will not necessarily be meaningful. You should not rely on these comparisons as an indication of the combined company's future performance. If the operating results of the combined company in any future period fall below the expectations of securities analysts and investors, its stock price may fall, possibly by a significant amount.

On the record date, there were 14,903,012 shares of California Amplifier common stock outstanding, each of which will be entitled to one vote. Shares of California Amplifier common stock present in person or represented by proxy at the California Amplifier special meeting and entitled to vote, including broker non-votes and abstentions, will be counted for the purposes of determining whether a quorum is present. A quorum is present when the holders of record of a majority in voting interest of the shares of stock of California Amplifier entitled to be voted thereat, are present in person, or by proxy.

The Share Issuance. Pursuant to applicable rules of The Nasdaq National Market, the holders of a majority of the total number of shares of California Amplifier common stock voted in person or by proxy at the special meeting must approve the issuance of up to 8,318,122 shares of California Amplifier common stock in connection with the merger, including the issuance of up to 101,683 shares pursuant to out-of-the-money options and 16,439 shares pursuant to out-of-the-money warrants to purchase Vytek common and preferred stock, to be assumed by California Amplifier in the merger. Abstentions and broker non-votes will not be considered voted at the special meeting for or against the approval of the share issuance.

Abstentions and broker non-votes will not be counted as having been voted on the proposal and have the effect of reducing the number of affirmative votes required to achieve a majority for such approval by reducing the total number of shares from which the majority is calculated. A broker non-vote occurs when a broker holding shares for a beneficial owner does not vote on a proposal because the broker does not have discretionary voting power and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner with respect to the proposal.

Voting and Revocation of Proxies

All shares of California Amplifier common stock that are entitled to vote and are represented at the California Amplifier special meeting by properly executed proxies received by California Amplifier prior to or at the meeting, and not revoked, will be voted at the meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof in accordance with the instructions indicated on the proxies. If no instructions are indicated (other than broker non-votes), the proxies will be voted FOR approval of the share issuance.

The persons appointed as proxies of the California Amplifier stockholders (Ira Coron and Fred Sturm) may propose and vote for one or more adjournments or postponements of the special meeting, including adjournments or postponements to permit further solicitation of proxies in favor of the share issuance, if California Amplifier stockholders have granted such authority to the proxies by checking the appropriate box on the California Amplifier proxy. No proxy voted against the approval of the share issuance will be voted in favor of any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies.

The California Amplifier board of directors does not know of any matters other than those described in the notice of the California Amplifier special meeting that are to be presented for action at such meeting. If any other matters are properly presented at the California Amplifier special meeting for consideration, the persons appointed as proxies generally will have discretion to vote on such matters in accordance with their judgment.

The person giving a proxy pursuant to this solicitation may revoke it at any time before it is voted. Proxies may be revoked by:

filing with the Corporate Secretary of California Amplifier, at or before the taking of the vote at the California Amplifier special meeting, a written notice of revocation bearing a later date than the proxy; duly executing a later dated proxy relating to the same shares and delivering it to the Corporate Secretary of California Amplifier before the taking of the vote at the California Amplifier special meeting; or attending the California Amplifier special meeting and voting in person, although attendance at the California Amplifier special meeting will not in and of itself constitute a revocation of a proxy.

Any written notice of revocation or subsequent proxy should be sent to California Amplifier, Inc., 1401 North Rice Avenue, Oxnard, California 93030, Attention: Corporate Secretary, or hand-delivered to the Secretary of California Amplifier at or before the taking of the vote at the California Amplifier special meeting.

California Amplifier may retain a third party to solicit proxies from California Amplifier stockholders in connection with the merger. All expenses of California Amplifier's solicitation of proxies for the California Amplifier special meeting will be borne by California Amplifier. In addition to solicitation by use of the mails, proxies may be solicited from California Amplifier stockholders by the directors, officers and employees of California Amplifier in person or by telephone, facsimile, electronic mail or other means of communication. These directors, officers and employees will not be additionally compensated, but may be reimbursed for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in connection with the solicitation. Arrangements will also be made with brokerage houses, custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for forwarding of proxy solicitation materials to the beneficial owners of shares held of record by such brokerage houses, custodians, nominees and fiduciaries, and California Amplifier will reimburse these brokerage houses, custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the solicitation.

Appraisal Rights

THE VYTEK SPECIAL MEETING

Vytek is furnishing this joint proxy statement/prospectus to Vytek stockholders in connection with the solicitation of proxies from Vytek stockholders for use at the Vytek special meeting to be held on _____, 2004, and any adjournments or postponements thereof. The approximate date on which this proxy statement and the enclosed proxy card will first be sent to Vytek stockholders is _____, 2004.

Date, Time and Place

The Vytek special meeting will be held on _____, _____, 2004, at _____ a.m., Pacific Time, at Vytek's headquarters located at 12670 High Bluff Drive, San Diego, California, 92130.

Purpose of the Special Meeting

At the Vytek special meeting, and any adjournment or postponement thereof, Vytek stockholders will be asked:

1. To consider and vote upon a proposal to adopt the Agreement and Plan of Merger and Reorganization, dated as of December 23, 2003, among California Amplifier, Mobile Acquisition Sub, Inc., or Acquisition Sub, a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of California Amplifier, James E. Ousley, as representative of the stockholders of Vytek and Vytek, and approve the merger of Vytek with Acquisition Sub pursuant to which Vytek will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of California Amplifier;
2. To consider and vote upon a proposal to amend, solely in connection with the merger, Vytek's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, in order exempt the merger and related transactions from triggering the liquidation preferences in Vytek's certificate and to clarify that the terms of the merger agreement will govern the distribution to Vytek stockholders in connection with the merger; and
3. To consider and vote upon such other matters which may properly come before the special meeting or any adjournments or postponements thereof, including any proposal to adjourn or postpone the special meeting for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies. Adoption of the merger agreement is contingent upon stockholder approval of the certificate amendment.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors of Vytek

The Vytek board of directors has unanimously determined that the merger is advisable and fair to, and in the best interests of, Vytek and its stockholders, approved the merger agreement and the certificate amendment, and declared that it is in the best interests of Vytek's stockholders to adopt the merger agreement and approve the certificate amendment. The Vytek board of directors unanimously recommends that Vytek's stockholders vote FOR approval of the merger proposal and FOR approval of the certificate amendment.

Record Date; Stock Entitled to Vote

Only holders of record of Vytek common stock and Vytek preferred stock at the close of business on _____, 2004, the record date, are entitled to receive notice of and vote at the Vytek special meeting. On the record date, there were outstanding and entitled to vote 13,576,150 shares of Vytek common stock held by 354 holders of record, 22,950,784 shares of Series A Preferred held by 30 holders of record, 4,256,406 shares of Series B Preferred held by 44 holders of record, and 22,790 shares of Series Junior Preferred held by 3 holders of record. Each holder of Vytek common stock on the record date will be entitled to one vote for each share held. To the extent that the Vytek preferred stock is entitled to vote on an as-if converted to common stock basis, each holder of Vytek preferred stock on the record date will be entitled to a number of votes equal to the number of shares of Vytek common stock into which such shares of preferred stock could then be converted. For purposes of voting, each share of Series A Preferred is convertible into shares of Vytek common stock on a 1:1 basis, each share of Series B Preferred is convertible into shares of Vytek common stock on a 1:1 basis and each share of Series Junior Preferred is convertible into shares of Vytek common stock on a 1:1 basis.

Required Vote

Merger Agreement

Adoption of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of (i) the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Vytek common stock and Vytek preferred stock, voting together as a single class on an as-converted to common stock basis and (ii) the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Series A Preferred and Series B Preferred, voting together as a single class.

Certificate Amendment

Approval of the certificate amendment requires the affirmative vote of (i) the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Vytek common stock and Vytek preferred stock, voting together as a single class on an as-converted to common stock basis and (ii) the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Series A Preferred, the Series B Preferred, the Series Junior Preferred and Vytek common stock, each voting separately as a single class.

You should vote your proxy even if you plan to attend the Vytek special meeting. You can always change your vote at the Vytek special meeting. Voting instructions are included on your proxy card. If you properly give your proxy and submit it to Vytek in time to vote, one of the individuals named as your proxy will vote your shares as you have directed.

Voting Agreements

As of the record date, directors and executive officers of Vytek, and certain stockholders affiliated with them, held 70% of the outstanding shares of Vytek common stock and preferred stock, calculated on an as-if-converted to common stock basis, 91% of the outstanding shares of Series A Preferred and Series B Preferred taken together, 91% of the outstanding shares of Series A Preferred, 89% of the outstanding shares of Series B Preferred, none of the outstanding shares of Series Junior Preferred and 28% of the outstanding shares of Vytek common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting.

Those directors and officers of Vytek, along with certain stockholders affiliated with them, have entered into individual voting agreements with California Amplifier pursuant to which, among other things, they have agreed to vote a portion of their shares of Vytek capital stock in favor of adoption of the merger agreement and approval of the merger, against any proposal adverse to the merger and in favor of the certificate amendment. As of the record date, a total of approximately 32.6% of the outstanding shares of Vytek common stock and preferred stock, calculated on an as-converted to common stock basis, 42.1% of the outstanding shares of Series A Preferred and Series B Preferred taken together, 13.7% of the outstanding shares of Vytek common stock, 42.2% of the outstanding shares of Series A Preferred, 41.8% of the outstanding shares of Series B Preferred and none of the outstanding shares of Series Junior Preferred entitled to vote at the special meeting were subject to voting agreements. The form of this voting agreement can be found at Exhibit B to the merger agreement, which is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A.

Each of these Vytek stockholders has also granted an irrevocable proxy and a power of attorney to California Amplifier and certain California Amplifier representatives to vote his or her shares of Vytek capital stock in favor of adoption of the merger agreement and against any proposal adverse to the merger and in favor of the certificate amendment.

Quorum; Abstentions

The presence at the Vytek special meeting, either in person or by proxy, of Vytek stockholders entitled to cast a majority of the votes thereat is necessary to constitute a quorum to transact business at the meeting. If a quorum is not present, it is expected that the Vytek special meeting will be adjourned or postponed in order to solicit additional proxies. Shares of Vytek capital stock represented at the Vytek special meeting but not voted, including shares of Vytex capital stock for which proxy cards have been received but for which the holders have abstained, will be treated as present at the Vytex special meeting for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the transaction of all business. Because approval of the merger proposal and approval of the certificate amendment requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of various classes and series of Vytex capital stock, a failure to vote or an abstention with respect to a proposal will have the same practical effect as a vote against the proposal.

Proxies

All shares represented by properly executed and unrevoked proxies received in time for the Vytex special meeting will be voted at the Vytex special meeting in the manner specified therein. Properly executed proxies that do not contain voting instructions will be voted FOR the approval of the merger proposal and FOR approval of the certificate amendment.

Only shares affirmatively voted for a proposal, including properly executed proxies that do not contain voting instructions, will be counted as favorable votes for that proposal. If a holder of Vytex capital stock abstains from voting or does not execute a proxy, it will effectively count as a vote against the approval of the merger proposal and approval of the certificate amendment.

The persons named as proxies by a stockholder may propose and vote for one or more adjournments of the Vytex special meeting, including adjournments or postponements to permit further solicitations of proxies if Vytex stockholders have granted such authority to the proxies by checking the appropriate box on the Vytex proxy. No proxy voted against approval of the merger proposal and against approval of the certificate amendment will be voted in favor of any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies. Failure to vote and abstentions will have no effect on a proposal to adjourn or postpone the Vytex special meeting.

Vytex does not expect that any matter other than the proposals presented in this joint proxy statement/prospectus will be brought before the Vytex special meeting. However, if other matters are properly presented at the Vytex special meeting or any adjournment or postponement of the Vytex special meeting, the persons named as proxies will vote in accordance with their best judgment with respect to those matters.

Revocability of Proxies

The grant of a proxy on the enclosed form of proxy does not preclude a stockholder from voting in person at the Vytex Special Meeting. A stockholder may revoke a proxy at any time prior to its exercise by:

filing with the Corporate Secretary of Vytex a duly executed revocation of proxy; submitting a duly executed proxy to the Corporate Secretary of Vytex bearing a later date; or appearing at the Vytex special meeting and voting in person; however, attendance at the Vytex Special Meeting will not in and of itself constitute revocation of a proxy.

Solicitation of Proxies and Expenses

The accompanying proxy is being solicited on behalf of the Vytex board of directors. All costs associated with the solicitation of proxies will be borne by Vytex and the cost of preparing this joint proxy statement/prospectus will be shared by Vytex and California Amplifier. In addition to solicitation by use of the mails, proxies may be solicited from Vytex stockholders by directors, officers and employees of Vytex in person or by telephone, telegram, facsimile, e-mail or other means of communication. Such directors, officers and employees will not be additionally compensated, but may be reimbursed for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with such solicitation. The extent to which these proxy soliciting efforts will be necessary depends entirely upon how promptly proxies are received. You should send in your proxy by mail without delay.

Stockholders should not send stock certificates with their proxies. A letter of transmittal with instructions for the surrender of Vytek capital stock certificates will be mailed to Vytek stockholders as soon as practicable after completion of the merger.

Appraisal Rights

Stockholders of Vytek capital stock who do not wish to accept California Amplifier common stock pursuant to the merger have the right under Delaware law to receive a cash payment for the fair value of their shares as determined pursuant to Section 262 of the DGCL. Such rights are more fully described in The Merger Appraisal Rights on page 50.

THE MERGER

This section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus describes material aspects of the merger, including the merger agreement. Although the description covers the material terms of the merger and the related transactions, this summary may not contain all of the information that is important to California Amplifier stockholders and Vytek stockholders. You should carefully read the merger agreement and the other documents to which you are referred in their entirety for a more complete understanding of the merger.

Background of the Merger

In recent years, as a part of the continuous evaluation of its business, California Amplifier has regularly considered a variety of strategic initiatives and transactions with a view toward increasing stockholder value. California Amplifier has explored different strategic alternatives, including the consideration of certain acquisitions, dispositions or commercial relationships.

In the fall of 2002, Fred Sturm, President and Chief Executive Officer of California Amplifier, requested that Ferris, Baker Watts, California Amplifier's financial advisor, start gathering information on potential acquisition candidates. California Amplifier was beginning to pursue a strategy to expand its customer base and product offerings in an effort to reduce its reliance on a few major customers. California Amplifier's customer concentration had resulted in fluctuating revenues and profitability over the last several years. The focus of Ferris, Baker Watts' work was to provide information about public and private companies' products, finances and other pertinent data. Ferris, Baker Watts, working in conjunction with California Amplifier, developed a list of potential acquisition candidates and reviewed the list with Mr. Sturm.

Founded in 2000, Vytek's growth was fueled by the pursuit of strategic opportunities. During Vytek's existence it has consummated seven principal acquisitions. In 2003, Vytek's objective was to explore additional potential acquisition, merger and commercial opportunities with a view towards improving the company value for its stockholders. As part of this strategy, Vytek entered into initial, preliminary discussions with California Amplifier.

In February 2003, at the request of Vytek, Amtech Associates, a consulting firm whose principal is a stockholder of Vytek, shared information about Vytek with Ferris, Baker Watts and in April 2003, Amtech Associates provided more detailed information about Vytek's business to Ferris, Baker Watts. Within that time period, Ferris, Baker Watts shared the information regarding Vytek with Mr. Sturm. Ferris, Baker Watts had been aware of Vytek since 2000 and in June 2003, Ferris, Baker Watts requested further information on Vytek that it could share with California Amplifier. California Amplifier had also become familiar with the business of Vytek through the developments surrounding its wireless technologies.

In early July 2003, California Amplifier and Vytek entered into a nondisclosure agreement to facilitate the discussion of a possible business combination and the exchange of information related to the businesses of Vytek and California Amplifier. Vytek then shared its corporate presentation, operating results and financial projections for the remainder of calendar 2003 with Ferris, Baker Watts and California Amplifier. On July 11, 2003, Mr. Sturm and James E. Ousley, President and Chief Executive Officer of Vytek, spoke via telephone about potential synergies between the companies. On July 23, 2003, Mr. Sturm held a phone conversation with Tracy R. Trent, Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of Vytek, to discuss the companies' respective businesses. On August 4 and 12, 2003, members of California Amplifier management met with Mr. Trent to learn more about each others' business.

On August 5, 2003, Vytek held a regularly scheduled meeting of its board of directors. Mr. Ousley presented a summary of the discussions to date relating to potential strategic opportunities for Vytek, including the potential opportunity with California Amplifier. The board of directors of Vytek agreed that the company should further investigate these opportunities.

On August 13, 2003, Ferris, Baker Watts provided its financial research and analysis of California Amplifier to Vytek. On August 15, 2003, California Amplifier and Vytek held a conference call to better understand each others' business and discuss potential synergies. Over the course of August and September 2003 (including a meeting between Mr. Sturm and Mr. Trent on September 28, 2003), members of California

Amplifier's and Vytek's management met to gain a better understanding of each company's operations, products and services and how the companies might ultimately complement each other. In addition, Mr. Ousley had discussions with Ferris, Baker Watts related to the potential synergies of the companies. In these early discussions, the executives reviewed the current business climate and the opportunities provided by a possible combination of California Amplifier and Vytek.

Mr. Ousley and Leonard Fassler, the Chairman of the Board of Vytek, met with Ferris, Baker Watts in New York on September 7, 2003 to discuss potential synergies between California Amplifier and Vytek. Through these preliminary discussions, the parties concluded that there may be a strategic fit between the businesses of California Amplifier and Vytek and that a possible business combination should be further explored.

On September 30, 2003, California Amplifier's management and Ferris, Baker Watts presented to California Amplifier's board of directors a preliminary report regarding a potential acquisition of Vytek. The California Amplifier board of directors gave its approval for California Amplifier to pursue the potential acquisition of Vytek and to accelerate its due diligence review and proceed to more formal negotiations.

On October 1, 2003, Mr. Ousley and Mr. Sturm spoke via telephone to discuss potential terms and conditions of the transaction.

On October 3, 2003, at Vytek's regularly scheduled meeting of its board of directors, Mr. Ousley presented a summary of the discussions with California Amplifier to date and a summary of the potential benefits and possible risks presented by the merger. The Vytek board of directors designated Mr. Ousley, Mr. Fassler and two other directors of Vytek, David Ryan and Brad Feld, as a working group of the board to meet regularly to further investigate the potential strategic opportunity with California Amplifier. From October through December 2003, Mr. Ousley held weekly calls with this group of directors to discuss the status of negotiations and details surrounding the potential strategic transaction with California Amplifier.

On October 6, 2003, representatives of Ferris, Baker Watts participated in a conference call with members of Vytek's board of directors. The Ferris, Baker Watts representatives provided background on Ferris, Baker Watts and California Amplifier and discussed the benefits of pursuing an acquisition of Vytek by California Amplifier within certain preliminary valuation parameters.

On October 7 and 8, 2003, Mr. Trent visited California Amplifier's facility in Camarillo, California to see the operations and learn more about California Amplifier and to discuss Vytek's business structure.

On October 13 and 23, 2003, Mr. Sturm and Mr. Trent met and discussed strategic reasons for the merger. On October 16, 2003, Ferris, Baker Watts transmitted a list of certain proposed terms to Vytek on behalf of California Amplifier, which was later refined and clarified on October 23, 2003.

In mid-October 2003, Vytek engaged the law firm of Paul, Hastings, Janofsky & Walker LLP to provide legal advice to Vytek concerning the potential strategic opportunity with California Amplifier.

Mr. Sturm met with Mr. Ousley on October 23, 2003 and then again on November 5 and November 6, 2003 to discuss the potential merger, synergies and strategic goals. Richard Vitelle, California Amplifier's Chief Financial Officer, met with Walter Cook, Vytek's Chief Financial Officer, to discuss financial statement matters.

On October 28, 2003, California Amplifier's management and Ferris, Baker Watts presented an update on the process to California Amplifier's board of directors during a telephonic board meeting. During the meeting, California Amplifier's management reiterated the desire of the board to pursue a strategy of entering new markets with higher margin product lines. Management presented its thoughts on how the acquisition of Vytek would allow California Amplifier to diversify its customer base and provide it the opportunity to produce higher margin products for these new customers. Ferris, Baker Watts presented an update, based on continuing due diligence, on the potential valuation of Vytek and possible terms of a deal.

Also on October 28, 2003, Mr. Ousley and other representatives of Vytek met with representatives of California Amplifier in the California Amplifier corporate offices and conducted initial operational legal and financial due diligence on California Amplifier. The executives determined that it was appropriate to establish a schedule for their due diligence investigations; and the executives shared preliminary due diligence information and discussed various operational issues relating to the combination of the companies. Another such due diligence meeting was held on November 13, 2003 with Mr. Ousley, Mr. Fassler and Mr. Sturm. Throughout November and December 2003, the parties continued performing operational, legal and financial due diligence on each others' business.

On November 11, 2003, at a meeting of Vyteks' board of directors, Mr. Ousley presented a summary of the discussions concerning the potential merger with California Amplifier, and summary historical financial data of California Amplifier and Vytek. Mr. Ousley also provided an update regarding the terms of the negotiations to date with California Amplifier. Ferris, Baker Watts presented to Vyteks' board of directors a description of the California Amplifier business and the potential synergies of a strategic transaction. Mr. Sturm made a presentation to Vyteks' board of directors concerning the business of California Amplifier and the potential merger opportunity. The meeting was also attended by a representative of Vyteks' outside counsel, Paul, Hastings, Janofsky & Walker LLP, who presented a summary of potential legal issues involved with pursuing the strategic opportunity with California Amplifier. At an executive session of the meeting, the board further discussed the synergies, risks and opportunities of pursuing the potential transaction with California Amplifier.

On November 19, 2003, California Amplifier held a board meeting and, among other agenda items, discussed the potential Vytek Acquisition. Vyteks' management presented an overview of Vytek, its products and services and its operating results and answered questions. Ferris, Baker Watts presented its thoughts on Vyteks' valuation based on its continued due diligence and Vyteks' results. In addition, Ferris, Baker Watts discussed the business terms of a potential acquisition and answered questions.

On November 20, 2003, members of California Amplifier's management met with members of Vyteks' management in San Diego to discuss financial results which was followed up later in the day with members of California Amplifier's management touring Vyteks' manufacturing facility in Vista, California.

Simultaneously with these discussions and meetings, California Amplifier's outside legal advisor, Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP, began preparing a draft merger agreement, which was initially delivered to the parties on November 26, 2003. Additional agreements and disclosure schedules related to the merger agreement were delivered to the parties later in December 2003. California Amplifier held a series of meetings and telephone conferences with Vytek and Vyteks' outside legal advisor, Paul, Hastings, Janofsky & Walker LLP, primarily for the purposes of completing due diligence efforts and negotiating the terms and conditions of the merger agreement and the related agreements. During this period, significant negotiations were focused on the consideration, escrow agreement, indemnification obligations and termination fees.

Between December 8 and December 18, 2003, representatives of California Amplifier and Vytek continued to finalize the remaining open issues in the merger agreement and related agreements, including the final merger consideration and the termination fee provisions. During this period, senior management of both companies held numerous discussions regarding various business, financial, operational and technical issues involved in combining the companies.

On December 18, 2003, at a meeting of the board of directors of California Amplifier, the California Amplifier directors reviewed the merger agreement and related transaction documents as negotiated to date, including the resolution of the remaining open issues, and received a fairness opinion from Ferris, Baker Watts stating that the exchange ratios in the merger are fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of California Amplifier common stock. On December 19, 2003, at a special meeting of the board of directors of Vytek, a representative of Paul, Hastings, Janofsky & Walker LLP, Vyteks' outside counsel, provided the Vytek board with a detailed presentation regarding the material terms of the merger agreement and the related transaction documents negotiated to date. The board's questions regarding the agreement were answered and the significant risks involved with the merger, including, among other concerns, the uncertainty of closing were discussed. The board also considered the strategic benefits of the combination of the two businesses. After discussion, the board unanimously concluded the proposed merger with California Amplifier is consistent with, and in furtherance of, the long-term business strategy of Vytek and fair to, and in the best interests of, Vytek and Vytek's stockholders and adopted resolutions approving the merger agreement, the related transaction documents, the certificate amendment and other actions by management necessary to consummate the merger. The Vytek board also unanimously determined to recommend to Vytek's stockholders that they approve the merger proposal and the certificate amendment.

Following the December 18, 2003 meeting of the California Amplifier board and the December 19, 2003 meeting of the Vytek board, representatives of California Amplifier and Vytek continued negotiating to finalize the provisions of the merger agreement and related transaction documents.

On December 23, 2003, Messrs. Sturm and Vitelle briefed the California Amplifier board of directors on the status of the transaction with Vytek and the board members reviewed certain final aspects of the transaction and related issues. After discussion, the board unanimously concluded that the proposed merger with Vytek is consistent with, and in furtherance of, the long-term business strategy of California Amplifier and fair to, and in the best interests of, California Amplifier and California Amplifier's stockholders and adopted resolutions approving the merger agreement, the related transaction documents and the issuance of California Amplifier common stock pursuant to the merger, and other actions by management necessary to consummate the merger. The board also unanimously determined to recommend to California Amplifier's stockholders that they approve the issuance of shares in connection with the merger. The merger agreement and voting agreements were executed and delivered by all parties, including certain stockholders, officers and directors of Vytek, later that afternoon, following the close of the public trading market. That afternoon, California Amplifier and Vytek issued a joint press release announcing their agreement to merge.

Joint Reasons for the Merger

The California Amplifier board of directors and the Vytek board of directors each believes that the combined company will have greater potential for financial strength, market power and growth than either California Amplifier or Vytek would have on its own. The California Amplifier board of directors and the Vytek board of directors identified a number of more specific potential benefits from the merger that they believe could contribute to the success of the combined company and thus benefit stockholders of both companies, including the following:

the merger may enhance the potential to realize the strategic objective of the combined company to expand its market share and increase the combined company's ability to compete effectively in the wireless access products and mobile solutions market;

the merger may provide the combined company with the opportunity to expand its product offerings which could expand its customer base to obtain advantages and efficiencies in the marketing, selling and pricing of its products and to achieve profitability;

the merger may provide the opportunity for certain operational cost efficiencies for the combined company;

the merger may broaden and expand the support that the combined company may offer to its existing clients;

the merger may increase the efficiency of the sales team of the combined company and allow for stronger relations with the combined company's alliance partners; and the combined company will have an enhanced management team that has the breadth and depth to effectively lead and manage the combined company's growth.

California Amplifier's Reasons for the Merger

In reaching its conclusion to approve and adopt the merger and the merger agreement, the California Amplifier board of directors considered the factors described above under Joint Reasons for the Merger, as well as other potential benefits of the merger that it believes will contribute to the future success of the combined company. These other potential benefits include:

diversifying California Amplifier's overall business and customer base, which at the present time are dominated by its sales of outdoor reception equipment to the two major U.S. DBS television service providers; enabling California Amplifier to strengthen its presence in the wireless industry by capitalizing on Vytek's offerings, thereby enhancing the products and services available to California Amplifier's customers;

enhancing California Amplifier's technical and sales staff with Vytek's experienced technical and sales personnel; capitalizing on complementary customer bases with limited overlap, to cross-sell California Amplifier's products to Vytek's core markets and to cross-sell Vytek's products and services to California Amplifier's core markets; and increasing the outstanding number of shares of California Amplifier common stock and thereby potentially increasing the trading volumes for California Amplifier common stock and the liquidity of the stock for investors.

The California Amplifier board reviewed a number of factors in evaluating the merger, including, but not limited to, the following:

historical information concerning California Amplifier's and Vytek's respective businesses, financial performance and condition, operations, technology and management;

California Amplifier's management's view of the financial condition, results of operations, businesses and future prospects of California Amplifier and Vytek before and after giving effect to the merger;

current financial market conditions and historical market prices for California Amplifier's common stock, volatility and trading information;

the determination of Vytek's affiliates to enter into lock-up agreements restricting the sale of newly issued California Amplifier common stock during the one-year period following the effective time of the merger;

the opinion of Ferris, Baker Watts that, as of the date of its opinion and subject to the assumptions made, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion, the exchange ratios in the merger are fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of California Amplifier common stock;

the terms and conditions of the merger agreement and related agreements; the belief that the terms of the merger agreement and related agreements are reasonable;

the anticipated impact of the merger on the combined company's customers and employees; and the results of the due diligence investigation of Vytek conducted by California Amplifier's management and its financial and legal advisors.

The California Amplifier board also identified and considered a number of potentially negative factors in its deliberations concerning the merger, including the following:

the risk that the potential benefits and synergies of the merger may not be realized;

the possibility that the merger may not be consummated;

the potential loss of revenues and business opportunities for California Amplifier as a result of initial confusion in the marketplace for California Amplifier's and VyteK's products following the announcement of the merger, and the possible exploitation of such confusion by California Amplifier's and VyteK's competitors;

the negative impact on earnings, resulting from the amortization of certain intangible assets purchased in the merger;

the risk of management and employee disruption associated with merging the two organizations, including the risk that, despite the efforts of the combined company, key technical, sales and management personnel might not remain employed by the combined company, especially given the competition for quality personnel in the industry, particularly in California Amplifier's and VyteK's respective geographical locations; and other applicable risks described in this joint proxy statement/ prospectus under "Risk Factors" on page 18 of this joint proxy statement/ prospectus.

California Amplifier's board concluded that certain of these risks were unlikely to occur, while others could be avoided or mitigated by the combined company, and that, on balance, the merger's potential benefits to California Amplifier and its stockholders outweighed the potential risks. The discussion of the information and factors considered by California Amplifier's board is not intended to be exhaustive. In view of the variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the merger, California Amplifier's board did not find it practicable to, and did not, quantify or otherwise assign relative weight to the specific factors considered in reaching their determination.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors of California Amplifier

For the reasons discussed above, the California Amplifier board has unanimously approved and adopted the merger, the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the issuance of the shares of California Amplifier common stock in connection with the merger, and believes that the terms of the merger are fair to, and in the best interests of, California Amplifier and its stockholders. The California Amplifier board of directors unanimously recommends that California Amplifier's stockholders vote FOR the approval of the issuance of the shares of California Amplifier common stock to be issued in connection with the merger.

Opinion of California Amplifier's Financial Advisor

Pursuant to an agreement made in July 2003, formalized in a letter dated as of November 21, 2003, California Amplifier retained Ferris, Baker Watts, Incorporated to provide financial advisory services and a financial opinion letter in connection with the merger. Ferris, Baker Watts was selected by California Amplifier's board of directors to act as California Amplifier's financial advisor based on Ferris, Baker Watts qualifications, expertise and reputation and its knowledge of the business and affairs of California Amplifier and the industry in general.

At the December 18, 2003 meeting of the California Amplifier board of directors, Ferris, Baker Watts rendered its oral opinion that, as of such date and based upon and subject to the various considerations set forth in its opinion, the consideration offered pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to the holders of shares of California Amplifier common stock. Ferris, Baker Watts confirmed its opinion by delivery to the California Amplifier board of directors of a written opinion dated December 22, 2003.

The full text of the Ferris, Baker Watts opinion, dated as of December 22, 2003, which sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken, is attached as Annex B to this registration statement. The Ferris, Baker Watts opinion is directed to the California Amplifier board and addresses only the fairness of the consideration offered from a financial point of view to the holders of shares of California Amplifier common stock as of the date of such opinion and does not address any other aspect of the merger. The summary of the Ferris, Baker Watts opinion set forth in this registration statement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Ferris, Baker Watts opinion attached as Annex B to the registration statement, which should be read carefully and in its entirety.

In arriving at its opinion, Ferris, Baker Watts, among other things:

reviewed certain publicly available financial statements and other information of California Amplifier;

reviewed certain financial statements and other public and private information of Vyteck; discussed certain internal financial statements and other financial and operating data concerning Vyteck and California Amplifier prepared by the management of Vyteck and California Amplifier, respectively; discussed certain financial projections of Vyteck and California Amplifier prepared by the management of Vyteck and California Amplifier, respectively; discussed the past and current operations and financial condition and the prospects of Vyteck and California Amplifier, including information relating to certain strategic, financial and operational benefits anticipated from the merger, with senior executives of Vyteck and California Amplifier, respectively; discussed potential strategic and operational benefits of the merger with senior executives of Vyteck and California Amplifier; reviewed the financial terms, to the extent publicly available, of certain comparable third party acquisitions; participated in discussions and negotiations among representatives of Vyteck and California Amplifier and their legal advisors; reviewed the draft merger agreement and certain related documents; and considered such other factors and performed such other analyses as Ferris, Baker Watts deemed appropriate.

In arriving at its opinion, Ferris, Baker Watts assumed and relied upon, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the information reviewed by Ferris, Baker Watts for the purposes of its opinion. With respect to the financial projections, including information relating to certain strategic, financial and operational benefits anticipated from the merger, Ferris, Baker Watts assumed that they were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the future financial performance and prospects of Vyteck and California Amplifier. Ferris, Baker Watts relied upon the assessment by the managements of Vyteck and California Amplifier of their ability to retain key employees. Ferris, Baker Watts also relied upon, without independent verification, the assessment by California Amplifier's management of Vyteck's and California Amplifier's technologies and products, the timing and risks associated with the integration of Vyteck and California Amplifier and the validity of, and risks associated with, Vyteck's and California Amplifier's existing and future products and technologies.

In addition, Ferris, Baker Watts assumed that the merger will be consummated in accordance with the terms set forth in the draft merger agreement, including, among other things, that the merger will be treated as a tax-free reorganization and/or exchange, each pursuant to the Code. Ferris, Baker Watts has not made any independent valuation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities of Vyteck and California Amplifier, nor has Ferris, Baker Watts been furnished with any such appraisals. The Ferris, Baker Watts opinion is necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to Ferris, Baker Watts as of the date of the Ferris, Baker Watts opinion.

The following is a brief summary of certain analyses performed by Ferris, Baker Watts in connection with its oral opinion and its written opinion.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. The discounted future free cash flow analysis ascribes value only to the cash flows that can ultimately be taken out of the business. These free cash flows are then discounted to the present at an industry weighted average cost of capital. The weighted average cost of capital can be described as the average price a company must pay to attract both debt and equity to properly capitalize the firm's growth. It is these series of free cash flows that, when discounted to the present and after subtracting claims by debtholders and others, represents the economic value of a firm to its stockholders. This method of valuation depends upon the accuracy of the financial projections. Ferris, Baker Watts discounted the projections prepared by the management of California Amplifier and Vytek based on Ferris, Baker Watts' judgment regarding the expected future combined companies' financial performance.

Given the volatility of California Amplifier's stock price since the initiation of discussions with Vytek in July 2003, Ferris, Baker Watts performed a discounted cash flow analysis to determine separately the value of California Amplifier's stock as consideration in the transaction and the anticipated future Vytek free cash flow as a fully integrated subsidiary of California Amplifier. Based on the intrinsic value of California Amplifier's stock and the intrinsic value for Vytek as an integrated subsidiary of California Amplifier from the discounted cash flow analyses, the consideration offered to the Vytek stockholders is less than the intrinsic value for Vytek and therefore is fair to the common stockholders of California Amplifier from a financial point of view.

Due to the volatility of California Amplifier's stock price leading up to the December 18, 2003 meeting of the California Amplifier board of directors, Ferris, Baker Watts also examined the five day Volume Weighted Average Price, or VWAP, of California Amplifier's stock to determine the value of the consideration being paid to Vytek. The VWAP provides a weighted average price that is commonly used to approximate the market price of a highly volatile stock. Using the VWAP as the basis for valuing the California Amplifier shares, the value of the consideration being offered to the Vytek stockholders was less than the intrinsic value for Vytek, as determined by the discounted cash flow analysis, and, as such, supported the conclusion.

Comparable Company Analysis. The earnings and book multiple comparison analysis traditionally examines the operating earnings, net income (both historical and projected), revenue and book value multiples. Given the fact that Vytek is the result of multiple acquisitions and had not yet generated historical profits, several of these traditional analyses could not be relied upon in the process of attempting to determine a fair market value for Vytek in relation to its peers in the market. While Ferris, Baker Watts did not rely on this methodology, the multiples of projected 2003 revenues, next fiscal year's earnings and book value do support the conclusion that the consideration being offered by California Amplifier to Vytek's stockholders is fair from a financial point of view to California Amplifier's stockholders.

Comparable Merger and Acquisition Analysis. The comparable merger and third party acquisition analysis examines publicly available records for sale transactions in Vytek's industry. This method of valuation is often difficult to perform due to the lack of publicly available data on the target companies involved in the transactions. Ferris, Baker Watts examined eleven transactions that disclosed target financial information. Given the fact that Vytek has not generated profits to date, Ferris, Baker Watts relied on multiples of sales and book value. Given the many factors impacting the consideration paid in a merger and acquisition, including control premiums and dissimilarities between companies, these measures are traditionally not very reliable in determining the fairness of the consideration paid. While Ferris, Baker Watts did not rely on this valuation methodology, based upon the multiples of Vytek's projected 2003 sales and book value, this analysis does support the conclusion that the consideration being offered by California Amplifier to Vytek's stockholders is fair from a financial point of view to California Amplifier's stockholders.

The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process and is not necessarily susceptible to a partial analysis or summary description. In arriving at its opinion, Ferris, Baker Watts considered the results of all of its analyses as a whole. Furthermore, Ferris, Baker Watts believes that selecting any portion of Ferris, Baker Watts' analyses, without considering all its analyses, would create an incomplete view of the process underlying the Ferris, Baker Watts opinion and that the totality of the factors considered and analyses performed by Ferris, Baker Watts in connection with its opinion operated collectively to support Ferris, Baker Watts' determination as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration being offered to holders of shares of Vytek's common stock. In addition, Ferris, Baker Watts may have given various analyses and factors more or less weight than other analyses and factors, and may have deemed various assumptions more or less probable than other assumptions, so that the ranges of valuations resulting from any particular analysis described above should not be taken to be Ferris, Baker Watts' view of the actual value of Vytek.

In performing its analysis, Ferris, Baker Watts made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of California Amplifier or VyteK. Any estimates contained in the analyses performed by Ferris, Baker Watts are not necessarily indicative of actual values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by such analyses. Such analyses were prepared solely as a part of Ferris, Baker Watts' analysis of the fairness to California Amplifier's stockholders from a financial point of view of the consideration paid pursuant to the merger agreement and were provided to the California Amplifier board of directors in connection with the delivery of the Ferris, Baker Watts opinion to California Amplifier. The analyses do not purport to be appraisals of value or to reflect the prices at which California Amplifier or VyteK might actually be sold or traded. In addition, as described above, the Ferris, Baker Watts opinion was one of the many factors taken into consideration by the California Amplifier board of directors in making its determination to approve the merger. The exchange ratio of 0.083151 California Amplifier common share for each VyteK common share pursuant to the merger agreement as well as the preferred exchange ratios were determined through arm's-length negotiations between California Amplifier and VyteK and were approved by the California Amplifier board of directors. Consequently, the Ferris, Baker Watts analyses as described above should not be viewed as determinative of the opinion of the California Amplifier board of directors with respect to the value of California Amplifier or of whether the California Amplifier board of directors would have been willing to agree to different consideration.

Ferris, Baker Watts is a nationally recognized investment banking and advisory firm. Ferris, Baker Watts, as part of its investment banking business, is regularly engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, competitive biddings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for corporate and other purposes. Ferris, Baker Watts may continue to provide investment banking services to the combined entity in the future. In the ordinary course of its trading, brokerage and financing activities, Ferris, Baker Watts and its affiliates may, at any time, have a long or short position in, and buy and sell the debt or equity securities and senior loans of California Amplifier for its account or the account of its customers. Ferris, Baker Watts and its affiliates have, in the past, provided financial advisory and financing services to California Amplifier and its affiliates.

Pursuant to an agreement entered into in July of 2003 and formalized in an engagement letter dated as of November 21, 2003, Ferris, Baker Watts provided financial advisory services and a financial fairness opinion in connection with the merger, and California Amplifier agreed to pay Ferris, Baker Watts fees totaling approximately $1,460,000, of which $200,000 has already been paid and the balance of $1,260,000 will be due upon closing of the transaction. California Amplifier also agreed to reimburse Ferris, Baker Watts for expenses incurred by Ferris, Baker Watts in performing its services. In addition, California Amplifier has also agreed to indemnify Ferris, Baker Watts and its affiliates, their respective directors, officers, agents and employees and each person, if any, controlling Ferris, Baker Watts or any of its affiliates against certain liabilities and expenses, including liabilities under the federal securities laws, related to or arising out of Ferris, Baker Watts' engagement and any related transactions.

The merger agreement does not contemplate or provide for Ferris, Baker Watts to update its opinion dated December 22, 2003. California Amplifier does not currently intend to request an updated opinion from Ferris, Baker Watts. However, if there were a material amendment to the merger agreement before completion of the merger that resulted in a resolicitation of proxies for California Amplifier stockholder vote on the issuance of shares of California Amplifier common stock in connection with the merger, California Amplifier would consider at that time whether it was appropriate to obtain an updated opinion from Ferris, Baker Watts.

Interests of California Amplifier's Financial Advisor

Pursuant to the terms of Ferris, Baker Watts' engagement letter with California Amplifier, California Amplifier has paid Ferris, Baker Watts $200,000 for services rendered and $15,000 for expenses incurred in connection with the delivery of its fairness opinion and agreed to pay Ferris, Baker Watts an additional fee of approximately $1,260,000, payable in cash upon the closing of the merger, for its financial advisory services in connection with the merger.

Vytek's Reasons for the Merger

The board of directors of Vytek believes that a business combination with California Amplifier will advance its strategic objective of enhancing Vytek's leadership position in the marketplace. The Vytek board of directors has determined that the merger is advisable and fair to, and in the best interests of, Vytek and its stockholders. The conclusion reached by Vytek's board, that the transaction with California Amplifier was advisable and fair to, and in the best interests of, Vytek and its stockholders, was supported by the factors described above under Joint Reasons for the Merger, as well as the following factors:

the judgment, advice and analysis of Vytek's management with respect to the potential strategic, financial and operational benefits of the proposed transaction, including management's favorable recommendation of the transaction based in part on the business, technical, financial, internal accounting and legal due diligence investigation performed with respect to California Amplifier;

the results of operations and financial condition of California Amplifier and Vytek; and the terms of the merger agreement and related agreements, which were considered by both the board of directors and the management of Vytek to provide a fair and equitable basis for the transaction.

Vytek's board of directors also considered a number of potentially negative factors in its deliberations concerning the transaction. The potentially negative factors considered by Vytek's board included:

the risk that the transaction might not be completed in a timely manner or at all;

the general difficulties of integrating products, technologies and companies;

the negative impact of accounting charges resulting from: (1) amortization of intangible assets generated by the merger; and (2) the cost of integrating the companies;

the possible employee disruption associated with the merger; and other applicable risks described in the section Risk Factors on page 18 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

The above discussion of information and factors considered by Vytek's board of directors is not intended to be exhaustive but is indicative of the material factors considered by the board. In view of the wide variety of factors considered by Vytek's board of directors, the board of directors did not find it practicable to quantify or otherwise assign relative weight to the specific factors considered. In addition, Vytek's board of directors did not reach any specific conclusion on each factor considered, or any aspect of any particular factor, but conducted an overall analysis of these factors. Individual members of the Vytek board of directors may have given different weight to different factors. However, after taking into account all of the factors described above, Vytek's board of directors determined that the merger agreement and the related transactions were advisable and fair to, and in the best interests of, Vytek and its stockholders.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors of Vytek

After careful consideration, Vytek's board of directors has determined that the merger is advisable and fair to, and in the best interests of, Vytek and its stockholders, has adopted the merger agreement and approved the certificate amendment, and declared that it is in the best interests of Vytek's stockholders to approve the merger proposal and the certificate amendment. Accordingly, Vytek's board of directors unanimously recommends that Vytek's common and preferred stockholders vote FOR the approval of the merger proposal and FOR approval of the amendment to Vytek's amended and restated certificate of incorporation.

Interests of Executive Officers and Directors of California Amplifier and Vytek in the Merger

Stockholders should be aware of the interests that various executive officers and directors of Vytek have in the merger. The board of directors of Vytek was aware of the material conflicts and considered them when approving the merger, the merger agreement and related actions. These interests of the executive officers and directors of Vytek may be different from, and in addition to, other stockholders' interests and their interests as stockholders. As a result of the interests described below, these directors and executive officers of Vytek may have been more likely to approve the transaction than the Vytek stockholders generally.

No directors or officers of California Amplifier have any interests in Vytek different from, or in addition to, other California Amplifier stockholders.

Interests of Vytek's Executive Officers and Directors

James E. Ousley, President and Chief Executive Officer. Pursuant to Mr. Ousley's employment agreement with Vytek, if his employment with Vytek is terminated or if he suffers certain specified diminutions in duties and benefits, in each case within one year following the merger, Mr. Ousley will be entitled to receive (i) salary continuation, based on Mr. Ousley's then-current base salary, continued vesting under any equity incentive plans and full coverage under all benefit plans, and (ii) certain bonus payments, if any, in each case for a period of one year. Mr. Ousley's current base salary is $250,000 per year. Bonus consideration is not specified in Mr. Ousley's employment agreement and Vytek expects that amount to be zero.

In addition, Vytek has agreed to pay Mr. Ousley an additional severance payment of $100,000 if his employment is terminated in connection with the merger. Therefore, if Mr. Ousley's employment is terminated in connection with the merger, he will be entitled to receive aggregate severance payments of approximately $350,000.

In connection with the merger, Mr. Ousley will be nominated to the California Amplifier board of directors, subject to California Amplifier's corporate governance board nominating procedures. If none of the current members of California Amplifier's board of directors are removed or resign, Mr. Ousley's nomination would require California Amplifier to increase the size of its board.

Leonard Fassler, Chairman of the Board of Directors. In connection with completion of the merger, Vytek has agreed to pay Mr. Fassler a severance payment of $100,000 and an incentive bonus of $200,000.

Tracy Trent, Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer. In connection with the merger, California Amplifier entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Trent. The agreement is contingent upon the completion of the merger. The agreement sets forth the employee's position, compensation and eligibility to participate in the benefit plans of the combined company. Under the terms of the letter agreement, Mr. Trent will be an at-will employee and entitled to severance benefits in the event his prospective employment with the combined company is terminated without cause.

Walter Cook, Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. Pursuant to Mr. Cook's employment agreement with Vytek, if his employment is terminated or if he suffers certain specified diminutions in duties and benefits, in each case within one year following the merger, Mr. Cook will be entitled to receive (i) salary continuation, based on Mr. Cook's then-current base salary, continued vesting under any equity incentive plans and full coverage under all benefit plans, and (ii) certain bonus payments, if any, in each case for a period of one year. Mr. Cook's current base salary is $180,000 per year. Bonus consideration is not specified in Mr. Cook's employment agreement, and Vytek expects that number to be zero. In addition to the above, Vytek has agreed to pay Mr. Cook an incentive bonus of $100,000 in connection with the merger.

Alexia Brown, Chief Legal Officer. Vytek has agreed to pay Ms. Brown an incentive bonus of $50,000 in connection with the merger.

Stock Options and Restricted Stock. Under the terms of the merger agreement, Vytek will fully vest, effective immediately prior to completion of the merger, all outstanding unvested options to purchase shares of Vytek capital stock, and will remove all restrictions on shares of Vytek capital stock which remain subject to a repurchase option, risk of forfeiture or other condition under any applicable restricted stock purchase agreement or other agreement with Vytek.

As of the date of this joint proxy statement/ prospectus, Mr. Cook was the only executive officer who held unvested options to purchase shares of Vytek common stock. As of that date, Mr. Cook held unvested options to purchase a total of 100,000 shares of Vytek common stock at a per share exercise price of $0.01. These options will vest in full immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and, if they remain unexercised, will be assumed by California Amplifier and be converted into options to purchase 8,315 shares of California Amplifier common stock with an exercise price of $0.13 per share.

As of February 9, 2004, Vytek's executive officers and directors beneficially held a total of approximately 1,091,997 shares of Vytek common stock, which remain subject to a repurchase option in favor of Vytek that will lapse at the effective time of the merger.

Registration of California Amplifier Common Stock for Resale. By filing the registration statement, of which this joint proxy statement/ prospectus forms a part, California Amplifier has registered for resale the shares of California Amplifier common stock to be delivered to certain Vytek executive officers, directors and affiliates who will not be executive officers, directors or affiliates of California Amplifier after the merger. The registration statement, of which this joint proxy statement/ prospectus forms a part, will serve as the resale registration statement. This registration for resale will permit those Vytek executive officers, directors and affiliates to immediately sell the shares of California Amplifier common stock they receive pursuant to the merger except to the extent that such shares are subject to any lock-up agreement. After the effective time of the merger (if required by applicable law, rules or regulations), California Amplifier has agreed with Vytek to file a post-effective amendment on Form S-3 to the registration statement of which this joint proxy statement/ prospectus is a part, which post-effective amendment will include a resale prospectus for the benefit of the selling stockholders of the number of shares of California Amplifier common stock received by the selling stockholders pursuant to the merger, and to keep this amendment effective until the earliest of (i) two years after the effective time of the merger, (ii) the date of final sale by the selling stockholders of all shares of California Amplifier common stock registered on the amendment and (iii) the date all shares of California Amplifier registered on the amendment become saleable pursuant to Rule 144 of the Securities Act without registration or limitation under the Securities Act.

Indemnification of Directors and Officers. The merger agreement provides that for a period of six years after the effective time of the merger, California Amplifier will and will cause Vytek, as the surviving corporation in the merger, to fulfill and honor Vytek's indemnification obligations pursuant to the DGCL, any indemnification agreements between Vytek and its directors and officers and any indemnification provisions under Vytek's charter documents in effect as of the date of the merger agreement. The merger agreement further provides that for a period of six years after the effective time of the merger, California Amplifier will maintain, or will cause Vytek, as the surviving corporation in the merger, to maintain in effect, if available, directors' and officers' liability insurance covering those persons who are covered by Vytek's directors' and officers' liability insurance policy immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, on terms no less favorable to the insured parties than those of Vytek's current insurance policy, provided, however, that in no event will California Amplifier or the combined company be required to pay a price in excess of 250% of the current aggregate annual premiums paid by Vytek.

The merger will be accounted for as a purchase for financial reporting and accounting purposes, as required under generally accepted accounting principles. After the completion of the merger, the results of operations of Vytek will be included in the consolidated financial statements of the combined company. The purchase price will be allocated to Vytek's assets and liabilities based on the fair values of the assets acquired and the liabilities assumed. Any excess of cost over the fair values of the net tangible assets of Vytek acquired will be recorded as goodwill and other intangible assets. To the extent required, other intangible assets will be amortized by charges to operations under generally accepted accounting principles. The purchase price allocation will be made based upon valuations and analysis that have not yet been finalized. A preliminary estimate of these valuations is included in this joint proxy statement/ prospectus in the section entitled "Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Information" on page 124.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Considerations

The following is a discussion of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to Vytex stockholders. This discussion is based on the Code, the related Treasury regulations, administrative interpretations and court decisions, all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. Any such change could affect the accuracy of the statements and the conclusions discussed below and the tax consequences of the merger. This discussion applies only to Vytex stockholders that hold their shares of Vytex capital stock, and will hold the shares of California Amplifier common stock received in exchange for their shares of Vytex capital stock, as capital assets within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code. This discussion does not address all federal income tax consequences of the merger that may be relevant to particular holders, including holders that are subject to special tax rules. Some examples of holders that are subject to special tax rules are:

dealers in securities;

financial institutions;

insurance companies;

tax-exempt organizations;

holders of shares of Vytex capital stock as part of a position in a straddle or as part of a hedging or conversion transaction; holders who have a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar; holders who are neither citizens nor residents of the United States or that are foreign corporations, foreign partnerships or foreign estates or trusts; holders who are treated as partnerships or own their shares indirectly through partnerships, trusts or other entities that may be subject to special treatment; and holders who acquired their shares of Vytex capital stock through stock option or stock purchase programs or otherwise as compensation.

In addition, this discussion does not address any consequences arising under the laws of any state, local or foreign jurisdiction. VYTEK STOCKHOLDERS ARE URGED TO CONSULT THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS AS TO SPECIFIC TAX CONSEQUENCES TO THEM OF THE MERGER, INCLUDING THE APPLICABILITY AND EFFECT OF ANY STATE, LOCAL OR FOREIGN TAX LAWS AND OF CHANGES IN APPLICABLE TAX LAWS.

Tax Consequences of the Merger. California Amplifier and Vytex do not plan to obtain a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service with regard to the qualification of the merger as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. Nor is the issuance of an opinion of counsel as to the qualification of the merger as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code a condition to the closing of the merger. California Amplifier and Vytex have, however, obtained opinions of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP and Paul, Hastings, Janofsky & Walker LLP, respectively, to the effect that the merger will constitute a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. These opinions of counsel were given in reliance on customary representations of California Amplifier and Vytex and are subject to customary assumptions, exceptions, limitations and qualifications set forth therein. Certain of those representations and assumptions are forward looking in nature and there is no way of determining with any level of certainty that such representations and assumptions will be true and accurate as of the closing date of the merger. For example, although the opinions are based on certain assumptions relating to the number of dissenting shares, there is no way of determining whether or not such assumptions will be accurate. Any inaccuracy or change in the assumptions or representations relied upon by counsel in issuing their respective opinions and any future actions by California Amplifier or Vytex contrary to the representations or assumptions could adversely affect the conclusions reached in the opinions and the tax discussion set forth below. Vytex stockholders should be aware that the parties intend to consummate the merger even if, as of the closing date, such representations and assumptions are not in fact true and accurate, and as a result, the merger does not qualify as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code.

The following are the material federal income tax consequences to Vyteck stockholders who, consistent with the opinions of counsel referred to above, receive their shares of California Amplifier common stock pursuant to a transaction constituting a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code:

No gain or loss will be recognized by a Vyteck stockholder on the receipt of shares of California Amplifier common stock in exchange for shares of Vyteck capital stock upon the closing of the merger, except with respect to cash, if any, that is received by the stockholder in lieu of a fractional share of California Amplifier common stock.

No gain or loss will be recognized by a Vyteck stockholder upon the distribution to the stockholder of the California Amplifier common stock held in escrow. Vyteck stockholders should consult their own tax advisors with respect to the tax consequences applicable to their individual situations in the event that shares of California Amplifier common stock that are held in escrow are returned to California Amplifier.

Each stockholder's aggregate tax basis in the California Amplifier common stock received pursuant to the merger (including any shares of California Amplifier common stock held in escrow) will be the same as his or her aggregate tax basis in the Vyteck capital stock surrendered pursuant to the merger, decreased by the amount of any tax basis allocable to any fractional share interest for which cash is received. Vyteck stockholders must calculate their tax basis in the shares of California Amplifier common stock received upon the closing of the merger by using the assumption that all of the shares of California Amplifier common stock that are placed in escrow will be distributed to them rather than returned to California Amplifier. Thus, in calculating the per share tax basis of the merger consideration received by any Vyteck stockholder upon the closing of the merger, the aggregate tax basis of the Vyteck stock surrendered by such stockholder pursuant to the merger must be allocated over the maximum number of shares of California Amplifier common stock that such stockholder has the opportunity to receive pursuant to the merger (decreased by the amount of any tax basis allocable to a fractional share interest). If the Vyteck stockholders eventually receive all of the shares of California Amplifier common stock that are placed in escrow, the calculation of tax basis described in this paragraph will have reached the correct result. If, however, the Vyteck stockholders do not receive such number of shares, the tax basis of the closing merger consideration will have to be adjusted based on the number of shares of California Amplifier common stock actually received after resolution of all contingencies. Because the mechanics of such subsequent basis adjustment are complex and the law governing such an adjustment is unsettled, any Vyteck stockholder who sells shares of California Amplifier common stock received pursuant to the merger or otherwise has a recognition event requiring a determination of his or her basis in such shares before the total amount of consideration has been fixed should consult his or her own tax advisor with respect to the calculation of the tax basis in such shares and any subsequent basis adjustments.

The holding period of the California Amplifier common stock received pursuant to the merger by a holder of Vyteck capital stock will include the holding period of Vyteck capital stock that he or she surrendered pursuant to the merger. If a Vyteck stockholder has differing tax bases and/or holding periods in respect of the stockholder's shares of Vyteck capital stock, the stockholder should consult with a tax advisor in order to identify the tax bases and/or holding periods of the particular shares of California Amplifier common stock that the stockholder receives.

Cash payments received by a Vyteck stockholder in lieu of a fractional share of California Amplifier common stock will be treated as received in exchange for that fractional share interest, and gain or loss will be recognized for federal income tax purposes on the receipt of the cash payment, measured by the difference between the amount of cash received and the portion of the basis of the Vyteck capital stock allocable to the fractional share interest. The gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if the Vyteck capital stock is considered to have been held for more than one year at the time of the exchange.

General Considerations. Notwithstanding the qualification of the merger as a reorganization within the meaning of section 368(a) of the Code, a recipient of California Amplifier common stock would recognize income to the extent such shares were considered to be received in exchange for anything, other than solely Vyteck capital stock. All or a portion of such income may be taxable as ordinary income.

As noted above, the opinions of counsel as to the status of the merger as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code has been based on certain assumptions and representations that are forward looking in nature. Any inaccuracy or change in the assumptions or representations relied upon by counsel in issuing their respective opinions and any future actions by California Amplifier or Vyteck contrary to the representations or assumptions could adversely affect the conclusions reached in such opinions and the tax discussion set forth above. Vyteck stockholders should be aware that opinions of counsel as to the status of the merger as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code is not a condition to the closing of the merger and that the parties intend to consummate the merger even if, as of the closing date, such representations and assumptions are not in fact true and accurate, and as a result, the merger does not qualify as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code.

In addition, an opinion of counsel as to the status of the merger as a reorganization under section 368(a) of the Code will neither be binding on the Internal Revenue Service nor preclude it from adopting a contrary position. No assurance can be given that contrary positions will not successfully be asserted by the Internal Revenue Service or adopted by a court if the issues are litigated. If the Internal Revenue Service determines successfully that the merger does not constitute a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, each Vyteck stockholder would be required to recognize gain or loss with respect to each share of Vyteck capital stock that he or she surrenders pursuant to the merger in an amount equal to the difference between the sum of the fair market value of any California Amplifier common stock and cash received in lieu of a fractional share of California Amplifier common stock, and the tax basis of the shares of Vyteck capital stock surrendered in exchange therefor. The amount and character of gain or loss will be computed separately for each block of Vyteck capital stock that was purchased by the holder in the same transaction. A Vyteck stockholder's aggregate tax basis in the California Amplifier common stock received pursuant to the merger would in this case equal its fair market value at the time of the closing of the merger, and the holding period for the California Amplifier common stock will begin the day after the closing of the merger.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding. Certain U.S. holders may be subject to information reporting with respect to the cash received instead of a fractional share interest in shares of California Amplifier common stock. U.S. holders who are subject to information reporting and who do not provide appropriate information when requested may also be subject to backup withholding. Any amount withheld under such rules is not an additional tax and may be refunded or credited against such U.S. holders' federal income tax liability, provided that the required information is properly furnished in a timely manner to the Internal Revenue Service.

Appraisal Rights

If the merger is consummated, a holder of record of Vyteck stock who properly makes a demand for appraisal, as described below, will be entitled to have those shares appraised by the Delaware Court of Chancery under Section 262 of the DGCL, also referred to herein as Section 262, and to receive a cash payment for the fair value of those shares instead of the consideration provided for in the merger agreement. In order to be eligible to receive this payment, however, a Vyteck stockholder must (i) continue to hold his or her shares through the time of the merger; (ii) strictly comply with the procedures discussed under Section 262; and (iii) not vote in favor of the merger agreement. This joint proxy statement/ prospectus is being sent to all holders of record of Vyteck stock on the record date for the Vyteck special meeting and constitutes notice of the appraisal rights available to those holders under Section 262.

THE STATUTORY RIGHT OF APPRAISAL GRANTED BY SECTION 262 REQUIRES STRICT COMPLIANCE WITH THE PROCEDURES IN SECTION 262. FAILURE TO FOLLOW ANY OF THESE PROCEDURES MAY RESULT IN A TERMINATION OR WAIVER OF APPRAISAL RIGHTS UNDER SECTION 262. THE FOLLOWING IS A SUMMARY OF THE PRINCIPAL PROVISIONS OF SECTION 262.

The following summary is not a complete statement of Section 262, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to Section 262, which is incorporated herein by reference, together with any amendments to the laws that may be adopted after the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. A copy of Section 262 is attached as Annex C to this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

A holder of Vyteck stock who elects to exercise appraisal rights under Section 262 must deliver a written demand for appraisal of its shares of Vyteck prior to the vote on the merger agreement. A vote against the merger agreement does not constitute a demand for appraisal. The written demand must identify the stockholder of record and state the stockholder's intention to demand appraisal of his or her shares. All demands should be delivered to Vyteck Corporation, 12670 High Bluff Drive, San Diego, California 92130, Attention: Corporate Secretary.

Only a holder of shares of Vyteck stock on the date of making a written demand for appraisal who continuously holds those shares through the time of the merger is entitled to seek appraisal. Demand for appraisal must be executed by or for the holder of record, fully and correctly, as that holder's name appears on the holder's stock certificates representing shares of Vyteck stock. If Vyteck stock is owned of record in a fiduciary capacity by a trustee, guardian or custodian, the demand should be made in that capacity. If Vyteck stock is owned of record by more than one person, as in a joint tenancy or tenancy in common, the demand should be made by or for all owners of record. An authorized agent, including one or more joint owners, may execute the demand for appraisal for a holder of record; that agent, however, must identify the record owner or owners and expressly disclose in the demand that the agent is acting as agent for the record owner or owners of the shares.

A record holder such as a broker who holds shares of Vyteck stock as a nominee for beneficial owners, some of whom desire to demand appraisal, must exercise appraisal rights on behalf of those beneficial owners with respect to the shares of Vyteck stock held for those beneficial owners. In that case, the written demand for appraisal should state the number of shares of Vyteck stock covered by it. Unless a demand for appraisal specifies a number of shares, the demand will be presumed to cover all shares of Vyteck stock held in the name of the record owner.

BENEFICIAL OWNERS WHO ARE NOT RECORD OWNERS AND WHO INTEND TO EXERCISE APPRAISAL RIGHTS SHOULD INSTRUCT THE RECORD OWNER TO COMPLY WITH THE STATUTORY REQUIREMENTS WITH RESPECT TO THE EXERCISE OF APPRAISAL RIGHTS BEFORE THE DATE OF THE VYTEK SPECIAL MEETING.

Within 10 days after the effective date of the merger, the surviving corporation to the merger is required to send notice of the adoption of the merger agreement to all stockholders who have provided notice to Vyteck of their intent to exercise appraisal rights and who have not voted in favor of the merger agreement.

Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger, the surviving corporation or any stockholder who has complied with the requirements of Section 262 may file a petition in the Delaware Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the fair value of the shares of Vyteck stock held by all stockholders seeking appraisal. A dissenting stockholder must serve a copy of the petition on the surviving corporation. If no petition is filed by either the surviving corporation or any dissenting stockholder within the 120-day period, the rights of all dissenting stockholders to appraisal will cease. Stockholders seeking to exercise appraisal rights should not assume that the surviving corporation will file a petition with respect to the appraisal of the fair value of their shares or that the surviving corporation will initiate any negotiations with respect to the fair value of those shares. The surviving corporation is under no obligation to and has no present intention to take any action in this regard. Accordingly, stockholders who wish to seek appraisal of their shares should initiate all necessary action with respect to the perfection of their appraisal rights within the time periods and in the manner prescribed in Section 262. FAILURE TO FILE THE PETITION ON A TIMELY BASIS WILL CAUSE THE STOCKHOLDER'S RIGHT TO AN APPRAISAL TO CEASE.

Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger, any stockholder who has complied with subsections (a) and (d) of Section 262 is entitled, upon written request, to receive from the surviving corporation a statement setting forth the total number of shares of Vyteck stock not voted in favor of the merger agreement with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received by the surviving corporation and the number of holders of those shares. The statement must be mailed within 10 days after the surviving corporation has received the written request or within 10 days after the time for delivery of demands for appraisal under subsection (d) of Section 262 has expired, whichever is later.

If a petition for an appraisal is timely filed by a stockholder and a copy thereof is served upon Vytek, Vytek will then be obligated within 20 days to file with the Delaware Register in Chancery a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded an appraisal of their shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached. After notice to such stockholders as required by the Court, the Delaware Court of Chancery is empowered to conduct a hearing on such petition to determine those stockholders who have complied with Section 262 and who have become entitled to appraisal rights thereunder. The Delaware Court of Chancery may require the holders of shares of Vytek capital stock who demanded payment for their shares to submit their stock certificates to the Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceeding; and if any stockholder fails to comply with such direction, the Court of Chancery may dismiss the proceedings as to such stockholder.

After determining the Vytek stockholders entitled to appraisal, the Delaware Court of Chancery will appraise the fair value of their shares, exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger, together with a fair rate of interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be the fair value. Vytek stockholders considering seeking appraisal should be aware that the fair value of their shares as determined under Section 262 could be more or less than or the same as the consideration they would receive pursuant to the merger if they did not seek appraisal of their shares and that investment banking opinions as to fairness from a financial point of view are not necessarily opinions as to fair value under Section 262. The Delaware Supreme Court has stated that proof of value by any techniques or methods which are generally considered acceptable in the financial community and otherwise admissible in court should be considered in the appraisal proceedings. In addition, Delaware courts have decided that the statutory appraisal remedy, depending on factual circumstances, may or may not be a dissenter's exclusive remedy. The Court will also determine the amount of interest, if any, to be paid upon the amounts to be received by persons whose shares have been appraised.

The Delaware Court of Chancery may determine the cost of the appraisal proceeding and assess it against the parties as the Court deems equitable. Upon application of a dissenting stockholder, the Court may order that all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any dissenting stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding (including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees and the fees and expenses of experts) be charged pro rata against the value of all shares of Vytek stock entitled to appraisal. In the absence of a court determination or assessment, each party bears its own expenses.

Any stockholder who has demanded appraisal in compliance with Section 262 will not, after the merger, be entitled to vote his or its Vytek stock for any purpose or receive payment of dividends or other distributions, if any, on the Vytek stock, except for dividends or distributions, if any, payable to stockholders of record at a date prior to the merger.

A stockholder may withdraw a demand for appraisal and accept the consideration payable pursuant to the merger agreement at any time within 60 days after the merger; provided that once a petition for appraisal is filed, it may not be dismissed as to any stockholder without the approval of the Delaware Court of Chancery, and any such approval may be conditioned on the Delaware Court of Chancery's deeming the terms to be just. If, after the merger, a holder of Vytek stock who had demanded appraisal for his shares fails to perfect or loses his right to appraisal, those shares will be treated under the merger agreement as if they were converted into the consideration payable pursuant to the merger agreement at the time of the merger.

IN VIEW OF THE COMPLEXITY OF THESE PROVISIONS OF THE DELAWARE CORPORATE LAW, ANY VYTEK STOCKHOLDER WHO IS CONSIDERING EXERCISING APPRAISAL RIGHTS SHOULD CONSULT A LEGAL ADVISOR.

California Amplifier stockholders are not entitled to appraisal rights with respect to the merger or the share issuance.

Quotation on The Nasdaq National Market

It is a condition to the closing of the merger that the shares of California Amplifier common stock to be issued pursuant to the merger agreement be approved for listing on The Nasdaq National Market.

Shares Eligible For Future Sale

Upon completion of the merger, assuming no changes in the number of shares of VyteK capital stock and the number of shares of California Amplifier common stock outstanding as of February 9, 2004, approximately 23,103,012 shares of California Amplifier common stock will be outstanding. All of the up to approximately 8,318,122 shares to be issued at and following the closing of the merger will be freely tradable without restriction or further registration under the Securities Act, other than shares held by affiliates of California Amplifier or VyteK as that term is defined in Rule 144 or 145 under the Securities Act or under the lock-up agreements entered into by certain of VyteK's stockholders as described below.

In general, under Rule 144, a person who may be deemed an affiliate of the combined company after the merger who has beneficially owned shares of California Amplifier common stock or shares exchanged for California Amplifier common stock for at least one year will be entitled to sell within any three-month period during the year following the completion of the merger a number of shares that does not exceed the greater of (i) 1% of the number of shares of California Amplifier common stock then outstanding (which is expected to be approximately 231,030 shares upon the completion of the merger) and (ii) the average weekly trading volume of the combined company's common stock on The Nasdaq National Market during the four calendar weeks preceding such sale. Sales under Rule 144 are also subject to certain provisions relating to the manner and notice of sale and availability of current public information about the combined company.

In general, under Rule 145, affiliates of VyteK will also be subject to the above restrictions on sales of the combined company's common stock received pursuant to the merger. The restrictions under Rule 145 will not apply to shares that California Amplifier is registering for resale in this registration statement of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus is a part. The registration for resale includes approximately 6,644,803 shares of California Amplifier common stock to be received by the affiliates of VyteK in connection with the merger who will not be affiliates of the combined company immediately following the effective time of the merger. Of the 6,644,803 shares of California Amplifier common stock registered for resale by VyteK's affiliates, a total of approximately 363,265 shares of California Amplifier common stock that are not subject to the lock-up agreements required as a condition to closing of the merger will be immediately available for resale in the public market following the effective time of the merger.

Options. Holders of options to purchase VyteK common stock that are not exercised prior to the effective time and that are assumed by California Amplifier in connection with the merger will be entitled to sell the California Amplifier common stock that they receive upon the exercise of such options pursuant to a registration statement on Form S-8, which will be filed by California Amplifier within 10 business days after the closing of the merger to register up to 201,963 shares of California Amplifier common stock subject to outstanding options to purchase VyteK common stock assumed by California Amplifier in connection with the merger and up to 135,012 shares of California Amplifier common stock, representing the additional shares of VyteK common stock not subject to options previously issued under the VyteK's 2000 Stock Option Plan assumed by California Amplifier in connection with the merger and which will be available for issuance by California Amplifier subject to the terms of VyteK's 2000 Stock Option Plan upon completion of the merger.

Lock-Up Agreements. As a condition to the closing of the merger, certain stockholders of VyteK are required to enter into lock-up agreements with respect to the shares of California Amplifier common stock received by them in connection with the merger. Assuming no changes in the number of shares of VyteK capital stock outstanding as of February 9, 2004, it is anticipated that 6,281,538 of the approximately 23,103,012 shares of California Amplifier common stock outstanding at the closing of the merger will be subject to such lock-up agreements. Pursuant to the lock-up agreements 3,140,769 shares will become available for resale in the public market 180 days following the closing of the merger, 1,570,384 shares will become available for resale in the public market 270 days following the closing of the merger and 1,570,385 shares will become available for resale in the public market 365 days following the closing of the merger.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following briefly summarizes the material provisions of the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated by reference into this summary. The following is not a complete description of all provisions of the merger agreement and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the merger agreement. You are encouraged to read the merger agreement in its entirety for a more complete description of the terms and conditions of the merger.

General

Following the approval of the merger proposal and actions related to the merger by the stockholders of Vytek, the approval of the share issuance by the stockholders of California Amplifier, and the satisfaction or waiver of each of the conditions to the merger, Acquisition Sub, a wholly-owned subsidiary of California Amplifier, will be merged with and into Vytek. Vytek will survive the merger as a wholly-owned subsidiary of California Amplifier. If all conditions to the merger are satisfied or waived, the merger will become effective at the time of the filing of the duly executed certificate of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, and such time is referred to in the merger agreement as the effective time.

Merger Consideration; Determination of the Exchange Ratio

In General. As a result of the merger, California Amplifier will issue, or be required to issue in the future pursuant to warrants and options to be assumed by California Amplifier in connection with the merger, up to approximately 8,318,122 shares of California Amplifier common stock in the aggregate to the holders of Vytek common stock, preferred stock, options and warrants immediately prior to the effective time. At the effective time of the merger, up to an aggregate of 8,200,000 of the California Amplifier shares to be issued pursuant to the merger will be issued by California Amplifier in exchange for all of the outstanding Vytek common and preferred stock or will be issuable, following the merger, by California Amplifier upon the exercise of options to acquire Vytek common stock that are outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, at exercise prices less than $1.00, which we refer to as in-the-money options, and the following warrants to acquire Vytek common stock and Series A Preferred, which we refer to as in-the-money warrants: (i) warrant to purchase 10,210 shares of Vytek common stock issued to CarrAmerica Realty Corporation; and (ii) warrant to purchase 122,949 shares of Vytek Series A Preferred issued to CarrAmerica Realty Corporation. The remaining approximately 118,122 California Amplifier shares to be issued pursuant to the merger will be issuable by California Amplifier following the merger upon the exercise of options to purchase Vytek common stock that are outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, at exercise prices greater than $1.00, which we refer to as out-of-the-money options, and the following warrants to purchase Vytek common stock and Series A Preferred, which we refer to as out-of-the-money warrants: (i) warrant to purchase 20,293 shares of Series A Preferred and 1,688 shares of Vytek common stock issued to Mission Ventures, L.P.; (ii) warrant to purchase 4,245 shares of Series A Preferred and 353 shares of Vytek common stock issued to Mission Ventures Affiliates, L.P.; (iii) warrant to purchase 14,330 shares of Series A Preferred and 1,192 shares of Vytek common stock issued to Spinnaker Ventures Fund I, L.P.; (iv) warrant to purchase 10,207 shares of Series A Preferred and 849 shares of Vytek common stock issued to Spinnaker Ventures Fund IQ, L.P.; (v) warrant to purchase 13,942 shares of Series A Preferred and 1,160 shares of Vytek common stock issued to Imperial Bank (currently Comerica Bank); (vi) warrant to purchase 683 shares of Vytek common stock issued to Flemming Lassard & Shields LLC; and (vii) warrant to purchase 253 shares of Vytek common stock issued to Transition Consulting LLC. Following the merger, the current holders of Vytek capital stock, options and warrants will own or have the right to acquire up to approximately 36% of the outstanding common stock of California Amplifier.

Conversion of Securities. At the effective time of the merger, and without any action on the part of any Vytek stockholder, each issued and outstanding share of Vytek capital stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will be converted into the right to receive a fraction of a share of California Amplifier common stock. This fraction is referred to as the exchange ratio. The exchange ratios for the various classes and series of Vytek capital stock will be determined as follows:

Each share of Vytek common stock will be converted into the right to receive the number of shares of California Amplifier common stock obtained by dividing (A) 1,230,000, the common share allocation, by (B) the sum of (i) the total number of shares of Vytek common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time, (ii) the total number of shares of Vytek common stock issuable upon the exercise of the in-the-money options and (iii) the total number of shares of Vytek common stock issuable upon the exercise of Vytek in-the-money warrants, which we refer to as the common stock exchange ratio.

Each share of Series A Preferred will be converted into the right to receive the number of shares of California Amplifier common stock obtained by dividing (A) 5,831,470, the Series A share allocation, by (B) the sum of (i) the total number of shares of Series A Preferred outstanding immediately prior to the effective time and (ii) the total number of shares of Series A Preferred issuable upon the exercise of the in-the-money warrants, which we refer to as the Series A exchange ratio.

Each share of Series B Preferred will be converted into the right to receive the number of shares of California Amplifier common stock obtained by dividing (A) 1,133,786, the Series B share allocation, by (B) the total number of shares of Series B Preferred outstanding immediately prior to the effective time, which we refer to as the Series B exchange ratio.

Each share of Series Junior Preferred will be converted into the right to receive the number of shares of California Amplifier common stock obtained by dividing (A) 4,744, the Series Junior share allocation, by (B) the total number of shares of Series Junior Preferred outstanding immediately prior to the effective time, which we refer to as the Series Junior exchange ratio.

The exchange ratios will not be adjusted based on fluctuations in the market price of California Amplifier's common stock.

The final exchange ratios at which shares of Vytek common stock and preferred stock will be converted into shares of California Amplifier common stock will depend on the precise capital structure of Vytek immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, which management of Vytek does not expect to materially differ from that as of February 2, 2004. On February 2, 2004, there were issued and outstanding (i) 13,576,150 shares of Vytek common stock, (ii) 22,950,784 shares of Series A Preferred, (iii) 4,256,406 shares of Series B Preferred, (iv) 22,790 shares of Series Junior Preferred, (v) 1,206,000 in-the-money options to acquire Vytek common stock, (vi) 1,222,878 out-of-the-money options to acquire Vytek common stock, (vii) in-the-money warrants to acquire 10,210 shares of Vytek common stock, (viii) out-of-the-money warrants to acquire 6,178 shares of Vytek common stock, (ix) in-the-money warrants to acquire 122,949 shares of Series A Preferred, and (x) out-of-the-money warrants to acquire 63,017 shares of Series A Preferred.

Edgar Filing: REALTY INCOME CORP - Form 424B5

The following chart estimates the exchange ratios that would be used to determine the number of shares of California Amplifier common stock that stockholders of Vyteck would receive as a result of the merger assuming that the number of each class and series of outstanding shares of Vyteck capital stock remains as it was on February 2, 2004:

Series	Exchange Ratio	Aggregate Share Allocation	Outstanding Share Calculation	Outstanding Vyteck Shares
Common Stock	0.083151	1,230,000	13,576,150 (common) + 1,206,000 (in-the-money options) + 10,210 (in-the-money common warrants)	14,792,360
Series A Preferred	0.252732	5,831,470	22,950,784 (Series A) + 122,949 (in-the-money Series A warrants)	23,073,733
Series B Preferred	0.266372	1,133,786	4,256,406	4,256,406
Series Junior Preferred	0.208161	4,744	22,790	22,790

Each Vyteck stockholder will be entitled to receive approximately 89.6% of the merger consideration otherwise due to it upon the closing of the merger. Exactly 854,700 shares of California Amplifier common stock, or approximately 10.4% of the shares to be issued at the closing of the merger, will be placed in escrow, pursuant to the escrow agreement that can be found at Exhibit E to the merger agreement, which is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A and described under Other Agreements Escrow Agreement below, to cover potential indemnity claims made by California Amplifier under the merger agreement. Additionally, if Vyteck's final working capital (as defined in the merger agreement) is less than $4,000,000, California Amplifier may instruct the escrow agent to return that number of shares of California Amplifier common stock equal to the amount of the deficiency valued in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement.

Treatment of Vyteck Stock Options

In connection with the merger, Vyteck has agreed to use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause the exercise of all in-the-money options prior to the effective time of the merger. Any stock options that, at the effective time of the merger, remain outstanding under Vyteck's stock option plan, the 2000 Stock Option Plan, and the plan itself, will be assumed by California Amplifier. As a result of the merger, each option to purchase shares of Vyteck common stock outstanding immediately prior to the merger will vest in full and will be converted into an option to acquire that number of shares of California Amplifier common stock obtained by multiplying (A) the number of shares subject to Vyteck's option by (B) the common stock exchange ratio, rounded down to the nearest whole number. The exercise price associated with such assumed option will be adjusted to an amount calculated by dividing (A) the exercise price for the original option to purchase Vyteck stock by (B) the common stock exchange ratio, rounded up to the nearest whole cent. Because calculation of the exchange ratios is dependent on the actual capital structure of Vyteck at the closing of the merger, the exact common stock exchange ratio cannot be determined prior to the effective time, and accordingly the number of options to acquire California Amplifier common stock into which Vyteck's stock options will be converted is not currently known.

As of February 2, 2004, options to purchase 2,428,878 shares of Vyteck common stock were outstanding under Vyteck's 2000 Stock Option Plan. Under the merger agreement, Vyteck is not permitted to grant any additional options to purchase shares of Vyteck common stock prior to the effective time. Vyteck and California Amplifier expect that in-the-money options to purchase 1,206,000 shares of Vyteck common stock will be exercised prior to the merger. Assuming that the capitalization of Vyteck is the same as it was on February 2, 2004, Vyteck's outstanding out-of-the-money options will convert into options to purchase 101,683 shares of California Amplifier common stock pursuant to the merger.

As of February 2, 2004, 1,623,698 options to purchase shares of Vyteck common stock remained available for grant under Vyteck's existing option plan. As a result of assuming the existing Vyteck option plan, California

Amplifier will be able to grant options exercisable for up to 135,012 shares of California Amplifier common stock to current VyteK employees.

Options to acquire California Amplifier common stock issued in exchange for outstanding VyteK options will be subject to the same terms and conditions that are currently applicable to such options under VyteK's 2000 Stock Option Plan. California Amplifier has agreed to file a registration statement on Form S-8 to register all of the shares of California Amplifier common stock that will be subject to the options assumed by California Amplifier in connection with the merger. In addition, California Amplifier intends that the registration statement on Form S-8 will include the registration of an additional amount of shares of California Amplifier common stock that will be subject to any future grants by California Amplifier under VyteK's 2000 Stock Option Plan assumed by California Amplifier.

California Amplifier's current stock option/ stock issuance equity compensation plans will not change as a result of the merger.

Treatment of VyteK Warrants

Each warrant to purchase shares of VyteK common stock and Series A Preferred that remains outstanding at the effective time will be converted into a warrant to purchase shares of California Amplifier common stock. The number of shares of California Amplifier common stock subject to the new warrant will be calculated by multiplying (A) the number of shares of VyteK common stock or Series A Preferred subject to the converted warrant by (B) the common stock or Series A exchange ratio, as applicable, rounded down to the nearest whole number. The exercise price associated with such converted warrant will be adjusted to an amount calculated by dividing (A) the exercise price per share of the VyteK common stock or Series A Preferred under the original warrant by (B) the common stock or Series A exchange ratio, as applicable, rounded up to the nearest whole cent. Because calculation of the exchange ratios is dependent on the actual capital structure of VyteK at the closing of the merger, the exact common stock and Series A exchange ratios and the number of shares of California Amplifier common stock subject to the warrants cannot be determined prior to the effective time.

Based on the capitalization of VyteK on February 9, 2004, the outstanding out-of-the-money warrants to purchase 6,178 shares of VyteK common stock and 63,017 shares of Series A Preferred as of February 9, 2004, will be assumed by California Amplifier and converted into warrants to purchase 16,439 shares of California Amplifier common stock. The outstanding in-the-money warrants to purchase 10,210 shares of VyteK common stock and 122,949 shares of Series A Preferred as of February 9, 2004, will be assumed by California Amplifier and converted into warrants to purchase 31,921 shares of California Amplifier common stock.

Exchange of Shares

Fractional Shares. California Amplifier will not issue any fractional shares of California Amplifier common stock pursuant to the merger. Instead, each holder of shares of VyteK capital stock exchanged pursuant to the merger who would otherwise have been entitled to receive a fraction of a share of California Amplifier common stock will be entitled to receive cash for that fractional share, without interest, in an amount equal to the fractional amount of California Amplifier common stock multiplied by the average of the daily volume-weighted sales prices per share of California Amplifier common stock as quoted on The Nasdaq National Market for the five consecutive trading-days ending two calendar days prior to the day the merger is completed.

Surrender of Shares of VyteK Capital Stock; Stock Transfer Books. At least two calendar days prior to the effective time, California Amplifier will mail to each record holder of a certificate representing VyteK capital stock a letter of transmittal containing instructions for surrendering certificates in exchange for California Amplifier common stock and for obtaining cash payment for fractional shares. Holders of certificates representing VyteK stock who surrender their certificates in accordance with these instructions will be entitled to receive, after the effective time, cash and certificates representing their shares of California

Amplifier common stock. Each surrendered certificate will be canceled. Until surrendered as contemplated above, each certificate representing Vytek stock will be deemed, at and after the effective time of the merger, to represent only the right to receive the merger consideration discussed above upon surrender of the certificate.

No Dividends or Distributions. No dividends declared or other distributions paid after the effective time of the merger by California Amplifier will be paid to the holder of any certificate representing Vytek capital stock until the certificate is surrendered. Following the surrender of each certificate representing shares of Vytek capital stock, California Amplifier will pay to the record holder of the new certificates representing shares of California Amplifier capital stock the amount of all dividends and distributions with a record date after the effective time of the merger that would have been previously payable had the certificate representing shares of Vytek capital stock been surrendered prior to the declaration or distribution. However, California Amplifier has not paid any cash dividends on its common stock and currently intends to retain any future earnings for use in its business. Accordingly, California Amplifier does not anticipate that any cash dividends will be declared or paid on its common stock in the foreseeable future.

Lost Certificates. If any Vytek certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed, the owner of the certificate must provide an affidavit to that effect. California Amplifier may require the owner of a lost, stolen or destroyed Vytek certificate to deliver a bond to California Amplifier as indemnity against any claim that may be made against California Amplifier with respect to any Vytek certificates alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Appraisal Rights

Shares of Vytek capital stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger that are held by any holder who:

has not voted such shares in favor of the merger at the special meeting; is entitled to demand and properly demands appraisal of such shares pursuant to Section 262 of the DGCL and complies in all respects with the provisions of such laws; and has not effectively withdrawn nor lost the right to demand relief as a dissenting stockholder under the DGCL as of the effective time of the merger shall not be converted into the right to receive the merger consideration. Instead such holder shall only be entitled to payment of the fair value of such shares in accordance with the provisions of Section 262 of the DGCL. At the effective time of the merger, all such shares shall automatically be canceled and shall cease to exist or be outstanding, and each holder shall cease to have any rights with respect to the shares, except for rights granted under Section 262 of the DGCL. In the event a holder fails to perfect or otherwise waives, withdraws or loses the right to appraisal under Section 262 of the DGCL, or a court of competent jurisdiction determines that such holder is not entitled to the relief provided by Section 262 of the DGCL, then the rights of such holder under Section 262 of the DGCL shall cease to exist and such holder's shares shall be deemed to have been converted at the effective time of the merger into the right to receive the merger consideration described above. Vytek is required to give California Amplifier prompt notice of any demands for appraisal, and California Amplifier has the right to participate in all negotiations and proceedings with respect to such demands. Vytek may not, without California Amplifier's prior written consent, make any payment with respect to, or settle or offer to settle, any such demands.

California Amplifier stockholders are not entitled to appraisal rights in connection with the merger.

Vytek also agreed that, unless California Amplifier consents in writing, it will not do any of the following prior to the earlier of the effective time of the merger or the termination of the merger agreement:

except as permitted by the merger agreement, incur any material indebtedness for borrowed money, guarantee any such indebtedness or make any material loans, advances or capital contributions to, or other investments in, any other person, in excess of $10,000; authorize, recommend, propose or announce an intention to take, or agree to take any of the foregoing actions.

Each of Vytek and California Amplifier has agreed to use commercially reasonable efforts to promptly notify the other party of any event or occurrence of which it is aware that would be reasonably likely to:

cause any representation or warranty contained in the merger agreement and made by it to be untrue or inaccurate in any material respect;

cause any covenant, condition or agreement contained in the merger agreement and made by it not to be complied with or satisfied in all material respects; or have a material adverse effect on that party.

Each of Vytek and California Amplifier has also agreed to use its commercially reasonable efforts to promptly notify the other party of any failure by such party to comply in a timely manner with or satisfy any covenant, condition or agreement to be complied with or satisfied by it under the merger agreement.

As it is used in the merger agreement, material adverse effect means any event, circumstance or change that is or that could reasonably be expected to be materially adverse to the business, operations, condition, assets, or results of operations of California Amplifier and its subsidiaries or Vytek and its subsidiaries, each taken as a whole, or that could reasonably be expected to prevent or materially delay or impair the ability of California Amplifier or Vytek to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. However, any adverse change, effect, occurrence, state of facts or development attributable to conditions affecting the industries in which California Amplifier and its subsidiaries or Vytek and its subsidiaries participate or the U.S. economy as a whole or foreign economies in any locations where either California Amplifier and its subsidiaries or Vytek and its subsidiaries has material operations or sales will not be considered in determining whether there has been a material adverse effect on California Amplifier's or Vytek's business.

Limitations on Considering Third Party Acquisition Proposals

Vytek has agreed to immediately cease any and all discussions or negotiations with any persons with respect to any third party acquisition and until the merger is completed or the merger agreement is terminated, not to:

directly or indirectly encourage, solicit, participate in or initiate discussions or negotiations with any person or group concerning a third party acquisition, as defined below; or furnish to any person or group any non-public information concerning a third party acquisition.

A third party acquisition means the occurrence of any of the following events (other than the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement):

the acquisition of Vytek by merger or otherwise by any person other than California Amplifier; an acquisition by a third party of any material portion of the assets of Vytek and its subsidiaries other than the sale of its products in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice; an acquisition by a third party of 15% or more of the outstanding capital stock of Vytek;

the adoption by Vytek of a plan of total or partial liquidation or the declaration or payment of an extraordinary dividend;

the repurchase by Vytek or any of its subsidiaries of more than 10% of the outstanding capital stock of Vytek; or the acquisition by Vytek or any of its subsidiaries by merger or otherwise of a direct or indirect ownership interest or investment in any business whose annual revenues, net income or assets is equal or greater than 20% of the annual revenues, net income or assets of Vytek.

Vytek must promptly, and in no event later than two business days after receipt in the case of an unsolicited proposal for a third party acquisition, notify California Amplifier of the receipt of any written or oral proposal or inquiry concerning a third party acquisition, including the terms and conditions thereof and the identity of the person or group submitting such proposal.

Despite the restrictions described above, Vytek may furnish information to and enter into discussions or negotiations with any person who has made a proposal for a third party acquisition if the board of directors has:

by a majority vote determined in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel, that furnishing the information or entering into discussions may be reasonably necessary to avoid any legal claims for breach of its fiduciary obligations to Vytek stockholders under applicable law;

by a majority vote determined in good faith that the proposal is reasonably likely to result in a superior proposal, as defined below; and obtained from the person making the proposal an executed confidentiality agreement on terms no less favorable to Vytek than those contained in the confidentiality agreement between California Amplifier and Vytek.

In the merger agreement, a superior proposal means any bona fide proposal to acquire directly or indirectly more than 50% of the capital stock of Vytek then outstanding or all or substantially all of the assets of Vytek or any of its subsidiaries, and otherwise on terms that Vytek's board of directors, by a majority vote, determines in good faith to be more favorable to its stockholders than the terms of the merger.

Prior to the approval of the merger proposal by the requisite vote of the stockholders of Vytek, nothing in the merger agreement prevents Vytek's board of directors from withholding, withdrawing, amending, modifying or changing its recommendation in favor of the merger if:

Vytek receives a superior proposal that is not withdrawn; within two business days after receiving a superior proposal, Vytek provides written notice to California Amplifier informing California Amplifier that Vytek has received a superior proposal, specifying the material terms and conditions of the superior proposal and identifying the person or entity making the superior proposal;

California Amplifier does not, within two business days after receiving notice of the superior proposal, make an offer that Vytek's board of directors by a majority vote determines in good faith to be at least as favorable to Vytek's stockholders as the superior proposal; and Vytek's board of directors by a majority vote determines in good faith after consultation with legal counsel, that, in light of the superior proposal, the withdrawal of the board's recommendation in favor of the merger is necessary in order for the Vytek board of directors to comply with its fiduciary obligations to Vytek and Vytek's stockholders under applicable law.

Other Covenants

Director and Officer Indemnification. California Amplifier has agreed to indemnify the officers and directors of Vytek for six years after the effective time of the merger to the same extent that those officers and directors are presently indemnified under the DGCL and through Vytek's certificate of incorporation, bylaws or agreements with those officers and directors. California Amplifier has also agreed to obtain and maintain director and officer liability insurance on behalf of Vytek's officers and directors for six years following the merger.

Third Party Approvals. Vytek and California Amplifier have agreed to use their commercially reasonable efforts to obtain all consents and make all filings (including filings with governmental entities) that are necessary to be obtained by them to consummate the merger.

Employee Benefits. California Amplifier has agreed, for a period of two years following the effective time of the merger, to provide Vytek employees who continue employment with California Amplifier with benefits that are substantially equivalent in the aggregate to such benefits provided by California Amplifier to similarly situated employees of California Amplifier.

Termination of Vytek Agreements with Stockholders. Vytek has agreed to waive all rights under and use commercially reasonable efforts to cause to be terminated, effective immediately prior to the effective time, the Amended and Restated Stockholders Agreement, dated April 3, 2003, among Vytek and certain of its stockholders, and the Amended and Restated Registration Rights Agreement, dated April 3, 2003, among Vytek and certain of its stockholders.

Acceleration of Unvested Securities. Effective immediately prior to the effective time, Vytek will accelerate in full the vesting of all unvested stock options and any shares of its common stock subject to a repurchase option, risk of forfeiture or other condition under any restricted stock purchase agreement or other agreement with Vytek. In addition, Vytek has agreed to use commercially reasonable efforts to facilitate the exercise of all in-the-money Vytek options prior to the effective time.

Section 16 Relief. California Amplifier's board of directors will adopt resolutions prior to the consummation of the merger providing that the receipt of California Amplifier common stock pursuant to the merger or upon exercise of options assumed by California Amplifier in the merger, by the officers and directors of Vytek who will be subject to the reporting requirements under Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act with respect to California Amplifier after the merger is intended to be exempt from liability under Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act.

Certain Other Covenants. The merger agreement contains certain other mutual covenants of California Amplifier and Vytek. The most significant are to:

provide to the other party and its accountants, counsel, financial advisors and other representatives, reasonable access to its properties, books and records;

maintain the confidentiality of the information obtained from the other party in accordance with the confidentiality agreement between the parties;

refrain from issuing any press release or otherwise issuing any written public statement regarding the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement without prior consultation with the other party unless otherwise required under applicable law or the requirements of The Nasdaq National Market;

notify the other party of the occurrence or non-occurrence of any event of which it is aware and which would be reasonably likely to result in any condition required for the merger not to be satisfied; and use commercially reasonable efforts to take all actions necessary to comply with legal requirements and obtain all consents and approvals necessary to complete the merger.

Indemnification

Obligation to Indemnify California Amplifier. California Amplifier, Acquisition Sub, Vytek and their respective affiliates, officers, directors, employees, stockholders, representatives and agents, collectively, the purchaser indemnitees, are entitled to indemnification in certain specified circumstances. Under the merger agreement, after the merger is completed, California Amplifier and the purchaser indemnitees will be indemnified against losses or damages arising out of or in connection with any inaccuracy in or breach of any of Vytek's representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in the merger agreement.

At the closing of the merger, California Amplifier will deposit 854,700 of the shares of California Amplifier common stock to be issued in connection with the merger with an escrow agent. Such shares will be held in the escrow account until the two-year anniversary of the closing of the merger. On the fifteen-month anniversary of the closing of the merger, all shares of California Amplifier common stock (and/or cash which has been substituted for such common stock in the escrow fund) remaining in the escrow account, except for that number of shares of California Amplifier common stock and/or cash equal in value to $2,000,000 at the time of release, shall be distributed to the former Vytek stockholders on a pro rata basis. All remaining shares of California Amplifier common stock and any remaining cash in the escrow fund will be released to the Vytek stockholders, in accordance with their pro rata portion, two years after the closing, subject to any then pending and unresolved claims for indemnification or the working capital adjustment.

If California Amplifier or any other purchaser indemnitee suffers any losses which are subject to the indemnity, it can recover these losses by taking back shares of California Amplifier common stock deposited with the escrow agent or cash in the escrow fund equal in value to the damages suffered by California Amplifier or the other purchaser indemnitee. When California Amplifier or any other purchaser indemnitee makes a claim to take back shares of California Amplifier common stock deposited with the escrow agent, the value of those shares will be computed as the average of the daily volume-weighted sales prices per share of California Amplifier common stock on The Nasdaq National Market for each of the five consecutive trading days ending on the trading day that is two calendar days prior to the date of distribution of the shares of California Amplifier common stock out of the escrow account.

Obligation to Indemnify Vytek. Vytek stockholders and their respective affiliates, officers, directors, stockholders, representatives and agents, collectively, the stockholder indemnitees, are entitled to indemnification in certain specified circumstances. Under the merger agreement, after the merger is completed, Vytek stockholders and the other stockholder indemnitees will be indemnified against losses or damages arising out of, or in connection with, any inaccuracy in or breach of any of California Amplifier's representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in the merger agreement.

Limitations on Indemnification. No indemnitee is entitled to indemnification with respect to any matters until the total of all losses to the purchaser indemnitees, on one hand, and the stockholder indemnitees, on the other, exceeds $100,000. If the total amount of losses exceeds $100,000, then the purchaser indemnitee or stockholder indemnitee, as applicable will only be indemnified for those losses in excess of $100,000. The maximum amount of losses recoverable by either the purchaser indemnitees or the stockholder indemnitees is $8,000,000. Any indemnification claims made by the purchaser indemnitees will be paid from the escrow account on a pro rata basis with respect to each Vytek stockholder.

Making Indemnification Claims. If an indemnitee suffers a loss for which indemnification is provided in the merger agreement, such indemnitee will promptly give the Vytek stockholders' representative or California Amplifier, as applicable, and the escrow agent written notice of any claims involving indemnification. The Vytek stockholders' representative or California Amplifier, as applicable, may elect to take all necessary steps to properly contest any claim involving third parties or to prosecute that claim to conclusion or settlement. If the claim is primarily for non-monetary damages, the claim relates to a dispute with any customer of Vytek's business, the results of the claim would likely materially interfere with California Amplifier's or Vytek's business, the former stockholders of Vytek are not solely liable for any damages pursuant to the claim or the Vytek stockholders' representative declines to defend such third-party claim, then California Amplifier or Vytek, as applicable, has the right to proceed with the defense of that claim on its own. Neither party can compromise or settle any indemnification claim without the written consent of either California Amplifier or the Vytek stockholders' representative, as applicable. In addition to the merger agreement, the escrow agreement provides specific procedures for contesting indemnification claims made by California Amplifier or the other purchaser indemnitees against the shares of California Amplifier common stock held in the escrow account. No claim for indemnification may be made by California Amplifier or the other purchaser indemnitees after the expiration of the escrow period. We urge you to read this description of the indemnification obligations on Vytek stockholders in conjunction with the section entitled "Other Agreements - Escrow Agreement" on page 70.

Vytek and the escrow agent must have executed and delivered the escrow agreement;

All of the directors of Vytek and any executive officers designated by California Amplifier must have tendered their resignations;

Certain stockholders of Vytek must have executed and delivered lock-up agreements in connection with the shares of California Amplifier common stock being received by such stockholders; and

California Amplifier's representations and warranties in the merger agreement must be true and correct as of the closing date, as though made on and as of the closing date, except where the failure to be true and correct does not result in a material adverse effect on California Amplifier;

Each of California Amplifier and Acquisition Sub must have performed in all material respects each of its agreements and covenants contained in the merger agreement;

California Amplifier and the escrow agent must have executed and delivered the escrow agreement;

California Amplifier must have executed and delivered the registration rights agreement; and California Amplifier must have obtained any necessary consents or approvals of its lender under that certain credit facility with US Bank, National Association, in connection with the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement or paid in full all outstanding obligations under such credit facility and terminated such credit facility in accordance with its terms.

Termination

California Amplifier and Vytek may agree by mutual written consent to terminate the merger agreement at any time before the merger is completed. In addition, either party may terminate the merger agreement if:

the other party has failed to comply in any material respect with any of its covenants or agreements contained in the merger agreement, which failure to comply has not been cured within 15 business days of written notice of such failure to comply;

the merger is not completed, without the fault of the terminating party, by June 30, 2004;

any final, nonappealable governmental order prohibits the merger;

Vytek's stockholders do not approve the merger and the merger agreement, unless such failure to obtain stockholder approval was caused by Vytek's action or failure to act that constitutes a material breach of the merger agreement; or California Amplifier's stockholders do not approve the share issuance, unless such failure to obtain stockholder approval was caused by California Amplifier's action or failure to act that constitutes a material breach of the merger agreement.

In addition to the above, California Amplifier may terminate the merger agreement if any of the following occur:

there has been a breach of a representation or warranty of Vytek that gives rise to a failure of the fulfillment of a condition of California Amplifier's or Acquisition Sub's obligations to effect the merger which has not been cured within 15 business days of written notice of such breach;

Vytek's board of directors withdraws or modifies its approval or recommendation of the merger agreement or merger in a manner adverse to California Amplifier;

Vytek's board of directors has submitted or recommended to its stockholders a superior proposal; or Vytek or its representative willfully and deliberately breached its obligations relating to any third party acquisition.

Vytek may also terminate the merger agreement if:

there has been a breach of a representation or warranty of California Amplifier or Acquisition Sub that gives rise to a failure of the fulfillment of a condition of Vytek's obligations to effect the merger which has not been cured within 15 business days of written notice of such breach;

California Amplifier's board of directors withdraws or modifies in a manner adverse to Vytek its approval or recommendation of the share issuance in connection with the merger; or Vytek receives a superior proposal and resolves to accept such superior proposal and Vytek has paid all termination fees due to California Amplifier.

Termination Liquidated Damages and Expenses

The merger agreement provides that, if the agreement is terminated, all fees and expenses will be paid by the party incurring them, except as described below.

Payments by Vytek.

Vytek will pay $1,500,000 to California Amplifier if the merger agreement is terminated by either party because Vytek's stockholders do not adopt the merger agreement, other than in the circumstances when a third party acquisition proposal was publicly announced and not withdrawn at the time of the Vytek stockholder meeting;

Vytek will pay $2,000,000 to California Amplifier if the merger agreement is terminated:

by California Amplifier because Vytek's board has submitted or recommended a superior proposal to its stockholders;

by California Amplifier because Vytek's board has withdrawn or modified in a manner adverse to California Amplifier its approval or recommendation of the merger agreement or the merger;

by California Amplifier because Vytek or its representative willfully and deliberately breached its obligations relating to any third party acquisition;

by either California Amplifier or Vytek because Vytek stockholders do not adopt the merger agreement and a third party acquisition has been publicly disclosed and not withdrawn at the time of the Vytek stockholder meeting; or by Vytek because Vytek receives a superior proposal and resolves to accept such proposal.

In addition to the $2,000,000 amount specified above, Vytek will pay California Amplifier an additional $1,000,000 if the merger agreement is terminated for any of the reasons listed above that give rise to a termination fee of $2,000,000 and if Vytek consummates a third party acquisition within 15 months after the merger agreement is so terminated.

Vytek will pay California Amplifier $3,000,000 if the merger agreement is terminated by California Amplifier due to a willful and deliberate breach of a representation or warranty of Vytek that gives rise to a failure of the fulfillment of a condition of California Amplifier or Acquisition Subs obligations to effect the merger which has not been cured within 15 business days of written notice of such breach and (i) California Amplifier is not in material breach of any of its obligations under the merger agreement, (ii) Vytek has received a third party acquisition proposal and (iii) Vytek consummates a third party acquisition within 15 months after the merger agreement is terminated.

Payments by California Amplifier. California Amplifier will pay Vytek $1,500,000 if the merger agreement is terminated:

by either party because California Amplifier's stockholders do not approve the share issuance in connection with the merger; or by Vytek because California Amplifier's board has withdrawn or modified in a manner adverse to Vytek its approval or recommendation of the share issuance in connection with the merger.

Payment of Expenses. The terminating party must reimburse the non-terminating party for up to $400,000 of documented costs, fees and expenses associated with the merger, the merger agreement and the consummation of all transactions contemplated by the merger agreement if any of the payments due upon termination listed above become payable.

OTHER AGREEMENTS

The following is a summary of the material provisions of the Vytek voting agreements, lock-up agreements, escrow agreement and the registration rights agreement. Copies of the form of Vytek voting agreement and form of lock-up agreement can be found at Exhibits B and F, respectively, to the merger agreement, which is attached as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus. The following is not a complete description of all the provisions of these agreements, and you are urged to read in their entirety the form of Vytek voting agreement and form of lock-up agreement. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of these agreements.

Voting Agreements

In connection with the signing of the merger agreement, certain of Vytek's executive officers, directors and certain stockholders of Vytek affiliated with such directors, including Leonard J. Fassler, James E. Ousley, Walter J. Cook, II, Tracy R. Trent, Mobius Technology Ventures VI, L.P., Softbank US Ventures VI, L.P., Charter Vytek, LLC, CIBC MB, Inc., VTK Management LLC, Mission Ventures, L.P., Mission Ventures Affiliates, L.P., Mission Ventures II, L.P., Mission Ventures Affiliates II, L.P., Frontenac VIII Limited Partnership and Frontenac Masters VIII Limited Partnership entered into voting agreements. Pursuant to the voting agreements, these Vytek stockholders agreed to vote a certain portion of the shares of Vytek capital stock they beneficially own:

in favor of the merger, the merger agreement and the amendment and restatement of Vytek's certificate of incorporation; against certain third party acquisitions or other actions that could reasonably be expected to impede, interfere with, delay, postpone, or materially adversely affect the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement or the likelihood of such transactions being consummated;

against any action or agreement that would result in the breach of any covenant, representation or warranty or any other obligation or agreement of Vytek under the merger agreement or which is reasonably likely to result in any of the conditions to Vytek's obligations under the merger agreement not being fulfilled; against any change in the directors of Vytek (other than as set forth in the merger agreement); and in favor of any other matter necessary for consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

As of February 2, 2004, Vytek's directors, officers, stockholders and affiliates who entered into the voting agreements with California Amplifier collectively have agreed to vote in favor of the merger:

1,860,178 outstanding shares of Vytek common stock and 11,458,382 shares of all series of preferred stock, which then represented approximately 32.6% of the outstanding Vytek capital stock calculated on an as-if converted to common stock basis;

1,860,178 outstanding shares of Vytek common stock, which then represented approximately 13.7% of the outstanding Vytek common stock;

9,677,313 outstanding shares of Vytek Series A Preferred, which then represented approximately 42.2% of the outstanding Vytek Series A Preferred;

1,781,069 outstanding shares of Vytek Series B preferred stock, which then represented approximately 41.8% of the outstanding Vytek Series B Preferred;

No outstanding shares of Vytek Series Junior Preferred, which then represented 0% of the outstanding Vytek Series Junior Preferred; and 9,677,313 outstanding shares of Vytek Series A Preferred and 1,781,069 outstanding shares of Series B Preferred, which then represented approximately 42.1% of the combined Series A Preferred and Series B Preferred, calculated as if voting together as a single class.

None of Vytek's directors, officers, stockholders or affiliates who entered into the voting agreements with California Amplifier was paid additional consideration in connection with entering into such agreements. The Vytek voting agreements terminate upon the earlier of (i) written mutual consent of the parties thereto, (ii) the termination of the merger agreement in accordance with its terms, or (iii) automatically and without any required action of the parties thereto, at the effective time of the merger. The form of voting agreement entered into by Vytek's executive officers, directors and stockholders can be found at Exhibit B to the merger agreement, which is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A.

Lock-Up Agreements

As a condition to the completion of the merger, certain of Vytek's executive officers, directors and stockholders are expected to enter into lock-up agreements. In addition, Vytek will use its commercially reasonable efforts to deliver, prior to the closing of the merger, lock-up agreements executed by each holder of 30,000 or more shares of Vytek's preferred stock or 100,000 or more shares of Vytek's common stock.

The lock-up agreements provide that, for a period of one year from the closing of the merger, the signing stockholders may not offer, sell, transfer, pledge or otherwise dispose of, or enter into any swap or other arrangement to transfer any of the shares of California Amplifier common stock issued to the stockholder at the closing of the merger, except:

at any time from the date that is 180 days after the closing of the merger until the date that is 270 days after the closing of the merger, the stockholder will be permitted to transfer up to 50% of the shares of California Amplifier common stock issued to such stockholder at the closing of the merger;

at any time from the date that is 270 days after the closing of the merger until the one-year anniversary of the closing of the merger stockholder will be permitted to transfer up to an additional 25% of the shares of California Amplifier common stock issued to such stockholder at the closing of the merger; and at the one-year anniversary of the closing of the merger all such restrictions on the transfer of the shares of California Amplifier common stock issued to such stockholder will expire and the signing stockholder will be free to transfer all such shares subject to applicable securities laws.

Stockholders who execute the lock-up agreements may still sell their shares notwithstanding the lock-up agreement in connection with an underwritten offering of California Amplifier stock pursuant to the registration rights agreement described below.

The form of lock-up agreement can be found at Exhibit F to the merger agreement, which is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A.

Escrow Agreement

Upon the closing of the merger, California Amplifier will enter into an escrow agreement with James E. Ousley, as the designated representative of the Vytek stockholders, and a commercial bank, or its designee, as escrow agent. Under the terms of the merger agreement and the escrow agreement, 854,700, or approximately 10.4% of the shares issuable to the Vytek stockholders at the closing of the merger will be placed in escrow as security for potential indemnity claims by California Amplifier under the merger agreement and for the payment, if necessary, of any obligation arising out of the working capital adjustment as defined in the merger agreement.

The number of escrow shares will be deducted, on a pro rata basis, from the shares of California Amplifier common stock to be received by the Vytex stockholders at the closing of the merger. The stockholder representative may direct the sale of some or all of the escrow shares, for a price of at least $11.00 per share, and deposit the proceeds received from such sale of the escrow shares into the escrow fund. Subject to any claims by California Amplifier for indemnification or the working capital adjustment, except for an amount equal in value to $2,000,000, all shares of California Amplifier common stock and any cash in the escrow fund will be released to the Vytex stockholders, in accordance with their pro rata portion, 15 months after the closing. All remaining shares of California Amplifier common stock and any remaining cash in the escrow fund will be released to the Vytex stockholders, in accordance with their pro rata portion, two years after the closing, subject to any then pending and unresolved claims for indemnification or the working capital adjustment.

The escrow agreement can be found at Exhibit E to the merger agreement, which is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A.

Registration Rights Agreement

The stockholders of Vytex whose shares are subject to restrictions on transfer under the lock-up agreements will be permitted to enter into a registration rights agreement with California Amplifier regarding the shares of California Amplifier common stock received by them pursuant to the merger and subject to the lock-up. In addition, as a condition to registering for resale the shares of California Amplifier common stock that would be received by them pursuant to the merger, each of the stockholders listed as a selling stockholder under Selling Stockholders on page 142 has entered into the registration rights agreement regarding such shares. Under the registration rights agreement, California Amplifier will notify the Vytex stockholders at least 20 days prior to the filing of any registration statement under the Securities Act with respect to an underwritten offering and will afford each stockholder an opportunity to include in such registration statement all or some of the California Amplifier common stock received by such stockholder pursuant to the merger. All stockholders proposing to distribute their California Amplifier common stock through such underwritten offering must enter into an underwriting agreement with the underwriter. The underwriter may, in certain circumstances, limit the number of shares to be included in the underwritten offering.

The form of registration rights agreement can be found at Exhibit H to the merger agreement, which is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A.

AMENDMENT TO VYTEK S CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION

Under the terms of Vytek s existing Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, in the event Vytek is a party to a merger or consolidation with or into any other entity involving the transfer of a majority of the total voting power of Vytek, holders of Vytek preferred stock would be entitled to the following liquidation preferences: (i) holders of Series B Preferred would be entitled to receive, at the option of each such holder, either (a) $1.1747 per share, plus any dividends accrued but unpaid on each share, or (b) $2.3494 per share, plus any dividends accrued but unpaid on each share; (ii) holders of Series A Preferred would be entitled to receive $1.9483 per share, plus any dividends accrued but unpaid on each share; and (iii) holders of Series Junior Preferred would be entitled to receive $1.9483 per share. Any remaining assets of Vytek would be distributed on a pro rata, as converted, basis to the holders of Vytek common stock, Series A Preferred, Series B Preferred who exercised their option to receive a liquidation preference of $1.1747 per share, and Series Junior Preferred.

In connection with and as a closing condition to the merger, California Amplifier requested and Vytek s board of directors agreed, to effect an amendment to Vytek s existing Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation to exempt the merger and related transactions from triggering the liquidation preference provisions described above. The purpose of this amendment is to clarify that the terms of the merger agreement, rather than the existing Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, will govern the distribution of consideration to be made to Vytek stockholders in connection with the merger.

The amendment of Vytek s existing Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation is subject to the completion of the merger and will not be made effective if the merger is not completed. The full text of the amendment to Vytek s existing Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation is attached as Exhibit C to the merger agreement, which is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus at Annex A, and stockholders of Vytek should read that document in its entirety.

Recommendation of the Vytek Board of Directors

The Vytek board of directors recommends that the Vytek stockholders vote FOR the approval of the amendment to Vytek s Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation to exempt the merger and related transactions from triggering the liquidation preference provisions set forth in the Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation and to clarify that the merger agreement will govern the distribution of consideration to Vytek stockholders in connection with the merger.

INFORMATION CONCERNING VYTEK

Vytek's Business

Vytek was originally incorporated in Delaware in April 2000 as Vytek Wireless, Inc. In 2003, Vytek changed its name to Vytek Corporation. Vytek's principal executive offices are located at 12670 High Bluff Drive, San Diego, California 92130 and its telephone number is (858) 554-1400.

Business Overview

Vytek is a provider of technology integration solutions catering to the needs of enterprises and original equipment manufacturers, or OEMs, in the emerging wireless and mobile computing sector. Vytek provides integrated solutions leveraging a mix of professional services and proprietary software and hardware platforms. Vytek has a broad array of expertise in wireless technologies ranging from emerging standards in WiFi (802.11 a/b/g), Bluetooth, Zigbee/802.15.4, and General Packet Radio Service, or GPRS, to specialized technologies such as Project 25/ Land Mobile Radio, Radio Frequency Identification, or RFID, and Paging (Flex/ ReFlex) for next generation devices and products. In addition to its specialty in emerging wireless technologies, Vytek is one of the leading firms in delivering both the embedded computing platform and the complex software (content delivery) systems essential to powering mobile computing. To date, Vytek has completed seven principal acquisitions, including the acquisition of Sonik Technologies, Inc. (subsequently renamed Vytek Products, Inc.), a provider of wireless communication infrastructure equipment; Telamon, Inc. (subsequently renamed Vytek Messaging Services, Inc.), which is the developer of TelAlert, a leading urgent messaging solution; Planet Technology Solutions, Inc. (subsequently renamed Vytek Solutions, Inc.), an integrator of wireless solutions catering to retail and supply chain; Rubicon Technologies, Inc. (subsequently renamed Vytek Public Safety Solutions, Inc.), a provider of software solutions for municipal and other public safety organizations; MicroKnowledge, Inc., a provider of training services; and Stellcom, Inc., a provider of mobile computing software and hardware solutions.

Industry Background

Vytek's business is founded on the premise that emerging mobile computing technologies and insufficient standards surrounding both hardware and software will mandate the need for services to assist in the implementation of products and enterprise solutions. According to Gartner, Inc. of Stamford, Connecticut, by 2007, more than 50 percent of enterprises with more than 1000 employees will make use of at least five wireless networking technologies. Today, 45 percent of the U.S. workforce is using some type of mobile device, ranging from portable PCs and PDAs to new technologies such as sensor networks.

According to IDC of Framingham, Massachusetts, the consumer market is increasingly utilizing mobile technology as the personal use of mobile devices, technology, applications and services is on the rise. Gartner asserts that organizations developing consumer products for mobile networks should look for ways to add value by focusing on interaction with other consumer devices such as televisions, game consoles or set-top boxes. Vytek believes that this will expand the need for integration and development services focused on wireless technology.

In total, the revenue for wireless technologies is growing and expected to continue its growth at a fast rate. IDC forecasts that the worldwide market for wireless infrastructure and applications will increase from $31.1 billion in 2002 to $68.4 billion in 2007, representing a compound annual growth rate of 17.1%. In the U.S. alone, by 2007, industries are expected to spend $25.6 billion for wireless infrastructure and applications.

Integrating these disparate products requires a new look at the connections, data flow architectures, and the overall systems and networks surrounding these products and their intended use. Vytex creates end-to-end systems that are built on a combination of its own technology, referred to herein as reference platforms, or those supplied via third-party partners. Vytex further differentiates this offering by working with its clients to focus on device and system usability in an endeavor to ensure rapid customer adoption, satisfaction, and productivity.

Urgent Messaging and Alerting. Managing complex information networks and infrastructure requires tools which ensure information delivery in real-time, allowing them to take action to preempt downtime or other issues that could jeopardize business or prevent them from meeting the terms of their Service Level Agreements. Vytex's Urgent Messaging solutions equip the enterprise with the software infrastructure that can handle these demanding requirements. Through the distribution of its TelAlert messaging platform, Vytex wirelessly enables many industry-leading applications, including many infrastructure management platforms such as: HP OpenView, Remedy, CA Unicenter, and IBM Tivoli.

Additionally, Vytek is certified as a Cisco and Symbol Technologies wireless partner. These skills and partnering arrangements allow Vytek to help customers exploit converged technologies and mobility applications.

Independent Verification and Validation Services. Most successful products begin as detailed requirements from which developers take direction. These same requirements should become the basis for testing each product before it goes to market and as it changes, to ensure that it works as intended. Recognizing this need in its own product development process, Vytek defined a verification and validation methodology and dedicates an independent team to oversee its application. Vytek makes this team and its methodology available directly to external customers.

Training. Vytek helps enterprises improve the skills, knowledge base, and productivity of workers through targeted technology training and consulting. Customized coursework and expert consulting services are designed to keep a customer's staff up-to-date on key technologies as they relate to the customer's environment. Wireless Infrastructure Products. Vytek offers a wide range of products to support mature and essential wireless networks. These Vytek designed and produced infrastructure products include long-range broadband data solutions and wireless messaging and paging equipment. Vytek solutions have been deployed in several industries including telecommunications, energy, government and public safety agencies, and Internet service providers, all of whom have a critical requirement for performance, reliability, and security.

Vytek's Narrowband compliant PTX-150, PTX-450, PTX-900, Direct Digital Paging transmitters are designed to meet the paging industry's latest standards for high speed FLEX and simulcast operation and are designed to operate with a wide range of standard network interfaces. Vytek's PageLink VHF, UHF, and 900 MHz FLEX/POCSAG data receivers are suitable for remote control and one way telemetry using either existing paging infrastructure or on-premises paging equipment. The Second Generation Nucleus Transmitter, or G2N, is a FLEX paging transmitter for the VHF/UHF/900 MHz frequency band. It is a single-carrier design based on the original Motorola Nucleus Transmitter, or NUC, and is backward compatible with installed systems today. Vytek is the only manufacturer of the G2BT 2nd Generation Base Transmitter for 2-way paging infrastructure. Vytek has taken the next step in providing an all digital ReFLEX paging solution that incorporates Vytek's proven design, integration, and manufacturing technology together with acquired intellectual property licensed from Motorola for complex high-performance paging systems.

Vytek's wireless modem and telemetry products provide the reliable long distance data communication links that utilize narrow-band radio technology. As an alternative to the unreliable data communications problems plaguing conventional and spread spectrum data radio networks, they are well-suited for many radio control applications such as SCADA, telemetry, automatic vehicle location, or AVL, and wireless data. Vytek's SkyLine wireless modems utilize licensed VHF/UHF frequency bands for reliable, long distance, RS-232 data communications. Applications include SCADA, telemetry, radio control, and wireless data communications. The FireLine high speed UHF data transceiver has been specifically designed to provide OEM customers with a cost effective solution for migration to narrowband channels in compliance with the FCC's re-farming requirements. Its single board design includes a high-speed modem and transceiver on one small circuit board, which can be used for a wide variety of OEM applications.

Public Safety Software Suite. Vytek provides public safety software applications to law enforcement agencies at the national, regional, and local levels. Vytek's product offering includes a centralized content delivery application, or Vswitch, which allows law enforcement officials to access State, DMV, NLETS, and NCIC databases to improve the storage and transmission of critical information. The Vswitch software platform is core to supporting information access for some of the largest States and includes tools to manage, track and log access to these crucial law enforcement databases. Vytek's software offering for local law enforcement focuses on key near-term priorities surrounding traffic stop data collection (ProfilerPD), citations (QuickTicket), wants and warrants look up (HotCheck), and other regionally focused data management and networking requirements. The Vytek Public Safety applications are built upon Microsoft technologies, support short range (WiFi) and wide area wireless technologies, and support most handheld computing platforms and accessories.

Retail and Distribution. Retailers use mobile and wireless technologies to track products, assets and employees. Vytek applications support clients in the retail and distribution segment by reducing the time to implement solutions that result in improved productivity. Vytek inventory management applications operate from the receiving dock to the sales floor on wireless Personal Digital Assistants, or PDAs, that allow the mobile worker to perform tasks at the point of activity. PDAs also utilize a bar code scanner as a means of quick data entry that enhances inventory control procedures. These applications function as either an integrated extension of a customer's existing store systems or standalone customizable applications. Vytek's Mobile Point of Sale (POS) software is a flexible platform that extends the functionality and feature sets of a traditional POS system onto a handheld device. This solution integrates into existing store systems to provide a seamless interface that enables mobile workers to access point of sale information and complete transactions at the point of activity, with modules for suspend and retrieve, training, tender processing, credit card authorizations, and many more.

Transportation and Logistics. Vytek provides integrated solutions allowing transportation and logistics companies to utilize new technologies and raise their standards for customer service, employee productivity, and security measures. Vytek mobile delivery solutions replace the paper and manual processes the driver utilizes today, with an automated inventory tracking and data collection system. The solution provides the ability to track inventory, create and adjust invoices, obtain customer review and capture a signature, and print invoices and receipts to leave with the customer. This offering can streamline business processes and provides an efficient method to manage accounting and inventory data between the corporate office and mobile workforce. The Vytek package management solution is a flexible software package that promotes accurate tracking of inbound packages and deliveries. Vytek's ExtendTime enables IP telephones to be used as business terminals to perform traditional time clocking functions. Vytek has also leveraged IP telephony products to Supply Chain applications that enable associates to use the IP telephones as a terminal to locate information and/or items anywhere in the enterprise. Vytek's applications take maximum advantage of the AVVID architecture and are jointly marketed with the Cisco sales-force.

Vytek's Customers

Vytek's customer, Hewlett Packard, accounted for approximately 19% of Vytek's total revenues for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2003. For the year ended December 31, 2002, Motorola accounted for approximately 14% of Vytek's total revenues and for the year ended December 31, 2001, Toro and Arch Wireless, accounted for approximately 15% and 13%, respectively, of Vytek's total revenues. No other customer accounts for more than 10% of Vytek's revenues for any period.

Sales, Marketing and Business Development

Vytek sells its products and services through its direct sales staff and resellers. Approximately 5% to 7% of Vytek's sales are made through resellers and system integrators, and the remainder comes from Vytek's direct sales staff. As of September 30, 2003, Vytek's sales, marketing and business development staff consisted of 37 employees and Vytek also utilizes the services and expertise of resellers and strategic cooperative marketing partners. Vytek plans to continue to expand its sales and marketing staff and activities and expand its relationships with resellers, system integrators and strategic cooperative marketing partners in an effort to increase leverage surrounding its software applications and technology reference platforms.

Vytek's sales strategy involves deploying focused, direct sales teams, with expertise in Vytek's different solution areas. These sales teams are comprised of a sales executive augmented by a presales consultant/ engineer. Vytek's sales yields are improved by focusing on aligning these teams around specific horizontal solutions (embedded/ wireless platforms) and industry specific (Retail, Public Safety) offerings. The sales cycle typically ranges from 3 to 6 months. Vytek can have much shorter sales cycles when making incremental sales to existing accounts, and when delivering product development initiatives that are on rapid time to market schedules.

Vytek uses a variety of marketing programs to build awareness of Vytek's solutions and brand name, including market research, product and strategy updates with industry analysts, public relations activities, direct mail and relationship marketing programs, seminars, trade shows, speaking engagements and Internet site marketing. Vytek's marketing staff also produces collateral materials to support sales to prospective customers that include brochures, data sheets, white papers, customer success stories, presentations and demonstrations.

Vytek believes strategic cooperative marketing partners who offer synergistic products are important in selling and marketing Vytek's solution. Vytek benefits from a multiplier effect as these partners expose Vytek's solution to more of their customers and prospects. As a result, Vytek has developed arrangements with numerous strategic cooperative marketing partners, including Intel, Microsoft, Arrow Electronics, Monta Vista, Texas Instruments, Silicon Motion, BEA, Motorola and Atheros Communications.

Competition

The engineering solutions market in which Vytek operates includes a large number of companies, is intensely competitive, and faces rapid technological change. Vytek expects the competition to continue and intensify, which could result in price reductions, reduced profitability and loss of current or future customers. Vytek's competitors fall into the following categories: internal information technology or engineering departments of current and potential customers; large information technology consulting services providers such as Accenture, Electronic Data Systems Corporation and International Business Machines Corporation; traditional information technology services providers such as Sapient Corporation; Internet professional services firms; mobile computing consulting and solutions providers such as Wireless Facilities and Aether Systems; and emerging offshore software developers such as Cognizant, Satyam, Infosys, and HCL. In addition, Vytek faces competition in its Embedded Products Division from software and hardware companies such as Wind River Systems, BSQUARE Corporation, Accelel Systems, Inc., Intrinsic Software, Inc., and Venturcom, Inc.

The principal competitive factors in Vytek's business market are leading edge technical knowledge, the reputation and experience of professionals delivering services, customer value and service; the success and reliability of the delivered system; the ability to attract and retain highly skilled, specialized, experienced engineering/consulting professionals; and price. A number of Vytek's competitors and potential competitors have longer operating histories, significantly greater financial, technical, marketing and other resources, greater name recognition and a larger installed base of customers. There can be no assurance that Vytek will be able to continue to compete successfully with existing or future competitors or that competition will not have a material adverse effect on Vytek's results of operations and financial condition.

Intellectual Property

Vytek relies on a combination of trademark, patent, copyright, service mark, trade secret laws and contractual restrictions to establish and protect proprietary rights in Vytek's products and services. Vytek has applied for various trademarks and patents.

Use by customers of Vytek's software is governed by executed license agreements. Vytek also enters into written agreements with each of its resellers for the distribution of its software. In addition, Vytek seeks to avoid disclosure of trade secrets by requiring each of its employees and others with access to proprietary information to execute confidentiality agreements. Vytek protects its software, documentation and other written materials under trade secret and copyright laws, which afford only limited protection.

Despite Vytek's efforts to protect its proprietary rights, Vytek may be unable to prevent others from infringing upon or misappropriating its intellectual property. Any steps Vytek takes to protect its intellectual property may be inadequate, time consuming and expensive. In addition, the laws of some foreign countries do not protect Vytek's proprietary rights to the same extent as the laws of the United States.

Vytek may be subject to legal proceedings and claims from time to time relating to the intellectual property of others, even though Vytek takes steps to assure that neither its employees nor its contractors knowingly incorporates unlicensed copyrights or trade secrets into its products. It is possible that third parties may claim that Vytek's products and services may infringe upon their trademark, patent, copyright, or trade secret rights. Any such claims, regardless of their merit, could be time consuming, expensive, cause delays in introducing new or improved products or services, require Vytek to enter into royalty or licensing agreements or require Vytek to stop using the challenged intellectual property. Successful infringement claims against Vytek may materially disrupt the conduct of its business or affect profitability. There are currently no legal proceedings or claims for infringement of intellectual property rights pending against Vytek.

Employees

As of February 1, 2004, Vytek employed 254 full-time employees. These included 37 in sales, marketing and business development, 185 in professional and technical services, and 32 in corporate, administration and finance. Vytek's future success depends in part on its ability to attract, retain and motivate highly qualified technical and management personnel for whom competition is intense. From time to time Vytek has employed and Vytek will continue to employ independent contractors and consultants to support its professional and technical services and research and development. None of Vytek's employees are represented by a collective bargaining agreement and Vytek has never experienced a strike or similar work stoppage.

Facilities

Vytek's principal offices are located in San Diego, California and consist of approximately 35,580 square feet of office space held under a lease that expires in August 2010. Vytek also leases approximately 2,934 square feet of office space in Latham (Albany), New York under a lease expiring in December 2008; 12,214 square feet of office space in Parsippany, New Jersey under a lease expiring in December 2004; 2,772 square feet of office space in Reston, Virginia under a lease expiring in March 2005 (that may be terminated upon six months notice); 6,494 square feet of office space in Oakland, California under a lease expiring in December 2005; 21,500 square feet of office space in Vista, California under a lease expiring in June 2005; and 11,452 square feet of office space in Irvine, California under a lease expiring in February 2005, all of which is sublet through the term of that lease. Vytek also leases office space for sales, professional and technical employees in Shingle Springs, California, Newport Beach, California and Austin, Texas, and leases storage space in Oakland, California. Vytek believes these offices are adequate to meet its needs for the foreseeable future.

Overview. Vytek is a provider of mobile technology integration solutions and wireless access hardware and software. Vytek was formed in April 2000 for the purpose of acquiring, owning and operating a wireless data solutions business. To date, Vytek has completed seven acquisitions. These acquisitions have given Vytek a broad and deep range of leading-edge products, services, and solutions, with each acquisition bringing extensive technology, management and industry expertise. Vytek operates in three divisions—Messaging, Solutions and Products—from which it provides mobile computing, self-service platforms, embedded computing, and messaging to many markets, including the healthcare, high technology, manufacturing, and public safety industries.

During the nine-month period ending September 30, 2003, Vytek's revenues increased to $29.3 million from $16.3 million in the same period in 2002. This increase was primarily a result of the acquisition of Stellcom, Inc. in April 2003. Vytek's revenue during 2003 is divided between sales of products and services. Vytek's primary source of revenue for services was a result of the provision of professional services in the form of consulting, software development, and systems integration in the following segments: enterprise portals and secure content delivery applications; mobile application development supporting public safety, retail, transportation, and entertainment; and embedded hardware and software development supporting emergent pervasive computing devices. Vytek's primary source of revenue for products was related to sales of wireless base-stations, modems, telemetry devices, and Vytek's associated software environments. Sales of third-party products included mobile handheld computing products and network components bundled with turnkey industry solutions.

Vytek intends to expand its position as a provider of mobile technology and integration solutions and wireless access hardware and software. According to Gartner, Inc. of Stamford, Connecticut, mobile technology services are continuing to grow at a rapid pace. The worldwide market for wireless infrastructure and applications is expected to increase from $31.1 billion in 2002 to $68.4 billion in 2007, representing a compound annual growth rate of 17.1 percent according to IDC of Framingham, Massachusetts. Vytek intends to capitalize on this expanding market opportunity by intensifying its sales, marketing, and channel partnerships in the following areas:

Further pursuit of embedded computing product development in segments such as consumer electronics, home media appliances, medical products, industrial controls, and automotive;

Further leverage through the licensing and resale of Vytek's embedded computing and RF reference platforms based upon technologies such as X-Scale, OMAP, 802.11a/b/g, and other emerging and/or proprietary wireless technologies;

Extending Vytek's offering to device OEMs (in the above referenced segments) by including wireless/mobile device support software which increases manageability and decreases total cost of ownership (TCO) surrounding the deployment of mobile computing devices;

Adding functionality to Vytek's suite of public safety, retail, and supply chain mobile computing applications thus enabling greater market penetration;

Expanding the range of solutions and industry segments it currently supports;

Leveraging Vytek's embedded hardware, software, and RF development engagements to extend the range of hardware/RF products currently provided;

Leveraging Vytek's portfolio of mobile software applications to build subscription-based services over existing, public, wireless networks, thus building a recurring revenue stream; and Further nurturing, building, and extending of relationships with key high-technology clients.

However, Vytek's execution against these strategic objectives could be jeopardized or impaired by one or a combination of certain factors. These factors include the obsolescence of the technologies upon which Vytek's reference platform are based, and the inability to evolve these platforms to accommodate new versions of hardware and software from the associated technology partner; further pressure on rates, margins, and breadth of services from offshore professional services providers in the specialized solution areas and industry segments which Vytek serves; Vytek's inability to continue nurturing and building its vital technology partnering arrangements with firms such as Intel, Microsoft and Motorola; Vytek's inability to continue as a significant service provider (and experience declines in level of effort) to key clients; and Vytek's inability to continue attracting and retaining key engineering talent essential to the development of its products and delivery of professional services.

In order to protect itself from these risks Vytek deploys its resources in a balanced fashion to ensure no single factor can undermine the business. Vytek deploys a very focused sales force of approximately 37 professionals to continually refresh the segments and customers it serves. Vytek's sales and marketing professionals continually nurture key partnering arrangements, and Vytek is establishing relationships with key offshore development partners to gain scale and margin advantages. Vytek also continues to expand the technology platforms it offers and to establish new partnering arrangements when and where the opportunities become apparent. Vytek devotes significant resources to secure relationships with its largest clients. In addition, Vytek continues to put resources into its applications, hardware products, and reference platforms with emphasis on its embedded, RF, public safety, and messaging products.

Critical Accounting Policies

The following discussion should be read in conjunction with the audited financial statements of Vytek included elsewhere in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Vytek's discussion and analysis of its financial condition and results of operations are based upon Vytek's consolidated financial statements, which have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. The preparation of these financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of sales and expenses during the reporting periods. Areas where significant judgments are made include, but are not limited to: revenue recognition on fixed-price contracts, allowance for doubtful accounts, the valuation of inventories, the deferred tax asset valuation allowance, and the valuation of long-lived assets and goodwill. Actual results could differ materially from these estimates.

Revenue Recognition. Revenues consist of the sales of Vytek's hardware products, software and software maintenance, and services. Product revenues are recognized by Vytek upon shipment of goods unless associated services are significant to functionality in which case product revenues are deferred until completion of the associated services. Vytek generally warrants its products for one year after the date of sale. Product returns and warranty costs historically to date have not been material and have been within management's expectations.

Vytek generally licenses its software products pursuant to multiple element arrangements that include maintenance. Where no significant obligations remain, software license revenue is recognized upon delivery of the software provided collection is considered probable, the fee is fixed or determinable, there is evidence of an arrangement and vendor specific objective evidence exists to allocate the total fee to the elements of the arrangement. Revenues from maintenance and software support services, which includes upgrades, are generally collected before the services are performed and are recognized ratably over the period of the services. Vytek's software maintenance arrangements do not contain specific upgrade rights.

Service revenues are recognized as the services are rendered, provided that no significant obligations remain and collection of the receivable is probable. Generally, contracts for services call for billings on a time and material basis; however, in instances when a fixed-fee contract is signed, revenue is recognized on a percentage of completion basis. Provisions for estimated losses on uncompleted contracts are made in the period in which such losses are determined. The accrual for losses on contracts was $41,000 and $0 at September 30, 2003 and 2002 respectively.

Allowance for Doubtful Accounts. Vytek establishes an allowance for estimated bad debts based upon a review and evaluation of specific customer accounts identified as known and expected collection problems, based on historical experience, due to insolvency, disputes or other collection issues. Vytek's customer base is quite concentrated, with two customers accounting for 32 percent of accounts receivable at September 30, 2003 and two customers accounting for 27 percent of Vytek's sales in the nine months then ended. Changes in either a key customer's financial position, or the economy as a whole, could cause actual write-offs to be materially different from the recorded allowance amount.

Inventories. Vytek evaluates the carrying value of inventory on a quarterly basis to determine if the carrying value is recoverable at estimated selling prices. To the extent that estimated selling prices do not exceed the associated carrying values, inventory carrying amounts are written down. In addition, Vytek generally treats inventory on hand or committed with suppliers, which is not expected to be sold within the next 12 months, as excess and thus appropriate write-downs of the inventory carrying amounts are established through a charge to cost of sales. Estimated usage in the next 12 months is based on firm demand represented by orders in backlog at the end of the quarter and management's estimate of sales beyond existing backlog, giving consideration to customers' forecasted demand, ordering patterns and product life cycles. Significant reductions in product pricing, or changes in technology and/or demand may necessitate additional write-downs of inventory carrying value in the future.

Deferred Income Tax Asset Valuation Allowance. Deferred income tax assets reflect the net tax effects of temporary differences between the carrying amount of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and for income tax purposes. A deferred income tax asset is recognized if realization of such asset is more likely than not, based upon the weight of available evidence which includes historical operating performance and Vytek's forecast of future operating performance. Vytek evaluates the realizability of its deferred income tax asset on a quarterly basis, and a valuation allowance is provided, as necessary. During this evaluation, Vytek reviews its forecasts of income in conjunction with the positive and negative evidence surrounding the realizability of its deferred income tax asset to determine if a valuation allowance is needed, and the valuation allowance is adjusted accordingly.

Vytek believes that there is sufficient uncertainty as to the realization of the deferred tax assets such that a full valuation allowance has been recognized. Vytek will continue to assess the realization of the deferred tax assets based on actual and forecasted operating results.

The difference between Vytek's effective income tax rate and multiplying Vytek's loss before income taxes by the federal statutory income tax rate for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 and 2002 is primarily due to changes in the valuation allowance on Vytek's net deferred tax assets.

Valuation of Long-lived Assets and Goodwill. Vytek accounts for long-lived assets, other than goodwill, in accordance with the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 144, Accounting for the Impairment and Disposal of Long Lived Assets, or SFAS 144, which supersedes Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 121 and certain sections of Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 30 specific to discontinued operations. SFAS 144 classifies long-lived assets as either: (i) to be held and used; (ii) to be disposed of by other than sale; or (iii) to be disposed of by sale. This standard introduces a probability-weighted cash flow estimation approach to deal with situations in which alternative courses of action to recover the carrying amount of a long-lived asset are under consideration or a range is estimated for the amount of possible future cash flows. SFAS 144 requires, among other things, that an entity review its long-lived assets and certain related intangibles for impairment whenever changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be fully recoverable.

During 2002, impairment assessments were performed on intangibles as a result of weakening economic conditions and decreased current and expected future demand for products in the markets in which Vytek operates. Fair value of the intangible assets was determined using a discounted cash flow model based on growth rates and margins reflective of lower demand for Vytek's products, as well as anticipated future demand. Discount rates used were based upon Vytek's weighted average cost of capital adjusted for business risks. These amounts are based on management's best estimate of future results. As a result of these assessments, Vytek determined that an impairment of intangible assets existed and accordingly, Vytek recorded a charge to reduce customer lists in the amount of $498,000 in the fourth quarter of 2002.

Vytek also adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets, or SFAS No. 142, in 2002. Intangible assets that do not meet the criteria for recognition apart from goodwill, such as assembled work force, must be reclassified. Upon adoption, assembled workforce in the amount of $583,000 was reclassified to goodwill in accordance with the requirements of SFAS No. 142. Under SFAS No. 142 goodwill is no longer amortized. Instead, goodwill is subject to annual impairment testing, or more frequently as impairment indicators arise. The test for impairment involves the use of estimates related to the fair values of the business operations with which goodwill is associated and is usually based on projected cash flows or a market value approach. Management's judgment regarding the existence of impairment is based on factors such as significant changes in the manner or the use of acquired assets or Vytek's overall business strategy; significant negative industry or economic trends; and significant declines in the estimate of the value of Vytek's common stock.

Vytek was required to complete the initial step of a transitional impairment test within six months of adoption of SFAS No. 142 and to complete the final step of the transitional impairment test by the end of the fiscal year of adoption. The initial step was completed in the first quarter of fiscal 2002 and indicated no impairment. Due to declining market conditions, it was determined that a $16.2 million impairment charge against goodwill was warranted in the fourth quarter of 2002. Vytek used a discounted cash flow analysis for purposes of estimating the fair value of its reporting units.

Product Warranties. Vytek provides for the estimated cost of product warranties at the time revenue is recognized. While it engages in extensive product quality programs and processes, including actively monitoring and evaluating the quality of its component suppliers, Vytek's warranty obligation is affected by product failure rates and material usage and service delivery costs incurred in correcting a product failure. Should actual product failure rates, material usage or service delivery costs differ from management's estimates, revisions to the estimated warranty liability would be required.

Results of Operations

Comparison of the Nine Months Ended September 30, 2003 and September 30, 2002

Total Revenue. Total revenue increased 80% to $29.3 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 from $16.3 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2002. This $13.0 million increase was due primarily to the results of operations from the Stellcom acquisition consummated in April 2003, which contributed revenues of $11.5 million during the 2003 period. Organic growth for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 was $1.5 million, or 8%, which was largely driven by higher products and services revenues attributable to the Solutions division's penetration of the public safety market.

Product Revenues. Product revenues increased 6% to $9.0 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 from $8.5 million in 2002. This increase was due to higher product revenues for the Solutions division from the public safety market.

Services Revenues. Services revenues increased 161% to $20.3 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 from $7.8 million in 2002. This increase was due primarily to the results of operations from the Stellcom acquisition consummated in April 2003, which contributed services revenues of $11.5 million during the 2003 period. The remaining $1.0 million increase resulted from organic revenue growth, which was 13% for the nine months ended September 30, 2003, driven by the public safety market penetration of the Solutions division. Such increases were partially offset by declines of $0.4 million in services revenues from the Products division due to reduced demand for its engineering services during the period.

Cost of Product Revenues. Cost of product revenues increased 13% to $7.2 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 from $6.4 million in 2002. This increase was due to costs associated with higher product revenues from the Solutions division from the public safety market.

Cost of Services Revenues. Cost of services revenues increased 315% to $11.9 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 from $2.9 million in 2002. This increase was due primarily to the results of operations from the Stellcom acquisition consummated in April 2003, which contributed services revenues of $11.5 million and related costs of service revenues of $7.4 million during the 2003 period. The remaining increase resulted from costs associated with higher revenues driven by the public safety market penetration of the Solutions division.

Gross Profit - Products Gross profit from product revenue declined 14% to $1.8 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 from $2.1 million in 2002. Although product revenues increased, the gross profit declined as a result of an increased proportion of sales of lower margin products sold by the Solutions division into the public safety market. Accordingly, gross margin percentage for products revenues declined to 20% during the nine months ended September 30, 2003 as compared with 25% in the 2002 period.

Gross Profit - Services Gross profit from services revenue increased 71% to $8.4 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 from $4.9 million in 2002. This increase was due primarily to the results of operations from the Stellcom acquisition consummated in April 2003, which contributed gross profit from services of $4.1 million during the 2003 period. Gross profit from services included increases associated with the public safety market penetration of the Solutions division. Such increases were more than offset by gross profit declines from other VyteK divisions, in particular the Products division, which experienced lower gross profit from services resulting from fewer client engagements.

Gross margin percentage for services revenues declined to 41% during the nine months ended September 30, 2003 period as compared with 63% in the 2002 period. This decline was the result of the inclusion of Stellcom's services during 2003, which typically carry lower margins than other services offered by VyteK.

Sales and Marketing Expenses. Sales and marketing expenses increased by 26% to $4.6 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 from $3.6 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2002.

This increase was due primarily to the inclusion of $0.9 million of sales and marketing expenses associated with the Stellcom business, which was acquired in April 2003.

Research and Development Expenses. Research and development expenses declined by 19% to $2.4 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 from $2.9 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2002. This decrease was the result of Vyteks reduction of investments in research and development in connection with the development of new wireless devices and software applications in its Products and Solutions divisions, respectively. Research and development expenses as a percentage of total revenues decreased to 8.0% in 2003 from 18.0% in 2002, as a result of the inclusion of the results of operations of Stellcom, which incurs minimal research and development costs associated with its current product and service offerings.

General and Administrative Expenses. General and administrative expenses includes cost of corporate functions including general business, accounting, human resources, facilities and information technologies. General and administrative expenses increased 24% to $6.5 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 from $5.2 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2002. This increase was primarily due to the inclusion of $2.4 million of general and administrative expenses associated with the Stellcom business, which was acquired in April 2003. This increase was partially offset by the effects of Vyteks acquisition integration and overhead reduction efforts undertaken during 2003, in particular the elimination of redundant costs associated with the merger of Vyteks and Stellcom. As a percentage of revenue, general and administrative expenses were 22% and 32% for 2003 and 2002, respectively.

Depreciation Expense. Depreciation expense increased 101% to $1.1 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 from $0.5 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2002. This $0.6 million increase was due primarily to the inclusion of $0.5 million of depreciation expense on property and equipment associated with the Stellcom business, which was acquired in April 2003. Vyteks is not a capital asset intensive business and does not expect significant increases in depreciation expense in the future.

Amortization of Intangibles. Amortization expense increased 11% to $3.0 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 from $2.7 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2002. The increase was due to the amortization expense for intangible assets associated with the Stellcom business, which was acquired in April 2003.

Net Interest Expense. Net interest expense was $52,682 for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 as compared to net interest income of $49,608 for the nine months ended September 30, 2002. The $102,290 decrease was attributable to a lower amount of cash available for investment during 2003 as compared to 2002.

Non-Operating Income. Other income was $0.1 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2003, resulting from the sale of securities of Arch Wireless, Inc., in excess of income previously recorded in connection with the settlement and termination of a contract claim as part of the Arch Wireless bankruptcy proceedings.

Gain on Early Extinguishment of Debt. During the nine months ended September 30, 2003, Vyteks realized a gain of $0.3 million in connection with the early extinguishment of debt associated with Planet Technologies, which was originally due in July 2003.

Comparison of Years Ended December 31, 2002 and December 31, 2001

Total Revenue. For the year ended December 31, 2002, total revenue increased 51% to $22.2 million from $14.8 million for the year ended December 31, 2001. This increase of $7.5 million was primarily due to five acquisitions consummated in 2001. In addition to the acquisitions, the Products division realized revenue growth of $0.7 million resulting from strong demand for certain wireless products, partially offset by a decline in services revenues caused by the completion of a non-recurring engineering services engagement during the 2001 period. As of December 31, 2001, Vyteks shut down the operations of its former Consulting division, which resulted in a decline in services revenue of $0.6 million for the 2002 period.

Edgar Filing: REALTY INCOME CORP - Form 424B5

Product Revenues. Product revenues increased 138% to $12.2 million for the year ended December 31, 2002 from $5.1 million in 2001. The majority of the $7.1 million increase was the result of the acquisitions consummated in 2001. The Products division realized organic growth of $2.1 million, or 58% over the 2001 period as a result of strong demand for certain wireless products.

Services Revenues. Services revenues increased 4% to $10.0 million for the year ended December 31, 2002 from $9.6 million in 2001. This increase was primarily the result of the acquisitions consummated in 2001. Services revenues for the Products division declined 65%, or $1.5 million as a result of the completion of a large, non-recurring engineering services engagement in the 2001 period. As of December 31, 2001, Vytek shut down the operations of its former Consulting division, which resulted in services revenue declines of $0.6 million for the 2002 period.

Cost of Product Revenues. Cost of product revenues increased to $9.1 million for the year ended December 31, 2002 from $3.2 million in 2001. This increase was primarily attributable to the acquisitions consummated in 2001. Cost of product revenues for the Products division increased as a result of the organic revenue growth of $2.1 million.

Cost of Services Revenues. Cost of services revenues increased 9% to $3.4 million for the year ended December 31, 2002 from $3.1 million in 2001. This increase was primarily the result of the acquisitions consummated in 2001. Cost of services revenues for the Products division declined 46%, or $0.4 million as a result of the completion of a large, non-recurring engineering services engagement in the 2001 period.

Gross Profit Products. Gross profit from product revenue increased 64% to $3.2 million for the year ended December 31, 2002 from $1.9 million in 2001. The $1.3 million increase was substantially the result of higher product revenues associated with the acquisitions consummated in 2001. Gross margin for products revenues declined to 26% during the year ended December 31, 2002 period as compared with 38% in the 2001 period. The overall percentage decline was the direct result of the inclusion in 2002 of products sold by the Solutions division, which typically carry lower gross profit margins. In addition, the Messaging division, which carries relatively high margins as compared with other Vytek products, experienced declining demand for certain of its products during 2002.

Gross Profit Services. Gross profit from services revenue increased 2% to $6.6 million for the year ended December 31, 2002 from $6.5 million in 2001. This increase was the result of higher revenues associated with the acquisitions consummated in 2001, offset by a decline in gross margins. Gross margin for services revenues declined to 66% during the year ended December 31, 2002 period as compared with 68% in the 2001 period. This decline was the result of lower utilization of billable engineering resources in 2002 and the completion of a high margin, non-recurring engineering services engagement in the 2001 period.

Sales and Marketing Expenses. Sales and marketing expenses increased by 60% to $4.8 million for the year ended December 31, 2002 from $3.0 million for the year ended December 31, 2001. The $1.8 million increase is primarily attributed to the 5 acquisitions consummated in 2001. During 2002, Vytek reduced its marketing investments relating to the Telalert software application at the Messaging division.

Research and Development Expenses. Research and development expenses increased by 157% to $3.7 million for the year ended December 31, 2002 from $1.4 million for the year ended December 31, 2001. The increase of $2.3 million from 2001 was primarily attributable to the acquisitions consummated in 2001. Research and development expenses as a percentage of total revenues increased to 16.7% in 2002 from 9.8% in 2001. This relative increase was the result of Vytek's investments in connection with new wireless device product development initiatives in its Products division and the inclusion of the Solutions division, Vytek's largest division in terms of revenue, for the entire year in 2002, which incurred $1.2 million of research and development expense, or 12% of the Solutions division revenue.

General and Administrative Expenses. General and administrative expenses include costs of corporate functions including general business, accounting, human resources, facilities and information technology. General and administrative expenses decreased 3% to $7.3 million for the year ended December 31, 2002 from $7.5 million for the year ended December 31, 2001. As a percentage of revenue, general and administrative expenses were 33% and 51% for 2002 and 2001, respectively. The relative decline was the result of Vytek's focus on acquisition integration and overhead reduction activities throughout 2002.

Depreciation Expense. Depreciation expense increased 69% to $0.7 million for the year ended December 31, 2002 from $0.4 million for the year ended December 31, 2001. This $0.3 million increase was due primarily to the 5 acquisitions consummated in 2001. Vytek is not a capital asset intensive business and expects depreciation, with respect to its existing businesses, to decline in the future.

Amortization of Intangibles. Amortization expense declined 42% to $3.7 million for the year ended December 31, 2002 from $6.3 million for the year ended December 31, 2001. The decline was directly attributable to the adoption of SFAS 142 which discontinued the amortization of goodwill. At December 31, 2002, Vytek recognized $16.2 million of impairment charges to goodwill and a $0.5 million impairment charge to the intangible value assigned to acquired customer lists. The net balance of intangible assets as of December 31, 2002 was $3.0 million, of which $2.5 million was assigned to customer lists. Customer lists are being amortized over a period of three years from each respective acquisition date.

Impairment of Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets. Impairment of goodwill and intangible assets was $16.7 million in 2002. In 2002, management assessed the recoverability of goodwill and intangible assets. Due to declining market conditions and a change in business strategy, it was determined that a $16.2 million impairment charge to goodwill and a $0.5 million charge to the customer list of intangible assets was warranted at that time.

Net Interest Income. Net interest income was $29,128 for 2002 as compared to $0.9 million for 2001. The decrease was attributable to a lower amount of cash available for investment during 2002 as compared to 2001.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

As of September 30, 2003, Vytek had approximately $3.2 million in cash and cash equivalents and $0.7 million of restricted cash. As of September 30, 2003, Vytek had working capital of approximately $4.7 million. Cash and cash equivalents decreased from December 31, 2002 by $1.7 million.

As of December 31, 2002, Vytek had approximately $4.9 million in cash and cash equivalents, a decrease of $6.2 million, or 56%, from December 31, 2001.

Vytek had working capital of $3.2 million and $11.9 million as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively. The decrease in working capital of $8.8 million was primarily attributable to the use of cash to fund operating losses of $6.3 million, excluding non-cash items aggregating $21.1 million (non-cash compensation, depreciation and amortization, and impairment of goodwill and other intangible assets).

During the first half of 2003, Vytek received proceeds of approximately $5.0 million from the issuance of Series B convertible preferred stock.

Vytek consummated its Loan and Security Agreement with Comerica Bank, or the Accounts Receivable Facility, in October 2003. Under the terms of the Accounts Receivable Facility, which is secured by all of Vytek's tangible personal property, including inventory and equipment, Vytek may borrow up to $3.0 million, subject to availability based on a percentage of eligible accounts receivable balances outstanding, as defined. The terms of the agreement require Vytek to remain in compliance with certain financial covenants, among others, including: (a) liquidity covenant, whereby the ratio of unrestricted cash held with Comerica (which shall not be less than $1.0 million until two consecutive quarters of net profitability are achieved) plus eligible borrowing capacity on the Accounts Receivable Facility to outstanding borrowings under the Accounts Receivable Facility shall not be less than 2-to-1; and (b) EBITDA covenant, whereby Vytek's Earnings Before Interest, Taxes, Depreciation and Amortization amounts for each fiscal quarter beginning with the quarter ended December 31, 2003 shall be no less than negative $0.5 million. A failure by Vytek to maintain compliance with such covenants (or failure to cure them within specified timeframes), or a failure to pay any of the obligations under the facility when due, would constitute a default, permitting the lender to take such actions including, but not limited to, demanding immediate repayment of all outstanding balances under the Accounts Receivable Facility and ceasing further advancement of funds. In October 2003, Vytek borrowed $1.3 million under the Accounts Receivable Facility to fund a performance bond and related fees associated with securing a customer contract, and in December 2003, Vytek borrowed the remaining $1.7 million available under the Accounts Receivable Facility to fund working capital requirements. Vytek anticipates that it will receive substantially all of the proceeds from the release of the performance bond during the first half of 2004. Vytek has been in compliance with all of the covenants under the terms of the Accounts Receivable Facility and expects to remain in compliance for the foreseeable future.

On December 23, 2003, Vytek entered into a merger agreement with California Amplifier that provides for the merger of Vytek and Acquisition Sub, a wholly-owned subsidiary of California Amplifier. In connection therewith, California Amplifier will issue 8,200,000 shares of its common stock to Vytek's stockholders in exchange for their capital interests in Vytek, subject to stockholder and regulatory approvals. Should Vytek fail to complete the merger with California Amplifier, management plans to seek alternative sources of funding through additional equity capital, new debt financing or another merger or sale of Vytek. Since its inception in 2000, Vytek has obtained private debt and equity capital to fund its operations and acquisition program. Management believes that its existing cash and borrowing capacity under its Accounts Receivable Facility, coupled with the proceeds from the anticipated release of the performance bond as described above, is sufficient to finance its planned operating levels through September 30, 2004. Management further believes that its forecasted operating results and cash flows are achievable. However, if such forecasts are not attained, Vytek would implement additional cost reduction initiatives in order to preserve cash. There can be no assurance, however, that management will be successful in its attempts to obtain new debt financing, raise additional equity capital or complete a merger or sale of Vytek, or be successful in implementing cost reductions, in which case Vytek may be unable to meet its obligations under its existing contractual obligations. Further, there can be no assurances as to the timing or amount of proceeds that Vytek will receive from the release of the outstanding performance bond described above. Failure by Vytek to pay the entire principal amount plus accrued interest as of the maturity date would constitute a default under the Accounts Receivable Facility.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2003, Vytek's operating activities used cash of $4.4 million. Net losses of $7.0 million included non-cash items such as the realization of benefits of $0.3 million resulting from a gain on early extinguishment of debt and charges of $4.1 million for depreciation and amortization expense. Cash uses for working capital increased $1.3 million, stemming primarily from higher inventory balances, and cash payments related to restructuring of $0.5 million. In addition, Vytek used $0.1 million during the first nine months of 2003 for the purchase of computer and telecom equipment, $0.3 million to pay obligations under capital lease agreements and $1.5 million to pay debt obligations associated with an acquisition completed in 2001.

During 2002, Vytek's operating activities used $5.4 million of cash. This included net losses of $27.4 million partially offset by $21.1 million of non-cash charges for depreciation and amortization, impairment of goodwill and other intangible assets, and non-cash compensation and $0.8 million provided by working capital activities. The most significant changes in working capital were cash uses attributed to increases in accounts receivable of $1.0 million and deferred costs of $1.7 million. Such uses of cash were offset by increases in trade accounts payable and accrued expenses of $1.0 million and increases in deferred revenue of $1.8 million. The deferred revenue increase reflects cash payments received in advance from a customer, Arch Wireless, Inc. for certain products manufactured by Vytek (see Note 16 of Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements). Cash used in investing activities amounted to $0.4 million, which primarily represented purchases of computer equipment and software. Cash used in financing activities totaled $0.4 million, representing principal payments on capital lease obligations. As of December 31, 2002, Vytek had deferred tax assets of approximately $9.0 million, related primarily to accumulated federal and state net operating loss carryforwards of $13.9 million, which are fully offset by a valuation allowance. Utilization of net operating loss carryforwards may be subject to substantial limitations due to ownership changes as provided by the Internal Revenue Code and similar state provisions. These limitations may result in the expiration of net operating loss carryforwards before full utilization.

During 2001, Vytex's cash used in operating activities totaled $3.6 million. The net loss of $9.4 million included non-cash charges for depreciation and amortization expenses totaling $6.7 million. In addition, cash used for working capital totaled $0.9 million. The most significant changes in working capital were the $2.0 million decrease in accounts payable and accrued expenses and increases to inventories of $0.4 million and prepaid and other current assets of $0.6 million, offset by an increase of $1.0 million in deferred revenue and $0.3 million decrease in accounts receivable. Included in the decrease of accounts payable and accrued expenses was the payment of $0.5 million to former stockholders of a business acquired in 2001 in connection with the attainment of contingent earnout targets. The increase in deferred revenue primarily related to increased cash received for customer maintenance agreements, which are earned and recognized ratably over contractual periods. Cash used in investing activities amounted to $19.3 million in 2001, consisting of $18.6 million paid for acquisitions of businesses and $0.7 million for purchases of computer equipment and software. In 2001, Vytex repaid $1.0 million of assumed debt associated with the Planet Technologies acquisition, and $0.3 million of principal payments on capital lease obligations. As of December 31, 2001, Vytex had deferred tax assets of approximately $4.6 million, related primarily to accumulated federal and state net operating loss carryforwards of approximately $7.7 million, which are fully offset by a valuation allowance. As noted above, utilization of net operating loss carryforwards may be subject to substantial limitations due to ownership changes as provided by the Internal Revenue Code and similar state provisions. These limitations may result in the expiration of net operating loss carryforwards before utilization.

Factors That May Affect Vytex's Business, Financial Condition and Future Results

This registration statement, including this Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations, contains forward-looking statements and other prospective information. These forward-looking statements and other information involve numerous risks and uncertainties, many of which are beyond Vytex's control and could cause Vytex's actual results to differ materially from its historical results or currently anticipated results. The following discussion highlights some of those risks and uncertainties.

Vytex's operating results may fluctuate from year to year or over shorter periods due to broad economic factors or changes in its customers buying habits, making future results difficult to predict.

Vytex's results depend to a substantial degree on the success of relatively few hardware and software products and services and the introduction of new products and services that are accepted in the marketplace. If Vytex's products and services do not continue to be accepted by its customers or if Vytex is not able to introduce new products and services that are competitive with products offered by other companies, Vytex's future results of operations could be impacted negatively.

The software industry is characterized by rapid technological changes that may adversely affect the demand for Vytex's products. Any decline in demand would affect Vytex's results of operations.

Changes in political, societal and economic conditions and local regulations in various geographic areas where Vytex does business may impact future sales, expenses and results of operations.

Growth rates in the hardware, software and professional services markets in which Vytex participates may decline.

Vytex may not be able to meet its long-term financial obligations, and may not be able to continue as a going concern.

Vytex may not have access in the future to debt or equity capital to finance future growth or ongoing operations.

NOTES TO UNAUDITED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

September 30, 2003

1. Business and Basis of Presentation

The unaudited consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States for interim financial information and reflect all adjustments consisting of normal recurring entries, which, in the opinion of Vytek Corporation (formerly Vytek Wireless, Inc.), are necessary to present fairly the results for the interim periods. The interim financial statements do not include all disclosures provided in fiscal year end financial statements prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, although Vytek believes that the accompanying disclosures are adequate to make the information presented not misleading. Results of operations for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2003 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the year ending December 31, 2003.

The balance sheet at December 31, 2002 has been derived from the audited consolidated financial statements at that date but does not include all of the information and footnotes required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States for complete financial statements.

Vytek has developed a wireless and mobile computing technology business by acquiring, consolidating, integrating and operating wireless and mobile data solutions companies. Vytek's methodology is to acquire the assets or stock of companies providing wireless and mobile consulting and professional services, application software and wirelessware /infrastructure products and value-added services to their customers located primarily in the United States and Europe.

Vytek was organized under the laws of the State of Delaware on April 25, 2000. In April 2003 Vytek amended and restated its Certificate of Incorporation whereby the name of Vytek was changed to Vytek Corporation from Vytek Wireless, Inc.

Since its inception in April 2000, Vytek has incurred operating losses and has used cash in operating activities. Management believes that Vytek has sufficient cash to finance Vytek's planned operating levels in the near term, which extends for a period of twelve months from the balance sheet date. Vytek further believes that its internal forecasts of operating results and cash flows are achievable. However, if such forecasts are not attained, Vytek would implement cost reduction initiatives in order to preserve cash. While there can be no assurances, Vytek also believes that it could finance any cash flow shortfalls through obtaining a financing arrangement (supported by its accounts receivable balances) or by factoring its accounts receivable in order to fund its operations.

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Vytek and its wholly-owned subsidiaries, Vytek Consulting Group, Inc. (VCG), Vytek Products, Inc. (Products), Vytek Messaging Services, Inc. (VMS), Vytek Solutions, Inc. (Solutions East), MicroKnowledge, Inc. (MicroKnowledge), Vytek Public Safety Solutions, Inc. (VPSS), and Stellcom, Inc. (Solutions West). All significant intercompany transactions and balances have been eliminated in consolidation. On December 23, 2003 Vytek entered into a merger agreement with California Amplifier, Inc. (See Note 16).

2. Concentration of Credit Risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject Vytek to concentrations of credit risk are comprised principally of cash and cash equivalents and outstanding accounts receivable. As of September 30, 2003, Vytek's cash and cash equivalents have been deposited with high credit quality financial institutions, which management believes limits Vytek's risk. Vytek performs ongoing credit evaluations of its customers' financial condition and limits the amount of credit extended as deemed appropriate, but generally requires no collateral. Vytek maintains reserves for estimated credit losses and, to date, such losses have been within management's expectations. At September 30, 2003 receivables from two customers individually were 21% and 11% of total gross accounts receivable, respectively. During the nine months ended September 30, 2003, Vytek had sales to two customers which individually represented 19% and 8% of net sales, respectively. At December 31, 2002 receivables from six customers individually exceeded 5% of gross accounts receivable and totaled approximately $3,034,000 or 73% of total gross accounts receivable. During the nine months ended September 30, 2002, Vytek had sales to three customers which individually represented 15%, 11% and 5% of net sales, respectively.

VYTEK CORPORATION

3. Preferred Stock Dividends Accrued

On November 8, 2002, the Board of Directors determined that it would not declare a cash dividend on any class of Vytek's outstanding securities for the next succeeding fifteen months. Pursuant to this determination, Vytek has classified preferred stock dividends accrued at December 31, 2002 as long term. (See Note 11).

4. Stock Based Compensation

Vytek accounts for stock-based compensation under the provisions of Accounting Principles Board (APB) Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees which requires the recognition of compensation expense at the date of grant only if the current market price of the underlying stock exceeds the exercise price.

Vytek has adopted the disclosure only provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation, or SFAS No. 123. Accordingly, no compensation cost has been recognized in connection with the issuance of options under the Plan. Had Vytek determined stock-based compensation relating to granted options based on their fair value on the grant date in accordance with SFAS No. 123, Vytek's net loss would have been increased by $197,000 and $211,000 in the nine months ended September 30, 2003 and 2002, respectively. As additional options may be granted in future years and option grants vest over several years, the above pro forma results are not necessarily indicative of future pro forma results.

There were no options granted during the nine months ended September 30, 2003. The estimated fair value of each option on the date of grant was determined using the minimum value method with the following assumptions used for grants during 2002:

Expected life (in years)	5
Risk free interest rate	4.25%
Dividend yield

On October 3, 2003, Vytek granted 1,200,000 stock options to employees with an exercise price of $.01 per share, vesting twenty-five percent after year one and ratably over the next four years.

Accumulated amortization of office and computer equipment under capital leases was approximately $249,000 and $170,000 at September 30, 2003 and December 31, 2002, respectively. Amortization of assets recorded under capital leases is included within depreciation expense.

7. Acquisitions

In June 2002, Vytek Solutions, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of Vytek, acquired various assets of Extendea, Inc., in a transaction accounted for using the purchase method of accounting. The purchase price consisted of 50,000 shares of Vytek's common stock valued at $300,000. The allocation of the Extendea purchase price was $14,000 to fixed assets and $286,000 to goodwill. The operations of Extendea are included in the accounts of Vytek from the date of acquisition.

In April 2003, Vytek acquired all of the outstanding capital stock of Stellcom, Inc. (Stellcom), a wireless and mobile computing systems integrator, in a transaction accounted for using the purchase method of accounting. The purchase price was comprised of 3,776,000 shares of Vytek's Common Stock valued at approximately $29,000, 7,499,000 shares of Vytek's preferred stock valued at approximately $8,805,000 and 202,000 warrants valued at approximately $186,000. The allocation of the purchase price, which is preliminary pending finalization of valuation of assets acquired, was $2,647,000 to current assets, $1,708,000 to office equipment, $236,000 to other assets, $1,965,000 to current liabilities assumed, $641,000 to other liabilities assumed, $332,000 to debt assumed, $5,910,000 to customer lists, $82,000 to trade names and $2,008,000 to goodwill. In addition to the purchase price consideration above, Vytek incurred external costs associated with this transaction of approximately $633,000. The operations of Stellcom are included in the financial statements of Vytex from the date of acquisition.

The acquisition were undertaken in furtherance of Vytek's strategy to develop a wireless and mobile computing technology business.

Vytek expects that the amortization of identifiable intangibles acquired from its acquisitions will be deductible for tax purposes.

The fair value of the equity issued in each respective acquisition is the estimated fair value at the date of issuance as determined by management.

Pro forma revenue for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 and September 30, 2002 would have been $32,237,000 and $31,416,000, respectively. Pro forma net loss for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 and September 30, 2002 would have been $(3,230,000) and $(12,393,000), respectively. The pro forma adjustments to the historical operations of Stellcom primarily consist of amortization expense of newly established intangibles. The historical operations of Stellcom include a $6,400,000 restructuring benefit.

8. Intangible Assets, Net

The acquisitions have been accounted for under the purchase method of accounting and, accordingly, the assets acquired and liabilities assumed have been recorded at their estimated fair values as of the respective acquisition dates.

Intangible assets were as follows:

	September 30, 2003			December 31, 2002
	Gross Carrying Amount	Accum. Amortiz.	Net	Gross Carrying Amount	Accum. Amortiz.	Net	Amortiz. Period

Amortization expense of intangible assets was $3,045,000 and $2,750,000 for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 and 2002, respectively.

9. Income Taxes

The difference between Vytek's effective income tax rate and multiplying Vytek's loss before income taxes by the federal statutory income tax rate for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 and 2002 is primarily due to changes in the valuation allowance on Vytek's net deferred tax assets.

10. Debt and Capital Lease Obligations

In connection with the acquisition of Stellcom, Vytek restated its Certificate of Incorporation and the liquidation preference on previously outstanding shares of Series A Preferred stock was reduced from $3.70 per share to $1.9483 per share resulting in a $19,906,000 reduction to the associated carrying value and a corresponding increase to additional paid-in capital.

On April 3, 2003, the preferred stock dividends accrued liability amounting to $11,025,081 was satisfied by the issuance of 2,976,772 shares of Series A preferred stock valued at approximately $3,500,000 which resulted in a contribution to capital of approximately $7,500,000.

In April 2003, Vytek issued 7,498,903 shares of redeemable preferred stock valued at approximately $8,805,000 in connection with the acquisition of Stellcom with such issuance triggering the issuance of an additional 1,157,899 shares of Series A Redeemable Convertible Preferred stock in accordance with anti-dilution provisions of the Redeemable Convertible Preferred stock, which was accounted for as a charge to additional paid-in capital in the amount of $1,355,000. All shares of Series A Preferred issued were recorded at the estimated fair value at the date of issuance. As such shares are redeemable at the option of the stockholder and therefore outside of the control of Vytek after the fifth anniversary date of issuance at the higher of the then fair value or $1.9483 per share plus accrued but unpaid dividends, the carrying value of such shares is being accreted to $1.9483 per share plus dividends not currently declared or paid as a charge to additional paid-in capital.

Also in 2003, Vytek issued 4,256,406 shares of Series B Redeemable Convertible Preferred stock for $5,000,000. In connection with this issuance, Vytek loaned two of its officers and stockholders approximately $70,000 in aggregate to purchase Series B Preferred. The amount due from the officers and stockholders is included within other current assets in the accompanying balance sheet.

In April 2003, in connection with the acquisition of Stellcom, Vytek amended and restated its Certificate of Incorporation. The total number of shares of preferred stock which Vytek is now authorized to issue is 67,700,000, par value $.01 per share, 23,200,000 of which are designated Series A Redeemable Convertible Preferred Stock (the Series A Preferred), 12,000,000 of which are designated Series A-DIV Convertible Preferred Stock (the Series A-DIV Preferred), 6,500,000 of which are designated Series B Redeemable Convertible Preferred Stock (the Series B Preferred), 2,800,000 of which are designated Series B-DIV Convertible Preferred Stock (the Series B-DIV Preferred) and 23,200,000 of which are designated Junior Preferred (Junior Preferred). The Series A Preferred and Series A-DIV Preferred are collectively referred to as the A Preferred. The Series B Preferred and Series B-DIV Preferred are collectively referred to as the B Preferred. The A Preferred and the B Preferred are collectively referred to as the Redeemable Convertible Preferred Stock.

Dividends

The holders of the B Preferred are entitled to receive pro rata, out of assets legally available therefor, dividends at the rate of $0.0940 per share per annum, compounded quarterly. Such dividends are payable in shares of Series B-DIV Preferred and each share of Series B-DIV Preferred shall have a value, for such purposes, of $1.1747. Such dividends shall accumulate commencing as of the original issuance date of the B Preferred and be payable only when, as and if declared by the Board of Directors and shall be cumulative.

The holders of the A Preferred are entitled to receive pari passu out of assets legally available therefor, dividends at the rate of $0.19483 per share per annum compounded quarterly. Such dividends shall be payable in shares of Series A-DIV Preferred and each share of Series A-DIV Preferred shall have a value of $1.9483. Such dividends shall accumulate commencing as of the original issuance date of the B Preferred and be payable only when, as and if declared by the Board of Directors and shall be cumulative.

After payment of the dividends to the holders of the B Preferred and the holders of A Preferred, the Series A Preferred and the Series B Preferred shall be entitled to participate pro rata in the dividends paid on the Common Stock (with each share of Series A Preferred and Series B Preferred being deemed, for such purpose, to be equal to the number of shares of Common Stock including fractions of a share) into which such share of Series A Preferred and Series B Preferred is convertible immediately prior to the close of business on the business day fixed for such dividend. Such dividends shall be payable only when, as and if declared by the Board of Directors.

The holders of the Junior Preferred shall not be entitled to receive any dividends.

Conversion

Each share of Redeemable Convertible Preferred Stock may be converted to Common Stock at the option of the Holders at a one-to-one conversion rate. The conversion rate shall be adjusted whenever Vytek shall issue or sell, or is deemed to have issued or sold, any shares of Common Stock for a consideration per share less than the conversion price in effect immediately prior to the time of such issue or sale.

Each share of Redeemable Convertible Preferred Stock is automatically converted into shares of Common Stock, at the defined conversion rate, in a public offering, pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933, resulting in at least $30,000,000 of gross proceeds to Vytek, or upon the affirmative consent or approval of the Holders representing a majority in interest of the shares of Redeemable Convertible Preferred Stock.

Voting rights

Holders of Convertible Preferred Stock have the right to one vote for each common share into which such shares could then be converted, as described above.

Liquidation

In the event of liquidation, dissolution or winding up of Vytek, the holders of the B Preferred shall be entitled to receive for each share of B Preferred, prior and in preference to any distribution of any of the assets or surplus funds of the Corporation to the holders of the A Preferred, the Junior Preferred and the Common Stock at the option of each such holder either (i) the amount of $1.1747 per share for each share of B

Preferred (as adjusted for any stock splits, stock dividends, combinations, recapitalizations, reclassifications or other similar events with respect to the B Preferred) plus any dividends accrued but unpaid on such share (the Participating Series B Liquidation Preference) or (ii) the amount of $2.3494 per share for each share of B Preferred (as adjusted for any stock splits, stock dividends, combinations, recapitalizations, reclassifications or other similar events with respect to the B Preferred) plus any dividends accrued but unpaid on such share (the Non-Participating Series B Liquidation Preference together with the Participating Series B Liquidation Preference, the Series B Liquidation Preference). Any such distributions of dividends shall be paid in shares of Series B-DIV Preferred.

After payment of the Series B Liquidation Preference, the holders of the Series A Preferred and Series A-DIV Preferred shall be entitled to receive for each share of Series A Preferred and Series A-DIV Preferred, prior and in preference to any distribution of any of the assets or surplus funds of the Corporation to the holders of the Junior Preferred and Common Stock the amount of $1.9483 per share for each share of A Preferred (as adjusted for any stock splits, stock dividends, combinations, recapitalizations, reclassifications or other similar events with respect to the A Preferred) plus any dividends accrued but unpaid on such share (the Series A Liquidation Preference). Any such distributions of dividends shall be paid in shares of Series A-DIV Preferred.

After payment of the Series B Liquidation Preference, the Series A Liquidation Preference and the liquidation preference of any other series of preferred stock of Vytek, the holders of Junior Preferred shall be entitled to receive for each share of Junior Preferred, prior and in preference to any distribution of any of the assets or surplus funds of Vytek to the holders of Common Stock, the amount of $1.9483 per share for each share of Junior Preferred (as adjusted for any stock splits, stock dividends, combinations, recapitalizations, reclassifications or other similar events with respect to the Junior Preferred) (the Junior Liquidation Preference).

After payment has been made to the holders of the Redeemable Convertible Preferred Stock and Junior Preferred of the full amounts to which they are entitled then the entire remaining assets and funds of the Corporation legally available for distribution, if any, shall be distributed on a pro rata, as converted, basis to the holders of the Series A Preferred the Series B Preferred that exercised the option to receive the Participating Series B Liquidation Preference and the holders of the outstanding Common Stock.

In the event that the assets of Vytek are insufficient to permit payment of the above mentioned amounts, then the entire assets and funds of Vytek legally available for distribution shall be distributed ratably among the holders of the Redeemable Convertible Preferred Stock in proportion to the preferential amount each such holder is otherwise entitled to receive.

Redemption

At any time on or after the fifth anniversary of the date of initial issuance of Series B Preferred, (the Initial Redemption Date), upon the written request of the holders of shares representing a majority in interest of the shares of Convertible Preferred Stock, Vytek shall redeem the Convertible Preferred Stock as follows: first, the B Preferred and then the A Preferred, in three (3) equal annual installments beginning on the Initial Redemption Date and then on the first and second anniversary of the Initial Redemption Date by paying an aggregate amount in cash therefor for each share of B Preferred the greater of $1.1747 per share and the then current fair market value of each such share and for each share of A Preferred the greater of $1.9483 per share and the then current fair market value of each such share (in each case, as adjusted for any stock splits, stock dividends, combinations, recapitalizations, reclassifications or other similar events with respect to the Redeemable Convertible Preferred Stock), plus, in each case, all accrued but unpaid dividends on such shares (the Redemption Price).

In August 2000, Vytek amended its Certificate of Incorporation increasing its authorized shares of Common Stock to 48,660,000. At that time, Vytek split the original shares 10,000 to 1. All other share amounts have been restated to reflect such split.

In April 2003, Vytek amended and restated its Certificate of Incorporation increasing its authorized shares of Common Stock to 63,000,000 ($.01 par value).

During the nine months ended September 30, 2003 and the year ended December 31, 2002, 3,776,000 and 50,000 shares of Common Stock, respectively, were issued in connection with acquisitions (see Note 7).

In connection with the issuance of any restricted shares to a participant, each such participant shall pay to Vytek the purchase price for such restricted shares specified in the restricted stock award agreement as the cash consideration therefor. The restricted stock to be issued shall vest on terms determined by Vytek, but in no event shall the restricted stock vest (a) more rapidly than sixty percent (60%) vested on the date of issuance and the balance vesting in equal monthly installments over the following 18 months and (b) more slowly than at least twenty percent (20%) vested per year from the date of grant. Any shares of restricted stock which do not vest prior to the termination of employment of a Continuing Employee shall be repurchased by Vytek at the lesser of (i) the purchase price paid for such shares or (ii) the fair market value at the time of repurchase.

In 2003 Vytek issued 2,899,000 shares of common stock to Continuing Employees and 600,000 shares to the Chief Executive Officer at $.01 per share. The shares generally vest forty percent (40%) to sixty percent (60%) upon grant, an additional twenty percent (20%) on March 31, 2004, with the remainder vesting ratably over the period from March 31, 2004 to March 31, 2008.

14. Commitments

Vytek leases its manufacturing and office space under non-cancelable operating leases, which expire at various dates through July 2010. Some of the leases require Vytek to pay maintenance, utilities and insurance costs and contain renewal options (for periods ranging from two to five years) and escalation clauses. Total rent expense for all operating leases was approximately $1,806,000 and $656,000 for the nine months ending September 30, 2003 and 2002, respectively, (of which $123,000 was to the former Products stockholders in each period). At September 30, 2003, Vytek held a certificate of deposit for $700,000, which is reflected as restricted cash. The certificate of deposit serves as collateral for an outstanding standby letter of credit issued in connection with Vytek's headquarters lease.

15. Arch Contract

Between April 2001 and April 2002, Vytek received cash payments of approximately $2,387,000 from Arch Wireless, Inc. (Arch) for certain products manufactured by Vytek. At the request of Arch, Vytek was holding the product in its warehouses at September 30, 2002. As a result, approximately $2,387,000 of revenue, $1,671,000 of costs, and $716,000 of gross profit had been deferred at December 31, 2002. During the nine months ended September 30, 2003, Vytek shipped and recorded the sale on $1,503,000 of such products. Vytek shipped the remainder of the products during the fourth quarter of 2003.

16. Proposed Merger

On December 23, 2003, Vytek entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger with California Amplifier, Inc. (the Merger Agreement). California Amplifier, Inc. (California Amplifier), formed in 1981, designs, manufactures and markets microwave equipment used in the reception of television programming transmitted from satellites and wireless terrestrial transmission sites and two-way transceivers used for wireless high-speed Internet (broadband) Service.

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, California Amplifier will issue up to an aggregate of 8,200,000 of shares of common stock for all Vytek s outstanding preferred and common stock. Vytek s preferred stockholders and holders of the in-the-money warrants to purchase Series A Preferred stock (as defined in the Merger Agreement) will be entitled to receive an aggregate amount of 6,970,000 shares of California Amplifier common stock. Holders of Vytek s common stock and holders of in-the-money stock options and warrants to purchase common stock (as defined in the Merger Agreement) will be entitled to receive an aggregate amount of 1,230,000 shares of California Amplifier common stock. California Amplifier has also agreed to assume all of the stock options outstanding under Vytek s stock option plan. California Amplifier has further agreed to assume outstanding warrants to purchase Vytek s Series A Preferred and common stock.

The merger is contingent on, among other things, the receipt of regulatory approvals and the adoption of the Merger Agreement and the approval of the certificate amendment by the requisite vote of Vytek's stockholders. Adoption of the Merger Agreement requires the affirmative vote of (i) the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Vytek common stock and Vytek preferred stock, voting together as a single class on an as-converted to common stock basis, and (ii) the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Vytek's Series A Preferred Stock and Series B Preferred Stock, voting together as a single class. Approval of the certificate amendment requires the affirmative vote of (i) the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the common stock of Vytek and the preferred stock of Vytek, voting together as a single class, and (ii) the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Series A Preferred Stock, the Series B Preferred Stock, the Series Junior Preferred Stock and the common stock of Vytek, each voting separately as a single class. Officers and directors of Vytek, and certain stockholders affiliated with them, have entered into individual voting agreements with California Amplifier, dated as of December 23, 2003, pursuant to which, among other things, they have agreed to vote a portion of their shares of Vytek capital stock in favor of adoption of the Merger Agreement and approval of the merger, against any proposal adverse to the merger and in favor of the certificate amendment.

The Merger Agreement contains representations and warranties, covenants with respect to how Vytek's business should be operated between the signing of the Merger Agreement and the closing of the merger, and specifies certain closing conditions, including among others, that there be no material adverse change in the condition or operations of Vytek. The Merger Agreement can be terminated under a variety of circumstances, including by mutual written consent of Vytek and California Amplifier and by either party if there is a material breach of a representation or warranty or if the merger is not consummated on or before June 30, 2004.

17. Accounts Receivable Facility

Vytek entered into a Loan and Security Agreement with Comerica Bank (Accounts Receivable Facility) in October 2003. Under the terms of the Accounts Receivable Facility, which is secured by all of Vytek's tangible personal property, including inventory and equipment, Vytek may borrow up to $3.0 million, subject to availability based on a percentage of eligible accounts receivable balances outstanding, as defined. The terms of the agreement require Vytek to remain in compliance with certain financial covenants, including, among others: (a) liquidity covenant, whereby the ratio of unrestricted cash held with Comerica (which shall not be less than $1.0 million until two consecutive quarters of net profitability are achieved) plus eligible borrowing capacity on the Accounts Receivable Facility to outstanding borrowings under the Accounts Receivable Facility shall not be less than 2-to-1; and (b) EBITDA covenant, whereby Vytek's Earnings Before Interest, Taxes, Depreciation and Amortization amount for each fiscal quarter beginning with the quarter ended December 31, 2003 shall be no less than negative $0.5 million.

A failure by Vytek to maintain compliance with such covenants (or failure to cure them within specified timeframes), or a failure to pay any of the obligations under the facility when due, would constitute a default, permitting the lender to take such actions including, but not limited to, demanding immediate repayment of all outstanding balances under the Accounts Receivable Facility and ceasing further advancement of funds. In October 2003, Vytek borrowed $1.3 million under the Accounts Receivable Facility to fund a performance bond and related fees associated with securing a customer contract, and in December 2003, Vytek borrowed the remaining $1.7 million available under the Accounts Receivable Facility to fund working capital requirements. Vytek anticipates that it will receive substantially all of the proceeds from the release of the performance bond during the first half of 2004. Vytek has been in compliance with all of the covenants under the terms of the Accounts Receivable Facility and expects to remain in compliance for the foreseeable future.

Overview

Stellcom, Inc., or Stellcom, was acquired by Vytek Wireless, Inc. on April 3, 2003. The financial statements as of and for the three months and two days ended April 2, 2003 are referred to as March 31 in the discussion below for clarity of presentation.

Stellcom, Inc., or Stellcom, prior to its acquisition by Vytek in April 2003, had its headquarters in San Diego, California, and offices in Irvine, California and Austin, Texas. Stellcom was founded in San Diego in 1984. It was a systems integration firm focused on mobility and pervasive computing. Stellcom provided software engineering, hardware engineering, design, and business consulting services to technology original equipment manufacturers, or OEMs, and enterprise customers. Stellcom's capabilities included embedded hardware and software development, wireless network integration, rich media solutions, self-service mobile portals, and web services. Primary industries served included consumer electronics, OEMs, medical device manufacturers and service providers, aerospace, defense, and high technology. Following its acquisition, Stellcom became a wholly-owned subsidiary of Vytek. It became a part of the Solutions business of Vytek, and its business did not change. Through Stellcom's integration, it contributes to the mobile technology and wireless access hardware and software offerings of Vytek, expanding the breadth and depth of Vytek's expertise in these businesses. Management's concerns about Stellcom, as a division of Vytek, are contained in the discussion and analysis of the Vytek business as a whole.

Critical Accounting Policies

Stellcom's discussion and analysis of its financial condition and results of operations are based upon Stellcom's financial statements, which have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. The preparation of these financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of sales and expenses during the reporting periods. Areas where significant judgments are made include, but are not limited to: revenue recognition on fixed price contracts, allowance for doubtful accounts, the deferred tax asset valuation allowance, and the valuation of long-lived assets and goodwill. Actual results could differ materially from these estimates.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue from services under time and material contracts is recognized when the services are performed. Revenue from fixed-price contracts with deliverables is recognized on the basis of Stellcom's estimates of the percentage of completion of individual contracts. These estimates are subject to change based on the performance of the staff and difficulties encountered during the project. Such estimates are routinely redetermined with losses, if any, recorded in the period during which they become evident. Costs incurred for specific anticipated contracts are deferred until a signed contract is obtained when their recoverability from specific contracts is probable. Approximately $436,000 and $25,000 was deferred under this policy as of March 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002, respectively.

Allowance for Doubtful Accounts

Stellcom establishes an allowance for estimated bad debts based upon a review and evaluation of specific customer accounts identified as known and expected collection problems, based on historical experience, due to insolvency, disputes or other collection issues. As further described in Note 3 to the accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements, Stellcom's customer base is quite concentrated, with four customers accounting for 51% of accounts receivable at March 31, 2003 and three customers accounting for 55% of Stellcom's sales in the three months then ended. Changes in either a key customer's financial position, or the economy as a whole, could cause actual write-offs to be materially different from the recorded allowance amount.

Deferred Income Tax Asset Valuation Allowance

Deferred income tax assets reflect the net tax effects of temporary differences between the carrying amount of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and for income tax purposes. A deferred income tax asset is recognized if realization of such asset is more likely than not, based upon the weight of available evidence which includes historical operating performance and Stellcom's forecast of future operating performance. Stellcom evaluates the realizability of its deferred income tax asset on a quarterly basis, and a valuation allowance is provided, as necessary. During this evaluation, Stellcom reviews its forecasts of income in conjunction with the positive and negative evidence surrounding the realizability of its deferred income tax asset to determine if a valuation allowance is needed, and the valuation allowance is adjusted accordingly. Based upon available evidence, management has recorded a full valuation allowance for deferred tax assets at March 31, 2003 and 2002, as management believes it is more likely than not that these assets will not be realized. The difference between Stellcom's effective income tax rate and multiplying Stellcom's income (loss) before income taxes by the federal statutory income tax rate for the three months ended March 31, 2003 and 2002 is primarily due to changes in the valuation allowance on Stellcom's net deferred tax assets.

Valuation of Long-lived Assets and Goodwill

Stellcom accounts for long-lived assets other than goodwill in accordance with the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 144, "Accounting for the Impairment and Disposal of Long Lived Assets", or SFAS 144, which supersedes Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 121 and certain sections of Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 30 specific to discontinued operations. SFAS 144 classifies long-lived assets as either: (1) to be held and used; (2) to be disposed of by other than sale; or (3) to be disposed of by sale. This standard introduces a probability-weighted cash flow estimation approach to deal with situations in which alternative courses of action to recover the carrying amount of a long-lived asset are under consideration or a range is estimated for the amount of possible future cash flows. SFAS 144 requires, among other things, that an entity review its long-lived assets and certain related intangibles for impairment whenever changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be fully recoverable. This statement, which Stellcom adopted in 2002, did not have a material impact on Stellcom's financial position or results of operations.

Stellcom also adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142, "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets", or SFAS No. 142, in 2002. As a result, goodwill is no longer amortized. Instead, goodwill is subject to annual impairment testing, or more frequently as impairment indicators arise. The test for impairment involves the use of estimates related to the fair values of the business operations with which goodwill is associated and is usually based on projected cash flows or a market value approach. The first annual goodwill impairment test was conducted as of December 31, 2002, which indicated that there was no impairment of goodwill at that date. Stellcom used a discounted cash flow approach to estimate the fair value of its business unit in these impairment tests. This approach incorporates a number of assumptions about future revenues and expenses of Stellcom. Different assumptions reflecting lower revenue growth and higher costs could result in an impairment of the carrying value of goodwill.

Three Months Ended March 31, 2003 and March 31, 2002

Net Sales. Net sales decreased 43% to $2.7 million for the three months ended March 31, 2003 from $4.0 million for the three months ended March 31, 2002. The decrease of sales revenues in 2003 was due to several factors. During the first quarter of 2002, Stellcom recognized $0.6 million of revenue related to a customer engagement that was substantially serviced in 2001. The sales revenue and related costs for that engagement were deferred until 2002, when the customer executed its contract with Stellcom. Excluding this item, net sales decreased 21% during the three months ended March 31, 2003 as compared to the 2002 period. In addition, during the first quarter of 2003, as a result of the poor economic climate, Stellcom's largest client put many of its suppliers and service providers, including Stellcom, on furloughs in order to reduce spending. This action negatively impacted Stellcom's revenues since many of its billable engineers did not generate revenues during this time.

Cost of Sales. Cost of Sales decreased 29% to $2.5 million for the quarter ended March 31, 2003 from $3.5 million for the three months ended March 31, 2002. The decrease was directly attributable to the lower sales volume for the 2003 quarter.

Gross Profit. Gross Profit declined by 80% to $0.2 million for the quarter ended March 31, 2003. Gross margin declined to 9.1% for the three months ended March 31, 2003 as compared to 25.5% in the 2002 period. The negative trend for gross profit and gross margins was due to lower sales volumes in general, and the effects of the furlough actions taken by Stellcom's largest customer during the first quarter of 2003 in particular. Since the furlough program was anticipated to be a short term in duration, Stellcom did not take any actions to reduce its billable engineering headcount. The absorption of the engineering salaries and associated costs, with no corresponding revenues, resulted in a significant negative impact on gross profit and gross margin for the 2003 period.

Sales and Marketing Expenses. Sales and marketing expenses decreased by 37% to $0.4 million for the three months ended March 31, 2003 from $0.7 million for the three months ended March 31, 2002. The majority of the decline was attributed to a 45% decrease in headcount in sales and marketing personnel. The decrease in headcount did not affect Stellcom's ability to generate sales as this decrease was coupled with a change in sales strategy from a more traditional geography based approach to a team based approach focused on service offering and the leveraging of engineering resources.

Product Development Expenses. Product development expenses increased by 281% to $0.1 million for the three months ended March 31, 2003 from $29,520 for the three months ended March 31, 2002. The increase was primarily a result of Stellcom's investment in a series of designs, tools, and methodologies that would improve its competitive position for embedded product development.

General and Administrative Expenses. General and administrative expenses increased by 23% to $2.3 million for the three months ended March 31, 2003 from $1.9 million for the three months ended March 31, 2002. This increase was due primarily to $0.3 million of legal and broker fees incurred in connection with Stellcom's merger with VyteK.

Provision for Doubtful Accounts. The provision for doubtful accounts decreased by $0.5 million to a credit of $0.4 million for the three months ended March 31, 2003. This decrease resulted from the recognition of reductions to Stellcom's allowance for doubtful accounts. In an effort to improve its cash flows from operations during the economic downturn, Stellcom tightened its credit issuance policies, carefully selected new customers and put greater focus on collections of outstanding customer balances. This approach led to significantly improved collection rates and lower write-offs as compared with prior periods. Additionally, Stellcom collected a $0.4 million receivable from a customer which was previously deemed uncollectible. After conducting a detailed review of the its outstanding accounts receivable balances, Stellcom determined the need to reduce the allowance for doubtful accounts balance.

Restructuring Benefit. Restructuring expense decreased by $6.5 million to a benefit of $6.4 million for the three months ended March 31, 2003. This was the direct result of an adjustment to the restructuring reserve to reflect the impact of amendments to Stellcom's existing office leases for its San Diego headquarters facility effective in March 2003, which was a condition precedent to the consummation of the Vytek merger. Stellcom paid $1.4 million during the first quarter of 2003 in connection with the lease amendment. As part of the amendment, unutilized square footage was eliminated from the leased square footage and the per-square foot rate of remaining utilized space was reduced. The reduction in per-square foot rate results in a $10,000 monthly reduction to straight line rent expense going forward. This resulted in an overall reduction of Stellcom's long-term lease liability and the associated portion of the restructuring reserve was adjusted accordingly. (See Notes to Financial Statements)

Interest Income, Net. Net interest income (loss) was ($29,137) for the three months ended March 31, 2003 from $17,049 for the three months ended March 31, 2002. This decrease was mainly due to a $26,000 interest charge from Stellcom's landlord in relation to the deferment of rents of unused building space. In general, lower amounts of funds were invested during 2003 as compared to 2002 as well as continually low average returns on investments due to low interest rates resulted in a decrease in interest income.

Net Sales. Net sales decreased 39% to $20.0 million for the year ended December 31, 2002 from $32.7 million for the year ended December 31, 2001. The decline was attributable to the general market downturn that began in the latter part of 2001 and extended throughout 2002. The impact of this downturn was a severe reduction in new business from Stellcom's customers, namely local start-ups in the high-tech community and the delays in spending or the commencement of planned general mobile and wireless engagements. Stellcom reacted to the economic downturn by altering its sales focus towards more established companies.

Cost of Sales. Cost of sales decreased 40% to $14.1 million for the year ended December 31, 2002 from $23.6 million in 2001. The decrease, which included lower billable engineering salaries and associated costs, was directly attributable to the lower sales volume for 2002.

Gross Profit. Gross profit decreased 34% to $6.0 million. Gross margin increased to 30% for the year ended December 31, 2002 as compared to 28% in the 2001. The positive effect on gross margins was due to increased utilization of Stellcom's engineering staff resulting in lower indirect labor costs.

Sales and Marketing Expenses. Sales and marketing expenses decreased by 59% to $2.1 million for the year ended December 31, 2002 from $5.1 million for the year ended December 31, 2001. The decrease from 2001 was primarily due to a $1.9 million decrease in payroll expenses. This reduction in payroll expenses resulted from the reduction in force implemented by Stellcom over the course of 2001 which decreased by 45% over the prior year. The remaining decrease was mostly a result of reduced marketing efforts, lower trade show attendance, and less sales travel and communications costs resulting from a smaller sales force. The decrease in headcount did not affect Stellcom's ability to generate sales as this decrease was coupled with a change in sales strategy from a more traditional geography based approach to a team based approach focused on service offering and the leveraging of engineering resources.

Product Development Expenses. Product development expenses decreased by 33% to $0.3 million for the year ended December 31, 2002 from $0.4 million for the year ended December 31, 2001. The decrease from 2001 was primarily a result of a decrease in engineering personnel resulting from the reduction in force implemented over the course of 2001 and a reduced emphasis on development efforts.

General and Administrative Expenses. General and administrative expenses decreased by 55% to $7.2 million for the year ended December 31, 2002 from $16.0 million for the year ended December 31, 2001. This decrease from 2001 was primarily attributable to a $4.7 million decrease in payroll expense as a result of reduction in personnel. Restructuring efforts undertaken in 2001 resulted in a $1.5 million decrease in rent expense in 2002. Reduced hiring activities in 2002 led to a $0.5 million decrease in recruiting costs compared to 2001. Restructuring efforts and reduction in force activities caused legal and other professional services to be $0.6 million higher in 2001 compared to 2002. The remaining decrease in general and administrative expenses is attributable to lower expenses associated with renegotiation of the rates and termination of certain long-term communications contracts.

Provision for Doubtful Accounts. Bad debt expense decreased by 79% to $0.2 million for the year ended December 31, 2002 from $1.2 million for the year ended December 31, 2001. This decrease from 2001 was primarily attributable to an increased business focus on established customers within the industry and limited extension of terms to less credit worthy customers. Bad debt expense for 2001 was mainly related to start-up companies.

Restructuring (benefit) expense. Restructuring expense decreased by 108% to a benefit of $0.9 million for the year ended December 31, 2002 from $11.8 million for the year ended December 31, 2001. The majority of restructuring efforts were initiated in 2001 and the reserve was established in March 2001 based upon assumptions and estimates that were appropriate at the time. The restructuring expense in 2001 consisted of $9.8 million for property leases, $1.2 million for severance payments that were to be paid out as part of the reduction in force, and approximately $0.8 million for other long-term contracts. In 2002, subleases were entered into for certain portions of Stellcom's then current leased spaces that were included in the restructuring reserve. The actual terms of the subleases were more favorable than the assumed terms that were used to calculate the reserve. The result was a decrease in restructuring expense related to property leases in the amount of $0.5 million. Furthermore, a renegotiation of Stellcom's long-term communications contracts in 2002 resulted in early termination of such contracts making $0.4 million of the restructuring reserve no longer necessary, resulting in an adjustment of the reserve and a decrease in restructuring expense.

Interest Income, Net. Net interest income was $56,308 for 2002 as compared to $0.5 million for 2001. This reduction was due to a decrease in the amount of funds invested during 2002 as compared to 2001 as well as lower average returns on investments due to a general decrease in interest rates.

Liquidity and Capital Resources.

As of March 31, 2003, Stellcom had no cash and cash equivalents on hand, and $1.0 million in restricted cash. On April 3, 2003, Stellcom consummated its merger with Vytek Wireless, Inc (see Notes 1 and 3 of Notes to Financial Statements). In connection therewith, in March 2003, Stellcom made payments aggregating $1.9 million, of which $1.4 million was for costs associated with the amendment of its headquarters facility lease obligations, which was contingent upon the Vytek merger (see Notes 5 and 8 of Notes to Financial Statements), and $0.5 million was for the Vytek merger-related legal and broker fees. If the merger with Vytek had not been consummated, Stellcom would not have been obligated to make those payments, except for certain fees incurred, and it would have used such available cash to fund its operating needs. Stellcom had $0.3 million of working capital as of March 31, 2003.

As of December 31, 2002, Stellcom had approximately $2.1 million in cash and cash equivalents, and $1.0 million of restricted cash. Cash decreased from December 31, 2001 by $4.2 million, or 67%.

Stellcom had working capital of $1.2 million and $5.1 million as of December 31, 2002 and December 31, 2001, respectively. The decrease in working capital of $3.9 million was primarily attributable to the use of cash to fund operating losses of $2.9 million, excluding non-cash charges for depreciation and amortization. During 2002, Stellcom made cash payments totaling $1.5 million in connection with its business restructuring activities undertaken during 2001 and 2002 (see Note 11 of Notes to Financial Statements).

Stellcom has experienced recurring losses over the past three years, largely related to soft demand in the technology services space and coupled with the economic downturn during 2001 and 2002. It responded by reducing headcount and related facilities necessary for that workforce and implemented other cost reductions. Stellcom also pursued merger transactions to leverage its infrastructure costs across a broader revenue base and in November 2002, it entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger with Vytek Wireless, Inc. The merger was consummated in April 2003. If the merger had not been consummated, Stellcom's plan would have been to fund its operations through existing cash and cash flows from customer contracts, and take the necessary actions to reduce costs and preserve cash to assure it had sufficient cash to support its operations.

For the three months ended March 31, 2003, Stellcom's operating activities used $2.4 million of cash, including the $1.9 million of payments associated with its lease amendment and merger-related fees in connection, as described herein, with the Vytex merger. There were no material investing activities during the first quarter of 2003. Cash provided by financing activities totaled $0.3 million for the three months ended March 31, 2003, including proceeds from the issuance of common and preferred stock of $0.2 million and the effects of a note restructuring of $0.2 million, offset by principal payments on capital lease obligations of $0.1 million.

During 2002, Stellcom's operating activities used $3.8 million of cash. This included net losses of $4.2 million, increased funding requirements for working capital totaling $0.8 million, and the recognition of a restructuring benefit of $1.0 million. Such cash uses were offset by $1.3 million of non-cash charges for depreciation and amortization, $0.2 million non-cash charge to increase the provision for doubtful accounts, and $0.5 million related to the restructuring of a stockholder note receivable. The most significant changes in working capital were cash provided by reductions in accounts receivable of $1.0 million, offset by increases to estimated costs, earnings and billings on contracts by $0.4 million. Cash used in investing activities amounted to $0.2 million, which represented purchases of property and equipment. Cash used in financing activities totaled $0.2 million, primarily representing principal payments on capital lease obligations.

During 2001, Stellcom's cash used in operating activities totaled $12.9 million. The net loss of $30.4 million included non-cash charges for restructuring costs of $11.8 million, depreciation and amortization expenses of $1.4 million, and increases to the provision for doubtful accounts of $1.1 million. In addition, cash provided by changes in working capital totaled $3.2 million. The most significant changes in working capital were deferred taxes of $4.2 million, the $2.3 million decrease in accounts payable and accrued expenses, reductions in accounts receivable of $1.1 million and reductions in estimated costs, earnings and billings on contracts of $1.1 million. In 2001, Stellcom made payments totaling $2.0 million related to its restructuring activities (see Note 11 of Notes to Financial Statements).

Cash used in investing activities amounted to $1.0 million in 2001, consisting of the issuance of a note receivable of $0.3 million and $0.7 million for purchases of property and equipment. Cash used in financing activities totaled $0.4 million, representing principal payments on capital lease obligations of $0.2 million, and principal payments of $0.3 million on notes payable, offset by the issuance of common stock for $0.1 million.

1. Nature of Business

Stellcom, Inc. (the Company), was incorporated in the State of California in August of 1984. Stellcom provides software engineering, hardware engineering, design, and business consulting services to technology original equipment manufacturers (OEM) and enterprise customers. Stellcom's capabilities include embedded hardware and software development, wireless network integration, rich media solutions, self-service mobile portals, and web services. Primary industries served include consumer electronics OEMs, medical device manufacturers and service providers, aerospace, defense, and high technology. Stellcom delivers its services via two operating divisions:

Embedded Products Division Provides OEM customers with turnkey design, implementation, and integration of custom hardware and embedded software for a variety of consumer electronics, medical, technology OEM, and telecommunications devices. Customer engagements are primarily non-recurring engineering services on an hourly or fixed-price basis. Engagements can additionally include revenues associated with licenses and per piece fee arrangements. Engineering capabilities include: electronics design and development, prototype and pre-production assembly, software design and development, device architecture trade studies and analysis, and device validation and regulatory testing.

Technology Consulting Group (TCG) Designs, implements, and deploys large-scale enterprise information systems and customer applications for enterprise clients. Customer engagements are primarily non-recurring engineering services on an hourly or fixed-price basis. Engineering capabilities include: design, development, and implementation of self-service portals; development of mobile solutions for field force automation; infrastructure architecture; application development; network infrastructure; information security; and outsourced product development. TCG also provides consulting services such as mobility assessments, usability studies, product strategy, and architecture development.

Stellcom has had recurring losses and, coupled with the economic downturn, has responded by reducing headcount and the related facilities necessary for that workforce and implementing other cost reductions. Stellcom has also pursued merger transactions to leverage its infrastructure costs across a broader revenue base and has entered into a merger agreement with Vitek Wireless, Inc. (see Note 3). Stellcom believes that after the merger with Vitek Wireless, Inc. there will be sufficient cash to fund operations for the foreseeable future, which extends beyond twelve months. If the merger is not consummated, Stellcom plans to fund operations through existing cash and cash flows from customer contracts. Stellcom believes that it has sufficient cash flow to fund operations for the foreseeable future, which extends beyond twelve months. Should Stellcom's business be adversely affected by declining revenues, management will take the necessary actions to reduce costs and to preserve cash to assure it has sufficient cash flow to fund operations for the foreseeable future, which extends beyond twelve months.

Fiscal Year Stellcom uses a 52-53 week fiscal year, with a period ending on the last Saturday of December, which for fiscal year 2002 fell on December 28, 2002. The actual interim periods ended on April 2, 2003 and March 30, 2002. In the accompanying financial statements and notes thereto the 2002 fiscal year end is shown as December 31 and the 2002 interim period end is shown as March 31 for clarity of presentation.

Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

2. Stock Option Plan

Stock-Based Compensation Stellcom has elected to continue to account for stock-based employee compensation using the intrinsic value method prescribed in Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees, and related interpretations. Accordingly, compensation cost for employee stock options is measured as the excess, if any, of the estimated fair value of Stellcom's stock at the date of grant over the amount an employee must pay to exercise the stock option. Compensation related to non-employee stock-based compensation is measured using fair value methods.

Had compensation cost for Stellcom's stock option plan been determined based on the estimated fair value at the grant date, Stellcom's net loss would have been adjusted to the pro forma amount indicated below:

	January 1, to April 2, 2003	Three Months Ended March 31, 2002
Net income (loss):
As reported	$3,960,000	$(1,554,000)
Pro forma	3,888,000	(1,624,000)

In 2002 and 2001, the fair value of each option grant is estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model, with the following weighted-average assumptions: dividend yield and expected volatility of 0% in 2002 and 2001, risk-free interest rates ranging from 3.20% to 4.40% in 2002 and from 4.58% to 4.91% in 2001 and expected lives of five years in 2002 and 2001. There were no options granted in 2003.

3. Proposed Merger

On November 12, 2002, Stellcom entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger with Vytek Wireless, Inc. (the Merger Agreement). Vytek Wireless, Inc. (Vytek) was formed in April 2000, for the purpose of acquiring, owning and operating a wireless data solutions business. To date, Vytek has completed six principal acquisitions including the acquisition of Sonik Technologies, Inc. (subsequently renamed Vytek Products, Inc.), a provider of wireless communication infrastructure equipment; Telamon, Inc. (subsequently renamed Vytek Messaging Services, Inc.), the developer of TelAlert, a leading urgent messaging solution; Planet Technology Solutions, Inc. (subsequently renamed Vytek Solutions, Inc.), an integrator of wireless solutions; and Rubicon Technologies, Inc. (subsequently renamed Vytek Public Safety Solutions, Inc.), a provider of software solutions for police, fire, emergency medical and other public safety organizations.

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, Vytek will issue 7,370,589 shares of Vytek Series A preferred stock and 1,234,570 shares of Vytek common stock for all of Stellcom's outstanding preferred and common stock. Stellcom's preferred stockholders will be entitled to receive 7,370,589 shares of Vytek Series A preferred stock and 613,160 shares of Vytek common stock. Holders of Stellcom's common stock will be entitled to receive 621,410 shares of Vytek common stock. Vytek will also issue 251,263 shares of Vytek Series A preferred stock and 20,866 shares of Vytek common stock in accordance with the terms of certain Company lease and deferred compensation agreements. Vytek has also agreed to issue up to 3,100,000 shares of its common stock to certain designated Company employees pursuant to restricted stock awards. Vytek has further agreed to assume outstanding warrants to purchase Stellcom's Series A and Series B preferred stock and common stock.

The merger is contingent on, among other things, the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Stellcom's common and preferred stock voting as a single class, and the receipt of all necessary regulatory approvals. In addition, the consent of the holders of at least a majority of the shares of each class of Stellcom's preferred stock, each voting as a separate class, is required. Certain principal stockholders of Stellcom entered into a voting agreement dated as of November 12, 2002 which, among other things, restricts transfer of Stellcom preferred stock and common stock held by such principal stockholders and requires such principal stockholders to vote in favor of the Merger Agreement and the merger. The votes of such principal stockholders are sufficient to adopt the Merger Agreement and approve the merger.

The Merger Agreement contains representations and warranties, covenants with respect to how Stellcom's business should be operated between the signing of the Merger Agreement and the closing of the merger, and specifies certain closing conditions, including amongst others, that there be no material adverse change in the condition or operations of Stellcom, that Stellcom amend its headquarters lease (see Note 5), and that Stellcom have a minimum cash balance at closing. The Merger Agreement can be terminated by mutual written consent by Stellcom and Vytek and by either party if there is a material breach of a representation or warranty or if the merger is not consummated on or before February 15, 2003.

Simultaneously with the consummation of the merger, Vytek intends to issue and sell to certain existing holders of Vytek Series A preferred stock, as well as to certain holders of Stellcom's preferred stock, up to 4,256,407 shares of Vytek Series B preferred stock, in a private placement transaction. The initial purchase price for the Vytek Series B preferred stock will be $1.1747 per share. The shares of the Vytek Series B preferred stock will have the rights, preferences, privileges, and restrictions that are senior to the rights, preferences, privileges and restrictions applicable to the Vytek Series A preferred stock.

The Merger was consummated April 3, 2003.

4. Concentration of Credit Risk

Financial instruments which potentially subject Stellcom to concentrations of credit risk consist principally of cash and accounts receivable. Sales are typically made on credit, with terms that vary depending on the customer. Stellcom evaluates each customer's credit-worthiness on a case-by-case basis. A payment default on a significant sale or customer receivable may materially or adversely affect Stellcom's operating results and financial condition. At April 2, 2003, receivables from four customers individually exceeded 5% of gross accounts receivable and totaled approximately $1,666,000 or 51% of total gross accounts receivable. During the first three months and two days of 2003, Stellcom had sales to three customers which individually exceeded 5% of net sales and represented 33%, 16% and 6% of total net sales, respectively. At December 31, 2002, receivables from five customers individually exceeded 5% of gross accounts receivable and totaled approximately $2,200,000 or 56% of total gross accounts receivable. During the first three months of 2002, Stellcom had sales to three customers which individually exceeded 5% of total net sales and represented 40%, 7%, and 7% of total net sales, respectively.

5. Property and Equipment

Property and equipment at April 2, 2003 and December 31, 2002 is summarized as follows:

	March 31, 2003	December 31, 2002
Computer equipment	$ 5,449,599	$ 5,499,721
Furniture and fixtures	766,914	804,769

Property and equipment, net	$ 1,707,631	$ 2,084,556

Property and equipment under capital leases and related accumulated amortization amounted to approximately $738,000 and $317,000 at April 2, 2003 and $774,000 and $383,000 at December 31, 2002, respectively.

6. Commitments

Stellcom has entered into various operating lease arrangements covering the use of office space and furniture and equipment. Total rent expense under these leases for the three months and two days ended April 2, 2003 and the three months ended March 31, 2002 was $440,000 and $472,000, net of restructuring charges of $209,000 and $357,000, respectively. Minimum future lease payments remaining, including amounts reserved under the restructuring reserve discussed in Note 8, are as follows as of April 2, 2003:

Year Ended December 31	Furniture and Equipment	Real Property	Total Commitments
2003	$ 136,000	$ 988,000	$ 1,124,000
2004	132,000	1,357,000	1,489,000

Thereafter		3,229,000	3,229,000
Total	$ 352,000	$ 8,767,000	$ 9,119,000

Minimum rentals to be received in the future under noncancellable subleases extending through March 2005 are as follows as of April 2, 2003:

Year Ended December 31
2003	$ 174,000
2004	235,000
Total	$ 458,000

In November 2002, Stellcom entered into a lease amendment with its landlord for Stellcom's headquarters office space (the Amendment). The terms of the Amendment, which was contingent on the closing of the merger with Vytex Wireless, Inc. (see Note 3), include a reduction in the monthly lease rate and a reduction in the square footage for which Stellcom is obligated to pay rent from approximately 100,000 square feet to approximately 35,000 square feet. The merger was consummated on April 3, 2003. In connection with the Amendment, Stellcom was required to pay the landlord a lease termination payment of $1,000,000, which was partially funded through a new Series C preferred stock offering. The terms of the Amendment have been reflected in the minimum future lease obligations above and in the restructuring reserve at April 2, 2003.

7. Related Party Transactions

Included in equity at April 2, 2003 and December 31, 2002 is a note receivable of approximately $9,000, due from an officer and stockholder of Stellcom. The note was restructured in 2002 whereby the original principal was reduced to $9,000. The note accrues interest at 10.5% and the interest is payable annually. The note is due on September 5, 2005.

8. Restructuring Reserve

For the three months and two days ended April 2, 2003 and the three months ended March 31, 2002, Stellcom recorded a restructuring benefit of $6,437,000 and $100,000, respectively, as part of Stellcom's cost reduction initiative. The initiative primarily focused on the closure of non-revenue producing offices along with headcount reductions across all departments.

STELLCOM, INC.

A summary of the activity of the restructuring reserve is as follows:

	Employee Severance Benefits	Excess Lease Commitments, Net	Other	Total
December 31, 2001	$ 30,115	$ 8,712,592	$ 741,272	$ 9,483,979

April 2, 2003	$	$ 355,011	$	$ 355,011

The restructuring benefit for the three months and two days ended April 2, 2003 is primarily attributable to the lease amendment discussed in note 6 and the resulting reduction in lease rate and the reduction in square footage.

INFORMATION CONCERNING THE COMBINED COMPANY

Management of the Combined Company after the Merger

The directors and officers of the combined company after the merger will be the same as the current officers and directors of California Amplifier except that Tracy Trent will be an officer of the combined company, and James Ousley will be nominated to the California Amplifier board of directors, subject to California Amplifier's corporate governance board nominating procedures.

James Ousley. President, Chief Executive Officer and Director of Vytek since 2000. Mr. Ousley is the former president and chief executive officer of Syntegra, a global e-Business solutions provider and a division of British Telecommunications. From September 1991 to August 1999, Mr. Ousley served as president and chief executive officer of Control Data Systems (CDS), which was acquired by British Telecommunications in August 1999. From 1968 to 1991, he held various operational and executive management positions for Control Data Corporation (Ceridian) a global computing, software, services and peripherals company. Mr. Ousley serves on the Boards of ActivCard, Inc., Bell Microproducts, Inc., Datalink, Inc., Norstan, Inc. and Savvis Communications, Inc. Mr. Ousley holds a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Nebraska.

Tracy Trent. As Chief Operating Officer, Tracy Trent brought more than 18 years of senior technology experience to Vytek Corporation. Formerly president and chief executive officer of Stellcom, Inc., Mr. Trent joined Stellcom in April 2000, and provided the strategic leadership and vision necessary to establish the company as a leading provider of mobile computing solutions. Before joining Stellcom, he was the senior vice president and group manager of SAIC's e-Business Solutions organization. In this role, Mr. Trent managed a number of SAIC's emerging e-commerce businesses, including the Automotive Network Exchange (ANX). Prior to that, Mr. Trent was the group manager of SAIC's Health Solutions organization, which provided systems integration and consulting services to some of the nation's leading health provider organizations. Mr. Trent initially joined SAIC in 1993, serving as the vice president of marketing for its Systems Integration organization. Prior to SAIC, he held business development roles at Digital Equipment Corporation (1981-1991) and Sun Microsystems (1991-1993). Mr. Trent holds a Master's degree in Management of Technology from MIT's Sloan School of Management.

The merger of California Amplifier and Vytek will be followed by a period of integration and transition. This process may result in the loss of members of the management team of the combined company. Any changes in the management team of the combined company prior to the time when California Amplifier's and Vytek's businesses are fully integrated could make it significantly more difficult to integrate the critical functions of these two businesses as will be needed to create a combined company that can compete effectively.

Additionally, as a result of efficiencies expected to be realized, elimination of redundancies and co-location of functions, some positions will be eliminated or consolidated after the closing of the merger.

UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED COMBINED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The following unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements present the pro forma condensed combined balance sheet of California Amplifier at November 30, 2003, giving effect to the acquisition by California Amplifier of Vyteck as if the transaction were consummated on that date. The pro forma condensed combined balance sheet combines California Amplifier's balance sheet as of November 30, 2003 and Vyteck's balance sheet as of September 30, 2003. Also presented are the pro forma condensed combined statements of operations of California Amplifier for the year ended February 28, 2003 and the nine months ended November 30, 2003, after giving effect to the acquisition of Vyteck as if it had been consummated on March 1, 2002.

Vyteck Corporation acquired Stellcom effective April 3, 2003, and Stellcom's results are included in Vyteck's historical financial statements beginning on that date. Accordingly, the accompanying pro forma statements of operations for the most recently completed fiscal year and subsequent nine month interim period also combine Stellcom's results of operations for periods prior to April 3, 2003.

California Amplifier's fiscal year ends on February 28, Vyteck's fiscal year ends on December 31 and, prior to its acquisition by Vyteck, Stellcom's fiscal year ended on December 31. The pro forma condensed combined statement of operations for the year ended February 28, 2003 combines the results of California Amplifier for the year then ended, Vyteck's results for the 12 months ended December 31, 2002, and Stellcom's results for the 12 months ended December 31, 2002. The pro forma condensed combined statement of operations for the interim period ended November 30, 2003 combines the results of California Amplifier for the nine months then ended, Vyteck's results for the nine months ended September 30, 2003, and Stellcom's results for the three month period from January 1, 2003 to April 2, 2003. As noted above, Stellcom's operating results are included in Vyteck's interim period historical financial statements beginning April 3, 2003.

These pro forma financial statements are based on the combined historical statements of California Amplifier, Vyteck and, in the case of the pro forma condensed combined statement of operations, Stellcom, giving effect to the acquisition by California Amplifier of Vyteck under the purchase method of accounting, and to the assumptions and adjustments described in the accompanying notes to the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements. The pro forma adjustments set forth in the following unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements are estimates and may differ from the actual adjustments when they become known.

Vyteck was formed in April 2000 and grew principally through a roll-up process in which it acquired seven privately held companies from September 2000 through April 2003. Consequently, the historical financial statements of Vyteck for the year ended December 31, 2002 and the nine months ended September 30, 2003 include nonrecurring costs and expenses in connection with acquiring and integrating these companies into Vyteck's business that have not been eliminated in the accompanying pro forma condensed combined statements of operations. For example, Vyteck's statement of operations for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 includes employee severance and lease termination expenses in the aggregate amount of approximately $1.1 million that have not been eliminated in the accompanying pro forma financial statements. Furthermore, the following unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements do not give effect to certain cost and expense savings that management of California Amplifier believes may be realized following the acquisition of Vyteck. These savings, which are currently estimated to be approximately $1.9 million per year, are expected to be realized primarily through integration of Vyteck's operations with California Amplifier's operations, and elimination of redundant corporate functions.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of operations for the nine months ended November 30, 2003 includes a non-recurring credit of $6,437,000 recorded by Stellcom in the three month period from January 1, 2003 to April 2, 2003 which represents the reversal of a restructuring charge recorded in Stellcom's fiscal year ended December 31, 2001 for future lease commitments on office space no longer used in its operations. This $6,437,000 restructuring reserve reversal was recorded by Stellcom effective April 2, 2003 because its office building landlord agreed to modify the lease to reduce both the rental rate and the area covered by the lease in conjunction with the acquisition of Stellcom by Vyteck, which was effective April 3, 2003.

These unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements are based upon the respective historical consolidated financial statements of California Amplifier, Vyteck and Stellcom and should be read in conjunction with the historical consolidated financial statements of California Amplifier, Vyteck and Stellcom and related notes and Vyteck Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Conditions and Results of Operations on page 82 and, for California Amplifier, in the reports and other information California Amplifier has on file with the SEC.

(1) California Amplifier will record an immediate write-off of in-process research and development costs in the amount of $471 at the consummation of merger with VyteK, which will be reflected as a nonrecurring charge in California Amplifier's actual income statement for the period which includes the closing of the merger transaction. In-process research and development consists of a next-generation software version that provides urgent messaging and remote problem resolution for distributed organizations. For purposes of valuing this in-process research and development, it is assumed that: (i) this new software would be introduced in 2004; (ii) that annual revenue would range between $1.6 million and $2.1 million in 2004 through 2008; (iii) annual revenues from this product are allocated 50% to in-process research and development and 50% to core technology; (iv) the gross margin percentage is 80%; and (v) the operating margin is approximately 45% in years 2005 through 2008. The projected after-tax cash flows were then present valued using a discount rate of 23%.

(H)	To accrue VyteK's merger-related non-recurring expenses	$ 2,015
(I)	To accrue estimated merger integration costs	$ 750
(J)	To adjust deferred revenue to fair value	$ (1,044)
(K)	To eliminate historical equity balances of VyteK.

	Issued to Sellers	Deposited to Escrow Account(2)	Total
(L) To reflect California Amplifier common stock issued as consideration for the purchase, as follows:
Number of common stock shares issued (000s)	7,345	855	8,200
Fair market value per share(3)	$ 11.26	$ 11.26
Value of shares issued	$82,705	$ 9,627	$92,332

Recorded value of common stock issued and assumed options and warrants	$83,358	$ 9,597	$92,955

(2) The common stock shares deposited to the escrow account are, for accounting purposes, treated as contingent consideration, and accordingly are excluded from the computation of goodwill until such time as the shares are released from escrow.

(3) The fair market value per share is the average closing price of California Amplifier's common stock on the Nasdaq National Market for the period beginning two trading days before and ending two trading days after December 23, 2003, the day that the merger terms were agreed to and announced.

(4) The fair value of options and warrants assumed was estimated using the Black-Scholes option pricing model with an interest rate of 3.3%, a dividend yield of 0%, a volatility factor of 134.8%, and an expected life of 5 years in the case of stock options and 1.75 years to 2 years in the case of warrants.

(M) Following is a computation of the excess of cost over the value of net assets acquired (i.e., goodwill):

Recorded value of common stock issued to sellers and assumed options and warrants (excluding shares deposited to escrow account)	$83,358
Direct costs of acquisition including legal, accounting and financial advisory fees	2,400

SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL HOLDERS AND MANAGEMENT OF VYTEK PRIOR TO THE MERGER

The following table sets forth certain information concerning the beneficial ownership of Vytek stock as of January 31, 2004 for the following:

each person or entity who is known by us to own beneficially more than 5% of the outstanding shares of any class of Vytek capital stock;

each of our directors;

our chief executive officer and four other of our most highly compensated executive officers and former executive officers whose salary and bonus for the year ended December 31, 2003 exceeded $100,000; and all of our directors and executive officers as a group.

Percentage of beneficial ownership is based on 13,576,150 shares of Vytek common stock and 27,229,980 shares of Vytek preferred stock outstanding as of January 31, 2004, adjusted as required by SEC rules. Beneficial ownership has been determined in accordance with Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act. Under this rule, certain shares may be deemed to be beneficially owned by more than one person (if, for example, persons share the power to vote or the power to dispose of the shares). Shares are deemed to be beneficially owned by a person if the person has the right to acquire shares (for example, upon exercise of an option or warrant) within 60 days of the date of the information provided. In computing the percentage ownership of any person, the number of shares is deemed to include the number of shares beneficially owned by such person (and only such person) by reason of such acquisition rights. As a result, the percentage of outstanding shares of any person as shown in the following table does not necessarily reflect the person's actual voting power at any particular date.

As of February 9, 2004, there were 14,903,012 shares of California Amplifier Common Stock outstanding held by 1,537 stockholders of record and approximately 11,500 beneficial stockholders. Upon issuance of the shares of California Amplifier Common Stock in connection with the merger, there will be 23,103,102 shares of California Common Stock outstanding.

Each holder of Common Stock is entitled to one vote for each share of Common Stock held. Except as may be provided by the Board of Directors in a Preferred Stock Designation or by law, the holders of Common Stock have the exclusive right to vote for the election of directors, as well as for all other purposes. The holders of Common Stock do not have conversion, preemption, liquidation, dividend, or redemption rights, and there are no sinking fund provisions. The outstanding shares of California Amplifier are, and the shares offered by California Amplifier in the offering will be, when issued in consideration for payment, fully paid and nonassessable.

Preferred Stock

The Board of Directors is authorized, without further stockholder approval, to issue up to 3,000,000 shares of Preferred Stock. The Preferred Stock may be issued in one or more series. The Board of Directors is authorized to fix the number of shares to be included in any series and the designation, relative powers, preferences, rights, qualifications, limitations, or restrictions of all shares of such series, including, but not limited to, the dividend rights, dividend rates, voting rights, conversion rights, terms of redemption, including sinking fund provisions and redemption price or prices, and liquidation preferences. California Amplifier does not presently have any plans to issue any shares of Preferred Stock.

Anti-Takeover Effects of Certain Provisions of California Amplifier's Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws

California Amplifier's certificate of incorporation provides that, except to the extent prohibited by DGCL, its directors shall not be personally liable to California Amplifier or its stockholders for monetary damages for any breach of fiduciary duty as directors of California Amplifier. Under the DGCL, the directors have a fiduciary duty to California Amplifier that is not eliminated by this provision of the certificate and, in appropriate circumstances, equitable remedies such as injunctive or other forms of non-monetary relief will remain available. In addition, each director will continue to be subject to liability under the DGCL for breach of the director's duty of loyalty to California Amplifier, for acts or omissions which are found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct, or knowing violations of law, for actions leading to improper personal benefit to the director, and for payment of dividends or stock repurchases or redemptions that are prohibited by the DGCL. This provision also does not affect the directors' responsibilities under any other laws, such as the federal securities laws or state or federal environmental laws.

Certain Indemnification Provisions of California Amplifier's Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws

Section 145 of the DGCL empowers a corporation to indemnify its directors and officers, subject to satisfaction of certain conduct standards, and to purchase insurance with respect to liability arising out of their capacity or status as directors and officers, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify the person against such liability under the DGCL.

The DGCL provides further that the indemnification permitted under the DGCL shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which the directors and officers may be entitled under the corporation's bylaws, any agreement, a vote of stockholders or otherwise. California Amplifier's certificate of incorporation eliminates the personal liability of directors to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL and provides that California Amplifier shall fully indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative) by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director or officer of California Amplifier, or is or was serving at the request of California Amplifier as a director or officer of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding.

California Amplifier's bylaws permit it to secure insurance on behalf of any officer, director, employee or other agent for any liability arising out of his or her actions. California Amplifier currently maintains liability insurance in favor of its officers and directors.

At present, California Amplifier is not the subject of any pending litigation or proceeding involving any director, officer, employee or agent as to which indemnification will be required or permitted under its certificate of incorporation. California Amplifier is not aware of any threatened litigation or proceeding that may result in a claim for such indemnification.

Rights Agreement

On September 5, 1991, the board of directors of California Amplifier authorized and declared a dividend of one preferred share purchase right, each referred to herein as a Right, for each outstanding share of common stock, par value $.01 per share, of California Amplifier payable to stockholders of record on September 16, 1991, and further authorized and directed the issuance of one Right for each common share issued after September 5, 1991. Each Right entitles the registered holder to purchase from California Amplifier one one-hundredth of one share of Series A Junior Participating Cumulative Preferred Stock, or the California Amplifier Preferred Stock, par value $.01 per share, of California Amplifier at a price of $50.00 per one one-hundredth of one share of Preferred Stock, subject to adjustment.

Until the Distribution Date, no Right may be exercised. The Distribution Date will occur the earliest of (i) the tenth Business Day following the date of the commencement of, or the first public announcement of the intent of any person to commence a tender offer or exchange offer which would cause any person to own 20% or more of the voting shares of California Amplifier; (ii) the date when a person acquires 20% or more of the voting shares of California Amplifier and neither the Redemption Date or the Expiration Date shall have occurred prior to the tenth Business Day following such date; or (iii) after a person acquires 20% or more of the voting shares of California Amplifier, the date when California Amplifier becomes party to certain specified business combinations. As soon as practicable after the Distribution Date, the Rights Agent shall send to each record holder of Common Stock a Right Certificate representing one right for each share of Common Stock. At any time after the Distribution Date, the registered holder of any Right Certificate may exercise the Right upon surrender of the Right Certificate and payment of the Exercise Price.

Prior to the Distribution Date, Rights shall be represented by certificates of Common Stock, and not by separate Right Certificates, and the Rights shall be transferable only in connection with the transfer of Common Stock. From and after the Distribution Date, Rights shall be represented solely by the Right Certificates, and may only be transferred by the transfer of the Right Certificates.

Prior to (i) the date when a person acquires 20% or more of the voting shares of California Amplifier; or (ii) after a person acquires 20% or more of the voting shares of California Amplifier, the date when California Amplifier becomes party to certain specified business combinations, the board of directors of California Amplifier may redeem all, but not less than all, of the outstanding Rights at a price of $.01 per Right. Immediately upon redemption of the Rights, the right to exercise the Rights will terminate and the only right of the holders of the Rights will be to receive the redemption price.

At any time prior to the date when a person acquires 20% or more of the outstanding voting shares of California Amplifier, but before any person acquires 50% or more of the outstanding voting shares of California Amplifier, the board of directors may direct California Amplifier to exchange all, but not less than all, of the then outstanding Rights for Common Stock at an exchange ratio of one share of Common Stock per Right. Immediately upon exchange of the Rights, the right to exercise the Rights will terminate and the only right of the holders of the Rights will be to receive Common Stock equal to the exchange ratio.

Until a right is exercised or exchanged, the holder thereof, as such, will have no rights as a stockholder of California Amplifier, including, without limitation, the right to vote or to receive dividends.

The Rights will expire on September 5, 2011, unless the date is advanced or extended or unless the Rights are earlier redeemed or exchanged by California Amplifier.

SELLING STOCKHOLDERS

Shares of California Amplifier common stock issued to some affiliates of Vytek, as that term is defined in Rule 145 under the Securities Act, are being registered by way of the registration statement of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus forms a part. Without this registration statement, these shares could only be resold by the affiliates subject to the restrictions on resale in Rule 145.

The selling stockholders would be entitled to receive an aggregate of 6,644,803 shares of California Amplifier common stock assuming the following exchange ratios:

0.083151 shares of California Amplifier common stock in exchange for each share of Vytek common stock held by such holders immediately prior to the merger;

0.266372 shares of California Amplifier common stock in exchange for each share of Vytek Series B Preferred held by such holders immediately prior to the merger;

0.252732 shares of California Amplifier common stock in exchange for each share of Vytek Series A Preferred held by such holders immediately prior to the merger; and

0.208161 shares of California Amplifier common stock in exchange for each share of Vytek Series Junior Preferred held by such holders immediately prior to the merger.

The exchange ratios listed above are based on the assumption that the number of outstanding shares of each class and series of Vytek capital stock is the same as it was on February 2, 2004. Vytek does not expect that this information should materially change between the aforementioned date and the effective time of the merger.

If these assumptions are not correct, the number of shares of California Amplifier common stock that the selling stockholders may ultimately have a right to receive in exchange for their Vytek common stock and, consequently, the number of shares resold by the selling stockholders under this joint proxy statement/prospectus, may be more or less than 6,644,803 shares. Certain of the selling stockholders are required to enter into lock-up agreements as a condition to the closing of the merger. Assuming that Vytek's capitalization on February 2, 2004 does not change, it is anticipated that approximately 94.5% of the shares that may be offered by the Selling Stockholders will be subject to such lock-up agreements, and therefore, the ability to resell these shares will be restricted during the first 365 days following the merger. See Other Agreements Lock-Up Agreements on page 70.

The following table sets forth the name and address of the selling stockholders, the number of shares and percentage of shares of California Amplifier common stock that the selling stockholders owned prior to the offering for resale of any of the shares of California Amplifier common stock being registered hereby, the maximum number of shares of California Amplifier common stock that may be offered for resale for the account of the selling stockholders pursuant to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and the percentage of shares of California Amplifier common stock to be held by the selling stockholders after the offering of the shares available for resale (assuming all of the shares offered for resale are sold by the selling stockholders).

- (2) Represents shares of California Amplifier common stock issuable to the selling stockholders based on the applicable exchange ratio set forth above.
- (3) The percentage of shares owned is determined based upon the sum of (i) 14,903,012 shares of California Amplifier common stock issued and outstanding as of February 9, 2004, and (ii) the issuance of an aggregate of 8,200,000 shares of California Amplifier common stock at the effective time of the merger.

Relationship of Selling Stockholders to the Combined Company. Tracy Trent, the current Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of Vyteck, has entered into an employment agreement with California Amplifier to become President, Vyteck Solutions Division, of California Amplifier, which is contingent on consummation of the merger. James E. Ousley, the current President and Chief Executive Officer of Vyteck, will be nominated as a director of California Amplifier in connection with the merger, subject to California Amplifier's corporate governance board nominating procedures.

Plan of Distribution. California Amplifier does not know of any plan of distribution for the resale of California Amplifier common stock by the selling stockholders. California Amplifier will not receive any of the proceeds from the sale by the selling stockholders of any of the resale shares.

California Amplifier expects that the selling stockholders or their transferees may sell the resale shares from time to time in transactions on The Nasdaq National Market, in privately negotiated transactions or a combination of such methods of sale, at fixed prices which may be changed, at market prices prevailing at the time of sale, at prices related to such prevailing market prices or at negotiated prices. The selling stockholders may sell the resale shares to or through broker-dealers, and such broker-dealers may receive compensation from the selling stockholders or the purchasers of the resale shares, or both.

At any time a particular offer of resale shares is made, to the extent required, a supplemental prospectus will be distributed which will set forth the number of resale shares offered and the terms of the offering including the name or names of any underwriters, dealers or agents, the purchase price paid by any underwriter for the resale shares purchased from the selling stockholders, any discounts, commission and other items constituting compensation from the selling stockholders and any discounts, concessions or commissions allowed or reallocated or paid to dealers.

The selling stockholders and any broker-dealers who act in connection with the sale of resale shares hereunder may be deemed to be underwriters as that term is defined in the Securities Act and any commissions received by them and profit on any resale of shares might be deemed to be underwriting discounts and commissions under the Securities Act.

Any or all of the sales or other transactions involving the resale shares described above, whether by the selling stockholders, any broker-dealer or others, may be made pursuant to this joint proxy statement/ prospectus. In addition, any resale shares that qualify for sale under Rule 145 of the Securities Act may be sold under Rule 145 rather than under this joint proxy statement/ prospectus.

In order to comply with the securities laws of certain states, if applicable, the resale shares may be sold in such jurisdictions only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers.

The selling stockholders and any other persons participating in the sale or distribution of the resale shares will be subject to liability under the federal securities laws and must comply with the requirements of the Securities Act and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or Exchange Act, including Rule 10b-5 and Regulation M under the Exchange Act. These rules and regulations may limit the timing of purchases and sales of shares of California Amplifier common stock by the selling stockholders or other persons. Under these rules and regulations, the selling stockholders and other persons participating in the sale or distribution:

may not engage in any stabilization activity in connection with California Amplifier common stock; must furnish each broker which offers resale shares covered by this joint proxy statement/ prospectus with the number of copies of this joint proxy statement/ prospectus and any supplement which are required by the broker; and may not bid for or purchase any California Amplifier common stock or attempt to induce any person to purchase any California Amplifier common stock other than as permitted under the Exchange Act.

These restrictions may affect the marketability of any resale shares offered by the selling stockholders.

California Amplifier will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause copies of this joint proxy statement/ prospectus to be available to the selling stockholders. After the effective time of the merger (if required by applicable law, rules or regulations), California Amplifier has agreed with Vytex to file a post-effective amendment on Form S-3 to the registration statement of which this joint proxy statement/ prospectus is a part, which post-effective amendment will include a resale prospectus for the benefit of the selling stockholders of the number of shares of California Amplifier common stock received by the selling stockholders pursuant to the merger, and to keep this amendment effective until the earliest of (i) two years after the effective time of the merger, (ii) the date of final sale by the selling stockholders of all shares of California Amplifier common stock registered on the amendment and (iii) the date all shares of California Amplifier registered on the amendment become saleable pursuant to Rule 144 of the Securities Act without registration under the Securities Act.

California Amplifier may suspend the effectiveness or use of, or trading under, the registration statement if it shall determine, upon recommendation of counsel, that it would be impractical or inadvisable to amend or supplement the registration statement or prospectus due to pending negotiations relating to a transaction or the occurrence of an event:

that would require disclosure of material nonpublic information;

as to which California Amplifier has a bona fide business purpose for preserving confidentiality; or that would render California Amplifier unable to comply with Securities and Exchange requirements.

The selling stockholders have agreed to indemnify California Amplifier in connection with the information supplied by them for inclusion in the registration statement of which this joint proxy/ prospectus is a part and may agree to indemnify certain persons including broker-dealers or others, against certain liabilities in connection with any offering of the resale shares including liabilities under the Securities Act. California Amplifier has not agreed to indemnify any selling stockholders, their broker-dealers or others against any liabilities in connection with any offering of the resale shares including liabilities under the Securities Act. California Amplifier has entered into agreements with the selling stockholders regarding, among other things, the ability of the selling stockholders to sell shares registered for resale under the registration statement and compliance by the selling stockholders with the Securities Act and the Exchange Act.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

Board of Directors

Vytek Corporation

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of Vytek Corporation (formerly Vytek Wireless, Inc., the Company) as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, and the related consolidated statements of operations, changes in stockholders' (deficit) equity, and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of Vytek Corporation (formerly Vytek Wireless, Inc.) at December 31, 2002 and 2001, and the consolidated results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

As discussed in Note 2 to the financial statements, in 2002 the Company changed its method of accounting for goodwill and other intangible assets.

VYTEK CORPORATION

(formerly Vytek Wireless, Inc.)

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

December 31, 2002

1. Business

Vytek Corporation (formerly Vytek Wireless, Inc.) (Vytek) has developed a wireless and mobile computing technology business by acquiring, consolidating, integrating and operating wireless and mobile data solutions companies. Vytek's methodology is to acquire the assets or stock of companies providing wireless and mobile consulting and professional services, application software and wirelessware /infrastructure products and value-added services to their customers located primarily in the United States and Europe.

Vytek was organized under the laws of the State of Delaware on April 25, 2000.

Since its inception in April 2000, Vytek has incurred operating losses and has used cash in operating activities. Management believes that Vytek has sufficient cash to finance Vytek's planned operating levels in the near term, which extends for a period of twelve months from the balance sheet date. Vytek further believes that its forecasted operating results and cash flows are achievable. However, if such forecasts are not attained, Vytek would implement cost reduction initiatives in order to preserve cash. While there can be no assurances, Vytek also believes that it could finance any cash flow shortfalls through obtaining a financing arrangement (supported by its accounts receivable balances) or by factoring its accounts receivable in order to fund its operations.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Vytek and its wholly-owned subsidiaries, Vytek Consulting Group, Inc. (VCG), Vytek Products, Inc. (Products), Vytek Messaging Services, Inc. (VMS), Vytek Solutions, Inc. (Solutions), MicroKnowledge, Inc. (MicroKnowledge), and Vytek Public Safety Solutions, Inc. (VPSS). Significant intercompany transactions and balances have been eliminated.

Reclassifications

Certain reclassifications were made to conform the prior years data to the current presentation.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Vytek considers all highly liquid investments with an original maturity date of three months or less when purchased to be the equivalent of cash for the purpose of balance sheet and statement of cash flows presentation. Cash equivalents, which consist primarily of interest-bearing money market accounts, are carried at cost, which approximates fair value.

Concentration of Credit Risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject Vytek to concentrations of credit risk are comprised principally of cash and cash equivalents and outstanding accounts receivable. As of December 31, 2002, Vytek's cash and cash equivalents have been deposited with high credit quality financial institutions, which management believes limits Vytek's risk. Vytek performs ongoing credit evaluations of its customers' financial condition and limits the amount of credit extended as deemed appropriate, but generally requires no collateral. Vytek maintains reserves for estimated credit losses and, to date, such losses have been within management's expectations. In 2002, one customer accounted for approximately 14% of Vytek's total revenues. In 2001, two customers accounted for approximately 28% of Vytek's total revenues.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or market using the first-in first-out method.

Revenue Recognition

Revenues consist of the sales of Company hardware products, software and software maintenance, and services. Product revenues are recognized by Vytek upon shipment of goods. Vytek generally warrants its products for one year after the date of sale. Product returns and warranty costs are immaterial. Vytek generally licenses its software products pursuant to multiple element arrangements that include maintenance. Where no significant obligations remain, software license revenue is recognized upon delivery of the software provided collection is considered probable, the fee is fixed or determinable, there is evidence of an arrangement and vendor specific objective evidence exists to allocate the total fee to the elements of the arrangement. Revenues from maintenance and software support services, which includes upgrades, are generally collected before the services are performed and are recognized ratably over the period of the services. Vytek's software maintenance arrangements do not contain specific upgrade rights. Service revenues are recognized as the services are rendered, provided that no significant obligations remain and collection of the receivable is probable. Generally, contracts for services call for billings on a time and material basis; however, in instances when a fixed-fee contract is signed, revenue is recognized on a percentage of completion basis. Provisions for estimated losses on uncompleted contracts are made in the period in which such losses are determined.

Furniture, Fixtures and Equipment, Net

Furniture, fixtures and equipment, net are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Major additions and improvements are capitalized, while replacements, maintenance and repairs that do not improve or extend the life of the assets are charged to expense. Depreciation has been provided using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets as follows:

	Years
Computer software and equipment	3
Furniture, fixtures and office equipment	3-7
Machinery and equipment	5
Leasehold improvements	Lesser of remaining lease term or useful life

Goodwill

In July 2001, the FASB issued SFAS No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets (SFAS No. 142) which supercedes APB Opinion No. 17, Intangible Assets. SFAS No. 142 eliminates the current requirement to amortize goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible assets, addresses the amortization of intangible assets with a defined life and future periodic testing of goodwill and indefinite lived intangibles for impairment. Intangible assets that do not meet the criteria for recognition apart from goodwill, such as assembled work force, must be reclassified. SFAS No. 142 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2001. Vytek adopted SFAS No. 142 as of January 1, 2002 and discontinued the amortization of goodwill and assembled workforce (which was re-classified to goodwill upon adoption) in the annual amount of approximately $5,200,000. See Note 7 for further discussions on the impact of SFAS No. 142 on Vytek's 2002 financial position and results of operations.

Intangible Assets, net

Intangible assets, net are stated at cost less accumulated amortization and consist primarily of customer lists, acquired software and covenants not to compete, which arose from acquisitions and are being amortized on a straight-line basis over periods ranging from two to three years. Vytek reviews its intangible and other long-lived assets for impairment in the period in which Vytek becomes aware of events or occurrences that indicate an impairment may exist.

Fair Value

The carrying amounts reported in the balance sheet for current assets and current liabilities approximate their fair value due to their short-term nature.

Preferred Stock Dividends Accrued

On November 8, 2002, the Board of Directors determined that it would not declare a cash dividend on any class of Vytek's outstanding securities for the next succeeding fifteen months. Pursuant to this determination, Vytek has classified preferred stock dividends accrued as long term.

Software Development Costs

Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 86, Accounting for the Costs of Computer Software to be Sold, Leased or Otherwise Marketed, requires the capitalization of certain software development costs subsequent to the establishment of technological feasibility. Based on Vytek's product development process, technological feasibility is established upon the completion of a working model. Substantially all of Vytek's software products were obtained through acquisitions. Costs incurred by Vytek between the completion of the working model and the point at which the product is ready for general release have been insignificant. Accordingly, Vytek has charged all such costs to research and development expense in the period incurred.

Research and Development

Research and development costs are expensed as incurred.

Advertising Expense

All advertising costs, which are included in sales and marketing expense, are expensed as incurred. Advertising expense was $96,668 in 2002 and $92,164 in 2001.

Income Taxes

Vytek accounts for income taxes using the liability method in accordance with the provisions of SFAS No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes. Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are determined based on differences between the financial reporting and tax bases of assets and liabilities.

Stock-based Compensation

Edgar Filing: REALTY INCOME CORP - Form 424B5

Vytek accounts for stock-based compensation under the provisions of Accounting Principles Board (APB) Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees which requires the recognition of compensation expense at the date of grant only if the current market price of the underlying stock exceeds the exercise price.

Vytek has adopted the disclosure only provisions of SFAS No. 123. Accordingly, no compensation cost has been recognized in connection with the issuance of options under the Plan. Had Vytek determined stock-based compensation relating to granted options based on their fair value on the grant date in accordance with SFAS No. 123, Vytek's net loss would have been increased by $435,000 and $224,000 in 2002 and 2001, respectively. As additional options may be granted in future years and option grants vest over several years, the above pro forma results are not necessarily indicative of future pro forma results.

In May 2001, Products acquired various assets of RadioConnect Corporation (RadioConnect), a hardware (wirelessware) developer, in a transaction accounted for using the purchase method of accounting. The purchase price was comprised of $750,000 and 116,667 shares of Vytek s Common Stock valued at approximately $700,000. The allocation of the RadioConnect purchase was $35,000 to furniture, fixtures and equipment, $200,000 to customer lists, $100,000 to covenants not to compete and $1,133,000 to goodwill. In addition, the agreement provides for contingent purchase consideration of up to $2,250,000 if specified gross revenue and other performance targets are achieved. It is unlikely that any additional consideration will be payable. The payment of contingent consideration, if any, will be recorded as additional purchase consideration. The operations of RadioConnect are included in the accounts of Vytek from the date of acquisition.

In July 2001, Vytek acquired all of the outstanding capital stock of Planet Technology Solutions Inc. (Planet), which was subsequently merged into Solutions, a provider of wireless consulting services, in a transaction accounted for using the purchase method of accounting. The purchase price was comprised of 295,024 shares of Vytek s Common Stock valued at approximately $1,770,000, cash in the amount of $7,931,542, and a subordinated note in the amount of $1,792,295 payable on July 31, 2003. The allocation of the Planet purchase price was $1,999,000 to current assets, $259,000 to office equipment, $1,560,000 to current liabilities assumed, $1,368,000 to long-term debt assumed, $2,190,000 to customer lists, $300,000 to covenants not to compete and $10,831,000 to goodwill. The operations of Planet are included in the accounts of Vytek from the date of acquisition.

In October 2001, Vytek acquired all of the outstanding capital stock of MicroKnowledge Inc. (MicroKnowledge), a provider of wireless and computer application training services, an entity partially owned by a co-chairman of Vytek, in a transaction accounted for using the purchase method of accounting. The purchase price was comprised of 16,000 shares of Vytek s Common Stock valued at approximately $96,000 and cash in the amount of $300,000. In addition to the purchase price considerations above, Vytek incurred external costs associated with such acquisitions of approximately $786,000 (Planet, $486,000; VMS, $171,000; and $129,000 for the remaining acquisitions). Options granted in the Planet and Rubicon acquisitions were valued at approximately $667,000 and $33,000, respectively, and included as additional cost of the acquired companies.

The pro forma financial information is not necessarily indicative of the results of operations as they would have been had the transactions been effected on the assumed date.

6. Intangible Assets, Net

The acquisitions have been accounted for under the purchase method of accounting and, accordingly, the assets acquired and liabilities assumed have been recorded at their estimated fair values as of the respective acquisition dates.

Intangible assets were as follows:

	Gross Carrying Amount	Accum. Amortiz.	Net	Gross Carrying Amount	Accum. Amortiz.	Net	Amortiz. Period

Amortization expense of intangible assets was $3,650,069 and $2,834,510 for the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively. The weighted average amortization period of the intangible assets at December 31, 2002 was 1.2 years.

Estimated amortization expense for the fiscal years ending December 31, is as follows:

2004	407,446

Edgar Filing: REALTY INCOME CORP - Form 424B5

During 2002, impairment assessments were performed as a result of weakening economic conditions and decreased current and expected future demand for products in the markets in which Vyteck operates. Fair value of the intangible assets was determined using a discounted cash flow model based on growth rates and margins reflective of lower demand for Vyteck's products, as well as anticipated future demand. Discount rates used were based upon Vyteck's weighted average cost of capital adjusted for business risks. These amounts are based on management's best estimate of future results. As a result of these assessments, Vyteck determined that an impairment of intangible assets existed and accordingly, Vyteck recorded a charge to reduce customer lists in the amount of $498,000.

VYTEK CORPORATION
(formerly Vytek Wireless, Inc.)

7. Goodwill

Vytek adopted SFAS No. 142 effective January 1, 2002. Under SFAS No. 142, goodwill is no longer amortized but reviewed for impairment annually, or more frequently if certain indicators arise. Upon adoption, assembled workforce in the amount of $583,000 was reclassified to goodwill in accordance with the requirements of SFAS No. 142. Vytek was required to complete the initial step of a transitional impairment test within six months of adoption of SFAS No. 142 and to complete the final step of the transitional impairment test by the end of the fiscal year. The initial step was completed in the first quarter of fiscal 2002 and indicated no impairment. In addition, Vytek assesses the impairment of goodwill whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value of goodwill may not be recoverable. Management's judgment regarding the existence of impairment is based on factors such as significant changes in the manner or the use of acquired assets or Vytek's overall business strategy; significant negative industry or economic trends; and significant declines in the estimate of the value of Vytek's common stock. Due to declining market conditions, as well as a change in business strategy, it was determined that a $16.2 million impairment charge was warranted. Vytek used a discounted cash flow analysis for purposes of estimating the fair value of its reporting units. Had Vytek been accounting for its goodwill under SFAS No. 142 for all periods presented, Vytek's net loss would have been as follows:

	December 31,
	2002	2001
Reported net loss	$(27,361,139)	$(9,384,901)
Add back goodwill amortization (including assembled workforce)		3,438,587
Adjusted net loss	$(27,361,139)	$(5,946,314)

8. Income Taxes

The components of the net deferred tax assets (liabilities) at December 31, 2002 and 2001 are as follows:

	2002	2001
Deferred current tax assets:
Deferred revenue	$ 301,088	$
Allowance for doubtful accounts	170,422	21,316
	471,510	21,316
Deferred non-current tax assets (liabilities):
Net operating losses	5,844,608	3,097,476

Edgar Filing: REALTY INCOME CORP - Form 424B5

Net deferred tax asset	$	$

Based upon available evidence, management has recorded a full valuation allowance for deferred tax assets as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, as management believes it is more likely than not that these assets will not be realized.

Holders of Series A Preferred Stock have the right to one vote for each common share into which such shares could then be converted, as described above.

Liquidation

In the event of liquidation, dissolution or winding up of Vytek, Holders of Series A Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive, prior and in preference to any distributions to common stockholders (a) in the event the equity valuation of Vytek for purposes of such liquidity event is greater than $150,000,000, the amount equal to the original purchase price per share (as adjusted for any stock dividends, combinations or splits with respect to such shares) plus any dividends declared, but unpaid, or (b) in the event the equity valuation of Vytek for purposes of such liquidity event is less than or equal to $150,000,000, the amount equal to the sum of the original purchase price per share (as adjusted for any stock dividends, combinations or splits with respect to such shares) plus accrued but unpaid cumulative dividends of ten percent of the original purchase price, as adjusted, per annum, compounded quarterly from the time of issuance.

In the event that the assets of Vytek are insufficient to permit payment of the above mentioned amounts, then the entire assets and funds of Vytek legally available for distribution shall be distributed ratably among the Holders of the Series A Preferred Stock in proportion to the preferential amount each such Holder is otherwise entitled to receive.

Redemption

Preferred Stock, the Corporation shall redeem the Series A Preferred Stock, in three equal annual installments beginning on the Initial Redemption Date and then on the first and second anniversary of the Initial Redemption Date by paying an aggregate in cash, therefore, for each share of Series A Preferred Stock equal to the greater of the Fair Market Value (as defined in Vytek's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation) of all shares of Common Stock into which a single share of Series A Preferred Stock is then convertible or the original purchase price per share of Series A Preferred (as adjusted for any stock splits, stock dividends, combinations, recapitalizations, reclassifications or other similar events with respect to such shares) plus all declared, but unpaid dividends.

11. Common Stock

Between inception and July 31, 2000, Vytek sold 600 shares of Common Stock ($.01 par value) to its founders at $100.00 per share. In August 2000, Vytek amended its Certificate of Incorporation increasing its authorized shares to 48,660,000 shares of $.01 par value Common Stock. At that time, Vytek split the original shares 10,000 to 1. All other share amounts have been restated to reflect such split.

Six million shares of Vytek's $.01 par value Common Stock were issued subject to repurchase by Vytek pursuant to the terms of a restricted stock plan and restricted stock award agreement. Vytek's repurchase right lapses as to 25% of each restricted stock purchase grant on the first anniversary of employment and ratably over the following 36 months provided the grantees are employed and/or providing services to Vytek on the applicable date. During 2002 and 2001, Vytek repurchased 324,960 and 206,244 shares, respectively, from former employees pursuant to this provision.

During 2002 and 2001, 50,000 and 2,039,182 shares of Common Stock, respectively, were issued in connection with acquisitions (see Note 5).

12. Stock Options

In July 2000, Vytek's Board of Directors approved the Vytek Wireless, Inc. 2000 Stock Option Plan (the Plan) pursuant to which 2,660,000 shares of Common Stock have been reserved for the grant of options to employees and consultants at terms and prices to be determined by the committee designated by the Board of Directors to administer the plan. The plan specifies that the exercise price of incentive stock options cannot be less than 100% of the fair market value of the stock on the date of grant. The maximum term for options granted is 10 years. Options granted under the plan generally vest over a four-year period.

The estimated fair value of each option on the date of grant was determined using the minimum value method with the following assumptions used for grants during 2002 and 2001:

	2002	2001
Expected life (in years)	5	5
Risk free interest rate	4.25%	4.75%
Dividend yield

It has been assumed that the estimated weighted average fair value of the options granted ($1.36 per share, 2002; $1.52 per share, 2001) is amortized on a straight-line basis to compensation expense over the vesting period of the grant.

Future minimum lease commitments for non-cancelable operating leases are as follows at December 31, 2002 (of which approximately $236,000 in 2003, increasing by approximately 3% each year thereafter through July 2005, is to the former Sonik shareholders):

14. Benefit Plan

Vytek sponsors a defined contribution 401(k) savings plan. Employees are eligible to participate beginning on quarterly specified entry dates following the attainment of age 18. The 401(k) Plan allows employees to contribute up to 25% of earnings and permits Vytek to make discretionary matching contributions. Participants are immediately vested in their contributions and generally become vested in matching contributions ratably over a five-year period. Vytek's matching contributions were $135,776 for 2002 and $77,684 for 2001.

15. Related Party Transactions

A director of Vytek provided consulting services to Vytek in 2001 for fees of $37,500. One of Vytek's co-chairmen provided consulting services to Vytek (in lieu of salary) for fees of $60,000 in 2001. Vytek's other co-chairman provided consulting services to Vytek (in lieu of salary) for fees of $80,000 and $56,667 in 2002 and 2001, respectively. On October 1, 2001, Vytek acquired all of the outstanding capital stock of MicroKnowledge Inc. One of Vytek's co-chairmen was an investor in MicroKnowledge at the date of purchase. During 2001 Vytek purchased $37,000 of co-location services from a company whose chairman is a co-chairman of Vytek.

16. Arch Contract

Between April 2001 and April 2002, Vytek received cash payments of approximately $2.4 million from Arch Wireless, Inc. (Arch) for certain products manufactured by Vytek. At the request of Arch, Vytek was holding the product in its warehouses at December 31, 2002. As a result, approximately $2.4 million of revenue, $1.7 million in costs, and $.7 million of gross profit have been deferred. Vytek expects that all products will be shipped during the first and second quarters of 2003 at which time Vytek will record the sale.

17. Stellcom Acquisition

On November 12, 2002, Vytek entered into an agreement to acquire through merger (the Merger) Stellcom, Inc. (Stellcom), a San Diego, California-based wireless and mobile computing systems integrator. In connection with the transaction, Vytek will issue 7,370,589 shares of its Series A Preferred Stock and 1,234,570 shares of its Common Stock to holders of Stellcom's preferred and common stock. As additional consideration for the Merger, Vytek will issue warrants to acquire 122,949 shares of its Series A Preferred Stock and 10,210 shares of its Common Stock to Stellcom's San Diego landlord and will issue 128,314 shares of its Series A Preferred Stock and 10,656 shares of its Common Stock to the chief executive officer of Stellcom in accordance with a deferred compensation agreement, and will allocate 3,700,000 shares of its Common Stock to continuing employees in accordance with the merger agreement. Vytek will also assume warrants to acquire 37,000 shares of Stellcom common stock and 218,594 shares of Stellcom preferred stock.

Contemporaneously with the Merger, Vytek will issue up to 4,256,407 shares of a new series of redeemable Preferred Stock, Series B Convertible Preferred shares, for an aggregate consideration of $5,000,000 (or $1.1747 per share) (the Financing). The completion of the Financing is a condition to the completion of the Merger. The shares issued in the Financing will have rights, preferences, privileges and restrictions that are senior to the rights, preferences, privileges and restrictions applicable to the existing Series A Preferred Stock.

In addition, the Series A Preferred Stock will be restructured such that the existing liquidation preference (approximately $52 million at December 31, 2002 which is inclusive of accrued dividends), will be reduced to $45 million and the number of shares of common stock into which the Series A Preferred Stock is convertible will be increased to 21,368,316 shares.

Completion of the Merger is subject to numerous conditions set forth in the merger agreement, the issuance of a permit by the California Department of Corporations to issue the securities described above to the Stellcom stockholders, approval of the Merger by the stockholders of Stellcom and approval by the stockholders of Vytek of amendments to its Certificate of Incorporation. The Merger and the Financing are expected to be completed in the first quarter of 2003.

TCG also provides consulting services such as mobility assessments, usability studies, product strategy, and architecture development.

Stellcom has had recurring losses and, coupled with the economic downturn, has responded by reducing headcount and the related facilities necessary for that workforce and implementing other cost reductions in 2001. Stellcom has also pursued merger transactions to leverage its infrastructure costs across a broader revenue base and has entered into a merger agreement with Vyteck Wireless, Inc. (see Note 3). Stellcom believes that after the merger with Vyteck Wireless, Inc. there will be sufficient cash to fund operations for the foreseeable future, which extends beyond twelve months. If the merger is not consummated, Stellcom plans to fund operations through existing cash and cash flows from customer contracts. Stellcom believes that it has sufficient cash flow to fund operations for the foreseeable future, which extends beyond twelve months. Should Stellcom's business be adversely affected by declining revenues, management will take the necessary actions to reduce costs and to preserve cash to assure it has sufficient cash flow to fund operations for the foreseeable future, which extends beyond twelve months.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Cash and Cash Equivalents Stellcom considers all highly liquid investments purchased with maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Restricted Cash and Short-Term Investments At December 31, 2002 and 2001, Stellcom held a certificate of deposit for $1,010,025. This certificate of deposit serves as collateral for an outstanding standby letter of credit.

Property and Equipment Property and equipment is stated at cost, less accumulated depreciation and amortization. Depreciation expense, which includes the amortization of assets recorded under capital leases, is charged on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of the assets, which range from 3 to 7 years. Leasehold improvements are amortized on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the useful life of the improvement or the term of the lease. Maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred.

Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets Stellcom adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets, as of January 1, 2002 and discontinued amortization of goodwill. Prior to adoption, goodwill was amortized on a straight-line basis over ten years. Stellcom recognized amortization expense of $44,000 for the year ended December 31, 2001. Stellcom evaluates goodwill impairment annually by comparing the fair value of the reporting unit with its carrying amount, including goodwill, and recognizes an impairment loss to the extent the carrying value exceeds the implied fair value. Stellcom completed the required impairment tests during 2002 and determined that no impairment existed.

Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets Stellcom evaluates its long-lived assets for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value of such assets or intangibles may not be recoverable. Recoverability of assets is measured by a comparison of the carrying amount of an asset to future undiscounted net cash flows expected to be generated by the asset. If such assets are considered to be impaired, the impairment to be recognized is measured by the amount by which the carrying amount of the assets exceeds the fair value of the assets.

Income Taxes Deferred income taxes are recognized for the expected tax consequences in future years of differences between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their financial reporting amounts at each year end as well as the expected future tax benefit from tax loss and tax credit carryforwards, based on enacted tax laws and statutory tax rates applicable to the periods in which the differences are expected to affect taxable income. Valuation allowances are established when necessary to reduce deferred tax assets to the amount expected to be realized. Income tax expense is the tax payable for the period and the change during the period in deferred tax assets and liabilities.

Revenue Recognition Revenue from services under time and material contracts is recognized when the services are performed. Revenue from fixed-price contracts with deliverables is recognized on the basis of Stellcom's estimates of the percentage of completion of individual contracts. Losses, if any, are recorded in the period during which they become evident. Costs incurred for specific anticipated contracts are deferred until a signed contract is obtained when their recoverability from specific contracts is probable. Approximately $25,000 and $244,000 was deferred under this policy as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively.

Research and Development Costs incurred in the creation of new products or in changing existing products are charged to expense as incurred.

Advertising Advertising costs are expensed as incurred. Stellcom had advertising costs of approximately $0 and $427,000 in 2002 and 2001, respectively.

Stock-Based Compensation Stellcom has elected to continue to account for stock-based employee compensation using the intrinsic value method prescribed in Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees, and related interpretations. Accordingly, compensation cost for employee stock options is measured as the excess, if any, of the estimated fair value of Stellcom's stock at the date of grant over the amount an employee must pay to exercise the stock option. Compensation related to non-employee stock-based compensation is measured using fair value methods.

Had compensation cost for Stellcom's stock option plan been determined based on the estimated fair value at the grant date for awards in 2002 and 2001, Stellcom's net loss would have been adjusted to the pro forma amount indicated below:

Net Loss:

Fiscal Year Stellcom uses a 52-53 week fiscal year, with a period ending on the last Saturday of December. The fiscal year end dates for the years being reported herein are December 28, 2002 and December 29, 2001, both 52-week fiscal years. For clarity of presentation, fiscal year end dates in the accompanying financial statements and notes thereto are referred to as December 31.

Use of Estimates The preparation of financial statements, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments Estimates of fair values are subjective in nature and involve uncertainties and matters of significant judgment and therefore cannot be determined with precision. Changes in assumptions could affect the estimates. The fair market value of Stellcom's short-term and long-term financial instruments approximates the carrying value.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements In June 2002, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 146, Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities. This statement addresses financial accounting and reporting for costs associated with exit or disposal activities and nullifies Emerging Issues Task Force (EITF) Issue No. 94-3, Liability Recognition for Certain Employee Termination Benefits and Other Costs to Exit an Activity (including Certain Costs Incurred in a Restructuring). The provisions of this Statement are effective for exit or disposal activities entered into by Stellcom, if any, after December 31, 2002.

Reclassifications Certain prior year amounts have been reclassified to conform with the current year presentation.

3. Proposed Merger

On November 12, 2002, Stellcom entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger with Vytek Wireless, Inc. (the Merger Agreement). Vytek Wireless, Inc. (Vytek) was formed in April 2000, for the purpose of acquiring, owning and operating a wireless data solutions business. To date, Vytek has completed six principal acquisitions including the acquisition of Sonik Technologies, Inc. (subsequently renamed Vytek Products, Inc.), a provider of wireless communication infrastructure equipment; Telamon, Inc. (subsequently renamed Vytek Messaging Services, Inc.), the developer of TelAlert, a leading urgent messaging solution; Planet Technology Solutions, Inc. (subsequently renamed Vytek Solutions, Inc.), an integrator of wireless solutions; and Rubicon Technologies, Inc. (subsequently renamed Vytek Public Safety Solutions, Inc.), a provider of software solutions for police, fire, emergency medical and other public safety organizations.

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, Vytek will issue 7,370,589 shares of Vytek Series A preferred stock and 1,234,570 shares of Vytek common stock for all of Stellcom's outstanding preferred and common stock. Stellcom's preferred stockholders will be entitled to receive 7,370,589 shares of Vytek Series A preferred stock and 613,160 shares of Vytek common stock. Holders of Stellcom's common stock will be entitled to receive 621,410 shares of Vytek common stock. Vytek will also issue 251,263 shares of Vytek Series A preferred stock and 20,866 shares of Vytek common stock in accordance with the terms of certain Company lease and deferred compensation agreements. Vytek has also agreed to issue up to 3,100,000 shares of its common stock to certain designated Company employees pursuant to restricted stock awards. Vytek has further agreed to assume outstanding warrants to purchase Stellcom's Series A and Series B preferred stock and common stock.

The merger is contingent on, among other things, the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Stellcom's common and preferred stock voting as a single class, and the receipt of all necessary regulatory approvals. In addition, the consent of the holders of at least a majority of the shares of each class of Stellcom's preferred stock, each voting as a separate class, is required. Certain principal stockholders of Stellcom entered into a voting agreement dated as of November 12, 2002 which, among other things, restricts transfer of Stellcom preferred stock and common stock held by such principal stockholders and requires such principal stockholders to vote in favor of the Merger Agreement and the merger. The votes of such principal stockholders are sufficient to approve the Merger Agreement and the merger.

The Merger Agreement contains standard representations and warranties, covenants with respect to how Stellcom's business should be operated between the signing of the Merger Agreement and the closing of the merger, and specifies certain closing conditions, including amongst others, that there be no material adverse change in the condition or operations of Stellcom, that Stellcom amend its headquarters lease (see Note 6), and that Stellcom have a minimum cash balance at closing. The Merger Agreement can be terminated by mutual written consent by Stellcom and Vytek and by either party if there is a material breach of a representation or warranty or if the merger is not consummated on or before February 15, 2003.

Simultaneously with the consummation of the merger, Vytek intends to issue and sell to certain existing holders of Vytek Series A preferred stock, as well as to certain holders of Stellcom's preferred stock, up to 4,256,407 shares of Vytek Series B preferred stock, in a private placement transaction. The initial purchase price for the Vytek Series B preferred stock will be $1.1747 per share. The shares of the Vytek Series B preferred stock will have the rights, preferences, privileges, and restrictions that are senior to the rights, preferences, privileges and restrictions applicable to the Vytek Series A preferred stock.

4. Concentration of Credit Risk

Financial instruments which potentially subject Stellcom to concentrations of credit risk consist principally of cash and accounts receivable. Sales are typically made on credit, with terms that vary depending on the customer. Stellcom evaluates each customer's credit-worthiness on a case-by-case basis. A payment default on a significant sale or customer receivable may materially or adversely affect Stellcom's operating results and financial condition. At December 31, 2002, receivables from five customers individually exceeded 5% of gross accounts receivable and totaled approximately $2,200,000 or 56% of total gross accounts receivable. During 2002, Stellcom had sales to three customers which individually exceeded 5% of net sales and represented 38%, 9% and 7% of total net sales, respectively. At December 31, 2001, receivables from six customers individually exceeded 5% of gross accounts receivable and totaled approximately $4,250,000 or 60% of total gross accounts receivable. During 2001, Stellcom had sales to three customers which individually exceeded 5% of total net sales and represented 13%, 12% and 5% of total net sales, respectively.

As of December 31, 2002 and 2001, Stellcom had cash deposits in federally insured financial institutions in excess of federally insured limits. Management believes Stellcom is not exposed to significant risk due to the financial position of the depository institutions in which those deposits are held. In 2002 and 2001, Stellcom also invested in a diversified money market portfolio which is not federally insured.

The terms of the Amendment, which is contingent on the closing of the merger with Vytex Wireless, Inc. The note is due on September 5, 2005.

9. Wage Deferral Plan

Stellcom has a qualified 401(k) wage deferral plan. Under the plan, all employees who have reached the age of 21 may defer a portion of their salary. Stellcom may make discretionary employer contributions to the plan. Employees are fully vested in their share of Stellcom's contribution immediately, subject to certain restrictions on withdrawal. There were no contributions to the plan by Stellcom for the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001.

10. Redeemable Convertible Preferred Stock

Stellcom's Articles of Incorporation were amended effective September 26, 2001 and authorize the issuance of two classes of stock to be designated Common Stock and Preferred Stock, provide that both common and preferred stock shall have a par value of $.001 per share and authorize Stellcom to issue 80,000,000 shares of common stock and 35,000,000 shares of preferred stock. The preferred stock may be divided into such number of series and with the rights, preferences, privileges and restrictions as the Board of Directors may determine.

Stellcom has Series A, Series B and Series B-1 redeemable convertible preferred stock authorized, issued and outstanding. The holders of Series A, Series B and Series B-1 preferred stock have equal voting rights as the holders of common stock on an as-converted basis.

The holders of Series A, Series B and Series B-1 preferred stock are entitled to receive dividends only when and if declared by the Board of Directors. No dividends have been declared through December 31, 2002.

Upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up of Stellcom, the holders of the Series A, Series B and Series B-1 preferred stock will be entitled to receive, in preference to any distribution to the holders of common stock, an amount equal to $0.77, $2.58 and $2.00 per share, respectively, plus any accrued but unpaid dividends (the liquidation preference).

At the option of the respective holders of the Series A, Series B or Series B-1 preferred stock, each share may be converted into common stock at a conversion price, subject to adjustment, of $0.77, $2.58 and $2.00 per share, respectively (the conversion price). The Series A, Series B and Series B-1 conversion prices are subject to adjustment in the event of: a) a common stock split without a proportionate preferred stock split, b) the declaration of a stock dividend on common stock, c) the issuance of equity securities at less than the currently applicable conversion price, or d) any recapitalization or other transaction which is effected in such a manner that common stockholders are entitled to receive assets with respect to or in exchange for common stock. Each share of Series A, Series B or Series B-1 preferred stock will automatically be converted into shares of common stock at the then-effective conversion price in the event of: a) an underwritten public offering, b) a vote by 65% of the respective holders of the Series A, Series B or Series B-1 preferred stock for such a conversion or c) at such time as at least 80% of the largest number of respective shares of Series A, Series B or Series B-1 preferred stock ever issued have been converted. Stellcom has reserved 25,790,000 shares of common stock in the event that Series A, Series B or Series B-1 preferred stock is converted.

The Series A, Series B or Series B-1 preferred shares may be redeemed on or after October 27, 2005, at the option of the respective holders of a majority of the total number of shares of Series A, Series B or Series B-1 preferred stock then outstanding. The redemption value per share shall be the greater of the applicable liquidation preference plus interest or the fair market value of the number of shares of common stock into which such share of preferred stock is convertible on the redemption date.

In connection with the merger with Vytex Wireless, Inc., Stellcom will issue a new series of preferred stock, Series C. The proceeds from the issuance of the Series C preferred stock are to be used to satisfy certain obligations of Stellcom prior to the completion of the merger, such as costs associated with the amendment of Stellcom's headquarters lease (see Note 6), transaction costs and expenses and other expenses which are set forth in the Merger Agreement. The Series C preferred stock will have a preference over all other Company securities.

11. Stockholders Equity

Stellcom's Articles of Incorporation were amended effective September 26, 2001 and authorize the issuance of two classes of stock to be designated Common Stock and Preferred Stock, provide that both common and preferred stock shall have a par value of $.001 per share and authorize Stellcom to issue 80,000,000 shares of common stock and 35,000,000 shares of preferred stock. The preferred stock may be divided into such number of series and with the rights, preferences, privileges and restrictions as the Board of Directors may determine.

Common Stock During 2001, 229,803 shares of common stock were repurchased by Stellcom pursuant to the Repurchase Option terms of Stellcom's 1996 Stock Option Plan. During 2001, Stellcom recognized compensation expense of approximately $2,000 in connection with disqualifying dispositions of such shares.

Warrants During 2000, Stellcom issued warrants to purchase approximately 219,000 shares of Series B preferred stock in connection with debt financing agreements. Stellcom recorded approximately $65,000 of interest expense in connection with such issuance. The warrants are exercisable upon grant, have an exercise price of $2.58 and expire between September 2005 and March 2006. Also during 2000, Stellcom issued warrants to purchase approximately 37,000 shares of common stock in exchange for professional services. Stellcom recorded approximately $5,000 of consulting expense in connection with such issuance. The warrants are exercisable upon grant, have exercise prices ranging from $0.67 to $1.29 and expire in October 2005.

Stock Option Plan In 1996, the Board of Directors approved an employee stock option plan (the Plan) which, as amended, provides for the award or grant of stock options to purchase up to 14,800,000 shares of Stellcom's common stock. The price of the options granted pursuant to these plans will not be less than 100% of the fair market value of the shares at the date of grant. An option generally may not be exercised until vested and no option will be exercisable after ten years from the date granted. Options generally vest over a four-year period from the date of grant with one-fourth of the stock options vesting after the end of each year of continuous service. In the event of the occurrence of any repurchase event, such as employee termination, Stellcom generally shall have the right to repurchase the optionee's shares at the original cost per share or the fair market value of the shares on the date of the repurchase.

Had compensation cost for Stellcom's stock option plan been determined based on the estimated fair value at the grant date for awards in 2002 and 2001, Stellcom's net loss would have been adjusted to the pro forma amount indicated below:

Pro forma	(4,444,000)	(30,708,000)

In 2002 and 2001, the fair value of each option grant is estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model, with the following weighted-average assumptions: dividend yield and expected

The weighted average grant date fair value (minimum value) of options granted under the Plan during 2002 and 2001 was $0.05 and $0.27, respectively.

In February 2002, Stellcom agreed to reprice approximately 6,000,000 options with exercise prices greater than $0.25 per share to $0.25 per share and will account for the repriced options using the variable method of accounting. The variable method of accounting requires the recognition of compensation cost over the remaining vesting period of the modified award equal to the sum of the intrinsic value of the original award at the original measurement date plus the intrinsic value of the modified award in excess of the intrinsic value of the original award, with such total compensation cost adjusted for increases or decreases in the intrinsic value of the modified award in subsequent periods until that award is exercised, is forfeited, or expires unexercised. For 2002, no compensation cost has been recognized in conjunction with such modified awards, as the market value of the underlying stock covered by the grant is less than the option price.

12. Restructuring Reserve

In 2002 and 2001, Stellcom recorded a restructuring (benefit) expense of ($925,000) and $11,800,000, respectively, as part of Stellcom's cost reduction initiative. The initiative primarily focused on the closure of non-revenue producing offices along with headcount reductions across all departments.

A summary of the activity of the restructuring reserve is as follows:

	Employee Severance Benefits	Excess Lease Commitments, Net	Other	Total
January 1, 2001	$	$	$	$
Accruals	1,232,212	9,771,749	781,612	11,785,573
Charges	(1,202,097)	(1,059,157)	(40,340)	(2,301,594)
December 31, 2001	30,115	8,712,592	741,272	9,483,979
Accruals	2,000	(480,805)	(446,281)	(925,086)

December 31, 2002	$	$ 6,924,418	$ 161,360	$ 7,085,778

Included in the restructuring (benefit) expense in 2002 and 2001 were certain cash termination benefits associated with the separation of approximately 160 employees as part of involuntary termination plans. This includes forgiveness of a $300,000 note receivable from an employee in 2001. Nearly one-third of the affected employees left their positions in March 2001, and the remaining employees left Stellcom from May 2001 to November 2001.

Also included in the restructuring (benefit) expense for the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001 were certain lease commitment costs, net of estimated sublease income, for unoccupied office space due to the reduction in force and estimated sublease commissions. During 2001, management decided to sublease or buyout the leases for certain offices located in San Diego, Los Angeles, and Irvine, California. During 2001, sublease agreements were finalized for certain offices located in San Diego and Irvine and a buyout agreement was completed for the Los Angeles office. In 2002, Stellcom entered into a rent deferral agreement related to one of its San Diego locations. The agreement took effect June 1, 2002 and allows for a portion of the lease payments to be deferred over a period of 18 months. Additionally, in November 2002, Stellcom entered into a lease amendment for its headquarters office space (see Note 6). No change to the restructuring reserve has been recorded relating to this amendment as it is contingent on the consummation of the merger with Vytex Wireless, Inc. (see Note 3).

Additionally, the restructuring reserve includes a provision for certain services under contract which are no longer utilized. In 2002, Stellcom entered into a termination agreement in connection with one such services contract whereby Stellcom was required to pay $50,000 in termination fees. The balance accrued pursuant to that services contract of $446,000 was credited to restructuring (benefit) expense in 2002.

2004	1,072,951
2005	883,943
2006	783,478

THE MERGER

SECTION 1.1 The Merger.

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions hereof, and in accordance with the Delaware General Corporation Law (the DGCL), Acquisition Sub shall be merged with and into the Company at the Effective Time (as defined in Section 1.2). Following the Merger, the separate corporate existence of Acquisition Sub shall cease and the Company shall continue as the surviving corporation (hereinafter sometimes referred to as the Surviving Corporation) and shall succeed to and assume all the rights and obligations of the Company in accordance with the DGCL.

SECTION 1.2 Effective Time.

(i) each share of Series A Convertible Participating Preferred Stock, par value $0.01 per share (the Series A Preferred Stock) of the Company issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted into the right to receive the number of shares of Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share of Parent (Parent Common Stock), equal to the quotient of (A) the Series A Share Allocation (as hereinafter defined) and (B) the sum of (1) the total number of shares of Series A Preferred Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time and (2) the total number of shares of Series A Preferred Stock issuable upon exercise of the in-the-money Company Warrants (as hereinafter defined) exercisable for shares of Series A Preferred Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (the quotient of (A) and (B), the Series A Exchange Ratio);

(iv) each share of Series Junior Preferred Stock, par value $0.01 per share (the Junior Preferred Stock), of the Company issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted into the right to receive the number of Parent Common Stock), equal to the quotient of (A) the Junior Share Allocation (as hereinafter defined) and (B) the total number of shares of Junior Preferred Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time.

(b) Each share of Company Common Stock held by the Company (or held in the treasury of the Company) immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be canceled and extinguished and shall cease to exist, and no consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor. Each share of Company Common Stock held by Parent, Acquisition Sub or any other wholly-owned Subsidiary of Parent immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be cancelled and extinguished and shall cease to exist, and no consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor.

(c) Each share of the common stock, $0.01 par value per share, of Acquisition Sub outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted into one validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Surviving Corporation.

(d) Certain Definitions. For the purposes of this Agreement:

(i) Common Share Allocation shall mean 1,230,000.

(ii) Junior Share Allocation shall mean 4,744.

(iii) Merger Consideration shall mean (A) the number of shares of Parent Common Stock issued pursuant to Section 1.5(a), (B) the right to receive shares of Parent Common Stock out of the Escrow Funds pursuant to the terms of the Escrow Agreement, and (C) the cash in lieu of fractional shares paid to stockholders pursuant to Section 1.6.

(iv) Series A Share Allocation shall mean 5,831,470.

(v) Series B Share Allocation shall mean 1,133,786.

(vi) Shares shall mean all shares of Company Common Stock and Company Preferred Stock issued and outstanding at the Effective Time.

(vii) Total Merger Shares shall mean eight million two hundred thousand (8,200,000) shares of Parent Common Stock.

(e) Stock Options.

At the Effective Time, all rights with respect to Company Common Stock under each option issued by the Company then outstanding (each, a Company Option) shall be converted into and become rights with respect to Parent Common Stock, and Parent shall assume each such Company Option in accordance with the terms and conditions (as in effect as of the date of this Agreement) of the stock option plan under which it was issued and the terms and conditions of the stock option agreement by which it is evidenced. From and after the Effective Time, (i) each Company Option assumed by Parent may be exercised solely for shares of Parent Common Stock, (ii) except that the number of shares of Parent Common Stock subject to each such Company Option shall be equal to the number of shares of Company Common Stock subject to such Company Option immediately prior to the Effective Time multiplied by the Common Stock Exchange Ratio, rounding down to the nearest whole share, (iii) the per share exercise price under each such Company Option shall be adjusted by dividing the per share exercise price under such Company Option by the Common Stock Exchange Ratio and rounding up to the nearest cent, (iv) each Company Option shall be fully vested and immediately exercisable and (v) any restriction on the exercise of any such Company Option, other than any vesting provisions as provided in clause (iv), shall continue in full force and effect and the term and other provisions of such Company Option shall otherwise remain unchanged; provided, however, that each Company Option assumed by Parent in accordance with this Section 1.5(f) shall, in accordance with its terms, be subject to further adjustment as appropriate to reflect any stock split, stock dividend, reverse stock split, reclassification, recapitalization or other similar transaction effected subsequent to the Effective Time. Each Company Option which is an incentive stock option within the meaning of Code Section 422(b) shall be adjusted as required by Section 424 of the Code, and the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder (including Proposed Treasury Regulations published in June of 2003), so as to continue as an incentive stock option under Section 424(a) of the Code, and so as not to constitute a modification, extension, or renewal of the option within the meaning of Section 424(h) of the Code. Parent has reserved and shall continue to reserve adequate shares of Parent Common Stock for delivery upon exercise of any assumed Company Options. As provided in Section 5.15, Parent shall file a registration statement on Form S-8 with respect to the shares of Parent Common Stock subject to assumed Company Options and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to maintain the effectiveness of such registration statement for so long as such assumed Company Options remain outstanding. As soon as practicable after the Effective Time, Parent shall issue to each Person who immediately prior to the Effective Time was a holder of an outstanding Company Option a document evidencing Parent's assumption of the Company Option. For purposes of this Agreement, in-the-money Company Options shall mean all Company Options with an exercise price less than $1.00 per share of Company Common Stock.

(f) Termination. All shares of Company Capital Stock, when so converted pursuant to Section 1.5(a) above, shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be canceled and retired and each holder of a certificate representing any such shares shall cease to have any rights with respect thereto, except the right to receive any dividends and other distributions, if any, in accordance with Section 1.7, certificates representing the shares of Parent Common Stock into which such shares are converted, and any cash, without interest, in lieu of fractional shares to be issued or paid in consideration therefor upon the surrender of such certificate in accordance with Section 1.8.

(g) Average Parent Share Price. The Average Parent Share Price as of any date (the Relevant Date) means the average of the daily volume-weighted sales prices per share of Parent Common Stock on the NASDAQ for each of the 5 consecutive trading days ending on the trading day that is two calendar days prior to the Relevant Date, or, if such ending date does not fall on a trading day, then the trading day immediately preceding the second calendar day prior to the Relevant Date (the Valuation Period).

(h) Warrants. Following the Effective Time, all warrants to purchase Company Common Stock or Company Preferred Stock (Company Warrants) shall remain in effect in accordance with their terms (as in effect as of the date of this Agreement) except that: (i) each Company Warrant shall be a warrant to purchase Parent Common Stock; (ii) the number of shares of Parent Common Stock subject to such Company Warrant shall be equal to the number of shares of Company Common Stock or Company Preferred Stock, as applicable, immediately prior to the Effective Time multiplied by the Series A Exchange Ratio or Common Stock Exchange Ratio, as applicable, rounding down to the nearest whole share; and (iii) the per share exercise price under each such Company Warrant shall be adjusted by dividing the per share exercise price under such Company Warrant by the Series A Exchange Ratio or Common Stock Exchange Ratio, as applicable, and rounding up to the nearest cent. For purposes of this Agreement, in-the-money Company Warrants shall mean all Company Warrants, except for the Company Warrants listed on Schedule 1.5(h) of the Company Disclosure Schedule.

SECTION 1.6 Payment of Merger Consideration.

(a) Exchange of Certificates. Parent shall authorize American Stock Transfer Trust Agent or such other bank, trust company, or other person or persons as shall be reasonably acceptable to Parent and the Company, to act, at Parent's expense, as Exchange Agent hereunder (the Exchange Agent). At least one calendar day prior to the Effective Time, Parent shall deposit with the Exchange Agent, in trust for the holders of shares of Company Capital Stock converted in the Merger, certificates representing the shares of Parent Common Stock issuable pursuant to Section 1.5 in exchange for outstanding shares of Company Capital Stock (net of shares deposited with the Escrow Agent pursuant to Section 1.6(b)) and cash, as required to make payments in lieu of any fractional shares pursuant to Section 1.8 (such cash and shares of Parent Common Stock, together with any dividends or distributions with respect thereto, being hereinafter referred to as the Exchange Fund). At the Closing, the Exchange Agent shall deliver to the Stockholders the shares of Parent Common Stock to be issued pursuant to Section 1.5(a) out of the Exchange Fund. Except as contemplated by Section 1.9, the Exchange Fund shall not be used for any other purpose.

(b) Escrow Accounts. At the Closing, Parent shall deposit 854,700 shares of Parent Common Stock to be issued to the Company Stockholders pursuant to Section 1.5 (such number of shares of Parent Common Stock, the Escrow Fund) in an account with an escrow agent selected by Parent, subject to the consent of the Stockholder Representative (as hereinafter defined), such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, as escrow agent (the Escrow Agent) in accordance with the provisions of an Escrow Agreement in substantially the form of Exhibit E (the Escrow Agreement). The portion of the Escrow Fund that shall be deposited with respect to each Company Stockholder shall equal the total number of shares of Parent Common Stock included in the Escrow Fund multiplied by a fraction calculated by dividing (i) the number of shares of Parent Common Stock that such Stockholder is entitled to receive pursuant to Section 1.5 divided by (ii) the total number of shares of Parent Common Stock to be distributed to the Company Stockholders pursuant to Section 1.5 (such percentage shall hereinafter be referred to as the Pro Rata Portion). The Escrow Fund shall be held in the escrow account until 5:00 p.m., California time, on that date which is the same date of the month as the Closing Date in the month which is the two-year anniversary of the Closing Date and shall be used as the sole and exclusive source of payment for the payment of any indemnification rights to which the Indemnitees may be entitled under Article VI, and for the payment of any obligation arising out of the Working Capital Adjustment in Section 1.9 hereof, and shall be maintained and used strictly in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and the Escrow Agreement. At the fifteen-month anniversary of the Closing Date (the Fifteenth-Month Release Date), all shares of Parent Common Stock, except for that number of shares of Parent Common Stock in the Escrow Fund equal to the quotient of (A) $2,000,000 and (B) the Average Parent Share Price as of the Fifteenth-Month Release Date shall be distributed to the Stockholders of Company in accordance with their Pro Rata Portion. At the two-year anniversary of the Closing Date, all shares of Parent Common Stock remaining in the Escrow Fund shall be distributed to the Stockholders of the Company in accordance with their Pro Rata Portion.

(c) Exchange Procedures. At least two calendar days prior to the Effective Time, Parent shall cause the Exchange Agent to mail to each record holder of a certificate or certificates which immediately prior to the Effective Time represented outstanding shares of Company Capital Stock being converted in the Merger (the Certificates), a letter of transmittal (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates shall pass, only upon actual delivery of the Certificates to the Exchange Agent, and shall contain instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates in exchange for certificates representing shares of Parent Common Stock and cash in lieu of fractional shares). Subject to the provisions of this Section 1.6 regarding the Escrow Fund, upon surrender for cancellation to the Exchange Agent of a Certificate held by any record holder of a Certificate, together with such letter of transmittal, duly executed, the holder of such Certificate shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor a certificate (a Parent Certificate) representing that number of whole shares of Parent Common Stock into which the shares represented by the surrendered Certificate shall have been converted at the Effective Time pursuant to this Article I, cash in lieu of any fractional share in accordance with Section 1.8 and certain dividends and other distributions in accordance with Section 1.7, and any Certificate so surrendered shall forthwith be canceled.

(d) Certificate Name. If any certificate for shares of Parent Common Stock is to be issued in a name other than that in which the Certificate surrendered in exchange therefor is registered, it will be a condition of the issuance thereof that the Certificate so surrendered will be properly endorsed, accompanied by all documents required to evidence and effect such transfer and otherwise in proper form for transfer and that the person requesting such exchange will have paid to Parent or any agent designated by it any applicable transfer taxes required by reason of the issuance of a certificate for shares of Parent Common Stock in any name other than that of the registered holder of the Certificate surrendered, or shall provide evidence that any applicable transfer taxes have been paid.

(e) Dissenting Shares. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no amounts shall be payable at the Effective Time with respect to any Dissenting Shares (as hereinafter defined) or any shares of Company Capital Stock with respect to which dissenters' rights have not terminated. In the case of any shares of Company Common Stock or Company Preferred Stock with respect to which dissenters' rights have not terminated as of the Effective Time, if such Shares become Dissenting Shares, payment shall be made in accordance with Section 1.15 and the DGCL, and if, instead, the dissenters' rights with respect to such Dissenting Shares irrevocably terminate after the Effective Time, such Dissenting Shares shall be entitled to receive the Merger Consideration.

SECTION 1.7 Dividends; Transfer Taxes; Withholding.

No dividends or other distributions that are declared on or after the Effective Time on Parent Common Stock, or are payable to the holders of record thereof on or after the Effective Time, will be paid to any person entitled by reason of the Merger to receive a certificate representing Parent Common Stock until such person surrenders the related Certificate or Certificates, as provided in Section 1.6, and no cash payment in lieu of fractional shares will be paid to any such person pursuant to Section 1.8 until such person shall so surrender the related Certificate or Certificates. Subject to the effect of Applicable Law (as hereinafter defined), there shall be paid to each record holder of a new certificate representing such Parent Common Stock: (i) at the time of such surrender or as promptly as practicable thereafter, the amount of any dividends or other distributions theretofore paid with respect to the shares of Parent Common Stock represented by such new certificate and having a record date on or after the Effective Time and a payment date prior to such surrender; (ii) at the appropriate payment date or as promptly as practicable thereafter, the amount of any dividends or other distributions payable with respect to such shares of Parent Common Stock and having a record date on or after the Effective Time but prior to such surrender and a payment date on or subsequent to such surrender; and (iii) at the time of such surrender or as promptly as practicable thereafter, the amount of any cash payable with respect to a fractional share of Parent Common Stock to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 1.8. In no event shall the person entitled to receive such dividends or other distributions be entitled to receive interest on such dividends or other distributions. Parent or the Exchange Agent shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder of shares of Company Capital Stock

(c) Prior to the expiration of the Review Period, the Stockholder Representative shall notify Parent of any objections or proposed changes to the Working Capital Statement or the Closing Balance Sheet. If the Stockholder Representative fails to so notify Parent of any objections or proposed changes within the Review Period, if the Stockholder Representative notifies Parent that he has no objections or proposed changes to any of such items, or if the Stockholder Representative and Parent agree in writing on the resolution of all such objections or changes within ten (10) Business Days following delivery to Parent of such objections or proposed changes, the Closing Balance Sheet and the Working Capital Statement, with any changes as may be agreed upon in writing, shall be final and binding. If the Stockholder Representative and Parent shall fail to reach an agreement with respect to any objection or proposed change within ten (10) Business Days of delivery to Parent of any such objections or proposed changes (the Dispute Period), then all such disputed objections or changes shall, not later than five (5) Business Days after the end of the Dispute Period, be submitted for resolution to the Los Angeles office of PricewaterhouseCoopers or any other Big Four accounting firm mutually acceptable to Parent and the Stockholder Representative (the Auditor). Any adjustment made pursuant to this Section 1.9(d) shall be referred to herein as the Working Capital Adjustment.

SECTION 1.10 No Further Ownership Rights in Company Common Stock.

All shares of Parent Common Stock issued upon the surrender for exchange of Certificates in accordance with the terms hereof, together with any cash paid pursuant to Sections 1.7 and 1.8 shall be deemed to have been issued and paid in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to the shares of Company Capital Stock represented by such Certificates.

SECTION 1.11 Closing of Company Transfer Books.

At the Effective Time, the stock transfer books of the Company shall be closed and no transfer of shares of Company Common Stock or Company Preferred Stock shall thereafter be made on the records of the Company. If a holder of Dissenting Shares (a Dissenting Stockholder) withdraws his or her demand for such payment and appraisal or becomes ineligible for such payment and appraisal, then, as of the Effective Time or the occurrence of such event of withdrawal or ineligibility, whichever last occurs, such holder's Dissenting Shares will cease to be Dissenting Shares and will be converted into the right to receive, and will be exchangeable for, the Merger Consideration in accordance with this Agreement. The Company will give Parent prompt notice of any demand received by the Company from a Dissenting Stockholder for appraisal of shares of Company Common Stock or Company Preferred Stock, and Parent shall have the right to participate in all negotiations and proceedings with respect to such demand. The Company agrees that, except with the prior written consent of Parent, or as required under the DGCL, it will not voluntarily make any payment with respect to, or settle or offer or agree to settle, any such demand for appraisal. Each Dissenting Stockholder who, pursuant to the provisions of the DGCL, becomes entitled to payment of the value of the Dissenting Shares will receive payment therefor but only after the value therefor has been agreed upon or finally determined pursuant to such provisions. Any portion of the Merger Consideration that would otherwise have been payable with respect to Dissenting Shares if such shares of Company Common Stock or Company Preferred Stock were not Dissenting Shares will be retained by Parent.

Each of Parent and Acquisition Sub is duly qualified to do business, and is in good standing, in each jurisdiction where the character of its properties owned or held under lease or the nature of its activities makes such qualification necessary, except where the failure to be so qualified would not, individually or in the aggregate, have a Material Adverse Effect on the Parent. For purposes of this Agreement, Material Adverse Effect on the Parent means any event, circumstance or change (i) that is or could reasonably be expected to be materially adverse to the business, operations, assets, liabilities, capitalization, condition or results of operation of Parent and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or (ii) that could reasonably be expected to prevent or materially delay or impair the ability of the Parent or Acquisition Sub to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, the Escrow Agreement or the Registration Rights Agreement or to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement, the Escrow Agreement or the Registration Rights Agreement; provided, however, that any adverse change, effect, occurrence, state of facts or development attributable to conditions affecting the industries in which Parent and its Subsidiaries participate, the U.S. economy as a whole or foreign economies in any locations where Parent or its Subsidiaries has material operations or sales, shall not be taken into account in determining whether there has been or will be a Material Adverse Effect on Parent. SECTION 4.2 Other Acquirors.

(a) The Company, its Subsidiaries and their respective officers and other employees, directors, representatives and agents shall immediately cease any and all discussions or negotiations with any persons with respect to any Third Party Acquisition. The Company shall not, and shall not authorize any of its affiliates, officers, directors, employees, representatives or agents to, directly or indirectly, encourage, solicit, participate in or initiate discussions or negotiations with or provide any non-public information to any person or group (other than Parent and Acquisition Sub or any designees of Parent and Acquisition Sub) concerning any Third Party Acquisition. The Company shall promptly notify Parent in writing in the event the Company or any of its affiliates and their respective directors, officers, employees, agents and representatives receives any written or oral proposal or inquiry concerning a Third Party Acquisition, including the terms and conditions thereof and the identity of the person or group submitting such proposal, and shall advise Parent from time to time of the status and any material developments concerning the same. In the event the Company shall receive a proposal for a Third Party Acquisition that could result in a Superior Proposal (as defined herein), then (i) the Company or its representatives may make such inquiries or have such discussions with respect to such Third Party Acquisition as the Board of Directors of the Company, after consultation with outside legal counsel, may deem reasonably necessary to inform itself for the purpose of avoiding any legal claims for breach of its fiduciary duties and (ii) if the Board of Directors of the Company by a majority vote determines in good faith that such proposal for a Third Party Acquisition is reasonably likely to result in a Superior Proposal, the Company and its representatives may conduct such additional discussions or provide such information as the Board of Directors of the Company may determine, but only if, prior to such additional discussions or such provision of information: (A) the persons making the proposal for the Third Party Acquisition shall have entered into a confidentiality agreement no less favorable to the Company than the Confidentiality Agreement (as defined hereinafter) and (B) the Board of Directors of the Company by a majority vote shall have determined in good faith, after consultation with outside legal counsel, that such actions may be reasonably necessary in order to avoid legal claims for breach of the fiduciary duties of the Board of Directors of the Company.

(c) Except as set forth in this Section 4.2(c), the Board of Directors of the Company shall not withdraw its recommendation in favor of the transactions contemplated hereby or approve or recommend, or cause the Company or any of its subsidiaries to enter into any agreement with respect to, any Third Party Acquisition. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Board of Directors of the Company by a majority vote determines in its good faith judgment, after consultation with legal counsel, that it is reasonably necessary to do so in order to avoid legal claims for breach of its fiduciary duties, the Board of Directors of the Company may withdraw its recommendation in favor of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby or enter into an agreement with respect to a Third Party Acquisition, but only (i) after providing written notice to Parent (a Notice of Superior Proposal) advising Parent that the Board of Directors of the Company has received a Superior Proposal, specifying the material terms and conditions of such Superior Proposal and identifying the person making such Superior Proposal, and (ii) if Parent does not, within two (2) Business Days after Parent's receipt of the Notice of Superior Proposal, make an offer that the Board of Directors of the Company by a majority vote determines in its good faith judgment to be at least as favorable to the stockholders of the Company as such Superior Proposal; provided, however, that no withdrawal of the recommendation of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby by the Board of Directors of the Company shall relieve the Company of its obligation to submit this Agreement and such transactions to the Stockholders for approval as provided in Section 5.2. For the elimination of doubt, nothing in this Section 4.2 shall prohibit the Company from making any disclosure to its stockholders if, in the good faith judgment of the Company Board of Directors, based upon advice of legal counsel, such action may be reasonably necessary in order to avoid legal claims of a breach of the Board of Directors' fiduciary duties to the Company's Stockholders.

(d) For purposes of this Agreement, Third Party Acquisition means the occurrence of any of the following events: (i) the acquisition of the Company by merger or otherwise by any person (which includes a person as such term is defined in Section 13(d)(3) of the Exchange Act) other than Parent, Acquisition Sub or any affiliate thereof (a Third Party); (ii) the acquisition by a Third Party of any material portion of the assets of the Company and its subsidiaries, other than the sale of its products in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practices; (iii) the acquisition by a Third Party of fifteen percent (15%) or more of the outstanding Shares; (iv) the adoption by the Company of a plan of total or partial liquidation or the declaration or payment of an extraordinary dividend; (v) the repurchase by the Company or any of its subsidiaries of more than ten percent (10%) of the outstanding Shares or (vi) the acquisition by the Company or any of its subsidiaries by merger, purchase of stock or assets, joint venture or otherwise of a direct or indirect ownership interest or investment in any business whose annual revenues, net income or assets is equal or greater than twenty percent (20%) of the annual revenues, net income or assets of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, a Superior Proposal means any bona fide proposal to acquire directly or indirectly more than fifty percent (50%) of the Shares then outstanding or all or substantially all of the assets of the Company or any of its subsidiaries, and otherwise on terms that the Board of Directors of the Company by a majority vote determines in its good faith judgment to be more favorable to the Stockholders than the Merger.

SECTION 4.3 Third Party Confidentiality Agreements.

SECTION 5.7 Commercially Reasonable Efforts.

(a) Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, each of the parties agrees to use commercially reasonable efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, and to assist and cooperate with the other parties in doing, all things necessary, proper or advisable to consummate and make effective, in the most expeditious manner practicable, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including: (i) the obtaining of all necessary actions or non-actions, waivers, consents and approvals from all Governmental Entities and the making of all necessary registrations and filings (including filings with Governmental Entities) and the taking of all reasonable steps as may be necessary to obtain an approval or waiver from, or to avoid or vigorously defend an action or proceeding by, any Governmental Entity (including those in connection with the HSR Act and State Takeover Approvals), (ii) the obtaining of all necessary consents, approvals or waivers from third parties, (iii) the defending of any lawsuits or other legal proceedings, whether judicial or administrative, challenging this Agreement or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, including seeking to have any stay or temporary restraining order entered by any court or other Governmental Entity vacated or reversed, and (iv) the execution and delivery of any additional instruments necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Each of the parties shall use commercially reasonable efforts to respond as promptly as practicable to (1) any inquiries or requests received from the Federal Trade Commission or the Department of Justice for additional information or documentation and (2) any inquiries or requests received from any state attorney general, foreign antitrust authority or other Governmental Entity in connection with antitrust or related matters. Each of the parties shall (A) give the other party prompt notice of the commencement or threat of any legal proceeding by or before any Governmental Entity with respect to the Merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement, (B) keep the other party informed as to the status of any such legal proceeding or threat, and (C) promptly inform the other party of any communication to or from the Federal Trade Commission, the Department of Justice or any other Governmental Entity regarding the Merger. No party to this Agreement shall consent to any voluntary delay of the consummation of the Merger at the behest of any Governmental Entity without the consent of the other parties to this Agreement, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

(b) Each party shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to not take any action, or enter into any transaction, which would cause any of its representations or warranties contained in this Agreement to be untrue or result in a breach of any covenant made by it in this Agreement.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, in connection with any filing or submission required or action to be taken by either Parent or the Company to effect the Merger and to consummate the other transactions contemplated hereby, the Company shall not, without Parent's prior written consent, commit to any divestiture transaction, and neither Parent nor any of its Affiliates shall be required to divest or hold separate or otherwise take or commit to take any action that limits its freedom of action with respect to, or its ability to retain, the Company or any of the businesses, product lines or assets of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries or that otherwise would have a Material Adverse Effect on Parent.

SECTION 5.8 Public Announcements; Confidentiality.

No party to this Agreement will issue any press release with respect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or otherwise issue any written public statements with respect to such transactions without prior consultation with the other parties, except as may be required by Applicable Law or by obligations pursuant to any listing agreement with or rules of any national securities exchange. The Confidentiality Agreement shall continue in full force and effect after the date hereof. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, the parties to this Agreement acknowledge and agree that any party to this Agreement (and any employee, shareholder, representative or other agent of any party hereto) may disclose to any and all persons without limitation of any kind, the tax treatment and tax structure of the Merger and all materials of any kind (including opinions or other tax analyses) that are provided to the party relating to such tax treatment and tax structure; provided further however, that such disclosure may not be made to the extent the restrictions on disclosure are reasonably necessary to comply with any applicable federal or state securities laws; provided further that (i) the tax treatment of the Merger means the purported or claimed federal income tax treatment of the Merger, and (ii) the tax structure of the Merger means any fact that may be relevant to understanding the purported or claimed federal income tax treatment of the Merger. The preceding sentence is intended to cause the Merger to be treated as not having been offered under conditions of confidentiality for purposes of Section 1.6011-4(b)(3) (or any successor provision) of the Treasury Regulations promulgated under Section 6011 of the Code and shall be construed in a manner consistent with such purpose.

SECTION 5.9 State Takeover Laws.

If any fair price, business combination or control share acquisition statute or other similar statute or regulation shall become applicable to the transactions contemplated hereby, Parent and the Company and their respective Boards of Directors shall use their commercially reasonable efforts to grant such approvals and take such actions as are necessary so that the transactions contemplated hereby may be consummated as promptly as practicable on the terms contemplated hereby and otherwise act to minimize the effects of any such statute or regulation on the transactions contemplated hereby.

SECTION 5.10 Indemnification; Directors and Officers Insurance.

(a) For a period of six (6) years from and after the Effective Time, Parent shall, and shall cause the Surviving Corporation, to (i) indemnify and hold harmless all past and present officers and directors of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries (Indemnified D&O's) to the same extent and in the same manner such persons are indemnified as of the date of this Agreement by the Company pursuant to the DGCL, the Company Certificate of Incorporation and the Company's Bylaws and in any agreement with the Company listed in Section 5.10 of the Company Disclosure Schedule (the Indemnification Agreements), for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the Effective Time (including indemnifying and holding harmless such persons for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the Effective Time in respect of the Merger and the transactions contemplated thereby), and (ii) pay the expenses of any such action, suit or proceeding in advance of a final determination thereof to the same extent and in the same manner as such expenses are to be paid pursuant to the DGCL and the Company Certificate of Incorporation and Company Bylaws and the Indemnification Agreements, upon receipt of a written undertaking reasonably satisfactory to Parent in form and substance to repay any advanced expenses an indemnitee may receive that as a result of a final disposition of such matter he or she was not entitled to under the DGCL, the Company Certificate of Incorporation or the Company's Bylaws.

(b) Nothing contained herein shall make Parent, Acquisition Sub, the Company or the Surviving Corporation an insurer, a co-insurer or an excess insurer in respect of any insurance policies for Losses (as hereinafter defined) addressed by this Section 5.10 in relation to the Indemnified D&O's, nor shall this Section 5.10 relieve the obligations of any insurer in respect thereto.

(c) This covenant is intended to be for the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, each of the Indemnified D&O's and their respective heirs and legal representatives.

(d) For a period of six (6) years after the Effective Time, Parent will maintain or cause the Surviving Corporation to maintain in effect, if available, directors' and officers' liability insurance covering those persons who, as of immediately prior to the Effective Time, are covered by the Company's directors' and officers' liability insurance policy (the Insured Parties) on terms no less favorable to the Insured Parties than those of the Company's present directors' and officers' liability insurance policy; provided, however, that in no event will Parent or the Surviving Corporation be required to expend in excess of 250% of the annual premium currently paid by the Company for such coverage (or such coverage as is available for such annual premium); provided further, that in lieu of maintaining such existing insurance as provided above, Parent may cause coverage to be provided under any policy maintained for the benefit of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries, so long as the terms are not materially less advantageous to the intended beneficiaries thereof than such existing insurance.

SECTION 5.11 Notification of Certain Matters.

Parent shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to give prompt notice to the Company, and the Company shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to give prompt notice to Parent, of: (i) the occurrence, or non-occurrence, of any event the occurrence, or non-occurrence, of which it is aware and which would be reasonably likely to cause (x) any representation or warranty contained in this Agreement and made by it to be untrue or inaccurate in any material respect or (y) any covenant, condition or agreement contained in this Agreement and made by it not to be complied with or satisfied in all material respects, (ii) any failure of Parent or the Company, as the case may be, to comply in a timely manner with or satisfy any covenant, condition or agreement to be complied with or satisfied by it hereunder or (iii) any change or event which would be reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect on Parent or the Company, as the case may be; provided, however, that the delivery of any notice pursuant to this Section 5.11 shall not limit or otherwise affect the remedies available hereunder to the party receiving such notice.

SECTION 5.12 Company 401(k) Plans.

If directed by Parent in writing at least twenty (20) Business Days prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall terminate all Company Plans that include an arrangement described in Section 401(k) of the Code effective as of the day prior to the Closing Date, subject to the receipt of all regulatory and governmental approvals.

SECTION 5.13 Employee Benefits.

Parent agrees that all employees of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries who continue employment with Parent or the Surviving Corporation after the Effective Time (Continuing Employees) shall for a period of at least two (2) years following the Closing Date be eligible to receive retirement, health, vacation and other non-equity based employee benefits substantially equivalent in the aggregate to such benefits provided by Parent to similarly situated employees of Parent and its Subsidiaries. With respect to such benefits, credit for service accrued by Continuing Employees (and eligible dependents) for employment with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries prior to the Effective Time shall be recognized (except to the extent that would result in duplication of benefits), and, to the extent consistent with the applicable employee benefit plan and any insurance contracts, any pre-existing condition limitations (to the extent such limitations did not apply to a pre-existing condition under a similar or corresponding Company benefit plan) and eligibility waiting periods applicable to any Continuing Employee of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries under any group health plan shall be waived and employees shall be given credit for amounts paid under any similar or corresponding Company benefit plan during the same period for purposes of applying deductibles, co-payments and out-of-pocket maximums as though such amounts had been paid in accordance with the terms and conditions of the applicable Company benefit plan. Nothing in this Section 5.13 or elsewhere in this Agreement shall be construed to create a right in any employee of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to employment with Parent, the Surviving Corporation, or any other Subsidiary of Parent and, subject to any other binding written agreement between an employee and Parent or the Surviving Corporation, the employment of each Continuing Employee shall be at will employment, nor shall this Section 5.13 be deemed to require the Parent or the Surviving Corporation to provide any particular employee benefits.

SECTION 5.14 Section 16 Relief.

The Board of Directors of Parent, or a committee of two or more Non-Employee Directors thereof (as such term is defined for purposes of Rule 16b-3 under the Exchange Act), shall adopt resolutions prior to the consummation of the Merger providing that the receipt by those officers and directors of the Company who will be subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act with respect to Parent (the Company Insiders) of the Parent Common Stock upon conversion of the Company Shares, and of options for Parent Common Stock upon assumption of the Company Options, in each case pursuant to the transactions contemplated hereby, are intended to be exempt from liability pursuant to Section 16(b) under the Exchange Act. Such resolutions shall comply with the approval conditions of Rule 16b-3 under the Exchange Act for purposes of such Section 16(b) exemption, including, but not limited to, specifying the name of the Company Insiders, the number of securities to be acquired or disposed of for each such person, the material terms of any derivative securities, and that the approval is intended to make the receipt of such securities exempt pursuant to Rule 16b-3(d).

SECTION 5.15 S-8 Registration Statement.

Within ten (10) Business Days after the Effective Time, Parent shall file a registration statement on Form S-8 with the SEC covering the issuance of all shares of Parent Common Stock issuable upon exercise of any Company Option assumed by Parent in connection with the Merger.

SECTION 5.16 Acceleration of Unvested Securities.

Effective immediately prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall accelerate in full the vesting of all outstanding unvested Company Options and any Company Shares which remain subject to a repurchase option, risk of forfeiture or other condition under any applicable restricted stock purchase agreement or other agreement with the Company. The Company shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to facilitate the exercise of all vested in-the-money Company Options prior to the Effective Time.

SECTION 5.17 Collection and Sales Efforts Post-Closing.

After the Closing, Parent shall cause the Company to continue to conduct collection activities in connection with accounts receivable and sales of inventory with no less diligence and effort than the Company currently applies to such matters.

ARTICLE VI

INDEMNITY

SECTION 6.1 General Survival.

The parties agree that, regardless of any investigation made by the parties, the representations and warranties of the parties contained in this Agreement, except for those contained in Section 3.8, shall survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement for a period beginning on the date hereof and ending at 5:00 p.m., California time, on that date which is the same date of the month as the Closing Date in the month which is the fifteen-month anniversary of the Closing Date. The representations and warranties of the Company contained in Section 3.8 shall survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement for a period beginning on the date hereof and ending at 5:00 p.m., California time, on that date which is the same date of the month as the Closing Date in the month which is the two (2) year anniversary of the Closing Date. All of the covenants, agreements and obligations of the parties contained in this Agreement or any other document, certificate, schedule or instrument delivered or executed in connection herewith shall survive (i) until fully performed or fulfilled, unless non-compliance with such covenants, agreements or obligations is waived in writing by the party or parties entitled to such performance or (ii) if not fully performed or fulfilled, until the expiration of the relevant statute of limitations.

SECTION 6.2 Indemnification.

(a) Indemnity by Stockholders. (i) Subject to the limitations set forth in Sections 6.1, 6.2(c) and 6.2(d), from and after the Effective Time, Parent, Acquisition Sub, the Company and their respective affiliates, officers, directors, employees, stockholders, representatives and agents (collectively the Parent Indemnitees) shall be indemnified and held harmless out of the Escrow Fund then available pursuant to the Escrow Agreement, from and against and in respect of any and all Losses (as defined below) incurred or suffered by any Parent Indemnitee arising out of or in connection with any inaccuracy in or breach of any of the Company's representations, warranties, covenants or agreements (in the case of covenants and agreements to be performed by the Company, to the extent of performance or non-performance prior to the Closing Date) contained in this Agreement.

(ii) For purposes of this Agreement, the term, Losses means any and all deficiencies, judgments, settlements, assessments, liabilities, losses, damages, fines, penalties, expenses (including reasonable legal, accounting and other costs and expenses of professionals) or costs incurred or suffered by any Indemnitee (as hereinafter defined), in connection with investigating, defending, settling or satisfying any and all demands, claims, actions, causes of action, suits, proceedings, assessments, judgments or appeals and in seeking indemnification therefor, and interest on any of the foregoing from the date incurred until paid at the prime rate published from time to time by Citibank, N.A; provided, however, that Losses shall not include any punitive damages. For purposes of this Agreement, the term Transaction Documents means this Agreement.

(b) Indemnity by Parent. Subject to Section 6.1, 6.2(c) and 6.2(d) hereof, from and after the Effective Time, the Stockholders and their respective affiliates, officers, directors, stockholders, representatives and agents (collectively the Stockholder Indemnitees and together with the Parent Indemnitees, collectively, the Indemnitees) shall be indemnified and held harmless by each of Parent and the Company from and against and in respect of any and all Losses incurred by or imposed upon any Stockholder Indemnitee arising out of or in connection any inaccuracy in or breach of any of the representations, warranties, covenants or agreements of Parent or the Company contained in this Agreement. Any payments by Parent or the Company pursuant to this Section 6.2 shall be made in shares of Parent Common Stock valued at the Average Parent Share Price on the date of such payment.

(c) Thresholds. No Indemnitee shall be entitled to indemnification pursuant to Section 6.2(a) or Section 6.2(b) for any Losses until the aggregate amount of all Losses under all claims of all Parent Indemnitees, on the one hand, or all Stockholder Indemnitees, on the other, for all such breaches shall exceed the Threshold (as hereinafter defined), at which time only Losses incurred in excess of the Threshold shall be subject to indemnification hereunder. The Threshold shall be one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000).

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, all amounts due to Parent pursuant to the Working Capital Adjustment set forth in Section 1.9 hereof shall not be subject to the provisions of this Section 6.2(c).

(d) Maximum Liability. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, the maximum aggregate amount of Losses recoverable (i) by the Parent Indemnitees pursuant to Section 6.2(a) and (ii) by the Stockholder Indemnitees pursuant to Section 6.2(b) shall be eight million dollars ($8,000,000).

SECTION 6.3 Manner of Indemnification.

(a) Claims of indemnification by any Parent Indemnitee under this Article VI (an Indemnification Claim) shall be paid solely and exclusively from the Escrow Fund withheld and deposited into an escrow pursuant to the Escrow Agreement in accordance with Section 1.6. The Escrow Fund so deposited shall be held and distributed in accordance with the Escrow Agreement.

(b) Each Indemnification Claim with respect to the Escrow Fund shall be made only in accordance with this Article VI and the Escrow Agreement and all other Indemnification Claims shall be made only in accordance with this Article VI (as applicable).

SECTION 6.4 Stockholder Representative.

By voting to approve the Merger or accepting the Merger Consideration, the Stockholders shall AUTOMATICALLY BE DEEMED TO HAVE APPOINTED MR. JAMES OUSLEY AS THE REPRESENTATIVE AND ATTORNEY-IN-FACT OF THE STOCKHOLDERS OR STOCKHOLDER REPRESENTATIVE (the Stockholder Representative). The Stockholder Representative has unlimited authority and power to act on behalf of each Stockholder with respect to this Agreement and the Escrow Agreement and the disposition, settlement or other handling of all Indemnification Claims, rights or obligations arising from and taken pursuant to this Agreement. The Stockholders will be bound by all actions taken by the Stockholder Representative in connection with this Agreement or the Escrow Agreement, and Parent and the Company shall be entitled to rely on any action or decision of the Stockholder Representative. The Stockholder Representative will incur no liability with respect to any action taken or suffered by him in reliance upon any notice, direction, instruction, consent, statement or other document believed by him to be genuine and to have been signed by the proper person (and shall have no responsibility to determine the authenticity thereof), nor for any other action or inaction, except his own willful misconduct or gross negligence. In all questions arising under this Agreement or the Escrow Agreement, the Stockholder Representative may rely on the advice of counsel, and the Stockholder Representative will not be liable to Stockholders for anything done, omitted or suffered in good faith by the Stockholder Representative based on such advice. The Stockholder Representative will not be required to take any action involving any expense unless the payment of such expense is made or provided for in a manner satisfactory to him. At any time prior to the mailing of the Proxy Statement in connection with the Company Stockholders Meeting, the Stockholder Representative may be changed by written notice to Parent from the board of directors of the Company. At any time during the term of the Escrow Agreement, holders of a majority in interest of the Escrow Fund can appoint a new Stockholder Representative by written consent by sending notice and a copy of the written consent appointing such new Stockholder Representative signed by holders of a majority in interest of the Escrow Fund to Parent and the Escrow Agent. Such appointment will be effective upon the later of the date indicated in the consent or the date such consent is received by Parent or the Company and the Escrow Agent.

SECTION 6.5 Third-Party Claims.

(a) If an Indemnitee becomes aware of a third-party claim that the Indemnitee believes, in good faith, may result in an Indemnification Claim by it, the Indemnitee shall notify the Stockholder Representative in the event of claims pursuant to Section 6.2(a), or Parent, in the event of claim pursuant to Section 6.2(b) (each, an Indemnitee) of such claim, and the Indemnitor shall be entitled to participate in any defense at the sole cost and expense of the Indemnitor. If (i) the claim is primarily for non-monetary damages (other than penalties payable to a Governmental Entity), (ii) the claim relates to a dispute with any customer of the Company's business, (iii) the results of such claim would likely materially interfere with Parent's business or the Company's business, (iv) the Stockholders are not solely liable for any damages pursuant to the claim (the claims described in (i), (ii), (iii), and (iv) are collectively referred to as Buyer-Controlled Claims) or (v) the Stockholder Representative declines to defend such third-party claim pursuant to paragraph (b) hereof, then Parent or the Company, as applicable, shall conduct and control such defense, but shall not settle any such claim without the consent of the Stockholder Representative, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed; provided, however, that, if the consent of the Stockholder Representative is so obtained, such settlement of that portion of any such claim shall alone be determinative of the amount of the Indemnification Claim and neither the Stockholder Representative nor any other Stockholder shall have any power or authority to object under any provision of this Article VI to the amount of any demand by Parent or the Company for indemnification with respect to such settlement.

(b) For claims other than Buyer-Controlled Claims, and upon written notice to the Indemnitee within 10 days of the notice provided for in the first sentence of paragraph (a) above, the Indemnitor shall have the right to defend, with counsel reasonably satisfactory to Indemnitee, at the sole cost and expense of the Indemnitor, such third party claim by all appropriate proceedings, which proceedings will be vigorously and diligently prosecuted by the Stockholder Representative to a final conclusion or will be settled at the discretion of the Indemnitor (but only with the prior written consent of the Indemnitee, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed, but with it being agreed by the parties that the Indemnitor's inability to pay any portion of any settlement amount is a reasonable factor for which the Indemnitee may withhold such consent); provided, however, that, if the consent of the Indemnitee is so obtained, such settlement of that portion of any such claim shall alone be determinative of the amount of the Indemnification Claim and the Indemnitor shall not have any power or authority to object under any provision of this Article VI to the amount of any demand by the Indemnitee for indemnification with respect to such settlement. The Indemnitee shall be entitled to participate in (but not control) the defense of any such action, with its own counsel and at its own expense, and shall be entitled to any and all information or documentation relating to such defense.

SECTION 6.6 Exclusive Remedy.

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the Escrow Fund shall be the sole and exclusive remedy of the Parent Indemnitees from and after the Effective Time for any claims arising under this Agreement and shall constitute a cap and limitation on Parent Indemnitees' remedies under this Agreement, including any claims of breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement in this Agreement.

(b) If the Closing occurs, then the indemnification under this Article VI shall be the parties' sole and exclusive remedy, each against the other, for recoveries of monetary damages with respect to misrepresentations and breaches and failures to comply with or non-fulfillment of the representations and warranties, covenants and agreements in this Agreement (except for matters of fraud, and except for any claim by the Stockholders for a failure of Parent to pay the Merger Consideration).

SECTION 6.7 Waiver of Defenses.

To the maximum extent permitted by law, each indemnifying party waives (a) any claim or defense that the indemnity provided for herein or any other provision of any Transaction Document does not constitute an enforceable obligation of the indemnifying party as a matter of Applicable Law, provided that the foregoing shall not constitute a waiver of any claim or defense regarding the merits of any particular Indemnification Claim and (b) any immunity in respect of actions seeking to enforce any Transaction Document in accordance with its terms that it may now or hereafter be entitled to claim on grounds of sovereignty or an act of State.

SECTION 6.8 Treatment of Indemnity Payments.

To the extent permitted by applicable law, all indemnity payments made to Parent in the form of cash will be treated as a contribution by the indemnifying Stockholders to the capital of the Company immediately prior to the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, all indemnity payments made to Parent in the form of Parent Common Stock will be, and will be treated as, an adjustment to the Merger Consideration, and all indemnity payments made to Stockholder Indemnitees will be, and will be treated as, an adjustment to the Merger Consideration.

(d) HSR and Other Approvals/ Consents or Waivers.

(i) The waiting period (and any extension thereof) applicable to the consummation of the Merger under the HSR Act shall have expired or been terminated.

(ii) All authorizations, consents, orders, declarations or approvals of, or filings with, or terminations or expirations of waiting periods imposed by, any Governmental Entity, which the failure to obtain, make or occur would have the effect of, directly or indirectly, restraining, prohibiting or restricting the Merger or any of the transactions contemplated hereby or would have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect on Parent (assuming the Merger had taken place), shall have been obtained, shall have been made or shall have occurred.

(e) Registration Statement. The Registration Statement shall have been declared and continue to be effective in accordance with the provisions of the Securities Act. this Agreement required to be performed on or prior to the Effective Time, (ii) each of the representations and warranties of Parent and Acquisition Sub contained in this Agreement shall have been true and correct on and as of the date of this Agreement and on and as of Effective Time as if made as of such time (other than representations and warranties which address matters only as of a certain date other than the date hereof, which shall be true and correct as of such certain date), except that any inaccuracies in such representations and warranties will be disregarded if, after aggregating all inaccuracies of such representations and warranties as of the date of this Agreement and as of the Effective Time (without duplication), such inaccuracies do not constitute a Material Adverse Effect on Parent as of the Effective Time (it being understood that, for purposes of determining the accuracy of such representations and warranties, (i) all Material Adverse Effect qualifications and other materiality qualifications contained in such representations and warranties shall be disregarded). The Company shall have received certificates signed on behalf of each of Parent and Acquisition Sub by one of its officers to such effect.

(b) Escrow Agreement. Parent and Escrow Agent shall have executed and delivered the Escrow Agreement.

The obligations of Parent and Acquisition Sub to effect the Merger shall be subject to the satisfaction or written waiver by Parent at or prior to the Effective Time of each of the following additional conditions:

(a) Performance of Obligations; Representations and Warranties. (i) The Company shall have performed in all material respects each of its covenants and agreements contained in this Agreement required to be performed on or prior to the Effective Time, and (ii) each of the representations and warranties of the Company contained in this Agreement, as amended by the Company Disclosure Schedule, shall have been true and correct when made, and shall be true and correct on and as of the date of this Agreement and on and as of the Effective Time as if made as of such time (other than representations and warranties which address matters only as of a certain date other than the date hereof, which shall be true and correct as of such certain date), except that any inaccuracies in such representations and warranties (other than the representations and warranties contained in Section 3.5(b), which shall be true and correct in all material respects as of such date) will be disregarded if, after aggregating all inaccuracies of such representations and warranties as of the date of this Agreement and as of the Effective Time (without duplication), such inaccuracies do not constitute a Material Adverse Effect on the Company as of the Effective Time (it being understood that, for purposes of determining the accuracy of such representations and warranties, (i) all Material Adverse Effect qualifications and other materiality qualifications contained in such representations and warranties shall be disregarded). Parent shall have received a certificate signed on behalf of the Company by its Chief Executive Officer or its Chief Financial Officer to such effect.

(b) Consents. The Company shall have obtained the consent or approval of each person or Governmental Entity listed on Schedule 7.3(b), except as to which the failure to obtain such consents and approvals would not, in the reasonable opinion of Parent, individually or in the aggregate, have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company or Acquisition Sub or upon the consummation of the transactions contemplated in this Agreement.

(c) Escrow Agreement. The Company and Escrow Agent shall have executed and delivered the Escrow Agreement.

(d) Director and Officer Resignations. All of the directors of the Company and any officers thereof designated by Parent, shall have tendered their resignations in form and substance satisfactory to Parent.

ARTICLE VIII

TERMINATION, AMENDMENT AND WAIVER

SECTION 8.1 Termination.

This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Effective Time, whether before or after any approval of the matters presented in connection with the Merger by the stockholders of the Company:

(a) by mutual written consent of Parent and the Company;

(b) by either Parent or the Company if the other party shall have failed to comply in any material respect with any of its covenants or agreements contained in this Agreement required to be complied with prior to the date of such termination, which failure to comply has not been cured within fifteen (15) Business Days following receipt by such other party of written notice of such failure to comply;

(c) by Parent if (i) there has been a breach of a representation or warranty of the Company that gives rise to a failure of the fulfillment of a condition of Parent's and Acquisition Sub's obligations to effect the Merger pursuant to Section 7.3(a), which breach has not been cured within fifteen (15) Business Days following receipt by the breaching party of written notice of the breach; (ii) the Company's Board of Directors shall have submitted or recommended to the Stockholders a Superior Proposal; (iii) the Company's Board of Directors shall have withdrawn or modified in a manner adverse to Parent its approval or recommendation of this Agreement or the Merger; or (iv) the Company shall have willfully and deliberately breached its obligations under Section 4.2;

(d) by the Company if (i) there has been a breach of a representation or warranty of Parent or Acquisition Sub that gives rise to a failure of the fulfillment of a condition of the Company's obligations to effect the Merger pursuant to Section 7.2(a), which breach has not been cured within fifteen (15) Business Days following receipt by the breaching party of written notice of the breach, (ii) the Company receives a Superior Proposal and resolves to accept a Superior Proposal, but only if the Company has paid all amounts due to Parent pursuant to Section 8.2(b) or (iii) Parent's Board of Directors shall have withdrawn or modified in a manner adverse to the Company its approval or recommendation of the Share Issuance;

(e) by either Parent or the Company if: (i) the Merger has not been effected on or prior to the close of business on June 30, 2004; provided, however, that the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8.1(e) shall not be available to any party whose failure to fulfill any of its obligations contained in this Agreement has been the cause of, or resulted in, the failure of the Merger to have occurred on or prior to the aforesaid date; or (ii) any court or other Governmental Entity having jurisdiction over a party hereto shall have issued an order, decree or ruling or taken any other action (which order, decree, ruling or other action the parties shall have used their reasonable efforts to resist, resolve or lift, as applicable, subject to the provisions of Section 5.7) permanently enjoining, restraining or otherwise prohibiting the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and such order, decree, ruling or other action shall have become final and nonappealable;

(f) by either Parent or the Company if (i) the Company Stockholders Meeting (including any adjournments and postponements thereof) shall have been held and completed and the Company's stockholders shall have taken a final vote on a proposal to adopt this Agreement, and (ii) this Agreement shall not have been adopted at the Company Stockholders Meeting (and shall not have been adopted at any adjournment or postponement thereof) by the vote of the stockholders of the Company required by applicable law; provided, however, that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 8.1(f) shall not be available to the Company where the failure to obtain the Company stockholder approval shall have been caused by the action or failure to act of the Company and such or failure to act constitutes a material breach of this Agreement;

(g) by either Parent or the Company if (i) the Parent stockholders meeting (including any adjournments and postponements thereof) shall have been held and completed and Parent's stockholders shall have taken a final vote on a proposal to approve the Share Issuance, and (ii) this Share Issuance shall not have been approved at the Parent stockholders meeting (and shall not have been adopted at any adjournment or postponement thereof) by the vote of the stockholders of Parent required by applicable law; provided, however, that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 8.1(g) shall not be available to Parent where the failure to obtain the Parent stockholder approval shall have been caused by the action or failure to act of Parent and such action or failure to act constitutes a material breach of this Agreement.

SECTION 8.2 Effect of Termination.

(a) In the event of termination of this Agreement by either Parent or the Company, as provided in Section 8.1, this Agreement shall forthwith become void and there shall be no liability hereunder on the part of the Company, Parent or Acquisition Sub or their respective stockholders, officers or directors (except for any provisions in this Agreement that expressly provide for their survival of the termination of this Agreement, including, without limitation, the obligations to pay certain damages provided in this Section 8.2); provided, however, that nothing contained in this Section 8.2 shall relieve any party hereto from any liability for any willful breach of a representation or warranty contained in this Agreement or the willful breach of any covenant contained in this Agreement.

(b) If this Agreement is terminated

(A) by Parent pursuant to Section 8.1(c)(ii), 8.1(c)(iii) or 8.1(c)(iv),

(B) by Parent or the Company pursuant to Section 8.1(f), only if at the time of the Company Stockholders Meeting, a Third Party Acquisition proposal has been publicly disclosed and not withdrawn, or

(C) by the Company pursuant to Section 8.1(d)(ii), then the Company shall pay to Parent by wire transfer in immediately available funds two million dollars ($2,000,000) as a non-refundable fee within five (5) Business Days after the occurrence of the event described in Section 8.1 giving rise to such fee. It is specifically agreed that the amount to be paid pursuant to this Section 8.2(b) represents liquidated damages and not a penalty. The Company hereby waives any right to set-off or counterclaim against such amount.

(c) If (A) this Agreement is terminated and has resulted in a payment by the Company to Parent pursuant to Section 8.2(b), and (B) within fifteen (15) months thereafter, the Company consummates a Third Party Acquisition, then the Company shall pay to Parent by wire transfer in immediately available funds an additional one million dollars ($1,000,000) as a non-refundable fee within five (5) Business Days after the occurrence of the event described in clause (B) above. It is specifically agreed that the amount to be paid pursuant to this Section 8.2(c) represents liquidated damages and not a penalty. The Company hereby waives any right to set-off or counterclaim against such amount.

(d) If this Agreement is terminated by Parent or the Company pursuant to Section 8.1(f) in circumstances other than those described in Section 8.2(b)(B), then the Company shall pay to Parent by wire transfer in immediately available funds one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000) as a non-refundable fee within five (5) Business Days after the occurrence of the event described in Section 8.1(f) giving rise to such fee. It is specifically agreed that the amount to be paid pursuant to this Section 8.2(d) represents liquidated damages and not a penalty. The Company hereby waives any right to set-off or counterclaim against such amount.

(e) If this Agreement is terminated by Parent or the Company pursuant to Section 8.1(g), then Parent shall pay to the Company by wire transfer in immediately available funds one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000) as a non-refundable fee within five (5) Business Days after the occurrence of the event described in Section 8.1(g) giving rise to such fee. It is specifically agreed that the amount to be paid pursuant to this Section 8.2(e) represents liquidated damages and not a penalty. Parent hereby waives any right to set-off or counterclaim against such amount.

(f) If this Agreement is terminated by the Company pursuant to Section 8.1(d)(iii), then Parent shall pay to the Company by wire transfer in immediately available funds one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000) as a non-refundable fee within five (5) Business Days after the occurrence of the event described in Section 8.1(d)(iii) giving rise to such fee. It is specifically agreed that the amount to be paid pursuant to this Section 8.2(f) represents liquidated damages and not a penalty. Parent hereby waives any right to set-off or counterclaim against such amount.

(g) If this Agreement is terminated by Parent pursuant to Section 8.1(c)(i) as the result of a willful and deliberate breach by the Company and if (1) Parent is not then in material breach of any of its obligations under this Agreement, (2) the Company has received a Third Party Acquisition proposal and (3) within fifteen (15) months thereafter, the Company consummates a Third Party Acquisition, then, the Company shall pay to Parent by wire transfer in immediately available funds three million dollars ($3,000,000) as a non-refundable fee within five Business Days after the consummation of the Third Party Acquisition referred to in clause (3) of the immediately preceding sentence. It is specifically agreed that the amount to be paid pursuant to this Section 8.2(g) represents liquidated damages and not a penalty. The Company hereby waives any right to set-off or counterclaim against such amount.

(h) Upon the termination of this Agreement under circumstances in which the payments pursuant to Section 8.2(b), Section 8.2(d), Section 8.2(e), Section 8.2(f) or Section 8.2(g) become payable, in addition to any other remedies that the parties may have as a result of such termination, the non-terminating party shall reimburse the terminating party, upon submission of one or more statements therefore, accompanied by reasonable supporting documentation, for the amount of all documented costs, fees and expenses reasonably incurred by or on behalf of the terminating party in connection with this Agreement, the Merger and the consummation of all transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including filing fees, and fees payable to printers, legal counsel, brokers, finders, financial and other service providers) up to a maximum of four hundred thousand dollars ($400,000).

(i) Solely for purposes of this Section 8.2 Third Party Acquisition means the occurrence of any of the following events: (i) the acquisition of all equity interest of the Company by merger or otherwise by any person (which includes a person as such term is defined in Section 13(d)(3) of the Exchange Act) other than Parent, Acquisition Sub or any affiliate thereof (a Third Party); (ii) the acquisition by a Third Party of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company and its subsidiaries; or (iii) the acquisition by a Third Party of fifty percent (50%) or more of the outstanding Shares.

SECTION 8.3 Amendment.

This Agreement may not be amended other than by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties hereto, which such amendment may be made at any time before or after approval of the matters presented in connection with the Merger by the stockholders of the Company.

SECTION 8.4 Waiver.

At any time prior to the Effective Time, the parties hereto may (i) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other parties hereto, (ii) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained herein or in any document delivered pursuant hereto and (iii) waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained herein which may legally be waived. Any agreement on the part of a party hereto to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed on behalf of such party. No delay on the part of any party hereto in exercising any right, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any waiver on the part of any party hereto of any right, power or privilege hereunder operate as a waiver of any other right, power or privilege hereunder, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege hereunder. Unless otherwise provided, the rights and remedies herein provided are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies which the parties hereto may otherwise have at law or in equity. The failure of any party to this Agreement to assert any of its rights under this Agreement or otherwise shall not constitute a waiver of those rights. A party's waiver of a condition to Closing set forth in Sections 7.2 or 7.3 shall not operate as a waiver of any of such party's rights to indemnification pursuant to Article VI in connection with the breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement that resulted in the failure of such condition.

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF THE STOCKHOLDER

The Stockholder hereby represents and warrants to Parent as follows:

SECTION 2.1. Due Authorization, etc. The Stockholder has all requisite power and authority to execute, deliver and perform this Agreement, to appoint Acquisition Sub and Parent as its Proxy and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement, the appointment of Acquisition Sub and Parent as Stockholder's Proxy and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby have been duly authorized by all necessary action on the part of Stockholder. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by or on behalf of the Stockholder and constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of the Stockholder, enforceable against the Stockholder in accordance with its terms, except as enforcement may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium or other similar laws and except that the availability of equitable remedies, including specific performance, is subject to the discretion of the court before which any proceeding for such remedy may be brought. There is no beneficiary or holder of a voting trust certificate or other interest of any trust of which the Stockholder is trustee whose consent is required for the execution and delivery of this Agreement or the consummation by the Stockholder of the transactions contemplated hereby.

(a) The execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Stockholder does not, and the performance of this Agreement by the Stockholder will not, (i) conflict with or violate any trust agreement or other similar documents relating to any trust of which the Stockholder is trustee, (ii) to the Stockholder's knowledge, conflict with or violate any law applicable to the Stockholder or by which the Stockholder or any of the Stockholder's properties is bound or affected or (iii) result in any breach of or constitute a default (or an event that with notice or lapse of time or both would become a default) under, or give to others any rights of termination, acceleration or cancellation of, or result in the creation of a lien or encumbrance on any assets of the Stockholder, including, without limitation, such Stockholder's Owned Shares, pursuant to, any note, bond, mortgage, indenture, contract, agreement, lease, license, permit, franchise or other instrument or obligation to which the Stockholder is a party or by which the Stockholder or any of the Stockholder's assets is bound or affected, except, in the case of clauses (ii) and (iii), for any such breaches, defaults or other occurrences that would not prevent or delay the performance by such Stockholder of the Stockholder's obligations under this Agreement.

(b) The execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Stockholder does not, and the performance of this Agreement by the Stockholder will not, require any consent, approval, authorization or permit of, or filing with or notification to, any governmental or regulatory authority (other than any necessary filing under the HSR Act or approvals or consents required under applicable foreign antitrust or competition laws or the Exchange Act), domestic or foreign, except where the failure to obtain such consents, approvals, authorizations or permits, or to make such filings or notifications, would not prevent or delay the performance by the Stockholder of the Stockholder's obligations under this Agreement.

SECTION 2.3. Title to Shares. The Stockholder is the sole record and beneficial owner of its Owned Shares, free and clear of any pledge, lien, security interest, mortgage, charge, claim, equity, option, proxy, voting restriction, voting trust or agreement, understanding, arrangement, right of first refusal, limitation on disposition, adverse claim of ownership or use or encumbrance of any kind (Encumbrances), other than as set forth on Schedule 1.2 hereto and other than restrictions imposed by the securities laws or pursuant to this Agreement.

SECTION 2.4. Parent and Transaction Information. The Stockholder has such knowledge and experience in financial or business matters as to be able to evaluate the merits and risks of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and the related agreements. The Stockholder has had access to all of the Parent SEC Documents (as defined in the Merger Agreement).

ARTICLE III.

MISCELLANEOUS

SECTION 3.1. Definitions. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined in this Agreement have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Merger Agreement.

SECTION 3.2. Termination. This Agreement shall terminate and be of no further force and effect upon the earlier of (i) written mutual consent of the parties hereto, (ii) the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms, or (iii) automatically and without any required action of the parties hereto, the Effective Time (the earlier of (i), (ii) and (iii), the Termination Date). No such termination of this Agreement shall relieve any party hereto from any liability for any breach of this Agreement prior to termination.

SECTION 3.3. Further Assurance. From time to time, at the request of a party hereto and without consideration, each other party hereto shall execute and deliver such additional documents and take all such further action as may be necessary or desirable to consummate and make effective, in the most expeditious manner practicable, the transaction contemplated by this Agreement.

SECTION 3.4. Certain Events. The Stockholder agrees that this Agreement and the Stockholder's obligations hereunder shall attach to the Stockholder's Owned Shares and shall be binding upon any person or entity to which legal or beneficial ownership of such Owned Shares shall pass, whether by operation of law or otherwise, including, without limitation, the Stockholder's heirs, guardians, administrators, or successors. Notwithstanding any transfer of Owned Shares, the transferor shall remain liable for the performance of all its obligations under this Agreement.

SECTION 3.6. Specific Performance. The Stockholder acknowledges that if the Stockholder fails to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement immediate and irreparable harm or injury would be caused to Parent and Acquisition Sub for which money damages would not be an adequate remedy. In such event, the Stockholder agrees that each of Parent and Acquisition Sub shall have the right, in addition to any other rights it may have, to specific performance of this Agreement. Accordingly, if Parent or Acquisition Sub should institute an action or proceeding seeking specific enforcement of the provisions hereof, the Stockholder hereby waives the claim or defense that Parent or Acquisition Sub, as the case may be, has an adequate remedy at law and hereby agrees not to assert in any such action or proceeding the claim or defense that such a remedy at law exists. The Stockholder further agrees to waive any requirements for the securing or posting of any bond in connection with obtaining any such equitable relief.

Any agreement on the part of a party hereto to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only as against such party and only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed by such party. The failure of any party hereto to assert any of its rights under this Agreement or otherwise shall not constitute a waiver of those rights.

SECTION 3.16. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, and by the different parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which when executed shall be deemed to be an original but all of which shall constitute one and the same agreement.

Such initial Series B Conversion Price shall be subject to adjustment as hereinafter provided,

(ii) Each share of A Preferred shall be convertible, at the option of the holder thereof, at any time after the date of issuance of such share, at the office of the Corporation or any transfer agent for the A Preferred into such number of fully paid and nonassessable shares of Common Stock as is determined by multiplying each share of A Preferred by the quotient obtained by dividing $[] by the then applicable Series A Conversion Price (as defined below). (c) Mechanics of Conversion. No fractional shares of Common Stock shall be issued upon conversion of the Convertible Preferred Stock. All shares of Common Stock (including fractions thereof) issuable upon conversion of more than one share of Convertible Preferred Stock by a holder thereof shall be aggregated for the purposes of determining whether the conversion would result in the issuance of any fractional share. If, after the aforementioned aggregation, the conversion would result in the issuance of any fractional share, the Company shall, in lieu of issuing any fractional share, pay cash equal to the product of such fraction multiplied by the Common Stock's fair market value (as determined by the Board of Directors) on the date of conversion. Before any holder of Convertible Preferred Stock shall be entitled to convert the same into full shares of Common Stock and to receive certificates therefor, such holder shall surrender the certificate or certificates therefor, duly endorsed, at the office of the Corporation or of any transfer agent, and shall give written notice to the Corporation at such office that the holder elects to convert all or any number of shares of the Convertible Preferred Stock represented by such certificate or certificates; provided, however, that in the event of an automatic conversion pursuant to clause (b) of this Section 4, the outstanding shares of Convertible Preferred Stock shall be converted automatically without any further action by the holders of such shares and whether or not the certificates representing such shares are surrendered to the Corporation or its transfer agent; and provided, further, that in the case of a conversion under Sections 4(a) or 4(b), the Corporation shall not be obligated to issue certificates evidencing the shares of Common Stock issuable upon such automatic conversion unless the certificates evidencing such shares of Convertible Preferred Stock are either delivered to the Corporation or its transfer agent as provided above, or the holder notifies the Corporation or its transfer agent that such certificates have been lost, stolen or destroyed and executes an agreement satisfactory to the Corporation to indemnify the Corporation from any loss incurred by it in connection with such certificates. The Corporation shall, as soon as practicable after such delivery, or such agreement and indemnification in the case of a lost certificate, issue and deliver at the office of the Corporation or of any transfer agent, as the case may be, to such holder of Convertible Preferred Stock, a certificate or certificates for the number of shares of Common Stock to which such holder shall be entitled as aforesaid and a check payable to the holder in the amount of any cash amounts payable as the result of a conversion into a fractional share of Common Stock. Such conversion shall not terminate the rights of the holders of the Convertible Preferred Stock or the rights of the holders of the Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Convertible Preferred Stock to receive dividends which have been accrued but are unpaid with respect to the Convertible Preferred Stock as of the date of conversion. Except as provided above, such conversion shall be deemed to have been made immediately prior to the close of business on the date of such surrender of the shares of Convertible Preferred Stock to be converted, or in the case of automatic conversion pursuant to Section 4(b)(ii), immediately prior to the close of business on the date of closing of a Qualifying Public Offering, and the person or persons entitled to receive the shares of Common Stock issuable upon such conversion shall be treated for all purposes as the record holder or holders of such shares of Common Stock at the close of business on such date.

(d) Convertible Preferred Stock Conversion Price Adjustments. The Applicable Conversion Price shall be subject to adjustment upon the issuance of Additional Shares of Common Stock from time to time as follows:

(i) Special Definitions. For purposes of this Section 4(d), the following definitions shall apply:

(1) Option shall mean rights, options or warrants to subscribe for, purchase or otherwise acquire either Common Stock or Convertible Securities.

(J) in an amount not exceeding 7,621,852 shares of Series A Preferred.

(ii) No Adjustment of Applicable Conversion Price. No adjustment in the Applicable Conversion Price shall be made in respect of the issuance of Additional Shares of Common Stock unless the consideration per share for an Additional Share of Common Stock issued or deemed to be issued by the Corporation is less than the Applicable Conversion Price in effect on the date of and immediately prior to such issue.

(iii) Deemed Issue of Additional Shares of Common Stock. Except as provided in Section 4(d)(i)(4) above, in the event the Corporation at any time or from time to time after the Original Issue Date shall issue any Options or Convertible Securities or shall fix a record date for the determination of holders of any class of securities entitled to receive any such Options or Convertible Securities, then the maximum number of shares (as set forth in the instrument relating thereto without regard to any provisions contained therein for a subsequent adjustment of such number) of Common Stock issuable upon exercise of such Options or, in the case of Convertible Securities and Options therefor, upon the conversion or exchange of such Convertible Securities, shall be deemed to be Additional Shares of Common Stock issued as of the time of such issue or, in case such a record date shall have been fixed, as of the close of business on such record date, provided that Additional Shares of Common Stock shall not be deemed to have been issued unless the consideration per share (determined pursuant to Section 4(g)(v) below) of such Additional Shares of Common Stock would be less than the Applicable Conversion Price in effect on the date of and immediately prior to such issue, or such record date, as the case may be, and provided further that in any such case in which Additional Shares of Common Stock are deemed to be issued:

(1) no further adjustment in the Applicable Conversion Price shall be made upon the subsequent issue of Convertible Securities or shares of Common Stock upon the exercise of such Options or conversion or exchange of such Convertible Securities;

(2) if such Options or Convertible Securities by their terms provide, with the passage of time or otherwise, for any increase or decrease in the consideration payable to the Corporation, or increase or decrease in the number of shares of Common Stock issuable, upon the exercise, conversion or exchange hereof, the Applicable Conversion Price computed upon the initial Applicable Conversion Price thereof set forth in Section 4(a) above (or upon the occurrence of a record date with respect thereto), and any subsequent adjustments based thereon, shall, upon any such increase or decrease becoming effective, be recomputed to reflect such increase or decrease insofar as it affects such Options or the rights of Conversion or exchange under such Convertible Securities;

(3) on the expiration or cancellation of any Options or the termination of the right to convert or exchange any Convertible Securities which shall have not been exercised, if the Applicable Conversion Price shall have been adjusted upon the original issuance thereof or shall have been subsequently adjusted pursuant to clause (2) above, the Applicable Conversion Price shall be recomputed as if the only Additional Shares of Common Stock issued were shares of Common Stock, if any, actually issued upon the exercise of such Options or the conversion or exchange of such Convertible Securities and the consideration received therefore was the consideration actually received by the Corporation for the issue of all such Options, whether or not exercised, plus the consideration actually received by the Corporation upon such exercise, or for the issue of all such Convertible Securities which were actually converted or exchanged plus the consideration actually received by the Corporation upon such conversion or exchange, if any, and

(4) no readjustment pursuant to clause (2) or clause (3) above shall have the effect of increasing the Applicable Conversion Price to an amount which exceeds the lower of (i) the initial Applicable Conversion Price on the original adjustment date (unless the Applicable Conversion Price is increased above the initial Applicable Conversion Price pursuant to Section 4(e)(2) or (e)(4)), or (ii) the Applicable Conversion Price that would have resulted from any issuances of Additional Shares of Common Stock (other than those the subject of such adjustments) between the original adjustment date and such readjustment date; and

(iv) Adjustment of Applicable Conversion Price Upon Issuance of Additional Shares of Common Stock. In the event the Corporation at any time after filing this Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware shall issue Additional Shares of Common Stock (including Additional Shares of Cannon Stock deemed to be issue pursuant to Section 4(d)(iii), but excluding stock dividends, subdivisions or split ups that at the subject of adjustment pursuant to Section 4(e)) without consideration or for a consideration per share less than the Applicable Conversion Price applicable on and immediately prior to such issue, then and in such event.

(x) the Series B Conversion Price shall be reduced concurrently with such issue, to a price (calculated to the nearest ten-thousandth of a cent) equal to the aggregate consideration received by the Corporation for The total number of Additional Shares of Common Stock so issued divided by the number of such Additional Shares of Common Stock; and

(y) the Series A Conversion Price shall be reduced concurrently with such issue to a price (calculated to the nearest ten-thousandth of a cent) determined by multiplying the Series A Conversion Price in effect on the date of and immediately prior to such issue by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the sum of (i) the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to such issue (on a fully diluted as converted basis), including without limitation the number of share; of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Convertible Preferred Stock outstanding immediately prior to such issue and (ii) the number of shares of Common Stock which the aggregate consideration received by the Corporation for the total number of Additional Shares of Common Stock so issued would purchase at the Series A Conversion Price in effect on the date of and immediately prior to such issue; and the denominator of which shall be the sum of (i) the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to such issue (on a fully diluted as converted basis), including without limitation the number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Convertible Preferred Stock outstanding immediately prior to such issue and (ii) the number of such Additional Sham of Common Stock so issued.

(v) Determination of Consideration. For purposes of this Section 4(d), the consideration received by the Corporation for the issue of any Additional Shares of Common Stock shall be computed as follows:

(1) Cash and Property. Such consideration shall:

(A) insofar as it consists of cash, be computed at the aggregate net amount of cash received by the Corporation after deduction of any underwriting or similar commission, compensation or concessions by the Corporation;

(B) insofar as it consists of property other than cash, be computed at the fair value thereof at the time of such issue, as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors; and

(C) in the event Additional Shares of Common Stock are issued together with other shares or securities or other assets of the Corporation for consideration which covers both, be the proportion of such consideration so received, computed as provided in clauses (A) and (B) above, as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors.

(2) Options and Convertible Securities. The consideration per share received by the Corporation for Additional Shares of Common Stock deemed to have been issued, pursuant to Section 4(d)(iii), relating to Options and Convertible Securities, shall be determined by dividing:

(A) the total amount, if any, received or receivable by the Corporation as, consideration for the issue of such Options or Convertible Securities, plus the aggregate amount of additional consideration (as set forth in the instruments relating thereto, without regard to any provision contained therein for a subsequent adjustment of such consideration) payable to the Corporation upon the exercise of such Options or the conversion or exchange of such Convertible Securities, or in the case of Options for Convertible Securities, the exercise of such options for Convertible Securities and the conversion or exchange of such Convertible Securities by

(B) the maximum number of shares of Common Stock (as set forth in the instrument relating thereto, without regard to any provision contained therein for a subsequent adjustment of such number) issuable upon the exercise of such Options or the conversion or exchange of such Convertible Securities.

(e) Adjustment of Applicable Conversion Price. The Applicable Conversion Price shall be subject to adjustment from time to time as follows:

(1) Adjustments for Subdivision of Common Stock. If the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding at any time after filing this Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware is increased by a stock dividend payable in shares of Common Stock or by a subdivision or split-up of stock; then the Applicable Conversion Price then in effect shall, concurrently with the effectiveness of such dividend, subdivision or split-up, be proportionately decreased so that the number of shares of Common Stock issuable on conversion of each share of Convertible Preferred Stock shall be increased in proportion to such increase of outstanding shares of Common Stock.

(2) Adjustments for Combinations of Common Stock. If the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding at any time after filing this amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware is decreased by a combination of the outstanding shares of Common Stock, then the Applicable Conversion Prices then in effect shall, concurrently with the effectiveness of such combination, be proportionately increased so that the number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of each share of Convertible preferred Stock shall be decreased in proportion to such decrease in outstanding shares of Common Stock.

(3) Adjustments for Stock Dividends and other Distributions. In the event the Corporation at any time or from time to time makes or fixes a record date for the determination of holders of Common Stock entitled to receive any distribution (excluding any repurchases of securities by the Corporation not made on a pro rata basis from all holders of any class of the Corporation's securities) payable in property or in securities of the Corporation other than shares of Common Stock, then and in each such event the holders of Convertible Preferred Stock shall receive at the time of such distribution, the amount of property or the number of securities of the Corporation that they would have received had their Convertible Preferred Stock been converted into Common Stock on the date of such event.

(4) Adjustments for Reclassification, Exchange and Substitution. Except as provided in Section 2 upon a Liquidity Event, if the Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Convertible Preferred stock shall be changed into the same or a different number of shares of any other class or classes of stock, whether by capital reorganization, reclassification or otherwise (other than a subdivision or combination of shares provided for above), each share of Convertible preferred Stock shall thereafter be converted into, in lieu of the number of shares of Common Stock which the holders would otherwise have been entitled to receive, a number of shares of such other class or classes of stock equivalent to the number of shares of Common Stock that would have been subject to receipt by the holders upon conversion of the Convertible Preferred Stock immediately before that change. In addition, to the extent applicable in any reorganization or recapitalization, provision shall be made so that the holders of the Convertible Preferred Stock shall thereafter be entitled to receive upon conversion of the Convertible Preferred Stock the number of shares of stock or other securities or property of the Corporation or otherwise, to which a holder of common Stock deliverable upon conversion would have been entitled on such reorganization or recapitalization.

(f) Amendments to Certificate of Incorporation. The Corporation shall not amend its Certificate of Incorporation without the approval, by vote or written consent, by the holders of at least a majority in interest of each series of the Convertible Preferred Stock voting as a separate class, if such amendment would (x) amend, alter or change any of the rights, preferences, privileges or limitations provided for herein or in the by-laws of the Corporation for the benefit of any shares of such series of Convertible Preferred Stock, (y) increase or decrease (other than by redemption or conversion) the authorized number of share of such series of Convertible Preferred Stock or (z) create any new class of equity securities having rights, preferences or privileges senior to or a parity with the such series of Convertible Preferred Stock with respect to voting, dividends or liquidation preference.

(g) Certificate as to Adjustments. Upon the occurrence of each adjustment or readjustment of the applicable Conversion Price pursuant to Section 4(d), the Corporation at its expense shall promptly compute such adjustment or readjustment in accordance with the terms hereof and furnish to each holder of Convertible Preferred stock a certificate setting forth such adjustment or readjustment and showing in detail the facts upon which such adjustment or readjustment is based. The Corporation shall, upon the written request at any time of any holder of Convertible Preferred Stock, furnish or cause to be furnished to such holder a like certificate, executed by the Chief Financial Officer, setting forth (i) such adjustments and readjustments, (ii) the Applicable Conversion Price at the time in effect, and (iii) the number of shares of Common Stock and the amount, if any, of other property which at the time would be received upon the conversion of such Convertible Preferred Stock. No fractional shares of Common Stock shall be issued upon conversion of any Convertible Preferred Stock.

(h) Notices of Record Date. In the event that the Corporation shall propose at any time:

(i) to declare any dividend or distribution upon its Common Stock, whether in cash, property, stock or other securities, whether or not a regular cash dividend and whether or not out of earnings or earned surplus;

(ii) to offer for subscription pro rata to the holders of any class or series of its stock any additional shares of stock of any class or series or other rights;

(iii) to effect any reclassification, combination, subdivision or recapitalization of its Common Stock outstanding involving a change in the Common Stock; or

(iv) to merge or consolidate with or into any other corporation, or sell, lease or convey all or substantially all its property or business, or to liquidate, dissolve or wind up;

(2) the case of the matters referred to in (iii) and (iv) above, at least twenty (20) days prior written notice of the date when the same shall take place (and specifying the date on which the holders of Common Stock shall be entitled to exchange their Common Stock for securities or other property deliverable upon the occurrence of such event).

Each such written notice shall be delivered personally or given by first class mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the holders of Convertible Preferred Stock at the address for each such holder as shown on the books of the Corporation.

(d) Reservation of Shares. The Corporation shall reserve at all times so long as any shares of Convertible Preferred Stock remain outstanding, free from preemptive rights, out of its authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock solely for the purposes of effecting the conversion of the shares of Convertible Preferred Stock, sufficient shares of Common Stock to provide for the conversion of all outstanding share of Convertible Preferred Stock.

(e) Valid Issuance. All shares of Common Stock which may be issued upon conversion of the shares of Convertible Preferred Stock will upon issuance by the Corporation be duly and validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable and free from all taxes, liens and charges with respect to the issuance thereof and the Corporation shall take no action which will cause a contrary result.

SECTION 5 Voting. Except as may be otherwise provided in these terms of the Convertible Preferred Stock or by law, the Convertible Preferred Stock shall vote together with all other classes and series of voting stock of the Corporation as a single class on all actions to be taken by the stockholders of the Corporation. The Escrow Fund will be held and distributed by the Escrow Agent in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement. The number of Escrow Shares representing each Stockholder's Pro Rata Portion are set forth in Exhibit B.

1.3 Dividend and Voting Rights. Any cash dividends or other distributions declared and paid on the Escrow Shares shall be paid by Parent to the Stockholders on behalf of whom such Escrow Shares have been transferred into the Escrow Fund; provided, however, that any securities distributed in respect of such Escrow Shares as a result of any stock split, reclassification, subdivision, or combination of shares of Parent Common Stock, payment of a stock dividend or other stock distribution in shares of Parent Common Stock, or change of shares of Parent Common Stock into any other securities of Parent or any other entity or as part of a merger, consolidation, acquisition of property or stock, separation, reorganization, or liquidation of Parent, or otherwise, (i) shall be transferred into the Escrow Fund, (ii) shall be held by the Escrow Agent as a portion of the Escrow Shares that is available to cover Losses of the Indemnified Parties as provided in this Agreement and the Merger Agreement, and (iii) shall be distributed in accordance with Section 3 hereof. Each Stockholder shall have voting rights with respect to such Stockholder's Escrow Shares.

1.4 Term of Escrow. The term of the escrow governed hereby (the Escrow) shall commence on the date hereof and end as of 5:00 p.m., California time, on that date which is the same date of the month as the Closing Date in the month which is the three-year anniversary of the Closing Date.

1.5 Election to Sell Shares. At any time after the date hereof, the Stockholder Representative may direct the sale of some or all of the Escrow Shares. If the Stockholder Representative elects to sell any of the Escrow Shares in one or more transactions, he shall (i) instruct the Escrow Agent to sell the Escrow Shares specifying the number of Escrow Shares to be sold, and (ii) instruct the Escrow Agent as to any limitations on the price at which such Escrow Shares are to be sold and any limitations on the brokerage and other fees incurred in connection with the sale of such Escrow Shares. The Escrow Agent shall cause the sale of the Escrow Shares strictly in accordance with the written instructions of the Stockholder Representative; provided, however, that (i) no more than 25,000 of the Escrow Shares may be sold per week and (ii) each of the Escrow Shares must be sold for a price of at least $11.00 per share. The proceeds received from such sale of Escrow Shares (together with any interest thereon) shall be deposited into the Escrow Fund and shall be available to satisfy any Claimed Amount with respect to which an Indemnified Party may be entitled to indemnification under the Merger Agreement. For purposes hereof, all consideration received from such sale of Escrow Shares (together with any interest thereon) shall be referred to herein collectively as Escrow Cash.

1.6 Investment of Escrow Fund. The Escrow Agent shall invest and reinvest all Escrow Cash held from time to time as part of the Escrow Fund, in its discretion, in any of the following kinds of investments, or in any combination thereof: (i) bonds or other obligations of, or guaranteed by, the government of the United States of America or any State thereof or the District of Columbia, or agencies of any of the foregoing, having maturities of not greater than six (6) months after the date of acquisition thereof; (ii) commercial paper rated, at the time of the Escrow Agent's investment therein or contractual commitment providing for such investment, at least P-1 by Moody's Investors Service, Inc. and A-1 by Standard & Poor's Corporation and having maturities of not greater than six (6) months after the date of acquisition thereof; (iii) corporate obligations rated, at the time of the Escrow Agent's investment therein or contractual commitment providing for such investment, AA or higher by any nationally recognized statistical ratings organization and having maturities of not greater than six (6) months after the date of acquisition thereof; (iv) demand or time deposits in, certificates of deposit of or bankers' acceptances issued by (A) a depository institution or trust company incorporated under the laws of the United States of America, any State thereof or the District of Columbia or (B) a United States branch office or agency of a foreign depository institution or trust company if, in any such case, the depository institution, trust company or office or agency has combined capital and surplus of not less than five hundred million dollars ($500,000,000) (any such institution being herein called a Permitted Bank) having maturities of not greater than six (6) months after the date of acquisition thereof; (v) repurchase obligations of a Permitted Bank or securities dealer (acting as principal) meeting the capital and surplus requirements specified for a Permitted Bank with respect to any bond or other obligation referred to in clause (i) above; or (vi) such other investments as the Stockholder Representative shall approve in writing.

1.7 Escrow Agent's Power to Transfer. The Escrow Agent is hereby granted the power to effect any transfer of the Escrow Cash or the Escrow Shares permitted under the terms of this Agreement.

2. Claims Against the Escrow.

2.1 Indemnity Claims.

(a) Any Indemnified Party seeking indemnification, damages or any other recovery whatsoever from the Escrow Fund with respect to any Indemnity Claim shall comply with the provisions of Article VI of the Merger Agreement and deliver an Indemnity Claim Notice, on or prior to the Claims Expiration Date, to the Escrow Agent and the Stockholder Representative.

(b) Each Indemnity Claim Notice shall state the Claimed Amount and in reasonable detail the basis for such claim. The Indemnified Party's right to indemnification under this Agreement shall not be prejudiced by the failure of the Indemnified Party to accurately estimate or to state the Claimed Amount or portion thereof.

(c) Within twenty (20) business days after receipt of an Indemnity Claim Notice, the Stockholder Representative shall furnish a Response Notice to the Indemnified Party, with a copy to the Escrow Agent. If no Response Notice is delivered by the end of such twenty (20) business day period, the Stockholder Representative shall be deemed to have agreed that all of the Claimed Amount (or such lesser amount as is then held in the Escrow Fund) shall be released to the Indemnified Party from the Escrow Fund.

(d) If the Stockholder Representative agrees in a Response Notice, or is deemed to have agreed pursuant to Section 2.1(c) by not submitting a Response Notice, that all of the Claimed Amount shall be released from the Escrow Fund to the Indemnified Party, the Escrow Agent, promptly following the earlier of the time of delivery of the Response Notice or the expiration of the twenty (20) business day period referred to in Section 2.1(c), will disburse to the Indemnified Party from the Escrow Fund an amount equal to the Claimed Amount (or such lesser amount as is then held in the Escrow Fund). Any Claimed Amount paid pursuant to this Section 2.1(d) shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims included in the Claim Notice related to such Claimed Amount.

(e) After delivery of a Response Notice identifying a Contested Amount, the Escrow Agent will continue to hold in the Escrow Fund an amount sufficient to cover the Contested Amount (up to the amount then available in the Escrow Fund), notwithstanding the occurrence of the Claims Expiration Date, until delivery of a Payment Notice instructing the Escrow Agent as to the disbursements, if any, that shall be made with respect to the Contested Amount. The Escrow Agent thereupon will disburse amounts from the Escrow Fund (to the extent such amounts are then held in the Escrow Fund) to the Indemnified Party in accordance with such Payment Notice.

2.2 Working Capital Adjustment. To the extent any payment is due to Parent as a Working Capital Adjustment pursuant to Section 1.9(d) after determination of the Final Working Capital (as such terms are defined in the Merger Agreement), Parent shall deliver written notice thereof (a Working Capital Adjustment Notice) to the Escrow Agent and the Stockholder Representative. The Escrow Agent thereupon will disburse amounts from the Escrow Fund (to the extent such amounts are then held in the Escrow Fund) to Parent in accordance with such Working Capital Adjustment Notice.

3. Disbursements.

3.1 Sole and Exclusive Remedy. The Escrow Fund shall be used as the sole and exclusive source of payment for the payment of any indemnification rights to which the Indemnified Parties may be entitled under Article VI of the Merger Agreement, and for the payment of any obligation arising out of the Working Capital Adjustment in Section 1.9(d) of the Merger Agreement.

3.2 Procedure for Release of Shares to Parent. In the event that any Claimed Amount hereunder is paid with Escrow Shares, rather than with Escrow Cash, the number of shares to be released to Parent from the Escrow Fund in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement will be equal to the dollar amount specified in the Claim Notice if the notice is not contested, the Agreed Amount if a portion of a Claimed Amount is not contested, or the amount specified in a Payment Notice, in each case divided by the Average Parent Share Price (as defined in the Merger Agreement) as of the applicable payment date. Any distribution referred to in this Section 3.2 in satisfaction of any Indemnity Claim or the Working Capital Adjustment as set forth in Section 1.9(d) of the Merger Agreement will be deducted pro rata from the Pro Rata portion of the Escrow Shares beneficially owned by each Stockholder as shown on Exhibit B.

3.3 Release of Escrow Funds

(a) At the fifteen-month anniversary of the Closing Date (the Fifteenth-Month Release Date), all shares of Parent Common Stock and/or all Escrow Cash, shall be distributed to the Stockholders of Company in accordance with their Pro Rata Portion, except for, at the election of the Stockholder Representative either (i) that number of shares of Parent Common Stock in the Escrow Fund equal to the quotient of (A) $2,000,000 and (B) the Average Parent Share Price as of the Fifteenth-Month Release Date or (ii) an amount of Escrow Cash equal to $2,000,000.; it being expressly understood that if the aggregate value of the remaining shares of Parent Common Stock and/or Escrow Cash held in Escrow at the Fifteenth-Month Release Date is less than $2,000,000, then all such remaining shares of Parent Common Stock and/or Escrow Cash shall remain in Escrow.

(b) At the two-year anniversary of the Closing Date, all shares of Parent Common Stock and/or Escrow Cash remaining in Escrow shall be distributed to the Stockholders of the Company in accordance with their Pro Rata Portion.

4. Nature of Duties. The duties of the Escrow Agent hereunder are only such as are specifically set forth in this Escrow Agreement, such duties being purely ministerial in nature, and the Escrow Agent shall not become liable in any way or to any person for its compliance with its obligations under this Agreement, except as a result of its own negligence or willful misconduct. In the event of any disagreement between or among any of the parties to this Agreement, or between or among them or either or any of them and any other person, resulting in adverse claims or demands being made in connection with the funds held in the Escrow, or in the event that the Escrow Agent, in good faith, shall be in doubt as to what action it should take hereunder, the Escrow Agent may, at its option, refuse to comply with any claims or demands on it, or refuse to take any other action hereunder, so long as such disagreement continues or such doubt exists, and in any such event, the Escrow Agent shall not become liable in any way or to any person for its failure or refusal to act, and the Escrow Agent shall be entitled to continue so to refrain from acting until it shall have received instructions in writing concurred in by the Stockholders Representative and Parent, whereupon it shall make disposition in accordance with such instructions or such determination. The Escrow Agent shall have the option, after 30 days notice to the other parties of its intention to do so, to file an action in interpleader requiring the parties to answer and arbitrate any claims and rights among themselves following the procedures set forth in the Merger Agreement. The rights of the Escrow Agent under this Section 4 are cumulative of all other rights which it may have by law or otherwise.

5. Understanding. It is understood and agreed that:

(a) The Escrow Agent shall neither be responsible for or under, nor chargeable with knowledge of, the terms and conditions of any other agreement, instrument or document executed between or among the parties hereto, except as may be specifically provided herein. This Agreement sets forth all of the obligations of the Escrow Agent, and no additional obligations shall be implied from the terms of this Agreement or any other agreement, instrument or document.

(b) The Escrow Agent may act in reliance upon any instructions, notice, certification, demand, consent, authorization, receipt, power of attorney or other writing delivered to it by any party without being required to determine the authenticity or validity thereof or the correctness of any fact stated therein, the propriety or validity of the service thereof or the jurisdiction of the court issuing any judgment or order. The Escrow Agent may act in reliance upon any signature believed by it to be genuine and may assume that such person has been properly authorized to do so.

(c) The Escrow Agent may consult with legal counsel of its selection in the event of any dispute or question as to the meaning or construction of any of the provisions hereof or its duties hereunder and it shall incur no liability and shall be fully protected in acting in accordance with the opinion and instructions of any such counsel. Each of the parties, jointly and severally, agrees to reimburse the Escrow Agent on demand for such reasonable legal fees, disbursements and expenses.

(d) The Escrow Agent shall be under no duty to give the property held in the Escrow Fund by it hereunder any greater degree of care than it gives its own similar property.

6. Compensation and Indemnity. The Escrow Agent shall receive as compensation for the performance of its duties as such hereunder an amount equal to []. Parent shall pay such fee as of the date hereof.

7. Expenses. All expenses reasonably incurred by the Escrow Agent in connection with the performance of its duties as such hereunder shall be paid by Parent. Such expenses shall be reimbursed upon written request therefor by the Escrow Agent. All expenses of the Stockholder Representative reasonably incurred in connection with this Agreement shall be paid out of the Escrow Fund on a monthly basis.

8. Termination and Resignation of Escrow Agent. The Escrow Agent may be removed with or without cause, by written notice to the Escrow Agent from the Stockholder Representative. The Escrow Agent may, in its sole discretion, resign and terminate its position hereunder at any time following 60 days written notice to the Stockholder Representative. Any such resignation shall terminate all obligations and duties of the Escrow Agent hereunder. On the effective date of such resignation, the Escrow Agent shall deliver this Agreement together with the Funds and any and all related instruments or document to any successor escrow agent reasonably agreeable to the Stockholders Representative, subject to this Agreement. If a successor escrow agent has not been appointed prior to the expiration of 60 days following the date of the notice of such resignation, the then acting Escrow Agent may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor escrow agent, or other appropriate relief. Any such resulting appointment shall be binding upon all of the parties to this Agreement.

The right of each Stockholder to include any of its Registrable Securities in such Registration Statement shall be conditioned upon such Stockholder's participation in such Underwritten Offering and the inclusion of such Stockholder's Registrable Securities in the Underwritten Offering to the extent provided herein. All Stockholders proposing to distribute Registrable Securities through such Underwritten Offering shall enter into an underwriting agreement in customary form with the underwriter or underwriters selected for such underwriting by Parent. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, if the managing underwriter determines in good faith, and so advises Parent in writing, that, in its opinion, marketing factors require a limitation of the number of shares to be underwritten, the number of shares that the underwriter believes may be included in the Underwritten Offering without jeopardizing the success of such Underwritten Offering shall be allocated, first, to Parent; second, to the Stockholders on a pro rata basis based on the number of Registrable Securities held by each such Stockholder; and third, to any stockholder of Parent (other than a Stockholder) on a pro rata basis. In no event will shares of any other selling stockholder be included in any Registration Statement which would reduce the number of shares which may be included by the Stockholders without the written consent of the holders of at least sixty-six percent (66%) of the Registrable Securities to be included in such registration.

(b) Parent shall pay all Registration Expenses in connection with the registration of the Registrable Securities pursuant to this Agreement. Each Stockholder participating in a registration pursuant to this Section 2 shall bear such Stockholder's proportionate share (based on the total number of Registrable Securities sold in such registration) of all discounts and commissions payable to underwriters or brokers and all transfer taxes in connection with a registration of Registrable Securities pursuant to this Agreement and any other expense of Stockholders not specifically allocated to Parent pursuant to this Agreement relating to the sale or disposition of such Stockholder's Registrable Securities pursuant to any Registration Statement.

(c) Parent shall have the right to terminate or withdraw any registration initiated by it under this Section 2 prior to the effectiveness of such registration whether or not any Stockholder has elected to include Registrable Securities in such registration. In such an event, the Registration Expenses of such withdrawn registration shall be borne by Parent in accordance with Section 2(b) hereof.

3. Registration Procedures.

In connection with the obligations of Parent with respect to any registration pursuant to this Agreement, Parent shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to effect or cause to be effected the registration of the Registrable Securities under the Securities Act to permit the resale of such Registrable Securities by the Stockholder or Stockholders in the Underwritten Offering (provided that the decision of whether to initiate, terminate or withdraw any registration under this Agreement shall be in the sole discretion of Parent) and Parent shall:

(a) cause any Registration Statement on Form S-3 (or any successor or other form of Registration Statement under the Securities Act) prepared and filed by Parent to comply as to form in all material respects with the requirements of the applicable form and include all financial statements required by the Commission to be filed therewith;

(b) (i) prepare and file with the Commission such amendments and post-effective amendments to each such Registration Statement (A) as may be necessary to keep such Registration Statement effective through completion of the Underwritten Offering, and (B) as is required under the Securities Act or the rules and regulations thereunder in connection with the distribution of the Registrable Securities by the Stockholders and (ii) cause each Prospectus contained therein to be supplemented by any required Prospectus supplement, and as so supplemented to be filed pursuant to Rule 424 or any similar rule that may be adopted under the Securities Act;

(c) furnish to each Stockholder such number of copies of each Prospectus as such Stockholders may reasonably request, including each preliminary Prospectus, and any amendment or supplement thereto and such other documents, in order to facilitate the public sale or other disposition of the Registrable Shares; Parent consents to the use of such Prospectus, including each preliminary Prospectus, by the Stockholders, if any, in connection with the offering and sale of the Registrable Shares covered by any such Prospectus;

(d) notify each Stockholder with Registrable Securities covered by a Registration Statement promptly and, if requested by any such Stockholder, confirm such advice in writing (i) when such Registration Statement has become effective and when any post-effective amendments and supplements thereto become effective, (ii) of the issuance by the Commission or any state securities authority of any stop order suspending the effectiveness of such Registration Statement or the initiation of any proceedings for that purpose and (iii) of any request by the Commission or any other federal or state governmental authority for amendments or supplements to such Registration Statement or related Prospectus or for additional information;

(e) use its best efforts to register or qualify the securities covered by such Registration Statement under such state securities or blue sky laws of such jurisdictions as such participating Stockholders may reasonably request within ten (10) days prior to the original filing of such Registration Statement; and

(f) prepare and file in a timely manner all documents and reports required by the Exchange Act.

Parent may require the Stockholders to furnish to Parent such information regarding the proposed distribution by such Stockholder as Parent may from time to time reasonably request in writing or as shall be required to effect the registration of the Registrable Securities and no Stockholder shall be entitled to be named as a selling stockholder in any Registration Statement and no Stockholder shall be entitled to use the Prospectus forming a part thereof if such Stockholder does not provide such information to Parent. Each Stockholder further agrees to furnish promptly to Parent in writing all information required from time to time to make the information previously furnished by such Stockholder not misleading.

Each Stockholder agrees that, upon receipt of any notice from Parent of the happening of any event of the kind described in Section 3(d)(iii), such Stockholder will immediately discontinue disposition of Registrable Securities pursuant to a Registration Statement until such Stockholder's receipt of the copies of the supplemented or amended Prospectus. If so directed by Parent, such Stockholder will deliver to Parent (at the reasonable expense of Parent) all copies in its possession, other than permanent file copies then in such Stockholder's possession, of the Prospectus covering such Registrable Securities current at the time of receipt of such notice.

4. Black-Out Period.

(a) Subject to the provisions of this Section 4 and a good faith determination by a majority of the Board of Directors of Parent, upon recommendation of counsel, that it is in the best interests of Parent to suspend the use of the Registration Statement, following the effectiveness of a Registration Statement (and the filings with any international, federal or state securities commissions), Parent, by written notice to the Stockholders, may direct the Stockholders to suspend sales of the Shares pursuant to a Registration Statement for such times as Parent reasonably may determine, upon recommendation of counsel, is necessary and advisable (but in no event for more than an aggregate of ninety (90) days in any twelve (12)-month period commencing on the Closing Date), if pending negotiations relating to, or the consummation of, a transaction or the occurrence of an event (x) that would require additional disclosure of material information by Parent in the Registration Statement (or such filings) and which has not been so disclosed, (y) as to which Parent has a bona fide business purpose for preserving confidentiality, or (z) that renders Parent unable to comply with Commission requirements, in each case under circumstances that would make it impractical or inadvisable to promptly amend or supplement the Registration Statement on a post-effective basis, as applicable. Upon the occurrence of any such suspension, Parent shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to promptly amend or supplement the Registration Statement on a post-effective basis or to take such action as is necessary to make resumed use of the Registration Statement compatible with Parent's best interests, as applicable, so as to permit the Stockholders to resume sales of the Shares as soon as possible.

(b) In the case of an event that causes Parent to suspend the effectiveness of a Registration Statement (a Suspension Event), Parent shall give written notice (a Suspension Notice) to the Stockholders to suspend sales of the Shares and such notice shall state that such suspension shall continue only for so long as the Suspension Event or its effect is continuing and Parent is taking all reasonable steps to terminate suspension of the effectiveness of the Registration Statement as promptly as possible. The Stockholders shall not effect any sales of the Shares pursuant to such Registration Statement (or such filings) at any time after it has received a Suspension Notice from Parent and prior to receipt of an End of Suspension Notice (as defined below). If so directed by Parent, each Stockholder will deliver to Parent all copies other than permanent file copies then in such Stockholder's possession of the Prospectus covering the Shares at the time of receipt of the Suspension Notice. The Stockholders may recommence effecting sales of the Shares pursuant to the Registration Statement (or such filings) including such Shares following further notice to such effect (an End of Suspension Notice) from Parent, which End of Suspension Notice shall be given by Parent to the Stockholders in the manner described above promptly following the conclusion of any Suspension Event and its effect.

5. Indemnification and Contribution.

(a) Parent agrees to indemnify and hold harmless (i) each Stockholder, (ii) each Person, if any, who controls (within the meaning of Section 15 of the Securities Act or Section 20(a) of the Exchange Act), any of the foregoing (any of the Persons referred to in this clause (ii) being hereinafter referred to as a Controlling Person), and (iii) the respective officers, directors, partners, employees, representatives and agents of each Stockholder or any Controlling Person (any Person referred to in clause (i), (ii) or (iii) may hereinafter be referred to as an Purchaser Indemnitee) from and against any and all losses, claims, damages, judgments, actions, reasonable out-of-pocket expenses, and other liabilities (the Liabilities), including, without limitation and as incurred, reimbursement of all reasonable costs of investigating, preparing, pursuing or defending any claim or action, or any investigation or proceeding by any governmental agency or body, commenced or threatened, including the reasonable fees and expenses of outside counsel to any Purchaser Indemnitee, joint or several, directly or indirectly related to, based upon, arising out of or in connection with any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in any Registration Statement or Prospectus (as amended or supplemented), or any preliminary Prospectus or any other document prepared by Parent used to sell the Registrable Securities, or any omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, except insofar as such Liabilities arise out of or are based upon (i) any untrue statement or omission or alleged untrue statement or omission made in reliance upon and in conformity with information relating to any Purchaser Indemnitee furnished to Parent or any underwriter in writing by such Purchaser Indemnitee expressly for use therein, or (ii) any untrue statement contained in or omission from a preliminary Prospectus if a copy of the Prospectus (as then amended or supplemented) was not sent or given by or on behalf of such Stockholder to the Person asserting any such Liabilities who purchased Shares, if such Prospectus (or Prospectus as amended or supplemented) is required by law to be sent or given at or prior to the written confirmation of the sale of such Shares to such Person and the untrue statement contained in or omission from such preliminary Prospectus was corrected in the Prospectus (or the Prospectus as amended or supplemented). Any indemnity payment made by Parent to Stockholders pursuant to this Agreement shall be made in shares of Parent Common Stock valued at the Average Parent Share Price (as defined in the Merger Agreement) on the date of such payment if the payment of cash could prevent the Merger from qualifying as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code. The indemnity provided for herein shall remain in full force and effect regardless of any investigation made by or on behalf of any Purchaser Indemnitee.

(b) In connection with any Registration Statement in which a Stockholder is participating, such Stockholder agrees, severally and not jointly, to indemnify and hold harmless Parent, each Person who controls Parent within the meaning of Section 15 of the Securities Act or Section 20(a) of the Exchange Act and the respective partners, directors, officers, members, representatives, employees and agents of such Person or Controlling Person to the same extent as the foregoing indemnity from Parent to each Purchaser Indemnitee, but only with reference to untrue statements or omissions or alleged untrue statements or omissions made in reliance upon and in strict conformity with information relating to such Purchaser Indemnitee furnished to Parent in writing by such Purchaser Indemnitee expressly for use in any Registration Statement or Prospectus, any amendment or supplement thereto, or any preliminary Prospectus. The liability of any Purchaser Indemnitee pursuant to this paragraph shall in no event exceed the net proceeds received by such Purchaser Indemnitee from sales of Registrable Securities giving rise to such obligations.

(c) If any suit, action, proceeding (including any governmental or regulatory investigation), claim or demand shall be brought or asserted against any Person in respect of which indemnity may be sought pursuant to paragraph (a) or (b) above, such Person (the Indemnified Party), shall promptly notify the Person against whom such indemnity may be sought (the Indemnifying Party), in writing of the commencement thereof (but the failure to so notify an Indemnifying Party shall not relieve it from any liability which it may have under this Section 5, except to the extent the Indemnifying Party is materially prejudiced by the failure to give notice), and the Indemnifying Party, upon request of the Indemnified

Party, shall retain counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnified Party to represent the Indemnified Party and any others the Indemnifying Party may reasonably designate in such proceeding and shall assume the defense of such proceeding and pay the reasonable fees and expenses actually incurred by such counsel related to such proceeding. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in any such proceeding, any Indemnified Party shall have the right to retain its own counsel, but the fees and expenses of such counsel shall be at the expense of such Indemnified Party, unless (i) the Indemnifying Party and the Indemnified Party shall have mutually agreed in writing to the contrary, (ii) the Indemnifying Party failed within a reasonable time after notice of commencement of the action to assume the defense and employ counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnified Party, (iii) the Indemnifying Party and its counsel do not pursue in a reasonable manner the defense of such action or (iv) the named parties to any such action (including any impleaded parties), include both such Indemnified Party and the Indemnifying Party, or any affiliate of the Indemnifying Party, and such Indemnified Party shall have been reasonably advised by counsel that, either (x) there may be one or more legal defenses available to it which are different from or additional to those available to the Indemnifying Party or such affiliate of the Indemnifying Party or (y) a conflict may exist between such Indemnified Party and the Indemnifying Party or such affiliate of the Indemnifying Party, then the Indemnifying Party shall not have the right to assume nor direct the defense of such action on behalf of such Indemnified Party, it being understood, however, that the Indemnifying Party shall not, in connection with any one such action or separate but substantially similar or related actions arising out of the same general allegations or circumstances, be liable for the fees and expenses of more than one (1) separate firm of attorneys (in addition to any local counsel), for all such Indemnified Parties, which firm shall be designated in writing by those Indemnified Parties who sold a majority of the Registrable Securities sold by all such indemnified parties and any such separate firm for Parent, the directors, the officers and such control Persons of Parent as shall be designated in writing by Parent. The Indemnifying Party shall not be liable for any settlement of any proceeding effected without its written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed, but if settled with such consent or if there be a final judgment for the plaintiff, the Indemnifying Party agrees to indemnify any Indemnified Party from and against any loss or liability by reason of such settlement or judgment. No Indemnifying Party shall, without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party, effect any settlement of any pending or threatened proceeding in respect of which any Indemnified Party is or could have been a party and indemnity could have been sought hereunder by such Indemnified Party, unless such settlement includes an unconditional release of such Indemnified Party from all liability on claims that are the subject matter of such proceeding.

(d) If the indemnification provided for in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this Section 5 is for any reason held to be unavailable to an Indemnified Party in respect of any Liabilities referred to therein (other than by reason of the exceptions provided therein) or is insufficient to hold harmless a party indemnified thereunder, then each Indemnifying Party under such paragraphs, in lieu of indemnifying such Indemnified Party thereunder, shall contribute to the amount paid or payable by such Indemnified Party as a result of such Liabilities (i) in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative benefits of the Indemnified Party on the one hand and the Indemnifying Parties on the other in connection with the statements or omissions that resulted in such Liabilities, or (ii) if the allocation provided by clause (i) above is not permitted by applicable law, in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect not only the relative benefits referred to in clause (i) above but also the relative fault of the Indemnifying Parties and the Indemnified Party, as well as any other relevant equitable considerations. The relative fault of Parent, on the one hand, and any Purchaser Indemnitees, on the other, shall be determined by reference to, among other things, whether the untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact or the omission or alleged omission to state a material fact relates to information supplied by Parent or by such Purchaser Indemnitees and the parties' relative intent, knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent such statement or omission.

(e) The parties agree that it would not be just and equitable if contribution pursuant to this Section 5 were determined by pro rata allocation (even if such indemnified parties were treated as one entity for such purpose), or by any other method of allocation that does not take account of the equitable considerations referred to in paragraph 5(d) above. The amount paid or payable by an Indemnified Party as a result of any Liabilities referred to paragraph 5(d) shall be deemed to include, subject to the limitations set forth above, any reasonable legal or other expenses actually incurred by such Indemnified Party in connection with investigating or defending any such action or claim. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section 5, in no event shall a Purchaser Indemnitee be required to contribute any amount in excess of the amount by which proceeds received by such Purchaser Indemnitee from sales of Registrable Securities exceeds the amount of any damages that such Purchaser Indemnitee has otherwise been required to pay by reason of such untrue or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission. For purposes of this Section 5, each Person, if any, who controls (within the meaning of Section 15 of the Act or Section 20(a) of the Exchange Act) a Stockholder shall have the same rights to contribution as such Stockholder, as the case may be, and each Person, if any, who controls (within the meaning of Section 15 of the Act or Section 20(a) of the Exchange Act) Parent, and each officer, director, partner, employee, representative, agent or manager of Parent shall have the same rights to contribution as Parent. Any party entitled to contribution will, promptly after receipt of notice of commencement of any action, suit or proceeding against such party in respect of which a claim for contribution may be made against another party or parties, notify each party or parties from whom contribution may be sought, but the omission to so notify such party or parties shall not relieve the party or parties from whom contribution may be sought from any obligation it or they may have under this Section 5 or otherwise, except to the extent that any party is materially prejudiced by the failure to give notice. No Person guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation (within the meaning of Section 11(f) of the Securities Act), shall be entitled to contribution from any Person who was not guilty of such fraudulent misrepresentation.

(f) The indemnity and contribution agreements contained in this Section 5 will be in addition to any liability which the Indemnifying Parties may otherwise have to the Indemnified Parties referred to above. The Purchaser Indemnitee's obligations to contribute pursuant to this Section 5 are several in proportion to the respective number of Shares sold by each of the Purchaser Indemnitees hereunder and not joint.

6. Termination of Parent's Obligations.

Parent shall have no further obligations pursuant to this Agreement at such time as no Registrable Securities are outstanding, provided, however, that Parent's obligations under Sections 5 and 7 of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect following such time.

7. Miscellaneous.

(a) Amendments and Waivers. The provisions of this Agreement, including the provisions of this sentence, may not be amended, modified or supplemented, and waivers or consents to or departures from the provisions hereof may not be given, without the written consent of Parent and Stockholders beneficially owning not less than fifty percent (50%) of the then outstanding Registrable Securities; provided, however, that for purposes of this Agreement, Registrable Securities that are owned, directly or indirectly, by an Affiliate of Parent shall not be deemed to be outstanding. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a waiver or consent to or departure from the provisions hereof with respect to a matter that relates exclusively to the rights of a Stockholder whose securities are being sold pursuant to a Registration Statement and that does not directly or indirectly affect, impair, limit or compromise the rights of other Stockholders may be given by such Stockholder; provided that the provisions of this sentence may not be amended, modified or supplemented except in accordance with the provisions of the immediately preceding sentence.

(c) Notices. All notices and other communications, provided for or permitted hereunder shall be made in writing by delivered by facsimile (with receipt confirmed), overnight courier or registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, or by telegram

(i) if to a Stockholder, at the most current address given by the transfer agent and registrar of the Shares to Parent; and

(ii) if to Parent, at the offices of Parent 406 Calle San Pablo, Camarillo, CA 93012, Attention: Chief Executive Officer.

(h) Severability. If any term, provision, covenant or restriction of this Agreement is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal, void or unenforceable, the remainder of the terms, provisions, covenants and restrictions set forth herein shall remain in full force and effect and shall in no way be affected, impaired or invalidated, and the parties hereto shall use their commercially reasonable efforts to find and employ an alternative means to achieve the same or substantially the same result as that contemplated by such term, provision, covenant or restriction. It is hereby stipulated and declared to be the intention of the parties hereto that they would have executed the remaining terms, provisions, covenants and restrictions without including any of such that may be hereafter declared invalid, illegal, void or unenforceable.

(i) Parties in Interest. All the terms and provisions of this Agreement shall be binding upon, shall inure to the benefit of and shall be enforceable by the respective successors and assigns of the parties hereto. In the event that any transferee of any Stockholder of Registrable Securities shall acquire Registrable Securities, in any manner, whether by gift, bequest, purchase, operation of law or otherwise, such transferee shall, without any further writing or action of any kind, be entitled to receive the benefits of and be conclusively deemed to have agreed to be bound by and to perform all of the terms and provisions of this Agreement to the aforesaid extent.

(j) Entire Agreement. This Agreement, together with the Merger Agreement, is intended by the parties hereto as a final expression of their agreement, and is intended to be a complete and exclusive statement of the agreement and understanding of the parties hereto in respect of the subject matter contained herein and therein.

(k) Registrable Securities Held by Parent or its Affiliates. Whenever the consent or approval of Stockholders of a specified percentage of Registrable Securities is required hereunder, Registrable Securities held by Parent or its Affiliates shall not be counted in determining whether such consent or approval was given by the Stockholders of such required percentage.

(l) Survival. This Agreement is intended to survive the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. The indemnification and contribution obligations under

SECTION 262 OF THE GENERAL CORPORATION LAW OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE

§ 262. Appraisal rights

(a) Any stockholder of a corporation of this State who holds shares of stock on the date of the making of a demand pursuant to subsection (d) of this section with respect to such shares, who continuously holds such shares through the effective date of the merger or consolidation, who has otherwise complied with subsection (d) of this section and who has neither voted in favor of the merger or consolidation nor consented thereto in writing pursuant to § 228 of this title shall be entitled to an appraisal by the Court of Chancery of the fair value of the stockholder's shares of stock under the circumstances described in subsections (b) and (c) of this section. As used in this section, the word "stockholder" means a holder of record of stock in a stock corporation and also a member of record of a nonstock corporation; the words "stock" and "share" mean and include what is ordinarily meant by those words and also membership or membership interest of a member of a nonstock corporation; and the words "depository receipt" mean a receipt or other instrument issued by a depository representing an interest in one or more shares, or fractions thereof, solely of stock of a corporation, which stock is deposited with the depository.

(b) Appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation in a merger or consolidation to be effected pursuant to § 251 (other than a merger effected pursuant to § 251(g) of this title), § 252, § 254, § 257, § 258, § 263 or § 264 of this title:

(1) Provided, however, that no appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock, which stock, or depository receipts in respect thereof, at the record date fixed to determine the stockholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the meeting of stockholders to act upon the agreement of merger or consolidation, were either (i) listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or (ii) held of record by more than 2,000 holders; and further provided that no appraisal rights shall be available for any shares of stock of the constituent corporation surviving a merger if the merger did not require for its approval the vote of the stockholders of the surviving corporation as provided in subsection (f) of § 251 of this title.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) of this subsection, appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation if the holders thereof are required by the terms of an agreement of merger or consolidation pursuant to §§ 251, 252, 254, 257, 258, 263 and 264 of this title to accept for such stock anything except:

a. Shares of stock of the corporation surviving or resulting from such merger or consolidation, or depository receipts in respect thereof;

b. Shares of stock of any other corporation, or depository receipts in respect thereof, which shares of stock (or depository receipts in respect thereof) or depository receipts at the effective date of the merger or consolidation will be either listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or held of record by more than 2,000 holders;

c. Cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing subparagraphs a. and b. of this paragraph; or

d. Any combination of the shares of stock, depository receipts and cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing subparagraphs a., b. and c. of this paragraph.

(3) In the event all of the stock of a subsidiary Delaware corporation party to a merger effected under § 253 of this title is not owned by the parent corporation immediately prior to the merger, appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of the subsidiary Delaware corporation.

(c) Any corporation may provide in its certificate of incorporation that appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of its stock as a result of an amendment to its certificate of incorporation, any merger or consolidation in which the corporation is a constituent corporation or the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation. If the certificate of incorporation contains such a provision, the procedures of this section, including those set forth in subsections (d) and (e) of this section, shall apply as nearly as is practicable.

(d) Appraisal rights shall be perfected as follows:

(1) If a proposed merger or consolidation for which appraisal rights are provided under this section is to be submitted for approval at a meeting of stockholders, the corporation, not less than 20 days prior to the meeting, shall notify each of its stockholders who was such on the record date for such meeting with respect to shares for which appraisal rights are available pursuant to subsection (b) or (c) hereof that appraisal rights are available for any or all of the shares of the constituent corporations, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section. Each stockholder electing to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares shall deliver to the corporation, before the taking of the vote on the merger or consolidation, a written demand for appraisal of such stockholder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares. A proxy or vote against the merger or consolidation shall not constitute such a demand. A stockholder electing to take such action must do so by a separate written demand as herein provided. Within 10 days after the effective date of such merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation shall notify each stockholder of each constituent corporation who has complied with this subsection and has not voted in favor of or consented to the merger or consolidation of the date that the merger or consolidation has become effective; or

(2) If the merger or consolidation was approved pursuant to § 228 or § 253 of this title, then either a constituent corporation before the effective date of the merger or consolidation or the surviving or resulting corporation within 10 days thereafter shall notify each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation who are entitled to appraisal rights of the approval of the merger or consolidation and that appraisal rights are available for any or all shares of such class or series of stock of such constituent corporation, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section. Such notice may, and, if given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, shall, also notify such stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation. Any stockholder entitled to appraisal rights may, within 20 days after the date of mailing of such notice, demand in writing from the surviving or resulting corporation the appraisal of such holder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such holder's shares. If such notice did not notify stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation, either (i) each such constituent corporation shall send a second notice before the effective date of the merger or consolidation notifying each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation that are entitled to appraisal rights of the effective date of the merger or consolidation or (ii) the surviving or resulting corporation shall send such a second notice to all such holders on or within 10 days after such effective date; provided, however, that if such second notice is sent more than 20 days following the sending of the first notice, such second notice need only be sent to each stockholder who is entitled to appraisal rights and who has demanded appraisal of such holder's shares in accordance with this subsection. An affidavit of the secretary or assistant secretary or of the transfer agent of the corporation that is required to give either notice that such notice has been given shall, in the absence of fraud, be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein. For purposes of determining the stockholders entitled to receive either notice, each constituent corporation may fix, in advance, a record date that shall be not more than 10 days prior to the date the notice is given, provided, that if the notice is given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the record date shall be such effective date. If no record date is fixed and the notice is given prior to the effective date, the record date shall be the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the notice is given.

(e) Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation or any stockholder who has complied with subsections (a) and (d) hereof and who is otherwise entitled to appraisal rights, may file a petition in the Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the value of the stock of all such stockholders. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder shall have the right to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation. Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder who has complied with the requirements of subsections (a) and (d) hereof, upon written request, shall be entitled to receive from the corporation surviving the merger or resulting from the consolidation a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the merger or consolidation and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. Such written statement shall be mailed to the stockholder within 10 days after such stockholder's written request for such a statement is received by the surviving or resulting corporation or within 10 days after expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal under subsection (d) hereof, whichever is later.

(f) Upon the filing of any such petition by a stockholder, service of a copy thereof shall be made upon the surviving or resulting corporation, which shall within 20 days after such service file in the office of the Register in Chancery in which the petition was filed a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded payment for their shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached by the surviving or resulting corporation. If the petition shall be filed by the surviving or resulting corporation, the petition shall be accompanied by such a duly verified list. The Register in Chancery, if so ordered by the Court, shall give notice of the time and place fixed for the hearing of such petition by registered or certified mail to the surviving or resulting corporation and to the stockholders shown on the list at the addresses therein stated. Such notice shall also be given by 1 or more publications at least 1 week before the day of the hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Wilmington, Delaware or such publication as the Court deems advisable. The forms of the notices by mail and by publication shall be approved by the Court, and the costs thereof shall be borne by the surviving or resulting corporation.

(g) At the hearing on such petition, the Court shall determine the stockholders who have complied with this section and who have become entitled to appraisal rights. The Court may require the stockholders who have demanded an appraisal for their shares and who hold stock represented by certificates to submit their certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any stockholder fails to comply with such direction, the Court may dismiss the proceedings as to such stockholder.

(h) After determining the stockholders entitled to an appraisal, the Court shall appraise the shares, determining their fair value exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger or consolidation, together with a fair rate of interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be the fair value. In determining such fair value, the Court shall take into account all relevant factors. In determining the fair rate of interest, the Court may consider all relevant factors, including the rate of interest which the surviving or resulting corporation would have had to pay to borrow money during the pendency of the proceeding. Upon application by the surviving or resulting corporation or by any stockholder entitled to participate in the appraisal proceeding, the Court may, in its discretion, permit discovery or other pretrial proceedings and may proceed to trial upon the appraisal prior to the final determination of the stockholder entitled to an appraisal. Any stockholder whose name appears on the list filed by the surviving or resulting corporation pursuant to subsection (f) of this section and who has submitted such stockholder's certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery, if such is required, may participate fully in all proceedings until it is finally determined that such stockholder is not entitled to appraisal rights under this section.

(i) The Court shall direct the payment of the fair value of the shares, together with interest, if any, by the surviving or resulting corporation to the stockholders entitled thereto. Interest may be simple or compound, as the Court may direct. Payment shall be so made to each such stockholder, in the case of holders of uncertificated stock forthwith, and the case of holders of shares represented by certificates upon the surrender to the corporation of the certificates representing such stock. The Court's decree may be enforced as other decrees in the Court of Chancery may be enforced, whether such surviving or resulting corporation be a corporation of this State or of any state.

(j) The costs of the proceeding may be determined by the Court and taxed upon the parties as the Court deems equitable in the circumstances. Upon application of a stockholder, the Court may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees and the fees and expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all the shares entitled to an appraisal.

(k) From and after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, no stockholder who has demanded appraisal rights as provided in subsection (d) of this section shall be entitled to vote such stock for any purpose or to receive payment of dividends or other distributions on the stock (except dividends or other distributions payable to stockholders of record at a date which is prior to the effective date of the merger or consolidation); provided, however, that if no petition for an appraisal shall be filed within the time provided in subsection (e) of this section, or if such stockholder shall deliver to the surviving or resulting corporation a written withdrawal of such stockholder's demand for an appraisal and an acceptance of the merger or consolidation, either within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation as provided in subsection (e) of this section or thereafter with the written approval of the corporation, then the right of such stockholder to an appraisal shall cease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no appraisal proceeding in the Court of Chancery shall be dismissed as to any stockholder without the approval of the Court, and such approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the Court deems just.

(l) The shares of the surviving or resulting corporation to which the shares of such objecting stockholders would have been converted had they assented to the merger or consolidation shall have the status of authorized and unissued shares of the surviving or resulting corporation.

PART II

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

California Amplifier is a Delaware corporation. Section 145(a) of the DGCL provides that a Delaware corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, other than an action by or in the right of the corporation, by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.

Section 145(b) of the DGCL provides that a Delaware corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that such person acted in any of the capacities set forth above, against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to us, unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought or the Delaware Court of Chancery shall determine that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the court shall deem proper.

Further subsections of DGCL Section 145 provide that:

(1) to the extent a present or former director or officer of a corporation has been successful in the defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in subsections (a) and (b) of Section 145 or in the defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, such person shall be indemnified against expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection therewith;

(2) the indemnification and advancement of expenses provided for pursuant to Section 145 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholder or disinterested directors or otherwise; and

(3) the corporation shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against such person and incurred by such person in any such capacity, or arising out of such person's status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such liability under Section 145.

As used in this Item 20, the term "Proceeding" means any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether or not by or in the right of California Amplifier, and whether civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or otherwise.

Section 145 of the DGCL makes provision for the indemnification of officers and directors in terms sufficiently broad to indemnify officers and directors of California Amplifier under certain circumstances from liabilities (including reimbursement for expenses incurred) arising under the Securities Act of 1933. California Amplifier's certificate of incorporation and bylaws provide, in effect, that, to the fullest extent and under the circumstances permitted by Section 145 of the DGCL, California Amplifier will indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that he or she is a director or officer of California Amplifier or is or was serving at the request of California Amplifier as a director or officer of another corporation or enterprise. California Amplifier has entered into indemnification agreements with its officers and directors. California Amplifier may, in its discretion, similarly indemnify its employees and agents. California Amplifier's certificate of incorporation relieves its directors from monetary damages to California Amplifier or its stockholders for breach of such director's fiduciary duty as a director to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL. Under Section 102(b)(7) of the DGCL, a corporation may relieve its directors from personal liability to such corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for any breach of their fiduciary duty as directors except (i) for a breach of the duty of loyalty, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) for willful or negligent violations of certain provisions in the DGCL imposing certain requirements with respect to stock repurchases, redemptions and dividends, or (iv) for any transactions from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. Depending upon the character of the proceeding, under Delaware law, California Amplifier may indemnify against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred in connection with any action, suit or proceeding if the person indemnified acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the company.

California Amplifier currently maintains an insurance policy which, within the limits and subject to the terms and conditions thereof, covers certain expenses and liabilities that may be incurred by directors and officers in connection with actions, suits or proceedings that may be brought against them as a result of an act or omission committed or suffered while acting as a director or officer of California Amplifier

Item 22. Undertakings

(1) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(a) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

(b) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) To remove from the registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered that remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(2) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes as follows: that prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the undersigned registrant undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.

(3) The undersigned registrant undertakes that every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (2) immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933 and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(4) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(5) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and California Amplifier being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.

(6) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Item 4, 10(b), 11, or 13 of this form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

(7) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in this registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
