Item 4: Description of Securities

Not applicable.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel

Not applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Under Nevada Corporate Law, the Registrant has broad powers to indemnify its directors and officers against liabilities they may incur in such capacities, including liabilities under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "1933 Act"). The Registrant's Bylaws (the "Bylaws") provide that the Registrant shall indemnify its directors and officers if such officer or director acted (i) in good faith, (ii) in a manner reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Registrant, and (iii) with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe such conduct was unlawful. The Registrant believes that indemnification under its Bylaws covers at least negligence and gross negligence, and requires the Registrant to advance litigation expenses in the case of stockholder derivative actions or other actions, against an undertaking by the directors and officers to repay such advances if it is ultimately determined that the director is not entitled to indemnification. The Bylaws further provide that rights conferred under such Bylaws shall not be deemed to be exclusive of any other right such persons may have or acquire under any agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise.

Edgar Filing: WORLDTEQ GROUP INTERNATIONAL INC - Form S-8 POS

In addition, the Registrant's Articles of Incorporation (the "Articles of Incorporation") provides that, pursuant to Nevada law, none of its directors shall be liable for monetary damages for breach of his or her fiduciary duty of care to the Registrant and its stockholders. This provision in the Articles of Incorporation does not eliminate the duty of care, and in appropriate circumstances equitable remedies such as injunctive or other forms of non-monetary relief will remain available under Nevada law. In addition, each director will continue to be subject to liability for breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Registrant for acts or omissions not in good faith or involving intentional misconduct, for knowing violations of law, for actions leading to improper personal benefit to the director, and for payment of dividends or approval of stock repurchases or redemptions that are unlawful under Nevada law. The provision also does not affect a director's responsibilities under any other law, such as the federal securities laws or state or federal environmental laws. The Articles of Incorporation further provides that the Registrant shall indemnify its directors and officers to the fullest extent permitted by law and requires the Registrant to advance litigation expenses in the case of stockholder derivative actions or other actions, against an undertaking by the director to repay such advances if it is ultimately determined that the director is not entitled to indemnification. The Articles of Incorporation also provides that rights conferred under such Articles of Incorporation shall not be deemed to be exclusive of any other right such persons may have or acquire under any statute, the Articles of Incorporation, the Bylaws, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise.

The Registrant has obtained a liability insurance policy for the officers and directors that, subject to certain limitations, terms and conditions, will insure them against losses arising from wrongful acts (as defined by the policy) in their capacity as directors or officers.

In addition, the Registrant has entered into agreements to indemnify its directors and certain of its officers in addition to the indemnification provided for in the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws. These agreements, among other things, indemnify the Registrant's directors and certain of its officers for certain expenses (including attorneys fees), judgments, fines and settlement amounts incurred by such person in any action or proceeding, including any action by or in the right of the Registrant, on account of services as a director or officer of the Registrant or as a director or officer of any subsidiary of the Registrant, or as a director or officer of any other company or enterprise that the person provides services to at the request of the Registrant.

Item 7. Exemption from Registration Claimed

Not Applicable.
