Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On March 31, 2005, Crompton Corporation announced that the company and Hamilton Robinson LLC, a private equity firm, had signed a definitive agreement to form a joint venture called Davis-Standard LLC (D-S LLC), combining their respective polymer processing equipment businesses.

D-S LLC, headquartered in Pawcatuck, Connecticut, will combine Crompton's Davis-Standard business and Hamilton Robinson's Black Clawson Converting Machinery Company (BCCM) and will have approximate annual revenues of $220 million with Crompton as the majority owner. The joint venture will be classified in Crompton's financials as an equity investment. The transaction, which is subject to regulatory approvals, is expected to close within the next 30 days.

Crompton's Davis-Standard business had 2004 revenues of approximately $180 million. Included in the joint venture are facilities in Pawcatuck, Connecticut; and Somerville, New Jersey; as well as in Germany and the United Kingdom. The business employs approximately 660 people, substantially all of whom will become D-S LLC employees after the closing. Black Clawson will contribute its Fulton, New York facility. It employs approximately 150 people, substantially all of whom will also become D-S LLC employees after closing. Black Clawson is owned by Hamilton Robinson LLC, a private equity investor.

A copy of the Contribution Agreement and a press release announcing the transaction are attached as exhibits hereto and are herein incorporated by reference.
