Investor Release

Change in the Board of Directors of Magyar Telekom

Budapest August 22, 2006 Magyar Telekom (Reuters: NYSE: MTA.N, BÉT: MTEL.BU and Bloomberg: NYSE: MTA US, BÉT: MTELEKOM HB), the leading Hungarian telecommunications service provider, today announced that Dr. György Surányi, a member of Magyar Telekom's Board of Directors, has resigned from his position as of October 9, 2006, the date of Magyar Telekom's forthcoming Extraordinary General Meeting.

Dr. Surányi, Head of the Central and Eastern European Region at Banca Intesa Group and Chairman of the Group's Eastern European Banks, cited as reasons for his resignation the significant increase of his duties in his current positions and other professional engagements of national importance he has been offered recently. Magyar Telekom's Board of Directors would like to take this opportunity to express its gratitude and appreciation to Dr. György Surányi for the work carried out during his time on the Board.

This investor news contains forward-looking statements. Statements that are not historical facts, including statements about our beliefs and expectations, are forward-looking statements. These statements are based on current plans, estimates and projections, and therefore should not have undue reliance placed upon them. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made, and we undertake no obligation to update publicly any of them in light of new information or future events.

Forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties. We caution you that a number of important factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statement. Such factors are described in, among other things, our Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2004 filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.
