Section 5 Corporate Governance and Management

Item 5.05 Amendments to the Registrant's Code of Ethics, or Waiver of a Provision of the Code of Ethics.

On June 5, 2007, the Board of Directors of Copart approved certain amendments to Copart's Code of Business Conduct (the "Code"), which applies to all of Copart's employees, officers and directors. The principal amendments to the Code related to Copart's policies relating to working with governmental personnel and entities. Previously, the Code prohibited any Copart employee from providing any gift or personal amenity, including meals or refreshments, to any government personnel or elected officials. As amended, the Code prohibits any cash payments to government personnel or elected officials but permits gifts and amenities so long as delivery of the gift or amenity does not violate applicable law or Copart's internal policies relating to political activities.

Copart recently hired a Government Affairs Officer to manage and monitor Copart's political activities. The Government Affairs Officer and Copart's legal department are currently establishing policies and procedures to govern Copart's political activities.

The amended Code is available at Copart's website located at <http://www.copart.com>. A copy of the amended Code is also attached hereto as Exhibit 14.02 and is incorporated herein by reference.
