Exhibit Number	Description

Cautionary Notice Regarding Forward Looking Statements

Some of the statements made by us in, or incorporated by reference in, this Current Report on Form 8-K are forward-looking, such as those in the press release in the GMS section, where we discuss the costs and expected benefits from that strategy, and in the 2010 Outlook and Earnings Guidance section, where we discuss our expected 2010 EPS performance. These statements include comments as to future events and trends affecting our business, which are based upon our management's current expectations and are necessarily subject to risks and uncertainties, many of which are outside of our control. Forward-looking statements can be identified by such words as anticipates, estimates, expects, intends, plans, should, will and similar expressions. The following are important factors that we believe could cause our actual results to differ materially from those in our forward-looking statements: general economic conditions, particularly as they affect packaging utilization; changes in raw material and energy costs; currency translation and devaluation effects, including in Venezuela; the success of our growth, profitability and global manufacturing strategies and our cost reduction and productivity program; the effects of animal and food-related health issues; tax rates; and legal proceedings. You can find a more extensive list and description of these and other such factors under the headings Risk Factors and Cautionary Notice Regarding Forward-Looking Statements, which appear in our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K, as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, and as may be revised and updated by our Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and Current Reports on Form 8-K.
