ASHFORD HOSPITALITY TRUST, INC.

November 12, 2014

Dear Stockholder:

The Ashford Hospitality Trust, Inc. (the Company or Ashford Trust) board of directors (your Board) and management team are committed to creating value for all Ashford Trust stockholders and are focused on taking actions to achieve that goal. The spin-off of Ashford Trust's asset management business into a separate publicly traded company, Ashford Inc., is another step toward maximizing value for our stockholders. The Board believes that Ashford Inc. is well positioned for growth based on its advisory agreements with two publicly traded real estate investment trusts (REITs), Ashford Trust and Ashford Prime, each of which include a base fee, payable to Ashford Inc., equal to 0.70% per annum of the total market capitalization of each REIT. The Board believes that in light of this fee structure and the anticipated growth of each REIT, which likely will increase their market capitalization, Ashford Inc. is well positioned for growth as a result of increased fees. For example, since Ashford Trust's initial public offering, its market capitalization has grown from $398 million to $4.4 billion, and Ashford Prime's market capitalization has grown from $1.1 billion to $1.3 billion since it was spun off from Ashford Trust in November 2013. As each of Ashford Trust and Ashford Prime grow their market capitalization, the revenue streams to Ashford Inc. will grow proportionately. In addition, the Board believes that the anticipated launch of Ashford Inc.'s securities investment platform will also serve as a catalyst for growth at Ashford Inc. together with opportunities it may pursue without limitations imposed by REIT rules. Ashford Investment Management LLC, which will be an indirect subsidiary of Ashford Inc. following the spin-off, will serve as the investment advisor, and its affiliate will serve as the general partner, of Ashford Inc.'s private investment fund platform.

The Board welcomes meaningful input from our stockholders towards our goal of creating enhanced value. In addition, to ensure that management is aligned with stockholders, members of the management team have always maintained a significant share ownership level at Ashford Trust.

As you may be aware, Unite Here (Unite Here), a large labor union, recently filed a solicitation statement (the Solicitation Statement) on Schedule 14A with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) pursuant to which Unite Here is seeking your written consent to call a special meeting of stockholders of Ashford Trust.

The Board believes, based on prior interactions with Unite Here (which are described in greater detail in the section of this revocation statement entitled Background of the Unite Here Solicitation), that Unite Here has a unique agenda. Based on these prior interactions, the Board believes that Unite Here is attempting to assert its influence into a labor dispute at one of Ashford Trust's Alaskan hotels and to disrupt the value creating separation of Ashford Inc.

The Company's Second Amended and Restated Bylaws, dated February 25, 2014 (the Bylaws), provide a mechanism by which stockholders may properly propose matters to be acted upon at the Company's annual meeting. Unite Here is now soliciting your revocable written consent to request a special meeting of the Company's stockholders to consider and vote upon a number of proposals, which include proposals (i) amending certain provisions of our Bylaws, (ii) recommending that the Board submit to a stockholder vote its planned spin-off of Ashford Inc.,

Edgar Filing: ASHFORD HOSPITALITY TRUST INC - Form DEFC14A

(iii) interfering with the Board's management of the business and affairs of the Company, and (iv) amending the bylaws of Ashford Inc. when and if it becomes a stand-alone corporate entity.

After careful consideration by the Board and expenditure of time and resources by the Company, Ashford Trust is seeking to enhance stockholder value through the proposed spin-off of Ashford Inc. into a separate stand-alone public company.

The Board strongly believes that convening a special meeting is not in the best interests of the Company or its stockholders at this time.

Table of Contents

The Board does not believe that the issues raised in the Solicitation Statement should be addressed at a special meeting demanded by a stockholder with specific interests related to an on-going labor dispute that the Board believes are not aligned with the interests of all of our stockholders.

If you have already submitted a written request card to Unite Here supporting the calling of a special meeting, you can revoke such request by marking YES, REVOKE MY REQUEST and submitting the accompanying BLUE revocation card to the Company. Even if you have not submitted a written request card to Unite Here, you may nevertheless communicate that you do not believe a special meeting is necessary or express your opposition to calling a special meeting by signing, dating and returning the accompanying BLUE revocation card to the Company.

Regardless of the number of shares of common stock of the Company that you own, your views are important. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely yours,

Monty J. Bennett
Chief Executive Officer & Chairman of the Board

REVOCATION SOLICITATION STATEMENT OF ASHFORD HOSPITALITY TRUST, INC.
IN RESPONSE TO A SOLICITATION OF WRITTEN REQUESTS FOR SPECIAL MEETING
BY UNITE HERE
November 12, 2014

This Revocation Solicitation Statement (this Revocation Solicitation Statement) and the accompanying BLUE revocation card (the BLUE Revocation Card) are being furnished by Ashford Hospitality Trust, Inc., a Maryland corporation (we, the Company or Ashford Trust), to the holders of outstanding shares of our common stock, par value $0.01 per share (our Common Stock), in connection with the solicitation of written request forms (Written Requests) by Unite Here (Unite Here). For purposes of this Revocation Solicitation Statement, all references herein to the Written Requests being solicited by Unite Here shall be deemed to include any associated proxies being solicited by Unite Here. This Revocation Solicitation Statement and the enclosed BLUE Revocation Card are first being mailed to stockholders on or about November 14, 2014.

As you may be aware, Unite Here, a large labor union, recently filed a solicitation statement (the Solicitation Statement) on Schedule 14A with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) pursuant to which Unite Here is seeking your written consent to call a special meeting of stockholders of Ashford Trust.

The Board believes, based on prior interactions with Unite Here (which are described in greater detail in the section of this revocation statement entitled Background of the Unite Here Solicitation), that Unite Here has a unique agenda. Based on these prior interactions, the Board believes that Unite Here is attempting to assert its influence into a labor dispute at one of Ashford Trust's Alaskan hotels and to disrupt the value creating separation of Ashford Inc.

The Company's Second Amended and Restated Bylaws, dated February 25, 2014 (the Bylaws), provide a mechanism by which stockholders may properly propose matters to be acted upon at the Company's annual meeting. Rather than pursue these already available mechanisms, Unite Here is now soliciting your revocable written consent to request a special meeting of the Company's stockholders to consider and vote upon a number of proposals, which include proposals (i) amending certain provisions of our Bylaws, (ii) recommending that the Board submit to a stockholder vote its planned spin-off of Ashford Inc., (iii) interfering with the Board's management of the business and affairs of the Company, and (iv) amending the bylaws of Ashford Inc. when and if it becomes a stand-alone corporate entity.

After careful consideration by the Board and expenditure of time and resources by the Company, Ashford Trust is seeking to enhance stockholder value through the proposed spin-off of Ashford Inc. into a separate stand-alone public company.

Under our Bylaws, the calling of a stockholder-requested special meeting will require the valid and unrevoked written requests of record holders of not less than a majority of the Company's outstanding shares of Common Stock entitled to vote. As of October 16, 2014, which is the request record date set by our Board, there were 89,449,342 outstanding shares of Common Stock. Based on the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding on October 16, 2014, in order to request the special meeting in accordance with the Bylaws, Unite Here would need to validly deliver to the Company pursuant to our Bylaws, executed and unrevoked Written Requests from record holders of approximately 44,724,672 shares of Common Stock, including the 765 shares beneficially owned by Unite Here.

Table of Contents

As of October 16, 2014, our directors and executive officers collectively beneficially own 4,743,860 shares of Common Stock, representing approximately 5.3% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock as of such date. None of our directors or executive officers intends to deliver any Written Request with respect to any of their shares of Common Stock.

For additional information regarding the mechanics of the consent solicitation, see The Special Meeting Request Procedure Effectiveness of Written Requests.

THE BOARD HAS UNANIMOUSLY DETERMINED THAT THE UNITE HERE SOLICITATION IS CONTRARY TO THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE COMPANY AND ITS STOCKHOLDERS, AND VIGOROUSLY OPPOSES THE SOLICITATION OF WRITTEN REQUESTS BY UNITE HERE. ACCORDINGLY, THE BOARD RECOMMENDS THAT YOU DO NOT SIGN ANY WRITTEN REQUEST CARD SENT TO YOU BY UNITE HERE. WHETHER OR NOT YOU HAVE PREVIOUSLY EXECUTED UNITE HERE S WRITTEN REQUEST CARD, YOU MAY ELECT AGAINST THE CALLING OF A SPECIAL MEETING, AND YOU MAY REVOKE ANY PREVIOUSLY EXECUTED WRITTEN REQUEST TO CALL A SPECIAL MEETING, IF YOU SIGN, DATE AND DELIVER THE ENCLOSED BLUE REVOCATION CARD USING THE PRE-PAID ENVELOPE PROVIDED AT ANY TIME PRIOR TO THE DATE OF ANY STOCKHOLDER-CALLED SPECIAL MEETING.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THIS REVOCATION SOLICITATION STATEMENT

Why am I receiving this Revocation Solicitation Statement?

Unite Here recently filed its Solicitation Statement pursuant to which it is seeking to require the Company to call a special meeting of stockholders to vote upon a number of proposals. Your Board believes that the calling of a special meeting is inappropriate at this time and will serve only to divert the attention of the Board and the Company's management from its goal of delivering consistent returns and creating long-term shareholder value. At the proposed special meeting, Unite Here expects to present to Company stockholders the proposals described under Description of the Unite Here Solicitation.

You are receiving this Revocation Solicitation Statement as a stockholder of the Company as of the date of this Revocation Solicitation Statement. As further described below, you should sign, date and deliver the enclosed BLUE Revocation Card, by mail in the event you desire to:

1. Revoke any Written Request that you may have delivered or caused to be delivered to request that we call a special meeting; or
2. Communicate that you do not believe a special meeting is necessary or express your opposition to a special meeting, even if you have not already submitted a Written Request.

Who is making this solicitation?

Ashford Trust is making this solicitation.

Should I oppose Unite Here's efforts to call a special meeting?

The Board strongly believes that convening a special meeting is not in the best interests of the Company or its stockholders at this time. The Board does not believe that the issues raised in Unite Here's Solicitation Statement should be addressed at a special meeting demanded by a stockholder with unique interests related to an on-going labor dispute that the Board believes are not aligned with the interests of all of our stockholders. Rather, the Board strongly believes that the more prudent course of action is for the Company to extend its track record of substantial growth that the Board is confident will create significantly more value for stockholders than Unite Here's proposals.

Edgar Filing: ASHFORD HOSPITALITY TRUST INC - Form DEFC14A

The Board is committed to creating value for shareholders, and the spin-off of Ashford Trust's asset management business into a separate publicly traded company, Ashford Inc., is another step towards achieving that goal. The Board believes that Ashford Inc. is well positioned for growth based on its advisory agreements with two publicly traded real estate investment trusts (REITs) Ashford Trust and Ashford Prime, each of which include a base fee, payable to Ashford Inc., equal to 0.70% per annum of the total market capitalization of each REIT. The Board believes that in light of this fee structure and the anticipated growth of each REIT, which likely will increase their market capitalization, Ashford Inc. is well positioned for growth as a result of increased fees. For example, since Ashford Trust's initial public offering, its market capitalization has grown from $398 million to $4.4 billion, and Ashford Prime's market capitalization has grown from $1.1 billion to $1.3 billion since it was spun off from Ashford Trust in November 2013. As each of Ashford Trust and Ashford Prime grow their market capitalization, the revenue streams to Ashford Inc. will grow proportionately. In addition, the Board believes that the anticipated launch of Ashford Inc.'s securities investment platform will also serve as a catalyst for growth at Ashford Inc. together with opportunities it may pursue without limitations imposed by REIT rules. Ashford Investment Management LLC, which will be an indirect subsidiary of Ashford Inc. following the spin-off, will serve as the investment advisor, and its affiliate will serve as the general partner, of Ashford Inc.'s private investment fund platform.

The Board believes, based on prior interactions with Unite Here (which are described in greater detail in the section of this Revocation Solicitation Statement entitled "Background of the Unite Here Solicitation"), that Unite Here has a unique interest. Based on these prior interactions, the Board believes that Unite Here is attempting to assert its influence into a labor dispute at one of Ashford Trust's Alaskan hotels. Further, the Board believes that Unite Here is seeking to disrupt the value creating separation of Ashford Inc. in order to advance its interests in a labor dispute and benefit its members at the expense of all shareholders.

What are you asking me to do?

The Board has unanimously determined that Unite Here's Solicitation Statement is contrary to the best interests of the Company and its stockholders, and vigorously opposes the solicitation of Written Request cards by Unite Here. Accordingly, the Board recommends that you do not sign any Written Request card sent to you by Unite Here. Whether or not you have previously executed Unite Here's Written Request card, you may elect against the calling of a special meeting if you sign, date and deliver the enclosed BLUE Revocation Card by mail (using the enclosed pre-paid envelope) to our proxy solicitor, MacKenzie Partners Inc. (MacKenzie Partners), at 105 Madison Avenue, New York, NY 10016.

Table of Contents

If I have already delivered a Written Request, is it too late for me to change my mind?

No. You have the right to revoke your Written Request at any time prior to the date of any stockholder-requested special meeting by signing, dating and delivering a BLUE Revocation Card in the envelope provided.

When will the Written Requests become effective?

Under our Bylaws, the Written Requests will become effective if valid and unrevoked Written Requests of the holders of record of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock are delivered to the Corporate Secretary of the Company in the form and manner required by, and in compliance with, our Bylaws within 30 days after October 16, 2014, which is the request record date for determining stockholders entitled to request the special meeting.

What happens if I do nothing?

If you do not send in any Written Request card that Unite Here may send you and you do not return the enclosed BLUE Revocation Card, you will effectively be voting AGAINST Unite Here's attempt to hold a special meeting.

Does the revocation have any effect on matters other than the Written Request?

No. We are seeking revocations only for the Written Request related to the calling of the special meeting. We are not currently seeking your proxy, vote, consent or authorization with respect to any other matter, including any matter that may come before the special meeting.

Whom should I call if I have questions about the solicitation?

BACKGROUND OF THE UNITE HERE SOLICITATION

Unite Here represents a large group of employees at the Anchorage Sheraton hotel in Alaska, a property managed by Remington Lodging & Hospitality, LLC (Remington), the Company's primary property manager and which is wholly-owned by Mr. Monty J. Bennett, the Company's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, and Mr. Archie Bennett, Jr., the Company's Chairman Emeritus. Remington has managed the hotel and employed the employees since 2006.

From 2008 to 2010, Remington attempted to negotiate a new collective bargaining agreement with the employees being represented by Unite Here. The negotiations, occurring during the depths of the economic downturn, did not result in an agreement. During the course of that bargaining, Unite Here implemented a public boycott against the hotel.

In mid-2010, a majority of the hotel's employees signed a decertification petition, directing Remington to withdraw recognition of Unite Here as its bargaining representative. Remington complied with the petition's demand. Unite Here, in turn, filed a series of unfair labor practice charges (ULPs) with the National Labor Relations Board, alleging that Remington had committed various infractions of the National Labor Relations Act, including premature declaration of bargaining impasse, and that Remington was, therefore, not lawfully entitled to rely upon the decertification petition.

On February 2, 2012, Remington was ordered by the United States District Court for the district of Alaska to re-recognize Unite Here as the bargaining representative for most of the Anchorage Sheraton's employees. Remington complied with the court's order, but Unite Here has refused to meet and negotiate any further. Unite Here continues to pursue its boycott.

Subsequently in 2013, another hearing, related to a separate and additional set of ULPs, was held before an administrative law judge with the National Labor Relations Board. These alleged ULPs dealt with actions by Remington at the hotel, including the termination of three employees that occurred between the date of the 2010 decertification petition and the February 2012 order to re-recognize Unite Here as the bargaining representative. On March 18, 2014, the United States District Court for the district of Alaska ordered Remington to re-hire the three discharged employees. Remington complied with this order.

Since Unite Here's re-recognition as the bargaining representative in February 2012, Unite Here has alleged only a small number of new ULPs. None of the allegations were found to have merit by the National Labor Relations Board and no new litigation has been pursued by the National Labor Relations Board against Remington. On November 4, 2014, the Company learned that the National Labor Relations Board had dismissed all open ULPs against Remington.

On May 14, 2013, at the Company's 2013 annual meeting, Unite Here submitted a proposal to amend the Bylaws to require the chairman of the Board to be a director who is independent of the Company. The proposal failed. Unite Here had previously submitted a similar proposal at the Company's 2009 annual meeting. That proposal also failed.

Edgar Filing: ASHFORD HOSPITALITY TRUST INC - Form DEFC14A

On May 13, 2014, at the Company's 2014 annual meeting, Unite Here submitted a non-binding proposal to recommend that the Board take steps to amend the Company's governing documents, consistent with applicable laws, to provide that director nominees shall be elected by the affirmative vote of the majority of votes cast at an annual meeting of shareholders, with a plurality vote standard retained for contested director elections, that is, when the number of director nominees exceeds the number of board seats. The proposal passed and was subsequently adopted by the Board, subject to the approval of a similar amendment to the Company's charter at the 2015 annual shareholder meeting.

On May 29, 2014, only two weeks after the Company's annual meeting, the Company's management learned that Unite Here was hosting a website on which it purported to support an open dialogue on Ashford Trust's proposed spin-off of Ashford Inc. and other restructuring matters.

On June 26, 2014, Unite Here filed with the SEC a preliminary solicitation statement on Schedule 14A, soliciting written consents to call a special meeting of Ashford Trust stockholders.

On August 18, 2014, Unite Here filed with the SEC a definitive solicitation statement on Schedule 14A, soliciting written consents to call a special meeting of Ashford Trust stockholders.

Edgar Filing: ASHFORD HOSPITALITY TRUST INC - Form DEFC14A

On October 15, 2014, the Board set a request record date for Unite Here's solicitation of consents to call special meeting of October 16, 2014.

On October 15, 2014, Unite Here filed additional definitive proxy materials with the SEC regarding its solicitation of consents to call a special meeting.

On October 21, 2014, Unite Here sent a letter to Mr. Brooks stating that it was in the process of attempting to move shares of Common Stock into record form in order to comply with the Bylaw requirement that only stockholders of record are entitled to call a special meeting of the Company's stockholders.

On October 26, 2014, the Board took the following actions, in response to the Board's on-going dialogue with the Company's shareholders, which are meant to enhance the Company's corporate governance practices as well as the corporate governance practices for Ashford Inc.:

- Amended the Bylaws, consistent with a proposal previously approved by shareholders at the Company's 2014 annual shareholder meeting, to provide for a majority voting standard in the election of directors in uncontested elections, subject to the approval of a similar amendment to the Company's charter at the 2015 annual shareholder meeting.

- Amended the Bylaws to permit shareholders holding a majority of the voting power to amend the Bylaws.

- Amended the Bylaws to reduce the threshold to call a special meeting of shareholders from 50 percent to 35 percent of the outstanding Common Stock, following the Company's 2015 annual shareholder meeting.

- Amended the bylaws of Ashford Inc. to provide Ashford Inc. shareholders the right to call a special meeting.

- Developed a plan to provide Ashford Inc. shareholders the opportunity to vote to declassify Ashford Inc.'s board of directors at Ashford Inc.'s first annual meeting.

- Developed a plan to permit Ashford Inc.'s directors up for annual election to be removed with or without cause, if shareholders vote to declassify the board of directors.

- Developed a plan to provide Ashford Inc. shareholders the opportunity to provide an advisory non-binding vote on executive compensation every three years.

On October 27, 2014, the Company issued a press release announcing that the Board had implemented the corporate governance enhancements listed above.

Edgar Filing: ASHFORD HOSPITALITY TRUST INC - Form DEFC14A

RESPONSE OF ASHFORD TRUST

We believe that the calling and holding of a special meeting is premature and unnecessary at this time. We believe that the calling and holding of a special meeting will have significant and important consequences for the Company as outlined below. Accordingly, we recommend that you carefully consider whether to support the Unite Here Solicitation in light of the potential risks and costs to the Company discussed below. If, after careful consideration, you do not wish to support the request to call a special meeting, do NOT sign any Written Request card sent to you.

Whether or not you have previously executed a Written Request card, you may sign, date and deliver the enclosed BLUE Revocation Card as soon as possible to communicate that you do not believe a special meeting is necessary or to express your opposition to a special meeting.

Stockholders should take into account the following considerations when deciding whether to support the Unite Here Solicitation:

The Board believes that there are certain significant risks and costs associated with calling and holding a special meeting, some of which are highlighted below. Stockholders should be aware of these risks and costs before making the decision of whether to execute and return a Written Request card in connection with the Unite Here Solicitation.

- Ashford Trust believes that it maintains an open dialogue with its stockholders and endeavors to respond to its stockholders' wishes when appropriate under the circumstances. A special meeting and the related solicitations risk diverting significant time and resources when it is critical that Ashford Trust's Board and management be fully focused on operations and executing the Company's strategies. Rather than hold a special meeting, our Board and management strongly believe that the more prudent course of action is for Ashford Trust to focus on extending its track record of substantial growth that the Board and management are confident will create significantly more value for stockholders than Unite Here's proposal.
- In light of the corporate governance enhancements recently adopted by the Company, the Board believes that certain of Unite Here's proposals have been rendered moot and, as such, no longer merit the calling of a special meeting.
- Successive solicitations would also require Ashford Trust to incur additional financial costs, including with respect to internal allocations, third-party advisory fees, printing, mailing and solicitation expenses and other costs.

Stockholders should carefully consider whether a special meeting is in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders. We strongly believe that a special meeting is no substitute for ongoing, direct, two-way communication between us and our stockholders. Your prompt delivery of the enclosed BLUE Revocation Card will allow the Board and management to return their focus to creating the most value for our stockholders.

IF YOU ARE NOT CONVINCED THAT A SPECIAL MEETING IS THE APPROPRIATE PATH OR YOU BELIEVE A SPECIAL MEETING IS UNNECESSARY AND WISH TO OPPOSE THE CALLING OF A SPECIAL MEETING, PLEASE SIGN, DATE AND DELIVER THE ENCLOSED BLUE REVOCATION CARD USING THE PRE-PAID ENVELOPE PROVIDED AS PROMPTLY AS POSSIBLE, WHETHER OR NOT YOU HAVE SIGNED THE WRITTEN REQUEST CARD FROM UNITE HERE AND WHETHER YOU ARE A RECORD OR STREET NAME HOLDER.

THE SPECIAL MEETING REQUEST PROCEDURE

Voting Securities

As of October 16, 2014, there were 89,449,342 outstanding shares of Common Stock. The Company has only one class of common stock.

Persons beneficially owning shares of the Company's Common Stock (but not holders of record), such as persons whose ownership of Common Stock is through a broker, bank, financial institution or other nominee holder, who wish to revoke a previously instructed Written Request must contact such broker, bank, financial institution or other nominee holder and instruct such person to execute a revocation using the BLUE Revocation Card on their behalf. Any failure to submit a Written Request will have the same effect as submitting a BLUE Revocation Card.

Additionally, even if you have not already submitted a Written Request, you may elect to execute and submit the BLUE Revocation Card to communicate that you do not believe a special meeting is necessary or to express your opposition to a special meeting.

Effectiveness of Written Requests

Under our Bylaws, the Corporate Secretary of the Company shall call a special meeting of stockholders upon the written request of the holders of record of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock, subject to and in compliance with our Bylaws. Under Article I, Section 3(b) of our Bylaws, if written revocations of the Written Requests have been delivered to the Corporate Secretary and the result is that Written Requests have been delivered from stockholders of record (or their agents duly authorized in writing) of less than a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock, then the Company is not obligated to call a special meeting.

Under our Bylaws, if valid, unrevoked Written Requests signed by the holders of record of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock are delivered to the Corporate Secretary of the Company in the form and manner required by, and in compliance with, our Bylaws within 30 days after October 16, 2014, the Written Requests will become effective.

Under Article I, Section 3(b) of our Bylaws, if prior to the date of such special meeting, we receive revocations of Written Requests such that there are no longer valid unrevoked Written Requests from holders of record as of the Request Record Date (as defined in the Bylaws) of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock as provided in our Bylaws, then: (i) if the notice of the special meeting has not been delivered, the Company will not deliver the notice of the special meeting and instead send to all stockholders who have submitted Written Requests and who have not revoked such Written Requests, written notice of revocation of a request for a special meeting, or (ii) if the notice of the special meeting has been delivered and if the Company first sends to all stockholders who have submitted Written Requests and who have not revoked such Written Requests for a special meeting, written notice of revocation of a request for the special meeting and written notice of the Company's intention to revoke the notice of the special meeting or for the chairman of the meeting to adjourn the meeting without action on the matter, (A) the Corporate Secretary may revoke the notice of the special meeting at any time before ten days before the commencement of the special meeting or (B) the chairman of the special meeting may call the special meeting to order and adjourn the meeting without acting on the Proposals. Any request for a special meeting received after a revocation by the Company of a notice of a special meeting shall be considered a request for a new special meeting. As a result, we may (and likely will) continue to solicit revocations of Written Requests up to and until the date of any stockholder-requested special meeting.

We reserve our rights to require full compliance with the provisions set forth in our Bylaws and applicable law, including the Maryland General Corporation Law, with respect to any special meeting sought to be called by Unite Here or any other stockholders, including the enforcement of the procedures and requirements for calling a special meeting set forth under Article I, Section 3 of our Bylaws. These requirements include, but are not limited to, the inclusion within any Written Request of: (a) the purpose of the meeting and the matters proposed to be acted on at it (which shall be limited to those lawful matters set forth in the Record Date Request Notice (as defined in the Bylaws) received by the Corporate Secretary), (b) the date of signature of each such stockholder (or such agent) signing the Written Request, (c) the name and address, as they appear in the Company's books, of each stockholder signing such Written Request (or on whose behalf the Written Request is signed), (d) the class, series and number of all shares of stock of the Company which are owned (beneficially or of record) by each such stockholder and (e) the nominee holder for, and number of, shares of stock of the Company owned beneficially but not of record by such stockholder,

Table of Contents

The date, time and record date for any special meeting will be set by our Board in accordance with our Bylaws and Maryland law.

Even if Unite Here is successful in its efforts to solicit and cause to be delivered to us valid and unrevoked Written Requests from the holders of not less than a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock as provided in our Bylaws, previously submitted Written Requests may be revoked at any time prior to the date of the stockholder-requested special meeting. If prior to the date of such special meeting, we receive revocations of Written Requests such that there are no longer valid unrevoked Written Requests from holders of record of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock as provided in our Bylaws, our Board has the discretion to cancel the stockholder-requested special meeting. As a result, we may (and likely will) continue to solicit revocations of Written Requests up to and until the date of any stockholder-requested special meeting.

Effect of BLUE Revocation Card

Under Maryland law and our Bylaws, stockholders may revoke any previously signed Written Request by signing, dating and returning to us a BLUE Revocation Card at any time prior to the date of a stockholder-requested special meeting. A Written Request may also be revoked by delivery of a written revocation of your request to Unite Here. Stockholders are urged, however, to return all request revocations in the envelope provided to MacKenzie Partners. We request that if a revocation is instead delivered to Unite Here, a copy of the revocation also be returned in the postage-paid envelope provided so that we will be aware of all revocations and so that the inspector of requests can accurately account for all revocations.

Unless you specify otherwise, by signing and delivering the BLUE Revocation Card, you will be deemed to have revoked any Written Request for a special meeting.

Any BLUE Revocation Card may itself be revoked by marking, signing, dating and delivering a written revocation of your BLUE Revocation Card to the Company, or to Unite Here, or by delivering to Unite Here a subsequently dated Written Request card that Unite Here sent to you.

The revocation of any previously delivered Written Request card or BLUE Revocation Card must be signed and have a date subsequent to the previously delivered Written Request or Revocation Card. The revocation is not required to state the number of shares held unless you wish to revoke your Written Request with respect to less than all shares as to which you previously requested the special meeting, in which case you must state the number of shares to which your revocation relates. In addition, if you have more than one account with respect to which you have delivered a Written Request, the revocation should identify the relevant account for which the Written Request is being revoked.

We have retained MacKenzie Partners to assist in communicating with stockholders in connection with the Unite Here Solicitation and to assist in obtaining BLUE Revocation Cards as appropriate. If you have any questions about how to complete or submit your BLUE Revocation Card or any other questions, MacKenzie Partners will be pleased to assist you. Please contact MacKenzie Partners toll-free at (800) 322-2885 (for stockholders) or collect at (212) 929-5500 (for banks and brokers).

If any shares of Common Stock that you own are held for you in an account with a stock brokerage firm, bank nominee or other similar street name holder, you should follow the instructions on the BLUE Revocation Card to revoke a request with respect to your shares. Alternatively, you can contact the person responsible for your account and direct him or her to revoke a request by executing the enclosed BLUE Revocation Card on your behalf. You are urged to confirm in writing your instructions to the person responsible for your account and provide a copy of those instructions to the Company at the address set forth below so that the Company will be aware of your instructions and can attempt to ensure each instruction is followed.

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO REVOKE ANY WRITTEN REQUEST YOU MAY HAVE PREVIOUSLY GIVEN TO UNITE HERE AT ANY TIME PRIOR TO THE DATE OF ANY STOCKHOLDER-CALLED SPECIAL MEETING. TO DO SO, YOU NEED ONLY SIGN, DATE AND RETURN IN THE PRE-PAID ENVELOPE PROVIDED THE BLUE REVOCATION CARD ACCOMPANYING THIS REVOCATION SOLICITATION STATEMENT.

You should carefully review this Revocation Solicitation Statement. YOUR TIMELY RESPONSE IS IMPORTANT. You may reject the Unite Here Solicitation by promptly signing, dating and returning the enclosed BLUE Revocation Card in the pre-paid envelope provided. Please be aware that if you sign a Written Request card, you will be deemed to have requested a special meeting in accordance with the Unite Here Solicitation, unless your Written Request is subsequently revoked by a valid revocation or deemed revoked by a reduction in the number of shares that you hold.

Results of Solicitation

We anticipate retaining an inspector of requests in connection with the Unite Here Solicitation. We intend to notify stockholders as to whether the requisite Written Requests have been received for calling a special meeting promptly following the inspector's review and certification of such Written Requests.

APPRAISAL RIGHTS

Our stockholders do not have appraisal rights under Maryland law in connection with the Unite Here Solicitation or this Revocation Solicitation Statement.

SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT

The table in Annex A sets forth the beneficial ownership of our Common Stock as of October 16, 2014 for each person or group that holds more than 5% of our Common Stock, and for each of our current directors and named executive officers and for our current directors and executive officers as a group. To our knowledge, each person that beneficially owns our shares has sole voting and disposition power with regard to such shares. Except as set forth in Annex A, no person who has been a director or executive officer of the Company at any time since January 1, 2013, has any substantial interest, direct or indirect, by security holdings or otherwise, in the outcome of this solicitation.

Unless otherwise indicated below, each person or entity has an address in care of our principal executive offices at 14185 Dallas Parkway, Suite 1100, Dallas, Texas 75254.

DELIVERY OF DOCUMENTS TO STOCKHOLDERS SHARING AN ADDRESS

The SEC has adopted rules that permit companies and intermediaries (e.g., brokers) to satisfy the delivery requirements for proxy statements and annual reports with respect to two or more stockholders sharing the same address by delivering a single proxy statement and annual report addressed to those stockholders. This process, which is commonly referred to as householding, potentially means extra convenience for stockholders and cost savings for companies.

A single Revocation Solicitation Statement will be delivered to multiple stockholders sharing an address unless contrary instructions have been received from the affected stockholders. Once you have received notice from your broker that it will be householding communications to your address, householding will continue until you are notified otherwise or until you revoke your consent. If, at any time, you no longer wish to participate in householding and would prefer to receive a separate Revocation Solicitation Statement, please notify your broker and direct your written request to MacKenzie Partners, at 105 Madison Avenue, New York, NY 10016. Stockholders who currently receive multiple copies of the Revocation Solicitation Statement at their address and would like to request householding of their communications should contact their broker.

This number also assumes that the special units in the company's operating partnership that have achieved economic parity with the common units as of the record date and are held by such person or group of persons have been converted to common units and redeemed, with the Company electing to issue Common Stock in satisfaction of the redemption price. Some of these common and special units remain subject to time vesting requirements and are not currently redeemable.
