Item 1.02 Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement.

As previously disclosed, on February 1, 2016, NM Capital Utility Corporation (“NM Capital”), a wholly-owned subsidiary of PNM Resources, Inc. (“PNMR”), provided funding of $125.0 million to Westmoreland San Juan, LLC (“WSJ”), a ring-fenced, bankruptcy-remote, special-purpose entity that is a subsidiary of Westmoreland Coal Company (“Westmoreland”). NM Capital funded the loan to WSJ by first entering into a $125.0 million term loan agreement with MUFG Bank Ltd. (“MUFG”) (formerly, The Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi UFJ, Ltd.) On May 22, 2018, WSJ made a prepayment in the amount of $50.6 million to NM Capital, which amount reflects the entire principal and interest outstanding under the loan at that time. NM Capital used $43.1 million of these proceeds to repay all remaining principal and interest owed under its loan with MUFG and will use the remaining amount for general corporate purposes. The payments of all outstanding amounts under the loans fulfill the obligations of both NM Capital and WSJ under their respective loan agreements, which are effectively terminated. In addition, the guaranty agreement that PNMR entered into with MUFG to guarantee the obligations of NM Capital under its loan with MUFG is also effectively terminated.
