NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
($000 omitted in tables except for per share data)

The information set forth herein is unaudited. This financial information reflects all normal accruals and adjustments which, in the opinion of management, are necessary for a fair statement of the results for the periods presented.

1. Summary of significant accounting policies

Revenue recognition

The Company's revenues are principally recognized as units are shipped and as terms and conditions of purchase orders are met. The Company also incurred costs for certain contracts which are long term. These contracts are accounted for under the percentage of completion method (cost-to-cost) which recognizes revenue as the work progresses towards completion.

Included in other current assets are $1,053,000 of unbilled revenues which represent revenue earned under the percentage of completion method (cost-to-cost) not yet billable under the terms of the contracts.

Industrial Development Revenue Bonds were issued by a government agency to finance the construction of the Company's headquarters/Advanced Technology facility. Annual sinking fund payments of $170,000 commenced December 1, 2000 and continue through 2013, with a final payment of $2,620,000 due December 1, 2014. The Company has agreed to reimburse the issuer of the letter of credit if there are draws on that letter of credit. The Company pays the letter of credit bank an annual fee of 1% of the amount secured thereby and pays the remarketing agent for the bonds an annual fee of .25% of the principal amount outstanding. The Company's interest under the facility capital lease has been pledged to secure its obligations to the government agency, the bank and the bondholders.

The Company also has a $1,000,000 line of credit on which there was no balance outstanding at June 30, 2003.

6. Business segments

The Company operates in two business segments, Advanced Technology Group and Consumer Products Group. The Company's reportable segments are strategic business units that offer different products and services. The segments are composed of separate corporations and are managed separately. Operations in Advanced Technology Group involve the design, manufacture, and marketing of servo-control components for government and commercial industrial applications. Consumer Products Group's operations involve the design, manufacture and marketing of a variety of cutlery products for use by consumers and government agencies. The Company derives its primary sales revenue from domestic customers, although a significant portion of finished products are for foreign end use.

Management Discussion

During the six month period ended June 30, 2003 and for the comparable period ended June 30, 2002, approximately 37% and 24% respectively, of the Company's revenues were derived from contracts with agencies of the U.S. Government or their prime contractors. The Company's business is performed under fixed price contracts. Sales to the government are affected by defense budgets, U.S. & foreign policy and the level of military operations. As major international events continue to unfold, it is difficult to predict the impact on future financial results. In addition, the continued real and perceived threats to the airline industry have lowered commercial passenger traffic and have had a direct effect on revenues in the commercial aerospace markets and, consequently, on aerospace manufacturing.

Results of Operations

The Company's consolidated results of operations for the six month period ended June 30, 2003 when compared to the same six month period of 2002 showed a decrease in net revenues of 4.4% and a decrease in net income of approximately 138.8%. For the second quarter ended June 30, 2003, net revenues decreased approximately 8.3% with a decrease in net income of 116.5% compared to the same period of 2002. The decrease in revenues for the six month period and quarter ended June 30, 2003 is primarily the result of decreased sales and shipments at the Advanced Technology Group related to the previously reported decrease in commercial aircraft production. While revenues continue to reflect the overall economic softness in the commercial aerospace industry, the Company continues to be successful in procuring new applications and the backlog remains strong.

During the first six months of 2003, the Company incurred significant front-end costs associated with prototype, preproduction and start-up activities in both the Advanced Technology Group (ATG) and the Consumer Products Group (CPG). These costs, consistent with accounting standards, are expensed as they occur and as such provide minimal or no benefit to revenue in the current period. Such costs contribute to the decrease in gross profit for the six month period ended June 30, 2003 when compared to the comparable period of 2002. Among these costs, which are being expensed on a current basis, are those related to the engineering and manufacturing of the Marine Corps' new combination bayonet and combat knife. As the result of an intensive two-year competition, the CPG was awarded a four million dollar order which began full production during the third quarter of this year is scheduled through 2004 and into the year 2005.

Selling, general and administrative expenses increased as a percentage of revenues for both the six month period and quarter ended June 30, 2003 when compared to the same period in 2002. The Company has incurred expenses for costs dedicated to expanded sales and marketing activities, and additional procedures and professional expenses relative to the financial reporting and corporate disclosure requirements of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act.

Interest expense decreased for both the six month period and the quarter ended June 30, 2003 when compared to the same period in 2002 due to market driven interest rate fluctuations and the decrease of institutional debt.

The Company continues to take advantage of the tax benefit for extraterritorial sales, which is reflected in the effective tax rate of approximately 37%.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company's primary liquidity and capital requirements relate to the working capital needs; primarily inventory, accounts receivable, capital investments in facilities, machinery, tools/dies and equipment and principal/interest payments on indebtedness. The Company's primary sources of liquidity have been from positive cash flow from operations and from bank financing.

The Company also has a $1,000,000 line of credit on which there was no balance outstanding at June 30, 2003.

As of June 30, 2003 there are no material commitments for capital expenditures.

Item 3. DISCLOSURE CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Our management has reviewed our disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Exchange Act Rules 13a-15 and 15d-15). Our management believes that as of the end of the Company's most recent fiscal quarter, such disclosure controls and procedures are adequate to ensure that material information relating to the Company is made known to management by others within the Company.

In addition, our management reviewed our internal controls and, to management's knowledge, there have been no significant changes in the Company's internal controls or in other factors that could significantly affect internal controls subsequent to the date of their last evaluation.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

In addition to historical information, certain sections of this Form 10-QSB contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, such as those pertaining to the Company's capital resources and profitability.

Edgar Filing: SERVOTRONICS INC /DE/ - Form 10QSB

Forward-looking statements involve numerous risks and uncertainties. The Company derives a material portion of its revenues from contracts with agencies of the U.S. Government or their prime contractors. The Company's business is performed under fixed price contracts and the following factors, among others discussed herein, could cause actual results and future events to differ materially from those set forth or contemplated in the forward-looking statements: uncertainties in today's global economy and global competition, and difficulty in predicting defense appropriations, the vitality of the commercial aviation industry and its ability to purchase new aircraft, the willingness and ability of the Company's customers to fund long-term purchase programs, and market demand and acceptance both for the Company's products and its customers' products which incorporate Company-made components. The success of the Company also depends upon the trends of the economy, including interest rates, income tax laws, governmental regulation, legislation, population changes and those risk factors discussed elsewhere in this Form 10-QSB. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on forward-looking statements, which reflect management's analysis only as of the date hereof. The Company assumes no obligation to update forward-looking statements.
