ITEM 11. Executive Compensation

COMPENSATION DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

INTRODUCTION

This Compensation Discussion and Analysis provides information regarding the following:

§ The objectives of our executive compensation program, including the behaviors and results it is designed to encourage and reward;

§ The roles and responsibilities of management and the Compensation Committee in the governance of our executive compensation program;

§ The elements of our executive compensation program and its purposes; and

§ The compensation decisions with respect to our fiscal year ended September 30, 2008.

Objectives of the Executive Compensation Programs

The objective of our executive compensation program is to align the compensation paid to our executive officers with shareholder and customer interests (on both a short-term and long-term basis); attract, retain and motivate highly qualified executive talent; and provide appropriate rewards for achievement of business objectives and growth in shareholder value. It is the Company’s objective that executive compensation be directly related to the achievement of our planned goals, and the enhancement of corporate and shareholder value. The Compensation Committee recognizes that the industry sector in which we operate is both highly competitive and is challenged by significant legal and regulatory uncertainty. In addition, the technology-related experience and skills of our executive officers have applications to many other industry sectors besides our own. As a result, there is substantial demand for qualified, experienced executive personnel of the type we need to achieve our objectives. The Compensation Committee considers it crucial that the Company be assured of retaining and rewarding our top caliber executives, who are essential to the attainment of our ambitious long-term goals.

For these reasons, the Compensation Committee believes the Company's executive compensation arrangements must remain competitive with those offered by other companies of similar size, scope, performance levels and complexity of operations.

For the purposes of this Compensation Discussion and Analysis, the capitalized term “Named Executive Officers” (or “NEOs”) refers to the executives who are named in the Summary Compensation Table below. Included among the NEOs are Messrs. Clifton E. Lind, Gary L. Loebig, P. Howard Chalmers and Scott A. Zinnecker. Mr. Lind served as our President and Chief Executive Officer until his resignation from such offices and as a director of the Company effective March 31, 2008. Mr. Lind remained an employee of the Company following his resignation as an executive officer and director of the Company until his termination from the Company effective May 1, 2008. Mr. Loebig served as our Interim President and Chief Executive Officer from March 31, 2008 until the hiring of Mr. Sanfilippo effective June 15, 2008. Mr. Loebig remained an employee of the Company until his resignation from the Company effective September 19, 2008. Mr. Chalmers served as our Senior Vice President of Planning and Corporate Communications until August 31, 2008 when his role and responsibilities were revised such that he was no longer an executive officer; Mr. Chalmers remained an employee of the Company until his termination effective December 31, 2008. Mr. Zinnecker served in various roles with the Company until his termination effective September 30, 2008; most recently, he held the role of Executive Vice President and Acting Chief Operating Officer.

The Company entered into certain agreements with Messrs. Lind, Loebig, Chalmers and Zinnecker upon the termination of their employment. Information regarding these agreements is provided below in the section titled “Employment And Termination Arrangements And Change-In-Control Benefits.”

Determining Executive Compensation

Our management and the Compensation Committee strive to maintain an executive compensation program that is structured to provide the executive officers with a total compensation package that, at expected levels of performance, is competitive with those provided to other executives holding comparable positions or having similar qualifications in other similarly situated organizations in our industry and the general market. Both management and the Compensation Committee are involved in the development, review and evaluation of our executive compensation programs. The Compensation Committee has sole responsibility for the approval of such programs. The roles and responsibilities are described below.

Management. Our management sets the strategic direction for the Company and strives to design and maintain compensation programs that motivate behaviors among the executive officers that are consistent with the Company’s strategic goals and objectives. Each year, the Chief Executive Officer, with assistance from other members of management, as appropriate, conducts a review process covering each of the executive officers reporting to the Chief Executive Officer. This annual review process focuses on an evaluation of overall Company performance and the performance of each such executive officer, including an evaluation of compensation levels delivered through each element of compensation (as described below), competitive practices and trends, and specific compensation issues as they arise. Based on the outcomes of this review process, the Chief Executive Officer makes recommendations to the Compensation Committee regarding the compensation of each of the executive officers reporting directly to him. This recommendation typically provides information regarding adjustments, if any, to base salaries, annual incentive bonus award payments, and equity-based incentive awards.

During fiscal year 2008, the Company successfully recruited several individuals to join the Company in senior executive roles. The compensation arrangements with these new Executive Officers are described below in the section titled “Employment and Termination Arrangements and Change-In-Control Benefits.” The Board of Directors believes the addition of these executives is critical to the development and execution of strategic objectives that will guide the Company’s future and support the creation of shareholder value.

Compensation Committee. The Company’s Board of Directors established the Compensation Committee in 1996 at the time of our initial public offering. The Compensation Committee operates pursuant to a charter, which is available on the “Investor Relations” page of the Company’s website at www.multimediasgames.com. As stated in the charter, the purpose of the Compensation Committee is to discharge the Board’s responsibilities relating to compensation and benefits of the Company's executive officers and directors. The current members of the Compensation Committee are Messrs. Jenkins (Chairman), Pearlman and Winkelman, who are each "independent" directors, as required by Nasdaq Marketplace Rules. The Compensation Committee convened eight times during fiscal year 2008 to discuss Company compensation programs and issues.

The Compensation Committee has overall responsibility for the approval of executive and director compensation programs that are appropriate, consistent with the Company's compensation philosophy, and support the Company's business goals and objectives. Specifically, the Compensation Committee has authority and responsibility for the review, evaluation and approval of the compensation structure and levels for all of the executive officers. The Compensation Committee also approves all employment, severance, or change-in-control agreements, and special or supplemental benefits or provisions applicable to executive officers. The Compensation Committee is also responsible for reviewing and making periodic recommendations to the Board regarding the compensation of directors.

Each year, the Compensation Committee reviews the compensation recommendations submitted by the Chief Executive Officer. In general, the Chief Executive Officer's recommendations consider the following:

- § Performance versus stated individual and Company business goals and objectives;
- § Internal equity (i.e., considering the pay for similar jobs and jobs at different levels within the Company) and the critical nature of each Executive Officer to the Company's past and future success;
- § The need to retain talent; and

§ The compensation history of each Executive Officer, including the value and number of stock options awarded in prior years.

The Compensation Committee believes that input from management provides useful information and perspective to assist the Committee with the determination of its own views on compensation. Although the Compensation Committee receives information and recommendations regarding the design and level of compensation of the executive officers from management, the Compensation Committee makes the final decisions as to the plan design and compensation levels for these executives.

In making decisions on each executive officer's compensation, the Committee considers the nature and scope of all elements of the executive officer's total compensation package, the executive officer's responsibilities, and the competitive posture of the executive officer's current compensation. The Committee also evaluates each executive officer's performance through reviews of objective results (both Company and individual results), reports from the Chief Executive Officer and other senior management regarding the executive's effectiveness in supporting the Company's key strategic, operational and financial goals and, in some cases, personal observation.

With respect to the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer, the Committee is responsible for the periodic review and approval of his total compensation, including annual incentive bonus awards and equity-based incentive compensation. The Committee also develops annual performance goals and objectives, and conducts an evaluation of the Chief Executive Officer's performance relative to these goals and objectives. The Committee considers and discusses the Chief Executive Officer's compensation in executive session without the Chief Executive Officer present.

The Compensation Committee has the sole authority to obtain advice from consultants, legal counsel, accounting, or other advisors, as appropriate, to perform the Committee's duties and responsibilities. The Committee did not engage a compensation consultant to assist with the evaluation or review of the compensation programs for its executive officers for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2008.

Elements of Executive Compensation

Management and the Compensation Committee strive to implement executive compensation programs that are designed to attract and retain individuals who possess the qualities necessary to successfully execute the Company's business strategy, and to support the Company's long-term financial success and drive shareholder value. The key elements of our executive compensation program are as follows:

Element	Objectives and Basis	Form
Base Salary	Provide base compensation that reflects each Executive Officer's responsibilities, tenure and performance and is competitive for each role.	Cash
Annual Incentive Bonus	Annual incentive to drive Company and individual performance.	Cash
Equity-Based Incentives	Long-term incentives to drive Company performance and align the Executive Officers' interests with shareholders' interests; retain Executive Officers through vesting and potential wealth accumulation.	Stock options

Retirement and Savings Plan	Assist employees with retirement savings and capital accumulation on a tax-advantaged basis.	401(k) Plan, with Company matching contributions.
Perquisites	On a very limited basis, support Company business interests.	Club membership
Discretionary Bonuses and Awards	Attract top executive talent from outside the Company; retain Executive Officers through vesting and potential wealth accumulation; and recognize promotions and significant individual contributions to the Company.	Cash and stock options
Severance and Change-in-Control Benefits	Provide financial security to Executive Officers and protect Company interests in the event of the termination of employment; attract and retain top executive talent.	Cash severance and acceleration of vesting of nonvested outstanding stock options

Cash Compensation

The Company believes that annual cash compensation should be paid commensurate with attained performance. Accordingly, our cash compensation consists of fixed base compensation, paid in the form of an annual base salary, and an annual incentive bonus program that is designed to motivate and serve as a reward for the Company's overall performance. The Compensation Committee supports management's compensation philosophy of moderate fixed compensation with the potential for significant bonuses for achieving performance-related goals. Base salary and bonus award decisions are made as part of the Company's structured annual review process.

Base Salary. Base salaries are paid to our executive officers to provide an appropriate fixed component of compensation. The base salary paid to each executive officer generally reflects the officer's responsibilities, tenure, individual job performance, measurable contribution to our success, special circumstances, and pay levels of similar positions with comparable companies in the industry. Management and the Compensation Committee review the base salary of each executive officer, including the Chief Executive Officer, on an annual basis. When reviewing each executive officer's base salary, the Compensation Committee considers the level of responsibility and complexity of the executive officer's job, whether individual performance in the prior year was particularly strong or weak, how the executive officer's salary compares to the salaries of other Company executives, and salaries paid for the same or similar positions. In addition to these annual reviews, management and the Committee may, at any time, review the salary of an executive officer who has received a significant promotion, whose responsibilities have been increased significantly, or who is the object of competitive recruitment. Any adjustments are based on increases in the cost of living, job performance of the executive officer over time, and the expansion of duties and responsibilities, if any. No pre-determined weight or emphasis is placed on any one of these factors.

The following table summarizes the base salaries for each of the Named Executive Officers during the fiscal year ended September 30, 2008:

Name	Annual Base Salary Effective 10/01/2007	Adjustments	Annual Base Salary Effective 09/30/2008
Anthony M. Sanfilippo (1)	—	—	$ 450,000
Gary L. Loebig (2)	$ 194,250	—	—
Clifton E. Lind (2)	$ 450,000	—	—
		22,500
Randy S. Cieslewicz (3)	$ 212,500	$ (-10.6%)	$ 235,000
		(75,600)
P. Howard Chalmers (4)	$ 189,000	$ (-40.0%)	$ 113,400
Scott A. Zinnecker (2)	$ 189,000	—	—

- (1) Mr. Sanfilippo was hired as President, Chief Executive Officer and a director of the Company effective June 15, 2008. Additional details regarding the terms of his employment are provided below.
- (2) Messrs. Loebig, Lind and Zinnecker each terminated their employment with the Company on or before September 30, 2008.
- (3) Mr. Cieslewicz received a market-based adjustment to his salary effective July 28, 2008. On December 1, 2008, Mr. Cieslewicz resigned from the Company effective February 15, 2009.
- (4) Effective August 31, 2008, the role and responsibilities of Mr. Chalmers were revised such that he was no longer an executive officer of the Company. Consistent with this change, his salary was reduced. He remained an employee of the Company until his termination effective December 31, 2008.

The base salaries for each of the recently-hired executive officers (i.e., Messrs. Sanfilippo, Ramsey, Clinton, Roemer, and Ms. Shanks) were the result of negotiations between the Company and each individual. In each case, the Company believes that the salaries are appropriate, competitive, and were necessary to attract the caliber of executive-level talent that each of these individuals possess. Specific salary levels were agreed to based upon each individual's salary level at their previous employers, the roles and positions each would be assuming with Multimedia Games, and other career opportunities that they were considering.

Annual Incentive Bonus. The Company's annual incentive bonus program is intended to motivate the NEOs to achieve superior Company financial performance, recognize and reward the executive officers for their contributions when superior annual performance is achieved, and provide compensation opportunities which are aligned with competitive practices. The program is designed so that the annual incentive bonus can potentially be the largest component of cash compensation only if the executive and the Company are able to meet or exceed performance-related goals that, if attained, are expected to result in an increase in overall company and shareholder value. Bonus award payments are typically made in the first quarter of the fiscal year following the year in which they were earned.

Historically under our annual incentive bonus program, the NEOs did not have pre-set performance goals or annual bonus targets, expressed as a percentage of base salary. Rather, an annual incentive bonus pool was funded as a percentage of the Company reported pre-tax income, which was the sole corporate measure of performance for the funding of an incentive bonus pool. The bonus pool funding percentage was developed and approved by the Board of Directors periodically, based on the Company's expected performance and an assessment of appropriate awards the annual incentive bonus pool might generate given different performance levels. If the Company's performance resulted in the funding of the annual incentive bonus pool, then the Chief Executive Officer would have recommended to the Compensation Committee a bonus award amount for each of the other NEOs. The Chief Executive Officer's recommendations would have been based on his assessment of each such NEOs contribution to the execution of the Company's business plans. The Compensation Committee would have considered the Chief Executive Officer's recommendations, and made changes to the recommended award amounts, as appropriate. The Chief Executive Officer's bonus award was determined solely by the Compensation Committee based on its evaluation of his performance.

With the hiring of several new executive officers during fiscal year 2008, the Company has implemented a new annual incentive approach. Under this approach, each of the Executive Officers have been assigned a target annual bonus opportunity, expressed as a percentage of the executive's annual base salary. Subject to the achievement of pre-established performance targets, the Executive Officers may earn an annual incentive bonus award above or below the bonus target opportunity. The Compensation Committee determined that a target-based annual incentive approach would allow for greater alignment between annual bonus awards and Company performance than the previous approach. Specifically, the Compensation Committee believes that the proposed target-based annual incentive approach will facilitate the use of performance measures that are aligned with the creation of shareholder value, and thus provide a direct incentive for Executive Officers to perform.

We anticipate the annual incentive bonus for fiscal year 2009 will be based on the Company's EBITDA performance (EBITDA is defined as Earnings Before Interest, Taxes, Amortization, Depreciation and Accretion of Contract Rights), less capital expenditures, relative to a predetermined target amount. EBITDA less capital expenditures must meet a threshold level equal to approximately 50% of the target amount in order for annual incentive bonus awards to be funded. If the Company's minimum threshold is met, the Executive Officers will each be eligible to receive annual incentive awards equal to 80% of his or her individual target bonus. If the Company's EBITDA is between 80% and 100% of the target amount, the amount of annual incentive awards for which each Executive Officer will be eligible to receive will increase on a pro-rata basis, such that if EBITDA less capital expenditures is equal to 100% of the target amount, each Executive Officer will be eligible to receive an annual incentive award equal to 100% of his or her individual target bonus percentage. If the Company's EBITDA less capital expenditures exceeds 100% of the target amount, each Executive Officer will be eligible to receive a bonus award up to his or her individual maximum award opportunity. For fiscal year 2009, the annual incentive bonus opportunities (expressed as a percentage of base salary) for the Executive Officers are as follows:

Name	Threshold (1)	Target	Maximum
Anthony M. Sanfilippo	120%	150%	300%
Other Executive Officers (2)	48%	60%	100%

(1) Represents the annual incentive bonus award payout for which the Executive Officers may be eligible for EBITDA performance equal to 80% of the target amount.

(2) Refers to Messrs. Ramsey, Clinton, Roemer, and Ms. Shanks.

For fiscal year 2008, two NEOs earned bonuses. Pursuant to the terms of his Employment Agreement dated May 29, 2008, Mr. Loebig was awarded a bonus in the aggregate amount of $119,231 (consisting of $69,231 in additional compensation related to his term as Interim Chief Executive Officer and a $50,000 cash bonus at the completion of his term) in recognition of his service as the Company's Interim President and Chief Executive Officer. This bonus was paid to Mr. Loebig on June 20, 2008. Mr. Sanfilippo earned a bonus award of $181,731 in recognition of his service during fiscal year 2008 under the terms of his employment agreement, which provides him with a target bonus opportunity equal to 150% of his base salary, and a maximum bonus opportunity of 300% of his base salary. For fiscal year 2008, Mr. Sanfilippo's performance was evaluated based on the following objectives set forth shortly after his employment with the Company: (i) review the current profitability and future viability of each of the Company's product lines; (ii) assess the Company's organizational structure; (iii) establish relationships with stakeholders of the Company; and (iv) review the Company's expense structure. The Board of Directors' assessment of his performance following the completion of the year determined that, in the aggregate, Mr. Sanfilippo met these objectives, and thus awarded him a bonus award equal to 150% of the base salary he earned during the fiscal year 2008. The bonus will be paid to Mr. Sanfilippo during fiscal year 2009. These awards are reflected in the "Bonus" column in the Summary Compensation Table.

Due to the dynamic nature of the Company's industry, which is driven by economic and regulatory conditions, and customer preferences, the Company believes that the periodic use of discretion in the determination of bonus award amounts is appropriate and optimizes the overall value of the bonus program. This approach facilitates teamwork and collaboration among the executive officers, and allows them to not be limited to pre-established goals should operating conditions change during the year.

Equity-Based Incentives

We provide our Executive Officers with long-term compensation in the form of equity-based incentives, which are intended to align the interests of our Executive Officers with the interest of the Company's shareholders by supporting the creation of long-term value for the organization, facilitate significant long-term retention, and be consistent with competitive market practices. Over time, it is the Compensation Committee's intent that equity-based compensation should represent a significant portion of each executive officer's total compensation, and the primary equity-based incentive vehicle we have used has been stock options. Nonqualified and incentive stock options have been granted to the Company's executive officers and other employees. The Company expects to continue to issue stock options to new employees as they are hired, as well as to current employees as incentives from time to time. Our rationale for granting stock options is as follows:

§ We believe that stock options are highly effective at aligning the long-term interests of our Executive Officers with the interests of our shareholders;

§ The grant of stock options to Executive Officers has been an essential ingredient to enabling us to achieve our growth and attain our business objectives; and

§ We regularly face significant legal, regulatory and competitive challenges to our business that require extraordinary commitments of time and expertise by the Executive Officers, who have met these challenges and made these extraordinary commitments, largely because of the reward and incentive provided by the historical and prospective grant of stock options.

The Compensation Committee periodically reviews the need to make grants of stock options to the executive officers, typically based on recommendations from management. When approving the grants of stock options, the Compensation Committee considers the number and terms of options previously granted, industry practices, the executive officer's level of responsibility, and assumed potential stock value in the future.

The Company's equity-based incentive awards are designed to comply with Section 162(m) of the IRS code to allow tax deductibility of the awards. Stock options are awarded under the Company's stock plans – the 1996 Stock Incentive Plan, the 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003 Stock Option Plans, and an Ad Hoc Stock Option Plan. Our Board of Directors has also adopted a 2008 Employment Inducement Award Plan. Individual grants of options are documented by stock option agreements which contain the specific terms and provisions pertaining to each grant, including vesting, option term, exercise price, and termination provisions. Options granted to the Executive Officers and other employees generally vest over four years and expire seven years from the date of grant. The exercise price of stock options granted to executive officers is equal to the market value of a share of Company common stock on the date of grant. Therefore, our executive officers will receive no benefit from the stock options unless the value of a share of common stock exceeds the exercise price.

Stock option grants to Executive Officers and other employees have historically consisted of a combination of incentive stock options, or ISOs, and nonqualified stock options, or NQSOs. The use of ISOs has allowed recipients to take advantage of certain tax benefits the ISOs afford under Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code (and any successor provision of the Code having a similar intent).

During the fiscal year ended September 30, 2008, the Compensation Committee approved grants of stock options to Messrs. Loebig, Cieslewicz and Zinnecker, consisting of a combination of ISOs and NQSOs. The options will vest and become exercisable over four years. The Compensation Committee approved these grants as an incentive to retain the services of these individuals during a period of transition, to keep them engaged in the Company's day-to-day operations, and to contribute institutional knowledge which was valuable to the new executive team as they developed a new strategy for the Company.

Upon commencement of their employment with the Company, the Compensation Committee approved grants of stock options to Mr. Sanfilippo and the other recently-hired Executive Officers (i.e., Messrs. Ramsey, Clinton, Roemer, and Ms. Shanks). These grants were made to provide an immediate incentive for these individuals to focus on the creation of shareholder value. In addition, the Company believes the level of these equity awards were necessary to attract these executives, and in some instances, replace certain equity opportunities they had at their previous employers. Details of Mr. Sanfilippo's stock option grant are provided below in the section titled "Compensation of the Chief Executive Officer." Additional information is also provided in the section titled "Employment and Termination Arrangements and Change-In-Control Benefits."

Other than the stock option awards described above, none of the other Named Executive Officers received grants of stock options or any other form of equity-based incentives during the fiscal year ended September 30, 2008.

The Company does not currently maintain required levels of stock ownership by the Executive Officers. The Company does have in place "Procedures and Guidelines Governing Securities Trades by Company Personnel," in order to comply with federal and state securities laws governing (a) trading in Company securities while in the possession of "material nonpublic information" concerning the Company, and (b) tipping or disclosing material nonpublic information to outsiders. In order to prevent even the appearance of improper trading or tipping, the Company has adopted this policy for all of its directors, officers and employees, venture capital and other entities (such as trusts and corporations) over which such employees, officers or directors have or share voting or investment control and specially designated outsiders who have access to the Company's material nonpublic information.

Benefit Programs and Perquisites

We provide our executive officers with benefits that are intended to be a part of a competitive total compensation package and that will permit us to attract and retain highly-qualified executives. These benefits include health and welfare benefits, a retirement and savings plan, and a perquisite limited to the Chief Executive Officer. Each of these benefits is described below.

Health and Welfare Benefits. The Company's benefits program is designed to provide employees (including the executive officers) and their families with security and well being, and is an important part of the total compensation package. These benefits are divided into the following major categories:

§ Health Care Benefits – medical, dental and vision insurance coverage;

§ Life and Disability Benefits – basic, optional life and accident insurance as well as short and long-term disability coverage;

§ Flexible Spending Accounts – health care and dependent care tax-free accounts; and § Work Life Benefits – employee assistance with everyday issues, financial and legal issues, parenting, childcare, education and elder care.

The Executive officers participate in these benefits programs on the same relative basis as our other employees.

Retirement and Savings. The Company maintains an employee retirement and savings plan pursuant to Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the 401(k) Plan. The purpose of the 401(k) Plan is to permit employees, including executive officers, to accumulate funds for retirement on a tax-advantaged basis. Specifically, the 401(k) Plan permits each eligible employee to contribute on a pre-tax basis a portion of his compensation to the 401(k) Plan (for calendar year 2008, the maximum amount of compensation that may be contributed to the 401(k) Plan was $15,500). The Company makes a matching contribution to the 401(k) Plan that is equal to 100% of the first 3% of compensation contributed by employees and 50% of the next 2% of compensation contributed by employees to the 401(k) Plan.

The Company does not maintain a tax-qualified defined benefit retirement plan. In addition, the Company does not maintain any non qualified supplemental retirement plans or deferred compensation plans for the executive officers.

Perquisites. The Company does not provide perquisites to executive officers, except for monthly club membership dues that were paid on behalf of Mr. Lind during his tenure as President and Chief Executive Officer. Two club memberships were primarily used for business purposes, including sales and customer entertainment and Board of Directors dinners. The value of this benefit to Mr. Lind in the fiscal year ended September 30, 2008, is included in the "All Other Compensation" column in the Summary Compensation Table.

Compensation of the Chief Executive Officer

Mr. Sanfilippo commenced employment with the Company as President and Chief Executive Officer, effective June 15, 2008. In accordance with the terms of his employment agreement (key terms of which are described below), Mr. Sanfilippo receives an annual base salary of $450,000. In addition, he has an opportunity to earn an annual bonus equal to 150% of his base salary upon achievement of certain performance targets approved by the Company's Board of Directors, and up to a maximum of 300% of his base salary for overachievement of such performance targets. As noted above, Mr. Sanfilippo earned a bonus award of $181,731 in recognition of his service during the fiscal year. Upon the execution of his employment agreement, Mr. Sanfilippo was granted 1,300,000 stock options. The options became immediately exercisable, but are subject to a vesting over four years in equal quarterly installments.

Mr. Sanfilippo's total compensation package was determined as the result of a negotiation process between Mr. Sanfilippo and the Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee believes the structure of the compensation package, as well as the targeted and potential value of the package, provides a competitive opportunity that is strongly aligned with shareholder interests.

Mr. Loebig was appointed Interim President and Chief Executive Officer on March 31, 2008, a position he held until the hiring of Mr. Sanfilippo effective June 15, 2008. In connection with his appointment to such offices, the Company entered into an Employment Agreement with Mr. Loebig, which is described below in the section titled "Employment and Termination Arrangements and Change-In-Control Benefits." Pursuant to the terms of Mr. Loebig's Employment Agreement, he received a bonus award of $119,231 (consisting of $69,231 in additional compensation related to his term as Interim Chief Executive Officer and a $50,000 cash bonus at the completion of his term) in recognition of his service during the fiscal year. On July 14, 2008, Mr. Loebig was granted 80,000 stock options. The grant consisted of a combination of 23,643 ISOs and 56,357 NQSOs. One-fourth of the options will vest on the first anniversary of the grant date; the remaining options will vest in equal quarterly increments over the following three years.

Mr. Lind served as the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer until his resignation from such offices, effective March 31, 2008. He remained an employee of the Company until his termination on May 1, 2008, at which time he and the Company entered into certain agreements related to his termination. Key terms of these agreements are described below. Mr. Lind's annual base salary was $450,000 for the period during which he was employed by the Company in fiscal year 2008. Mr. Lind did not receive a bonus award for his service during the fiscal year, nor did the Company grant options to him during fiscal 2008.

EMPLOYMENT AND TERMINATION ARRANGEMENTS AND CHANGE-IN-CONTROL BENEFITS

The Company is party to employment agreements with a total of five current executive officers, including Mr. Sanfilippo. In addition, we entered into certain agreements with Messrs. Lind, Loebig, Chalmers and Zinnecker to define certain arrangements regarding their terminations from the Company. The following paragraphs provide summaries of the agreements with the Named Executive Officers.

Agreements with Anthony M. Sanfilippo. On June 15, 2008, the Company entered into certain agreements with Mr. Sanfilippo, including an employment agreement that sets forth certain terms and conditions relating to his employment as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company. Mr. Sanfilippo's employment agreement provides that he will receive an annual base salary of $450,000, subject to covenants in the employment agreement and in an Agreement Regarding Proprietary Developments, Confidential Information and Non-Solicitation. The annual salary will be subject to an annual review by the Board of Directors or Compensation Committee. In addition, he has an opportunity to earn an annual bonus equal to 150% of his base salary upon achievement of certain performance targets approved by the Company's Board of Directors, and up to a maximum of 300% of his base salary for overachievement of such performance targets. The employment agreement also specifies that Mr. Sanfilippo will be eligible to enroll in the Company's benefit programs and vacation policies as they are established from time-to-time for senior-level executive employees, or be reimbursed for the cost to purchase comparable coverage at a benefit level consistent with other senior-level executive employees. Mr. Sanfilippo will also be reimbursed for the cost of co-payments under his current health and medical benefit plans, and annual physical examinations for Mr. Sanfilippo and his spouse.

For a period of six months following the effective date of the employment agreement, the Company paid expenses related to Mr. Sanfilippo's commuting between Austin, Texas (the Company's home office location) and each of his home offices in Germantown, Tennessee and Salt Lake City, Utah; as well reasonable costs of a furnished executive apartment in Austin, Texas, car rental and other related and reasonable expenses. The Company will pay for the reasonable moving expenses for Mr. Sanfilippo's relocation to Austin, Texas, excluding any costs associated with buying or selling a home.

Upon the execution of the employment agreement, Mr. Sanfilippo was granted 1,300,000 stock options. The options became immediately exercisable, but are subject to a vesting over four years in equal quarterly installments. In addition, he agreed to purchase 250,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock pursuant to a Stock Purchase Agreement, under which the shares were purchased at a price of $4.68 per share, such price being the fair market value of each such share on the effective date of the agreement.

In the event of Mr. Sanfilippo's death or disability, voluntary termination, or termination for cause (each as defined within the employment agreement), he shall not be entitled to receive any severance, other than accrued but unpaid salary, vacation, vested benefits, and unreimbursed expenses. Further, the Company's other obligations under the employment agreement shall cease. In the event of Mr. Sanfilippo's termination without cause or his termination of employment for good reason (each as defined within the employment agreement), the Company: (i) shall pay Mr. Sanfilippo (a) in the event that the termination occurs on or before June 15, 2009, one year of base salary continuation and target bonus, or (b) in the event that the termination occurs after June 15, 2009, two years of base salary continuation and two years of target bonus; and (ii) if Mr. Sanfilippo elects to continue health coverage under the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (“COBRA”), the Company will pay the premiums in an amount sufficient to maintain the level of health benefits in effect on his last day of employment, for a period of up to one year after the termination. The same termination benefits would apply in the event of Mr. Sanfilippo’s termination without cause or his termination for good reason, within one year following a Change of Control. In addition, the stock options granted to Mr. Sanfilippo upon the commencement of his employment with the Company would become fully vested in the event of his termination without cause or his termination for good reason, within one year following a Change of Control. The Company’s obligation to provide the severance benefits set forth above is contingent upon Mr. Sanfilippo’s execution of a mutual release of claims satisfactory to the Company.

Agreements with Gary L. Loebig. Upon his resignation on September 19, 2008, the Company entered into certain agreements with Mr. Loebig, including a Termination of Employment Agreement and a Separation and Release Agreement. The Termination of Employment Agreement provides for the termination of an employment agreement between the Company and Mr. Loebig, dated May 29, 2008. That Employment Agreement outlined the terms and conditions of his employment as the Company's Interim President and Chief Executive Officer, roles he held from March 31, 2008 until the hiring of Mr. Sanfilippo effective June 15, 2008. Under the terms of the Employment Agreement, Mr. Loebig's salary was unchanged; however, he was entitled to receive a bonus (the "Cash Bonus") in the amount of $25,000 per month for the period during which he held the titles of Interim President and Chief Executive Officer. As described above, Mr. Loebig received payment of the Cash Bonus pursuant to these terms.

The Termination of Employment Agreement provided for the payment to Mr. Loebig of one-half of the annual base salary defined in the employment agreement, as well as any accrued but unpaid salary, vacation, vested benefits, and unreimbursed expenses through the date of his termination.

The Separation and Release Agreement also provides for the continuation of the terms and provisions of Stock Option Agreements between the Company and Mr. Loebig, in existence upon his termination. In the event of a Change of Control, these stock option agreements provide for full vesting of all nonvested stock options held by Mr. Loebig.

The Company and Mr. Loebig also entered into a Consulting Agreement, under which he will provide consulting services a minimum of one day per month and a maximum of four days per month, at the request of the Company's Chief Executive Officer or the Company's Board of Directors. The agreement will terminate on September 19, 2009. In consideration for his consulting services, Mr. Loebig will receive a fee in the amount of $3,200 per month. In addition, he will continue his participation in the Company's health care benefit plans for himself and his spouse for the term of the agreement.

Agreements with Clifton E. Lind. Upon his resignation on May 1, 2008, the Company entered into certain agreements with Mr. Lind, including a Termination of Employment Agreement and a Separation and Release Agreement. The Termination of Employment Agreement provides for the termination of an employment agreement between the Company and Mr. Lind, dated September 9, 2004, as well as payment to Mr. Lind of any accrued but unpaid salary, vacation, vested benefits, and unreimbursed expenses through the date of his termination. The Separation and Release Agreement provided for the termination of the severance provisions of Mr. Lind's employment agreement with the Company, as well as the reimbursement of up to an aggregate of $7,500 for the fees and expenses of a single special counsel to Mr. Lind, incurred in the course of negotiating the Separation and Release Agreement, the Termination of Employment Agreement, and a Consulting Agreement.

The Separation and Release Agreement also provides for the continuation of the terms and provisions of Stock Option Agreements between the Company and Mr. Lind, in existence upon his termination. In the event of a Change of Control, these stock option agreements provide for full vesting of all nonvested stock options held by Mr. Lind.

The Company and Mr. Lind also entered into a consulting agreement, under which he will provide consulting services a minimum of four days per month and a maximum of twelve days per month, at the request of the Company's Chief Executive Officer or the Company's Board of Directors. The agreement will terminate on May 31, 2011. In consideration for his consulting services, Mr. Lind will receive fees in the amount of $30,000 per month for the period May 2008 through October 2008; $25,000 per month for the period November 2008 through April 2009; $22,500 per month for the period May 2009 through October 2010; and $20,000 per month for the period November 2010 through May 2011. In addition, he will continue his participation in the Company's health care benefit plans for himself and his spouse for the term of the agreement.

Agreement with P. Howard Chalmers. Effective August 31, 2008, the role and responsibilities of Mr. Chalmers were revised such that he was no longer an Executive Officer of the Company. Effective on that date, the Company entered into an agreement with Mr. Chalmers, under which he agreed to a reduction in the annual rate of his base salary from $189,000 to $113,400, continuing through the earlier of (i) December 31, 2008 or, (ii) his acceptance of other employment or consulting engagement requiring a majority of his business time and attention with compensation at an annual rate aggregating more than $150,000. The agreement also provided that he would continue to be eligible for Company benefits consistent with those he received prior to the agreement.

In addition, the agreement established that beginning January 1, 2009, Mr. Chalmers would provide consulting services to the Company as reasonably requested for a period ending June 30, 2009. During that consulting period, he would receive consulting fees at an hourly rate, or a project fees to be determined for services actually rendered, but not receive salary, benefits, or other compensation from the Company. The agreement also provides, in exchange for the confirmation and execution of a general release of all claims against the Company, for the continuation of the terms and provisions of Stock Option Agreements between the Company and Mr. Chalmers in existence upon his termination.

Mr. Chalmers remained an employee of the Company until his termination effective December 31, 2008, and has subsequently commenced consulting services to the Company in accordance with the terms of the agreement.

Agreements with Scott A. Zinnecker. Upon his resignation on September 30, 2008, the Company entered into certain agreements with Mr. Zinnecker, including a Separation, Release and Indemnification Agreement. In consideration for his execution of the agreement, Mr. Zinnecker received a severance payment of $58,153.92, equal to four months of his annual base salary, less customary payroll deductions, as well as any accrued but unpaid salary, vacation, vested benefits, and unreimbursed expenses through the date of his termination. The agreement also provides for the continuation of the terms and provisions of Stock Option Agreements between the Company and Mr. Zinnecker in existence upon his termination.

The Company and Mr. Zinnecker also entered into a consulting agreement, under which he will provide consulting services at the request of the Company's Chief Executive Officer or the Company's Board of Directors. The agreement will terminate on July 15, 2009. In consideration for his consulting services, Mr. Zinnecker will receive a fee in the amount of $150 per hour for all services provided upon the Company's request. There is no minimum number of hours required as part of the consulting agreement, and there are certain limits as to the maximum days per month which Mr. Zinnecker may provide services.

Agreements with Virginia E. Shanks. On July 22, 2008, the Company entered into an executive employment agreement with Ms. Shanks, which sets forth certain terms and conditions relating to her employment as the Company's Senior Vice President and Chief Marketing Officer. Ms. Shanks' employment agreement provides that she will receive an annual base salary of $250,000, subject to covenants in the employment agreement and in an Agreement Regarding Proprietary Developments, Confidential Information and Non-Solicitation. The annual salary will be subject to an annual review by the Company's Chief Executive Officer. In addition, she has an opportunity to earn an annual bonus equal to 60% of her base salary upon achievement of certain performance targets approved by the Company's Chief Executive Officer, and up to a maximum of 100% of her base salary for overachievement of such performance targets. The employment agreement also specifies that Ms. Shanks will be eligible to enroll in the Company's benefit programs and vacation policies as they are established from time-to-time for senior-level executive employees.

Pursuant to the employment agreement, on July 22, 2008 the Company granted Ms. Shanks 250,000 stock options pursuant to the Company's 2008 Employment Inducement Award Plan. The options became immediately exercisable, but are subject to vesting over four years. Specifically, one-sixteenth (1/16) of the options vest on October 22, 2008, with the remaining options vesting one-sixteenth (1/16) quarterly until fully vested.

Ms. Shanks will serve as Vice President of Sales until her successor is chosen and qualified or until her death, resignation, retirement, disqualification or removal. If there is a Change of Control of the Company, Ms. Shanks may, in certain circumstances, receive one year of base salary and one year of a target bonus payment; provided, however, that if the Change of Control occurs after July 22, 2009, Ms. Shanks would, in such circumstances, receive two years of base salary and two years of target bonus payments. Ms. Shanks is eligible to receive a gross-up payment in the event that any payment by the Company to or for the benefit of Ms. Shanks is subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Agreements with Uri L. Clinton. On August 16, 2008, the Company entered into an executive employment agreement with Mr. Clinton, which sets forth certain terms and conditions relating to his employment as the Company's General Counsel. Mr. Clinton's employment agreement provides that he will receive an annual base salary of $250,000, subject to covenants in the employment agreement and in an Agreement Regarding Proprietary Developments, Confidential Information and Non-Solicitation. The annual salary will be subject to an annual review by the Company's Chief Executive Officer. In addition, he has an opportunity to earn an annual bonus equal to 60% of his base salary upon achievement of certain performance targets approved by the Company's Chief Executive Officer, and up to a maximum of 100% of his base salary for overachievement of such performance targets. The employment agreement also specifies that Mr. Clinton will be eligible to enroll in the Company's benefit programs and vacation policies as they are established from time-to-time for senior-level executive employees.

Pursuant to the employment agreement, on August 16, 2008 the Company granted Mr. Clinton 250,000 stock options pursuant to the Company's 2008 Employment Inducement Award Plan. The options became immediately exercisable, but are subject to vesting over four years. Specifically, one-sixteenth (1/16) of the option vests on November 16, 2008, with the remaining options vesting one-sixteenth (1/16) quarterly until fully vested.

Mr. Clinton will serve as General Counsel until his successor is chosen and qualified or until his death, resignation, retirement, disqualification or removal. If there is a Change of Control of the Company, Mr. Clinton may, in certain circumstances, receive one year of base salary and one year of a target bonus payment; provided, however, that if the Change of Control occurs after August 16, 2009, Mr. Clinton would, in such circumstances, receive two years of base salary and two years of target bonus payments. Mr. Clinton is eligible to receive a gross-up payment in the event that any payment by the Company to or for the benefit of Mr. Clinton is subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Agreements with Patrick R. Ramsey. On September 14, 2008, the Company entered into an executive employment agreement with Mr. Ramsey, which sets forth certain terms and conditions relating to his employment as the Company's Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer. Mr. Ramsey's employment agreement provides that he will receive an annual base salary of $300,000, subject to covenants in the employment agreement and in an Agreement Regarding Proprietary Developments, Confidential Information and Non-Solicitation. The annual salary will be subject to an annual review by the Company's Chief Executive Officer. In addition, he has an opportunity to earn an annual bonus equal to 60% of his base salary upon achievement of certain performance targets approved by the Company's Chief Executive Officer, and up to a maximum of 100% of his base salary for overachievement of such performance targets. The employment agreement also specifies that Mr. Ramsey will be eligible to enroll in the Company's benefit programs and vacation policies as they are established from time-to-time for senior-level executive employees.

For a period of six months following the effective date of the employment agreement, the Company will pay expenses related to Mr. Ramsey's commuting between Austin, Texas (the Company's home office location) and Las Vegas, Nevada; as well reasonable costs of an apartment in Austin, Texas, car rental and other related and reasonable expenses. The Company will pay for the reasonable moving expenses for Mr. Ramsey's relocation to Austin, Texas.

Pursuant to the employment agreement, on September 14, 2008 the Company granted Mr. Ramsey 300,000 stock options pursuant to the Company's 2008 Employment Inducement Award Plan. The options became immediately exercisable, but are subject to vesting over four years. Specifically, one-fourth (1/4) of the options vest on September 14, 2009 and the remaining options vest in equal quarterly installments until fully vested.

Mr. Ramsey will serve as Chief Operating Officer until his successor is chosen and qualified or until his death, resignation, retirement, disqualification or removal. If there is a Change of Control of the Company, Mr. Ramsey may, in certain circumstances, receive one year of base salary and one year of a target bonus payment; provided, however, that if the Change of Control occurs after September 14, 2009, Mr. Ramsey would, in such circumstances, receive two years of base salary and two years of target bonus payments. Mr. Ramsey is eligible to receive a gross-up payment in the event that any payment by the Company to or for the benefit of Mr. Ramsey is subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Agreement with Mick Roemer. On January 12, 2009, the Company entered into an executive employment agreement with Mr. Roemer, which sets forth certain terms and conditions relating to his employment as Senior Vice President of Sales of the Company. Mr. Roemer's employment agreement provides that he will receive an annual base salary of $200,000, subject to covenants in the employment agreement and in an Agreement Regarding Proprietary Developments, Confidential Information and Non-Solicitation. The annual salary will be subject to an annual review by the Company's Chief Executive Officer. In addition, he is entitled to receive a quarterly incentive bonus (the "Incentive Bonus") upon the achievement of new sales and new placement goals mutually agreed to by and between

Mr. Roemer and the Company's Chief Executive Officer for each quarter. The Incentive Bonus shall not exceed $100,000 in any individual twelve (12) month period. In addition to the Incentive Bonus, Mr. Roemer has an opportunity to earn an annual bonus equal to 60% of his base salary upon achievement of certain performance targets approved by the Company's Chief Executive Officer, and up to a maximum of 100% of his base salary for overachievement of such performance targets. The employment agreement also specifies that Mr. Roemer will be eligible to enroll in the Company's benefit programs and vacation policies as they are established from time-to-time for senior-level executive employees.

Pursuant to the employment agreement, the Company granted Mr. Roemer 200,000 stock options pursuant to the Company's 2008 Employment Inducement Award Plan. The options became immediately exercisable, but are subject to vesting over four years. Specifically, one-fourth (1/4) of the options will vest on the first anniversary of the grant date and the remaining options vest in equal quarterly installments until fully vested.

Mr. Roemer will serve as Senior Vice President of Sales until his successor is chosen and qualified or until his death, resignation, retirement, disqualification or removal. If there is a Change of Control of the Company, Mr. Roemer may, in certain circumstances, receive one year of base salary and one year of a target bonus payment; provided, however, that if the Change of Control occurs after January 12, 2009, Mr. Roemer would, in such circumstances, receive two years of base salary and two years of target bonus payments. Mr. Roemer is eligible to receive a gross-up payment in the event that any payment by the Company to or for the benefit of Mr. Roemer is subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Change-in-Control Benefits. Generally, the Company does not provide executive officers with any special benefits that are triggered solely upon a change-in-control. However, upon a change-in-control, virtually all of the Company's outstanding stock options, including those held by our executive officers, become fully vested. Change-in-control generally refers to certain corporate transactions involving the Company such as a merger or consolidation, sale of assets, dissolution or the acquisition by any person of at least 51% of our voting stock. The Compensation Committee believes that for senior executives, including the Named Executive Officers, accelerated vesting of stock options in the event of a change-in-control is generally appropriate because in some change-in-control situations, equity of the target company is cancelled making immediate acceleration necessary in order to preserve the value of the option grants. In addition, the Company relies on long-term incentive awards to provide our executive officers with the opportunity to accumulate substantial resources to fund their retirement income, and the Compensation Committee believes that a change in control event is an appropriate liquidation point for awards designed for such purpose.

General Severance Plan. In June 2007, the Company established the Multimedia Games, Inc. Severance Plan for Select Employees ("Severance Plan"). Under this plan, and other than for Mr. Sanfilippo and other executive officers with whom the Company has employment agreements, it is at the discretion of the Plan Administrator, and subject to approval by the Company's Chief Executive Officer, whether an executive officer, or any employee, would be entitled to receive any cash severance benefits due to an involuntary termination of employment. However, in no event may cash severance benefits exceed twice an executive officer's annual compensation (generally defined as base salary) for the calendar year preceding the calendar year during which the executive officer involuntarily terminated. The Severance Plan Administrator is the Company's Senior Vice President of Human Resources.

Under the Severance Plan, there are no commitments for the Company to make severance payments to any employee, including any of the Named Executive Officers. Any payments made pursuant to the Plan are determined on a case-by-case basis. No payments were made under the Severance Plan to any current or former executive officers during the fiscal year ended September 30, 2008.

Compliance with Internal Revenue Code Section 162(m). Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code restricts deductibility of executive compensation paid to our Chief Executive Officer and each of the four other most highly compensated executive officers holding office at the end of any year to the extent such compensation exceeds $1,000,000 for any of such officers in any year and does not qualify for an exception under Section 162(m) or related regulations. The Committee's policy is to qualify its executive compensation for deductibility under applicable tax laws to the extent practicable. Income related to stock options granted under our equity compensation plans generally qualifies for an exemption from these restrictions imposed by Section 162(m). In the future, the Committee will continue to evaluate the advisability of qualifying its executive compensation for full deductibility.

POTENTIAL TERMINATION PAYMENTS

This section describes and quantifies potential payments that may be made or benefits that may be provided to each Named Executive Officer at, following, or in connection with the resignation, severance, retirement, or other termination of the Named Executive Officer or a Change of Control of the Company. For this purpose, it is assumed that each of the foregoing events occurred on the last day of the Company's fiscal year ended September 30, 2008. The determination of potential payments and benefits is based on specific factors and assumptions which are further discussed below. Since these factors and assumptions are subject to change, the payments and benefits that may actually be made to a Named Executive Officer may differ materially from the payments and benefits disclosed in this section.

Mr. Chalmers terminated his employment with the Company effective December 31, 2008. Details regarding actual termination arrangements for Mr. Chalmers are provided in the section titled "Employment And Termination Arrangements And Change-In-Control Benefits."

Loebig, Lind and Zinnecker, each of whom terminated their employment with the Company on or before September 30, 2008; additional details regarding termination arrangements for Messrs. COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT

We, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors, have reviewed and discussed the foregoing Compensation Discussion and Analysis with the management of the Company. Based on such review and discussion, we are of the opinion that the executive compensation policies and plans provide appropriate compensation to properly align the Company's performance and the interests of its shareholders through the use of competitive and equitable executive compensation in a balanced and reasonable manner, for both the short and long-term.
