Cease and Desist Orders

On June 2, 2010, TierOne Corporation (the “Company”) consented to the issuance of an Order to Cease and Desist (the “Company Cease and Desist Order”) by the Office of Thrift Supervision, the Company’s primary federal regulator (the “OTS”). The Company Cease and Desist Order requires the Company to adhere to the enhanced management oversight restrictions required by the Supervisory Agreement that TierOne Bank (the “Bank”) entered into on January 15, 2009, which include, but are not limited to, restrictions on paying dividends, incurring debt, engaging in transactions with affiliates, and actions related to management and the board of directors. In addition, the Company Cease and Desist Order provides that by July 15, 2010, the Company will submit to the OTS a capital plan covering the period beginning with the quarter ending June 30, 2010 through the quarter ending December 31, 2011, which at a minimum needs to address, among other things, the establishment of a minimum tangible capital ratio commensurate with the Company’s stand alone risk profile; specific strategies for increasing and maintaining tangible equity capital; operating strategies to achieve net income levels that will result in profitability and adequate debt service without reliance on dividends from the Bank; and specific plans to reduce the risks to the Company from its current debt servicing requirements.

The Company Cease and Desist Order became effective June 3, 2010 and remains in effect until terminated, modified or suspended by the OTS.

Also on June 2, 2010, the Bank consented to the issuance of an Order to Cease and Desist (the “Bank Cease and Desist Order”) by the OTS, the Bank’s primary federal regulator. Among other things, the Bank Cease and Desist Order provides that:

By June 30, 2010, the Bank shall develop an individual workout plan for each adversely classified loan and loan designated special mention of $500,000 or more.

Effective immediately, the Bank shall comply with its amended appraisal policy, and by June 30, 2010 shall submit to the OTS a written plan for compliance with the appraisal policy that requires a monthly appraisal tracking report.

By June 30, 2010, the Bank shall revise its written policy for identifying, monitoring, and controlling risks associated with concentration of credit to ensure that it addresses all corrective actions set forth in the OTS Report of Examination of the Bank dated October 5, 2009.

The Bank Cease and Desist Order became effective June 3, 2010 and remains in effect until terminated, modified or suspended by the OTS.

Any material failure by the Company and the Bank to comply with the provisions of the Company Cease and Desist Order and/or the Bank Cease and Desist Order could result in further enforcement actions by the OTS. There can be no assurance that the Company or the Bank will be able to comply fully with the orders, or that efforts to comply with the orders will not have adverse effects on the operations and financial condition of the Company and/or the Bank.

A copy of the Company Cease and Desist Order and the Bank Cease and Desist Order are included as Exhibit 10.1 and Exhibit 10.2, respectively, and are incorporated herein by reference. The description of the Company Cease and Desist Order and the Bank Cease and Desist Order set forth above does not purport to be complete, and is qualified by reference to the full text of the Company Cease and Desist Order and the Bank Cease and Desist Order, respectively.

Consent to Conservator or Receiver

On June 2, 2010, the Bank consented to the appointment by the OTS of a conservator or receiver of the Bank should the OTS determine to make such an appointment. A copy of the Agreement and Consent to the Appointment of a Conservator or Receiver is included as Exhibit 10.3 and is incorporated herein by reference.
