PART II -- RULES 12b-25(b) AND (c)

If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate.)

- (a) The reason described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense;
- o (b) The subject annual report, semi-annual report, transition report on Form 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, or Form N-CSR, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date; or the subject quarterly report or transition report on Form 10-Q, or portion thereof will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date; and
- (c) The accountant's statement or other exhibit required by Rule 12b-25(c) has been attached if applicable.

PART III -- NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 10-KSB, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-QSB, N-SAR, or the transition report portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Registrant's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2010 cannot be filed within the prescribed time period due to the termination of engagement with MaloneBailey, LLP ("MaloneBailey") as the Registrant's independent registered public accounting firm. As previously reported by the Registrant in the Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") on March 29, 2011, the Registrant terminated the engagement of MaloneBailey as its independent auditor on March 23, 2011, and on March 24, 2011, MaloneBailey provided a letter of resignation as the Registrant's independent auditor ("Resignation Letter"). In the Resignation Letter, MaloneBailey indicated that the resignation was due to accounting fraud involving forging of the Registrant's accounting records and forging bank statements, in addition to other discrepancies identified during its testing of the Registrant's accounts receivable.

MaloneBailey also indicated in the Resignation Letter that it is unable to rely on management's representations as they relate to previously issued financial statements and it can no longer support its opinions related to the financial statements as of December 31, 2009 and condensed Parent Only financial statements, included in the Registration Statement on Form S-1 filed with the SEC on April 21, 2010. As a result, the interim financial statements of the Registrant for the fiscal quarters ended March 31, June 30, and September 30, 2010 contained in the Registrant's quarterly reports on Form 10-Q for such periods as filed with the SEC, should not be relied upon for the same reasons.

The Board of Directors of the Registrant has formed a Special Investigation Committee. The Special Investigation Committee will investigate, review and analyze the facts, circumstances and issues related to termination of the engagement MaloneBailey's as independent auditor and the Registrant's accounting records. The Committee is authorized to retain experts and advisers in connection with its investigation.

The Registrant will file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2010 as soon as it is able; however, the Registrant is not able to provide a reasonable estimate as to such filing at this time, which will not occur within the fifteenth calendar day after the prescribed due date for such report.

PART IV -- OTHER INFORMATION

- (1) Name and telephone number of person to contact in regard to this notification

Li Xuemei	86-0752	3138511
(Name)	(Area Code)	(Telephone Number)

- (2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If the answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes  No

The Registrant has filed all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act during the preceding 12 months, however, as indicated in "Part III—Narrative", above, MaloneBailey, in its Resignation Letter dated March 24, 2011, advised the Registrant that it can no longer support its opinion dated April 21, 2010 related to the financial statements, as of December 31, 2009 and condensed Parent Only financial statements, included in the Registration Statement on Form S-1 filed with the SEC on April 21, 2010. The interim financial statements of the Registrant for the fiscal quarters ended March 31, June 30, and September 30, 2010 contained in the Registrant's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for such periods as filed with the SEC, should not be relied upon for the same reasons.

- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes  No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Registrant is unable to provide a reasonable estimate of the changes in the results of operations for the year ended December 31, 2010 as compared to the year ended December 31, 2009 because, as indicated above in Part III of this Form 12b-25, which is incorporated by reference into this Part IV(3), the Registrant is unable to prepare and review the financial statements to be contained in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2010 due to the termination of engagement with MaloneBailey as its independent registered auditor, and the accounting fraud alleged in MaloneBailey's Resignation Letter, which could indicate a material error in previously issued financial statements.
