ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

Purpose of the annual meeting

At the annual meeting, Aware will submit two proposals to the stockholders:

Proposal One: To elect three Class I directors for three-year terms; and Proposal Two: An advisory vote to approve named executive officer compensation.

Currently, Aware does not intend to submit any other proposals to the stockholders at the annual meeting. The board of directors was not aware, a reasonable time before mailing this proxy statement to stockholders, of any other business that may be properly presented for action at the annual meeting. If any other business comes before the annual meeting, the persons present will have discretionary authority to vote the shares they own or represent by proxy in accordance with their judgment, to the extent authorized by applicable regulations.

Record date

The board of directors of Aware has fixed the close of business on April 5, 2012 as the record date for the annual meeting. Only stockholders of record at the close of business on that date are entitled to receive notice of the meeting and to vote at the meeting or any adjournment of the meeting. At the close of business on the record date, there were issued and outstanding 20,785,532 shares of Aware's common stock, which are entitled to cast 20,785,532 votes. A list of stockholders entitled to notice of the 2012 annual meeting is available for inspection by any stockholder at our principal office at 40 Middlesex Turnpike, Bedford, MA.

Methods of voting

The shares represented by your properly signed proxy card will be voted in accordance with your directions. If you do not specify a choice with respect to a proposal for which our board of directors has made a recommendation, the shares covered by your signed proxy card will be voted as recommended in this proxy statement. We encourage you to vote on all matters to be considered.

Voting by mail:

By signing and returning the proxy card in the enclosed envelope, you are enabling the individuals named on the proxy card (known as "proxies") to vote your shares at the meeting in the manner you indicate. We encourage you to sign and return the proxy card even if you plan to attend the meeting. In this way, your shares will be voted even if you are unable to attend the meeting. If you received more than one proxy card, it is an indication that your shares are held in multiple accounts. Please sign and return all proxy cards to ensure that all of your shares are voted.

Voting by telephone:

To vote by telephone, please follow the instructions included on your proxy card. If you vote by telephone, you do not need to complete and mail your proxy card.

Voting on the Internet:

To vote on the Internet, please follow the instructions included on your proxy card. If you vote on the Internet, you do not need to complete and mail your proxy card.

Voting in person at the meeting:

If you plan to attend the meeting and vote in person, we will provide you with a ballot at the meeting. If your shares are registered directly in your name, you are considered the stockholder of record and you have the right to vote in person at the meeting. If your shares are held in the name of your broker or other nominee, you are considered the beneficial owner of the shares held in street name. If you wish to vote shares held in street name at the meeting, you will need to bring with you to the meeting a legal proxy from your broker or other nominee authorizing you to vote your shares.

Quorum

Aware's by-laws provide that a quorum at the annual meeting will be a majority in interest of all stock issued, outstanding and entitled to vote at the meeting. Aware will treat shares of common stock represented by a properly signed and returned proxy or a proxy properly delivered over the Internet or by telephone as present at the meeting for purposes of determining the existence of a quorum at the meeting. In general, Aware will count votes withheld from any nominee for election as director, abstentions and broker "non-votes" as present or represented for purposes of determining the existence of a quorum at the meeting. A broker "non-vote" occurs when a broker or nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner does not vote on a proposal because the broker or nominee does not have discretionary voting power and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner with respect to that proposal.

Vote required; tabulation of votes

A plurality of the votes properly cast at the annual meeting will be necessary to elect the three Class I directors to a three-year term. A majority of the votes properly cast at the annual meeting will be necessary to approve, on an advisory basis, the compensation paid to Aware's named executive officers. Abstentions and broker non-votes will not count as votes cast for or against the applicable proposal and accordingly will not affect the outcome of the vote.

Aware's transfer agent, Computershare Trust Co., Inc., will tabulate the votes at the annual meeting. Computershare will tabulate separately the vote on each matter submitted to stockholders.

Revocation of proxies

A stockholder who has executed a proxy may revoke the proxy at any time before it is exercised at the annual meeting in three ways:

by giving written notice of revocation to the Secretary of Aware at the following address:

Aware, Inc.
40 Middlesex Turnpike
Bedford, Massachusetts 01730
Attention: Secretary

by signing and returning another proxy with a later date; or by attending the annual meeting and informing the Secretary of Aware in writing that he or she wishes to vote in person.

Mere attendance at the annual meeting will not in and of itself revoke the proxy. Accordingly, stockholders who have delivered proxies in advance of the annual meeting may change their votes at any time before or at the annual meeting.

Solicitation of proxies

Aware will bear all costs incurred in connection with the solicitation of proxies for the annual meeting. Aware will reimburse brokers, banks, fiduciaries, nominees and others for the out-of-pocket expenses and other reasonable clerical expenses they incur in forwarding proxy materials to beneficial owners of common stock held in their names. In addition to this solicitation by mail, Aware's directors, officers and employees may solicit proxies, without additional remuneration, by telephone, facsimile, electronic mail, telegraph and in person. Aware expects that the expenses of any special solicitation will be nominal. At present, Aware does not expect to pay any compensation to any other person or firm for the solicitation of proxies.

MATTERS TO BE CONSIDERED AT THE ANNUAL MEETING

PROPOSAL ONE—ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The board of directors, upon the recommendation of the nominating and corporate governance committee, has nominated for election as Class I directors Brian D. Connolly, Richard P. Moberg and Kevin T. Russell, each of whom is currently a Class I director of Aware. The directors elected at the annual meeting will hold office until the annual meeting of stockholders in 2015 and until their successors are duly elected and qualified.

Each nominee has agreed to serve if elected, and Aware has no reason to believe that a nominee will be unable to serve. If a nominee is unable or declines to serve as a director at the time of the annual meeting, proxies will be voted for another nominee that our board's nominating and corporate governance committee will designate at that time. Proxies cannot be voted for more than one nominee.

The board of directors recommends that you vote FOR the election of Brian D. Connolly, Richard P. Moberg and Kevin T. Russell, as Class I directors of Aware.

PROPOSAL TWO—ADVISORY VOTE ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

We are asking our stockholders to provide advisory approval of the compensation of our named executive officers, as we have described it in the "Executive Compensation" section of this proxy statement, beginning on page 20. While this vote is advisory, and not binding on our company, it will provide information to our people and compensation committee regarding investor sentiment about our executive compensation philosophy, policies and practices, which the committee will be able to consider when determining executive compensation for the remainder of fiscal 2012 and beyond. See the "Compensation Discussion and Analysis" section beginning on page 15 for more information on the determination of our 2011 executive compensation program.

At our 2011 annual meeting of stockholders, our stockholders voted to approve, on an advisory basis, every year as the preferred frequency of our holding advisory stockholder votes to approve the compensation paid to our named executive officers. Consistent with that result, our board of directors has decided to hold advisory stockholder votes to approve the compensation paid to our named executive officers every year.

Your vote is requested. We believe that the information we have provided above and within the Compensation Discussion and Analysis section of this proxy statement demonstrates that our executive compensation program was designed appropriately and is working to ensure management's interests are aligned with our stockholders' interests to support long-term value creation. Accordingly, the Board of Directors recommends that stockholders approve the executive compensation program by approving the following advisory resolution:

RESOLVED, that the stockholders of Aware, Inc approve, on an advisory basis, the compensation of the individuals identified in the Summary Compensation Table, as disclosed in the Aware, Inc. 2012 proxy statement pursuant to the compensation disclosure rules of the SEC (which disclosure includes the Compensation Discussion and Analysis section, the compensation tables and the accompanying footnotes and narratives within the Executive Compensation section of this proxy statement).

The Board of Directors recommends that you vote "FOR" the Advisory (Non-Binding) Vote approving Named Executive Officer Compensation.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

In designing its corporate governance structure, Aware seeks to identify and implement the best practices that will serve the interests of Aware's business and stockholders, including practices mandated by the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and related rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Nasdaq Stock Market. You can find Aware's current corporate governance principles, including Aware's code of ethics and the charters for the standing committees of Aware's board of directors, on Aware's website at www.aware.com. The code of ethics applies to not only Aware's principal executive officer, principal financial officer and principal accounting officer, but also all other employees, executive officers and directors of Aware. The code of ethics includes, among other things, provisions covering compliance with laws and regulations, conflicts of interest, insider trading, proper use of Aware's assets, confidentiality, discrimination and harassment, accounting and record keeping, the reporting of illegal or unethical behavior, enforcement of the code of ethics and discipline for violations of the code of ethics. Aware intends to continue to modify its policies and practices to address ongoing developments in the area of corporate governance. Many features of Aware's corporate governance principles are discussed in other sections of this proxy statement. Some of the highlights of Aware's corporate governance principles are:

Director and committee independence. A majority of Aware’s directors are independent directors under the rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market. The board of directors has determined that Aware’s independent directors are Brian D. Connolly, Adrian F. Kruse, Mark G. McGrath, John S. Stafford, Jr. and John S. Stafford III. Mr. Connolly is the co-founder of Millstreet Capital Management (“Millstreet”), an investment firm, under which a significant amount of funds were placed by Ronin Capital LLC (“Ronin”), where Mr. Stafford, Jr. is a board member and Mr. Stafford III serves as chief executive officer. The amount of funds placed by Ronin with Millstreet represents a substantial portion of the total assets under management by Millstreet. As a result of Millstreet’s managing the funds placed by Ronin, Ronin pays fees to Millstreet. The board of directors considered these factors and concluded that Mr. Connolly met the independence requirements under the rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market and the Securities and Exchange Commission. Each member of the audit committee, nominating and corporate governance committee, and compensation committee meets the independence requirements of the Nasdaq Stock Market for membership on the committees on which he serves.

Audit committee. Aware’s audit committee is directly responsible for appointing, compensating, overseeing, and, when necessary, terminating Aware’s independent auditors. Aware’s independent auditors report directly to the audit committee. The board of directors has determined that Mr. Kruse is an audit committee financial expert under the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Prior approval of the audit committee is required for all audit services and non-audit services to be provided by Aware’s independent auditors.

Committee authority. Aware’s audit committee, nominating and corporate governance committee, and compensation committee each have the authority to retain independent advisors and consultants, with all fees and expenses to be paid by Aware.

Whistleblower procedures. Aware’s audit committee has adopted procedures for the treatment of complaints regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters, including procedures for the confidential and anonymous submission by Aware’s directors, officers and employees of concerns regarding questionable accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters.

Our board benefits from Mr. Stafford's investing experience, his experience as a member of other boards of directors, and the fact that, as one of our significant stockholders, his and our stockholders' interests in the success of Aware are aligned.

On January 11, 2011, Charles K. Stewart, a director of Aware since September 2008, resigned from his position on the board of directors. On April 1, 2011, Edmund C. Tzannes, executive chairman and a director of Aware since March 1998, resigned from his position on the board of directors and became an individual contributor to Aware's patent management operations, a non-executive position.

The board of directors is divided into three classes, referred to as Class I, Class II and Class III, each consisting of approximately one-third of the directors. One class is elected each year at the annual meeting of stockholders to hold office for a term of three years and until their respective successors have been duly elected and qualified. The number of directors has been fixed at nine, and there are currently two vacancies on the board of directors. The current terms of Messrs. Kruse and Stafford, Jr., Aware's Class III directors, will expire at the annual meeting to be held in 2014. The current term of Messrs. McGrath and Stafford, III, Aware's Class II directors, will expire at the annual meeting to be held in 2013. The current terms of Messrs. Connolly, Moberg and Russell, Aware's Class I directors, will expire at the annual meeting to be held on May 23, 2012.

Executive officers are elected annually by the board of directors and serve at the discretion of the board or until their respective successors have been duly elected and qualified. There are no family relationships among Aware's directors and executive officers, except that Mr. Stafford, Jr. is the father of Mr. Stafford, III.

Board leadership structure and role in risk oversight

The board of directors believes that Aware and its stockholders are best served at this time by having Mr. Stafford, Jr. serve as our chairman and Mr. Moberg and Mr. Russell serve as co-chief executive officers and co-presidents. In his role as chairman, Mr. Stafford oversees key strategic, corporate and governance activities. In their position as co-chief executive officers and co-presidents, Mr. Moberg and Mr. Russell, oversee the day-to-day operations of Aware. The board of directors believes that having a non-employee, independent director as chairman is an important aspect of effective corporate governance. In his role as chairman, Mr. Stafford's responsibilities include the following:

Acting as a liaison between the independent directors and the co-chief executive officers and co-presidents;

Presiding at executive sessions of the independent directors;

Facilitating discussions among the independent directors on key issues and concerns outside of board meetings;

In collaboration with the co-chief executive officers and co-presidents, preparing agendas for board meetings; and

Working with the board's committees.

Aware's management is responsible for the day-to-day management of the risks that we face, while the board, as a whole and through its committees, has responsibility for the oversight of risk management. In its risk oversight role, the board is responsible for satisfying itself that the risk management processes are adequate and functioning as designed. The board's involvement in risk oversight includes receiving regular reports from members of senior management and evaluating areas of material risk to Aware, including operational, financial, legal, regulatory, strategic and reputational risks.

Certain relationships and related transactions

In March 2007, the Board formally adopted a written policy with respect to related person transactions to document procedures pursuant to which such transactions are reviewed and approved. The policy applies to any transaction in which (1) the Company is a participant, (2) any related person has a direct or indirect material interest and (3) the amount involved exceeds $120,000, but excludes any transactions available to all employees or shareholders of Aware on the same terms. The audit committee, with assistance from Aware's General Counsel, is responsible for reviewing and approving any related person transaction. The policy requires that the audit committee must approve any related party transaction subject to the policy before commencement of the related party transaction. The policy states that the audit committee will approve only those related person transactions that the audit committee determines are beneficial to Aware and the terms of which are fair to Aware.

In 2011, Aware had two transactions with related persons. Marcos Tzannes, the brother of Michael Tzannes, Aware's executive chairman and a director through October 18, 2011, has been employed by Aware since 1993 and currently serves in the role of Vice President, Strategic Technology. In 2011, Marcos Tzannes' total compensation was $258,747, which included salary based upon his position with Aware, background and years of experience, the expense of stock options granted to him by Aware, the expense of unrestricted stock granted to him by Aware, and company contributions for standard company benefits. Alexis Tzannes, the brother of Michael Tzannes, Aware's executive chairman and a director through October 18, 2011, has been employed by Aware since 1999 and currently serves in the role of Principal Engineer. In 2011, Alexis Tzannes' total compensation was $145,509, which included salary based upon his position with Aware, background and years of experience, the expense of stock options granted to him by Aware, the expense of unrestricted stock granted to him by Aware, and company contributions for standard company benefits. The dollar amount of expense recognized for financial statement reporting purposes with respect to 2011 attributable to stock options and unrestricted stock awards in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 718 for Marcos Tzannes was $45,315 and for Alexis Tzannes was $2,328.

Committees and meetings of the board

During 2011, the board of directors met six times and took action by written consent five times. No incumbent director attended fewer than 75% of the total number of meetings held by the board and committees of the board on which he served. Aware has a compensation committee, an audit committee, an executive committee, and a nominating and corporate governance committee.

Executive Committee. Aware's executive committee is currently composed of John S. Stafford, Jr., John S. Stafford, III, Richard P. Moberg and Kevin T. Russell. The executive committee has all of the powers of the board of directors except the power to: change the number of directors or fill vacancies on the board of directors; elect or fill vacancies in the offices of president, treasurer or secretary; remove any officer or director; amend the by-laws of Aware; change the principal office of Aware; authorize the payment of any dividend or distribution to stockholders of Aware; authorize the reacquisition of capital stock for value; and authorize a merger. In 2011, the executive committee did not meet and took no action by written consent.

Compensation Committee. Aware's compensation committee is currently composed of three outside directors, John S. Stafford, III, who serves as chairman, John S. Stafford, Jr. and Mark G. McGrath. In 2011, the compensation committee held two meetings and took action by written consent once. In March 2004, Aware's board of directors adopted a Compensation Committee Charter, which it amended in March 2010. The Compensation Committee Charter, as amended, is available on Aware's website at www.aware.com.

Audit Committee. Aware's audit committee is currently composed of Adrian F. Kruse, who serves as chairman, Brian D. Connolly and Mark G. McGrath. Aware's board of directors has determined that Mr. Kruse is an audit committee financial expert under Securities and Exchange Commission rules. In 2011, the audit committee met seven times and took no action by written consent. In March, 2004, Aware's board of directors adopted a new Audit Committee Charter, which is available on Aware's website at www.aware.com.

Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. Aware's nominating and corporate governance committee is currently composed of three outside directors, John S. Stafford, Jr., who serves as chairman, Adrian F. Kruse and Brian D. Connolly. In 2011, the nominating and corporate governance committee held three meetings and took no action by written consent. In March 2004, Aware's board of directors adopted a Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee Charter, which it amended in March 2010. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee Charter is available on Aware's website at www.aware.com.

The nominating and corporate governance committee, in consultation with our chairman and co-presidents and co-chief executive officers, identifies and reviews candidates for our board of directors and recommends to our full board candidates for election to our board. In selecting new directors, the committee considers any requirements of applicable law or listing standards, a candidate's strength of character, judgment, business experience and specific area of expertise, factors relating to the composition of the board (including its size and structure), principles of diversity, and such other factors as the committee shall deem appropriate.

The committee reviews from time to time the appropriate skills and characteristics required of board members in the context of the current make-up of the board, including such factors as business experience, diversity, and personal skills in technology, finance, marketing, international business, financial reporting and other areas that contribute to an effective board.

The committee, in consultation with our chairman and co-presidents and co-chief executive officers, considers and recruits candidates to fill positions on the board, including as a result of the removal, resignation or retirement of any director, an increase in the size of the board or otherwise. The committee also reviews any candidate recommended by stockholders of Aware in light of the committee's criteria for selection of new directors. Stockholders may make nominations for the election of directors by delivering notice in writing to the Secretary of Aware not less than 60 days nor more than 90 days prior to any meeting of the stockholders called for the election of directors. As part of this responsibility, the committee is responsible for conducting, subject to applicable law, any and all inquiries into the background and qualifications of any candidate for the board and such candidate's compliance with the independence and other qualification requirements established by the committee or imposed by applicable law or listing standards. The committee also develops and recommends to the Board governance principles applicable to the Company and is responsible for leading an annual review of the performance of both the Board as a whole and its individual members. The annual Board review took place in December 2011.

The board of directors, upon the recommendation of the nominating and corporate governance committee, has nominated for election at the 2012 annual meeting of stockholders as Class I directors Brian D. Connolly, Richard P. Moberg and Kevin T. Russell, each of whom is currently a Class I director of Aware. In nominating Mr. Connolly, the board and committee took into account Mr. Connolly's over twenty years of experience in the financial services and investing field and his expertise in finance. In nominating Mr. Moberg, the board and committee took into account Mr. Moberg's over ten years of service to Aware, his many years of business and company finance experience, and his understanding of the people, products and culture of Aware. In nominating Mr. Russell, the board and committee took into account Mr. Russell's over eleven years of service to Aware, his many years of business and legal experience, and his understanding of the people, products and culture of Aware.

Policy regarding board attendance

To the extent reasonably practicable, directors are expected to attend board meetings and meetings of committees on which they serve. Directors are encouraged to attend Aware's annual meeting of stockholders. Last year, two of our directors attended the annual meeting.

Communications with our board of directors

Aware's board of directors has established the following process for stockholders to communicate directly with the board, and this process has been approved by a majority of Aware's independent directors. Stockholders wishing to communicate with the board of directors should send correspondence to the attention of the Chairman of the Board at Aware, Inc., 40 Middlesex Turnpike, Bedford, Massachusetts 01730, and should include with the correspondence evidence that the sender of the communication is one of Aware's stockholders. Satisfactory evidence would include, for example, contemporaneous correspondence from a brokerage firm indicating the identity of the stockholder and the number of shares held. Aware's chairman will review all correspondence confirmed to be from stockholders and decide whether or not to forward the correspondence or a summary of the correspondence to the board or a committee of the board. Accordingly, Aware's chairman will review all stockholder correspondence, but the decision to relay that correspondence to the board or a committee of the board will rest entirely within his discretion.

Code of ethics

Aware has adopted a code of ethics that applies to all employees, officers and directors. The code of ethics also contains special ethical obligations which apply to employees with financial reporting responsibilities, including Aware's principal executive officer, principal financial officer and principal accounting officer. Aware's code of ethics includes, among other things, provisions covering compliance with laws and regulations, conflicts of interest, insider trading, proper use of Aware's assets, confidentiality, discrimination and harassment, accounting and record keeping, the reporting of illegal or unethical behavior, enforcement of the code of ethics and discipline for violations of the code of ethics. Aware's code of ethics is available on Aware's website at www.aware.com. Any waiver of any provision of the code of ethics granted to an executive officer or director may only be made by the board of directors and will be promptly disclosed on our website at www.aware.com.

Compensation committee interlocks and insider participation

Aware's compensation committee is currently composed of Messrs. McGrath, Stafford, Jr. and Stafford, III. In 2011, no officer or employee of Aware, including Aware's executives, participated in the deliberations of the compensation committee concerning the compensation of Aware's executive officers. No interlocking relationship existed between Aware's board of directors or compensation committee and the board of directors or compensation committee of any other company in 2011.

COMPENSATION OF EXECUTIVE OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS

COMPENSATION DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Overview. The Compensation Committee has the responsibility to review the performance and development of Company management in achieving corporate goals and objectives and to assure that senior executives of the Company are compensated effectively in a manner consistent with the strategy of the Company, competitive practice, and the requirements of the appropriate regulatory bodies. Toward that end, the Compensation Committee oversees, reviews and administers all compensation, equity and employee benefit plans and programs. The Compensation Committee is responsible for reviewing annually and determining the individual elements of total compensation for the Company's co-presidents and co-chief executive officers and all other corporate officers. The Compensation Committee may delegate any of its responsibilities to a subcommittee of one or more members of the Committee, the co-presidents and co-chief executive officers or to a committee of senior executive officers when appropriate and consistent with applicable law. The Compensation Committee acts pursuant to a charter that has been approved by the board of directors.

In 2011, the following persons served as our executive officers: Michael A. Tzannes, executive chairman (through October 18, 2011); Edmund C. Reiter, president and chief executive officer (through April 1, 2011); Richard P. Moberg, co-president and co-chief executive officer, chief financial officer and Kevin T. Russell, co-president and co-chief executive officer, general counsel. Mr. Moberg and Mr. Russell were appointed co-presidents and co-chief executive officers on April 1, 2011.

Compensation program objectives. The objectives of the Company's executive compensation programs are to attract, motivate and retain executives who drive the Company's success and to assure that senior executives of the Company are compensated effectively in a manner consistent with the strategy of the Company, competitive practice, and the requirements of appropriate regulatory bodies. The executive compensation programs are designed to reward individuals for advancing business strategies, further developing the Company and its people, and the achievement of individual and Company performance goals. The Compensation Committee also takes into consideration the individual's performance in determining the compensation elements for each of the Company's Named Executive Officers.

Role of executive officers in determining executive compensation. In 2011, no executive officer assisted the Compensation Committee in determining executive compensation including recommendations for executive officer compensation. The Compensation Committee makes the final determination on executive compensation for all the Company's executives, including the Named Executive Officers shown in the tables under Executive Compensation.

Corporate performance goals. In prior years, the Company has utilized corporate performance goals in reviewing the overall compensation for executives. More specifically, the Company has utilized corporate performance goals primarily in determining the amount of the cash incentive award to give to executives. During 2011, the Company did not have a cash incentive award program for executive officers. The Company did not have a cash incentive program in 2011 as the Compensation Committee determined that a cash base salary was sufficient compensation for 2011.

Option grant timing/pricing. The Company's practice with regard to the granting of equity awards has been in the past to typically grant stock equity awards in the following circumstances: 1) at regularly scheduled board meetings for the new hire of certain employees or directors; 2) subsequent to the annual performance or compensation review of employees; 3) subsequent to the annual performance reviews for executives and officers; and 4) at the annual meeting of stockholders for directors. The Company's quiet period begins two weeks prior to the end of a fiscal quarter and ends two days after the Company announces financial results for said fiscal quarter. Historically, it has been the Company's practice to price equity awards based on the closing price of the Aware common stock on the date that the Compensation Committee executes a Compensation Committee consent granting the equity awards.

Compensation benchmarking. In 2011, the Compensation Committee did not retain a third party compensation consultant to compile compensation benchmark data. The Compensation Committee determined that a cash base salary at the same level as 2010 was sufficient compensation for 2011 and therefore elected not to retain a third party compensation consultant to compile compensation benchmark data.

Compensation program elements. The Company's executive compensation package for 2011 consisted of one principal element: a cash base salary.

Salary

The salary element of the Company's executive compensation policy is designed to give executives assurance of a base level of compensation commensurate with the executive's position and duration of employment with the Company and competitive with salaries for officers holding comparable positions in the industry. Mr. Tzannes' base annual salary from January 1, 2011 through October 18, 2011 was $385,000. Effective October 18, 2011, Mr. Tzannes' base annual salary was reduced to $250,000 due to the change in his role from executive chairman to individual contributor. Mr. Reiter's base annual salary during 2011 was $385,000. Mr. Reiter resigned as president and chief executive officer on April 1, 2011. Mr. Moberg's base annual salary remained unchanged during 2011 at $260,000. Mr. Russell was awarded a base salary increase from $185,000 to $250,000 effective October 18, 2011 due to the change in his role from general counsel to co-president and co-chief executive officer, general counsel.

Stock-based equity incentive compensation

The Company has in the past emphasized long-term equity incentive compensation in order to align the interests of management with the stockholders' interests in the financial performance of the Company for fiscal quarters, the fiscal year and the longer term. In determining long-term equity incentive grants, the Company has in the past considered the three-year average value resulting from long-term incentive compensation such as restricted stock grants, performance plans, stock appreciation rights and stock option grants made at comparable companies. The value of stock options is based upon the Black-Scholes formula. The Company also considers in part the value of options held by the executive officers and the extent to which the Company believed those options would provide sufficient motivation to the executive officers to achieve the Company's goals. In July 2010, the Company granted unrestricted stock awards in the amounts of 142,857, 142,857, 40,816 and 7,500 shares to Mr. Tzannes, Mr. Reiter, Mr. Moberg and Mr. Russell, respectively, in recognition of their individual contributions to the Company. The unrestricted shares were to be issued in four (4) equal installments on December 31, 2010, June 30, 2011, December 31, 2011 and June 30, 2012 provided each officer is serving as a director, officer or employee of the Company or any subsidiary of the Company on said dates. In 2011, the Company did not grant any stock-based equity incentive compensation to any executive officer. The Company did not grant any stock-based equity compensation in 2011 as the Compensation Committee determined that a cash base salary was sufficient compensation for 2011.

In determining the fair value of each option and stock appreciation right grant, the Company used the following assumptions:

		2010	2009*	2008
Average risk free interest rate	-	-	2.24 %	2.17
Expected life of option grants	-	-	6.59 years	-3.16 %
Expected volatility of underlying stock	-	-	61.66 %	6.7 - 7.16 years
Expected dividend yield	-	-	-	51% -

*2009 grant was for SARs, not stock options

Other Compensation

The Company's executive officers are also eligible to participate in other employee benefit plans, including health and life insurance plans and a 401(k) retirement plan, on substantially the same terms as other employees who met applicable eligibility criteria, subject to any legal limitations on the amounts that could have been contributed or the benefits that could have been paid under these plans.

Salary & Bonus in Proportion to Total Compensation

In 2011, the base salary paid to each of our executive officers while serving as an executive officer represented approximately 100% of his total compensation.

Compensation program elements rationale. In establishing compensation for executives, the Company's Compensation Committee monitors salaries, other cash compensation and long-term equity incentive compensation at other companies, particularly companies with similar enterprise value and companies in the same industry. In addition, for each executive the Compensation Committee considers historic salary levels, work responsibilities and compensation relative to other executives at the Company. The Compensation Committee also considers general economic conditions, the Company's performance and each individual's performance. Finally, the Compensation Committee has utilized in prior years market benchmark information in recommending the compensation and long-term equity incentive grants to its executive officers so that their overall compensation is competitive with comparable companies.

The Company's selection of the cash and stock-based equity incentive as the primary elements of executive compensation is in furtherance of the Company's compensation program objectives. The cash element, including the base salary, along with the stock-based equity incentive element help the Company to achieve the objective of attracting, motivating and retaining executives who drive the Company's success. The Company has determined that the aforementioned elements help to achieve the Company's compensation objectives and that additional compensation elements are not required. The Company reviewed the results of the "say on pay" vote at the last stockholders' meeting and determined that no adjustments were necessary to be made to executive compensation in 2011.

Mr. Reiter's Severance. In connection with Mr. Reiter's resignation on April 1, 2011, he and the Company entered into a Separation Agreement, dated April 1, 2011 (the "Separation Agreement"). In recognition of his over eighteen years of service and in exchange for signing a general release of claims in favor of the Company, the Separation Agreement provided Mr. Reiter with a severance payment of $192,500 and an unrestricted stock award of 105,000 shares of the Company's common stock. All stock options and unrestricted stock awards granted to Mr. Reiter by the Company were forfeited. The Separation Agreement also provides that various restrictive covenants, including covenants relating to confidentiality and non-competition, continue to be in effect following the resignation. Mr. Reiter and the Company also entered into a Consulting Agreement, dated April 1, 2011 under which Mr. Reiter provided consulting services to the Company relating to the Company's businesses for a period of six months from April 2, 2011 to September 30, 2011 in exchange for monthly payments of $32,000.

Impact of accounting and tax treatments on compensation. The Company reviews the compensation provided to executive officers in conjunction with the potential tax consequences that may result with respect to certain compensation elements. For example, Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code limits the Company's ability to deduct, for income tax purposes, compensation in excess of $1.0 million paid to the chief executive officer, the chief financial officer and the three most highly compensated executive officers of the Company (other than the chief executive officer and chief financial officer) in any year, unless the compensation qualifies as "performance-based compensation." Equity awards that the Company grants under its 2001 Nonqualified Stock Plan do not qualify as "performance-based compensation" because the Plan has not been approved by the Company's stockholders. In 2011, the aggregate base salaries, bonuses and other non-equity compensation of the Company's executive officers did not exceed the $1.0 million limit. The Compensation Committee does not expect that non-equity compensation will exceed the $1.0 million limit in the foreseeable future. With respect to equity compensation, the Compensation Committee's policy with respect to Section 162(m) is that it would prefer to cause compensation to be deductible by the Company; however, the Compensation Committee also weighs the need to provide appropriate incentives to the Company's executive officers against the potential adverse tax consequences that may result under Section 162(m) from the grant of compensation that does not qualify as performance-based compensation. The Compensation Committee has authorized and may continue to authorize compensation payments that do not qualify as performance-based compensation and that are in excess of the limits in circumstances when the Compensation Committee believes such payment is appropriate.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT

The Compensation Committee of the Company has reviewed and discussed the Compensation Discussion and Analysis with management, and based on such review and discussion, the Compensation Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the Compensation Discussion and Analysis be included in this Proxy Statement.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The purpose of the audit committee is to assist the board of directors in its general oversight of Aware's financial reporting process. The Audit Committee Charter describes in greater detail the full responsibilities of the committee and is included in this proxy statement as ANNEX A and is available on Aware's website at www.aware.com. The audit committee is comprised solely of independent directors as defined by the listing standards of the Nasdaq Stock Market and the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Management is responsible for the preparation, presentation and integrity of Aware's financial statements; accounting and financial reporting principles; establishing and maintaining disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Exchange Act Rule 13a-15(e)); establishing and maintaining internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Exchange Act Rule 13a-15(f)); evaluating the effectiveness of disclosure controls and procedures; evaluating the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting; and evaluating any change in internal control over financial reporting that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, internal control over financial reporting. PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP is responsible for performing an independent audit of the consolidated financial statements and expressing an opinion on the conformity of those financial statements with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, as well as expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting.

During the course of 2011, management continued to document, test and evaluate Aware's system of internal control over financial reporting in response to the requirements set forth in Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and PCAOB Auditing Standard No. 5 regarding the audit of internal control over financial reporting. The audit committee was kept apprised of the progress of the evaluation and provided oversight to management during the process. In connection with this oversight, the committee received periodic updates provided by management and PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP at regularly scheduled committee meetings. The committee reviewed the report of management contained in Aware's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2011 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, as well as PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP's Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm included in Aware's Annual Report on Form 10-K related to its audit of (i) the consolidated financial statements and financial statement schedule and (ii) the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting. The audit committee continues to oversee Aware's efforts related to its internal control over financial reporting and management's preparations for the evaluation in 2012.

The audit committee has reviewed and discussed the consolidated financial statements with management and PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, Aware's independent auditors. The audit committee has discussed with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, as amended, "Communication with Audit Committees" and PCAOB "Auditing Standard No. 5, "An Audit of Internal Control Over Financial Reporting Performed that is Integrated with an Audit of Financial Statements." In addition, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP has provided the audit committee with the written disclosures and the letter required by the Independence Standards Board Standard No.1, as amended, "Independence Discussions with Audit Committees," and the audit committee has discussed with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP their firm's independence.

Based on the review of the consolidated financial statements and discussions with and representations from management and PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP referred to above, the audit committee recommended to the board of directors that the audited financial statements be included in Aware's Annual Report on Form 10-K for 2011, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Principal stockholders

The following table provides information about the beneficial ownership of Aware's common stock as of April 1, 2012 by:

each person known by Aware to own beneficially more than five percent of Aware's common stock;
each of Aware's directors;
each of Aware's executive officers; and

In accordance with Securities and Exchange Commission rules, beneficial ownership includes any shares for which a person has sole or shared voting power or investment power and any shares of which the person has the right to acquire beneficial ownership within 60 days after April 1, 2012 through the exercise of any option or otherwise. Except as noted below, Aware believes that the persons named in the table have sole voting and investment power with respect to the shares of common stock set forth opposite their names. The inclusion of shares listed as beneficially owned does not constitute an admission of beneficial ownership. Percentage of beneficial ownership is based on 20,785,532 shares of common stock outstanding as of April 1, 2012. In calculating a person's percentage ownership, Aware has treated as outstanding any shares that the person has the right to acquire within 60 days of April 1, 2012. Description of the 2001 Nonqualified Stock Plan

The following summary of some of the provisions of the 2001 Nonqualified Stock Plan, as amended, is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the plan. The 2001 plan permits the grant of (1) nonqualified stock options, which are options that do not qualify as incentive stock options, (2) restricted stock awards, (3) unrestricted stock awards and (4) performance share awards. The maximum number of shares of common stock issuable in connection with awards granted under the 2001 plan is 8,000,000 shares.

The 2001 plan is administered by a committee consisting of at least two directors who are both “non-employee directors” within the meaning of Rule 16b-3 under the Securities Exchange Act. Except as specifically reserved to the board under the terms of the 2001 plan, the committee has full and final authority to operate, manage and administer the 2001 plan on behalf of Aware. Aware’s compensation committee, currently consisting of Messrs. Stafford, III, McGrath and Stafford, Jr., administers the 2001 plan.

The committee fixes the term of each stock option granted under the 2001 plan at the time of grant. No stock option shall be exercisable more than 10 years after the date of grant. The committee has the authority to determine the time or times at which stock options granted under the plan may be exercised. With respect to grants of restricted stock, the committee will specify at the time of grant the dates or performance goals on which the non-transferability of the restricted stock and Aware’s right of repurchase shall lapse. With respect to performance share awards, the committee shall determine the performance goals applicable under each award and the time period over which performance is to be measured.

The committee will determine at the time of grant the exercise price per share of the common stock covered by an option grant, or the purchase price per share of restricted or unrestricted stock. The exercise price per share of a stock option and the purchase price per share of a restricted stock grant may not be less than fair market value on the date of grant.

Except as otherwise provided, stock options granted under the 2001 plan are not exercisable following termination of the holder's employment. Our stock option agreements typically provide for our employees (other than directors and officers) that in the event of termination of an option holder's employment, options will be exercisable, to the extent of the number of shares then vested, (a) for one year following the termination of the holder's employment if such termination is the result of permanent and total disability, (b) by the holder's executors, administrators or any person to whom the option may be transferred by will or by the laws of descent and distribution, for one year following the termination of employment if such termination is the result of the holder's death or (c) for six months after the date of termination of the holder's employment by the holder, by the Company or by Normal Retirement (as defined in the Plan). Our stock option agreements typically provide for our directors and officers that in the event of termination of an option holder's employment or service to the Company, options will be exercisable, to the extent of the number of shares then vested, (a) for two years following the termination of the holder's employment or service to the Company if such termination is the result of permanent and total disability, (b) by the holder's executors, administrators or any person to whom the option may be transferred by will or by the laws of descent and distribution, for two years following the termination of employment or service to the Company if such termination is the result of the holder's death or (c) for two years after the date of termination of the holder's employment or service to the Company by the holder, by the Company or by Normal Retirement (as defined in the Plan). However, in no event will a new option be exercisable after its expiration date.

In the event that Aware effects a stock dividend, stock split or similar change in capitalization affecting its stock, the committee shall make appropriate adjustments in (a) the number and kind of shares of stock or securities with respect to which awards may thereafter be granted, (b) the number and kind of shares remaining subject to outstanding awards under the plan, and (c) the option or purchase price in respect of such shares. The 2001 plan provides that if Aware merges, consolidates, dissolves or liquidates, the committee may, in its sole discretion, as to any outstanding award, make such substitution or adjustment in the total number of shares reserved for issuance and in the number and purchase price of shares subject to such awards as it may determine, or accelerate, amend or terminate such awards upon such terms and conditions as it shall provide.

The board of directors of Aware may amend or discontinue the 2001 plan at any time. The committee may at any time amend or cancel an outstanding award granted under the plan. In either case, no such action may adversely affect rights under any outstanding award without the holder's consent.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires Aware's executive officers and directors, as well as persons who beneficially own more than ten percent of Aware's common stock, to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission require these executive officers, directors and stockholders to furnish Aware with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

Based solely upon a review of the Forms 3, 4 and 5 and amendments thereto furnished to Aware with respect to 2011, or written representations that Form 5 was not required for 2011, Aware believes that all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to its executive officers, directors and greater-than-ten-percent stockholders were fulfilled in a timely manner with the exception of: Susan Yang Stafford 2010 Kimborama Trust failed to file on a timely basis a Form 3 with respect to its receipt of 3,100,054 shares of common stock of Aware, which were gifted to it by Kimborama LLC on December 20, 2011. Susan Yang Stafford was the manager and sole member of Kimborama LLC and is the trustee of the Susan Yang Stafford 2010 Kimborama Trust. Susan Yang Stafford 2010 Kimborama Trust filed a Form 3 on February 14, 2012 with respect to this transaction.

However, the audit committee may delegate to members of the committee the authority to pre-approve audit and non-audit services. The decisions of any committee member to whom pre-approval authority is delegated must be presented to the full audit committee at its next scheduled meeting.

Our audit committee has not established any pre-approval policies or procedures that would allow our management to engage PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP to provide any specified services with only an obligation to notify the audit committee of the engagement for those services. Audit Committee Charter

I. Organization

Charter. This charter governs the operations of the Audit Committee (the “Committee”). The Committee shall review and reassess the charter at least annually and obtain the approval of the Board of Directors (the “Board”). This charter supersedes all prior charters of the Committee.

Members. The Committee members shall be members of, and appointed by, the Board and shall consist of at least three directors, each of whom shall meet the independence and other requirements of applicable law and the listing standards of The Nasdaq Stock Market, Inc. (“Nasdaq”). Committee members shall be subject to annual reconfirmation and may be removed by the Board at any time. The Board shall also designate a Committee Chairperson.

Meetings. In order to discharge its responsibilities, the Committee shall each year establish a schedule of meetings; additional meetings may be scheduled as required.

Quorum; Action by Committee. A quorum of any Committee meeting shall be at least two members. All determinations of the Committee shall be made by a majority of its members present at a meeting duly called and held, except as specifically provided herein (or where only two members are present, by unanimous vote). A decision or determination of the Committee reduced to writing and signed by all of the members of the Committee shall be fully as effective as if it had been made at a meeting duly called and held.

Agenda, Minutes and Reports. An agenda, together with materials relating to the subject matter of each meeting, shall be sent to members of the Committee prior to each meeting. Minutes for all meetings of the Committee shall be prepared to document the Committee’s discharge of its responsibilities. The minutes shall be circulated in draft form to all Committee members to ensure an accurate final record, shall be approved at a subsequent meeting of the Committee and shall be distributed periodically to the full Board. The Committee shall make regular reports to the Board.

II. Purpose

The Committee shall provide assistance to the Board in fulfilling their oversight responsibility to the shareholders, the investment community, and others relating to: the integrity of the Company’s financial statements; the systems of disclosure controls and internal controls over financial reporting; the performance of the Company’s independent auditor; the independent auditor’s qualifications and independence; and the Company’s compliance with ethics policies and legal and regulatory requirements. In so doing, it is the responsibility of the Committee to maintain free and open communication between the Committee, independent auditor, and management of the Company.

III. Duties and Responsibilities

The primary responsibility of the Committee is to oversee the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board and report the results of their activities to the Board. While the Committee has the responsibilities and powers set forth in this charter, it is not the duty of the Committee to plan or conduct audits or to determine that the Company's financial statements are complete and accurate and are in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, nor can the Committee certify that the independent auditor is "independent" under applicable rules. Management is responsible for the preparation, presentation, and integrity of the Company's financial statements and for the appropriateness of the accounting principles and reporting policies that are used by the Company. The independent auditor is responsible for auditing the Company's financial statements and for reviewing the Company's unaudited interim financial statements.

The Committee, in carrying out its responsibilities, believes its policies and procedures should remain flexible, in order to best react to changing conditions and circumstances. The Committee should take appropriate actions to set the overall corporate "tone" for quality financial reporting, sound business risk practices, and ethical behavior. The following shall be the principal duties and responsibilities of the Committee. These are set forth as a guide with the understanding that the Committee may supplement them as appropriate.

The Committee shall be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation, retention, and termination of the independent auditor, and the independent auditor must report directly to the Committee. The Committee also shall be directly responsible for the oversight of the work of the independent auditor, including resolution of disagreements between management and the auditor regarding financial reporting. The Committee shall pre-approve all audit and non-audit services provided by the independent auditor and shall not engage the independent auditor to perform the specific non-audit services proscribed by law or regulation. The Committee may delegate pre-approval authority to a member of the Committee. The decisions of any Committee member to whom pre-approval authority is delegated must be presented to the full Committee at its next scheduled meeting.

At least annually, the Committee shall obtain and review a report or reports by the independent auditor describing:

The firm's internal quality control procedures; and

All relationships between the independent auditor and the Company consistent with Independence Standards Board Standard 1 (to assess the auditor's independence).

The Committee will actively engage in a dialogue with the auditor with respect to any disclosed relationships or services that may impact the objectivity and independence of the auditor and take appropriate action to oversee the independence of the auditor.

The Committee shall set clear hiring policies for employees or former employees of the independent auditor that meet the SEC regulations and stock exchange listing standards.

The Committee shall discuss with the independent auditor the overall scope and plans for the audit, including the adequacy of staffing and compensation, the result of the annual audit examination and accompanying management letters, and the results of the independent auditor's procedures with respect to interim periods. Also, the Committee shall discuss with management and the independent auditor (a) the adequacy and effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting (including any significant deficiencies and significant changes in internal control over financial reporting reported to the Committee by the independent auditor or management); and (b) the adequacy and effectiveness of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures, and management reports thereon.

The Committee shall meet separately periodically with management and the independent auditor to discuss issues and concerns warranting Committee attention. The Committee shall provide sufficient opportunity for the independent auditor to meet privately with the members of the Committee. The Committee shall review with the independent auditor any audit problems or difficulties and management's response.

The Committee shall receive and review reports from the independent auditor, prior to the filing of its audit report with the SEC, on all critical accounting policies and practices of the Company, all material alternative treatments of financial information within generally accepted accounting principles that have been discussed with management, including the ramifications of the use of such alternative treatments and disclosures and the treatment preferred by the independent auditor, and other material written communications between the independent auditor and management.

The Committee shall review and discuss with management and the independent auditor earnings press releases, as well as financial information and earnings guidance provided to analysts and rating agencies.

The Committee shall review with management and the independent auditor the year end audited financial statements and interim financial statements, and disclosures under Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations to be included in the Company's Annual Reports on Form 10-K and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, including their judgment about the quality, not just the acceptability, of accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments, and the clarity of the disclosures in the financial statements. Also, the Committee shall discuss the results of the annual audit and the quarterly review and any other matters required to be communicated to the Committee by the independent auditor under generally accepted auditing standards. If deemed appropriate, the Committee shall recommend to the Board that the audited financial statements be included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year.

The Committee shall inquire of management of the Company as to any material violations of securities laws, breaches of fiduciary duty or violations of the Company's code of ethics.

The Committee shall review and approve all related party transactions. For these purposes, the term "related party transaction" shall refer to transactions required to be disclosed pursuant to Securities and Exchange Commission Regulation S-K, Item 404.

The Committee shall establish procedures for the receipt, retention, and treatment of complaints received by the Company regarding accounting, internal accounting controls, or auditing matters, and the confidential, anonymous submission by employees of the Company of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters.

The Committee shall receive corporate attorneys' reports of evidence of a material violation of securities laws or breaches of fiduciary duty.

The Committee shall prepare its report to be included in the Company's annual proxy statement as required by SEC regulations.

The Committee shall perform an evaluation of its performance at least annually to determine whether it is functioning effectively.

The Committee shall have the ultimate authority and responsibility to engage or terminate any such independent advisers and to approve the terms of any such engagement and the fees to be paid to any such adviser. The Committee may also request that any officer or other employee of the Company, the Company's outside counsel or any other person meet with any members of, or independent advisers to, the Committee.
