BARCLAYS PLC

Barclays sells Barclays Global Investors Japan Trust & Banking Co., Ltd. to The Sumitomo Trust & Banking Co., Ltd.

Barclays Bank PLC ('Barclays') today announces the sale of Barclays Global Investors Japan Trust & Banking Co., Ltd. ('BTB'), the trust administration and custody operation in Japan of Barclays asset management division, Barclays Global Investors ('BGI'), to The Sumitomo Trust & Banking Co., Ltd. ('STB') for a consideration of approximately JPY4.9 billion (approximately GBP21 million) payable in cash.

In addition to its trust administration and custody services, BTB provides asset management services to pension and asset management clients. Under the terms of the agreement with STB, BGI will consolidate the asset management business of BTB into Barclays Global Investors Japan Limited prior to completion of the sale of BTB.

Completion of the transaction is subject to regulatory approval and is expected to occur around the end of 2007.

About The Sumitomo Trust & Banking Co., Ltd.

The Sumitomo Trust & Banking Co., Ltd. ('STB') is a prominent trust bank, providing Japanese clients with banking, trust, and real estate services. STB has JPY11.1 trillion of deposits, JPY10.6 trillion of loans and manages JPY70.8 trillion of trust assets as at end September 2006. STB operates through 60 domestic and 4 international branches/offices, and promotes global custody services utilizing its subsidiaries in United States and Luxembourg. STB completed the repayment of public funds in January 2004, which was one of the earliest recoveries from governmental support. Being autonomous and independent of Japanese mega bank groups, STB has effectively and strategically extended capital investment and business alliances to expand its customer franchise and business networks. STB has capabilities both to provide asset management services and to administer the processing of securities of such trust funds as corporate pension trusts, public funds, and other institutional investment vehicles. In 2001, STB started a joint venture with Resona Bank and Mitsui Trust Holdings, two other major trust institutions in Japan, in securities processing business by establishing Japan Trustee Services Bank, Ltd. ('JTSB'). JTSB has been successful in providing efficient, value-added, customer-focused services to achieve trust assets of over JPY156 trillion as at end September 2006. STB's strength in real estate business rests not only in the brokerage business but also in the rapidly developing securitization and real estate investment management businesses. Forward-looking statements

This document contains certain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 21E of the US Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Section 27A of the US Securities Act of 1933, as amended, with respect to certain of the Group's plans and its current goals and expectations relating to its future financial condition and performance. These forward-looking statements can be identified by the fact that they do not relate only to historical or current facts. Forward-looking statements sometimes use words such as 'aim', 'anticipate', 'target', 'expect', 'estimate', 'intend', 'plan', 'goal', 'believe', or other words of similar meaning. Examples of forward-looking statements include, among others, statements regarding the Group's future financial position, income growth, impairment charges, business strategy, projected levels of growth in the banking and financial markets, projected costs, estimates of capital expenditures, and plans and objectives for future operations.

By their nature, forward-looking statements involve risk and uncertainty because they relate to future events and circumstances, including, but not limited to, the further development of standards and interpretations under International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) applicable to past, current and future periods, evolving practices with regard to the interpretation and application of standards under IFRS, as well as UK domestic and global economic and business conditions, market related risks such as changes in interest rates and exchange rates, the policies and actions of governmental and regulatory authorities, changes in legislation, progress in the integration of Absa into the Group's business and the achievement of synergy targets related to Absa, the outcome of pending and future litigation, the success of future acquisitions and other strategic transactions and the impact of competition—a number of which factors are beyond the Group's control. As a result, the Group's actual future results may differ materially from the plans, goals, and expectations set forth in the Group's forward-looking statements. Any forward-looking statements made by or on behalf of Barclays speak only as of the date they are made. Barclays does not undertake to update forward-looking statements to reflect any changes in Barclays expectations with regard thereto or any changes in events, conditions or circumstances on which any such statement is based. The reader should, however, consult any additional disclosures that Barclays has made or may make in documents it has filed or may file with the SEC.
