ITEM 8.01 OTHER EVENTS.

On November 23, 2009, Windstream Corporation (Windstream), Iowa Telecommunications Services, Inc. (Iowa Telecom) and Buffalo Merger Sub, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Windstream, entered into an agreement and plan of merger (the Merger Agreement) pursuant to which Windstream has agreed to acquire all of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of Iowa Telecom.

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, Iowa Telecom shareholders will receive 0.804 shares of common stock of Windstream (Windstream Common Stock) and $7.90 in cash per each share of Iowa Telecom common stock. Windstream expects to issue approximately 26.5 million shares of Windstream Common Stock valued at approximately $269 million, based on Windstream's closing stock price on November 23, 2009, and pay approximately $261 million in cash as part of the transaction. Windstream also will repay estimated net debt of approximately $598 million. Windstream intends to finance the cash portion of the transaction and the repayment of Iowa Telecom's outstanding indebtedness with the proceeds from a debt financing or additional bank borrowings.

Upon completion of the Merger, Iowa Telecom will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Windstream. The Merger is expected to close in mid-2010 and is subject to certain conditions, including necessary approvals from federal and state regulators and Iowa Telecom shareholders.

On November 24, 2009, Windstream issued a press release announcing the execution of the Merger Agreement, as discussed above. A copy of the press release is filed as Exhibit 99.1 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

The attached press release includes a non-GAAP financial measure titled operating income before depreciation and amortization, or OIBDA. Windstream's management considers OIBDA to be useful to investors because OIBDA provides information specific to a company's operating performance.

In addition, the press release includes a non-GAAP financial measure entitled free cash flow. Free cash flow is defined as net cash provided from operations less net cash used in the procurement of property, plant and equipment. The Company believes free cash flow provides the investor useful information about cash available to pay dividends.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

Windstream claims the protection of the safe-harbor for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements, including statements regarding the completion of the acquisition and expected benefits of the acquisition, are subject to uncertainties that could cause actual future events and results to differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are based on estimates, projections, beliefs and assumptions that Windstream believes are reasonable but are not guarantees of future events and results. Actual future events and results of Windstream may differ materially from those expressed in these forward-looking statements as a result of a number of important factors. Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contemplated above include, among others: receipt of required approvals of regulatory agencies; the possibility that the anticipated benefits from the acquisition cannot be fully realized or may take longer to realize than expected; the possibility that costs or difficulties related to the integration of Iowa Telecom operations into Windstream will be greater than expected; the ability of the combined company to retain and hire key personnel; and those additional factors under the caption "Risk Factors" in Windstream's Form 10-K for the year ended Dec. 31, 2008 and in subsequent Securities and Exchange Commission filings. In addition to these factors, actual future performance, outcomes and results may differ materially because of more general factors including, among others, general industry and market conditions and growth rates, economic conditions, and governmental and public policy changes. Windstream undertakes no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. The foregoing review of factors that could cause Windstream's actual results to differ materially from those contemplated in the forward-looking statements should be considered in connection with information regarding risks and uncertainties that may affect Windstream's future results included in Windstream's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission at www.sec.gov.
