XINYUAN REAL ESTATE CO., LTD. ACQUIRES ADDITIONAL PARCEL OF LAND IN ZHENGZHOU

BEIJING, China, December 23, 2009 Xinyuan Real Estate Co., Ltd. (Xinyuan or the Company) (NYSE: XIN), a residential real estate developer with a focus on high growth, strategic Tier II cities in China, today announced that it has acquired another parcel of land in downtown Zhengzhou, the capital city of central China's Henan Province.

Xinyuan paid a total of RMB473 million (approximately US$69 million) for the unencumbered land use rights for the Zhengzhou parcel, which offers a total site area of approximately 45,356 square meters. Based on pre-planning of the proposed development projects, consisting of high rise and multi-layer residential apartments of 70-120 square meters, the parcel of land located in the Jinshui district of Zhengzhou is expected to generate an estimated gross floor area of approximately 130,000 square meters. The Company expects to begin construction on this parcel in July 2010 with pre-sales starting in October 2010.

This acquisition marks the third land acquisition for Xinyuan in Zhengzhou this year, said Mr. Yong Zhang, Xinyuan's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. Jinshui district is the financial and cultural center of Zhengzhou. The transaction volume of this district accounted for approximately 40% of Zhengzhou's volume in the first eleven months of this year. The average selling price per square meter in the area immediately surrounding our acquired parcel ranges from RMB6,800 to RMB14,000, which is significantly higher than the average selling price of our projects in other areas of Zhengzhou. We believe this parcel is very well positioned for solid sales and will generate superior profitability. We are continuing to build Xinyuan's presence in Zhengzhou and positioning the company for solid growth through a steady development pipeline in 2010.
