(1) In Section 7 of the Offer to Purchase entitled Certain Information Concerning the Company, the second paragraph on page 22 is hereby deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

Although neither Parent nor Purchaser has any knowledge that such information is untrue, neither Parent nor Purchaser has independently verified the accuracy or completeness of the information contained in this Offer to Purchase with respect to the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates or any failure by the Company to disclose any events which may have occurred or may affect the significance of any such information but which are unknown to Parent or Purchaser.

Litigation. On October 31, 2011 and November 1, 2011, three purported class action lawsuits were filed on behalf of the Company's stockholders related to the sale of the Company to Parent and Purchaser. The suits name as defendants some combination of the Company and members of the Company Board (collectively, the Company Defendants), Parent and Purchaser (collectively, the Parent Defendants), Dolphin and certain stockholders affiliated with the Needham Funds (collectively, the Stockholder Defendants).

Two complaints were filed in the Santa Clara Superior Court of California on October 31, 2011: Geometric Trading Company v. Capovilla et al. (Case No. 111CV212244); and Beckett v. Capovilla et al. (Case No. 111CV212260). One complaint was filed in the Court of Chancery in the State of Delaware on November 1, 2011: Parcell v. Southwall Technologies, Inc. et al. (C.A. No. 7003-VCL).

The complaints generally allege that (i) the Company Defendants breached their fiduciary duties of care, loyalty and good faith by facilitating the sale of the Company to Parent and Purchaser through an unfair process at an unfair price; (ii) the Company Defendants breached their fiduciary duty of disclosure by omitting or misstating material information regarding the sale; (iii) the Offer and the Merger unfairly benefit certain members of the Company Board, to the disadvantage of Company stockholders; (iv) the Stockholder Defendants breached their fiduciary duties to minority stockholders by facilitating the sale of the Company to Parent and Purchaser; and (v) the Stockholder Defendants and Parent Defendants aided and abetted the Company Defendants' alleged breaches of fiduciary duties.

The complaints seek, among other relief, to enjoin the Offer and the Merger, a declaration that the Company Defendants have breached their fiduciary duties to stockholders or aided and abetted those breaches, compensatory damages, or rescission of the Offer and the Merger in the event such transactions have been completed and an award of costs, including reasonable attorneys' and expert fees.

On November 1, 2011, plaintiff Parcell filed a motion to expedite the proceedings in Delaware, seeking to expedite discovery and schedule a preliminary injunction hearing. The Delaware Court of Chancery denied the motion on November 8, 2011.

On November 3, 2011, plaintiff Geometric Trading Company filed an application for a temporary restraining order and expedited discovery in the Santa Clara Superior Court of California. A hearing on the application has been set for November 21, 2011.
