Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On March 12, 2012, American Tower Corporation (the Company) completed a registered public offering of $700 million aggregate principal amount of its 4.70% senior unsecured notes due 2022 (the Notes), which resulted in net proceeds to the Company of approximately $693.0 million, after deducting commissions and estimated expenses. The Company intends to use the net proceeds to refinance existing indebtedness incurred under its credit facilities, which have been used to fund recent acquisitions.

The Company issued the Notes under an indenture dated as of May 13, 2010 (the Base Indenture), as previously amended and supplemented and as further amended and supplemented by a supplemental indenture dated as of March 12, 2012 (Supplemental Indenture No. 5) and, together with the Base Indenture, as previously amended and supplemented, the Indenture, each between the Company and the Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A., as trustee (the Trustee). The following description of the Indenture is a summary and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the detailed provisions of the Indenture.

The Notes will mature on March 15, 2022 and bear interest at a rate of 4.70% per annum. Accrued and unpaid interest on the Notes will be payable in U.S. Dollars semi-annually in arrears on March 15 and September 15 of each year, beginning on September 15, 2012. Interest on the Notes will accrue from March 12, 2012 and will be computed on the basis of a 360-day year comprised of twelve 30-day months. The terms of the Indenture, among other things, limit the Company's ability to merge, consolidate or sell assets and the Company's and its subsidiaries' abilities to incur liens. These covenants are subject to a number of exceptions, including that the Company and its subsidiaries may incur liens on assets, mortgages or other liens securing indebtedness, if the aggregate amount of such liens shall not exceed 3.5x Adjusted EBITDA as defined in the Indenture.

The Company may redeem the Notes at any time at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount, plus a make-whole premium, together with accrued interest to the redemption date. In addition, if the Company undergoes a Change of Control and Ratings Decline, each as defined in the Indenture, the Company may be required to repurchase all of the Notes at a purchase price equal to 101% of the principal amount of the Notes, plus accrued and unpaid interest (including additional interest, if any), up to but not including the repurchase date.

The Indenture provides that each of the following is an event of default (Event of Default): (i) default for 30 days in payment of any interest due with respect to the Notes; (ii) default in payment of principal or premium, if any, on the Notes when due, at maturity, upon any redemption, by declaration or otherwise; (iii) failure by the Company to comply with covenants in the Indenture or the Notes for 90 days after receiving notice; and (iv) certain events of bankruptcy or insolvency with respect to the Company or any of its Significant Subsidiaries (as defined in the Indenture). If any Event of Default arising under clause (iv) above occurs, the principal amount and accrued and unpaid interest on all the outstanding Notes will become due and payable immediately without further action or notice. If any other Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the trustee or the holders of at least 25% in principal amount of the then outstanding Notes may declare the entire principal amount on all the outstanding Notes to be due and payable immediately.

The foregoing is only a summary of certain provisions and is qualified in its entirety by the terms of the Base Indenture, as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) on May 13, 2010 as an exhibit to the Company's Registration Statement on Form S-3 (the Registration Statement), Supplemental Indenture No. 4, by and among the Company, the Company's predecessor and the Trustee, as filed with the SEC on January 3, 2012 as an exhibit to the Company's Post-Effective Amendment No. 1 to the Registration Statement, and Supplemental Indenture No. 5, a copy of which is filed herewith as Exhibit 4.1, and incorporated by reference herein.
