Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant

On June 1, 2016, The Dow Chemical Company (TDCC) announced the closing of the previously announced transaction with Corning Incorporated, a New York corporation (Corning), Dow Corning Corporation, a Michigan corporation (Dow Corning), and HS Upstate Inc., a Delaware corporation (Splitco), pursuant to which Corning exchanged with Dow Corning its 50 percent equity interest in Dow Corning for 100 percent of the stock of Splitco which holds a 40.25% ownership interest in the Hemlock Semiconductor Group, and other assets, including approximately $4.8 billion in cash (the Transaction). As a result of the Transaction, Dow Corning is now a wholly-owned subsidiary of TDCC, with the exception of approximately 50% of Dow Corning s interest in the Hemlock Semiconductor Group, which was transferred indirectly to Corning through its interest in Splitco.

In connection with the Transaction, on May 31, 2016, Dow Corning incurred $4.5 billion of indebtedness in order to fund the contribution of cash to Splitco. The terms and conditions of the credit agreement under which Dow Corning incurred such indebtedness (the DCC Credit Agreement) are substantially similar to the terms and conditions of Dow Corning s prior revolving credit facility, which was terminated in connection with the incurrence of such indebtedness; provided, however, that in the event that TDCC elects to guaranty the obligations of Dow Corning under the DCC Credit Agreement, the covenants and events of default applicable to the DCC Credit Agreement shall be substantially similar to the covenants and events of default set forth in TDCC s existing Five Year Competitive Advance and Revolving Credit Facility. Amounts borrowed under the DCC Credit Agreement, are repayable on May 30, 2017, subject to a one-year extension option, at Dow Corning s election.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On June 1, 2016, TDCC issued a press release announcing the closing of the Transaction. The press release is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.
