Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration

On November 6, 2017, pursuant to the Securities Purchase Agreement, dated as of November 6, 2017, by and between WP XII Investments and the Company (the SPA), WP XII Investments purchased 10,595,521 newly issued Ordinary Shares from the Company at a purchase price of $1.85 per share (the Acquired Shares). Pursuant to the SPA, WP XII Investments has the right to designate two directors to the Company's board of directors. WP XII Investments' two designated directors, Cary J. Davis and Brian Chang, were appointed to the Company's board of directors on November 6, 2017. WP XII Investments also has certain other board designation rights pursuant to the SPA, which, among other things, allow it to designate additional directors to the Company's board of directors at future shareholder meetings proportional to its ownership interest in the Company. A copy of the Securities Purchase Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit B. The description of the abovementioned documents contained herein is qualified in its entirety by reference to Exhibit B, which is incorporated herein by reference. WP XII Investments agreed in the SPA not to enter into any short sale transaction or other similar hedging transactions with respect to the Acquired Shares, whether through an options exchange or otherwise, until November 6, 2018.

In connection with the SPA, WP XII Investments and the Company entered into a Registration Rights Agreement, dated as of November 6, 2017 (the RRA). Pursuant to the RRA, the Company granted to WP XII Investments certain demand registration and unlimited piggyback and shelf-take down registration rights. The demand registration rights may be exercised at any time from August 6, 2018, subject to certain customary blackout periods. In addition, the Company agreed, at the request of WP XII Investments, to prepare and file within two years after November 6, 2017, a shelf registration statement. The RRA also requires the Company to use reasonable best efforts to cooperate and assist WP XII Investments with marketing the resale of the Ordinary Shares, including providing information reasonably requested by WP XII Investments and providing it with reasonable access to the Company's management. A copy of the RRA is attached hereto as Exhibit C. The description of the abovementioned documents contained herein is qualified in its entirety by reference to Exhibit C, which is incorporated herein by reference.

Upon the closing of the transactions described above, WP XII Investments holds an aggregate of 10,595,521 Ordinary Shares, representing 21.3% of the Company's total outstanding Ordinary Shares, based on 39,242,897 Ordinary Shares outstanding as of October 31, 2017 (based on the Company's representation in the SPA), plus the 10,595,521 Ordinary Shares issued pursuant to the SPA. All of the funds required to acquire the Acquired Shares were obtained from the working capital of the WP XII Funds, which in turn was obtained from capital contributions from the respective limited partners of the WP XII Funds. The total amount of funds paid by WP XII Investments to purchase the Acquired Shares was $19,601,713.85. In connection with the acquisition of the Acquired Shares, the Company reimbursed WP XII Investments $300,000 for its costs and expenses in negotiating the SPA.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

The acquisition by WP XII Investments of the Acquired Shares was effected because of the belief that the Ordinary Shares represent an attractive investment. WP XII Investments beneficially owns, and the Warburg Pincus Reporting Persons may be deemed to beneficially own, the Acquired Shares as an investment. WP XII Investments intends to commence a special tender offer (the Tender Offer) to purchase at $2.50 net per share, without interest, up to 75% of the Ordinary Shares of the Company (assuming issuance of Ordinary Shares issuable upon conversion of certain convertible notes and exercise of all in the money outstanding stock options and warrants as of the completion of the Tender Offer). The purpose of the Tender Offer is for WP XII Investments to increase its ownership of the issued and outstanding Ordinary Shares from its current level of approximately 21.3% of the issued and outstanding Ordinary Shares up to approximately 75.0% of the Ordinary Shares (assuming issuance of Ordinary Shares issuable upon conversion of certain convertible notes and exercise of all in the money outstanding stock options and warrants as of the completion of the Tender Offer). Following the completion of the Tender Offer, depending on prevailing market, economic and other conditions (and subject to applicable restrictions under Israeli law), the Warburg Pincus Reporting Persons may from time to time acquire additional Ordinary Shares. Such acquisitions may be made by means of open-market purchases, privately negotiated transactions, direct acquisitions from the Company or otherwise. In accordance with applicable Israeli law, to the extent that Tender Offer is completed, the Warburg Pincus Reporting Persons will be prohibited from launching another tender offer or merging with the Company during the subsequent 12 month period, unless the commitment to do is described in the Tender Offer.

The description of the SPA set forth in Item 3 is hereby incorporated by reference in this Item 4. The description of the RRA set forth in Item 3 is hereby incorporated by reference in this Item 4.

Except as otherwise described below or elsewhere in this Schedule 13D, none of the Warburg Pincus Reporting Persons, and, to the knowledge of the Warburg Pincus Reporting Persons, none of the persons named on Schedule I, has any current plans, proposals or negotiations that relate to or would result in: (i) an extraordinary corporate transaction, merger, reorganization or liquidation involving the Company or any of its subsidiaries; (ii) a purchase, sale or transfer of a material amount of the assets of the Company or any of its subsidiaries; (iii) any material change in the present dividend rate or policy or indebtedness or capitalization of the Company; (iv) any change in the present board of directors and management of the Company (including any plan or proposal to change the number or term of directors or to fill any existing vacancy on the board or to change any material term of the employment contract of any executive officer), other than the board designation rights as described above; (v) any other material change in the Company's corporate structure or business; (vi) a delisting of the Ordinary Shares; or (vi) the Ordinary Shares becoming eligible for termination of registration under the Exchange Act.

The Warburg Pincus Reporting Persons expect that from time to time there may be significant developments or transactions involving its portfolio companies (including the Company) or their securities, or offers, proposals or discussions related thereto, which may involve acquisitions or sales by it of its holdings in such entities (including the Company) or acquisitions or sales of securities, assets or business operations by such entities.

The Warburg Pincus Reporting Persons intend to review their investment in the Company, its performance and market conditions periodically and consider possible strategies for enhancing value and take such actions with respect to their investment as they deem appropriate in light of the circumstances existing from time to time. Such actions could include, among other things, communication with members of management, the board of directors or other shareholders of or lenders to the Company and/or other relevant parties from time to time with respect to operational, strategic, financial or governance matters, including, but not limited to, potential refinancings, recapitalizations, reorganizations, mergers, acquisitions, divestitures, a sale of the Company or other corporate transactions, or otherwise working with management and the board of the directors of the Company. Such actions could also include additional purchases of Ordinary Shares pursuant to one or more open-market purchase programs, through private transactions or through tender offers or otherwise, subject to applicable U.S. and Israeli law. Future purchases may be on the same terms or on terms that are more or less favorable to the Company's shareholders than the terms of the Tender Offer. Any possible future purchases will depend on many factors, including the results of the offer, the market price of Ordinary Shares, the Company's business and financial position, and general economic and market conditions. In addition, following the consummation of the Tender Offer, the Warburg Pincus Reporting Persons may also determine to dispose of the Ordinary Shares (which may include, but is not limited to, transferring some or all of such securities to their affiliates or distributing some or all of such securities to their respective partners, members or beneficiaries, as applicable), in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time, subject to applicable laws, in each case, in open market or private transactions, block sales or otherwise. Any such decision would be based on the Warburg Pincus Reporting Persons' assessment of a number of different factors, including, without limitation, the business, prospects and affairs of the Company, the market for the Ordinary Shares, the condition of the securities markets, general economic and industry conditions, tax considerations and other opportunities available to us.

Under Israeli law, if a shareholder owns or is deemed to beneficially own less than 25.0% of the voting power of a company, such shareholder may purchase shares in the open market or through private transactions, and not solely by means of a tender offer, unless as a result of the purchase the shareholder would own or would be deemed to beneficially own in excess of 25.0% of the issued and outstanding shares of the company and no other person owns at least 25.0% of the voting power. Accordingly, if the Tender Offer is not consummated, the Warburg Pincus Reporting Persons would not own more than 25.0% of the issued and outstanding Ordinary Shares, and they may purchase Ordinary Shares in the open market or through private transactions, and not solely by means of a tender offer, as long as their aggregate percentage ownership of issued and outstanding Ordinary Shares does not reach 25.0% (and no other person owns at least 25.0% of the voting power). In addition, under Israeli law, if a shareholder owns or is deemed to beneficially own in excess of 25.0% of the voting power of a company, such shareholder may purchase shares in the open market or through private transactions, and not solely by means of a tender offer, unless as a result of the purchase the shareholder would own or would be deemed to beneficially own in excess of 45.0% of the issued and outstanding shares of the company and no other person owns at least 45.0% of the voting power. Accordingly, following the consummation of the Tender Offer, if the Warburg Pincus Reporting Persons do not own more than 45.0% of the issued and outstanding Ordinary Shares, they may purchase Ordinary Shares in the open market or through private transactions, and not solely by means of a tender offer, as long as their aggregate percentage ownership of issued and outstanding Ordinary Shares does not reach 45.0% (and no other person owns at least 45.0% of the voting power). Under Israeli law, if a shareholder together with its affiliates owns in excess of 45.0% of the voting power of a company, the shareholder may purchase shares in the open market or through private transactions, and not solely by means of a tender offer, unless as a result of the purchase the shareholder, together with its affiliates, would own in excess of 90.0% of the issued and outstanding shares of the company. Accordingly, following the consummation of the Tender Offer, if the Warburg Pincus Reporting Persons own more than 45.0% of the issued and outstanding Ordinary Shares, they may purchase Ordinary Shares in the open market or through private transactions, and not solely by means of a tender offer, as long as our aggregate percentage ownership of issued and outstanding Ordinary Shares does not reach 90.0%.

However, under Israeli law, WP XII Investments, its controlling shareholders and any corporation under its or their control, are prohibited from conducting an additional tender offer for Ordinary Shares and from merging with the Company within 12 months from the date of this offer to purchase, unless the commitment to do is described in the Tender Offer.

(a) The percentages used herein are calculated based upon the 39,242,897 Ordinary Shares outstanding as of October 31, 2017, based on the Company's representation in the SPA, plus the 10,595,521 Ordinary Shares issued pursuant to the SPA.

WP XII Investments is the direct owner of 10,595,521 Ordinary Shares, representing approximately 21.3% of the outstanding Ordinary Shares. Due to their respective relationships with WP XII Investments and each other, each of the Warburg Pincus Reporting Persons may be deemed to beneficially own, in the aggregate, 10,595,521 Ordinary Shares. Each of the Warburg Pincus Reporting Persons (with the exception of WP XII Investments) disclaim beneficial ownership (within the meaning of Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act) of all of the Ordinary Shares, except for any pecuniary interest therein.
