Pursuant to Rule 13d-2(a) of Regulation 13D-G of the General Rules and Regulations under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Act"), the undersigned hereby amend their Schedule 13D Statement dated May 5, 2004, as amended by Amendment No. 1 dated June 8, 2004, as amended by Amendment No. 2 dated June 29, 2005, as amended by Amendment No. 3 dated February 6, 2006, as amended by Amendment No. 4 dated March 2, 2006, as amended by Amendment No. 5 dated August 7, 2006, as amended by Amendment No. 6 dated August 14, 2006, as amended by Amendment No. 7 dated September 13, 2007, as amended by Amendment No. 8 dated September 20, 2007 (the "Schedule 13D"), relating to the Common Stock, par value $0.00025 per share (the "Stock"), of i2 Technologies, Inc. (the "Issuer"). Unless otherwise indicated, all defined terms used herein shall have the same meanings as those set forth in the Schedule 13D.

ITEM 4. PURPOSE OF THE TRANSACTION.

Item 4 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

As required by the Issuer's advance-notice bylaw, the Reporting Person (on behalf of R<sup>2</sup>) is notifying the Issuer of its intention to nominate two candidates for election to the board of directors.

As the Reporting Person has previously disclosed, it believes that the time has come to sell the Issuer. In that connection, the Reporting Person continues to support the Issuer's Strategic Review Committee in its efforts to achieve this goal. The Reporting Person believes that the Issuer has valuable assets and attributes, and would make an ideal acquisition for many firms.

The Reporting Person will be disappointed, however, if a transaction cannot be executed at an acceptable price by the Strategic Review Committee's announced target date of January 31, 2008. In that event, the Reporting Person will hold responsible the board that has led the Issuer for the past four years. If a sale cannot be executed by this board-imposed deadline, the Reporting Person consequently believes that it will be in the best interests of the Issuer and its shareholders for a new group of directors to oversee the Issuer's growth and continued operation as a stand-alone company.

According to the Issuer's public filings, its advance-notice bylaw precludes direct shareholder nominations of directors after December 29, 2007. Given the urgent need for a new board in the event of an unsuccessful sale process, the Reporting Person is therefore delivering the required notice to the Issuer of its intention to nominate at the 2008 annual meeting of stockholders two candidates for election to the board of directors. The nominees are J. Coley Clark and Richard L. Hunter. A biographical summary for each nominee is provided below.

The nominees selected are proven business leaders with a successful track record of delivering shareholder value. These qualified independent directors will bring not only their experience as nationally recognized experts in supply chain management and software business leadership, but will bring the new energy to the board required to meet fresh challenges and position the Issuer for future opportunities.

The Reporting Person is submitting its slate of two nominees reluctantly and only because it has not received assurance from the Issuer that Messrs. Clark and Hunter will be included in the Issuer's slate of directors. The Reporting Person intends that its nominees would replace Michael McGrath and Harvey Cash.

Biographical information for these nominees follows:

Name and Age	Principal Occupation or Employment During the Last Five Years

J. Coley Clark (62)	Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of BancTec, Inc., a global provider of document and payment processing solutions, since September 2004. Previously, Mr. Clark retired from EDS as Senior Vice President and head of the Financial and Transportation Industry Groups. This $3.5 billion global operating organization supported more than 1,000 customers including Bank of America, ABN AMRO, Citigroup, Commonwealth Bank of Australia, American Airlines and Continental Airlines. In 1971 Mr. Clark joined EDS in the Systems Engineering Development Program and progressed through a variety of technical, sales and management roles related to the financial and insurance industries. He assumed responsibility for the Financial Industry Group in 1986 and was named a corporate officer in 1989. He was appointed a Senior Vice President in 1996 and served as a member of the Global Operations Council, EDS' top executive team. Mr. Clark previously served on the board of Carreker Corporation, a software solutions provider to the financial industry, and FundsXpress, Inc., a provider of internet-based financial products. Mr. Clark is a graduate of The University of Texas at Austin. He served three years in the U.S. Army, attaining the rank of Captain, and served as a company commander in Europe and Southeast Asia.
Richard L. Hunter (55)	Vice President of Dell's Global Consumer Services and Support team responsible for consumer customer contact centers in the Americas, APJ and EMEA since 2006. Previously, Mr. Hunter served as Vice President of Dell America's Operations. In this role, he managed the day-to-day operations of Dell's manufacturing facilities in Austin, TX; Nashville, TN; Winston-Salem, NC; and Eldorado de Sul, Brazil. He also led the Americas Remanufacturing and Returns Center Operations, Worldwide Fulfillment, Engineering and Quality, Demand-Supply, and the Environmental Health and Safety groups. Before that, Mr. Hunter held leadership roles in Portables manufacturing, supply chain management, and the Austin manufacturing operations organizations. Prior to joining Dell in February 1998, Mr. Hunter worked for General Electric, Texas Instruments and

	Ericsson. He has more than 25 years of experience in high tech, manufacturing operations and supply chain management. Mr. Hunter graduated from the Georgia Institute of Technology with a degree in Mechanical Engineering. He serves on the Georgia Tech College of Computing Advisory Board and on the Massachusetts Institute of Technology China Leaders for Manufacturing Governing Board.

Except as set forth in this Item 4, the Reporting Person has no present plans or proposals that relate to or that would result in any of the actions specified in clauses (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D under the Act.
