Unifi, Inc. (the “Registrant”), pursuant to previously agreed upon employment terms, announced on November 19, 2015 that it has hired and will be appointing Sean D. Goodman as the Registrant’s Vice President and Chief Financial and Chief Accounting Officer, with a starting date of January 6, 2016. Mr. Goodman, age 50, has most recently (since April 2011) been Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Americas region of Landis+Gyr (“Landis+Gyr Americas”). Mr. Goodman was formerly (from February 2006 to April 2011) an executive of The Home Depot, Inc. (“Home Depot”), where he had successive roles as Director of Strategic Business Development and Director of Finance, responsible for leading the finance functions of the Home Services Division of publicly held Home Depot, and ultimately heading financial planning and analysis for all of Home Depot. Landis+Gyr Americas is based in Alpharetta, Georgia, and Home Depot is based in Atlanta, Georgia; neither is an affiliate of the Registrant. Mr. Goodman has no familial relationship with any director or executive officer of the Registrant.

Landis+Gyr, a $1.5 billion subsidiary of publicly held Toshiba Corporation, is a provider of integrated energy management solutions to energy companies globally. As Chief Financial Officer of Landis+Gyr Americas, Mr. Goodman was responsible for all aspects of the company’s financial operations in the Americas, including business development and strategic planning, as well as financial management, treasury, accounting and information technology functions. Prior to joining Landis+Gyr, Mr. Goodman, in his executive roles at the over $3.5 billion Home Services Division business unit of Home Depot, and ultimately for all of Home Depot, had responsibilities and functions that extended across several financial operations and management areas, and included broad-ranging strategic analysis, financial planning, and M&A transactions.

Before joining the Home Depot enterprise in 2006, Mr. Goodman, who is a graduate of the Harvard Business School as well as a certified public accountant, had held positions as Head of Strategy and Corporate Development of GUS plc (f/k/a Great Universal Stores), a FTSE 100 retail and information services group based in the U.K.; Vice President, Investment Banking of Morgan Stanley in London; and Senior Manager (Treasury and Capital Markets Consulting Group) and Manager (Accounting and Auditing) of Deloitte & Touche LLP in New York.

The compensation terms for Mr. Goodman’s employment will include: (a) a base annual salary of $450,000; (b) a grant of restricted stock units for 20,000 shares of common stock; (c) participation in the Registrant’s annual incentive performance cash program (with potential to earn a bonus between 75% and 150% of his base salary); and (d) participation in the Registrant’s Supplemental Key Employee Retirement Plan (with an annual contribution by the Registrant equal to 8.5% of his base salary). Mr. Goodman will receive other employee benefits consistent with those provided by the Registrant to its other executive officers.

As previously announced, Christopher A. Smosna, Vice President and Treasurer of the Registrant, has been serving as interim Chief Financial and Chief Accounting Officer since November 2, 2015, and he will continue in those roles until Mr. Goodman joins the Registrant in January 2016. Mr. Smosna will continue thereafter as Vice President and Treasurer.
