Post Holdings Announces Proposed Offerings of Equity Securities and Senior Notes

St. Louis, Missouri - May 19, 2014 - Post Holdings, Inc. (NYSE:POST) (the “Company”) today announced it intends to commence underwritten public offerings, subject to market and other conditions, of 4,500,000 shares of its common stock and of 2,000,000 tangible equity units (the “Units”), with a stated value of $100.00 per Unit.

The Company expects to grant the underwriters for the common stock offering a 30-day option to purchase up to an additional 675,000 shares of common stock and expects to grant the underwriters for the Units offering an option to purchase within 13 days beginning on, and including, the date of the initial issuance of the Units, up to an additional 300,000 Units. Each Unit will consist of a prepaid stock purchase contract and an amortizing note. Unless earlier settled, each stock purchase contract will automatically settle for shares of the Company’s common stock on June 1, 2017 (subject to postponement in limited circumstances). The amortizing notes will pay proportionally equal quarterly installments that will constitute a payment of interest and a partial repayment of principal. The amortizing notes will have a final installment payment date of June 1, 2017 and will be unsecured senior obligations of the Company.

Post also announced it intends to commence a private offering to eligible purchasers, subject to market and other conditions, of $630 million in aggregate principal amount of senior notes due 2022 (the “Notes”). The Notes will be unsecured unsubordinated obligations of the Company and will be guaranteed by the Company’s domestic subsidiaries.

The common stock, Units and Notes offerings are being conducted as separate offerings. None of the offerings is contingent upon any other offering. The Company intends to use the net proceeds from the proposed offerings, together with cash on hand and approximately $735 million of new term loan borrowings (an increase from its previous estimate of approximately $635 million), to fund the previously announced acquisition of MFI Holding Corporation (“Michael Foods”) and to pay related fees and expenses. The final structure and terms of the acquisition financing will be subject to market and other conditions, and may be materially different than current expectations. The common stock and Units offerings are not contingent on the consummation of the acquisition of Michael Foods, and in the event the acquisition does not close, all of the proceeds of those offerings would be used for general corporate purposes, which could include, among other things, financing the previously announced PowerBar and Musashi acquisition and financing additional acquisition opportunities, working capital and capital expenditures. The closing of the Notes offering is conditioned on the simultaneous closing of the acquisition of Michael Foods.

Barclays Capital Inc., Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC, Wells Fargo Securities, LLC, Goldman, Sachs & Co., BMO Capital Markets Corp. and Nomura Securities International, Inc. are serving as book-running managers for the common stock and Units offerings. BofA Merrill Lynch, SunTrust Robinson Humphrey, Inc., Rabo Securities USA, Inc., PNC Capital Markets LLC and Stifel, Nicolaus & Company, Incorporated are serving as co-managers for the common stock and Units offerings. Barclays Capital Inc. will serve as the representative of the underwriters for the common stock and Units offerings.

The Notes and the related subsidiary guarantees are being offered in the United States to qualified institutional buyers in an offering exempt from registration pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), and to persons outside the United States in compliance with Regulation S under the Securities Act. The Notes and the related subsidiary guarantees have not been registered under the Securities Act, or any state securities laws, and unless so registered, may not be offered or sold in the United States except pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws.
