SUPPLEMENT TO THE PROXY STATEMENT FOR THE ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS
TO BE HELD DECEMBER 4, 2014

November 19, 2014

These Definitive Additional Materials amend and supplement the definitive proxy statement dated October 31, 2014 (the “2014 Proxy Statement”) of RCM Technologies, Inc., a Nevada corporation (“RCM” or the “Company”), for its 2014 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the “2014 Annual Meeting”) to be held at the offices of Morgan, Lewis & Bockius LLP, 1701 Market Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19103 on Thursday, December 4, 2014, at 6:00 p.m. local time.

SUPPLEMENTAL DISCLOSURES TO DEFINITIVE PROXY STATEMENT

This supplemental information should be read in conjunction with the 2014 Proxy Statement, which should be read in its entirety.

RCM’s leadership takes its fiduciary responsibility seriously and is committed to the implementation of best practices in corporate governance and compensation. Accordingly, in an ongoing effort to better align its leadership, corporate governance structure and compensation methodologies with the interests and perspectives of its stockholders, during the last 12 months members of RCM’s Board of Directors and management team have spoken with stockholders representing a majority of RCM’s ownership.

Mindful of the input of these stockholders and building on the comprehensive corporate governance reforms adopted in 2013, and in acknowledgement of the results of the “say on pay” vote at the Company’s 2013 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, the Compensation Committee of the Company’s Board has undertaken a series of efforts with respect to compensation reform, including structuring the following policies:

- Limiting executive severance cash pay-outs to no more than 24 months base salary and bonus;
 - Prohibiting tax gross-ups in all future employment agreements; and
- Requiring future employment agreements to contain a “double trigger” with respect to executive change-in-control payments.

Further, the Compensation Committee has committed to adopting, prior to the 2014 Annual Meeting, an incentive payment claw back policy for named executive officers.

Consistent with these reforms, when our former Chief Executive Officer retired effective February 28, 2014, he agreed to limit payment under his Separation Agreement to less than half of what his employment agreement would otherwise have stipulated. In its proxy statement for the 2015 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, the Company will include further detail with respect to compensation reforms to be made to the compensation structures of our current Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer.
