

Item 8.01 Other Events

As previously announced, the Company adopted a new organizational structure effective January 1, 2018, which reorganized the Company into two global segments aligned by complementary service lines and supported by a new business development organization aligned by industry sector. The new Workforce Excellence segment includes the majority of the former Learning Solutions segment and the former Professional & Technical Services segment and the new Business Transformation Services segment includes the majority of the former Performance Readiness Solutions segment and the former Sandy Training & Marketing segment. Certain business units transferred to a new segment different than the majority of its former operating segments to better align with the service offerings of the two new segments. The Company's operating results will be reported under this new organizational structure beginning with its financial statements for the first quarter ending March 31, 2018.

On March 6, 2018, the Company posted to its website restated historical quarterly data for the years ended December 31, 2017 and 2016 in the new segment structure for use by analysts and investors for comparability with future results. A summary of this restated quarterly segment data can be found on the Company's website at the following link: <https://www.gpstrategies.com/about-us/investors/committee-charter-information/quarterly-earnings-releases/>
