Board Committees

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors oversees the Company's financial reporting process. For this purpose, the Audit Committee reviews auditing, accounting, financial reporting and internal control functions and selects and engages the Company's independent auditors. In discharging its duties, the Audit Committee reviews and approves the scope of the annual audit, non-audit services to be performed by the independent auditors and the independent auditors' audit and non-audit fees; recommends to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for filing with the Commission; meets independently with the Company's independent auditors and senior management; and reviews the general scope of the Company's accounting, financial reporting, annual audit and matters relating to internal control systems, as well as the results of the annual audit and interim financial statements, auditor independence issues and the adequacy of the Audit Committee charter. The Audit Committee monitors the Company's compliance with laws and regulations and standards of business conduct. The Audit Committee has also established procedures for (a) the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by the Company regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters, and (b) the confidential, anonymous submission by the Company's employees of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters.

The current members of the Audit Committee are Messrs. Solomon, Speaks and Woodrow. Mr. Slaven, who formerly served as the Chair of the Audit Committee, resigned as of August 2, 2006. After considering transactions and relationships between each member of the Audit Committee or his immediate family and the Company and its subsidiaries and reviewing the qualifications of the members of the Audit Committee, the Board of Directors has determined that all current members of the Audit Committee are: (1) independent as that term is defined in Section 10A of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (Exchange Act); (2) independent as that term is defined in Rule 4200 of the listing standards of The NASDAQ Stock Market; and (3) financially literate and have the requisite financial sophistication as required by the NASDAQ rules applicable to issuers listed on The NASDAQ Stock Market.

The Audit Committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors.

Table of Contents

Audit Committee Financial Expert

The Board of Directors has determined that the Audit Committee does not have a member who is an audit committee financial expert as such term is defined by the rules and regulations of the Commission. While the Board of Directors recognizes that no individual Board member meets the qualifications required of an audit committee financial expert, the Board of Directors believes that the level of financial knowledge and experience of the current members of the Audit Committee is cumulatively sufficient to discharge adequately the Audit Committee's responsibilities.

Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee makes recommendations concerning salaries and incentive compensation, awards stock options to employees and consultants pursuant to the Company's stock option plans and performs other functions regarding compensation as the Board of Directors may delegate.

The current members of the Compensation Committee are Messrs. Solomon and Speaks, and Dr. Miller. The current Chair of the Compensation Committee is Mr. Solomon. The Board of Directors has determined that all current members of the Compensation Committee are independent as that term is defined in Rule 4200 of the listing standards of The NASDAQ Stock Market.

The Compensation Committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors.

Nominating and Governance Committee

The Nominating and Governance Committee was established in February 2003 and was reconstituted as the Nominating and Governance Committee in May 2004. The committee recommends director nominees to stand for election at the Company's annual meeting of stockholders, monitors the Board of Director's composition and reviews corporate governance issues. The Nominating and Governance Committee has the authority under its charter to hire and approve fees paid to consultants or search firms to assist in the process of identifying and evaluating potential director candidates.

The current members of the Nominating and Governance Committee are Messrs. Solomon and Woodrow. The current Chair of the Nominating and Governance Committee is Mr. Woodrow. The Board of Directors has determined that all current members of the Nominating and Governance Committee are independent as that term is defined in Rule 4200 of the listing standards of The NASDAQ Stock Market.

The Nominating and Governance Committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors.

Legal Committee

The Legal Committee reviews the Company's compliance with applicable laws and regulations, significant pending litigation or regulatory actions, as well as oversees the development of the Company's compliance policies and procedures. The current members of the Legal Committee are Messrs. Solomon and Woodrow, and Dr. Rakib. The current Chair of the Legal Committee is Mr. Woodrow.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires the Company's directors and executive officers, as well as persons who own more than ten percent of a registered class of the Company's equity securities, to file with the Commission initial reports of ownership and report of changes in ownership of common stock and other equity securities of the Company. Officers, directors and ten percent beneficial owners are required by Commission regulation to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

To the Company's knowledge, based solely upon a review of the copies of such reports provided to the Company and written representations that no other reports were required, during the year ended December 31, 2006, all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to the Company's directors, officers and greater than ten percent beneficial owners were complied with, and all applicable Section 16(a) reports were filed on a timely basis.

Code of Ethics

The Board of Directors adopted a Code of Business Conduct on January 14, 2004, and amended the Code of Business Conduct on November 10, 2006. The Code of Business Conduct is applicable to all members of the Board of Directors, executive officers and employees, including the Company's chief executive officer, chief financial officer and principal accounting officer. The Code of Business Conduct is available on the Company's Investor Relations website (www.terayon.com/investor) under Corporate Governance. The Code of Business Conduct satisfies the requirements under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, as well as NASDAQ rules applicable to issuers listed on The NASDAQ Stock Market. The Code of Business Conduct addresses, among other things, issues relating to conflicts of interests, including internal reporting of violations and disclosures, and compliance with applicable laws, rules and regulations. The purpose of the Code of Business Conduct is to deter wrongdoing and to promote, among other things, honest and ethical conduct and to ensure to the greatest possible extent that the Company's business is conducted in a legal and ethical manner. The Company intends to promptly disclose (1) the nature of any amendment to the Company's code of ethics that applies to executive officers and (2) the nature of any waiver, including an implicit waiver, from a provision of the Company's Code of Business Conduct that is granted to one of these specified officers, the name of such person who is granted the waiver and the date of the waiver on the Company's website in the future.

Item 11. Executive Compensation.

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

Compensation Philosophy and Objectives

Compensation for all of our named executive officers, or NEOs, is intended to motivate and reward company performance in meeting annual business operating plans and increasing stockholder value. In addition, because we shifted our business strategy in 2006 to focus exclusively in the highly competitive area of digital video products and applications and to discontinue our Home Access Solutions (HAS) product line, we believe that attracting and retaining the right talent by providing competitive compensation is critical to our success in maintaining and advancing our position in the digital video market on a long-term basis. Additionally, we believe that our goals of attracting and retaining qualified individuals who are competitively compensated will create value for our stockholders.

Our Compensation Committee seeks to achieve the following objectives in establishing the compensation for our NEOs:

attracting and retaining individuals of superior ability and managerial talent; motivating the achievement of key strategic and financial performance measures on an annual basis by linking incentive award opportunities to the achievement of performance goals in these areas; and ensuring that compensation for our NEOs is appropriately aligned with our corporate strategies, business objectives and the long-term interests of our stockholders.

The elements of compensation for our NEOs generally include base salary, annual incentive compensation and long-term equity incentive compensation. When making compensation decisions, we consider a number of factors including the individual's skill set, his performance against set objectives and our competitive positioning against our geographic market and peer group. Our compensation philosophy is to target a competitive base salary in addition to offering incentives to align the compensation of employees and executives with the attainment of certain performance objectives for the company.

Our philosophy surrounding the components of our compensation is to provide at-risk pay to all of our employees to align them with our strategic objectives for a given performance period. We believe that a significant percentage of the compensation payable to our executives, including our NEOs, should consist of at-risk pay, to more directly align their interests with our performance. In addition, our NEOs' at-risk pay is dependent completely on corporate performance while our non-executive employees may have at-risk pay that is based on both corporate and individual performance goals.

Table of Contents

We do not have stock ownership requirements and do not currently have any policy on recovering awards or payments, although we have an insider trading policy that sets certain restrictions on trading windows.

We aim to compensate our NEOs in a manner that is tax-effective for us without sacrificing the effectiveness of the incentive programs being offered to executives. In practice, all of the annual compensation delivered by us to date has been tax-deductible under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended (the Code). While any gain from nonqualified stock options should be deductible, to the extent that an option constitutes an incentive stock option within the meaning of the Code, gain recognized by the option holders will not be deductible if there is no disqualifying disposition of the option.

We account for stock-based awards to our employees under Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123 (revised 2004), or SFAS 123(R), Share-Based Payment, which requires us to record compensation expense over the service period of the award. Accounting rules also require us to record cash compensation as an expense at the time the obligation is accrued.

Determination of Compensation; Compensation Benchmarking and Peer Group

Our Compensation Committee is vested with the primary authority to approve the compensation provided to our executive officers, including our NEOs. In prior years, we have retained independent compensation consultants to assist us in the determination of the key elements of our compensation programs. In 2005 and 2006, we retained Top Five Data Services, an independent compensation consultant specializing in executive compensation matters in the technology industry. Top Five Data Services provided advice to our Compensation Committee with respect to competitive practices and the amounts and nature of compensation paid to executive officers in similar organizations. Top Five Data Services also advised on, among other matters, structuring our various executive compensation programs, determining the appropriate levels of salary, bonus and other awards payable to our executive officers, including our NEOs, and structuring our post-termination arrangements.

To aid the Compensation Committee in making its determination, our Chief Executive Officer and Vice President of Human Resources provide compensation reviews annually to our Compensation Committee regarding the compensation of all executive officers. The achievement of the performance goals of our NEOs is also reviewed annually by our Compensation Committee.

We review competitive compensation practices of a group of peer companies periodically. This review and analysis provides background to our Compensation Committee to help to ensure that compensation opportunities for our executives, including our NEOs, are competitive with compensation practices in our peer group of companies. Periodically, our Compensation Committee and management work with compensation consultants to confirm the peer group of companies to be included in this competitive assessment. In January 2006, we announced that we would focus solely on digital video products and applications, and that we would discontinue our HAS product line. As a result of this change in strategic focus, we realigned our peer group to better reflect our current size, geographic location, market capitalization, employee population and sales levels, which should enable us to more accurately compare and validate our compensation against the market. In the fourth quarter of 2006, we established a new peer group to better reflect our transition to a company focused solely on digital video products and applications. In addition, in 2006 we reviewed data from available applicable market surveys from Radford Surveys + Consulting for other high technology companies in California with similar revenue levels to help us establish our compensation levels.

Our current peer group consists of the following companies:

Carrier Access Corporation

Harmonic Inc.

Network Equipment Technologies, Inc.

Harris Stratex Networks, Inc.

Zhone Technologies, Inc.

Chyron Corporation

Table of Contents

Concurrent Computer Corporation

Frequency Electronics, Inc.

Interphase Corporation

Occam Networks

Scopus Video Networks Ltd.

Video Display Corporation

We do not guarantee that any executive will receive a specific market derived compensation level. Further, the compensation payable to our NEOs has not been realigned with our current peer group, and as discussed further below, we believe that any realignment with our current peer group would occur over a transition period.

Principal Elements of Compensation

Base Salary: The base salaries for our executive officers, including our NEOs, are generally reviewed annually by our Compensation Committee, which takes into account the responsibilities and performance of the individual, as well as a competitive analysis of other executive officers in the Silicon Valley market serving in similar roles. Our Compensation Committee aims to ensure that base salaries fall within the range of base salaries paid to other executive officers with similar duties and responsibilities as our executive officers, based on market competitive data. Differences between base salaries payable to executive officers in our peer group and those paid to our NEOs are driven by each NEO's experience and unique skill set as they relate to our corporate objectives. Base salaries for our NEOs in 2006, which were set in 2004 and 2005 when our NEOs were hired, may also not be consistent with base salaries paid to executive officers in the peer group we identified in the fourth quarter of 2006 following our transition to a digital video company and the discontinuation of our HAS product line. We expect there to be a transition period during which we will aim to align our compensation practices with those of our current peer group. No formulaic base salary increases are provided to the NEOs. At the time the performance goals for the incentive compensation plans applicable to our NEOs were set, our Compensation Committee believed that the goals would be difficult but achievable with significant effort.

Annual Incentive Compensation: Annual cash incentives are an integral part of the compensation awarded to our executives, including our NEOs, and other key employees. The cash incentives, designed to deliver value to our stockholders, are structured to align the NEOs' interest with our financial and performance objectives. Our Compensation Committee approves the goals under our two executive officer incentive programs: an Executive Bonus Plan in which Jerry D. Chase, our Chief Executive Officer, and Mark A. Richman, our Chief Financial Officer and Senior Vice President, Finance and Administration, are eligible to participate, and an Executive Sales Commission Plan in which Matthew J. Aden, our Senior Vice President, Global Sales and Customer Support, is eligible to participate.

Payment of bonus awards granted under our 2006 Executive Bonus Plan was based on the achievement of specified EBITDA and revenue objectives, each of which was weighted equally and determined the payment of the respective portion of the target bonus amount. Messrs. Chase and Richman were eligible to earn a bonus equal to 75% of their respective base salaries, in accordance with their employment agreements, upon the achievement of the performance objectives established under the 2006 Executive Bonus Plan. Our Compensation Committee is responsible for determining payment under this plan based on the NEO's achievement of the objectives that were established at the beginning of the plan year. The goals established for the 2006 plan year consisted of digital video revenue and EBITDA targets that were consistent with objectives established in connection with our previously approved strategic business plan for the year. These targets were not decreased to reflect the revised strategic business plan that was subsequently adopted by our Board of Directors following the announcement of our decision to focus solely on digital video products and applications in January 2006. Messrs. Chase and Richman did not attain the goals established under the 2006 Executive Bonus Plan, and as a result no cash bonuses were paid under this plan.

Table of Contents

Our Executive Sales Commission Plan was designed to encourage an increase in our digital video revenue. This plan was originally structured to match the higher revenue targets of the 2006 Executive Bonus Plan; however, during the second quarter of 2006, our Compensation Committee revised the revenue targets under the Executive Sales Commission Plan following the announcement of our decision to focus solely on digital video products and applications in January 2006. The plan revisions were driven by a revised strategic business plan presented to our Board of Directors and adopted to help address concerns relating to the retention of our key sales talent following our announcement on March 1, 2006 that certain of our historical consolidated financial statements could no longer be relied upon and should be restated. The target commission for Mr. Aden was equal to 100% of his base salary. Under the terms of the Executive Sales Commission Plan, no commission would be payable if less than 25% of the revenue target were achieved. If greater than 25% but less than 50% of the revenue target was achieved, the commission amount would be equal to the percentage of the revenue target achieved, multiplied by the year-to-date target commission, multiplied by 50%. If more than 50% of the revenue target was achieved, the commission would be equal to the percentage of the revenue target achieved multiplied by the year-to-date target commission. The commission is determined quarterly. In the event Mr. Aden exceeded his annual revenue target, he would be entitled to receive additional commission amounts payable on revenue exceeding 100% of the year-to-date target, which amounts would be payable at year-end. Based on video revenue invoiced in 2006, Mr. Aden achieved 106.51% of his revenue target and earned his commission based on the achievement of 106.51% of the revenue target.

Long-Term Equity Incentive Compensation: The Compensation Committee's decision to grant additional options may be based on such criteria as the individual's performance, the Company's performance and the desire to retain high quality talent at the executive level. Stock options granted under our 1997 Equity Incentive Plan currently held by NEOs generally have a four-year vesting period in order to provide an incentive for continued employment, and generally expire ten years from the date of grant, subject to earlier termination in the event of termination of employment. The exercise price of options granted to employees under our various stock plans is 100% of the fair market value of the underlying stock on the date of grant. We have generally not granted any restricted stock awards or any other type of stock-based awards to NEOs under our stock plans.

Historically, the NEOs have been granted significant option grants upon their commencement of employment. However, we revised our approach relating to our option grant practices beginning in 2005, when, in connection with the adoption of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 123(R), Share-Based Payment, (SFAS 123(R)), our Compensation Committee and management undertook a complete analysis of our equity compensation practice with the assistance of an external consultant. As a result of the analysis, our Compensation Committee approved a new set of guidelines for granting stock options to employees at all levels, including with respect to our NEOs. These guidelines govern the terms of new-hire grants, as well as periodic grants to existing employees. Under the new guidelines, we have reduced the number of shares that are awarded pursuant to individual grants from previous years, and have changed the vesting period applicable to our stock options from four years to three years and reduced the term of options from ten to six years. Because the NEOs received significant option grants in connection with their initial employment, none of them was granted a replenishment grant in 2005 under the new guidelines.

While we believe that ongoing stock ownership is key to aligning the interests of our executives and stockholders, our announcement on March 1, 2006 that certain of our historical consolidated financial statements could no longer be relied upon and should be restated and our subsequent de-listing from The NASDAQ National Market effective April 4, 2006, prevented us from granting stock options and employees from exercising stock options after March 1, 2006. As a result of our restatement activities, no grants were made to our NEOs during calendar year 2006.

Change of Control and Severance Arrangements

Each NEO is party to an employment agreement pursuant to which we have provided for payments and benefits in the event that such NEO experiences an involuntary termination, and enhanced payments and benefits in the event the involuntary termination occurs in connection with a change in control. Our

Table of Contents

Compensation Committee recommended entering into these employment agreements, including the severance benefits, with our NEOs and other key employees after seeking advice from outside consultants regarding severance arrangements that were adopted by other technology companies. The Compensation Committee believes that the change of control and severance packages are competitive with compensation offered by companies similar to ours.

The employment agreements provide for severance payments and benefits in the event we terminate the NEO's employment without cause or if the NEO resigns for good reason. We believe companies should provide reasonable severance benefits to employees, recognizing that it may be difficult for them to find comparable employment within a short period of time following termination. In addition, these severance arrangements are intended to attract and retain qualified executives who may have alternative employment opportunities that may appear to them to be less risky absent these arrangements.

The employment agreements also provide for double trigger severance payments and benefits that are enhanced to the extent the NEO is subject to a termination of employment without cause or if the NEO resigns for good reason within 12 months following a change of control of the Company. We recognize that the occurrence of a change of control is a critical and disruptive time for an organization. The success of the corporate transaction is dependent on the continued focus and efforts of the executive team and other key employees even in the face of potential job loss upon its conclusion. We believe that enhanced severance benefits in the event of a change of control for our executive officers and other key employees is critical to ensuring the success of a change of control, and also believe that these benefits are necessary to attract strong managerial talent to an organization of our size and structure.

The severance payments and benefits, and the circumstances under which they are payable under the employment agreements, are described below under the section entitled Employment, Severance and Change of Control Arrangements With Named Executive Officers.

Other Elements of Compensation

Our NEOs participate in our 401(k) plan with no matching contribution, and we pay the premium on behalf of our executive officers, including our NEOs, on our standard life insurance policy that is offered to all employees.

Summary Compensation Table

The following table shows, for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006, the compensation awarded to, earned by or paid to our principal executive officer, principal financial officer and the only other person who served as an executive officer as of December 31, 2006. These three officers are referred to as named executive officers, or NEOs, in this Form 10-K/A.

Director Compensation

Members of our Board of Directors who are not our employees, whom we will refer to as outside directors, are entitled to receive cash compensation, as described below, and historically have been granted stock options for their services to the Board of Directors. All directors with the exception of Mr. Chase are outside directors. In addition, outside directors are eligible for reimbursement for their expenses incurred in connection with attendance at Board of Directors and committee meetings in accordance with Company policy.

Our outside directors in 2006 were paid cash retainers and fees for attending board and committee meetings as follows:

a monthly retainer of $2,000;

a per meeting attendance fee of $1,000 for each Board of Directors or committee meeting attended; and for the chairs of the committees of the Board of Directors, an additional $500 for each committee meeting attended.

In January 2007, the Board of Directors approved cash payments to the Company's outside directors in lieu of stock options that had been historically granted to the outside directors pursuant to our automatic, non-discretionary option grant policy applicable to outside directors for service on the Board of Directors and as the chairman or member of one or more committees of the Board of Directors for the years 2005, 2006 and 2007. Options were not granted in 2005 or 2006, and we do not anticipate granting options in 2007 by the date of the annual stockholder meeting, to our outside directors, due to the Company's inability to grant stock options during the restatement of the Company's financial statements for certain prior periods and the related unavailability of the Company's registration statements. The following aggregate amounts were approved in lieu of option grants that would have been made in 2005, 2006 and 2007: Matthew Miller $28,125; Shlomo Rakib $28,125; Zaki Rakib $28,125; Lewis Solomon $36,875; Howard W. Speaks, Jr. $45,000; and David Woodrow $45,000. The portion of these cash payments attributed to options that would have been granted in 2006 are reflected in the directors' compensation table below under the column Fees Earned or Paid in Cash. These cash payments were calculated based on the Black-Scholes value (and after giving effect to the discount associated with elimination of risk resulting from the exchange of equity awards for cash payment) of the options that would have been granted pursuant to our option grant policy applicable to our outside directors for the years 2005, 2006 and 2007 had we been permitted to grant stock options during the relevant periods.

The Board of Directors also approved effective as of January 27, 2007 a quarterly advance cash retainer policy applicable to outside directors that will replace our cash compensation policy in effect in 2006. Pursuant to the new cash compensation policy, our outside directors will receive the following cash compensation for their prospective service as a member of Board of Directors and as the chairman or member of one or more committees of the Board of Directors:

a quarterly retainer for services as a member of the Board of Directors of $6,000;

a quarterly retainer for services as the chair of the Audit Committee of $2,500;

a quarterly retainer for services as the chairs of the Compensation Committee and Legal Committee of $2,000;

a quarterly retainer for services as the chairs of the Nominating and Governance Committee and the Strategic Committee of $1,250;

a quarterly retainer for services as members of the Audit Committee, Compensation Committee and Legal Committee of $1,250;

a per meeting attendance fee of $1,000 for each Board of Directors or committee meeting attended; and for the chairs of the committees of the Board of Directors, an additional $500 for each committee meeting attended.

Speaks, Jr. $20,000; and David Woodrow $20,000.

(2) Alek Krstajic resigned from our Board of Directors effective June 19, 2006.

(3) Mark Slaven resigned from our Board of Directors effective August 2, 2006.

(4) The amount reflected in this column represents the compensation expense recognized for financial statement purposes for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006 associated with stock options granted in years prior to 2006, measured in accordance with SFAS 123(R), but excluding any estimate of future forfeitures and reflecting the effect of any actual forfeitures. These compensation costs reflect options granted prior to the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006. The assumptions used to calculate the value of options are set forth under Note 9, Stockholders Equity, of the Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006, filed with the Commission on April 2, 2007. No stock options were granted to our outside directors during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006.

(5) At December 31, 2006, Alek Krstajic held options to purchase 261,829 shares of our common stock.

(6) At December 31, 2006, Matthew Miller held options to purchase 70,417 shares of our common stock.

(7) At December 31, 2006, Mark Slaven held options to purchase 81,108 shares of our common stock.

(8) At December 31, 2006, Lewis Solomon held options to purchase 304,000 shares of our common stock.

(9) At December 31, 2006, Howard W. Speaks, Jr. held options to purchase 80,583 shares of our common stock.

(10) At December 31, 2006, David Woodrow held options to purchase 140,527 shares of our common stock.

(11) This amount reflects the payment by us of the costs and fees associated with the attendance by Mr. Solomon of conferences and seminars, and expenses related to periodicals subscribed to by Mr. Solomon.

Employment, Severance and Change of Control Arrangements With Named Executive Officers

Jerry D. Chase and Mark A. Richman

On July 22, 2005, Mr. Chase and Mr. Richman entered into employment agreements with the Company, which superseded their previous agreements governing their employment and severance arrangements with the Company, providing for, in the case of Mr. Chase, his employment as the Chief Executive Officer of the Company, and in the case of Mr. Richman, his employment as Chief Financial Officer and Senior Vice President, Finance and Administration of the Company. Pursuant to their respective agreements, Mr. Chase and Mr. Richman receive an annual salary of $400,000 and $300,000, respectively. The executive officers also are eligible to receive an annual bonus in an amount of up to seventy-five percent of their respective base salaries to the extent bonus arrangements are established for the executive officers, the payment of which is based on the achievement of specified goals to be defined by the Board of Directors or the Compensation Committee.

In the event the Company terminates an executive officer's employment for any reason other than for cause, permanent disability (as these terms are defined in their agreement) or the executive officer's death, or if the executive resigns his employment within 30 days following the occurrence of specified events detailed in the executive's agreement, including, a material reduction in the executive's title, authority or responsibility, a material reduction in the executive's base salary or a relocation of the executive's work place beyond a specified distance, the executive would be entitled to the following severance benefits:

lump sum cash payment equal to 12 months of the executive's base salary; a lump sum cash payment equal to the greater of (1) the executive's annual performance bonus for the most recent completed calendar year or (2) the executive's target performance bonus in effect for the year of the termination; and payment for the cost of COBRA continuation premiums for the medical, dental and vision care benefits for the executive officer and his dependents for a period of up to 12 months.

In the event the executive's employment is terminated under the circumstances described in the preceding paragraph within twelve months following a change in control (as this term is defined in his agreement) of the Company, the executive officer would be entitled to the following severance benefits:

a lump sum cash payment equal to, in the case of Mr. Chase, 2.5 times, and in the case of Mr. Richman, 2 times, the sum of (1) the executive officer's base salary and (2) an amount that is equal to the greater of (a) the executive's annual performance bonus for the most recent completed calendar year or (b) the executive's target performance bonus in effect for the year of the termination;

payment for the cost of COBRA continuation premiums for the medical, dental and vision care benefits for the executive officer and his dependents for a period of up to 30 months in the case of Mr. Chase, and 24 months in the case of Mr. Richman; and full vesting of all of the executive officer's unvested stock options.

To the extent any payments made to the executive officer are subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code (pursuant to Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code), then the executive will receive a gross-up payment for the amount exceeding the first $200,000 in excise taxes (and all other taxes resulting from the excise tax and the gross-up payment) imposed on the executive officer.

Any severance benefits provided to the executive in connection with an employment termination will be offset and reduced by the value of any severance benefits that the executive receives pursuant to a federal or state statute. The payment of the severance benefits is subject to, among other requirements, the executive's execution and delivery of an effective general release against the Company.

As previously disclosed in our Form 8-K filed on April 23, 2007, our board of directors approved amendments to the employment agreements of certain employees, including Messrs. Chase and Richman, on April 21, 2007. These amendments will revise the formulation applied to determine the bonus amount that will be used for calculating the severance payable under such employment agreements. The revised formulations in the amendments to the employment agreements are contingent upon the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of April 21, 2007, with Motorola, Inc., a Delaware corporation, and Motorola GTG Subsidiary VI Corporation, a Delaware corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Motorola.

Matthew J. Aden

On July 27, 2005, Mr. Aden entered into an employment agreement with the Company providing for his employment as Senior Vice President, Global Sales and Customer Support of the Company. Pursuant to the agreement, Mr. Aden receives an annual salary of $325,000. Mr. Aden is also eligible to participate in the Company's executive sales commission plan with a target incentive payout equal to 100% of his base salary, the payment of which will be based on the achievement of sales goals to be defined by the Chief Executive Officer and approved by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors. In the event the Company terminates Mr. Aden's employment for any reason other than for cause or permanent disability (as these terms are defined in his agreement) or his death, or if Mr. Aden resigns from his employment within 30 days following the occurrence of specified events detailed in his agreement, including a material reduction in his title, authority or responsibility, a material reduction in his base salary or a relocation of his work place beyond a specified distance, Mr. Aden would be entitled to the following severance benefits:

Table of Contents

a lump sum cash payment equal to 12 months of his base salary and payment for the cost of COBRA continuation premiums for the medical, dental and vision care benefits for Mr. Aden and his dependents for a period of up to 12 months.

In the event Mr. Aden's employment with the Company is terminated under the circumstances described in the preceding paragraph within twelve months of a change in control (as this term is defined in his agreement) of the Company, Mr. Aden would be entitled to the following severance benefits:

a lump sum cash payment equal to 2 times his base salary; a lump sum cash payment equal to 2 times the greater of (1) Mr. Aden's sales commission payments for the most recent completed calendar year or (2) Mr. Aden's target sales commission payment in effect for the year of the termination;

payment for the cost of COBRA continuation premiums for the medical, dental and vision care benefits for Mr. Aden and his dependents for a period of up to 24 months; and full vesting of all of his unvested stock options.

Any severance benefits paid to Mr. Aden will be offset and reduced by the value of any severance benefits that Mr. Aden may be entitled to receive pursuant to federal or state statute. The payment of the severance benefits is subject to, among other requirements, Mr. Aden's execution and delivery of an effective general release against the Company.

As previously disclosed in our Form 8-K filed on April 23, 2007, our board of directors approved amendments to the employment agreements of certain employees, including Mr. Aden, on April 21, 2007. These amendments will revise the formulation applied to determine the bonus amount that will be used for calculating the severance payable under such employment agreements. The revised formulations in the amendments to the employment agreements are contingent upon the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of April 21, 2007, with Motorola, Inc., a Delaware corporation, and Motorola GTG Subsidiary VI Corporation, a Delaware corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Motorola.

Severance Payments and Benefits Upon Involuntary Termination

The following table reflects the potential payments and benefits to which the NEOs would be entitled under their employment agreements in the event of an involuntary termination (i.e., termination other than for cause or resignation with good reason). The amounts presented in the table assume a termination date of March 13, 2007 and that all eligibility requirements contemplated by the NEO's respective employment agreements were met.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

During the year ended December 31, 2006, the Compensation Committee consisted of Messrs. Solomon and Speaks and Dr. Miller, and Mr. Solomon served as Chair of the Compensation Committee. Messrs. Solomon and Speaks and Dr. Miller are not, and have never been, officers or employees of the Company. No executive officer of the Company served on the board of directors or compensation committee of any other entity that has one or more executive officers serving as a member of the Company's Board of Directors or Compensation Committee. Each of the Company's directors holds securities of the Company.

Compensation Committee Report

The material in this report is not soliciting material, is not deemed filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, and is not to be incorporated by reference into any filing of the Company under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or Exchange Act, whether made before or after the date hereof and irrespective of any general incorporation language contained in such.

This report, filed in accordance with Item 407(e)(5) of Regulation S-K, should be read in conjunction with the other information relating to executive compensation which is contained elsewhere in this Form 10-K/A and is not repeated here.

In this context, the Compensation Committee hereby reports as follows:

1. The Compensation Committee has reviewed the Compensation Discussion and Analysis section contained herein with management.
2. Based on the review referred to in paragraph (1) above, the Compensation Committee recommended to our Board of Directors, and our Board of Directors has approved, that the Compensation Discussion and Analysis be included in this Form 10-K/A for filing with the Commission.

Item 12. Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management and Related Stockholder Matters.

The following table sets forth certain information regarding the ownership of the Company's common stock as of April 13, 2007 by: (i) each director; (ii) each NEO; (iii) all NEOs and directors of the Company as a group; and (iv) all persons known by the Company to be beneficial owners of more than five percent of its common stock. All shares of the Company's common stock subject to options currently exercisable or exercisable within 60 days of April 13, 2007, are deemed to be outstanding for the purpose of computing the percentage of ownership of the person holding such options, but are not deemed to be outstanding for computing the percentage of ownership of any other person. This table is based upon information supplied by officers, directors and principal stockholders and Schedules 13D and 13G filed with the Commission. Unless otherwise indicated in the footnotes to this table and subject to community property laws where applicable, the Company believes that each of the stockholders named in this table has sole voting and investment power with respect to the shares indicated as beneficially owned. Applicable percentages are based on 77,637,177 shares outstanding on April 13, 2007, adjusted as required by rules promulgated by the Commission. Unless otherwise indicated in the table, the address of each party listed in the table is 2450 Walsh Avenue, Santa Clara, California 95051.

Total	12,169,709	$ 4.78	9,248,278

- (1) Includes options to purchase common stock outstanding under the Terayon Communication Systems, Inc. 1995 Stock Option Plan, as amended (1995 Plan), the Terayon Communication Systems, Inc. 1997 Equity Incentive Plan, as amended (1997 Plan), and the Terayon Communication Systems, Inc. 1998 Non-Employee Directors Stock Option Plan, as amended (1998 Plan). Does not include 600,371 shares of our common stock that were available for issuance under the Terayon Communication Systems, Inc. 1998 Employee Stock Purchase Plan, as amended, which was also approved by our stockholders, including the Terayon Communication Systems, Inc. 1998 Employee Stock Purchase Plan Offering for Foreign Employees. The 1997 Plan was amended on June 13, 2000 to, among other things, provide for an increase in the number of shares of our common stock on each January 1 beginning January 1, 2001 through January 1, 2007, by the lesser of 5% of our common stock outstanding on such January 1 or 3,000,000 shares. In May 2003, the 1997 Plan was amended to reduce the number of authorized shares in the 1997 Plan by 6,237,826 shares. In May 2005, the 1997 Plan was amended to reduce the number of authorized shares in the 1997 Plan by 4,000,000 shares. The 1997 Plan expired on March 25, 2007, and no shares are available for grant under this plan.

- (2) Includes options to purchase common stock outstanding under the Terayon Communication Systems, Inc. 1999 Non-Officer Equity Incentive Plan, as amended (1999 Plan), Mainsail Equity Incentive Plan (Mainsail Plan), TrueChat Equity Incentive Plan (TrueChat Plan), and options issued outside of any equity incentive plan. The Mainsail Plan and the TrueChat Plan were terminated by the Board of Directors on March 7, 2007. The 1999 Plan provides for nonqualified stock options to be issued to non-officer employees and consultants of the Company. Prices for nonqualified stock options may not be less than 85% of the fair market value of the common stock at the date of the grant. Options generally vest and become exercisable over a period not to exceed five years from the date of grant. Unexercised options expire ten years after date of grant. The 1999 Plan also provides for the sale of restricted shares of common stock to employees, directors and consultants, and the Company has provided such awards in prior years and may provide such awards in the future.

Item 13. Certain Relationships and Related Transactions, and Director Independence.

Since December 31, 2005, there has not been, nor is there any proposed transaction where the Company was or will be a party in which the amount involved exceeded or will exceed $120,000 and in which any director, executive officer, holder of more than 5% of any class of our voting securities, or any member of the immediate family of any of the foregoing persons had or will have a direct or indirect material interest, other than the compensation, employment and other agreements and transactions which are described in Item 11. Executive Compensation.

The Company has entered into indemnity agreements with all directors and executive officers of the Company. The indemnity agreement provides, among other things, that the Company will indemnify such officer or director, under the circumstances and to the extent provided for therein, for expenses, damages, judgments, fines and settlements he may be required to pay in actions or proceedings which he or she is or may be made a party by reason of his position as a director, officer or other agent of the Company, and otherwise to the fullest extent permitted under Delaware law and the Company's Bylaws.

Procedures for Approval of Related Person Transactions

As provided by the Company's written Audit Committee Charter, the Audit Committee must review all related party transactions on an ongoing basis, and approve any related party transaction, unless the transaction is approved by another independent committee of the Board of Directors. The Company's written Code of Business Conduct requires that directors, officers and employees make appropriate disclosure of potential conflicts of interest situations to the Board of Directors, in the case of directors and officers, and the compliance officer, in the case of employees.

Director Independence

Among the current members of the Board of Directors, the Board of Directors has determined that Messrs. Solomon, Speaks and Woodrow, and Dr. Miller, are independent as that term is defined in Rule 4200 of the listing standards of the National Association of Securities Dealers. Additionally, Messrs. Krstajic and Slaven served part of the fiscal year and were both independent as the term is defined in Rule 4200 of the listing standards of the National Association of Securities Dealers. In making this determination, the Board of Directors considered transactions and relationships between each director or his immediate family and the Company and its subsidiaries. The purpose of this review was to determine whether any such relationships or transactions were material and, therefore, inconsistent with a determination that the director is independent. As a result of this review, the Board of Directors affirmatively determined, based on its understanding of such transactions and relationships, that Messrs. Solomon, Speaks and Woodrow, and Dr. Miller are independent of the Company and, therefore, a majority of the members of the Board of Directors is independent, under the standards set forth by the National Association of Securities Dealers.

Table of ContentsItem 14. *Principal Account Fees and Services.

On September 21, 2005, the Company appointed Stonefield Josephson, Inc. as its independent registered public accounting firm to replace Ernst & Young, which resigned effective as of that date. The aggregate fees billed by Stonefield Josephson, Inc. for professional services rendered in 2005 and 2006 are summarized in the following table (in thousands):

	2005	2006
Audit Fees(1)	$ 637	$ 4,037
Audit-Related Fees(2)
Tax Fees(3)
All Other Fees

- (1) Audit fees consist of fees for professional services rendered for the audit of the Company's consolidated annual financial statements and review of the interim consolidated financial statements included in quarterly reports and services that are normally provided in connection with statutory and regulatory filings or engagements. In 2005 and 2006, audit fees include fees for professional services rendered for the audits of (i) management's assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting and (ii) the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting.
- (2) Audit-related fees consist of fees billed for professional services that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit or review of the Company's consolidated financial statements but are not reported under Audit Fees. Such fees include, among other things, employee benefit plan audits and certain consultations concerning financial accounting and reporting standards.
- (3) Tax fees consist of fees for professional services rendered for assistance with federal, state and international tax compliance.

In considering the nature of the services provided by Stonefield Josephson, Inc., the Audit Committee determined that such services are compatible with the provision of independent audit services. The Audit Committee discussed these services with Stonefield Josephson, Inc. and Company management to determine that they are permitted under the rules and regulation concerning auditor independence promulgated by the Commission to implement the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, as well as the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

The services performed by Stonefield Josephson, Inc. in 2005 and 2006 were pre-approved in accordance with the requirements of the Audit Committee Charter.

Except as stated above, there were no other fees billed by Stonefield Josephson, Inc. for 2005 and 2006. The Audit Committee considers the provision of these services to be compatible with maintaining the independence of the Company's independent auditors. None of the fees paid to the independent auditors under the categories Audit-Related Fees and Tax Fees described above were approved by the Audit Committee after services were rendered pursuant to the de minimus exception established by the Commission.

Audit Committee Pre-Approval Policies

Before an Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm is engaged by the Company or its subsidiaries to render audit or non-audit services, the Audit Committee shall pre-approve the engagement. Audit Committee pre-approval of audit and non-audit services will not be required if the engagement for the services is entered into pursuant to pre-approval policies and procedures established by the Audit Committee regarding the Company's engagement of the Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm, provided the policies and procedures are detailed as to the particular service, the Audit Committee is informed of each service provided and such policies and procedures do not include delegation of the Audit Committee's responsibilities under the Exchange Act to the Company's management. The Audit Committee may delegate to one or more designated members of the Audit Committee the authority to grant pre-approvals, provided such approvals are presented to the Audit Committee at a subsequent meeting. If the Audit Committee elects to establish pre-approval policies and procedures regarding non-audit services, the Audit Committee must be informed of each non-audit service provided by the Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm.
