Internet Gold's Shares Move up to Nasdaq National Market

Thursday February 3, 10:35 am ET

PETACH TIKVA, Israel, February 3 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Internet Gold (NASDAQ: IGLD - News), a communications company that provides Internet access and related value-added services, international telephony, e-advertising, content and e-Commerce services throughout Israel to both residential and business customers, today announced that its ordinary shares have been approved for listing on the NASDAQ National Market and will begin trading on that market on Friday, February 4, 2005. The shares will retain the symbol "IGLD" on the NASDAQ National Market.

"This is an important milestone for Internet Gold - an achievement we have been working towards for a long time," said Eli Holtzman, Internet Gold's CEO. "During our three years on the Small Cap Market, we have strengthened the Company's financial platform significantly, as evidenced by our consistently growing revenues, profitability and cash flow. We are proud to have delivered net profit in each of the last 13 quarters, even as we expanded into several new market segments and launched new business activities. Our move back to the National Market is a step that we believe will enhance the value of the Company for our shareholders while helping us achieve our goal of becoming one of the leading players in Israeli communications."

About Internet Gold

Internet Gold is a communications company that provides Internet access and related value-added services, international telephony, e-advertising, content and e-Commerce services throughout Israel to both residential and business customers.

Internet Gold's operations are carried out through four subsidiaries. Its fully-owned subsidiary Internet Gold International specializes in the provision of international Internet and communication services. Its fully-owned subsidiary Gold Mind focuses on the provision of Internet value-added services. Through MSN Israel, its joint-venture with Microsoft Corp., the Company operates two of Israel's leading Internet portals, MSN-Israel and Start.co.il. Through P1000, its e-Commerce subsidiary, the Company has established itself as one of Israel's leading e-Commerce providers.
