Internet Gold's Board Approves Convertible Bonds Buyback Program

Monday January 28, 1:11 pm ET

PETACH TIKVA, Israel, January 28 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Internet Gold Golden Lines Ltd. (NASDAQ: IGLD; TASE: IGLD) today announced that its Board of Directors has authorized the repurchase of up to NIS 112 million (approximately U.S. $30 million) of the Company's convertible bonds. The repurchases will be made from time to time in the open market on the Tel Aviv Stock Exchange. The timing and amount of any shares repurchased will be determined by the Company's management based on its evaluation of market conditions and other factors. The repurchase program may be suspended or discontinued at any time.

Commenting on the announcement, Mr. Eli Holtzman, CEO of Internet Gold, said, "We have initiated this repurchase program in view of the current market price for our convertible bonds and shares, which we believe are far below the Company's true value and its future growth prospects. The business strategy that we have been executing over the past year and a half has tripled our revenues and profits, and positioned us favorably for additional significant growth. We are now shifting into a new growth phase with the goal of expanding our penetration of domestic communications and media markets while capitalizing on high-potential international opportunities. As such, our Board believes that we are on a path that will create significant value for our shareholders, making it prudent for us to invest in our convertible bonds and shares, which we believe are undervalued. In parallel to the convertible bond buyback plan, we will continue to implement our ordinary share buyback plan which we announced on November 29, 2007. The company intends to complete the share buyback program as soon as possible, subject to the volume limitations imposed by Rule 10b-18. To date, we have repurchased approximately 350,000 shares."
