Section 8 Other Events

Item 8.01.

Other Events

On July 2, 2014, Standard & Poor's Ratings Services ("S&P") and Moody's Investors Service, Inc. ("Moody's") assigned first-time ratings to the Company in connection with the Company's pending $175 million secured term loan financing transaction, which the Company is currently in the process of negotiating.

S&P assigned its B- corporate credit rating, with a stable outlook, and a B issue-level rating, with a 2 recovery rating, to the proposed term loan. Moody's assigned a B2 corporate family rating, a B2-PD probability of default rating, and a B2 rating on the proposed term loan. Moody's also assigned a speculative grade liquidity (SGL) rating of SGL-3, along with a stable outlook.

The proceeds of the Company's term loan financing transaction are expected to be primarily used to repay the Company's existing $150 million in outstanding debt and pay estimated breakage fees and other transaction expenses, with the remainder being used by the Company for general corporate purposes. The Company is also in the process of negotiating a new secured $50 million revolving credit facility, which would replace the Company's currently unsecured $80 million revolving credit facility. The Company believes that the new $50 million revolving credit facility will be sufficient to meet its liquidity needs during 2014 and for the foreseeable future.

The secured term loan and secured revolving credit financing transactions described above are still being negotiated by the Company and its currently existing and prospective lenders, and there can be no assurance as to the closing, terms, or timing of those transactions.

The Company assumes no obligation to update or supplement forward-looking statements that become untrue because of subsequent events.
