Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On May 10, 2018, La Jolla Pharmaceutical Company (“La Jolla”), through La Jolla Pharma, LLC, a newly formed, wholly-owned subsidiary (the “Subsidiary”), entered into a $125 million royalty financing transaction (the “Royalty Financing”) with HealthCare Royalty Partners III, L.P., HCRP Overflow Fund, L.P. and HCR Molag Fund, L.P. (collectively, “HCR”). Pursuant to the Royalty Financing, La Jolla contributed to the Subsidiary the following assets and rights related to GIAPREZA™: (i) La Jolla’s Amended and Restated Patent License Agreement, dated March 1, 2016, with George Washington University; (ii) La Jolla’s issued patents and pending patent applications relating to GIAPREZA; and (iii) the U.S. Food and Drug Administration New Drug Application for GIAPREZA. Over the 12-month period from the date of the Royalty Financing, La Jolla will also use commercially reasonable efforts to contribute to the Subsidiary certain additional specified assets and rights necessary for the commercialization of GIAPREZA. The GIAPREZA-related assets and rights contributed, and to be contributed, to the Subsidiary are referred to herein as the “Contributed Assets.”

Simultaneously with the contribution and assignment of the Contributed Assets, the Subsidiary entered into a Revenue Interest Agreement, dated May 10, 2018, with HCR (the “Agreement”), pursuant to which HCR paid $125 million (the “Investment Amount”) to the Subsidiary in consideration for the right to receive royalties on worldwide net sales of GIAPREZA (the “Revenue Interest”). In exchange for the Contributed Assets, the Subsidiary paid La Jolla the $125 million received from HCR. Payments with respect of the Revenue Interest start annually at a maximum royalty rate, with potential step-downs based on the achievement of annual net sales thresholds. Through December 31, 2021, the Revenue Interest royalty rate will be a maximum of 10% of net sales of GIAPREZA, with lower royalty tiers of 6.75% and 0.25%, depending on annual net sales of GIAPREZA. Starting January 1, 2022, each royalty tier will increase by 4% if the Subsidiary has not paid an aggregate amount of royalties to HCR equal to at least 50% of the Investment Amount. Starting January 1, 2024, each royalty tier will increase by an additional 4% if the Subsidiary has not paid an aggregate amount of royalties to HCR equal to or greater than the Investment Amount. The Agreement is subject to maximum aggregate royalty payments to HCR of $225 million (the “Maximum Amount”), which represents 180% of the Investment Amount. Upon paying HCR an aggregate amount of royalties equal to the Maximum Amount, the payment obligations under the Agreement expire. The royalty payment obligations under the Agreement are limited to the Subsidiary, and HCR has no recourse under the Agreement against La Jolla or any assets other than the Contributed Assets and La Jolla’s equity interest in the Subsidiary.

La Jolla will continue to promote GIAPREZA in the United States, although GIAPREZA sales will occur through the Subsidiary. Cash balances generated from the sale of GIAPREZA, net of applicable royalty payments and payments relating to the manufacturing and supply of GIAPREZA, will be returned to La Jolla through recurring dividends.

In connection with entering into the Agreement, the Subsidiary granted HCR a first-priority blanket lien on its assets, which include the Contributed Assets, as well as future cash receipts relating to GIAPREZA sales. Additionally, La Jolla granted HCR a lien on its equity interests of the Subsidiary. In the event of certain material breaches of the Agreement, HCR would have the right to terminate the Agreement and demand payment of an amount equal to either the Investment Amount, minus aggregate royalties paid to HCR, or the Maximum Amount, minus aggregate royalties paid to HCR. In the event that the Subsidiary fails to timely pay such amounts if and when due, then HCR would have the right to foreclose on the pledged collateral.

The Agreement contains other customary terms and conditions, including representations and warranties, as well as indemnification obligations in favor of HCR. The above description of the Agreement is a summary of the material terms and does not purport to be complete; the summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1.

Item 2.01 Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

The information in Item 1.01 above relating to the sale of the Revenue Interest to HCR is incorporated by reference into this Item 2.01.
