Item 2. Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

On October 31, 2003, we acquired all of the outstanding capital stock of Royal Robbins, Inc., a privately held California-based casual and outdoor apparel brand. The stock was owned by three family trusts controlled by Royal Robbins' Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Dan J. Costa, and his immediate family. The acquisition marks our entry into the men's and women's apparel category, and elevates us into a full-scale men's and women's footwear and apparel company with an emphasis on classic, comfortable footwear and outerwear brands.

The purchase price for the stock was $6.5 million, payable in cash and 71,889 shares of our common stock, plus earnout cash payments of 25% of Royal Robbins' gross profit over its next two fiscal years ending May 31, 2004 and 2005, respectively, so long as minimum thresholds are achieved by the acquired business for each of these fiscal years. In connection with the transaction, we entered into a new credit facility of $24.75 million with Manufacturers and Traders Trust Company. This includes the increase in the capacity of our existing line of credit from $11 million to $18 million, the refinancing of $5.25 million in existing term loans and a new term loan of $1.5 million. We paid the cash portion of the purchase price with borrowings under our line of credit and the new term loan. The purchase price was determined through arms-length negotiations between the parties.

On October 31, 2003, the Registrant issued a press release announcing the completion of the acquisition of Royal Robbins.
