PROVIDENT FINANCIAL HOLDINGS, INC.
ANNOUNCES 5% STOCK REPURCHASE

Riverside, California, April 2, 2002 - Provident Financial Holdings, Inc. (NASDAQ/PROV), the holding company for Provident Savings Bank, FSB, announced today that its Board of Directors authorized the repurchase of up to 5 percent of its common stock, or approximately 185,000 shares, over a one year period. Shares will be repurchased from time to time in the open market depending on market conditions and the capital requirements of the Company. This repurchase represents the seventh buyback through which the Company has previously retired approximately 1.43 million shares or approximately 28% of the shares issued in the initial public offering in 1996.

Forward-looking Statement

Certain matters in this Press Release constitute forward looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward looking statements relate to, among others, expectations of the business environment in which the Company operates, projections of future performance, perceived opportunities in the market, potential future credit experience, and statements regarding the Company's mission and vision. These forward looking statements are based upon current management expectations, and may, therefore, involve risks and uncertainties. The Company's actual results, performance, or achievements may differ materially from those suggested, expressed, or implied by forward looking statements due to a wide range of factors including, but not limited to, the general business environment, interest rates, the California real estate market, competitive conditions between banks and non-bank financial services providers, regulatory changes, and other risks detailed in the Company's reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2001. Forward looking statements are effective only as of the date that they are made and Provident Financial assumes no obligation to update this information.
