TRANSFER OF ASSETS; ASSUMPTION OF LIABILITIES

2.1 Transfer of Assets. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, on the Closing Date, Venture will transfer, convey, assign and deliver to Buyer all of its right, title and interest in and to the Assets, subject to all liens and encumbrances of record, except for those monetary liens and encumbrances set forth on Schedule 2.1.

2.2 Assumption of Liabilities. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, from and after the Closing Date, Buyer will assume all of Venture's obligations with respect to the Liabilities including, without limitation, any reporting or filing obligations imposed by the Internal Revenue Service or any other regulatory authority. Buyer will assume and will pay, perform and discharge the Deposit Liabilities to customers of Venture as stated in Venture's applicable account records, rules and regulations attributed on the records of Venture to the applicable Banking Office. It is understood that Buyer may elect to make reasonable adjustments in interest payment periods, payment options and similar adjustments required to conform the accounts to the data processing capabilities of Buyer. Buyer will make such adjustment in accordance with its understanding of its legal rights and obligations and neither Venture nor its counsel express any opinion with respect to such legal rights or obligations nor does Venture consent with respect to such changes. As between Buyer and Venture, any such adjustments will have no effect on Buyer's agreement to pay the Deposit Liabilities as herein stated, and Venture will have no liability to any customer as a result of any such adjustments.

2.3 Value of the Assets and Amount of Deposit Liabilities. Except as otherwise provided in the Agreement or in any schedule or exhibit hereto, the value of the Assets shall be allocated to the real property, furniture, fixtures, equipment and personal property (excluding any personal property with the name "Venture Bank" or a derivative thereof which Venture is to remove pursuant to Section 5.11(d) (herein "signage"), set forth in Schedule 1.16 and Schedule 5.19, the cash on hand at each Banking Office, and a 9% premium for the Deposit Liabilities, with the exception of the GH Public Deposit Authority money market, savings and NOW accounts which will be transferred at no premium, all as set forth in the Schedule 2.3 trial settlement statement prepared for the transaction as if the Closing Date had occurred on May 31, 2004. At the Closing, the value of the Assets, the deposit premium and the amount of Deposit Liabilities assumed shall be adjusted up or down by an amount equal to:

(a) the amount by which the cash on hand at each Banking Office at the Closing Date differs from the cash on hand at each Banking Office as of May 31, 2004;

(b) the amount by which the net book value of personal property as set forth in Schedule 5.19 differs from the net book value of personal property (excluding the signage) at each Banking Office as of May 31, 2004;

(c) 9% deposit premium percentage times the amount by which the Average Deposit Liabilities differs from the Average Deposit Liabilities as of May 31, 2004; and

(d) the amount by which the Deposit Liabilities differ from the amount as of May 31, 2004.

At the Closing, the same calculations shall be made subject to adjustments in amounts reflecting transactions made between May 31, 2004, and the Closing Date and for any other adjustments made in the ordinary course of business or in accordance with this Agreement. No deposit premium will be payable on the amount of jumbo deposits that exceed the amount of such deposits at May 31, 2004.

2.4 Books and Records. From and after the Closing, Buyer will have the right to possession of any and all files, books of account and records at the Banking Offices directly relating to the Banking Offices, the Assets or the Liabilities affecting daily operations which are ordinarily maintained at the Banking Offices. All books and records relating to the Banking Offices, the Assets or the Liabilities held by either party will be open for inspection for reasonable purposes by the other party and its authorized agents, representatives, and regulators during regular business hours after the Closing Date, and the party with the right of inspection may, at its own expense, make copies of excerpts from such files, books of account and records as it deems desirable. All books and records relating to the Banking Offices, the Assets or the Liabilities will be maintained for a period at least equal to the longer of the period required by law or the normal retention period under Venture's or Buyer's (as the case may be) records management program, unless the parties agree upon a shorter period.

2.5 IRA Accounts.

(a) Included in the Deposit Liabilities are deposits of customers of the Banking Offices relating to IRA accounts (which the parties acknowledge includes SEP IRA accounts, SIMPLE IRA accounts and any other type of retirement account reflected in the deposit balances of the Banking Offices) pursuant to which Venture is currently acting as custodian.

(b) Within such period prior to the Closing Date as is required by applicable law or regulation, Venture will, at its sole cost and expense, notify the depositors who maintain such IRA accounts of Venture's intent to resign as custodian as of Closing and to appoint Buyer as successor custodian and the discharge and release of Venture from all liabilities as custodian from and after the effective time of its resignation. Buyer will accept such appointment as successor custodian, unless the customer objects in writing to such appointment and to Buyer's master IRA agreement. It is agreed that Venture is required to notify each such depositor only once, which notification will be by means of a letter approved by Buyer and accompanied by all appropriate forms and documents necessary to effect such replacement and release and to adopt Buyer's master agreement. The IRA account of any customer not accepting the appointment of Buyer and the Buyer's master plan will not be included in the Deposit Liabilities.

(c) Buyer agrees that, with respect to the IRA accounts transferred to Buyer pursuant to Section 2.5(b) above, Buyer will make no payment to any such customer to satisfy the minimum distribution requirements beginning the first day of April of the year following the year in which the customer reaches age 70.5 until such customer provides Buyer with a written payment instruction in a form satisfactory to Buyer.

ARTICLE III
CONSIDERATION

3.1 Consideration. In consideration of the transactions set forth herein, Venture will pay to Buyer at Closing an amount (the "Payment Amount") equal to the Deposit Liabilities less (i) the deposit premium amount, (ii) the value of the Assets as determined by Section 2.3, (iii) cash on hand, (iv) escrow closing costs as set forth in Section 5.18 and (v) transferred employee training expenses for the overtime caused by employee training by Buyer or if Buyer requires the employee to be absent from the branch for training the cost of the substitute employee, as set forth in Section 12.10. The Payment Amount shall be subject to adjustments as provided in Article XII or elsewhere in this Agreement. The parties agree that at Closing at least one representative of each party will jointly count the cash on hand at each Banking Office for the purpose of determining the amount of post-Closing settlements set forth in Article XII, if any.

3.2 Proration. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement it is acknowledged that Venture will operate for its own account the Banking Offices through the Closing Date and that Buyer will operate for its own account the Banking Offices after the Closing Date. Accordingly, except as otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement, items of income and expense allocable to the Assets and Liabilities will be prorated as of the Closing

Date, whether or not such adjustment would normally be made as of such time. For purposes of this Agreement, items of proration and other adjustments shall include, but not be limited to; (i) rental payments and security deposits on the Leased Real Property; (ii) personal and real property taxes and assessments; (iii) FDIC deposit insurance assessments;

(iv) wages, salaries and employee benefits and expenses; (v) other prepaid expenses and items and accrued but unpaid liabilities, as of the close of business on the Closing Date; and (vi) safe deposit rental payments previously received by Venture.

3.3 Taxes and Assessments. All excise and real estate transfer taxes which are payable or arise as a result of this Agreement will be paid by Venture. All assessments, including local improvement district assessments that are levied against the Real Property or the Leased Real Property will be prorated.

Real estate taxes assessed against the Real Property or the Leased Real Property will be apportioned at the Closing on the basis of the tax year during which the Closing occurs in such manner that Venture will pay or, at its option, allow Buyer as a credit against the consideration to be paid to Venture hereunder that portion thereof which corresponds to the portion of such tax year which has expired on the Closing Date, and Buyer will pay or assume the balance. Water charges, sewer use charges, garbage and all other utility and similar charges, if any, will be prorated and will be apportioned as of the Closing Date as estimated on the basis of the best information available.

ARTICLE IV CONDITIONS PRECEDENT

4.1 Conditions Precedent to the Obligations of Both Parties. The obligations of each of the parties to this Agreement are subject to fulfillment at or prior to the Closing Date of each of the following conditions, but compliance with or occurrence of any one or more of such conditions precedent (other than the conditions set forth in Section 4.1 (a)) may be waived by the parties in writing.

(a) Regulatory Approvals. All approvals and consents of any relevant state and federal regulatory agencies required to consummate the transaction contemplated hereby will have been obtained and all necessary conditions, including all legally required waiting, protest or appeal periods, of or relating to such approvals will have expired or been fully satisfied; provided, however, that either party may deem this condition unfulfilled if any such approval is subject to a qualification or condition which, in the reasonable judgment of such party after consultation with the other party, (i) prohibits any of the parties or their affiliates from engaging in any activity which they currently conduct and which is otherwise permitted to it under applicable law, or (ii) has a material and adverse impact on the value of the transaction contemplated by this Agreement. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, in the event a regulatory agency fails to approve the transaction contemplated by this Agreement or imposes a condition under (i) or (ii) above, the parties agree to cooperate and use best efforts to meet and work with such regulatory agency to resolve the problem and to obtain the appropriate approvals.

(b) Absence of Litigation. No action or proceeding instituted by any governmental agency to prevent the consummation of the transactions covered and contemplated by this Agreement will be pending at the time of the Closing, and no order by any governmental authority prohibiting or preventing the Closing will be in effect.

(c) Leases for Excluded Real Property. The parties shall have executed and delivered the leases, if any, required under Section 5.21.

4.2 Condition Precedent to the Obligations of Buyer. The obligations of Buyer under this Agreement are further subject to the satisfaction of each of the further conditions precedent, as set forth in this Section 4.2, any one or more of which may be expressly waived by Buyer in writing.

(a) Each of the obligations of Venture required to be performed by it at or prior to the Closing pursuant to the terms of this Agreement will have been duly performed and complied with in all material respects (without reference to any materiality standard therein) and the representations and warranties of Venture contained in this Agreement will be true and correct (without reference to any materiality standard therein) as of the date of this Agreement and as of the Closing Date as though made at and as of the Closing Date except as to any representation or warranty that specifically relates to an earlier date and except where the failure of such representations and warranties to be true and correct would not have and would not be reasonably expected to have in the aggregate a Material Adverse Effect on the Banking Offices.

(b) Buyer will have received a certificate from Venture substantially in the form described in Section 6.2(e).

(c) On or prior to Closing, Venture will have obtained and delivered all material consents reasonably necessary to authorize the transfer and assignment to Buyer of, or the substitution of Buyer for Venture under, all material Assumed Contracts (without any material alterations required by any third party and preserving for Buyer all material rights and privileges thereunder).

(d) On or prior to Closing, Venture will have obtained and delivered a title insurance policy with owner's extended coverage, covering all the Real Property showing no liens, encumbrances or charges, except those not objected to by Buyer, and except for current taxes not delinquent, printed exceptions generally contained in any owner's extended coverage policy of title insurance, rights of government entities to make cuts and fills in connection with construction and/or maintenance of any public roadways adjoining the Real Property and easements and reservations of record which do not in the aggregate have a Material Adverse Effect on the Banking Offices. Venture will have a preliminary title report delivered to Buyer as soon as reasonably practical. Venture will incur the costs associated with a standard title insurance policy. Additional costs associated with an extended policy will be the responsibility of Buyer.

(e) Since the date hereof and subject to the provisions of Section 5.15, there will not have been any changes in the Assets or Liabilities or in the condition (financial or otherwise), of properties, assets, liabilities, business or operations of the Banking Offices which in the aggregate have or would be reasonably expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on the Banking Offices.

(f) Buyer has not delivered a notice of termination to Venture as provided in Section 5.15.

(g) On or prior to Closing, Venture will have terminated all leases, subleases, licenses or similar agreements permitting any affiliate of Venture to lease, use or occupy space in any of the Banking Offices or in the Real Property.

(h) On or prior to Closing, Venture will have delivered to Buyer any landlord consent necessary for Buyer to occupy and use any of the Banking Offices located on real property not owned by Venture.

(i) In addition to the obligations required to be performed by Venture prior to Closing, if the average of the total Deposit Liabilities for the 30 calendar day period ending on the Closing Date is 15.0% less than the average of the total Deposit Liabilities for the 30 calendar day period ending May 31, 2004, less accounts identified by buyer that are subsequently transferred to another Venture office as identified on Schedule 4.2, then Buyer may, in its sole discretion, upon written notice to Venture, cancel this Agreement without any liability therefore.

4.3 Conditions Precedent to the Obligations of Venture. The obligations of Venture under this Agreement are further subject to the satisfaction of each of the further conditions precedent set forth in this Section 4.3, any one or more of which maybe expressly waived by Venture in writing.

(a) Each of the obligations of Buyer required to be performed by it at or prior to the Closing pursuant to the terms of this Agreement will have been duly performed and complied with in all material respects (without reference to any materiality standard therein) and the representations and warranties of Buyer contained in this Agreement will be true and correct in all material respects (without reference to any materiality standard therein) as of the date of this Agreement and as of the Closing Date as though made at and as of the Closing Date except as to any representation or warranty that specifically relates to an earlier date.

(b) Venture will have received a certificate from Buyer substantially in the form described in Section 6.3(a).

(c) Since the date of this Agreement, there will not have been any material adverse changes in the assets or liabilities or in the condition (financial or otherwise) of properties, assets, liabilities, business or operations of Buyer, where such change would prevent or materially impair Buyer from fulfilling the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

9

COVENANTS AND AGREEMENTS OF THE PARTIES

5.1 Review; Confidentiality. To the extent that it is legally permitted to do so and subject to Section 5.2, Venture will permit Buyer and its authorized representatives, accountants, independent appraisers and counsel (collectively, "Representatives") to have access during regular business hours, upon prior reasonable notice and in such manner as will not interfere with the conduct of Venture's business, to all of the properties and books and records of or relating to the Banking Offices, the Assets or the Liabilities, and to all other information with respect to the business affairs, financial condition, and assets of the Banking Offices, as Buyer may from time to time reasonably request. Buyer and Venture will provide each other promptly with information as to any significant developments in the performance of this Agreement and will promptly notify the other if either discovers that any of its representations and warranties contained in this Agreement or in any document delivered in connection with this Agreement was not true and correct in all material respects or becomes untrue or incorrect in any material respect. Buyer and its Representatives will treat all information furnished to Buyer by Venture in connection with this Agreement in accordance with the Confidentiality Agreement.

5.2 Right to Inspect. From and after the date of this Agreement, and so long as this Agreement has not been terminated, Buyer shall have the right to enter upon the Real Property or the Leased Real Property and make inspections, studies and surveys thereof, but only in accordance with the following terms and conditions:

(a) Buyer may enter upon the Real Property or the Leased Real Property for the purpose of inspections, studies and surveys, only upon three (3) business days prior notice to Venture, and only in the presence of the manager of the Banking Office or another agent or employee of Venture. At Venture's option, Buyer shall provide Venture with lien waivers from those persons performing such inspections, studies or surveys prior to the commencement of work.

(b) Buyer will not permit the creation of any lien with respect to the Banking Offices in favor of any contractor, subcontractor, materialman, mechanic, surveyor, architect or laborer in the employ or acting at the request or direction of Buyer or any agent of Buyer. Buyer hereby expressly agrees to protect, defend and indemnify Venture against and hold Venture harmless with respect to any claims, liens, encumbrances or causes of action which arise out of or are in anyway related to Buyer's activities at the Real Property or the Leased Real Property, including without limitation Venture's costs, expenses and reasonable attorney's fees incurred in connection with defending against or clearing Venture's title to the Real Property or the Leased Real Property of such claims, liens, encumbrances and causes of action.

(c) Buyer hereby expressly agrees to indemnify Venture against and hold Venture harmless from and against all liability and expense (including reasonable attorneys' fees) in connection with all claims, suits and actions of every name, kind and description brought against Venture, its agents or employees by any person or entity as a result of or on account of injury (including death) or damage to persons, entities and/or property received or sustained, arising out of, in connection with or as a result of acts or omissions of Buyer or its agents or employees in exercising its rights under this Section 5.2, except to the extent caused by Venture's negligence.

(d) Buyer shall be entitled to review all information, leases, contracts, studies, reports, operating information, and other documentation relating to the Real Property or the Leased Real Property. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, Venture shall not be obligated to disclose to Buyer (i) any appraisal of the Real Property or the Leased Real Property or (ii) analyses of, or conclusions drawn by Venture from, any information relating to the Real Property or the Leased Real Property.

5.3 Conduct of Business Pending Closing. From the date of this Agreement through the Closing Date, Venture will conduct its business and affairs at the Banking Offices in the ordinary course and will offer at the Banking Offices the same products and pay interest rates on deposits and charges for non-deposit products and services consistent with past practice, except where mutually agreed on by Venture and Buyer. Buyer and Venture will work together to define and implement the operational procedures necessary to transfer the Banking Offices to Buyer. Within two (2) days after the execution and delivery of this Agreement, Venture and Buyer will each designate an individual to serve as liaison concerning operations matters. From and after the date hereof through the Closing Date, except as may be required by a regulatory authority, Venture will not, without prior written consent of Buyer:

(a) Cause or permit the Banking Offices to engage or participate in any material transaction or incur or sustain any material obligation except in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice;

(b) Cause or permit the Banking Offices to transfer to Venture's other operations any material amount of Assets or Liabilities, except for (i) equipment and supplies, if any, which have a unique function in Venture's business and ordinarily would not be useful to Buyer (such as, for example, computer software and sign inserts which refer to Venture), and (ii) cash and other customary inter-bank transfers made in the ordinary course of business in accordance with Venture's normal banking practices;

(c) Cause or permit the Banking Offices to transfer to Venture's other operations any deposits of the type included in the Deposit Liabilities (except pursuant to an unsolicited customer request where it would be customary banking practice to honor such request);

(d) Transfer, assign, encumber, or otherwise dispose of or enter into any contract, agreement, or understanding to transfer, assign, encumber, or otherwise dispose of the Real Property or any other Assets, except for transactions in the ordinary course of business involving assets other than Real Property or the Leased Real Property;

- (e) Make any material capital investment in any Asset located in a Banking Office;

(f) Enter into or amend any material continuing contract relating to the Banking Offices, the Real Property or the Leased Real Property which would be included among the Liabilities, for the purchase or lease of materials, supplies, equipment or services unless such contract can be terminated on not more than thirty (30) days' notice without cause and without payment of any material amount as a penalty, bonus, premium, or other compensation for termination;

(g) Undertake any actions which (i) are inconsistent with a program to use all reasonable efforts to maintain good relations with Venture's employees employed at the Banking Offices and customers, unless such actions are required or permitted by this Agreement, (ii) increase the personnel at the Banking Offices, or (iii) increase the salaries or benefits of the Transferred Employees, except as consistent with past practice;

(h) File any application with regulatory authorities to relocate any Banking Office;

(i) Terminate the operations of any Banking Office or sell or otherwise transfer any such operations to any third party;

(j) Enter into any leases, subleases, licenses or similar agreements permitting any affiliated or non-affiliated parties to lease, use or occupy space in any Banking Office or on the Real Property;

(k) Transfer employees to or from any Banking Office and Venture's other operations other than temporary assignments of a fill-in nature in the ordinary course of business;

(l) Take any action inconsistent with maintaining the tangible personal property and equipment included among the Assets in good operating condition and repair, except for ordinary and reasonable wear;

(m) Take any action that would cause the termination of or reduction in coverage of any insurance policy currently in effect on or relating to the Banking Offices, the Assets or the Liabilities;

(n) Fail to comply in any material respect with all laws, regulations, ordinances, codes, orders, licenses and permits applicable to the Assets, the Liabilities or the operation of the Banking Offices;

(o) Directly or indirectly solicit or encourage any customer of the Banking Offices to transfer such customer's depository banking business to any affiliate of Venture (e.g., Venture Wealth Management) or to any office of Venture other than the Banking Offices; provided, however that this provision shall not be deemed to prohibit general solicitations not specifically directed or targeted to customers of the Banking Offices. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section 5.3(o), Venture or any affiliate may continue to engage in all customary communications, including distribution of solicitations and promotional materials with any customers of the Banking Offices with whom Venture or any affiliate maintains a banking, lending or other financial relationship pursuant to the terms of this Agreement independently of the Banking Offices, including but not limited to customers who have loans from Venture;

ARTICLE IX
INDEMNIFICATION

9.1 Indemnity Procedures. Promptly upon receipt of notice of any claim, demand, or assessment or the commencement of any suit, action, or proceeding in respect of which indemnity may be sought on account of an indemnity contained in Section 5.8 or 5.9, the party seeking indemnification (the "Indemnitee") will give notice thereof to the party from whom indemnification is sought (the "Indemnitor"), within sufficient time to enable the Indemnitor to respond to such claims or answer or other plea in such action. The omission of such Indemnitee so to notify promptly the Indemnitor of any such claim, demand, assessment, suit, action, or proceeding will not relieve such Indemnitor from any liability which it may have to such Indemnitee in connection therewith on account of the indemnity contained in Section 5.8 or 5.9 unless and only to the extent that the Indemnitor is prejudiced thereby. In the event any claim, demand, or assessments will be asserted or suit, action, or proceeding commenced against an Indemnitee, the Indemnitee will notify the Indemnitor of the commencement thereof, and the Indemnitor will be entitled to participate therein and, to the extent that it may elect to do so, to assume the defense, conduct, or settlement thereof, using counsel approved by the Indemnitee, which approval will not unreasonably be withheld. After notice from the Indemnitor to the Indemnitee of its election so to assume the defense, conduct, or settlement thereof, the Indemnitor will not be liable to the Indemnitee for any legal or other expenses subsequently incurred by the Indemnitee in connection with such defense, conduct, or settlement. The Indemnitee will (i) cooperate with the Indemnitor in connection with any such claim, demand, assessment, suit, action, or proceeding; (ii) make personnel, books, and records relevant thereto available to the Indemnitor; and (iii) grant such authorizations or powers of attorney to the agents, representatives and counsel of the Indemnitor as such Indemnitor may reasonably consider desirable and as such Indemnitee may reasonably consider necessary in connection therewith.

9.2 Liability Thresholds. Notwithstanding anything in this Article to the contrary, no amount will be payable by an Indemnitor pursuant to this Article or Sections 5.8 or 5.9 with respect to breaches of representations and warranties or any covenant in Section 5.3 unless and until the aggregate indemnified losses asserted for such breaches by the Indemnitor equals or exceeds $100,000 (the "Liability Threshold"). Once the Liability Threshold for the Indemnitor is reached, the Indemnitee will be entitled to the benefit of this indemnity for such breaches to the extent of any and all losses above the Liability Threshold.

9.3 Claims Survival Period. Notwithstanding any other provision herein, no claim may be asserted under this Agreement unless the Indemnitee gives the other party notice of such claim before the first anniversary of the Closing; provided, that where notice of such claim has been timely given, such claim will survive beyond such date.

9.4 Exclusive Remedy. If the transaction closes, the rights of indemnification of either party under this Article after Closing will be the exclusive remedy as to any matters addressed in this Agreement, except as otherwise set forth in Article XII and Section 13.11. Prior to the Closing, the rights of the parties set forth in Article X and in Section 13.11 will be the exclusive remedies of the parties as to the matters addressed therein.

9.5 Subrogation. Following indemnification as provided for hereunder, the Indemnitor will be subrogated to all rights of the Indemnitee with respect to all persons relating to the matter for which indemnification has been made.

9.6 Insured Losses. Notwithstanding any other term or provision of this Agreement, the Indemnitor will not be required to indemnify the Indemnitee for a loss to the extent that the Indemnitee receives insurance payments covering such loss; provided, that this provision would not result in the loss of, or a requirement to repay, such insurance by the Indemnatee. In the event that insurance is not paid to the Indemnatee to cover the full amount of the loss, the Indemnitor will remain liable for the difference between the insurance payment as described above and the amount of the loss.

9.7 Final and Binding Arbitration. The parties agree to submit any dispute arising under this Agreement to final, binding, private arbitration in Olympia, Washington. This includes not only disputes about the meaning or performance of the Agreement, but disputes about negotiation, drafting, or execution. The arbitration will be conducted by Judicial Dispute Resolution LLC with the arbitrator appointed and the arbitration conducted in accordance with Judicial Dispute Resolution rules and procedures. The arbitrator will have full authority to determine all issues, including arbitrability, to award any remedy, including permanent injunctive relief, and to determine any request for costs and expenses, and attorney fees in accordance with Section 13.11. The arbitrator's award may be reduced to final judgment in Thurston County Superior Court. The complaining party shall bear the arbitration expenses and may seek their recovery if it prevails.

ARTICLE X TERMINATION

10.1 Termination of Agreement. This Agreement will terminate and be of no further force or effect as between the parties hereto, except as to the liability for any willful breach of any material covenant, agreement, representation, or warranty occurring or arising prior to the date of termination, upon the occurrence of any of the following:

(a) Immediately upon the expiration of thirty (30) days from the date that Venture has given notice to Buyer of a breach or default by Buyer in the performance of any covenant, agreement, representation, warranty, duty, or obligation hereunder, provided, however, that no such termination will be effective if, within such thirty (30) day period, Buyer will have substantially corrected and cured to Venture's reasonable satisfaction the grounds for termination as set forth in such notice of termination or Venture will have waived such default or breach or will have extended the time for such cure;

(b) Immediately upon the expiration of thirty (30) days from the date that Buyer has given notice to Venture of a breach or default by Venture in the performance of any covenant, agreement, representation, warranty, duty, or obligation hereunder, provided, however, that no such termination will be effective if, within such thirty (30) day period, Venture will have substantially corrected and cured to Buyer's reasonable satisfaction the grounds for termination as set forth in such notice of termination or Buyer will have waived such default or breach or will have extended the time for such cure;

(c) By either Buyer or Venture if the Closing has not occurred on or before 120 days from the date of this Agreement;

(d) By Buyer as provided in Section 5.15 or by Buyer, pursuant to written notice by Buyer to Venture, if any of the conditions set forth in Section 4.2 of this Agreement have not been satisfied at or prior to the Closing, or if it has become reasonably and objectively certain that any of such conditions, other than a condition within the control of Buyer, will not be satisfied at or prior to the Closing, such written notice to set forth such conditions which have not been or will not be so satisfied; or.

(e) By Venture if Buyer has not received the approvals required under Section 4.1 (a) on or prior to 100 days from the date of this Agreement or by Venture, pursuant to written notice by Venture to Buyer, if any of the conditions set forth in Section 4.3 of this Agreement have not been satisfied at or prior to the Closing, or if it has become reasonably and objectively certain that any of such conditions, other than a condition within the control of Venture, will not be satisfied at or prior to the Closing, such written notice to set forth such conditions which have not been or will not be so satisfied.

10.2 Immaterial Breach. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, no party hereto will have the right to terminate this Agreement on account of its own breach or because of any immaterial breach by the other party hereto of any covenant, agreement, representation, warranty, duty, or obligation hereunder.

10.3 Waiver of Right to Terminate. Any party may, at its election, waive in writing any of its respective rights to terminate this Agreement under the foregoing provisions of this Article X, and the parties will be deemed to have waived such rights from and after the Closing Date even though actual settlement may have been delayed pursuant to the provisions of Article XII or otherwise.

10.4 Effect of Termination. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, in the event of termination of this Agreement, each party is responsible for its own expenses and neither party will be liable in damages to the other unless termination results from the willful breach or default of this Agreement by one of the parties.

ARTICLE XI EFFECT ON THIRD PARTIES

Except as otherwise provided by law, neither the rights of creditors and depositors of Venture, nor any liability or obligation for payment of money, nor any claim or cause of action against Venture will be in any manner released or impaired by this Agreement or by the transactions contemplated hereunder, and the rights and obligations of all creditors and depositors and of all other persons will remain unimpaired, but Buyer will succeed to all such obligations and liabilities which are actually included among the Liabilities as of the Closing Date and will be liable from then and thereafter to pay, discharge, and perform all such liabilities and obligations of Venture assumed pursuant to this Agreement and in connection with the transactions contemplated hereunder in the same manner as if Buyer had itself incurred the liabilities or obligations, and Buyer will succeed to all of the rights, offsets, and defenses of Venture in connection therewith.

ARTICLE XII SETTLEMENT, ADJUSTMENTS AND TRANSITIONAL MATTERS

12.1 Post-Closing Calculations and Settlements. Within fifteen (15) calendar days following the Closing Date, Buyer and Venture will compute the amount of the Payment Amount according to the provisions of Section 3.1, and if the actual Payment Amount is different from the Estimated Amount calculated as provided in Section 6.1, then Buyer (if the Estimated Amount exceeds the Payment Amount) or Venture (if the Payment Amount exceeds the Estimated Amount) will immediately pay such excess amount in immediately available funds to the other party, together with interest on such excess from the Closing Date to the date of payment at a simple per annum rate, without any compounding, at the effective federal funds rates (based on the average of the closing bid and offered quotations) as published daily by the Wall Street Journal. Any additional payments or adjustments arising out of this Agreement maybe computed and paid, with interest calculated pursuant to this Section 12.1, in subsequent settlements by mutual agreement of the parties.

12.2 Disputes as to Calculations. Buyer and Venture agree to use their best efforts to agree on the calculation of the Payment Amount. In the event that the parties should fail to agree on either calculation, the parties agree to refer the matters in dispute with respect to such calculations to an independent firm of certified public accountants of national standing reasonably acceptable to Buyer and Venture, and Buyer and Venture agree to be bound by the determination of such firm with respect to the disputed matter relating to the calculation of the Payment Amount. Buyer and Venture agree to share equally the fees and charges of such accounting firm for its services in resolving such dispute. If in the resolution of the dispute, it is determined that one party owes an amount to the other party, the paying party will also pay interest on such amount from the date it should have been paid to the date of payment at the same rate as provided in Section 12.1.

12.3 Check Processing and Reimbursements. For a period of 120 days after the Closing Date, Venture and its successors will continue to clear checks or drafts drawn on checking accounts, NOW accounts and money market deposit accounts drawn on accounts transferred to Buyer pursuant to this Agreement, and Buyer will reimburse Venture for the amount of funds paid on such checks or drafts as herein provided. During such 120 day period, Venture or its servicing agent will transmit by facsimile to Buyer by 7:30 p.m. each day a report of all such checks or drafts for such day, and Buyer will pay Venture the amount of such checks and drafts by the close of the following business day by means of a wire transfer from Buyer's account to Venture's account; Venture will provide Buyer with wiring instructions at or prior to Closing. During such 120 day period, Venture or its servicing agent will place all such checks or drafts received for collection on Deposit Accounts into the possession of a courier for delivery to Buyer by the morning of the second business day following such receipt. Buyer will be responsible for determining if each such check or draft delivered is properly payable. Venture shall have no obligation to pay such forwarded transaction account drafts. After the 120 day period, Venture will not accept any such checks and such checks will be returned marked "UTL" (unable to locate). Any additional charges by Venture's servicing agent in order to comply with this Section 12.3 will be shared equally between Buyer and Venture.

12.4 ACH Transactions. With respect to the direct pay and automated clearinghouse transactions requested by customers of the acquired branch after the Closing Date, Buyer agrees to use its best efforts to notify, within 30 days after the Closing, the appropriate ACH Originator to redirect such direct pay and automated clearinghouse transactions from Venture to Buyer utilizing a Notification of Change transaction. Venture agrees that for a period of 60 days following the Closing Date it will effectuate such requests in the same manner and with the same diligence as it would have prior to the closing date. Venture agrees to provide Buyer with the daily detail necessary for Buyer to timely credit or debit the customer's account and to allow buyer to send Notification of Changes. Venture and Buyer agree to a timely net daily settlement of these transactions. At the end of such 60 day period, Venture will discontinue accepting and forwarding ACH entries and funds and return them to the originators marked "R12- Branch sold to another DFI." Buyer shall have the right to dishonor debits on overdrawn accounts and shall effectuate such return directly to the originating DFI of the item. Venture shall provide informational support to Buyer regarding items it handles but shall in no way be liable for such items. Venture may act as an intermediary for return of such items, but again shall have no liability for such items, assuming Venture acts using reasonable commercial procedures. Buyer agrees to reimburse Venture for any reasonable out of pocket expenses incurred by Venture in complying with this Section 12.4. The parties may agree to other procedures to handle ACH transactions.

12.5 Returned Items. With respect to any items that are credited as of the Closing Date to an account being transferred to Buyer pursuant hereto that are returned unpaid ("Returned Item"), and if there are sufficient funds in the account to which such Returned Item was credited or any other accounts on deposit at the Banking Office of Buyer standing in the name of the party liable for such Returned Item, and if Buyer has a right of charge-back against the account to which such Returned Item was credited or a right of set-off against such other accounts in respect of the charge-back, Buyer will debit any or all of such accounts an amount equal in the aggregate to the Returned Item and will repay that amount to Venture, reduced, however, by the amount of the Premium, if any, attributable to such Returned Item.

12.6 Wire Transfers. Venture shall return to the originator all wire transfers it receives for accounts sold on the same day it receives it. Venture shall include a service message indicating the account was sold to Buyer, for 60 days after Closing.

12.7 ATM/Debit/POS Cards. Buyer and Venture agree to settle any and all ATM, Debit Card, and POS transactions effected on or before the Closing Date, but processed after the Closing Date, as soon as practical. In addition, Buyer assumes responsibility for and agrees to pay on presentation all POS transactions initiated before or after the Closing Date with POS cards issued by Venture to access transaction accounts. Venture agrees to provide Buyer with the daily detail necessary for Buyer to timely credit or debit the customer's account for 30 days following the Closing Date. In instances where a customer made an assertion of an error regarding an account pursuant to the Electronic Funds Transfer Act and Federal Reserve Board Regulation E, and Venture, prior to Closing Date, recredited the disputed amount to the relevant account during the conduct of the error investigation, Buyer agrees to comply with a written request from Venture to debit such account in a stated amount and remit such amount to Venture, to the extent of the balance of funds available in the accounts. Venture agrees to indemnify the Buyer for any claims or losses that the Buyer may incur as a result of complying with such request from Venture. Buyer shall reissue ATM/Debit/POS cards to customers with such Venture cards prior to the Closing Date, which cards shall be effective as of the Closing Date.

12.8 Account Adjustments. For a period of twelve months, Buyer agrees to comply with a written request from Venture to debit or credit an account in a stated amount and remit such amount, if debit, to Venture, to the extent of the balance of funds available in the accounts. Venture agrees to indemnify the Buyer for any claims or losses that the Buyer may incur as a result of complying with such request from Venture.

12.9 Records and Financial Information. The party having control of the relevant records and financial information used in connection with any adjustment provided for in this Article XII will, at the expense of the other party, certify the accuracy of such record and financial information if so requested by the other party.

12.10 Pre-Closing Training. Venture and Buyer will agree to mutually acceptable terms and conditions under which Buyer may provide training to the Transferred Employees, including but not limited to reasonable advance notice of training schedule, the placement at specific locations of one or more training terminals in the Banking Offices and reasonable access to the Banking Offices. Any such training will be conducted at times and in a manner that will not interfere with the business activities of the Banking Offices. Buyer will reimburse Venture for the time spent by any Transferred Employees in connection with such training activities, whether such activities take place at a Banking Office or off-site, and for any reasonable measures taken by Venture to mitigate the impact of such training on the business activities of the Banking Offices (including, by way of example and not limitation, the use of temporary workers or the scheduling of overtime). Buyer also will reimburse all related, reasonable travel expenses to Venture or the Transferred Employees, as appropriate.

12.11 Electronic Installation. Buyer shall have a reasonable right to enter the Banking Offices in the thirty (30) calendar day period prior to the Closing Date for the purpose of installing necessary wiring for Buyer's teller terminals and data processing equipment to be utilized after the Closing, subject to satisfaction by Buyer of the following conditions;

(a) reasonable advance notice of such entry shall be given to Venture, such entry shall comply with Venture's security procedures and Venture shall have the right to have its employees or contractors present to inspect the work being done;

(b) all such work shall be done so as not to unreasonably interfere with Venture's business in the Banking Office; and

(c) all such work will be done in compliance with the laws and applicable governmental regulations and Buyer shall be responsible for the procurement, at Buyer's expense, of all required governmental or administrative permits and approvals.

Buyer agrees that if for any reason the transactions contemplated hereunder are not consummated, Buyer will, at its sole cost and expense, remove any installations it shall have made in the Banking Offices and shall repair and restore the Banking Offices to their condition immediately prior to such installation.

12.12 IRC Section 1031 Exchange. Buyer acknowledges that Venture's sale of the Real Property may be a tax-free exchange, and Buyer agrees to cooperate with Venture in completing such an exchange, subject to the terms of this Agreement, provided that all costs in connection therewith shall be borne by Venture.

ARTICLE XIII MISCELLANEOUS

News Release

TIMBERLAND BANK AGREES TO BUY SEVEN VENTURE BANK BRANCHES

HOQUIAM, Wash. - June 24, 2004 - Timberland Bancorp, Inc. (Nasdaq:

TSBK), and its subsidiary Timberland Bank, today announced that Timberland Bank has signed an agreement to acquire seven branch offices and related deposits in three Western Washington counties from Venture Bank, the subsidiary of Venture Financial Group. As part of its strategy to expand its brand of full-service community banking into southwest Washington and the Olympic peninsula, Timberland Bank will acquire approximately $91 million in deposits which represents a 29% increase in its deposit base. In addition, Timberland Bank will acquire real estate, branch infrastructure, and employees for seven offices in Toledo, Winlock, Elma, Montesano, Hoquiam, Aberdeen and Panorama City. A premium of 9.0% will be paid for all deposits transferred with the exception of certain public deposits that will transfer with no premium. The transaction also includes $1.8 million for land and premises.

"This acquisition complements our branching strategy and is a very good fit for us, adding additional in-market branches, a solid customer base, productive employees and stable low-cost deposits," said Michael R. Sand, President and CEO. "The branch locations offer an ideal mix of in-market offices and new territory. Five of the branches are located within our existing geographic footprint and show solid prospects for generating operating synergies with our current system. The two branches in Toledo and Winlock allow us to expand into Lewis County. Entering this new market reflects our commitment to the continued growth of our community banking philosophy, where decisions are made locally, and community involvement is encouraged."

The transaction is scheduled to close early in the fourth calendar quarter of 2004 and is subject to regulatory approval. "We look forward to welcoming the new customers and employees into the Timberland family," continued Sand. "We are confident that the customer relationships established in these seven branches will continue to deepen and grow. We also expect the new employees that want to continue their careers in banking will find good opportunities within our system."

Of the approximately $91 million in acquired deposits, 53% are in NOW, savings and money market accounts, 17% are non-interest-bearing deposits and 30% are time certificates. "The mix of deposits is expected to reduce our cost of funds and increase core deposits," said Dean J. Brydon, Chief Financial Officer. "It also will improve our market position significantly in Grays Harbor County, giving us a 23% (up from 16%) share of the deposit market. As we deploy deposits into loans in the communities we serve, we anticipate this transaction will contribute to our net interest margin and earnings. We believe the acquisition will be accretive within one year following full integration of the new branches into our system. This acquisition, which is the first we have done since going public, brings solid potential to generate long-term earnings growth and also complements our efforts to enhance shareholder value through dividends and share repurchases."

Timberland Bank was founded in Hoquiam, WA in 1915 and has grown to a 15 branch network of full-service community banking locations in five counties, with its 16th branch opening in Gig Harbor this month. At March 31, 2004, Timberland Bancorp had $446 million in assets and $317 million in deposits. The Bank's core values are centered on providing exceptional, customer-focused products and services that meet the needs of individuals, families and businesses in the communities it serves. This includes a full range of traditional banking products such as checking, savings, CDs, IRAs, home and consumer loans. In addition, the bank has capitalized on niche lending products such as land and construction loans, and financing for businesses. Financial planning services are available through its subsidiary, Timberland Financial Services Center.
