BOC India wins another major onsite contract
from JSW Steel Limited

BOC India Limited (BOCI), a subsidiary of The BOC Group, one of the world's largest industrial gases companies, has entered into a long-term contract to supply gases for an expansion programme underway at JSW Steel Limited (JSW) at Bellary, Karnataka, southern India.

JSW Steel Limited (formerly Jindal Vijayanagar Steel Limited) operates a world-class steel making facility at Bellary and is nearly doubling its capacity to 7 million tonnes a year. Under the new contract, BOCI will supply JSW Steel over 3,000 tonnes per day of gaseous oxygen, nitrogen and argon from a custom-built air separation unit (ASU). To meet this requirement BOCI will set up one of the largest build-and-operate on-site air separation plant in the country. The state-of-the-art ASU will meet all of JSW Steel's gases requirements and additionally will produce liquid products to meet the growing demand from customers in southern India. This ASU, which will be one of BOC's largest in Asia, is expected to be commissioned in 2008 in time to meet the requirements of gases arising from the ongoing expansion programme at JSW Steel.

Speaking on the occasion Dr. B. N. Singh, joint managing director & CEO, JSW Steel Limited said, "BOC was able to provide the best technical solution for our gases requirement, this along with its reputation for quality and reliability was key in our selection of BOC to support our expansion programme."

"We are delighted to be selected by JSW Steel for this second contract to meet all their gases requirements arising from their expansion programme. We value our relationship with JSW Steel and with the gases requirement of nearly 4500 MTPD from the expansion alone they will become BOCI's largest customer in India," said Mr ER Raj Narayanan, managing director, BOC India Limited.

Sanjiv Lamba, managing director, PGS South & South East Asia, The BOC Group. said, "At BOC we recognise the importance of investment in our business in India and are delighted to have an opportunity to do this at JSW Steel's world class steel plant in Vijaynagar. We are confident that our commitment of continuous and focused investment in growth markets such as southern India will help us deliver our growth strategy in India and further strengthen our position as the leading industrial gases company in India and across Asia."

This contract follows an earlier agreement signed last year with JSW Steel to supply its Bellary site with some 1,400 tonnes per day of oxygen and nitrogen. An ASU is currently under construction by a BOC joint venture, with commercial production expected to begin later this year. In addition to its major air separation plants in Jamshedpur, Tarapur and Taloja, BOCI has recently commissioned its latest merchant ASU in Hyderabad.

In the fiscal year ending 31st March 2006, BOC India registered its highest ever turnover of Rs. 560.93 crores, recording a growth of 32% over the previous year. Net profit after tax increased by 181% from Rs. 27.97 crores to Rs. 78.63 crores. The year also witnessed several product launches and commissioning of plants across the country.
