ITEM 1. BUSINESS

GENERAL

ADVO, Inc. ("ADVO" or the "Company") is a full service targeted in-home print advertising company primarily engaged in soliciting and processing printed advertising from retailers, manufacturers and service companies for targeted distribution by both shared and solo mail, as well as private carrier delivery, to consumer households in the United States and Canada on a national, regional and local basis. The Company's shared mail advertising programs reach on average, approximately 67 million U.S. households on a weekly basis and 105 million on a monthly basis.

The Company satisfies clients of all types and sizes with customized targeting solutions for their marketing communication needs. Founded in 1929 as a hand delivery company, the Company entered the direct mail industry as a solo mailer in 1946 and began its shared mail program in 1980. The Company currently is the largest commercial user of standard mail (formerly third-class mail) in the United States.

ADVO competes primarily with newspapers, direct mail companies, periodicals and other local distribution entities for retail advertising expenditures. The Company believes that direct mail, which enables advertisers to target advertisements to specific customers or geographic areas, is the most efficient vehicle for delivering printed advertising on a saturation or full market coverage basis, as well as an effective means of targeted coverage.

ADVO's principal executive offices are located at One Targeting Centre, Windsor, Connecticut 06095.

PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

ADVO's direct mail marketing products and services include shared mail and solo mail. ADVO provides ancillary services to complement its direct mail marketing programs and also provides private carrier delivery in certain markets. In addition, the Company provides direct mail advertising solutions for local neighborhood businesses. The Company's consumer web-site, ShopWise.com, allows retailers to electronically target promotions and values to subscribers.

SHARED MAIL

In the Company's branded shared mail program, ShopWise(TM), the individual advertisements of various businesses within a mailing radius are combined into a single mail package. Because the cost of the postage is flat up to a certain level, the clients share the savings of combining their advertisements.

The Company customizes shared mail packages by targeting levels selected by the customer. In most instances, each household within the predetermined targeting level will receive a mail package. The Company offers various targeting levels for the customer's designated mailing area based on the level of geo-demographic precision that is requested by the customer. Individual customers can choose predetermined clusters of ZIP Code zones, all ZIP Codes covered by a program, or ADVO Targeting Zones ("ATZs"). ATZs enable advertisers to target their ads to consumer clusters of about 3,500 households. ATZs are neighboring postal carrier delivery routes within a ZIP Code that are clustered together based on shared demographic characteristics and proximity to key retail shopping areas.

The flexibility and targeting capabilities of the ATZ platform enable customers, such as retail store chains, to select areas serviced by their retail stores and, at the same time, distribute different versions to reach their choice consumers. The Company uses geographic, demographic and psychographic data to tailor the customers' advertisements to their targeted audience.

The Company's shared mail program offers the features of penetration and targeted marketing at a significant cost reduction when compared to mailing on an individual or solo mail basis. This cost advantage is available because the Company pays the total postage expense, and advertisers are generally charged a selling price based on, among other factors, the incremental weight of their promotional piece.

As a part of its shared mail program, the Company provides the addresses of the households receiving the mail packages, sorts, processes and transports the advertising material for ultimate delivery through the United States Postal Service ("USPS"). Generally, larger businesses, such as grocery chains and mass merchandisers, will provide the Company with preprinted advertising materials in predetermined quantities. In the case of manufacturers and small retail customers, the Company may perform graphics services and/or act as a broker for the required printing. The Company also offers shared mail customers numerous standard turnkey advertising products in a variety of sizes and colors.

The Company believes its shared mail program is the largest program of its kind.

SOLO MAIL

Solo mail services include addressing and processing brochures and circulars for an individual customer for distribution through the USPS. Each customer bears the full cost of postage and handling for each mailing. Customers choosing this form of direct mail are generally those who wish to maintain an exclusive image and complete control over the timing and the target of their mailings, or who want to mail to areas where the Company does not have a shared mail program.

The Company processes solo mail using its own mailing list or lists supplied by the customer. The Company charges a processing fee based on the solo mail services rendered.

OTHER PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

The Company rents portions of its mailing list, through a specialized firm hired by the Company, to organizations interested in distributing their own mailings. The Company may or may not perform the associated distribution services for the customer.

MailCoups, Inc. ("MailCoups"), a wholly owned subsidiary of ADVO, is a franchise-based cooperative coupon mail company headquartered in Avon, Massachusetts. This company, operating under the trade name of SuperCoups, creates and distributes attractive, cost-effective targeted coupons in a distinctive envelope format for local neighborhood merchants via an extended network of franchise owners. At the end of fiscal year 2003, MailCoups had approximately 65 franchisees including 225 franchise units in 23 states.

In June 2002, the Company acquired FACC Corporation ("FACC"), which includes both First Avenue and Breezeway Communications, Inc., based in Toronto, Canada. FACC is an innovator in both the targeting and distribution of in-home print advertising. Similar to ADVO, FACC uses a proprietary software tool that leverages both geographic and demographic information to help identify desirable audiences and target advertising messages to consumers.

FACC's client base of approximately 100 companies includes most major international food service/restaurant groups and international packaged goods manufacturers. FACC distributes approximately 240 million pieces of advertising mail per year to targeted segments of Canada's 12 million households. FACC was renamed ADVO Canada subsequent to their acquisition.

The Company acquired the New Jersey Shoppers Guide ("NJ Shopper") in April 2001. The NJ Shopper is a weekly direct mail shopper which is distributed in Southern New Jersey. The NJ Shopper has a weekly circulation of approximately 400,000 households that supplements the Company's current distribution.

In November 2000, the Company acquired Mail Marketing Systems, Inc., ("MMSI") a privately held direct mail advertising company located in Jessup, Maryland. The acquisition of MMSI complements ADVO's core distribution network by providing additional shared mail coverage to approximately 4.2 million households in 75 smaller market areas not served by ADVO prior to the acquisition. MMSI also provides solo direct mail advertising for its clients.

Acquisitions made by the Company in the past three fiscal years have been accounted for under the purchase method of accounting and, accordingly, the results of operations of the acquired companies were included in the consolidated statements of operations from their acquisition date.

The Company has executed strategic initiatives by developing new products and new ways of doing business as platforms for growth. These initiatives complement and expand the Company's core advertising programs by meeting a wider range of client needs in markets already served through targeted distribution. These initiatives include additional in-home mailing dates and newspaper alliances.

The Company's introduction of additional in-home mailing dates in existing markets offers existing clients added targeting capabilities through delivery on weekends and also provides new opportunities with clients who traditionally prefer weekend in-home dates. At the end of fiscal year 2003, the Company had stand-alone additional mailings in these existing markets: Albuquerque, Las Vegas, Akron and Houston.

The formation of newspaper alliances offers clients a new integrated print advertising solution that combines targeted direct mail with newspaper distribution while synergizing distribution costs. By joining newspaper and direct mail distribution, both clients and consumers benefit from the efficiencies and enriched content of these targeted advertising offerings. These alliances take two forms. In one, ADVO distributes the combined advertising packages, primarily by mail, weekly to every household in the market that is not a daily subscriber to the newspaper partner. The newspaper then distributes our combined advertising material by hand (through its regular carrier delivery) to its subscribers, covering the market in full. The markets covered in fiscal year 2003 included: Boston, Denver, Los Angeles, Bridgeport, St Petersburg, Northern California, and Southern Connecticut.

The additional mailing programs in the Detroit and Orange County markets represent the second form of newspaper alliances. The alliances in these markets create a second weekly distribution package comprised of advertisements provided by both parties. These packages are distributed jointly to every household in the market. This strengthens print advertising options for the Company's clients and creates a richer package with more attractive choices for consumers.

DISTRIBUTION NETWORK

ADVO's distribution network offers a diversified approach to delivering its clients' messages.

The Company's core distribution network is represented by the weekly ShopWise(TM) program. ShopWise(TM) is a weekly distribution program covering, on average, approximately 67 million households in approximately 130 markets, in essentially all major metropolitan markets. This program is used by local and national retailers. The zone configuration selected for each market is normally determined by population density and by proximity to retail outlets. Retailers with multiple locations and weekly mailing frequency are a key determinate of the zones chosen by the Company for its weekly distribution. The Company derives most of its revenues from the ShopWise(TM) shared mail program.

The Company is part of a network, known as ADVO National Network Extension ("A.N.N.E."), comprising of regional shared mail companies, which provides its clients with extended coverage outside the markets already served by the Company. Approximately 33 million additional households can be reached on a shared mail basis through A.N.N.E. The Company handles the clients' orders directly and manages distribution of their advertising through A.N.N.E.'s members. Conversely, A.N.N.E. enables participating members (shared mail companies) to offer their clients extended marketplace reach using the Company's household coverage.

The Company extended its core shared mail advertising program by establishing its rural expansion program. Once a month, the Company reaches approximately five million rural U.S. households and provides targeted shared mail advertising coverage to areas that previously were only served via solo mail.

These programs, along with the additional-in-home distributions and newspaper alliances, comprise the Company's vast distribution network reaching over 105 million homes.

MAILING LIST

ADVO's management believes its computerized mailing list is the largest residential/household mailing list in the country. It contains over 128 million addresses (constituting nearly all of the households in the United States). The Company has enhanced the list by acquiring 12 million business addresses, which have been integrated into the household file in walk sequence order. The Company's management believes that the list is particularly valuable and that replication in its entirety by competitors would be extremely difficult and costly. The list enables the Company to target mailings to best serve its customers.

CUSTOMER BASE

Typically, the Company's customers are those businesses whose products and services are used by the general population. These businesses (including supermarkets, quick serve restaurants, drug stores, discount and department stores and home furnishing retailers) require continuous advertising to a mass audience. The enhanced targeting capabilities of the Company's distribution system have led to the development of opportunities for new customer categories, such as telecommunications, insurance, financial services, and entertainment companies. The Company's targeting capabilities can also provide additional opportunities for more effective advertising to existing customers who advertise to a mass audience.

In fiscal years 2003, 2002 and 2001, no one customer accounted for more than 6% of the Company's sales.

OPERATIONS

Customers' advertising circulars are processed by approximately 1,600 production employees who work at 23 processing facilities strategically located throughout the U.S. and Canada. Inserting machines (which collate the individual advertising pieces into the packages), and addressing and labeling equipment are the principal pieces of equipment used to process the Company's products and services which are distributed by the USPS, private carrier delivery and Canadian Post. The Company is using the Alphaliner, which is a computerized mail collator/inserter, at eight of its mail processing facilities. The Alphaliner offers higher speed and capacity, enhanced productivity, computerized controls which automate order processing, and is electronically integrated with other machines, and links to ADVO's order fulfillment system. The Alphaliner rollout to the remaining facilities is expected to continue.

In all 22 of ADVO's processing facilities, excluding Canada, the transportation department analyzes and sorts all mailings to the appropriate USPS facility. Each of the Company's facilities has a Detached Mail Unit ("DMU") where the USPS is on site and verifies and accepts all of ADVO's mailings. The Company's mail is accepted under an optional procedure that compares financial, production and other business records in lieu of the standard verification procedures of weighing 100% of the mail in bulk. Approximately 90% of the time, the Company ships the mail directly to the local post office for final delivery by the individual postal carrier. The Company tracks the mail from its departure at our processing facilities to its final destination at local post offices and monitors timely and proper delivery of the client's advertisement on the requested in-home delivery dates.

MailCoups operates a cooperative direct mail coupon advertising business by performing print and distribution services for the franchisees at its one production facility. MMSI operates under a business model and environment similar to ADVO's. MMSI provides shared mail programs predominantly in the Mid-Atlantic states, as well as a full range of solo mail services. At the end of fiscal 2003, MMSI's production facility was relocated to an existing Company processing facility.

The Company entered into an agreement with IBM Global Services ("IBM") to provide computer processing, systems development and systems legacy support to the Company. The Company's regional production sites, sales offices and corporate headquarters are on-line with this computer center, enabling the day-to-day processing functions to be performed and providing corporate headquarters with management information. The systems include: order processing and production control, transportation/distribution, address list maintenance, market analysis, label printing and distribution, billing and financial systems, human resources and payroll processing, carrier routing of addresses received from customer files and demographic analyses. The Company also has agreements with IBM to provide a customer support center (help desk) and client server (server farm) management services.

COMPETITION

In general, the printed advertising market is highly competitive with companies competing primarily on the basis of the ability to target selected potential customers on a cost-effective basis and on speed of delivery. ADVO's competitors for the delivery of retail and other printed advertising are numerous and include newspapers, regional and local mailers, direct marketing firms, "shoppers" and "pennysavers."

Newspapers represent the Company's most significant and direct competition. Through the distribution of preprinted circulars, classified advertising and run of press advertising ("ROP"), newspapers have historically been the traditional and dominant medium for advertising by retailers. Insertion rates are highly competitive and many newspapers' financial resources are substantial.

ADVO's principal direct marketing competitors are other companies with residential lists and similar cooperative mailing programs. These companies have a significant presence in many of the Company's markets and represent competition to the Company's ShopWise(TM) shared mail program in those markets.

There are local mailers in practically every market of the country. In addition to local mailers, there are many local private delivery services, such as shoppers and pennysavers, which compete by selling ROP advertisements and classified advertisements. ADVO believes that it competes effectively in its various markets.

SEASONALITY

ADVO's business generally follows the trends of retail advertising spending. The Company has historically experienced slightly higher revenues in the second half of the fiscal year.

RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

Company expenditures in research and development during the last three years have not been material.

ENVIRONMENTAL MATTERS

The Company believes that it is substantially in compliance with all regulations concerning the discharge of materials into the environment, and such regulations have not had a material effect on the capital expenditures or operations of the Company.

RAW MATERIALS

The Company manages the supply of paper through its printing network on behalf of its print vendors. ADVO has agreements with various paper suppliers and print vendors to assure continuity of supply as well as supply of proper paper grades at competitive prices.

EMPLOYEES

As of September 27, 2003, the Company had a total of approximately 3,800 full and part-time employees. ADVO also uses outside temporary employees for the outsourcing of certain production jobs and during busy seasons.

ADVO has one union contract covering production employees in the Hartford, Connecticut branch. The Company believes that its relations with its employees

FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

This Report on Form 10-K includes forward looking statements within the meaning of Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Such forward looking statements are based on current information and expectations and are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause the Company's actual results to differ materially from those in the forward looking statements. The Company's business is promotional in nature, and ADVO serves its clients on a "just in time" basis. As a result, fluctuations in the amount, timing, pages and weight, and kinds of advertising pieces can vary significantly from week to week, depending on its customers' promotional needs, inventories and other factors. In any particular quarter these transactional fluctuations are difficult to predict and can materially affect the Company's revenue and profit results. The Company's business contains additional risks and uncertainties which include but are not limited to: general changes in customer demand and pricing, the possibility of consolidation throughout the retail sector, the impact of economic and political conditions on retail advertising spending and our distribution system, postal and paper prices, possible governmental regulation or legislation affecting aspects of the Company's business, the efficiencies achieved with technology upgrades, the number of shares the Company will purchase in the future under its buyback program, fluctuations in interest rates related to the outstanding debt and other general economic factors.
