Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On March 9, 2006, the board of directors of TD AMERITRADE approved the amendment and restatement of the bylaws of TD AMERITRADE to provide that: (i) the board of directors must select a chief financial officer, who serves as the principal accounting and financial officer and has the authority to perform the duties of treasurer if the treasurer is absent or is unable to act; (ii) the office of president is optional and the chief executive officer has the powers of president unless the board of directors appoints another person as president; (iii) the treasurer no longer serves as the principal accounting and financial officer; and (iv) the assistant treasurer, if any, has the authority to act as treasurer if the treasurer is unable to act and the chief financial officer is unable to act as treasurer.

Prior to this amendment and restatement, the bylaws (a) required the board of directors to select a president, and provided that the chief executive officer would serve as president unless the board of directors selected a different individual as president and (b) identified the treasurer as the principal accounting and financial officer, in charge of and responsible for maintaining adequate books of account and as having charge and custody of all funds and securities of TD AMERITRADE.

The Amended and Restated Bylaws of TD AMERITRADE, effective as of March 9, 2006 are attached hereto as Exhibit 3.1.
