Certificates of Designation

The Certificate of Designations for the series A convertible preferred stock provides that each share of series A convertible preferred stock is convertible at any time at the option of the holder into a number of fully paid and nonassessable shares of Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share (the "Common Stock") equal to $1,000 for each share of series A convertible preferred stock outstanding divided by the initial conversion price of $3.00. Commencing on the third anniversary of the date of issuance, dividends will be payable on the series A convertible preferred stock at a rate of 6.00% per year. Upon a conversion of the series A convertible preferred stock at the option of the holder, accrued but unpaid dividends on shares of series A convertible preferred stock may be paid by the Issuer, at its option, in cash or in shares of Common Stock. As of March 19, 2003, the shares of series A convertible preferred stock initially would be convertible into 25,958,333 shares of Common Stock, based on the initial conversion price of $3.00. The Certificate of Designations for the series B convertible preferred stock provides that each share of series B convertible preferred stock is convertible at any time at the option of the holder into a number of fully paid and nonassessable shares of Common Stock equal to $195.618 for each share of series B convertible preferred stock outstanding, divided by the initial conversion price of $3.00. As of March 19, 2003, the shares of series B convertible preferred stock initially would be convertible into 5,077,918 shares of Common Stock, based on the initial conversion price of $3.00. All outstanding shares of series A preferred stock and series B preferred stock are entitled to vote, on an as-converted basis, on all matters put to a vote or consent of the holders of Common Stock. Therefore, in any such vote or consent, as of the closing of the transaction, the Reporting Persons will have the power to vote shares representing approximately 35.2% of the total number of votes that may be cast on any such matter. The Certificates of Designations governing the Preferred Stock contain anti-dilution protection for the shares of Preferred Stock, which could result in an adjustment of the conversion price. The Preferred Stock must be redeemed by the Company on January 22, 2010 and under certain circumstances will be automatically converted into Common Stock. The foregoing and other relative rights, privileges, powers and preferences of the series A convertible preferred stock and the series B convertible preferred stock are more fully described in the Certificates of Designation.

Stockholders Agreement

In connection with the transactions described in this filing, certain of the Reporting Persons entered into a Stockholders Agreement (the "Stockholders Agreement") with the Issuer providing for certain agreements with respect to the voting, transfers of the shares of series A convertible preferred stock and series B convertible preferred stock and certain other corporate governance and related matters.

In accordance with the Stockholders Agreement, as long as the Reporting Persons collectively beneficially own 15% or more of the total voting power of the Issuer's voting securities and have not sold or otherwise disposed of shares representing 66 2/3% or more of the voting power of the Issuer's securities that they acquired in the transactions described in this filing, any slate of nominees for election to the Issuer's board of directors (the "Board") will consist of two nominees nominated by the Reporting Persons and eight nominees not nominated by the Reporting Persons. Pursuant to the provisions of the Stockholders Agreement, one of the Berkshire Principals, Robert J. Small, and one of the Greenbriar Principals, Joel S. Beckman, became members of the Board of the Issuer upon consummation of the transactions described in this filing. The Stockholders Agreement further provides that in the event (a) the Reporting Persons collectively beneficially own 15% or more of the total voting power of the Issuer's voting securities and have sold or otherwise disposed of shares representing 66 2/3% or more of the voting power of the Issuer's securities that they acquired in the financing transactions or (b) the Reporting Persons collectively beneficially own less than 15% but at least 10% of the total voting power of the Issuer's voting securities, any slate of nominees for election to the Issuer's board of directors will consist of one nominee nominated by the Reporting Persons and nine nominees not nominated by the Reporting Persons. In the event the total voting power of the Issuer's voting securities collectively beneficially owned by the Reporting Persons at any time is below 10%, the Stockholders Agreement will terminate and the Reporting Persons will have no further right to nominate any of the Issuer's directors.

The Stockholders Agreement requires the approval of at least six directors including at least two directors nominated by the Reporting Persons (or two directors nominated by certain other stockholders of the Issuer) be obtained for Board action generally. The Stockholders Agreement also provides that the Board will not authorize, approve or ratify certain extraordinary transactions such as certain acquisitions, dispositions, mergers or other business combinations and certain issuances of equity securities of the Issuer without the approval of the majority of the directors designated by the Reporting Persons for so long as the Reporting Persons beneficially own 15% or more of the total voting power of the Issuer.

The Stockholders Agreement will also require the Reporting Persons to vote their shares of the Issuer's voting securities in the manner provided in the Stockholders Agreement in the event of a buyout transaction proposal that is not approved by a majority of the Issuer's board of directors and a majority of directors which are not interested directors (within the meaning of the Delaware General Corporation Law with respect to such buyout transaction) with respect to such buyout transaction.

The Stockholders Agreement contains a "standstill" provision which, among other things, prohibits the Reporting Persons from acquiring in the aggregate more than 39.5% of the Issuer's outstanding voting securities unless approved by the Issuer's board of directors. However, subject to certain exceptions, the Reporting Persons will also have the right, pursuant to the Stockholders Agreement to acquire voting securities to maintain their ownership percentage of the Issuer's outstanding voting securities in the event the Issuer issues additional voting securities in the future.

The Reporting Persons have also each agreed to an 18-month lock-up of the voting securities of the Issuer held by them (except for certain registered offerings) and certain other transfer limitations.

Registration Rights Agreement

Pursuant to a Registration Rights Agreement among the Reporting Persons and the Issuer, the Issuer has granted the Reporting Persons registration rights, which include demand and piggyback registration rights with respect to the shares of Common Stock (and, after the third anniversary of the closing date, the shares of series A convertible preferred stock) held by the Reporting Persons.

Except as described above and in the agreements referenced herein, the Reporting Persons do not have any plans or proposals that relate to or would result in: (i) an extraordinary corporate transaction, such as a merger, reorganization, or liquidation, involving the Issuer or any of its subsidiaries; (ii) a sale or transfer of a material amount of assets of the issuer or of any of its subsidiaries; (iii) any change in the present board of directors or management of the Issuer, including any plans or proposals to change the number or term of directors; (iv) any material change in the present capitalization or dividend policy of the Issuer; (v) any other material change in the Issuer's business or corporate structure; (vi) changes in the Issuer's charter, bylaws or instruments corresponding thereto or other actions which may impede the acquisition of control of the Issuer by any person; (vii) causing a class of securities of the Issuer to be delisted from a national securities exchange or to cease to be authorized to be quoted in an inter-dealer quotation system of a registered national securities association; (viii) a class of equity securities of the Issuer becoming eligible for termination of registration pursuant to Section 12(g)(4) of the Exchange Act; or (ix) any action similar to any of those enumerated above. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Reporting Persons reserve the right to effect any of such actions as any of them may deem necessary or appropriate in the future.
