Board Approves 2007 Cash Incentive Plan For Executive Officers:

On February 15, 2007 the Independent Bank Corp. Board of Directors approved the Independent Bank Corp. And Rockland Trust Company 2007 Executive Officer Performance Incentive Plan (the 2007 Executive Incentive Plan). The 2007 Executive Incentive Plan was created to provide salaried Executive Officers of the Company and Rockland Trust who are not entitled to sales commissions with a cash incentive program designed to motivate them to perform to their full potential and thereby assist the Company and Rockland Trust in achieving financial success.

The 2007 Executive Incentive Plan defines Award as a cash incentive payment made to Executive Officers pursuant to the 2007 Executive Incentive Plan. Awards under the 2007 Executive Incentive Plan will be determined as follows:

the CEO's Award will be determined by the product of the CEO's Target Award multiplied by the Bank Performance Adjustment Factor;

Awards for all Executive Officers other than the CEO will be determined from the product of the Participant's Target Award multiplied by the Bank Performance Adjustment Factor and multiplied by the Participant's Individual Performance Adjustment Factor.

The Award payable to any Participant, therefore, may be less than or more than the Participant's Target Award, depending upon: the level of the Company's performance against the performance criteria used to determine the Bank Performance Adjustment Factor; and, in the case of Executive Officers other than the CEO, whether the individual Executive Officer's Performance Goals and Objectives for 2007 used to determine the Individual Performance Adjustment Factor have been achieved.

The 2007 Executive Incentive Plan defines Target Award as an Executive Officer's base salary on November 30, 2007, multiplied by the target percentage established for that Executive Officer. The 2007 Executive Incentive Plan establishes the target percentages used to determine an Executive Officer's Target Award as follows:

Executive Officer	Target Percentage Of Base Salary Used To Determine Target Award
Christopher Oddleifson	Forty-Five Percent (45%)
Raymond G. Fuerschbach	Twenty Percent (20%)
Edward F. Jankowski	Twenty Percent (20%)
Ferdinand T. Kelley	Thirty Percent (30%)
Jane L. Lundquist	Thirty Percent (30%)
Edward H. Seksay	Twenty Percent (20%)
Denis K. Sheahan	Thirty Percent (30%)

The 2007 Executive Incentive Plan defines the Bank Performance Adjustment Factor as a factor determined by the level of the Company's performance against: specified threshold performance criteria for Operating Earnings Per Share measured before incentive payments to Executive Officers and all other Rockland Trust officers (Operating EPS Before Incentive) Return On Average Equity and Return On Average Assets; and, target and maximum performance criteria based upon Operating EPS Before Incentive. The range of the Bank Performance Adjustment Factor for the CEO, and for all Executive Officers other than the CEO, will primarily be determined from a range of possible percentages, on a linear basis, based upon the level of the Company's attainment against specified threshold, target, and maximum Operating EPS Before Incentive performance criteria, as follows:

	Threshold Operating Earnings Per Share	Target Operating Earnings Per Share	Maximum Operating Earnings Per Share
Range of Bank Performance Adjustment Factor for CEO	Twenty-Five Percent (25%)	One Hundred Percent (100%)	Two Hundred Percent (200%)
Range of Bank Performance Adjustment Factor for all Executive Officers other than the CEO	Fifty Percent (50%)	One Hundred Percent (100%)	One Hundred Twenty Five Percent (125%)

If, however, specified threshold levels for either Return On Average Equity or Return On Average Assets are not met, the Bank Performance Adjustment Factor percentage determined by the level of the Company's performance against specified threshold, target, and maximum Operating EPS Before Incentive performance criteria will be reduced to Seventy-Five Percent (75%) of what the Bank Performance Adjustment Factor percentage would have been using only the Operating EPS Before Incentive performance criteria.

The 2007 Executive Incentive Plan defines the Individual Performance Adjustment Factor as a factor (or factors) that will, when multiplied by an Executive Officer's Target Award and the Bank Performance Adjustment Factor, determine an Award. The Individual Performance Adjustment Factor is not applicable to the CEO. For all Executive Officers other than the CEO, the Individual Performance Adjustment Factor will be adjusted upward or downward within a possible range from zero (0.0) to one and seven-tenths (1.70) based upon an evaluation of the Executive Officer's achievement of individual performance goals and objectives during 2007.

The 2007 Executive Incentive Plan will be administered by the Board of the Company based upon the recommendations of the Compensation Committee of the Board. All determinations regarding the achievement of any performance goals, the achievement of individual performance goals and objectives, and the amount of any individual Award will be made by the Board, in its sole and absolute discretion, based upon the recommendations of the Compensation Committee. The Board's determinations under the 2007 Executive Incentive Plan need not be uniform and may be made selectively among persons who receive, or who are eligible to receive, an Award. Notwithstanding any other provision of the 2007 Executive Incentive Plan to the contrary, the Board reserves the right, in its sole and absolute discretion, to: make adjustments to the Bank Performance Adjustment Factor, within the range of parameters set forth in the 2007 Executive Incentive Plan, based upon one-time, non-recurring, or extraordinary events or any other reason that the Board deems appropriate; increase the award for the CEO up to a maximum of 1.25 times the amount that would be called for by the product of the CEO's Target Award multiplied by the Bank Performance Adjustment Factor; and, to reduce, including a reduction to zero, any Award to an Executive Officer otherwise payable.
