registration statement and to be a part hereof from the respective dates of filing of such documents (such documents, and the documents enumerated above, being hereinafter referred to as "Incorporated Documents").

Any statement contained in an Incorporated Document shall be deemed to be modified or superseded for purposes of this registration statement to the extent that a statement contained herein or in any other subsequently filed Incorporated Document modifies or supersedes such statement. Any such statement so modified or superseded shall not be deemed, except as so modified or superseded, to constitute a part of this registration statement.

ITEM 4. DESCRIPTION OF SECURITIES.

The following description of the All*AmerUs Supplemental Retirement Plan Obligations is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the plan set forth as Exhibit 4.3 to this registration statement.

Select executives whose compensation under the All*AmerUs Savings & Retirement Plan is limited due to Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") imposed compensation limits may participate in the All*AmerUs Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan (the "SERP"). The All*AmerUs Savings & Retirement Plan is referred to in this registration statement as the "401(k) Plan."

In order to enroll, participants in the SERP must complete such forms and make such elections as the Company's Benefit and Pension Committee (the "Committee") may require. In particular, participants must give written consent for the additional pretax deferrals permitted by the SERP. Any participant who fails to consent, or who consents only in part, will have his benefits under the SERP reduced accordingly. Upon commencement of participation in the SERP, a bookkeeping account (the "SERP Account") will be established for a participant. The SERP Account will be divided into subaccounts corresponding to those under the 401(k) Plan. Participants will receive an amount equal to the amount that would have been credited to such participant pursuant to the 401(k) Plan had no IRS imposed compensation limits been applied. Participants are vested in the subaccounts under the SERP at the same rate and in the same manner as he or she vests in the corresponding subaccounts under the 401(k) Plan.

Participants may elect, on a hypothetical basis, to invest their SERP Account under the SERP in the investment options available to participants under the 401(k) Plan. A participant's investment in the SERP is independent of such participant's investment elections under the 401(k) Plan and the All*AmerUs Excess Benefit Plan. Each participant SERP Account is credited with the investment return, including losses, that it would have earned had the SERP Account actually been invested according to the participant's direction in the 401(k) Plan. If a participant fails to make an investment election under the SERP, the SERP Account of such participant will receive the performance it would have received had it been invested in the default option under the 401(k) Plan.

The SERP obligations (the "Registered Obligations") registered hereunder are general, unsecured obligations of the Company and cannot be sold, transferred, assigned or encumbered in any manner, either voluntarily or involuntarily. The SERP is unfunded for purposes of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the "Code") and the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA").

Edgar Filing: AMERUS GROUP CO/IA - Form S-8

Participants will receive distributions as soon as administratively feasible upon termination of employment with the Company. The Committee will determine in which of the following forms the participant's benefits will be paid: (i) a single cash sum, (ii) periodic installments paid monthly, quarterly, or annually over a period designated by the Committee, (iii) periodic installments paid monthly, quarterly, or annually in a dollar amount specified by the Committee, (iv) a joint and 50% survivor annuity for the lives of the participant and spouse, which is purchased from a life insurance company with the proceeds of the participant's SERP Account, or (v) an annuity for the participant's life, which is purchased from a life insurance company with the proceeds of the participant's SERP Account.

The Company reserves the right to amend or discontinue the SERP at any time.

ITEM 5. INTERESTS OF NAMED EXPERTS AND COUNSEL.

Certain legal matters in connection with the Registered Obligations offered hereby will be passed upon for the Company by Joseph K. Haggerty, Esq., Senior Vice President, General Counsel of the Company. As of December 18, 2002, Mr. Haggerty beneficially owns 31,362 shares of the Common Stock and has current exercisable options to purchase 22,500 shares of Common Stock.

ITEM 6. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS.

Section 490.832 of the Iowa Business Corporation Act (the "IBCA") provides that a corporation's articles of incorporation may contain a provision eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, provided that the provision does not eliminate or limit the liability of a director for a breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its shareholders, for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, for a transaction from which the director derives an improper personal benefit, or under Section 490.833 of the IBCA. Further, Section 490.851 of the IBCA provides that a corporation may indemnify its directors against liabilities and reasonable expenses incurred by reason of such person serving in the capacity of director, if such person has acted in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed by the individual to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and in any criminal proceeding if such person had no reasonable cause to believe the individual's conduct was unlawful.

The indemnity provisions under Section 490.851 do not apply (i) in the case of actions brought by or in the right of the corporation in which the director was adjudged liable to the corporation, or (ii) in connection with any other proceedings charging improper personal benefit to the director, whether or not involving action in the director's official capacity, in which the director was adjudged liable on the basis that impersonal benefit was improperly received by the director. In addition, Section 490.852 of the IBCA provides mandatory indemnification of reasonable expenses incurred by a director who successfully defends any action in which the director was a party because the director is or was a director of the corporation. Finally, Section 490.856 of the IBCA provides that, unless otherwise provided in a corporation's articles of incorporation: (i) an officer of the corporation who is not a director is entitled to mandatory indemnification under Section 490.852 of the IBCA and is entitled to apply for court-ordered indemnification under Section 490.854 of the IBCA in each case to the same extent as a director, (ii) the corporation may indemnify and advance expenses under Section 490.852 to an officer, employee or agent of the corporation who is not a director to the same extent as to a director, and (iii) a corporation may also indemnify and advance expenses to an officer, employee or agent who is not a director to the extent, consistent with law, that may be provided by its articles of incorporation, bylaws, general or specific action of its board of directors or contract.

The Company's Articles of Incorporation provide that no director of the Company will be liable to the Company or its shareholders for monetary damages for any breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except to the extent required by the IBCA. This provision will not prevent shareholders from obtaining injunctive or other equitable relief against directors nor will it shield directors from liability under federal or state securities laws. In addition, the Articles of Incorporation provide that the Company will to the maximum extent permitted by law, indemnify a person who incurs any loss by reason of the fact that he or she is or was or has agreed to be a director or officer of the Company or while a director or officer of the Company is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of any corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, subject to such person having met the standards of conduct required for such indemnification under Iowa law.

The Company's Bylaws provide that the Company shall indemnify and advance expenses to any person who was or is a party to or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed claim, action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (including a grand jury proceeding) and whether formal or informal, by reason of the fact that such person (i) is or was a director or officer of the Company or any of its subsidiaries, whether before or after the conversion of the Company from a mutual insurance holding company to a stock company, or (ii) while a director or officer of the Company or any of its subsidiaries, whether before or after the conversion of the Company from a mutual insurance holding company, is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, employee, agent, partner or trustee (or in a similar capacity) of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, other enterprise, or employee benefit plan, to the maximum extent it is permitted to do so by Part E of Division VIII of the IBCA. An amendment to the IBCA will be adopted and applied only to the extent that such amendment permits the Company to provide broader indemnification than previously permitted prior to such amendment. The Bylaws provide for indemnification of such person against reasonable expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, penalties, including an excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan, and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such claim, action, suit or proceeding or any appeal thereof. However, entitlement to such indemnification is conditional upon the Company being afforded the opportunity to participate directly on behalf of such person in such claim, action, suit or proceeding or any related settlement discussions. Entitlement to indemnification with respect to any settlement or other nonadjudicated disposition is further conditional upon the prior approval by the Company of the proposed settlement or nonadjudicated disposition. Such approval shall be made (a) by the Board of Directors by majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors not at the time parties to the claim, action, suit or proceeding, or (b) by special legal counsel selected by the Board of Directors by majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors not at the time parties to the claim, action, suit, or proceeding, or, if the requisite quorum of the full board cannot be obtained therefor, by a majority vote of the full board, in which selection of counsel directors who are parties may participate. The Bylaws also provide that the Company shall indemnify a person for costs and expenses incurred in connection with successfully establishing in any action or proceeding his or her right to indemnification by the Company. Except as limited by the IBCA, the indemnification and advancement of expenses provisions of the Bylaws are not exclusive of any other rights to which a person seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any other bylaw, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors, law or otherwise.

As permitted by and in accordance with Section 490.857 of the IBCA, the Company maintains a directors' and officers' liability insurance policy to insure against losses arising from claims made against its directors and officers, subject to the limitations and conditions as set forth in the policies. In addition, the Company has entered into indemnification agreements with its directors and certain of its executive officers providing for the indemnification of such persons as permitted by its Articles of Incorporation and Iowa law.

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act");

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement; and indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
