Amendment to Credit Agreement

On March 6, 2009, Arch Coal, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), entered into an amendment (the Credit Amendment) to its credit agreement, dated December 22, 2004 (as amended, the Credit Agreement) with the banks named in the Credit Agreement and PNC Bank, National Association, as administrative agent for the banks party thereto.

The purpose of the Credit Amendment was to correct certain technical deficiencies contained in the negative covenants and other provisions prohibiting the Company and certain subsidiaries from entering into agreements restricting their ability to incur liens, to make certain payments or to issue guarantees. The Credit Amendment also increases the maximum leverage ratio, as determined in accordance therewith. In connection with these changes, the Credit Amendment also increases the interest rates on borrowings under the credit facility contained in the current pricing grid.

As of March 6, 2009, the Company had approximately $375.0 million of borrowings outstanding under the Credit Agreement.

Some of the banks under the Credit Agreement and/or their affiliates have or may have had various relationships with the Company and its subsidiaries involving the provision of a variety of financial services, including investment banking, underwriting and commercial banking services, including issuances of letters of credit, for which the financial institutions and/or affiliates receive customary fees, and, in some cases, out-of-pocket expenses.

The Company described the material terms of the Credit Agreement in Item 1.01 of its Current Report on Form 8-K filed on December 28, 2004 and in Item 1.01 of its Current Report on Form 8-K filed on June 27, 2006, and incorporates those descriptions herein by this reference, appropriately modified as set forth above.

A copy of the Credit Amendment is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Form 8-K and is incorporated in this Item 1.01 by reference. The description of the Credit Amendment set forth in this Item 1.01 is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Credit Amendment set forth on Exhibit 10.1, and readers are encouraged to review the Credit Amendment in its entirety.

Jacobs Ranch Acquisition

On March 8, 2009, the Company entered into a Membership Interest Purchase Agreement (the Purchase Agreement) with Rio Tinto Sage LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ( Seller), pursuant to which the Company has agreed to purchase from Seller all of the issued and outstanding membership interests of Jacobs Ranch Coal LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ( Jacobs Ranch). Following consummation of the acquisition, Jacobs Ranch will be wholly-owned by the Company.

Under the terms of the Purchase Agreement, the aggregate cash consideration to be paid by the Company to Seller at the closing of the transaction is $761.0 million, subject to certain cash, working capital, indebtedness and other adjustments set forth in the Purchase Agreement.

The Purchase Agreement contains customary representations and warranties, covenants and other terms and conditions, including conditions relating to approvals under competition laws and regulations, and the closing is expected to occur as soon as possible following receipt of such approvals in the relevant jurisdictions. The Purchase Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the closing, as follows: (a) by mutual written consent of the Company and Seller; (b) by either party if certain required approvals are not obtained within 90 days after the initial filing with the Federal Trade Commission (the FTC); (c) by Seller to the Company if closing has not occurred within 180 days after the initial filing with the FTC; (d) automatically if closing has not occurred within 365 days after the initial filing with the FTC; (e) by either party if the other party fails or refuses to consummate the transaction in accordance with the terms of the Purchase Agreement or (f) by Seller if the value of certain encumbrances exceed $10.0 million unless a corresponding adjustment to the purchase price is made.

In the Purchase Agreement, the parties have agreed to various instances in which a termination fee may be payable by the Company to Seller, including the following: (a) $2.0 million if certain required approvals are not obtained within 90 days after the initial filing with the FTC; (b) $30.0 million if closing has not occurred within 365 days after the initial filing with the FTC or if the Company fails or refuses to consummate the transaction in accordance with the terms of the Purchase Agreement or (c) $50.0 million if the closing has not occurred within 365 days after the initial filing with the FTC solely as a result of the Company's inability to pay the purchase price.

There can be no assurance that the transactions contemplated by the Purchase Agreement will be consummated.

A copy of the Purchase Agreement is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this Form 8-K and is incorporated in this Item 1.01 by reference. The description of the Purchase Agreement set forth in this Item 1.01 is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Purchase Agreement set forth on Exhibit 2.1, and readers are encouraged to review the Purchase Agreement in its entirety.
