Peter Munk is the Founder and Chairman of the Board of Barrick Gold Corporation. A well-known Canadian business leader and philanthropist, Mr. Munk has built several enterprises that have achieved outstanding performances.

Starting in 1983, Mr. Munk and his management team have developed Barrick into one of the world's most successful gold producers. Peter Munk's business strengths are evident in Barrick's sound financial management, entrepreneurial character and solid balance sheet.

Mr. Munk graduated in Electrical Engineering from the University of Toronto in 1952. Among numerous other public honors, he is an Officer of the Order of Canada, the country's highest honor for a private citizen.

Gregory Wilkins
President and Chief Executive Officer

Gregory Wilkins is President and Chief Executive Officer of Barrick Gold Corporation. He assumed the responsibilities in February 2003 and has been a member of the Board of Directors since 1991.

Under Mr. Wilkin's guidance, the Company articulated its statement of Vision - "To be the world's best gold company" - and its companion statement of five Values, focused on personal leadership and responsibility, that define employee behaviour consistent with that Vision. He recognized the need to develop new structures for Barrick, suitable to its scale and stature as a major global enterprise, and in late 2003 oversaw the successful implementation of the Regional Business Unit organizational model. Through this regional structure, the Company is bringing a new generation of mines into production. He and his team remain focused on creating value, by continuing to expand the Company and manage it effectively.

Mr. Wilkins first joined Barrick in 1981, prior to its entry into the gold business, and eventually rose to the position of Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. During those early years, he worked closely with Chairman and Founder Peter Munk and other senior members of the team to build Barrick into a leader in the gold industry.

In 1993, Mr. Wilkins left Barrick to become President and Chief Operating Officer of Horsham Corporation, which was then Barrick's controlling shareholder. Horsham later became TrizecHahn Corporation and Mr. Wilkins remained as President and Chief Operating Officer until the planning of its conversion to a United States Real Estate Investment Trust had been completed and the company relocated to the United States.

Mr. Wilkins is a member of the Cabinet for The Heart for University Health Network Campaign. He is a Chartered Accountant and holds a Bachelor of Commerce degree from Concordia University in Montreal.
