Additional Shareholder Proposal Sent to the Fund on April 28, 2017

VIA FEDERAL EXPRESS & ELECTRONIC MAIL April 28, 2017

Madison Covered Call & Equity Strategy Fund
Attn: Holly S. Baggot, Secretary
550 Science Drive
Madison, Wisconsin 53711

Re: Shareholder Proposal for the Madison Covered Call & Equity Strategy Fund ("MCN" or the "Fund")

Ms. Baggot:

In addition to Karpus Management, Inc.'s ("Karpus") 14a-8 proposal duly submitted to the Madison Covered Call & Equity Strategy Fund ("MCN" or the "Fund") on February 8, 2017, this letter shall serve as notice to MCN, as to Karpus' timely submittal of a shareholder proposal outside of Rule 14a-8 for presentation to MCN shareholders at the Fund's next annual shareholders' meeting anticipated to be held in September 2017, or any postponement or adjournment thereof (the "Meeting"). Karpus' non-binding shareholder proposal (the "Proposal") is as follows:

BE IT RESOLVED, the shareholders of the Madison Covered Call & Equity Strategy Fund ("MCN" or the "Fund") request that the Trustees promptly consider authorizing a self-tender offer for all outstanding common shares of the Fund at or close to net asset value ("NAV"). If more than 50% of the Fund's outstanding common shares are tendered, the tender offer should be cancelled and the Board should take the steps necessary to liquidate, merge, or convert the Fund to an open-end mutual fund or exchange traded fund.

Supporting Statement

In May 2016, the Boards of MCN and MSP proposed merging MCN with the Madison Strategic Sector Premium Fund ("MSP", collectively, MSP and MCN are the "Madison Funds"). Among the reasons for the merger, the Boards cited the Madison Funds' expense structure, operational efficiencies, liquidity, and discount issues - among others. On June 8, the merger proposal was withdrawn because of negative feedback from shareholders. Even though the proposed merger was withdrawn, the same exact issues have persisted. The only one that seemingly did not was the Fund's historically wide discount to net asset value. However, we don't think this has anything to do with what the Board has done. Instead, the Fund's discount narrowing appears to be a reaction of the market that an otherwise unrecognized and inactive Board might actually do something to enhance shareholder value. How can a Board recommend a merger and then do nothing to address the very issues that they acknowledged concern over in the first place? Additionally, we question whether the Board's decision to not do anything further is in the best interest of shareholders or the best interests of the Fund's Advisor. Surely, maintaining the status quo is the highest fee generating option for Madison Asset Management, LLC. The same argument, however, cannot be made for MCN shareholders. Does the Board not think that MCN is a strategy that shareholders could get elsewhere or that could be implemented efficiently through another investment vehicle? The bottom line is that if our proposal is approved and implemented, shareholders would have a choice to tender their shares close to net asset value. If less than 50% choose not to, MCN will continue to exist as is. If more than 50% choose to tender their shares,

Edgar Filing: Madison Covered Call & Equity Strategy Fund - Form SC 13D/A

such an occurrence would indicate that a significant portion of shareholders want liquidity for their shares and do not wish for the Fund to exist in its current structure as a closed-end fund. We do not believe that the Fund's current discount has anything to do with what the Board or the Fund's Advisor has done. If you agree and would like to be offered liquidity close to net asset value for your shares, please vote FOR Karpus' Proposal.

END OF PROPOSAL

Attached as Exhibits 1 and 2 are letters from U. S. Bank N.A. and the "record" holder of the referenced shares, verifying that the referenced shares were continuously and beneficially owned, and had a market value of $2,000 or more, for at least a one year period prior to the date of the submittal of the above Proposal. Karpus intends to hold the shares referenced through the date of the Meeting. Please advise us immediately if this notice is deficient in any way or if any additional information is required so that Karpus may promptly provide it in order to cure any deficiency. Karpus intends to deliver a proxy statement and form of proxy to holders of at least the percentage of the company's voting shares required under applicable law to carry the Proposal.

Sincerely,
