Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

Amendment to Bylaws

At its meeting on January 22, 2007, the Board of Directors (the "Board") of The York Water Company (the "Corporation") approved an amendment to the Bylaws of the Corporation (the "Bylaws") to provide for a decrease in the minimum number of directors to eight (8) from nine (9) and an increase in the maximum number of directors to twelve (12) from ten (10). The amendment to the Bylaws became effective January 22, 2007.

Article III of the Corporation's Bylaws was amended to include a new Section 3.03., which reads in its entirety as provided below:

Section 3.03. Number and Term of Office

The board of directors shall consist of not less than eight (8) nor more than twelve (12) shareholders of record as shall be determined from time to time by the board of directors in its sole discretion. At each annual meeting the shareholders shall choose by ballot one (1) of three (3) classes of directors, each consisting of at least three (3) but not more than four (4) directors, to conduct the affairs of the corporation for three (3) year terms and until their respective successors shall have been elected and qualified. If the shareholders shall have elected eight (8) directors, the board of directors may increase the number of directors at any time thereafter. Whenever a vacancy shall occur in the board of directors, including any vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors, the remaining members of the board of directors may fill such vacancy until the next election of the class to which such director shall have been elected.

Prior to this amendment, Section 3.03. read as follows:

Section 3.03. Number and Term of Office

The board of directors shall consist of not less than nine (9) nor more than ten (10) shareholders of record as shall be determined from time to time by the board of directors in its sole discretion. At each annual meeting the shareholders shall choose by ballot one (1) of three (3) classes of directors, each consisting of at least three (3) but not more than four (4) directors, to conduct the affairs of the corporation for three (3) year terms and until their respective successors shall have been elected and qualified. If the shareholders shall have elected nine (9) directors, the board of directors may increase the number of directors to ten (10) at any time thereafter. Whenever a vacancy shall occur in the board of directors, including any vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors, the remaining members of the board of directors may fill such vacancy until the next election of the class to which such director shall have been elected.
