Entrée Gold Welcomes Positive Action by Mongolian Government in Revising Proposed Minerals Law Amendments

Vancouver, B.C., Monday December 5, 2005 - Entrée Gold Inc. (TSX-V: ETG; AMEX: EGI Entrée or the Company) reports on proposed changes to the Mongolian Minerals Law, which have recently been the subject of much debate. Intensive lobbying efforts and ongoing discussions over the past week appear to have been successful in achieving a revision and dilution to some of these changes. As reported in an Ivanhoe Mines Ltd. (NYSE: IVN; TSX: IVN; Ivanhoe) news release (December 5, 2005), statements made by Mongolian Prime Minister Ts. Elbegdorj, at an international conference arranged by the World Bank and the Prime Minister's office on Friday December 2nd in Ulaan Baatar, indicate that the Mongolian government would only make legislative changes that would maintain the current attractive climate for foreign investment in the country's mineral sector. The Ivanhoe press release also reported on earlier statements made by Mongolia's President Nambariin Enkhbayar at a news conference in Beijing, during which he said it is unlikely that Mongolia would take stakes in foreign mining ventures.

Entrée's President Greg Crowe and Vice-President Lindsay Bottomer were in Ulaan Baatar last week as part of this lobbying effort. Several foreign mining and exploration companies worked alongside the North America Mongolia Business Council and the Mongolian National Mining Association to voice concerns about proposed changes to the Minerals Law, which were being drafted by a working group of staff members within Mongolia's Ministry of Industry and Trade. The most controversial proposal suggested that the government should have the right to acquire ownership of up to 30% of significant mineral deposits, namely those discovered with state funding during the pre-1991 Soviet era, and up to 15% of future private industry discoveries. The Minister of Industry and Trade has now called for a formal response to the draft before these amendments are presented to the government's cabinet, expected to occur this week.

Both Greg Crowe and Lindsay Bottomer have been impressed with the open debate surrounding these proposed changes and the positive response by senior members of the Mongolian government.

This is an example of a young democracy at work, said Greg Crowe. Should Mongolia continue to have open and transparent debate around these issues, and not enact legislation that would politicize foreign investment, the country will continue to attract foreign investment and continue to advance towards its objective of becoming a leading nation alongside other developed democratic Asian states.

ABOUT ENTRÉE GOLD INC.

Entrée Gold Inc. (www.entreegold.com) is a junior mineral exploration company focused on gold and copper prospects. The Company is a large landholder in Mongolia's south Gobi Desert, near the Chinese border. Entrée maintains 100% interest in the 179,590 hectare Lookout Hill (Shivee Tolgoi) property which completely surrounds Ivanhoe's 8,500 hectare, Turquoise Hill (Oyu Tolgoi) holdings.

Under an Earn-In Agreement announced in October 2004, Ivanhoe has the right to earn an interest in approximately 22% (40,000 hectares) of Entrée's Lookout Hill property. By the terms of the agreement, Ivanhoe must spend a minimum of US $20 million in order to earn any interest in the mineral rights to the project property and may acquire up to a 70% interest in mineralization above a depth of 560 metres and an 80% interest in mineralization below a depth of 560 metres by spending US$35 million. Thereafter, Entrée has the right to require Ivanhoe to fund its share of subsequent joint venture costs through to production, to be recovered from production cash flow.

Recent equity investments from Ivanhoe and Rio Tinto plc (NYSE: RTP; LSE: RIO.L Rio Tinto), have increased the Company's operating cash to approximately CDN$26 million and allowed it to expand its budgets for its independent exploration of its Lookout Hill and Ulziit Uul projects. The current program at Lookout Hill has been increased from US$3 million to an estimated US$5.1 million; while the program budget at Ulziit Uul has been increased from US$0.9 million to an estimated US$1.9 million.

Entrée is a Tier 1 listed company that trades on the TSX Venture Exchange under the symbol ETG and on the AMEX under the symbol EGI.
