Our examination was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included examining, on a test basis, evidence about the Company's compliance with those requirements and performing such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. Included among our procedures were the following tests performed as of March 31, 2014, and with respect to agreement of security purchases and sales, for the period from January 31, 2014 (the date of our last examination), through March 31, 2014:

·Confirmation of all securities held by Morgan Stanley Smith Barney ("Custodian").

·Reconciliation of all such securities to the books and records of the Company and the Custodian

Agreement of additional investments in two existing portfolio companies, the sales of three portfolio companies and • conversion of debt to equity in one existing portfolio company since our last report from the books and records of the Company to broker confirmations

We believe that our examination provides a reasonable basis for our opinion. Our examination does not provide a legal determination on the Company's compliance with specified requirements.

In our opinion, management's assertion that Capital Southwest Corporation and subsidiaries complied with the requirements of subsections (b) and (c) of Rule 17f-2 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 as of March 31, 2014, with respect to securities reflected in the investment account of the Company is fairly stated, in all material respects.
