ITEM 1. DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS

Overview

In this Annual Report the words "Turnaround Partners" "Turnaround Partners, Inc.", "Turnaround", the "Company", "we", "our" and "us" refer to Turnaround Partners, Inc., (formerly Emerge Capital Corp, formerly NuWave Technologies, Inc. ("NuWave")) collectively with our consolidated subsidiaries, unless the context indicates otherwise. Our fiscal year ends on December 31st.

On August 31, 2005, NuWave entered into a merger agreement with Corporate Strategies, Inc. ("Corporate Strategies") and the shareholders of Corporate Strategies. The transaction was reflected as a reverse acquisition since control of the Company passed to the shareholders of Corporate Strategies. Subsequent to the merger, the Company changed its name to Emerge Capital Corp.

During August 2005, the shares of the equipment leasing subsidiary of Corporate Strategies were distributed to its shareholders. The mortgage brokerage subsidiary was sold in December 2005. In February 2006, the Company sold one of its real estate development subsidiaries. The Company disposed of these subsidiaries in order to focus primarily on the business activities of Corporate Strategies going forward. In November of 2006, we migrated from Delaware to Nevada.

Operations

Principal services and our market

The Company is an established provider of restructuring strategies, turnaround execution and business development services for emerging and re-emerging public companies. The Company markets its services to individual public companies, hedge funds, institutional investors and banks that have significant exposure in troubled micro-cap public companies. These companies are typically either in operational or financial difficulty and may be in default of lending or equity agreements, and as a result, they may be facing bankruptcy or liquidation if their operations are not turned around.

The Company is generally compensated with a combination of cash payments on a monthly or quarterly basis, and outright grants of equity in the form of common stock and/or warrants for purchasing common stock. We believe this compensation plan aligns our interests with the client company's shareholders because our ultimate compensation is maximized by successfully increasing shareholder value. This performance based compensation arrangement clearly demonstrates that our interests are consistent with both our clients and their shareholders.

The Company minimizes risk from our restructuring/turnaround clients by implementing the following policies:

- o The Company will not assume the financial obligations of the client company in any circumstance. In most cases, the financial institution with the greatest risk has referred the Company to the transaction.
- o The Company requires the client or their investor to provide the client company with working capital necessary to execute the turnaround plan.
- o The Company requires the client to fully indemnify the Company against any actions, with the exception of gross negligence or malfeasance.

Edgar Filing: Turnaround Partners, Inc. - Form 10KSB

o If the client has officer and director insurance, we require the client to add the Company or any of the Company's contractors as insured parties under the policy.

o Should the Company consider altering any of the policies above, it will require a vote of the Board of Directors to waive them and agree to the maximum amount of risk that the Company will assume.

Competition for our services

Competition for the services we provide comes mainly from turnaround management and restructuring firms, financial advisory firms, business consulting firms and crisis management groups, many of which have substantially more capital resources than the Company.

Due to the large amount of capital provided by institutional funds into the sector over the last three (3) years, the Company is optimistic that business conditions should result in significant growth opportunities for companies positioned in the restructuring and turnaround management sector.

To date, a significant portion of our business has come from an institutional fund (Cornell Capital Partners) that invests primarily in micro-cap companies.

Employees

As of March 20, 2007, the Company has 4 part time employees and employs the services of 2 others on a contract basis. The controller and data entry clerk are considered contract employees whom also work for an affiliated company as contract employees.

ITEM 2. DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY

We maintain our headquarters in Houston, Texas through a five (5) year lease effective February, 2005 which provides 2,644 square feet of office space. We believe that the property is adequate and suitable for our current needs. We share this space with one of our affiliates.

At the time of the August 2005 merger, the Company acquired a residential property consisting of land and a residential building in Jersey City, New Jersey for a total purchase price of $122,000. The purchase price was paid with $113,000 in cash and $9,000 in the form of a deposit. The property was sold in December, 2005 for $165,000 and the Company took a mortgage note in the amount of $148,500 due December 1, 2006, which has been extended to May 1, 2007, secured by a mortgage on the property.

Also at the time of the merger, Turnaround Partners, through its wholly owned-subsiary Lehigh Acquisition Corp. ("Lehigh"), acquired a five acre parcel of un-developed acreage in Cranford, New Jersey. Turnaround intended to develop the property into a 55 and over residential community. In February 2006, the Company sold Lehigh to Cornell Capital Partners LP for total proceeds of approximately $5,556,000, including cash of $93,000, repayment of $ 4,881,000 promissory notes and $400,000 convertible debentures to Cornell Capital and payment of $182,000 of payables. The transaction resulted in a gain of approximately $3,317,406 in February 2006.

ITEM 3. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

None.

ITEM 4. SUBMISSION OF MATTERS TO A VOTE OF SECURITY HOLDERS

On or about October 27, 2006, the Company furnished a Definitive Information Statement to all holders of shares of common stock and Series B and D Preferred stock of record at the close of business on October 23, 2006 with respect to the intent of a majority of the shareholders to approve (a) a name change of the Company from Emerge Capital Corp to Turnaround Partners, Inc. (b) to approve the migration of the Company from a Delaware corporation to a Nevada corporation, and (c) to approve an increase of the number of authorized shares of Common Stock of the

Company from Nine Hundred Million (900,000,000) to Five Billion (5,000,000,000). The Company filed the Definitive Information Statement with the SEC on Schedule 14C on October 27, 2006. The proposals were approved and the Definitive Information Statement became effective on or about November 14, 2006.

Securities Authorized for Issuance under Equity Compensation Plans

On December 13, 2005, we established the Turnaround Partners, Inc. 2005 Stock Incentive Plan (the "Plan"). The Plan was adopted and approved by our shareholders. On a calendar year basis, an amount of shares of Common Stock equivalent to fifteen percent (15%) of the fully diluted shares outstanding on January 2 of any such calendar year (without taking into account outstanding Awards as defined in the Plan at the end of the prior calendar year) may be allocated, at the discretion of the Administrator, to be granted as Awards under the Plan, less Awards outstanding at the end of the prior calendar year. In no event shall the number of shares which may be allocated as Awards under the Plan be more than Ten Million (10,000,000) shares of Common Stock for a given calendar year. At present, there are no outstanding options.

Pursuant to the purchase of our interest in Kipling Holdings, Inc. (“Kipling”) as fully described in Item 6, and effective September 25, 2006, the Board of Directors approved the designation of Series D convertible preferred stock (the “Series D”), par value of $0.01, to consist of up to One Hundred Thousand (100,000) shares. As a result of the Kipling purchase, on December 31, 2006, the Board of Directors reduced the 93,334 shares of then outstanding Series D owned by our CEO, Timothy J. Connolly, and his spouse to Seven Hundred (700) shares of Series D. The Series D ranks pari passu with the common stock of the Company on an “as converted” basis, and senior to the Company’s Series A, B and C preferred stock. The holders of the Series D are entitled to receive dividends or distributions on a pro rata basis when and if dividends are declared on our Common Stock, but with no liquidation preference. Each share of the Series D may be convertible, at the option of the holder, at any time and from time to time after December 31, 2006 through December 31, 2010, into that number of shares of Common Stock equal to the greater of (a) one tenth of one percent (0.1%) of the total number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding as of the last day of the fiscal quarter immediately preceding such date of conversion, calculated on a fully diluted basis after giving effect to the conversion of such share(s) of Series D and (b) One Hundred Thousand (100,000) shares of Common Stock. Each share of Series D Preferred Stock held by the Holders which has not been converted on or before December 31, 2010 into shares of Common Stock shall be convertible, at the option of the Holder of such share, at any time and from time to time after December 31, 2010 into one tenth of one percent (0.1%) of the total number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding on December 31, 2010, calculated on a fully diluted basis after giving effect to the conversion of such share(s) of Series D Preferred Stock. The shares of Common Stock received upon conversion shall be fully paid and non-assessable shares of Common Stock.

The forward-looking statements contained in this report speak only as of the date hereof. We undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or any other reason. All forward-looking statements attributable to Turnaround Partners, Inc. or any person acting on its behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements contained or referred to in this Annual Report filed on Form 10-KSB and in our future periodic reports filed with the SEC. The following M,D&A should be read in conjunction with these audited Consolidated Financial Statements of the Company, and the related notes thereto included elsewhere herein.

Results of Operations

The financial statements include the results of operations of Corporate Strategies since its inception and the results of operations of Nuwave and its subsidiaries beginning August 31, 2005, the date of the merger agreement ("Merger Agreement").

On December 31, 2005, the Company sold its subsidiary, Aim American Mortgage, Inc. ("Aim"), for a convertible debenture. Aim is engaged in residential mortgage brokerage activities. Aim's activity has been reflected in discontinued operations in these financial statements.

On October 22, 2004, the Company formed CSI Business Finance, Inc. ("CSIBF"), a corporation organized under the laws of the state of Texas, for the purpose of engaging in equipment leasing and other business finance activities. On August 31, 2005, CSIBF was distributed to shareholders and has been reflected in discontinued operations in the financial statements for 2005.

In August of 2005, Corporate Strategies, Inc. entered into a share exchange agreement whereby it exchanged all of the common stock of its subsidiary, CSI Business Finance, for 100,000 restricted shares of Series A Convertible Preferred stock of Health Express USA Inc. (HEXS.OB) - subsequently named Natural Nutrition, Inc. (NNTN.OB). The preferred stock shares acquired in this transaction were distributed to the shareholders of Corporate Strategies in the form of a dividend.

On August 31, 2005, NuWave Technologies, Inc. ("NuWave" or "the Company") entered into a merger agreement (the "Agreement") with Corporate Strategies, Inc. ("Corporate Strategies") and the shareholders of Corporate Strategies ("Shareholders"). The Company was subsequently renamed Turnaround Partners, Inc. The transaction was accounted for as a reverse acquisition since control of the merged group passed to the shareholders of the acquired company (Corporate Strategies).

Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, the Company issued one (1) share of its common stock ("Common Stock"), par value $0.001 per share, to each holder of Corporate Strategies Class A common stock in exchange for two (2) shares of Corporate Strategies Class A common stock, par value $0.001 per share. Second, the Company issued one (1) share of the Company's Series C preferred stock ("Series C Preferred"), par value $0.01 per share, to each holder of Corporate Strategies Series A preferred stock for one (1) share of Corporate Strategies Series A preferred stock, par value $0.001 per share.

The Company issued and delivered shares of its Series B convertible Preferred stock ("Series B Preferred") to each holder of Corporate Strategies Class B common stock so that effectively upon conversion of the Series B Preferred into common shares, the common shares issued upon conversion shall be equal to ninety-five percent (95%) of the issued and outstanding stock of the Company (calculated on a fully diluted basis as of the date of the Merger, following the issuance of all the Merger Consideration (as such term is defined in the Agreement) and after giving effect to such conversion, but not including any shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of any then outstanding Company convertible debentures). Therefore, the Merger Consideration for the Common Stock, Series C Preferred and Series B Preferred was the Corporate Strategies Class A common, Series A preferred and Class B common, respectively. The number of shares issued to the Shareholders in connection with the Merger was based upon a determination by the Company's Board of Directors (the "Board").

The terms of the Series B Preferred were subsequently modified. In connection with the Kipling purchase, 93,334 shares of Series B Preferred were exchanged for a like number of Series D Preferred, which were subsequently reduced to 700 shares of Series D Preferred. The remaining 6,666 shares of Series B Preferred are convertible into 4,195,445 shares of common stock. Each share of the Series D may be convertible, at the option of the holder, at any time and from time to time after December 31, 2006 through December 31, 2010, into that number of shares of Common Stock equal to the greater of (a) one tenth of one percent (0.1%) of the total number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding as of the last day of the fiscal quarter immediately preceding such date of conversion, calculated on a fully diluted basis after giving effect to the conversion of such share(s) of Series D and (b) One Hundred Thousand (100,000) shares of Common Stock. Each share of Series D Preferred Stock held by the Holders which has not been converted on or before December 31, 2010 into shares of Common Stock shall be convertible, at the option of the Holder of such share, at any time and from time to time after December 31, 2010 into one tenth of one percent (0.1%) of the total number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding on December 31, 2010, calculated on a fully diluted basis after giving effect to the conversion of such share(s) of Series D Preferred Stock. The shares of Common Stock received upon conversion shall be fully paid and non-assessable shares of Common Stock.

The Series B and D Preferred shareholders and the holders of the common stock vote together and the Series B and D Preferred shall be counted on an "as converted" basis, thereby giving the Series B and D Preferred shareholders control of the Company. The transaction was accounted for as a reverse acquisition since control of the merged group passed to the shareholders of the acquired company (Corporate Strategies).

On October 27, 2006, we filed a Schedule 14C Information statement. This information statement was furnished to all holders of shares of common stock and Series B and D convertible preferred stock of record at the close of business on October 23, 2006. Within this statement, the corporate actions involved three proposals providing for the following:

1. To approve a change of name of the Company to Turnaround Partners, Inc;
2. To approve the migration of the Company from a Delaware corporation to a Nevada corporation; and
3. To approve an increase of the number of authorized shares of Common Stock of the Company from Nine Hundred Million (900,000,000) to Five Billion (5,000,000,000) shares.

Lehigh Acquisition Corp. ("Lehigh") was a subsidiary of NuWave and is treated as if it was acquired August 31, 2005, the date of the merger. Lehigh was sold on February 3, 2006. The financial statements include the operations of Lehigh through February 3, 2006 as discontinued operations.

On May 31, 2006, we filed an S-8 with the Securities and Exchange Commission for the Turnaround Partners, Inc. 2005 Stock Incentive Plan (the "Plan"). The document was submitted to register 10,000,000 shares of common stock. The purpose of the Plan is to promote the long-term growth and profitability of the Company by (a) providing key people with incentives to improve shareholder value and to contribute to the growth and financial success of the Company, and (b) enabling the Company to attract, retain and reward the best-available persons. This document is herein incorporated by reference.

On June 26, 2006, we filed an SB-2 with the Securities Exchange Commission. The prospectus related to the registration of (a) 1,860,000 shares of common stock of Turnaround Partners, Inc. that would have been offered for sale from time to time by Cornell Capital Partners, LP ("Cornell Capital"), (b) 937,500 shares of common stock of Turnaround Partners, Inc. that would have been offered for sale from time to time by iVoice, Inc. and (c) 2,812,500 shares of common stock of Turnaround Partners, Inc. that would have been distributed by dividend by iVoice to all of the Class A common stockholders of iVoice. Turnaround Partners, Inc. was not selling any shares of common stock in this offering and therefore would not have received any proceeds from this offering. On August 31, 2006, we formally withdrew this registration statement pursuant to Rule 477(a) under the General Rules and Regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

Pursuant to the purchase of our interest in Kipling Holdings, Inc. (“Kipling”) as fully described in Item 6, and effective September 25, 2006, the Board of Directors approved the designation of Series D convertible preferred stock (the “Series D”), par value of $0.01, to consist of up to One Hundred Thousand (100,000) shares. As a result of the Kipling purchase, on December 31, 2006, the Board of Directors reduced the 93,334 shares of then outstanding Series D owned by our CEO, Timothy J. Connolly, and his spouse to Seven Hundred (700) shares of Series D. The Series D ranks pari passu with the common stock of the Company on an “as converted” basis, and senior to the Company’s Series A, B and C preferred stock. The holders of the Series D are entitled to receive dividends or distributions on a pro rata basis when and if dividends are declared on our Common Stock, but with no liquidation preference. Each share of the Series D may be convertible, at the option of the holder, at any time and from time to time after December 31, 2006 through December 31, 2010, into that number of shares of Common Stock equal to the greater of (a) one tenth of one percent (0.1%) of the total number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding as of the last day of the fiscal quarter immediately preceding such date of conversion, calculated on a fully diluted basis after giving effect to the conversion of such share(s) of Series D and (b) One Hundred Thousand (100,000) shares of Common Stock. Each share of Series D Preferred Stock held by the Holders which has not been converted on or before December 31, 2010 into shares of Common Stock shall be convertible, at the option of the Holder of such share, at any time and from time to time after December 31, 2010 into one tenth of one percent (0.1%) of the total number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding on December 31, 2010, calculated on a fully diluted basis after giving effect to the conversion of such share(s) of Series D Preferred Stock. The shares of Common Stock received upon conversion shall be fully paid and non-assessable shares of Common Stock.

On September 30, 2006, we completed a stock purchase agreement (the "Purchase Agreement") to acquire 100% of the total issued and outstanding capital stock of Kipling Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation from Timothy J. Connolly in consideration of (a) our assumption of all of the liabilities of Kipling, subject to certain consents, (b) certain anti-dilution rights as set forth in the Purchase Agreement and (c) all legal and other costs and expenses incurred by Kipling in consideration with this Purchase Agreement. Mr. Connolly serves as CEO of Turnaround and therefore (i) Turnaround obtained a third party appraisal of the Company which valued the acquired asset at Two Million Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($2,250,000) more than the liabilities assumed and (ii) Turnaround's other (disinterested) Board member and CFO reviewed and approved this affiliate transaction. Mr. Connolly received no profit from this affiliated transaction. Because this transaction was between parties under common control, we recorded the $3,313,264 of consideration in excess of Mr. Connolly's original cost basis as a deemed distribution to Mr. Connolly. The Purchase Agreement had been subject to the written consent of Highgate House Funds, Ltd. ("Highgate") an affiliate of Cornell Capital Partners, which the Company and Highgate reduced to writing effective as of September 30, 2006. Kipling, at December 31, 2006, owned a thirty percent interest in a Hilton hotel, which commenced operations in February 2007, in West Palm Beach, Florida. Since the purchase was effective on September 30, 2006 the Company did not record any revenue or expenses during the nine months ended September 30, 2006.

In a separate agreement with an individual, the Company issued an additional 2,000,000 shares and 3,000,000 warrants ($0.05 per warrant) in consideration of the individual's surrender of his option, rights or other interests whatsoever to purchase any capital stock of Kipling Holdings, Inc. The Company has valued these 2,000,000 shares at $140,000. The Company used the closing price of $0.07 per share on September 30, 2006, the date of contract execution, as the value assigned to these shares. This expense is included as merger expense for the twelve months ended December 31, 2006. The Company has valued the 3,000,000 warrants in the amount of $141,000 using the Black Sholes method which is being amortized over the term of the agreement.

In November 2006, we migrated from a Delaware corporation to a Nevada corporation.

Certain reclassifications have been made to the 2005 financial statements to conform to the 2006 financial statement presentation.

Results of continuing operations for the year ended December 31, 2006 (the "2006 Period") as compared with December 31, 2005 (the "2005 Period").

We primarily provide business restructuring, turnaround execution and business development advisory services for emerging and re-emerging public and private companies. The Company also actively trades securities and options with available cash. Many of these transactions contain a considerable amount of risk. Under our consulting agreements, we do not take positions in securities of our clients that at any one time would cause us to have an ownership interest in them of over 4.99%.

Revenues

Discount income decreased by approximately $143,000 to $10,425 in the 2006 Period as compared with the 2005 Period, reflecting decreased business volume for a major customer and the loss of two other customers. Management does not anticipate generating any significant new business in this area.

Consulting revenue increased by approximately $780,000 to $963,277 in the 2006 Period. Consulting revenues are generally one-time fees related to specific events, or contracts covering services to be rendered over a period of time.

The Company

enters into contracts to provide strategic consulting services, including general business development, mergers, acquisitions, management advisory, and restructuring services. There were three such contracts at December 31, 2006.

Edgar Filing: Turnaround Partners, Inc. - Form 10KSB

The contracts generally provide for a base payment equal to $6,000 - $12,000 per month, which may be payable in stock, with additional fees for consulting services beyond a preset amount. Some contracts include warrants or success fees. One of our existing agreements calls for payment in stock of approximately $44,000 per month.

We recorded overall losses in marketable securities in the 2006 Period of approximately $51,000 versus a gain of approximately $81,000 in the 2005 Period. The Company accepts both compensation for its services and invests in micro cap marketable securities. Most of these securities are in companies defined as penny stocks and are volatile, trading substantially up or down in any given quarter.

Fee income represents brokerage fees of approximately $205,000 received in 2006 on loans we referred to an affiliated company, CSI Business Finance Inc. Fees for the 2005 Period in the amount of $174,900 were comparable to the 2006 Period.

General and Administrative Expenses

General and administrative expenses increased by approximately $915,000 to $2,261,933 for the 2006 Period as compared to the 2005 Period. For the twelve months ended December 31, 2006, general and administrative expenses were primarily comprised of salaries and benefits ($892,286), and professional fees ($855,722). The remaining general and administrative expenses were comprised of business development, rent, advertising and other ordinary expenses necessary for our operations. For the twelve months ended December 31, 2005, general and administrative expenses were $1,346,723 and consisted primarily of salaries and benefits ($516,496), professional fees ($366,754), and business development, travel and entertainment ($134,465) and other ordinary expenses necessary for our operations. Our company shares office space and certain administrative functions and staff with an affiliated company to whom we allocate costs for these shared functions based on an estimate of time usage. We have not yet reached the size to benefit from separate office space and a full time staff.

Salaries and benefits increased by approximately $376,000 to $892,000 in the 2006 Period as compared to the 2005 Period, primarily representing new part-time employees added during the third quarter 2005, and the hiring of a part-time Chief Financial Officer in July 2006. Our CEO was paid a $100,000 bonus for the 2006 Period.

Professional fees were approximately $856,000 for the twelve months ended December 31, 2006, an increase of approximately $489,000 as compared to the 2005 Period. The increase represented additional accounting, legal and consulting fees relating to regulatory requirements of being a public company and acquisitions due diligence.

We allocate overhead to an affiliate for items such as rent, payroll and other general operating expenses. For the 2006 Period we allocated approximately $308,000 versus $38,000 for the 2005 Period.

Other income and expense

We recorded derivative income of $3,642,080 for the twelve months ended December 31, 2006 versus an expense of $108,357 for the same period ended December 31, 2005. These amounts represent the change in the fair value of the net derivative liability.

In connection with the acquisition of Kipling Holdings, Inc on September 30, 2006, we paid $140,000 under a services contract to an individual. This expense has been classified as a merger expense in the results of operations for the twelve months ended December 31, 2006.

We recorded a merger expense associated with the acquisition of NuWave for the twelve months ended December 31, 2005 in the amount of $3,434,943.

Certain convertible debt was considered extinguished in the first quarter 2006 because of the sale of Lehigh. The extinguishment income was $130,563 for the twelve months ended December 31, 2006.

Interest expense increased by approximately $449,000 for the twelve months ended December 31, 2006 as compared to the same period ended December 31, 2005. The increase is primarily a result of the amortization of discounts related to derivatives on our convertible debentures.

Discontinued Operations

Edgar Filing: Turnaround Partners, Inc. - Form 10KSB

During February 2006, the Company sold the shares of its wholly-owned subsidiary Lehigh. During 2005, the Company either sold or distributed the shares of its mortgage brokerage subsidiary and its business finance subsidiary. The loss from discontinued operations was $218,102 for the twelve months ended December 31, 2005 and $4,688, for the twelve months ended December 31, 2006, net of applicable income tax.

Gain on sale of subsidiary of $3,042,406 represents the gain on the sale of Lehigh in February 2006.

During August 2005, Corporate Strategies distributed the shares of its business finance subsidiary (CSI Business Finance, Inc.) to its shareholders. On December 31, 2005, the Company sold its mortgage brokerage subsidiary for a convertible debenture. Based on a review for collectibility at the transaction date, it was determined that collectibility was improbable and, accordingly no proceeds were recognized from the sale. Since the mortgage brokerage subsidiary had negative equity at the sale date, the Company recognized a profit to the extent of net liabilities assumed by the purchaser. In December 2006, we received $275,000 in full satisfaction of the convertible debenture which was recorded as a gain on sale of subsidiary at December 31, 2006.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Operating activities

We recorded net income for the twelve months ended December 31, 2006 of $4,936,074 versus a net loss of $4,120,911 for the twelve months ended December 31, 2005. Our net income for the twelve months ended December 31, 2006 was primarily a result of the gain on sale of Lehigh and our net change in fair value of derivative liability. Net cash provided by operating activities was $146,119 for the twelve months ended December 31, 2006. In addition to our gain on the sale of Lehigh in the amount of $3,042,406 and collection of the convertible debenture in the amount of $275,000, and our net change in fair value of derivative liability in the amount of $3,642,080, our marketable securities decreased in value by approximately $391,000. During the twelve months ended December 31, 2006, we collected approximately $344,000 on a note from an affiliate.

At December 31, 2006, the Company had a working capital deficit of approximately $1,934,000 including $98,452 of restricted cash. Our working capital deficit includes a computed liability for the fair value of derivatives of $995,940, which will only be realized on the conversion of the derivatives, or settlement of the debentures. We also have $1,696,902, net of discount, of debentures that will mature in July of 2007. The Company at its option can force conversion of these convertible debentures into the Company's common stock at maturity date.

We have a Standby Equity Distribution Agreement (the "SEDA") with Cornell under which the Company may, at its discretion, periodically sell to Cornell registered shares of the Company's common stock for a total purchase price of up to $30 million. For each share of common stock purchased under the SEDA, Cornell will pay Turnaround Partners, Inc. 99% of the lowest closing bid price on the Over-the-Counter Bulletin Board or other principal market on which its common stock is traded for the 5 days immediately following the notice date. Furthermore, Cornell will retain a fee of 10% of each advance made under the SEDA. Additionally, we have been advised that an updated registration statement of the SEDA may be necessary in order to draw down capital under the terms of the SEDA.

The amount of each advance is limited to a maximum draw down of $1,000,000 every seven (7) trading days up to a maximum of $4,000,000 in any 30-day period. The Company's ability to request advances is conditioned upon the Company having enough shares of common stock registered pursuant to the SEC rules and regulations. In addition, the Company may not request advances if the shares to be issued in connection with such advances would result in Cornell owning more than 4.99% of the Company's outstanding common stock.

Under our consulting agreements, we do not take positions in securities of our clients that at any one time would cause us to have an ownership interest in them of over 4.99%. Because of this restriction, we could be hindered in our ability to generate necessary cash for our operations.

Investing activities

We purchased fixed assets in the amount of approximately $22,000 for the twelve months ended December 31, 2006. Cash received from the sale of Lehigh was $93,396. We received cash in the amount of approximately $191,000 as a result of the purchase of Kipling Holdings, Inc, and preferred returns from this investment in the amount of $78,750.

Financing activities

For the twelve months ended December 31, 2006, we repaid approximately $64,000 on note payables.

We have 249 shares of Series C preferred stock outstanding. The stock has a liquidation preference of $373,500 and is redeemable at $1,500 per share at the Company's option. Dividends are cumulative and accrue at the rate of $120 per share per year. Although the Series C stock is redeemable at the option of the Company, the holder of these shares is our Chairman of the Board of Directors. Since these shares are held by our Chairman, who effectively has control of the redemption, we have classified our Series C preferred stock, and associated paid in capital, as a liability in accordance with with EITF Topic No. D-98 “Classification and Measurement of Redeemable Securities”.

Edgar Filing: Turnaround Partners, Inc. - Form 10KSB

We paid dividends on our preferred Series C stock in the amount of $31,809, $27,255 of which was paid to our Chairman of the Board of Directors, and consequently has been reclassified as interest expense.

Our cash flows for the periods are summarized below:

Net cash provided by (used in) operating activities	$ 146,119	$ (50,074)
Net cash provided by (used in) investing activities	599,635	(172,405)
Net cash provided by financing activities	(68,812)	274,804

Our cash increased by $676,942 since December 31, 2005.

Management believes the Company has adequate working capital and cash to be provided from operating activities to fund current levels of operations. We anticipate that our company will grow. As our business grows we believe that we will have to raise additional capital in the private debt and/or public equity markets to fund our investments. We could also potentially realize proceeds from our shelf registration statement.

OFF-BALANCE SHEET ARRANGEMENTS

The Company leases its office space under an operating lease. Rental expense under operating leases for continuing operations aggregated $76,395 and $71,819 for the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005, respectively. Effective February 10, 2005, the Company entered into a new five year lease in a new building and moved the Company's headquarters there, with AIM remaining in the other leased area. AIM was sold in December 2005 and assumed the lease on the area they occupy.

2010	8,058
Total minimum lease payments	$ 229,713

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In June 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued FASB Interpretation No. 48, "Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes" ("FIN 48"). FIN 48 clarifies the application of SFAS No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes, by establishing a threshold condition that a tax position must meet for any part of the benefit of that position to be recognized in the financial statements. In addition to recognition, FIN 48 provides guidance concerning measurement, derecognition, classification and disclosure of tax positions. FIN 48 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2006; accordingly, the Company will adopt FIN 48 effective as of January 1, 2007. The Company does not anticipate that the adoption of FIN 48 will have a material impact on its effective tax rate.

In September 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) issued FASB Staff Position (“FSP”) AUG AIR-1 — Accounting for Planned Major Maintenance Activities. FSP AUG AIR-1 prohibits the use of the accrue-in-advance method of accounting for planned major maintenance activities because it results in the recognition of a liability in a period prior to the occurrence of the transaction or event obligating the entity. FSP AUG AIR-1 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2006 and its guidance is applicable to entities in all industries. The Company will adopt the guidance in FSP AUG-AIR-1 as of January 1, 2007. The Company does not believe the adoption of this guidance will have an impact on its financial position and results of operations.

In September 2006, the Securities and Exchange Commission staff issued Staff Accounting Bulletin ("SAB") No. 108, Considering the Effects of Prior Year Misstatements when Quantifying Misstatements in Current Year Financial Statements. SAB 108 provides guidance on how the effects of the carryover or reversal of prior year misstatements should be considered in quantifying a current year misstatement. SAB 108 established a dual approach that requires quantification of errors under two methods: (1) roll-over method which quantifies the amount by which the current year income statement is misstated, and (2) the iron curtain method which quantifies the error as the cumulative amount by which the current year balance sheet is misstated. In some situations, companies will be required to record errors that occurred in prior years even though those errors were immaterial for each year in which they arose. Companies may choose to either restate all previously presented financial statements or record the cumulative effect of such errors as an adjustment to retained earnings at the beginning of the period in which SAB 108 is applied. SAB 108 is effective for fiscal years ending after November 15, 2006. The adoption of this pronouncement did not have an impact on the Company's financial position or results of operations.

In September 2006, the FASB issued SFAS No. 157, Fair Value Measurements ("SFAS 157"), which is intended to increase consistency and comparability in fair value measurements by defining fair value, establishing a framework for measuring fair value and expanding disclosures about fair value measurements. SFAS 157 is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007, and interim periods within those fiscal years. The Company will adopt SFAS 157 on January 1, 2008, and has not yet determined the impact, if any, on its consolidated financial statements.

Critical Accounting Policies

DERIVATIVE FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The derivatives issued from 2003 through 2006 have been accounted for in accordance with SFAS 133 and EITF No. 00-19, "Accounting for Derivative Financial Instruments Indexed to, and Potentially Settled in, a Company's Own Stock."

The Company has identified that these debentures have embedded derivatives. These embedded derivatives have been bifurcated from their respective host debt contracts and accounted for as derivative liabilities in accordance with EITF 00-19. When multiple derivatives exist within the Convertible Notes, they have been bundled together as a single hybrid compound instrument in accordance with SFAS No. 133 Derivatives Implementation Group Implementation Issue No. B-15, "Embedded Derivatives: Separate Accounting for Multiple Derivative Features Embedded in a Single Hybrid Instrument".

The embedded derivatives within the Convertible Notes have been recorded at fair value at the date of issuance; and are marked-to-market each reporting period with changes in fair value recorded to the Company's income statement as "Net change in fair value of derivative liabilities". The Company has utilized a third party valuation firm to fair value the embedded derivatives using a layered discounted probability-weighted cash flow approach.

The fair value of the derivative liabilities are subject to the changes in the trading value of the Company's common stock, as well as other factors. As a result, the Company's financial statements may fluctuate from quarter-to-quarter based on factors, such as the price of the Company's stock at the balance sheet date and the amount of shares converted by note holders. Consequently, our financial position and results of operations may vary from quarter-to-quarter based on conditions other than our operating revenues and expenses.

REVENUE RECOGNITION

The Company follows the guidance of the SEC's Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 104 for revenue recognition. The Company records revenue when persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, services have been rendered or product delivery has occurred, the sales price to the customer is fixed or determinable, and collectibility is reasonably assured.

ITEM 8. CHANGES IN AND DISAGREEMENTS WITH ACCOUNTANTS ON ACCOUNTING AND FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE

(A) Previous Independent Accountants:

(1) (i) Effective November 2, 2005, the Company dismissed Weiser LLP ("Weiser") as its independent registered public accounting firm.

(ii) Weiser's report on the Company's financial statements for the past two (2) fiscal years, which includes Weiser's sole report for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004, did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion, and was not qualified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles; however, the report included an explanatory paragraph wherein Weiser expressed substantial doubt about the Registrant's ability to continue as a going concern.

(iii) The change of independent registered public accountants was approved by the Company's Board on November 2, 2005.

(iv) During the Company's most recent two (2) fiscal years, which includes Weiser's sole report on the Registrant's financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004, as well as the subsequent interim period through November 2, 2005, there were no disagreements on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedures, which disagreements if not resolved to their satisfaction would have caused them to make reference in connection with their opinion to the subject matter of the disagreement.

(v) During the Company's most recent two (2) fiscal years, which includes Weiser's sole report on the Registrant's financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004, as well as the subsequent interim period through November 2, 2005, Weiser did not advise the Company of any of the matters identified in Item 304(a)(1)(iv)(B) of Regulation S-B.

(B) New Independent Accountants:

On November 2, 2005, the Company engaged Thomas Leger & Co., L.L.P. ("Thomas Leger") as its independent registered public accounting firm to audit the Company's financial statements. The Company did not consult Thomas Leger on any matters described in Item 304(a)(2)(i) or (ii) of Regulation S-B during the Company's two (2) most recent fiscal years or any subsequent interim period prior to engaging Thomas Leger. Thomas Leger were previously the auditors of Corporate Strategies, Inc.

(C) The merger was treated as a reverse acquisition, with Corporate Strategies the surviving entity. The name of the Company was subsequently changed to Turnaround Partners, Inc.

ITEM 8A. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Because of its size, the Company shares its accounting staff with an affiliated company and is comprised of its Chief Financial Officer, who is shared with an affiliate, a controller and a data entry clerk. The controller and data entry clerk are considered contract employees whom also work for an affiliated company as contract employees.

As of the end of the period covered by this report, we have evaluated the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures under the supervision and with the participation of our Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") and Chief Financial Officer ("CFO").

In connection with the audit of our Consolidated Financial Statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006, our independent registered public accounting firm informed us that we had significant deficiencies constituting material weaknesses as defined by the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board, which had been identified in connection with the audit of our Consolidated Financial Statements for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005.

Some of the weaknesses in question were detected during the audit of our Consolidated Financial Statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005.

The material weaknesses identified by the auditor during the December 31, 2005 and 2006 audit were the lack of segregation of duties necessary to maintain proper checks and balances between functions and the lack of procedures to properly account for non-routine transactions and preparation of certain financial statement disclosures in accordance with U.S. GAAP. The absence of qualified full time accounting personnel was a contributing factor to the problems identified by the auditor. The specific circumstances giving rise to the weaknesses include utilizing the services of contract accountants on a part time basis in the absence of internal accounting personnel.

Further, based on the material weaknesses described herein, we concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures were not effective at the reasonable assurance level at December 31, 2006.

The Company has taken the following steps to address the specific problems identified by the auditors:

- 1) We have hired of a Chief Financial Officer and a contract part-time bookkeeper to allow us to properly implement the segregation of duties necessary to maintain checks and balances between accounting and Executive functions.
- 2) All non-routine transactions will be reviewed by our Chief Financial Officer and, contract controller before they are completed.
- 3) The Company will emphasize enhancement of the segregation of duties based on the limited resources the Company has, and, where practical, the Company will continue to assess the cost versus benefit of adding additional resources that would mitigate the situation. Our Chief Financial Officer will monitor our accounting policies to assure proper accounting for financial derivatives and other unusual transactions on an ongoing basis.

TURNAROUND PARTNERS, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

(formerly EMERGE CAPITAL CORP. AND SUBSIDIARIES)

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

DECEMBER 31, 2006 And 2005

NOTE 1 - DESCRIPTION OF MERGER, NATURE OF OPERATIONS AND CONSOLIDATION

On August 31, 2005, NuWave Technologies, Inc. ("NuWave" or "the Company") entered into a merger agreement (the "Agreement") with Corporate Strategies, Inc. ("Corporate Strategies") and the shareholders of Corporate Strategies ("Shareholders"). The Company was subsequently renamed Turnaround Partners, Inc. The transaction was accounted for as a reverse acquisition since control of the merged group passed to the shareholders of the acquired company (Corporate Strategies).

Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, the Company issued one (1) share of its common stock ("Common Stock"), par value $0.001 per share, to each holder of Corporate Strategies Class A common stock in exchange for two (2) shares of Corporate Strategies Class A common stock, par value $0.001 per share. Second, the Company issued one (1) share of the Company's Series C preferred stock ("Series C Preferred"), par value $0.01 per share, to each holder of Corporate Strategies Series A preferred stock for one (1) share of Corporate Strategies Series A preferred stock, par value $0.001 per share.

The Company issued and delivered shares of its Series B convertible Preferred stock ("Series B Preferred") to each holder of Corporate Strategies Class B common stock so that effectively upon conversion of the Series B Preferred into common shares, the common shares issued upon conversion shall be equal to ninety-five percent (95%) of the issued and outstanding stock of the Company (calculated on a fully diluted basis as of the date of the Merger, following the issuance of all the Merger Consideration (as such term is defined in the Agreement) and after giving effect to such conversion, but not including any shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of any then outstanding Company convertible debentures). Therefore, the Merger Consideration for the Common Stock, Series C Preferred and Series B Preferred was the Corporate Strategies Class A common, Series A preferred and Class B common, respectively. The number of shares issued to the Shareholders in connection with the Merger was based upon a determination by the Company's Board of Directors (the "Board").

The terms of the Series B Preferred were subsequently modified. In connection with the Kipling purchase, 93,334 shares of Series B Preferred were exchanged for a like number of Series D Preferred, which were subsequently reduced to 700 shares of Series D Preferred. The remaining 6,666 shares of Series B Preferred are convertible into 4,195,445 shares of common stock. Each share of the Series D may be convertible, at the option of the holder, at any time and from time to time after December 31, 2006 through December 31, 2010, into that number of shares of Common Stock equal to the greater of (a) one tenth of one percent (0.1%) of the total number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding as of the last day of the fiscal quarter immediately preceding such date of conversion, calculated on a fully diluted basis after giving effect to the conversion of such share(s) of Series D and (b) One Hundred Thousand (100,000) shares of Common Stock. Each share of Series D Preferred Stock held by the Holders which has not been converted on or before December 31, 2010 into shares of Common Stock shall be convertible, at the option of the Holder of such share, at any time and from time to time after December 31, 2010 into one tenth of one percent (0.1%) of the total number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding on December 31, 2010, calculated on a fully diluted basis after giving effect to the conversion of such share(s) of Series D Preferred Stock. The shares of Common Stock received upon conversion shall be fully paid and non-assessable shares of Common Stock.

The Series B and D Convertible Preferred Stockholders and the holders of the common stock vote together and the Preferred Stock shall be counted on an "as converted" basis, thereby giving the Preferred Shareholders control of the Company.

In November 2006, we migrated from a Delaware corporation to a Nevada corporation and changed the name of the Company to Turnaround Partners, Inc.

NATURE OF OPERATIONS AND ORGANIZATION

We primarily provide business restructuring, turnaround execution and business development advisory services for emerging and re-emerging public and private companies. The Company also actively trades securities and options with available cash. Many of these transactions contain a considerable amount of risk. Under our consulting agreements, we do not take positions in securities of our clients that at any one time would cause us to have an ownership interest in them of over 4.99%.

F-9

The Company owned Aim American Mortgage, Inc. ("Aim"), from February 18, 2003 to December 31, 2005. Aim engaged in residential mortgage brokerage activities. The consolidated financial statements of the Company include the results of the operations of Aim through December 31, 2005. Aim was sold on December 31, 2005 and has been reflected in discontinued operations in the financial statements.

On October 22, 2004, the Company formed CSI Business Finance, Inc. ("CSIBF"), incorporated in Texas, for the purpose of engaging in equipment leasing and other business finance activities. The consolidated financial statements of the Company include the results of operations of CSIBF through August 31, 2005, the date CSIBF was distributed to shareholders. The results are presented in discontinued operations.

CONSOLIDATION AND PRESENTATION

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its subsidiaries. All significant inter-company balances and transactions have been eliminated.

Since Corporate Strategies is the surviving entity of the reverse merger, the financial statements include the results of operations since the merger (August 31, 2005) for NuWave and its consolidated subsidiaries, and the operations of Corporate Strategies since its inception.

NOTE 2 -SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

REVENUE RECOGNITION

The Company's revenue recognition policies are in compliance with Staff Accounting Bulletin 104. Revenue is recognized at the date a formal arrangement exists, the price is fixed or determinable, the delivery is complete, no other significant obligation of the Company exists and collectibility is reasonably assured.

Revenues from sales of real estate are recorded when title is conveyed to the buyer, adequate cash payment has been received and there is no continued involvement. One of our subsidiaries holding real estate was sold in February 2006.

Commission income from the brokering of loans is recognized when all of the services required to be performed for such revenues have been completed. Incremental direct costs include credit reports appraisal fees, document preparation fees, wire fees, filing fees, and commissions, and are included in operating expenses, net of reimbursements. The mortgage brokerage subsidiary was sold in December 2005, and the results are included in discontinued operations.

Discount income from purchased receivables represents a percentage of the purchased invoice. The discount percentage earned is determined by the number of days the invoice is outstanding.

Consulting revenue is recognized as services are performed.

Marketable securities gains (losses) is both trading gains or losses and the change in market value of the trading securities owned by the Company, including related puts and calls, in accordance with Financial Accounting Standard 115 "Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities."

Lease agreements, under which the Company recovers substantially all its investment from the minimum lease payments are accounted for as finance leases. At lease commencement, the Company records a minimum lease payment receivable and unearned lease income. The remaining unearned income is recognized as revenue over the term of receivables using the interest method. The leasing subsidiary was distributed to shareholders in August 2005, and the results are included in discontinued operations.

USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

For purposes of the consolidated statement of cash flows, the Company considers all short-term securities purchased with a maturity date of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

COLLECTIBILITY OF ACCOUNTS AND NOTES RECEIVABLE

The accounts and notes receivable are reviewed monthly for aging and quarterly credit evaluation of the customer's financial condition to determine collectibility. Write-offs or an increase in the allowance for doubtful accounts are made based on this evaluation. The allowance for doubtful accounts was approximately $0 and $138,000 for the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005, respectively.

FIXED ASSETS

Fixed assets are stated at cost. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over estimated useful lives of three to five years. Leasehold improvements are amortized on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the useful life of the improvement or the term of the lease.

When assets are retired or otherwise disposed of, the cost and related accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts, and any resulting gain or loss is recognized in operations for the period. The cost of maintenance and repairs is charged to expense as incurred; significant renewals and betterments are capitalized.

LAND HELD FOR DEVELOPMENT AND SALE

Land held for development and sale is stated at the seller's historical cost basis, plus the costs of improvements. The subsidiary holding the land was sold in February 2006.

INTEREST CAPITALIZATION

The Company follows SFAS No. 34, "Capitalization of Interest Costs", which provides for the capitalization of interest as part of the historical cost of acquiring certain assets. Interest is capitalized on assets that require a period of time to get them ready for their intended use, such as real estate development projects. Interest is capitalized from the period activities begin, such as planning and permitting, until such time as the project is complete. Interest costs include interest recognized on obligations having explicit rates, as well as the amortization of discounts that result from imputing interest on convertible debentures over the life of the obligation. Interest is capitalized on only the net book value of the land and improvements, net of the discount recorded on the acquisition of the land. Interest on specific borrowings associated with the land, that are in excess of its net book value are expensed as incurred.

IMPAIRMENT OF LONG-LIVED ASSETS

The Company periodically assesses the recoverability of long-lived assets, including property and equipment, and the investment in the real estate partnership, when there are indications of potential impairment, based on estimates of undiscounted future cash flows. The amount of impairment is calculated by comparing anticipated discounted future cash flows with the carrying value of the related asset. In performing this analysis, management considers such factors as current results, trends, and future prospects, in addition to other economic factors.

DERIVATIVE FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Derivatives are accounted for in accordance with SFAS 133 and EITF No. 00-19, "Accounting for Derivative Financial Instruments Indexed to, and Potentially Settled in, a Company's Own Stock."

FAIR VALUE DISCLOSURE AT DECEMBER 31, 2006

The carrying value of cash, notes and accounts receivable, accounts payable, accrued liabilities and notes payable are reasonable estimates of their fair value because of short-term maturity.

INCOME TAXES

The Company accounts for income taxes under SFAS No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes," which requires an asset and liability approach to financial accounting and reporting for income taxes. The difference between the financial statement and tax basis of assets and liabilities is determined annually. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are computed for those differences that have future tax consequences using the currently enacted tax laws and rates that apply to the periods in which they are expected to affect taxable income. Valuation allowances are established, if necessary, to reduce the deferred tax asset to the amount that will assure full realization. Income tax expense is the current tax payable or refundable for the period plus or minus the net change in the deferred tax assets and liabilities.

ADVERTISING

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred. Advertising expense on continuing operations was $120,155 and $58,622 for the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005, respectively.

NET INCOME (LOSS) PER SHARE

Basic income (loss) per share is computed by dividing the net income (loss) available to common shareholders by the weighted average of common shares outstanding during the year. Diluted per share amounts assume the conversion, exercise, or issuance of all potential common stock instruments unless the effect is anti-dilutive, thereby reducing the loss or increasing the income per share.

RECLASSIFICATIONS

The accompanying consolidated financial statements for prior years contain certain reclassifications to conform with current year presentation.

F-12

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In June 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued FASB Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes ("FIN 48"). FIN 48 clarifies the application of SFAS No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes, by establishing a threshold condition that a tax position must meet for any part of the benefit of that position to be recognized in the financial statements. In addition to recognition, FIN 48 provides guidance concerning measurement, derecognition, classification and disclosure of tax positions. FIN 48 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2006; accordingly, the Company will adopt FIN 48 effective as of January 1, 2007. The Company does not anticipate that the adoption of FIN 48 will have a material impact on its effective tax rate.

In September 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued FASB Staff Position ("FSP") AUG AIR-1 — Accounting for Planned Major Maintenance Activities. FSP AUG AIR-1 prohibits the use of the accrue-in-advance method of accounting for planned major maintenance activities because it results in the recognition of a liability in a period prior to the occurrence of the transaction or event obligating the entity. FSP AUG AIR-1 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2006 and its guidance is applicable to entities in all industries. The Company will adopt the guidance in FSP AUG-AIR-1 as of January 1, 2007. The Company does not believe the adoption of this guidance will have an impact on its financial position and results of operations.

In September 2006, the Securities and Exchange Commission staff issued Staff Accounting Bulletin ("SAB") No. 108, Considering the Effects of Prior Year Misstatements when Quantifying Misstatements in Current Year Financial Statements. SAB 108 provides guidance on how the effects of the carryover or reversal of prior year misstatements should be considered in quantifying a current year misstatement. SAB 108 established a dual approach that requires quantification of errors under two methods: (1) roll-over method which quantifies the amount by which the current year income statement is misstated, and (2) the iron curtain method which quantifies the error as the cumulative amount by which the current year balance sheet is misstated. In some situations, companies will be required to record errors that occurred in prior years even though those errors were immaterial for each year in which they arose. Companies may choose to either restate all previously presented financial statements or record the cumulative effect of such errors as an adjustment to retained earnings at the beginning of the period in which SAB 108 is applied. SAB 108 is effective for fiscal years ending after November 15, 2006. The adoption of this pronouncement did not have an impact on the Company's financial position or results of operations.

In September 2006, the FASB issued SFAS No. 157, Fair Value Measurements ("SFAS 157"), which is intended to increase consistency and comparability in fair value measurements by defining fair value, establishing a framework for measuring fair value and expanding disclosures about fair value measurements. SFAS 157 is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007, and interim periods within those fiscal years. The Company will adopt SFAS 157 on January 1, 2008, and has not yet determined the impact, if any, on its consolidated financial statements.

NOTE 3 - INCOME (LOSS) PER COMMON SHARE

In accordance with the Financial Accounting Standards Board (the "FASB") Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 128 ("SFAS 128"), "Earnings per Share", basic earnings per share are computed based on the weighted average shares of common stock outstanding during the periods. Diluted earnings per share are computed based on the weighted average shares of common stock plus the assumed issuance of common stock for all potentially dilutive securities.

Edgar Filing: Turnaround Partners, Inc. - Form 10KSB

The computations for basic and diluted net income (loss) per share consist of the following:

	Twelve Months Ended December 31,
	2006	2005
Income (loss) from continuing operations	$ 1,623,356	$ (4,064,161)
Less effect of derivatives, preferred stock and convertible debenture	-	-
Adjusted income (loss) from continuing operations	$ 1,623,356	$ (4,064,161)
Income (loss) from discontinued operations	(4,688)	(218,102)
Gain on sale of subsidiary	3,317,406	61,020
Net income (loss)	$ 4,936,074	$ (4,221,243)
Basic weighted average shares	25,505,662	20,863,605
Effect of dilutive securities:
Series B preferred stock	4,195,445	-
Series D preferred stock	68,710,842	-
Diluted weighted average shares	98,411,949	20,863,605
Income (loss) per share:
Basic:
Income (loss) from continuing operations	$ 0.06	$ (0.20)
Income (loss) from discontinued operations	0.13	(0.01)
Net income (loss)	$ 0.19	$ (0.21)
Diluted:
Income (loss) from continuing operations	$ 0.02	$ (0.20)
Income (loss) from discontinued operations	0.03	(0.01)
Net Income (loss)	$ 0.05	$ (0.21)

(1) A weighted average year-to-date number of Convertible Debentures to convert into 51,383,109 shares of common stock were outstanding during the twelve months ended December 31, 2006, but were not included in the computation of diluted per share net income for the twelve months ended December 31, 2006 because they were anti-dilutive. All potential dilutive shares were excluded from the computation of diluted earnings per share for the year ended December 31, 2005 because they were anti-dilutive. In addition there were 3,000,000 warrants that were not included because of their anti-dilutive effect.

NOTE 4 - CONCENTRATIONS OF CREDIT RISK AND MAJOR CUSTOMERS

Financial instruments, which potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist principally of cash, accounts and notes receivable and marketable securities. The Company maintains its cash accounts in high quality FDIC insured banks in Texas and in money market brokerage accounts. The Company's accounts receivables consist of receivables for consulting from companies located in the United States. The Company performs ongoing credit evaluations of its customers' financial conditions to ensure collections and minimize losses. The Company reduces its credit risk relating to marketable securities through diversification of marketable securities held.

For the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005, the Company had sales as a percent of annual revenues from continuing operations to the following customers:

	2006	2005
Customer A	--%	26
Customer B	31%	10%
Customer C	25%	--
Customer D	19%	21%

No other customers accounted for more than 10% of revenue during the year.

NOTE 5 - CONCENTRATION OF TRANSACTIONS WITH CORNELL CAPITAL PARTNERS, L. P.

At December 31, 2006, $7,925,000 of the convertible debentures are owed to Cornell Capital Partners, L.P. ("Cornell") and Highgate House Funds, Ltd., an affiliate of Cornell.

NOTE 7 - INVESTMENT IN MARKETABLE SECURITIES

Investments in marketable securities primarily include shares of common stock in various companies. The investments are considered trading securities, and accordingly any changes in market value are reflected in the consolidated statement of operations. At December 31, 2006 and 2005, the Company had unrealized gains (losses) of ($158,809) and $27,930, respectively, related to marketable securities held on those dates. These unrealized gains and losses are included in the consolidated statements of operations for the respective years.

Investments include shares of common stock in companies which do not have a readily determinable fair market value and are accounted for using the cost method. Once a quarter, the financial statements, operations and any other information needed to evaluate these investments are reviewed to determine if an impairment needs to be recorded. At December 31, 2006, the Company had $82,673 of investment in preferred stock carried at cost.

NOTE 8 - ACQUISITION OF KIPLING HOLDINGS, INC.

On September 30, 2006, we completed a stock purchase agreement (the "Agreement") to acquire 100% of the total issued and outstanding capital stock of Kipling Holdings, Inc. ("Kipling"), a Delaware corporation from Timothy J. Connolly in consideration of (a) our assumption of all of the liabilities of Kipling, subject to certain consents, (b) certain anti-dilution rights as set forth in the Agreement and (c) all legal and other costs and expenses incurred by Kipling in consideration with this Agreement. Mr. Connolly serves as CEO of Turnaround and therefore (i) Turnaround obtained a third party appraisal of the Company which valued the acquired assets at Two Million Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($2,250,000) more than the liabilities assumed and (ii) Turnaround's other (disinterested) Board member and CFO reviewed and approved this affiliate transaction. Mr. Connolly received no profit from this affiliated transaction. Because this transaction was between parties under common control, we recorded the $3,313,264 of consideration in excess of Mr. Connolly's original cost basis as a deemed distribution to Mr. Connolly. The Agreement had been subject to the written consent of Highgate House Funds, Ltd. ("Highgate"), which the Company and Highgate reduced to writing effective as of September 30, 2006. Kipling primarily provides capital for investments in the hospitality industry. Kipling, at December 31, 2006, owned a thirty percent interest in a Hilton hotel under construction in West Palm Beach, Florida. Since the purchase was effective on September 30, 2006 the Company did not record any revenue or expenses during the nine months ended September 30, 2006. The loss for the period, October 1 through December 31, 2006 had been included in the statement of operations.

In a separate agreement with an individual, the Company issued an additional 2,000,000 shares and 3,000,000 warrants ($0.05 per warrant) in consideration of the individual's surrender of his option, rights or other interests whatsoever to purchase any capital stock of Kipling Holdings, Inc. The Company has valued these 2,000,000 shares at $140,000. The Company used the closing price of $0.07 per share on September 30, 2006, the date of contract execution, as the value assigned to these shares. This expense is included as merger expense for the twelve months ended December 31, 2006. The Company has valued the 3,000,000 warrants in the amount of $141,000 using the Black Sholes method and is amortized over the term of the agreement.

Assets and liabilities acquired in the acquisition

The Company has a thirty percent limited partnership interest in Worthington Hospitality, L.L.P. (Worthington) totaling $4,500,000. The investment was funded on December 7, 2005. The partnership currently has a Hilton hotel, which became operational in February 2007, in West Palm Beach, Florida. The partnership agreement provides for a preferential return of seven percent per annum on the capital contributions funded by the investors until such time as the hotel/partnership secures a temporary or permanent certificate of occupancy, at which time the preferential return shall cease to accrue. As of September 30, 2006, the $4,500,000 Investment in Worthington has been reduced by $257,825 for the preferential return on capital and $98,336 for the cumulative partnership loss through September 30, 2006. The Company will receive thirty percent of any monetary amounts paid out by the partnership and will be allocated thirty percent of all operating profits, non-operating profits and losses of the partnership.

Worthington started its operations September 14, 2005. At December 31, 2006 Worthington had a book value of $3,930,656 consisting of cash, land, building, furniture and fixtures, equipment and other assets of $12,570,302 and accounts payable and debt of $8,639,646. Another limited partner of Worthington is committed by terms of the partnership agreement to fund the additional $9,000,000 necessary to complete the construction and begin operation of the hotel.

The general partner has exclusive responsibility for management of the partnership including the power to sell the hotel and land. Limited partners have no right or authority to conduct partnership business. The partnership agreement provides that, without the unanimous consent of the limited partners, the general partner cannot transfer less than 100% of the partnership interests. If the general partner decides to transfer 100% of the partnership interest in an “arm’s-length” transaction, he may require all of the partners to transfer all of their respective interest. Limited partners are not responsible for the expenses, liabilities or obligations of the partnership except as expressly assumed or guaranteed.

This investment is accounted for using the equity method. Upon completion of the hotel’s construction, the Company will calculate the difference between the book value of the investment and the underlying equity in the net assets per the Partnership and will appropriately account for such difference.

Debenture Payable from the acquisition

F-16

The Company is the issuer of a $6,225,000 Secured Convertible Debenture (“the Debenture”) payable to Highgate House Funds, Ltd (“Holder”), dated December 2, 2005. The shares of common stock issuable by the Company to the investor upon conversion of shares of the Debentures will not be registered initially under the Securities Act of 1933. The Company is obligated to register the resale of the conversion shares under the Securities and Exchange Act, pursuant to the terms of the Investor Registration Rights Agreement dated December 2, 2005. The Registration Rights Agreement called for the Company to register the underlying securities no later than 180 after the execution of the Debenture agreement (this requirement has been extended to June 30, 2007) and use its best efforts to have the Initial Registration statement declared effective by the SEC no later than ninety days after the date filed.

Per the original agreement, in the event the Registration Statement is not filed by December 6, 2006 or is not declared effective within ninety days of the filing date, the Company will pay liquidated damages, to the Holder, a cash amount equal to two percent per month of the outstanding principal amount of the Debenture outstanding. The holder has verbally agreed to extend the registration filing requirement date to June 30, 2007.

The debenture is secured by all of the assets and property of the Company including the investment in Worthington.

These embedded derivatives have been bifurcated from their respective host debt contracts and accounted for as derivative liabilities in accordance with EITF 00-19. When multiple derivatives exist within the Convertible Notes, they have been bundled together as a single hybrid compound instrument in accordance with SFAS No. 133 Derivatives Implementation Group Implementation Issue No. B-15, "Embedded Derivatives: Separate Accounting for Multiple Derivative Features Embedded in a Single Hybrid Instrument."

The embedded derivatives within the Convertible Notes have been recorded at fair value at the date of issuance; and are marked-to-market each reporting period with changes in fair value recorded to the Company's income statement as "Net change in fair value of derivative liabilities." The Company has utilized a third party valuation firm to fair value the embedded derivatives using a layered discounted probability-weighted cash flow approach.

The fair value of the derivative liabilities are subject to the changes in the trading value of the Company's common stock, as well as other factors. As a result, the Company's financial statements may fluctuate from quarter-to-quarter based on factors, such as the price of the Company's stock at the balance sheet date and the amount of shares converted by note holders. Consequently, our financial position and results of operations may vary from quarter-to-quarter based on conditions other than our operating revenues and expenses.

DERIVATIVE VALUATIONS

The fair value model utilized to value the various embedded derivatives in the convertible notes, comprises multiple probability-weighted scenarios under various assumptions reflecting the economics of the Convertible Debentures, such as the risk-free interest rate, expected Company stock price and volatility, likelihood of conversion and or redemption, and likelihood default status and timely registration. At inception, the fair value of this single compound embedded derivative was bifurcated from the host debt contract and recorded as a derivative liability which resulted in a reduction of the initial notional carrying amount of the Convertible Debentures (as unamortized discount which will be amortized over the term of the note under the effective interest method).

The following is a summary of the Convertible Debentures and the adjustments made based on the embedded derivatives:

The Company accounts for modifications to debt instruments based on the accounting guidance found in EITF 96-19, Debtor's Accounting for a Modification or Exchange of Debt Instruments. Several of the convertible notes were modified in November, 2005 to extend the maturity to January 31, 2007. These convertible notes were further modified in January, 2007 to extend the maturity to June 30, 2007. The current authorized capital stock of the Company consists of Five Billion (5,000,000,000) shares of Common Stock, par value $0.001 per share, Four Hundred Thousand (400,000) shares of Series A convertible preferred, par value $.01 per share, One Hundred Thousand (100,000) shares each of convertible Series B and D Preferred, par value $.01 per share and One Thousand (1,000) non-voting shares of Series C Preferred, par value $0.01 per share. As of December 31, 2006, 29,447,504 shares of Common Stock, Six thousand six hundred and sixty-six (6,666) shares of Series B Preferred, two hundred forty-nine (249) shares of Series C Preferred and seven hundred (700) shares of Series D Preferred stock were issued and outstanding. The following description is a summary of the capital stock and contains the material terms of voting capital stock.

Each share of Common Stock entitles the holder to one (1) vote on each matter submitted to a vote of our shareholders, including the election of Directors. There is no cumulative voting. Subject to preferences that may be applicable to any outstanding preferred stock, Shareholders are entitled to receive ratably such dividends, if any, as may be declared from time to time by the Board of Directors. Shareholders have no preemptive, conversion or other subscription rights.

The Company is authorized to issue two billion (2,000,000,000) shares of preferred stock. The holder of the Company's Series B Preferred is entitled to convert into 4,195,445 shares of common stock and is entitled to cast votes equal to these shares on all matters submitted to the shareholders. The series C preferred shares have no voting rights, except as required under Nevada general corporation law. We have 249 shares of Series C preferred stock outstanding. The stock has a liquidation preference of $373,500 and is redeemable at $1,500 per share at the Company's option. Dividends are cumulative and accrue at the rate of $120 per share per year. Although the Series C stock is redeemable at the option of the Company, the holder of these shares is our Chairman of the Board of Directors. Since these shares are held by our Chairman, who effectively has control of the redemption, we have classified our Series C preferred stock, and associated paid in capital, as a liability in accordance with EITF Topic No. D-98 "Classification and Measurement of Redeemable Securities".

Pursuant to the purchase of our interest in Kipling Holdings, Inc. ("Kipling") as fully described in Item 6, and effective September 25, 2006, the Board of Directors approved the designation of Series D convertible preferred stock (the "Series D"), par value of $0.01, to consist of up to One Hundred Thousand (100,000) shares. As a result of the Kipling purchase, on December 31, 2006, the Board of Directors reduced the 93,334 shares of then outstanding Series D owned by our CEO, Timothy J. Connolly, and his spouse to Seven Hundred (700) shares of Series D. The Series D ranks pari passu with the common stock of the Company on an "as converted" basis, and senior to the Company's Series A, B and C preferred stock. The holders of the Series D are entitled to receive dividends or distributions on a pro rata basis when and if dividends are declared on our Common Stock, but with no liquidation preference. Each share of the Series D may be convertible, at the option of the holder, at any time and from time to time after December 31, 2006 through December 31, 2010, into that number of shares of Common Stock equal to the greater of (a) one tenth of one percent (0.1%) of the total number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding as of the last day of the fiscal quarter immediately preceding such date of conversion, calculated on a fully diluted basis after giving effect to the conversion of such share(s) of Series D and (b) One Hundred Thousand (100,000) shares of Common Stock. Each share of Series D Preferred Stock held by the Holders which has not been converted on or before December 31, 2010 into shares of Common Stock shall be convertible, at the option of the Holder of such share, at any time and from time to time after December 31, 2010 into one tenth of one percent (0.1%) of the total number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding on December 31, 2010, calculated on a fully diluted basis after giving effect to the conversion of such share(s) of Series D Preferred Stock. The shares of Common Stock received upon conversion shall be fully paid and non-assessable shares of Common Stock.

NOTE 16 - STANDBY EQUITY DISTRIBUTION AGREEMENT

The Company entered into a Standby Equity Distribution Agreement "SEDA " with Cornell under which the Company may, at its discretion, periodically sell to Cornell registered shares of the Company's common stock for a total purchase price of up to $30 million. For each share of common stock purchased under the SEDA, Cornell will pay the Company 99% of the volume weighted average price on the Over-the-Counter Bulletin Board or other principal market on which its common stock is traded for the 5 days immediately following the notice date. Further, Cornell will retain a fee of 10% of each advance under the SEDA. Pursuant to the terms of the SEDA, the Company is restricted from raising capital from the sale of securities at a price less than the market price of the Company's common stock on the date of issuance or granting additional security interests in the Company's assets.

The amount of each advance is limited to a maximum draw down of $1,000,000 every 7 trading days up to a maximum of $4,000,000 in any 30-day period. The amount available under the SEDA is not dependent on the price or volume of the Company's common stock. The Company's ability to request advances is conditioned upon the Company having enough shares of common stock registered pursuant to the SEC rules and regulations. In addition, the Company may not request advances if the shares to be issued in connection with such advances would result in Cornell owning more than 4.9% of the Company's outstanding common stock.

NOTE 17 - RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Turnaround Partners, Inc. and Natural Nutrition, Inc. are two separate public entities that are under common control. This common control has the potential for altering operating results or financial position in a manner significantly different from those that would have been obtained if the entities were autonomous. Common management has developed certain controls to minimize potential conflicts by segregating types of transactions between the two entities, and limiting transactions between the two entities to those contractually permitted.

NOTE 19 - SEGMENT REPORTING

The Company had four segments: business services (which consists of turnaround execution services, management restructuring services, and business development services) and real estate development which were continuing at December 31, 2005, and mortgage brokerage, previously through its 85% owned subsidiary, Aim American Mortgage, Inc., (Aim was sold on December 31, 2005.), and equipment leasing and business finance, through its wholly owned subsidiary, CSI Business Finance, Inc. NOTE 20 - NEXUS NANO ELECTRONICS TRANSACTIONS

As part of a restructuring consulting arrangement, the Company received 70% of the then outstanding stock of Nexus Nano Electronics, Inc. ("Nexus") for a nominal price ($100), in order to exercise temporary control. A major creditor has indicated their intent to convert indebtedness into stock, and the plan is for Nexus to issue additional shares to satisfy this indebtedness, which would equal approximately 85% of the common stock ownership of Nexus. This fact and the indicated future conversion of $8.5 million of convertible debt and preferred stock outstanding, is expected to result in a change of majority control of Nexus. Nexus has a history of operating losses, and future profitability depends on the success of restructuring. Based on temporary control, the minimal investment with no commitments for additional capital from the Company, and the history of significant losses, the Company has determined it is appropriate to treat Nexus as an investment, recorded under the equity method. Accordingly, Nexus is not consolidated in the accompanying financial statements.

NOTE 21 - SUBSEQUENT EVENTS - UNAUDITED

On December 7, 2005 the Company executed an unsecured convertible promissory note to Robjay Worthington, L.L.L.P., ("Worthington") a Florida Limited Liability Limited Partnership (Borrower), in the principal sum of $900,000 at a three percent interest rate and term not to exceed ten years. Interest is payable quarterly at the Borrower's option. The note provides a feature allowing the Company to convert the entire note into a five percent limited partnership interest in Worthington Hospitality, L.L.L.P. The conversion privilege period is January 2, 2007 to April 2, 2007. On January 2, 2007, the Company notified the borrower that we intended to convert the December 7, 2005 Promissory

Note in the principal amount of $900,000 into a 5% limited partnership interest in Worthington. We received acknowledgement of the conversion from Worthington on January 17, 2007.
