ABOUT THE MEETING

What is being considered at the meeting?

You will be voting for:

- An amendment to our articles of incorporation; and
- The transaction of such other and further business as may properly come before the meeting.

Who is soliciting your proxy?

Your proxy is being solicited by our board of directors.

Who is entitled to vote at the meeting?

You may vote if you owned stock as of the close of business on September 4, 2007, which is the record date for determining who is eligible to vote at the special meeting. Each share of common stock is entitled to one vote.

How do I vote?

You can vote either by attending the meeting and voting at the meeting or by completing, signing and returning the enclosed proxy card.

Can I change my mind after I vote?

Yes, you may change your mind at any time before the polls close at the meeting. You can change your vote by signing another proxy with a later date and returning it to us prior to the meeting or by voting again at the meeting. If your stock is held in a brokerage account, you must provide your broker with instructions as to any changes in the voting instructions which you previously provide to your broker.

What if I sign and return my proxy card but I do not include voting instructions?

If you sign your proxy card and return it to us but you do not include voting instructions as to any proposal, your proxy will be voted FOR the amendment to our articles of incorporation.

What does it mean if I receive more than one proxy card?

It means that you have multiple accounts with brokers and/or our transfer agent. Please vote all of these shares. We recommend that you contact your broker and/or our transfer agent to consolidate as many accounts as possible under the same name and address. Our transfer agent is Florida Atlantic Stock Transfer, Inc., 7130 Nob Hill Road, Tamarac, FL 33321.

Will my shares be voted if I do not provide my proxy?

If you hold your stock in a brokerage account, you must give your broker instructions as to how you wish your shares to be voted on the amendment to our articles of incorporation. If you do not instruct your broker how to vote your shares, your shares will NOT be voted for or against the amendment to our articles of incorporation. Your broker cannot vote in favor of or against the amendment to our articles of incorporation without your express instructions. Because the approval of the amendment to our articles of incorporation requires the approval of the holders of a majority of our outstanding shares of common stock, an abstention or non-vote is equivalent to a vote against the proposal.

If you hold your shares directly in your own name, they will not be voted if you neither sign and deliver a proxy nor attend and vote at the meeting.

How many votes must be present to hold the meeting?

In order for us to conduct our meeting, we must have a quorum. We will have a quorum, and be able to conduct the meeting, if a majority of our outstanding shares as of September 4, 2007, are present at the meeting. Your shares will be counted as being present at the meeting if you attend the meeting or if you properly return a proxy by mail or if you give your broker voting instructions and the broker votes your shares.

On September 4, 2007, we had 57,965,000 shares of common stock issued and outstanding. This number of shares does not include treasury stock.

What vote is required to approve the matters being brought before the meeting?

The proposal to approve an amendment to our articles of incorporation requires the approval of a majority of our outstanding shares of common stock. Based on the 57,965,000 shares of common stock outstanding on the record date, we need the affirmative vote of the holders of 28,982,501 shares of common stock. Mr. Xiqun Yu, our chief executive officer, owns 38,050,000 shares of common stock, representing 65.6% of the outstanding stock. Mr. Yu has agreed to vote in favor of the amendment to our articles of incorporation.

Who is paying the cost of the meeting?

The proxies being solicited hereby are being solicited by our company. The company will bear the entire cost of solicitation of proxies, including preparation, assembly, printing and mailing of this Proxy Statement, the Proxy card and any additional information furnished to stockholders. Copies of solicitation materials will be furnished to banks, brokerage houses, fiduciaries and custodians holding in their names shares of common stock beneficially owned by others to forward to such beneficial owners. Our officers and regular employees may, but without compensation other than their regular compensation, solicit proxies by further mailing or personal conversations, or by telephone, telex, facsimile or electronic means. We will, upon request, reimburse brokerage firms and others for their reasonable expenses in forwarding solicitation material to the beneficial owners of stock.

APPROVAL OF AN AMENDMENT TO OUR ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

In May and June 2007, we sold 3% convertible notes in the aggregate principal amount of $3,400,000. The notes automatically convert into 9,189,189 shares of series A preferred stock and warrants to purchase an aggregate of 2,206,897 shares of common stock at $.50 per share, 8,500,000 of common stock at $.69 per share, 2,043,103 shares of common stock at $.80 per share, warrants to purchase an aggregate of 793,103 shares of common stock at $1.00 per share. Pursuant to the agreement with the investors in the private placement, we are required to amend our articles of incorporation to provide for the creation of a class of preferred stock, par value $.001 per share, consisting of 20,000,000 shares with the directors having the right to determine the rights, preferences, privileges and limitation of the holders of one or more series of preferred stock, and the creation of a series of 20,000,000 shares of preferred stock to be designated as the series A preferred stock.

If the noteholders convert the notes before the certificate of amendment is filed with the Secretary of State of the State of North Carolina, the note can be converted into 9,189,189 shares of common stock and warrants to purchase an aggregate of 2,206,897 shares of common stock at $.50 per share, 8,500,000 of common stock at $.69 per share, 2,043,103 shares of common stock at $.80 per share, warrants to purchase an aggregate of 793,103 shares of common stock at $1.00 per share.

If the certificate of amendment amending the articles of incorporation and the certificate of designation setting forth the rights, preferences, privileges and limitation of the holders of the series A preferred stock are not filed by September 30, 2007, the notes may be convertible into the 22,732,293 shares of common stock

The certificate of amendment will be filed with the Secretary of State of the State of North Carolina after the conclusion of the meeting, assuming that the holders of a majority of our outstanding shares of common stock approve the amendment, and the certificate of designation for the series A preferred stock will be filed promptly after the meeting.

The following discussion is a summary of the certificate of amendment, but this summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the certificate of amendment, a copy of which is included as Appendix A to this proxy statement.

We are presently authorized to only issue shares of common stock, par value $.001 per share, and we are not authorized to issue any preferred stock. The certificate of amendment provides for an authorized capital stock of 170,000,000 shares, of which 20,000,000 shares are shares of preferred stock, par value $.001 per share, and 150,000,000 shares are shares of common stock, par value $.001 per share. Our board of directors has broad rights to set the rights, preferences, privileges, limitation and restrictions for one or more series of preferred stock, including the following:

- (i) the designation of such series;
- (ii) the dividend rate of such series, the conditions and dates upon which such dividends shall be payable, the preference or relation which such dividends shall bear to the dividends payable on any other class or classes or of any other series of capital stock, whether such dividends shall be cumulative or non-cumulative, and whether such dividends may be paid in shares of any class or series of capital stock or other securities of the Corporation;
- (iii) whether the shares of such series shall be subject to redemption by the Corporation, and, if made subject to such redemption, the times, prices and other terms and conditions of such redemption;
- (iv) the terms and amount of any sinking fund provided for the purchase or redemption of the shares of such series;
- (v) whether or not the shares of such series shall be convertible into or exchangeable for shares of any other class or classes or series of capital stock or other securities of the Corporation, and, if provision be made for conversion or exchange, the times, prices, rates, adjustment and other terms and conditions of such conversion or exchange;
- (vi) the extent, if any, to which the holders of the shares of such series shall be entitled to vote, as a class or otherwise, with respect to the election of the directors or otherwise, and the number of votes to which the holder of each share of such series shall be entitled;
- (vii) the restrictions, if any, on the issue or reissue of any additional shares or series of Preferred Stock; an (viii) the rights of the holders of the shares of such series upon the dissolution of, or upon the distribution of assets of, the Corporation.

The certificate of amendment will also add the following provision to our articles of incorporation.

“The terms and conditions of any rights, options and warrants approved by the Board of Directors may provide that any or all of such terms and conditions may not be waived or amended or may be waived or amended only with the consent of the holders of a designated percentage of a designated class or classes of capital stock of the Corporation (or a designated group or groups of holders within such class or classes, including but not limited to disinterested holders), and the applicable terms and conditions of any such rights, options or warrants so conditioned may not be waived or amended or may not be waived or amended absent such consent. ”

The adoption of this provision is required by the preferred stock purchase agreement dated May 8, 2007, as amended, between us and the investors in our private placement. Pursuant to that agreement, we issued warrants to an aggregate of 13,543,103 shares of common stock. The warrants provide that, except in the case of a merger, the holders of the warrant may not exercise the warrants to the extent that such exercise would result in the holder, together with the holder's affiliates, owning beneficially more than 4.9% of our outstanding stock. The warrant provides that this provision may not be amended. Beneficial ownership shall be determined in accordance with Section 13(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Regulation 13d-3 thereunder.

The amendment gives us the authority to grant rights, warrants and options which provide that they cannot be amended without the consent a specified percentage of stockholders or classes or groups of stockholders, and such provisions would be prohibit us from amending the rights, warrants and options unless the requisite consent were obtained. With respect to the warrants that were issued pursuant to the preferred stock purchase agreement, the amendment would prohibit us from amending the warrants to remove the 4.9% limitation.

Pursuant to the securities purchase agreement relating to our private placement in May and June 2007, we agreed that we would create a series of preferred stock, to be designated as the series A convertible preferred stock. The following discussion is a summary of the key provisions of the certificate of designation, but this summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the certificate of designation, a copy of which is included as Appendix B to this proxy statement. The certificate of designation provides:

- Each share of series A preferred stock is initially convertible into one share of common stock without the payment of any additional consideration. The conversion ratio is subject to adjustment as described below.
- If, while investors in the private placement own shares of series A preferred stock, we issue common stock at a price, or options, warrants or other convertible securities with a conversion or exercise price less than the conversion price (initially $.37), with certain specified exceptions, the number of shares issuable upon conversion of one share of series A preferred stock is adjusted to reflect a conversion price equal to the lower price.
- No dividends are payable with respect to the series A preferred stock.
- While the series A preferred stock is outstanding, we may not pay dividends on or redeem shares of common stock.
- Upon any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding-up, the holders of the series A preferred stock are entitled to a preference of $.37 per share before any distributions or payments may be made with respect to the common stock or any other class or series of capital stock which is junior to the series A preferred stock upon voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding-up.
- The holders of the series A preferred stock have no voting rights. However, as long as any shares of series A preferred stock are outstanding, we shall not, without the affirmative approval of the holders of 75% of the outstanding shares of series A preferred stock then outstanding, (a) alter or change adversely the powers, preferences or rights given to the series A preferred stock or alter the certificate of designation, (b) authorize or create any class of stock ranking as to dividends or distribution of assets upon liquidation senior to or otherwise pari passu with the series A preferred stock, or any of preferred stock possessing greater voting rights or the right to convert at a more favorable price than the series A preferred stock, (c) amend its certificate of incorporation or other charter documents in breach of any of the provisions of the certificate of designation, (d) increase the authorized number of shares of series A preferred stock, or (e) enter into any agreement with respect to the foregoing.

- The holders of the series A preferred stock may not convert the series A preferred stock to the extent that such conversion would result in the holders owning more than 4.9% of the outstanding Common Stock. This limitation may not be amended or waived.

The certificate of amendment will also effect a one-for three reverse split in our common stock. As a result of the reverse split, each share of common stock becomes and is converted into one-third share of common stock, with stockholders who would receive a fractional share to receive such additional fractional share as will result in the holder having a whole number of shares.

This provision will effect a reverse stock pursuant to which each three currently outstanding shares of Common Stock (the "Old Shares") would be automatically converted into one share of Common Stock (the "New Shares"). The reverse stock split is intended to increase the per share stock price. We believe that if we are successful in maintaining a higher stock price, the stock will generate greater interest among professional investors and institutions. If we are successful in generating interest among such entities, we anticipated that the shares of our common stock would have greater liquidity and a stronger investor base. We can give no assurance that the market price of the New Shares will rise, if at all, in proportion to the ratio of the reverse stock split. The New Shares issued pursuant to the reverse stock split will be fully paid and non-assessable. All New Shares will have the same par value, voting rights and other rights as Old Shares. Our stockholders do not have preemptive rights to acquire additional shares of common stock.

The one for three reverse stock split is being effectuated by reducing the number of issued and outstanding shares at the ratio of three to one. As a result of the reverse split, the number of shares of common stock will decrease from 57,965,000 shares to approximately 19,321,666. Since additional fractional shares are being issued in order to round up fractional shares, we do not know the exact number of shares of common stock that will be outstanding after the reverse split.

The reverse stock split will not alter any shareholder's percentage interest in our equity, except to the extent that the reverse stock split results in any of our shareholders owning a fractional share, which will be rounded up to the next higher whole number of shares..

In addition, commencing with the effective date of the reverse stock split, all outstanding options and warrants entitling the holders thereof to purchase shares of our common stock will entitle the holders to receive, upon exercise of their options or warrants, 1/3 of the number of shares of the Company's common stock which such holders may purchase upon exercise of their options or warrants at an exercise price that is three times the exercise price prior to the reverse split.

At August 16, 2007, there were outstanding options and warrants to purchase 15,623,103 shares of common stock at exercise prices ranging from $1.00 to $0.50.

As a result of the reverse split which we expect will become effective almost contemporaneously with the filing of the certificate of amendment that effects the reverse split, the notes will be automatically adjusted to give effect to the reverse split, as follows: The notes automatically convert into 9,189,189 shares of series A preferred stock and warrants to purchase an aggregate of 735,632 shares of common stock at $1.50 per share, 2,833,333 shares of common stock at $2.07 per share, 681,034 shares of common stock at $2.60 per share, warrants to purchase an aggregate of 264,368 shares of common stock at $3.00 per share.

We believe that the federal income tax consequences of the reverse stock split to holders of common stock will be as follows:

(i) Except as explained in (v) below with respect to fractional shares, no income gain or loss will be recognized by a shareholder on the surrender of the current shares or receipt of the certificate representing new post-split shares.

(ii) Except as explained in (v) below with respect to fractional shares, the tax basis of the New Shares will equal the tax basis of the Old Shares exchanged therefore.

(iii) Except as explained in (v) below, the holding period of the New Shares will include the holding period of the Old Shares if such Old Shares were held as capital assets.

(iv) The conversion of the Old Shares into the New Shares will produce no taxable income or gain or loss to us.

(v) The federal income tax treatment of the receipt of the additional fractional interest by a shareholder is not clear and may result in tax liability not material in amount in view of the low value of such fractional interest.

Our opinion is not binding upon the Internal Revenue Service or the courts, and there can be no assurance that the Internal Revenue Service or the courts will accept the positions expressed above.

THE ABOVE REFRENCED IS A BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE EFFECT OF FEDERAL INCOME TAXATION UPON THE PARTICIPANTS AND THE COMPANY WITH RESPECT TO THE REVERSE STOCK SPLIT. THIS SUMMARY DOES NOT PURPORT TO BE COMPLETE AND DOES NOT ADDRESS THE FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES TO TAXPAYERS WITH SPECIAL TAX STATUS. IN ADDITION, THIS SUMMARY DOES NOT DISCUSS THE PROVISIONS OF THE INCOME TAX LAWS OF ANY MUNICIPALITY, STATE OR FOREIGN COUNTRY IN WHICH THE PARTICIPANT MAY RESIDE, AND DOES NOT DISCUSS ESTATE, GIFT OR OTHER TAX CONSEQUENCES OTHER THAN INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES. THE COMPANY ADVISES EACH PARTICIPANT TO CONSULT HIS OR HER OWN TAX ADVISOR REGARDING THE TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE REVERSE STOCK SPLIT AND FOR REFERENCE TO APPLICABLE PROVISIONS OF THE CODE.

(a) Conversions at Option of Holder . Each share of Series A Preferred Stock shall be initially convertible (subject to the limitations set forth in Section 6(c)), into such number of shares of Common Stock based on the Conversion Ratio at the option of the Holders, at any time and from time to time from and after the Original Issue Date. Each Notice of Conversion shall specify the number of shares of Series A Preferred Stock to be converted, the number of shares of Series A Preferred Stock owned prior to the conversion at issue, the number of shares of Series A Preferred Stock owned subsequent to the conversion at issue, the stock certificate number and the shares of Series A Preferred Stock represented thereby which are accompanying the Notice of Conversion, and the date on which such conversion is to be effected, which date may not be prior to the date the Holder delivers such Notice of Conversion and the applicable stock certificates to the Company by overnight delivery service (the “Conversion Date”). If no Conversion Date is specified in a Notice of Conversion, the Conversion Date shall be the Trading Day immediately following the date that such Notice of Conversion and applicable stock certificates are received by the Company. The calculations and entries set forth in the Notice of Conversion shall control in the absence of manifest or mathematical error. Shares of Series A Preferred Stock converted into Common Stock in accordance with the terms hereof shall be canceled and may not be reissued. If the Conversion Price is adjusted pursuant to Section 7 or as otherwise provided in this Statement of Designations, the Conversion Ratio shall likewise be adjusted and the new Conversion Ratio shall be determined by multiplying the Conversion Ratio in effect by a fraction, the numerator of which is the Conversion Price in effect before the adjustment and the denominator of which is the new Conversion Price. Thereafter, subject to any further adjustments in the Conversion Price, each share of Series A Preferred Stock shall be initially convertible into Common Stock based on the new Conversion Ratio.

(b) Automatic Conversion Upon Change of Control . Subject to Section 5, all of the outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock shall be automatically converted into the Conversion Shares upon the close of business on the business day immediately preceding the date fixed for consummation of any transaction resulting in a Change of Control of the Company (an “Automatic Conversion Event”). A “Change in Control” means a consolidation or merger of the Company with or into another company or entity in which the Company is not the surviving entity or the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company to another company or entity not controlled by the then existing stockholders of the Company in a transaction or series of transactions. The Company shall not be obligated to issue certificates evidencing the Conversion Shares unless certificates evidencing the shares of Series A Preferred Stock so converted are either delivered to the Company or its transfer agent or the holder notifies the Company or its transfer agent in writing that such certificates have been lost, stolen or destroyed and executes an agreement satisfactory to the Company to indemnify the Company from any loss incurred by it in connection therewith. Upon the conversion of the Series A Preferred Stock pursuant to this Section 6(b), the Company shall promptly send written notice thereof, by hand delivery or by overnight delivery, to the holders of record of all of the Series A Preferred Stock at their addresses then shown on the records of the Company, which notice shall state that certificates evidencing shares of Series A Preferred Stock must be surrendered at the office of the Company (or of its transfer agent for the Common Stock, if applicable).

(c) Beneficial Ownership Limitation . Except as provided in Section 6(b) of this Statement of Designations, which shall apply as stated therein if an Automatic Conversion Event shall occur, the right of the Holder to convert the Series A Preferred Stock shall be subject to the 4.9% Limitation, with the result that Company shall not effect any conversion of the Series A Preferred Stock, and the Holder shall not have the right to convert any portion of the Series A Preferred Stock, to the extent that after giving effect to such conversion, the Holder (together with the Holder’s affiliates), as set forth on the applicable Notice of Conversion, would beneficially own in excess of 4.9% of the number of shares of the Common Stock outstanding immediately after giving effect to such conversion. For the purposes of this Amendment beneficial ownership shall be determined in accordance with Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act, and Regulation 13d-3 thereunder. For purposes of this Section 6(c), in determining the number of outstanding shares of Common Stock, the Holder may rely on the number of outstanding shares of Common Stock as reflected in the most recent of the following: (A) the Company's most recent quarterly reports (Form 10-Q or Form 10-QSB), Annual Reports (Form 10-K or Form 10-KSB), or definitive proxy statement or information statement as filed with the Commission under the Exchange Act, (B) a more recent public announcement by the Company, or (C) any other written notice by the Company or the Company's transfer agent setting forth the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding. Upon the written or oral request of the Holder, the Company shall within two (2) Trading Days confirm orally and in writing to the Holder the number of shares of Common Stock then outstanding. In any case, the number of outstanding shares of Common Stock shall be determined after giving effect to the conversion or exercise of securities of the Company, including the Series A Preferred Stock, by the Holder or its affiliates since the date as of which such number of outstanding shares of Common Stock was publicly reported by the Company. The 4.9% Limitation may be not be waived or amended.

(d) Mechanics of Conversion

(i) Delivery of Certificate Upon Conversion . Except as otherwise set forth herein, not later than three Trading Days after each Conversion Date (the “Share Delivery Date”), the Company shall deliver to the Holder (A) a certificate or certificates which, after the Effective Date, shall be free of restrictive legends and trading restrictions (other than those required by the Purchase Agreement) representing the number of shares of Common Stock being acquired upon the conversion of shares of Series A Preferred Stock, and (B) a bank check in the amount of accrued and unpaid dividends (if the Company has elected or is required to pay accrued dividends in cash). After the Effective Date, the Company shall, upon request of the Holder, deliver any certificate or certificates required to be delivered by the Company under this Section electronically through the Depository Trust Company or another established clearing Company performing similar functions if the Company’s transfer agent has the ability to deliver shares of Common Stock in such manner. If in the case of any Notice of Conversion such certificate or certificates are not delivered to or as directed by the applicable Holder by the third Trading Day after the Conversion Date, the Holder shall be entitled to elect by written notice to the Company at any time on or before its receipt of such certificate or certificates thereafter, to rescind such conversion, in which event the Company shall immediately return the certificates representing the shares of Series A Preferred Stock tendered for conversion.

(ii) Obligation Absolute; Partial Liquidated Damages . The Company’s obligations to issue and deliver the Conversion Shares upon conversion of Series A Preferred Stock in accordance with the terms hereof are absolute and unconditional, irrespective of any action or inaction by the Holder to enforce the same, any waiver or consent with respect to any provision hereof, the recovery of any judgment against any Person or any action to enforce the same, or any setoff, counterclaim, recoupment, limitation or termination, or any breach or alleged breach by the Holder or any other Person of any obligation to the Company or any violation or alleged violation of law by the Holder or any other person, and irrespective of any other circumstance which might otherwise limit such obligation of the Company to the Holder in connection with the issuance of such Conversion Shares. In the event a Holder shall elect to convert any or all of its Series A Preferred Stock, the Company may not refuse conversion based on any claim that such Holder or any one associated or affiliated with the Holder of has been engaged in any violation of law, agreement or for any other reason (other than the inability of the Company to issue shares of Common Stock as a result of the limitation set forth in Section 6(c) hereof) unless an injunction from a court, on notice, restraining and or enjoining conversion of all or part of this Series A Preferred Stock shall have been sought and obtained and the Company posts a surety bond for the benefit of the Holder in the amount of 150% of the Conversion Value of Series A Preferred Stock which is subject to the injunction, which bond shall remain in effect until the completion of arbitration/litigation of the dispute and the proceeds of which shall be payable to such Holder to the extent it obtains judgment. In the absence of an injunction precluding the same, the Company shall issue Conversion Shares or, if applicable, cash, upon a properly noticed conversion. If the Company fails to deliver to the Holder such certificate or certificates pursuant to Section 6(d)(i) within two Trading Days of the Share Delivery Date applicable to such conversion, the Company shall pay to such Holder, in cash, as liquidated damages and not as a penalty, for each $5,000 of Conversion Value of Series A Preferred Stock being converted, $50 per Trading Day (increasing to $100 per Trading Day after three (3) Trading Days and increasing to $200 per Trading Day six (6) Trading Days after such damages begin to accrue) for each Trading Day after the Share Delivery Date until such certificates are delivered. Nothing herein shall limit a Holder’s right to pursue actual damages for the Company’s failure to deliver certificates representing shares of Common Stock upon conversion within the period specified herein and such Holder shall have the right to pursue all remedies available to it hereunder, at law or in equity including, without limitation, a decree of specific performance and/or injunctive relief.

(iii) Compensation for Buy-In on Failure to Timely Deliver Certificates Upon Conversion . If the Company fails to deliver to the Holder such certificate or certificates pursuant to Section 6(d)(i) by a Share Delivery Date, and if after such Share Delivery Date the Holder purchases (in an open market transaction or otherwise) Common Stock to deliver in satisfaction of a sale by such Holder of the Conversion Shares which the Holder was entitled to receive upon the conversion relating to such Share Delivery Date (a “Buy-In”), then the Company shall pay in cash to the Holder the amount by which (x) the Holder's total purchase price (including brokerage commissions, if any) for the Common Stock so purchased exceeds (y) the product of (1) the aggregate number of shares of Common Stock that such Holder was entitled to receive from the conversion at issue multiplied by (2) the price at which the sell order giving rise to such purchase obligation was executed. For example, if the Holder purchases Common Stock having a total purchase price of $11,000 to cover a Buy-In with respect to an attempted conversion of shares of Series A Preferred Stock with respect to which the aggregate sale price giving rise to such purchase obligation is $10,000, under clause (A) of the immediately preceding sentence the Company shall be required to pay the Holder $1,000. The Holder shall provide the Company written notice indicating the amounts payable to the Holder in respect of the Buy-In, together with applicable confirmations and other evidence reasonably requested by the Company. Nothing herein shall limit a Holder's right to pursue any other remedies available to it hereunder, at law or in equity including, without limitation, a decree of specific performance and/or injunctive relief with respect to the Company's failure to timely deliver certificates representing shares of Common Stock upon conversion of the shares of Series A Preferred Stock as required pursuant to the terms hereof.

(iv) Reservation of Shares Issuable Upon Conversion . The Company covenants that it will at all times reserve and keep available out of its authorized and unissued shares of Common Stock solely for the purpose of issuance upon conversion of the Series A Preferred Stock, each as herein provided, free from preemptive rights or any other actual contingent purchase rights of persons other than the Holders, not less than such number of shares of the Common Stock as shall (subject to any additional requirements of the Company as to reservation of such shares set forth in the Purchase Agreement) be issuable (taking into account the adjustments and restrictions of Section 7) upon the conversion of all outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock. The Company covenants that all shares of Common Stock that shall be so issuable shall, upon issue, be duly and validly authorized, issued and fully paid, nonassessable and, if the Conversion Shares Registration Statement is then effective under the Securities Act, registered for public sale in accordance with such Conversion Shares Registration Statement provided that the holder or its broker delivers confirmation to the Company or its transfer agent to the effect that the Conversion Shares have been sold pursuant to such registration statement.

(v) Fractional Shares . Upon a conversion of the Series A Preferred Stock, the Company shall not be required to issue stock certificates representing fractional shares of Common Stock. All fractional shares shall be carried forward and any fractional shares which remain after a Holder converts all of his or her Series A Preferred Stock shall be dropped and eliminated.

(vi) Transfer Taxes . The issuance of certificates for shares of the Common Stock on conversion of the Series A Preferred Stock shall be made without charge to the Holders thereof for any documentary stamp or similar taxes that may be payable in respect of the issue or delivery of such certificate, provided that the Company shall not be required to pay any tax that may be payable in respect of any transfer involved in the issuance and delivery of any such certificate upon conversion in a name other than that of the Holder of such shares of Series A Preferred Stock so converted and the Company shall not be required to issue or deliver such certificates unless or until the person or persons requesting the issuance thereof shall have paid to the Company the amount of such tax or shall have established to the satisfaction of the Company that such tax has been paid.

(vii) Absolute Obligation . Except as expressly provided herein, no provision of this Statement of Designations shall alter or impair the obligation of the Company, which is absolute and unconditional, to pay the liquidated damages (if any) on, the shares of Series A Preferred Stock at the time, place, and rate, and in the coin or currency, herein prescribed.

Any adjustment made pursuant to this Section shall become effective immediately after the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to receive such dividend or distribution and shall become effective immediately after the effective date in the case of a subdivision, combination or re-classification.

(b) Price Adjustment . From and after the Closing Date and until such time as the Investors hold no Securities, except for (i) Exempt Issuances, (ii) issuances covered by Sections 7(a) and 7(c) hereof or (iii) an issuance of Common Stock

For purpose of determining the exercise price of warrants issued by the Company, the price, if any, paid per share for the warrants shall be added to the exercise price of the warrants.

(c) Pro Rata Distributions . If the Company, at any time from and after the Closing Date and as long as the Series A Preferred Stock is outstanding, shall distribute to all holders of Common Stock (and not to Holders) evidences of its indebtedness or assets or rights or warrants to subscribe for or purchase any security, then in each such case the Conversion Price shall be determined by multiplying such Conversion Price in effect immediately prior to the record date fixed for determination of stockholders entitled to receive such distribution by a fraction of which the denominator shall be the VWAP determined as of the record date mentioned above, and of which the numerator shall be such VWAP on such record date less the then fair market value at such record date of the portion of such assets or evidence of indebtedness so distributed applicable to one outstanding share of the Common Stock as determined by the Board of Directors in good faith. In either case the adjustments shall be described in a statement provided to the Holders of the portion of assets or evidences of indebtedness so distributed or such subscription rights applicable to one share of Common Stock. Such adjustment shall be made whenever any such distribution is made and shall become effective immediately after the record date mentioned above.

(d) Calculations . All calculations under this Section 7 shall be made to the nearest cent or the nearest 1/100th of a share, as the case may be. The number of shares of Common Stock outstanding at any given time shall not include shares owned or held by or for the account of the Company or any of its subsidiaries. For purposes of this Section 7, the number of shares of Common Stock deemed to be issued and outstanding as of a given date shall be the sum of the number of shares of Common Stock (excluding treasury shares and shares owned by subsidiaries, if any) actually issued and outstanding.

(e) Notice to Holders.

(f) Exempt Issuance . Notwithstanding the foregoing, no adjustment in the Conversion Price will be made in respect of an Exempt Issuance.

(g) Fundamental Transaction . If, at any time while this Series A Preferred Stock is outstanding, (i) the Company effects any merger or consolidation of the Company with or into another Person, (ii) the Company effects any sale of all or substantially all of its assets in one or a series of related transactions, (iii) any tender offer or exchange offer (whether by the Company or another Person) is completed pursuant to which holders of Common Stock are permitted to tender or exchange their shares for other securities, cash or property, or (iv) the Company effects any reclassification of the Common Stock or any compulsory share exchange pursuant to which the Common Stock is effectively converted into or exchanged for other securities, cash or property (in any such case, a “Fundamental Transaction”), then upon any subsequent conversion of this Series A Preferred Stock, the Holder shall have the right to receive, for each Conversion Share that would have been issuable upon such conversion absent such Fundamental Transaction, the same kind and amount of securities, cash or property as it would have been entitled to receive upon the occurrence of such Fundamental Transaction if it had been, immediately prior to such Fundamental Transaction, the holder of one share of Common Stock (the “Alternate Consideration”). For purposes of any such conversion, the determination of the Conversion Price shall be appropriately adjusted to apply to such Alternate Consideration based on the amount of Alternate Consideration issuable in respect of one share of Common Stock in such Fundamental Transaction, and the Company shall apportion the Conversion Price among the Alternate Consideration in a reasonable manner reflecting the relative value of any different components of the Alternate Consideration. If holders of Common Stock are given any choice as to the securities, cash or property to be received in a Fundamental Transaction, then the Holder shall be given the same choice as to the Alternate Consideration it receives upon any conversion of this Series A Preferred Stock following such Fundamental Transaction. To the extent necessary to effectuate the foregoing provisions, any successor to the Company or surviving entity in such Fundamental Transaction shall file a new Statement of Designations with the same terms and conditions and issue to the Holder new preferred stock consistent with the foregoing provisions and evidencing the Holder’s right to convert such preferred stock into Alternate Consideration. The terms of any agreement pursuant to which a Fundamental Transaction is effected shall include terms requiring any such successor or surviving entity to comply with the provisions of this paragraph (f)(iv) and insuring that this Series A Preferred Stock (or any such replacement security) will be similarly adjusted upon any subsequent transaction analogous to a Fundamental Transaction. Notwithstanding the foregoing or any other provisions of this Statement of Designations, in the event that the agreement relating to a Fundamental Transaction provides for the conversion or exchange of the Series A Preferred Stock into equity or debt securities, cash or other consideration and the agreement is approved by the holders of a majority of the then-outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock, then the holders of the Series A Preferred Stock shall have only the rights set forth in such agreement.
