PROXY STATEMENT

ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Board of Directors of Charlotte Russe Holding, Inc., a Delaware corporation, is soliciting the enclosed proxy card from our stockholders. The proxy will be used at our Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held at 9:00 a.m. on Tuesday, February 8, 2005 at our corporate offices, 4645 Morena Boulevard, San Diego, California 92117.

This proxy statement contains important information regarding our annual meeting. Specifically, it identifies the proposal on which you are being asked to vote, provides information that you may find useful in determining how to vote, and describes voting procedures.

We use several abbreviations in this proxy statement. We refer to our company as Charlotte Russe or the Company. We call our Board of Directors the Board. References to fiscal 2004 mean our 2004 fiscal year, which began on September 28, 2003 and ended on September 25, 2004.

Who May Attend and Vote?

Our Board of Directors is sending this proxy statement on or about January 11, 2005 to all of our stockholders as of the record date, January 3, 2005. Stockholders who owned Charlotte Russe common stock at the close of business on January 3, 2005 are entitled to attend and vote at the annual meeting. On the record date, we had approximately 21,979,753 shares of our common stock issued and outstanding each of which is entitled to one vote. We had 19 record stockholders as of the record date, and we believe our common stock is held by more than 1,400 beneficial owners.

How Do I Vote?

As a stockholder, you have the right to vote on certain business matters affecting our company. The one proposal that will be presented at the annual meeting, and upon which you are being asked to vote, is discussed in the section entitled Proposal One. Each share of Charlotte Russe common stock you own entitles you to one vote. The enclosed proxy card indicates the number of shares you own.

By signing and returning the proxy card according to the enclosed instructions, you are enabling the individuals named on the proxy card (known as proxies) to vote your shares at the meeting in the manner you indicate. We encourage you to sign and return the proxy card even if you plan to attend the meeting. In this way, your shares will be voted even if you are unable to attend the meeting. If you attend the meeting, you may deliver your completed proxy card in person or fill out and return a ballot that will be supplied to you. However, if your shares are held in the name of your broker, bank or other nominee, you must bring a statement or letter from the nominee authorizing you to vote the shares you beneficially own and indicating that you are the beneficial owner of the shares on January 3, 2005, the record date of the meeting.

What Does the Board of Directors Recommend?

If you submit the proxy card but do not indicate your voting instructions, the persons named as proxies on your proxy card will vote in accordance with the recommendations of the Board of Directors. The Board recommends that you vote:

FOR the seven nominees for director identified in Proposal One

Table of Contents

What Vote Is Required for The Proposal?

Consistent with Delaware law and the Company's by-laws, the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to be cast on a particular matter, present in person or represented by proxy, constitutes a quorum as to such matter. The seven nominees for directors who receive the greatest number of votes properly cast (known as a plurality of the votes) will be elected as directors. Funds affiliated with Saunders Karp & Megrue Partners, LLC, which own an aggregate of 5,719,829 shares, intend to vote for each nominee recommended by the Board of Directors.

Shares represented by proxies that indicate an abstention or a broker non-vote (that is, shares represented at the Annual Meeting held by brokers or nominees as to which (i) instructions have not been received from the beneficial owners or persons entitled to vote and (ii) the broker or nominee does not have discretionary voting power on a particular matter) will be counted as shares that are present and entitled to vote on the matter for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum. Shares indicating an abstention and shares indicating a broker non-vote, however, will not constitute votes cast at the meeting and thus will have no effect on the outcome.

May I Change My Vote After I Return My Proxy Card?

Yes. Any stockholder has the right to revoke his or her proxy at any time before it is voted by: (1) attending the meeting and voting in person; (2) by filing with our Secretary a written instrument revoking the proxy; or (3) delivering to our Secretary another newly executed proxy bearing a later date.

Table of ContentsPROPOSAL ONE: ELECTION OF DIRECTORS*The Board of Directors

Under our current certificate of incorporation and by-laws, our Board of Directors determines the number of our directors. We currently have seven directors.

The Election

The seven directors whose regular terms of office expire at the upcoming Annual Meeting have been nominated for reelection to our Board of Directors. Information about these directors is given below. If elected, each director would serve until the next annual meeting, until his successor is elected and qualified, or until his earlier death, removal, or resignation.

The Board of Directors has no reason to believe that any of the listed nominees will not serve if elected. If, however, any nominee cannot or will not serve as a director, the persons named on your proxy card may vote for a substitute nominee designated by the Board.

Set forth below is information concerning each of the nominees for director.

Experience; Principal Occupation;

Name	Age	Directorships of Other Public Companies
Bernard Zeichner	60	Mr. Zeichner has been a director since September 1996. Information Concerning the Board of Directors and Its Committees

During fiscal 2004, our Board of Directors held eight meetings. A majority of our Board of Directors of the Company are independent directors as defined in Rule 4200(a)(15) of the listing standards of the National Association of Securities Dealers (NASD). Specifically, five of the seven directors are independent, including Messrs. Del Rossi, Gould, Karp, Mogil and Oddi. The Board of Directors has two standing committees: the Audit Committee and the Compensation Committee. Each of our directors attended at least 75% of the aggregate of the meetings of the Board of Directors and of each committee of which he is a member. Although the Company does not have a formal policy regarding attendance by the Board of Directors at the annual meetings of the Company, all members of the Board of Directors attended the 2004 Annual Meeting.

The Audit Committee, which consists of Messrs. Del Rossi, Gould and Mogil, held eight meetings during fiscal 2003. The Board of Directors has determined that all audit committee members qualify as audit committee financial experts as defined by Item 401(h) of Regulation S-K and are independent as defined in the NASD listing standards. The Audit Committee currently assists the Board of Directors in fulfilling its responsibility for oversight of the quality and integrity of the financial reports of the Company, its financial policies, procedures and reporting process, the audit process, and the Company's system of financial and operating controls. A copy of the charter of the Audit Committee is attached as Exhibit A to this proxy and can also be found on the Internet on Company's website at www.charlotte-russe.com. The Audit Committee's activities during fiscal 2004 are described in the section entitled Report of the Audit Committee.

The Compensation Committee, which consists of Messrs. Karp and Oddi, held six meetings during fiscal 2004. The duties of the Compensation Committee are (i) to exercise the power of the Board of Directors with respect to the administration of, and grant of awards under, the Company's 1999 Equity Incentive Plan and (ii) to review and establish compensation practices and policies for the officers of the Company.

The Company does not currently have a standing Nominating Committee, nor does it have a charter for a Nominating Committee. The Board of Directors believes that a formal Nominating Committee is not necessary because its size and composition allow it to adequately identify and evaluate qualified candidates for directors. All potential nominees are considered by the entire Board of Directors. The Company does not have a formal policy for consideration of director candidates recommended by stockholders because the Board of Directors believes it can consider any such stockholder-recommended candidates on an ad hoc basis. The procedure for suggesting a potential nominee for director is described under the caption Stockholder Proposals, Etc. later in this proxy statement. The Board of Directors will evaluate stockholder-recommended candidates under the same criteria as internally generated candidates. Although the Board does not currently have formal minimum criteria for nominees, substantial relevant business and industry experience would generally be considered important qualifying criteria.

Our non-employee directors currently receive an annual fee of $15,000 plus $500 for each board of director meeting attended and $1,000 for each audit committee meeting attended. Any director may waive these fees, and in fiscal 2004, Messrs. Karp and Oddi waived them. Directors who are employees of the Company are not entitled to any fees or additional compensation for service as members of the Board of Directors or any of its committees. All directors are reimbursed for reasonable travel and other expenses of attending meetings of the Board of Directors and committees of the Board of Directors. In addition, each non-employee director is eligible to participate in the 1999 Equity Incentive Plan. In fiscal 2004, Messrs. Del Rossi, Gould, and Mogil each received options to purchase 2,500 shares of common stock.

Information about ownership of the Company's securities by the nominees for director is included under the heading Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management.

Aggregated Option Exercises in Last Fiscal Year and Fiscal Year-End Option Values

The following table summarizes for each of our executive officers (i) the total number of shares received upon exercise of stock options during the fiscal year ended September 25, 2004, (ii) the aggregate dollar value realized upon such exercise, (iii) the total number of unexercised options, if any, held at September 25, 2004 and (iv) the value of unexercised in-the-money options, if any, held at September 25, 2004. In-the-money options are options where the fair market value of the underlying securities exceeds the exercise or base price of the option. The aggregate value realized upon exercise of a stock option is the difference between the aggregate exercise price of the option and the fair market value of the underlying stock on the date of exercise. The value of unexercised, in-the-money options at fiscal year-end is the difference between the exercise price of the option and the closing sale price of a share of common stock on September 25, 2004, which was $12.10. With respect to unexercised, in-the-money options, actual gains, if any, realized on exercise will depend on the value of the common stock on the date of exercise.

Employment Arrangements with Executive Officers

Edgar Filing: CHARLOTTE RUSSE HOLDING INC - Form DEF 14A

On August 31, 2003, we entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Zeichner that remains effective for one year, automatically extended for successive one year terms until terminated by either party. Under the terms of the employment agreement, Mr. Zeichner has agreed to serve as Chairman of the Board and to perform such executive-level duties as assigned by the Company or its Board of Directors. Mr. Zeichner will receive an annual base salary of $200,000, an annual incentive bonus, and certain medical and other benefits for the term of the agreement. The incentive bonus is determined at the discretion of the Board of Directors. If Mr. Zeichner's employment is terminated without cause or Mr. Zeichner resigns his position as a consequence of material breach of the employment agreement or the Stockholders Agreement, he will be entitled to one year of his base salary at the time of termination, payable in 12 equal monthly installments.

We entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Hoffman dated July 9, 2003 that remains effective through the last day of the Company's 2005 fiscal year. Under the terms of the employment agreement, Mr. Hoffman has agreed to serve as Chief Executive Officer of our operating subsidiary and as a member of the Board of Directors of the Company and each subsidiary. For fiscal 2005, Mr. Hoffman will receive an annual base salary of $577,500, an annual incentive bonus and certain medical and other benefits for fiscal years 2004 and 2005. The incentive bonus will be based on a percentage of up to 0.75% of the Company's earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization, depending on the growth in such earnings. If Mr. Hoffman's employment is terminated without cause or Mr. Hoffman resigns his position as a consequence of material breach of the employment agreement, he will be entitled to one year of his base salary at the time of termination, payable in 12 equal monthly installments.

We have entered into an at-will employment agreement with Mr. Carter under which he will receive an annual base salary, as adjusted, of $300,000. He is entitled to participate in the management bonus program and the benefit programs offered to employees of the Company. If Mr. Carter's employment is terminated for a reason other than cause, as defined in his employment contract, he is entitled to six months of severance benefits, subject to reduction in the event of obtaining new employment prior to the end of the severance period.

Ms. Desrosiers' employment terminated in December 2004. She may receive severance payments up to $100,000 over the next few months pursuant to the terms of an agreement we entered into with her.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

None of our executive officers has served as a director or member of the compensation committee of another entity, one of whose executive officers served as a director or member of our compensation committee. Messrs. Karp and Oddi, the members of the Compensation Committee, are partners of Saunders Karp & Megrue, LLC, which receives an annual fee of $250,000 in exchange for its financial advisory services, as set forth in Certain Relationships and Related Transactions.

Compensation Committee Report

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors is currently composed of two outside directors, Messrs. Karp and Oddi. The Compensation Committee is responsible for setting and administering the policies governing executive officer compensation, including cash compensation and stock ownership programs. The goals of the Company's compensation policy are to attract and retain executive officers who contribute to the Company's overall success, by offering compensation that is competitive in the retail apparel industry for similarly sized companies, to motivate executives to achieve business objectives and to reward them for their achievements. The Company generally uses salary, incentive compensation and stock options to meet these goals.

Salary. The Compensation Committee sets the salary for the Company's Chief Executive Officer within the range of salary that is competitive for similar positions in comparable companies in the retail apparel industry, based in part on a review of industry salary surveys and other publicly available information. The Committee uses the median of the range of base salaries for comparable companies as a target for the Chief Executive Officer's base salary level, and adjusts this amount based on the Chief Executive Officer's experience, tenure, performance and level of equity ownership in the Company.

Incentive Compensation. The Company has developed an incentive bonus program under which the Company's employees are eligible to receive incentive cash bonuses equal to a percentage of their base salary based on annual performance goals set by the Compensation Committee. The Company's Chief Executive Officer approves which employees will be eligible to participate in the incentive bonus program. Generally, bonuses are intended to reward the employees when the Company achieves its business objectives. The Chief Executive Officer is entitled to bonuses in accordance with his employment contract.

Equity Compensation. The Compensation Committee believes that employee equity ownership provides additional motivation to maximize value for the Company's stockholders. Since stock options are granted at market price, the value of the stock options is wholly dependent on an increase in the price of the Company's Common stock. The Compensation Committee believes, therefore, that the stock options align the interests of the employees with those of the stockholders. In general, awards to employees are made taking into account the anticipated contributions by such employees in helping the Company achieve its strategic goals and objectives.

Audit Committee Report

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors currently consists of three directors, Messrs. Del Rossi, Gould, and Mogil, each of whom is an independent director as defined in the NASD listing standards. The primary function of the Audit Committee is to assist the Board of Directors in fulfilling its responsibility for oversight of the quality and integrity of the financial reports of the Company, its financial policies, procedures and reporting process, the audit process and the Company's system of financial and operating controls. A copy of the charter of the Audit Committee is attached as Exhibit A to this proxy and can also be found on the Internet on the Company's website www.charlotte-russe.com.

The Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed with the Company's management the audited financial statements for fiscal 2004. The Audit Committee has also discussed with Ernst & Young LLP various matters related to the financial statements, including those matters required to be discussed pursuant to SAS 61 (Codification of Statements on Auditing Standards, AU 380). The Audit Committee has also received the written disclosures and the letter from Ernst & Young LLP required by the Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), and has discussed with Ernst & Young LLP its independence.

Based on the review and discussion described in the immediately preceding paragraph, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 25, 2004 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Related Party Transactions

During fiscal 2004, we purchased approximately $235,000 of merchandise from Slant, Inc., a manufacturer of women's apparel. Mr. Zeichner's daughter is the President and Chief Executive Officer of Slant and his wife is also a principal officer. Mr. Zeichner's wife and daughter also own a majority of the outstanding equity interests in Slant, Inc. We believe these purchases were on terms no less favorable to us than could have been obtained from a disinterested third party.

Stockholders Agreement

The Company, the SKM Funds and Mr. Bernard Zeichner have entered into a Stockholders Agreement. This agreement provides that (1) so long as the SKM Funds own at least 25% of the total outstanding shares of common stock, they will have the right to nominate three directors and designate the Chairman of the Board of Directors and (2) as long as the SKM Funds own at least 1,820,735 shares of common stock, including shares of stock issuable upon the exercise of outstanding warrants, they will have the right to nominate two directors and include one director elected by the SKM Funds on each committee of the Board of Directors. The Stockholders Agreement grants Mr. Zeichner certain tag along rights in the event of a private sale by the SKM Funds of their shares of common stock. The Stockholders Agreement also grants, subject to limitations and exceptions, demand and piggyback registration rights to the SKM Funds and piggyback registration rights to Mr. Zeichner. The Company is responsible for certain costs of registered offerings in which shares are sold by the SKM Funds and Mr. Zeichner.

The stockholders agreement provides for Saunders Karp & Megrue, LLC, an affiliate of the SKM Funds, to render financial advisory services, including review and analysis of operational results and budgets, to us in exchange for an annual fee of $250,000, payable in advance, plus reimbursement for out-of-pocket expenses. This fee terminates when the SKM Funds own less than 1,820,735 shares of common stock, including shares of common stock issuable upon exercise of outstanding warrants.

SECTION 16(A) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires the Company's officers and directors, and persons who own more than ten percent of the Company's common stock to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership on Forms 3, 4 and 5 with the SEC. Officers, directors and greater than ten-percent beneficial stockholders are required by SEC regulation to furnish to the Company copies of all Forms 3, 4 and 5 they file. Based solely on the Company's review of copies of such forms it has received, the Company believes that all of its officers, directors and greater than ten-percent beneficial owners complied on a timely basis with all filing requirements applicable to them with respect to transactions during fiscal 2004, except that Form 4's were filed late for an option grant to Mr. Mogil, acquisitions of stock by Messrs. Oddi and Karp, and sale of stock by the SKM Funds.

CODE OF ETHICS

Edgar Filing: CHARLOTTE RUSSE HOLDING INC - Form DEF 14A

We have adopted a code of ethics for our principal executive officer, principal financial officer and other individuals performing similar accounting and finance functions for us. This code of ethics is available via the Internet on our website. In the future, should amendments to the code of ethics be required, such amendments will also be posted on our website.

Table of ContentsPROXY SOLICITATION COSTS

The Company will bear all the costs of the solicitation of proxies. Our Board of Directors may arrange with brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to forward solicitation materials to the beneficial owners of the stock held of record by such persons, and the Company may reimburse them for the reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in so doing. In addition to the solicitation of proxies by mail, the Company may use the services of its directors, officers and regular employees (who will receive no compensation therefor in addition to their regular salaries) to solicit proxies personally or by mail or telephone.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

Our Audit Committee selected the firm of Ernst & Young LLP as independent auditors for the Company's financial statements for the fiscal years ending September 25, 2004 and September 24, 2005, respectively. The Company expects that a representative of Ernst & Young LLP will be present at the annual meeting, available to respond to appropriate questions and will have the opportunity to make a statement if he or she desires to do so.

The following table sets forth the aggregate fees billed to us for the fiscal years 2004 and 2003 by Ernst & Young LLP:

	2004	2003
Audit fees	$ 232,500	$ 119,100
Audit-related fees	10,000	4,000
Tax fees	12,000	58,500
All other fees	8,200	23,400
Total	$ 262,700	$ 205,000

Audit fees relate to professional services rendered in connection with the audit of our consolidated financial statements included in Form 10-K and review of our interim consolidated financial statements included in quarterly Form 10-Q reports. The audit fees in fiscal 2004 also include fees related to consents and reviews of registration statements filed with the SEC and the statutory audit required for our Puerto Rico operations.

Audit-related fees relate to professional services rendered in connection with financial and reporting standards associated with the requirements of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002.

Tax fees relate to professional services rendered in connection with preparation of the Puerto Rico tax return and other tax planning services.

Edgar Filing: CHARLOTTE RUSSE HOLDING INC - Form DEF 14A

All other fees relate to professional services other than services reported above, none of which related to financial information system design and implementation services.

The Audit Committee is required to pre-approve the audit and non-audit services performed by our independent auditors in order to assure that the provision of such services does not impair the auditor's independence. The Committee may delegate pre-approval authority to one or more of its members. The member or members to whom such authority is delegated shall report any pre-approval decisions to the Committee at its next scheduled meeting. The Audit Committee pre-approved all of the non-audit services provided by our independent auditors in fiscal 2004.

STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS, ETC.

Stockholders may present proposals for inclusion in the 2005 Proxy Statement and form of proxy relating to that meeting provided they are received by our Secretary no later than September 14, 2005 and are otherwise in compliance with applicable Securities and Exchange Commission regulations.

Stockholders wishing to communicate generally with our Board of Directors may direct any communications to the attention of the Chairman of the Board, at the Company's corporate offices at 4645 Morena Boulevard; San Diego, California 92117. The Company reserves the right to modify this communication process at any time, and any such modifications will be posted on the Internet on the Company's website at www.charlotte-russe.com.

Stockholders wishing to submit candidates for potential nomination as directors to be elected at the 2006 Annual Meeting should submit the candidate's name and other relevant information to the attention of the Chairman of the Board, at the address described above. While the Board does not currently have a formal deadline for considering stockholder nominee suggestions, suggestions should be submitted by the September 14, 2005 deadline for submitting stockholder proposals in order to allow adequate time for consideration in advance of the preparation of proxy materials for the 2006 Annual Meeting.

OTHER MATTERS

The Board of Directors has no knowledge of any other matter that may come before the annual meeting and does not, itself, currently intend to present any other such matter. However, if any such other matters properly come before the meeting or any adjournment of the meeting, the persons named as proxies will have discretionary authority to vote the shares represented by the accompanying proxy in accordance with their own judgment.

AUDIT COMMITTEE CHARTER

MISSION AND ROLE

The Audit Committee (the Committee) will assist the Board of Directors to fulfill its responsibility for oversight of the quality and integrity of the financial reports of the Company, its financial policies, procedures and reporting process, the audit process, and the Company's system of financial and operating controls.

MEMBERSHIP AND COMPOSITION

The Committee shall consist of a minimum of three outside Directors, one of whom shall be the Chairperson of the Committee. Members of the Audit Committee may not receive any compensation from the Company except the fees that they receive for service as a member of the Board of Directors or any committee thereof. All members shall satisfy the independence requirements of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and The Nasdaq Stock Market, Inc. as such requirements are interpreted by the Board of Directors in its business judgment. Each member of the Committee shall not have participated in the preparation of the financial statements of the company at any time during the past three years. Members shall have a working understanding of finance and accounting practices and the duties and responsibilities of the Committee, and at least one member shall be designated as the financial expert, as defined by applicable legislation and regulation. Members should serve on the Committee for at least three consecutive years before being reassigned. Committee appointments will be submitted to the Board of Directors for approval.

The Committee shall meet at least four times per year on dates generally coinciding with Board of Directors meetings and shall report regularly to the Board of Directors. The Committee shall meet separately periodically with management, Internal Audit, and the independent auditor to discuss issues and concerns warranting Committee attention. The Committee shall provide sufficient opportunity for Internal Audit and the independent auditor to meet privately with the members of the Committee. The Chairperson of the Committee is authorized to call a meeting and set the agenda as necessary to effectively carry out the Committee's responsibilities. Charlotte Russe management shall be a participant in scheduled meetings of the Committee unless otherwise instructed.

CORPORATE POLICY AND AUTHORITY

The Committee is an integral part of the corporate structure. As a standing committee of the Board of Directors, it shall provide assistance to the Board of Directors in fulfilling their oversight responsibilities to the stockholders, potential stockholders, investment community and others relating to the Company's financial statements, financial reporting process, and systems of internal controls.

The Committee is empowered to appoint, compensate, oversee, and replace, if necessary, the public accounting firm employed by the organization to conduct the annual audit. This firm will report directly to the Committee.

The Committee is empowered to engage and compensate independent counsel and other advisers, as it deems necessary to carry out its duties.

In discharging its oversight role, the Committee is empowered to investigate any matter brought to its attention with full access to all books, records, facilities and personnel of the Company, in addition to open and direct access to the directors, independent auditors and financial management of the Company. The Committee may delegate authority to subcommittees, including the authority to pre-approve all auditing and permitted non-audit services, providing that such decisions are presented to the full Committee at its next scheduled meeting.

Table of Contents

The Committee shall determine, and the Company shall provide for, the appropriate funding for the payment of ordinary administrative expenses of the Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties.

RESPONSIBILITIES AND PROCESSES

The primary responsibility for the Company's financial reporting and internal operating controls is vested in senior operating management, as overseen by the Board of Directors. The Committee serves as the representative of the Board of Directors for the general oversight of Company affairs in the area of financial reporting and internal operating controls. In carrying out its responsibilities, the Committee believes that its policies and procedures should remain flexible, in order to react to changing conditions and circumstances. The Committee shall take the appropriate actions to set the overall corporate tone for quality financial reporting, sound business risk practices and ethical behavior.

In meeting its responsibilities, the Committee is expected to:

Approve or pre-approve all auditing services (including comfort letters and statutory audits) and all permitted non-audit services by the independent auditor.

Provide independent and direct communication between the independent auditor and the Board of Directors.

Confer with the independent auditor, management, and Internal Audit regarding the scope of their recurring examinations of the books and records of the Company and direct special attention of the auditors to specific matters or areas deemed by the Committee or the auditors to be of special significance. Such discussion shall include inquiries of the adequacy and effectiveness of the accounting and financial controls.

Discuss with management, Internal Audit, and the independent auditor the adequacy and effectiveness of the accounting and financial controls, including the Company's policies and procedures to assess, monitor, and manage business risk, and legal and ethical compliance programs (e.g., Company's code of conduct).

Receive and review reports of the independent auditor discussing 1) all critical accounting policies and practices to be used in the firm's audit of the Company's financial statements, 2) all alternative treatments of financial information within generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) that have been discussed with management, ramifications of the use of such alternative disclosures and treatments, and the treatment preferred by the independent auditor, and 3) other material written communications between the independent auditor and management, such as any management letter or schedule of unadjusted differences.

Discuss with the independent auditors any disclosed relationships or services that may impact the objectivity or independence of the independent auditors.

Review management's assertion on its assessment of the effectiveness of internal controls as of the end of the most recent fiscal year and the independent auditor's report on management's assertion.

Confer with the independent auditor, management, and Internal Audit, if appropriate, regarding the scope of any supplemental reviews of audits, as the Committee may deem desirable.

Review the financial statements contained in the quarterly (Form 10-Q) and annual reports (Form 10-K) prior to filing them with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Consider whether the information contained in these documents is reasonable and consistent, and discuss the results of the quarterly reviews, annual audits, and any other matters required to be communicated by the independent auditor under generally accepted auditing standards.

Table of Contents

Review the Company's audited financial statements and annual report, along with the independent auditor's opinion rendered with respect to such financial statements, including judgment about the quality, not just acceptability, of accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments, and the clarity of the disclosures in the financial statements.

Prepare information and reports as may be required for inclusion in the Company's annual proxy statement.

Review and discuss earnings press releases, as well as financial information and earnings guidance provided to analysts and rating agencies.

Review procedures for the receipt, retention, and treatment of complaints received by the Company regarding accounting, internal accounting controls, or auditing matters, and the confidential, anonymous submission by employees of the Company of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters.

Review Committee charter on an annual basis, recommending any change to the Board of Directors.

Review and evaluate the Committee's composition and performance at least annually.

INTERNAL AUDIT

The Committee shall review with management and Internal Audit the charter, plans, activities, staffing, and organizational structure of the internal audit function. It will ensure there are no unjustified restrictions or limitations, and review and concur in the appointment, replacement, or dismissal of the Director of Internal Audit. The Committee shall review the effectiveness of the internal audit function. On a regular basis, it will meet separately with Internal Audit to discuss any matters that the Committee or Internal Audit believes should be discussed privately.

RELATIONSHIP WITH INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

The Committee shall be directly responsible for the appointment, retention, and termination of the independent auditor, and the independent auditor must report directly to the Committee. It shall review the independent auditor's proposed audit scope and approach, including coordination of audit effort with Internal Audit. On a regular basis, it will meet separately with the independent auditor to discuss any matters that the committee or auditors believe should be discussed privately. The Committee will also review the performance of the independent auditor, and exercise final approval on the appointment or discharge of the auditor.

Employees or former employees of the independent auditor are eligible for hire by the company if they have no influence over the accountings firm's operations or financial policies; has no capital balances in the accounting firm; has no financial arrangement with the accounting firm; and has not been a member of the audit engagement team within a one year period preceding the employment date.

At least annually, the Committee shall obtain and review a report by the independent auditor describing the firm's internal quality-control procedures; any material issues raised by the most recent internal quality-control review, or peer review, of the firm, or by any inquiry or investigation by governmental or professional authorities, within the preceding five years, respecting one or more independent audits carried out by the firm, and any steps taken to deal with any such issues. The Committee shall also review, evaluate and discuss formal reports, at least annually, from the independent auditor regarding the auditor's independence including a description of all relationships between the independent auditor and the Company and recommend to the Board of Directors actions to satisfy the Board of the independence of the auditor.

In the course of its review, the Committee shall review and evaluate the lead partner of the independent auditor, ensure the rotation of the lead audit partner every five years and other audit partners every seven years, and consider whether there should be regular rotation of the audit firm itself. The Committee shall present its conclusions with respect to the independent auditor to the full Board of Directors.
